- Christopher Adams, Esq. appearing in case C212667; Dominic Gentile, Esq. and Paola Armeni, Esq. appearing in consolidated case C241394, with Defendant Luis Hidalgo Jr. Colloquy regarding trial date. Counsel announced ready for trial which should last two weeks with 26 witnesses. Mr. Arrascada stated opposition to parts of the State's Fourth Amended Information. Mr. Digiacomo stated that the Jury must be advised there are two different conspiracies and that he believes it was addressed as to Luis Hidalgo Jr. He further advised that it will require a special verdict form, which is not before the Court at this time.

Consolidated case C241394: STATE'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE THE TESTIMONY OF VALERIE FRIDLAND...DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO SUPPRESS EVIDENCE...CALENDAR CALL Arguments by Mr. Gentile regarding the linguistics expert, Valerie Fridland. He stated that the use of pronouns employed by Ms. Espindola in the tapes in which she didn't know she was being recorded and the Grand Jury tapes were different and that the expert will be able to evaluate what was said in order to assist the jury. Opposition by Mr. Digiaco. The Court stated that this matter will be reviewed further and a ruling will be made on 1/23/09. As to Defendant's Motion to Suppress Evidence, Mr. Gentile submitted on the pleadings. He added that this was a general warrant; the issue regarding Family Court signing the warrant needed to be raised now, or it can't be raised later in front of the Supreme Court. COURT FINDS, Family Court has jurisdiction to sign warrants. Mr. Gentile stated the warrant left too much to the discretion of the searching officers, which violates the Fourth Amendment. Mr. Digiaco argued that each and every one of the witnesses is tied to a specific crime and there was probable cause for each item listed. COURT FINDS, it was not so general as to be considered a general warrant and ORDERED, Defendant's Motion to Suppress is DENIED. Colloquy regarding pleadings and whether or not new Information would be filed. Additionally, discussion ensued as to possibly striking parts of the Information/Indictment. COURT ORDERED, a ruling will be given on 1/23/09 following further review of the Court's minutes and transcripts.

COURT ORDERED, ORDERED, trial date VACATED and RESET for a firm setting.

- Dominic Gentile, Esq. and Paola Armeni, Esq. appearing for Luis Hidalgo, Jr. in consolidated case C241394.

Hidalgo, Jr. presence WAIVED. Mr. Digiacommo stated that questions arose pertaining to the 4/17/08 transcript; there are multiple meanings as to what order on 1/23/19 means. He asked if the Court made a legal determination the Hidalgo, III is not admissible. The Court stated that right now it cannot say automatically that this is an ongoing part of conspiracy and part of the cover up of the conspiracy; not prepared to say this is a conspiracy. If the evidence ties it in, the State can argue they are not able to say factually that this is part of intentional conspiracy. Case law shows there may have been a second conspiracy; the initial conspiracy involved payment; the second conspiracy involved getting rid of Mr. Counts. Mr. Digiacomo read the Federal case law; Nevada law relates to ongoing acts of concealment. Following further arguments by counsel, COURT FINDS, the issue of Hidalgo, III solicitation of murder is up to the defense to bring in; the Court cannot say for certain that is was part of the first conspiracy.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Dominic Gentile and Paola Armeni appearing in consolidated case C241394. The Court noted that the question is regarding DeAngelo Carrol's statement. Statement by Ms. Armeni regarding Carrol's statement and his use of the pronoun "you". Mr. Digiacomo argued that what the jury acted appropriately with what the Court instructed them to do. Mr. Gentile advised that a Crawford problem now exists as Carrol never took the stand in this trial. Additionally, the question is what is the magnitude of error of the jury not following their instructions. The Court stated its belief that there was no intentional misconduct. Mr. Gentile cited the Valdez case, which was decided last November by the Nevada Supreme Court; the Nevada statute is based on the advisory committees first draft of the code. Mr. Digiacomo argued that the law is on the State's side in this issue and the Court should not consider what happened in the jury room during deliberations. COURT FINDS, it is very clear that if anything is considered, there will be an Evidentiary Hearing or a ruling at a later date. COURT ORDERED, parties are to brief the issue; objections are due by 5/15/09 and the response is due by 5/22/09.

Mr. Gentile requested that the sentencing be continued as the presentence investigation report was sent to the wrong law firm. Additionally, once the report was received, he found several mistakes in the report. COURT ORDERED, it will reluctantly continue the sentencing, however counsel must file a motion with the Court identifying the alleged errors in the presentence investigation report.

- The Court noted that the Defendant is currently being held in North Las Vegas and a Revocation hearing needs to be set. Matter trailed for Mr. Jackson's appearance.

Matter recalled with Mr. Jackson present. He stated he has a Federal trial coming up which may last several months, and doesn't think he will be able to continue representing the Defendant. The Court stated that since he has been with the Defendant throughout the case, he should continue representing him; the matter will be continued to accommodate Mr. Jackson's schedule. Mr.

Digiacommo advised the Defendant has been charged with four separate home invasions and will be in custody pending preliminary hearings in those cases. COURT ORDERED, matter set for revocation hearing.

- OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Oral motion by Mr. Figler to continue the trial as he is not adequately prepared to represent the Defendant in this death penalty case. He added that he requested that the case be tried as a non-death penalty case and that he has not had adequate time to fully review the jury questionnaires. The Court noted that the questionnaires were ready for Mr. Figler's review last week; because this is a death penalty case, the questionnaires were mandatory. Mr. Figler informed the Court that due to the death of his father, the fact that he was recently hospitalized and that he recently switched firms, he is not prepared to try this case. The Court stated that everyone knew that Carroll was wearing a wire long before Mr. Figler experienced personal problems; this was the issue from the inception of the case and it is inexcusable that Mr. Figler is not prepared. Mr. Bunin advised that he is not comfortable going forward at this time. Mr. DiGiacomo stated his belief that Mr. Figler is posturing to have the death penalty taken off of the table and have the information regarding the wires excluded; in that case the jury questionnaires are not necessary. Mr. Bunin stated that he has not been able to speak to Mr. Figler during the last two months to determine what his trial preparation is. The Court noted that has been a long history of continuances by Mr. Figler and he was told that one more request for a continuance would result in his removal from the case.

CONFERENCE AT BENCH. Upon Court's inquiry the Defendant stated that in four years, he has spoken to Mr. Figler for one and on-half hours; he advised that he doesn't want Mr. Figler representing him any longer. COURT ORDERED, Dayvid Figler is REMOVED from the case; the matter is referred to Drew Christiansen to appoint a 250 qualified attorney. Mr. Figler stated he will turn over all of the paperwork and Discovery to Mr. Bunin. COURT ORDERED, CONTINUED for Confirmation of Counsel/Dan Albregts and to reset trial. FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF
LAW AND ORDER

DATE OF HEARING: DECEMBER 15, 2014
TIME OF HEARING: 10:00 AM

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable VALERIE ADAIR, District Judge, on the Day 8th of December, 2014, the Defendant not being present, represented by RICHARD CORNELL, Esq., the Respondent being represented by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, by and through MARC DIGIACOMO, Chief Deputy District Attorney and GIANCARLO PESCI, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, no arguments of counsel, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This is Defendant's Supplemental Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. On January 23, 2009, LUIS ALONSO HIDALGO, aka, Luis Alonso Hidalgo III (hereinafter "Defendant")

1 was charged by way of 4th Amended Information with Conspiracy to Commit Murder, Murder
2 With Use of a Deadly Weapon, and two counts of Solicitation to Commit Murder. The last
3 two counts were based on Defendant's solicitation of the murder of two witnesses to the crimes
4 charged in the first two counts.

5 On January 27, 2009, Defendant proceeded to trial with his father, Luis Hidalgo, Jr.
6 ("Hidalgo, Jr."), as his co-defendant. Defendant and Hidalgo, Jr. were each represented by 7 their own counsel, respectively. However, Defendant and Hidalgo, Jr. shared a similar and 8 compatible defense. On February 17, 2009, the jury returned a verdict of guilty against 9 Defendant on all four counts. On March 10, 2009, Defendant filed a Motion for Judgment of 10 Acquittal, or in the Alternative Motion for New Trial. The State filed its Opposition on March 11 17, 2009, and Defendant's Reply followed on April 15, 2009. The court denied the motion on 12 June 23, 2009.

13 On June 23, 2009, Defendant was sentenced to 12 months in the Clark County
14 Detention Center (CCDC) with respect to COUNT 1, 120 months to Life in the Nevada
15 Department of Corrections (NDC) plus an equal and consecutive 120 months to Life in the
16 NDC with respect to COUNT 2, and 24 - 72 months in the NDC on each of COUNTS 3 & 4,
17 respectively. Sentences for all counts were to run concurrently. Defendant received 1,492
18 days credit for time served. A Judgment of Conviction was filed on July 10, 2009. Defendant
19 appealed his conviction on July 16, 2009, and the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed on June
20 21, 2012. Rehearing was denied on July 27, 2012, and En Banc reconsideration was denied
21 November 13, 2012. Remittitur issued on April 10, 2013.

22 On January 22, 2014, Defendant filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-
23 Conviction). Before the State filed a response, Defendant's counsel informed the Court and 24 the State that he would be filing a Supplemental Petition, and that the State could respond to 25 the Supplemental rather than the original petition. In the Supplemental Petition, Defendant
26 raised five grounds of error alleging ineffective assistance of both trial and appellate counsel.
27 The State filed its response on July 16, 2014. This Court held an Evidentiary Hearing in the 28 matter on September 23, 2014, and heard argument on Grounds 1, 2, 3 & 5. Pursuant to a

1 request by the State, the Court set a second Evidentiary Hearing to address Ground 4, and
2 delayed making its findings on any of Defendant's grounds of error until that hearing. On
3 December 15, 2014, the second Evidentiary Hearing was held, and after hearing testimony and
4 argument on Defendant's Ground 4, the Court denied the Supplemental Petition in total. That
5 denial is based on the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

6 In order to assert a claim for ineffective assistance of counsel, a defendant must prove
7 that he was denied "reasonably effective assistance" of counsel by satisfying the two-prong
8 test set forth in Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686-87, 104 S.Ct. 2052, 2063-64
9 (1984). Under Strickland, a defendant must show: 1) that his counsel's representation fell
10 below an objective standard of reasonableness; and 2) that but for counsel's errors, there is a
11 reasonable probability the result of the proceeding would have been different. See Strickland, 12 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S.Ct. at 2065, 2068. The court begins with the presumption of 13 effectiveness and then must determine whether the defendant has demonstrated by a 14 preponderance of the evidence that counsel was ineffective. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001,
15 103 P.3d 35 (2004). The court will "judge the reasonableness of counsel's challenged conduct
16 on the facts of the particular case, viewed as of the time of counsel's conduct." Strickland, 17 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S.Ct. at 2066.

18 Counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or arguments. See 19 Ennis v. State, 122 Nev. 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006). Trial counsel "has the 20 immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if and when to object, which witnesses, if 21 any, to call, and what defenses to develop." Wainwright v. Sykes, 433 U.S. 72, 93, 97 S. Ct.
22 2497, 2510 (1977); see also Rhyne v. State, 118 Nev. 1, 8, 38 P.3d 163, 167 (2002). Even if
23 a defendant can demonstrate that his counsel's representation fell below an objective standard
24 of reasonableness, he must still demonstrate prejudice and show a reasonable probability that,
25 but for counsel's errors, the result of the trial would have been different. McNelson v. State,
26 115 Nev. 396, 403, 990 P.2d 1263, 1268 (1999) (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687). "A
27 reasonable probability is a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome." Id.
28 (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-89, 694).

1 In Ground 1, Defendant claims his trial counsel was ineffective for not tendering a jury
2 instruction pursuant to the Nevada Supreme Court's decision in Moore v. State, 117 Nev. 659,
3 27 P.3d 447, (2001), and for failing to file a motion pursuant to NRS 175.381(2). With respect
4 to the jury instruction claim, Moore only prohibits a Deadly Weapon enhancement on a
5 conviction and sentence for a charge of conspiracy, not a conviction for murder on a conspiracy
6 theory of liability. As such, Defendant's proposed instruction, instructing the jury not to find
7 the existence of the deadly weapon enhancement if the jury were to find Defendant guilty of 8 Second Degree murder on a conspiracy theory, would be an inaccurate statement of law.
9 Proffering a legally incorrect jury instruction would have been futile, as the instruction would
10 have been rightfully rejected by the district court. Moreover, Defendant's trial counsel ensured
11 that a proper jury instruction was given based on Brooks v. State, 124 Nev. 203, 180 P.3d 657
12 (2008), which is the current Nevada law controlling whether an unarmed co-conspirator or 13 aider and abettor is subject to an enhancement for use of a deadly weapon. Moreover,
14 Defendant's trial counsel did in fact file a post-trial Motion for Judgment of Acquittal or, in
15 the Alternative, a New Trial, pursuant to NRS 175.381, challenging in part the deadly weapon
16 enhancement on the Second Degree Murder With Use of a Deadly Weapon conviction.
17 Defendant has not established that counsel's decision not to proffer the inaccurate instruction
18 fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and has not established prejudice by 19 showing a reasonable probability that the outcome of the proceedings would have been 20 different had the proposed instruction been tendered. Therefore, this claim is denied.

21 In Ground 2, Defendant claims his trial counsel was ineffective for not tendering a jury
22 instruction stating that out-of-court statements made by a co-conspirator may not be used
23 against a defendant if the statements themselves are the only evidence that the defendant
24 participated in the conspiracy. Defendant has not shown that trial counsel's performance fell 25 below an objective standard of reasonableness, as the proffered instruction would have been
26 duplicitous to the points of law contained in Jury Instruction No. 40 given at trial. "It is not
27 error for a court to refuse [a jury] instruction when the law in that instruction is adequately
28 covered by another instruction given to the jury." Rose v. State, 123 Nev. 194, 205, 163 P.3d

1 408, 415 (2007) (quoting Doleman v. State, 107 Nev. 409, 416, 812 P.2d 1287, 1291 (1991)).
2 Instruction No. 40 explained that: “Whenever there is slight evidence that a conspiracy
3 existed, and that the defendant was one of the members of the conspiracy, then the statements
4 and acts by any person likewise a member maybe considered by the jury,....” As such, the
5 proffer of a duplicate instruction would have been futile. Thus, counsel cannot be deemed
6 ineffective for not proffering such an instruction. Moreover, Defendant fails to allege with
7 specificity facts which would entitle him to relief because he fails to identify which statements,
8 if any, he feels the jury would have disregarded and/or that the district court should not have
9 admitted and fails to provide any citations to the record. Therefore, Defendant has failed to 10 demonstrate that, but for counsel’s alleged errors, the outcome of the proceedings would have 11 been different.

12 Defendant further alleges in Ground 2 that his appellate counsel was ineffective for 13 failing to raise the instant version of this particular issue on direct appeal. Effectiveness of 14 appellate counsel is also addressed under the Strickland standard. Foster v. State, 121 Nev.
15 165, 111 P.3d 1083 (2005). There is a strong presumption that appellate counsel’s
16 performance was reasonable and fell within “the wide range of reasonable professional 17 assistance.” See United States v. Aguirre, 912 F.2d 555, 560 (2nd Cir. 1990); citing Strickland,
18 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S.Ct. at 2065. “[I]n order to establish prejudice based on deficient
19 assistance of appellate counsel, the petitioner must show that the omitted issue would have had 20 a reasonable probability of success on appeal.” Foster, 121 Nev. at 170, 111 P.3d at 1087
21 (citing Lara v. State, 120 Nev. 177, 183-84, 87 P.3d 528, 532 (2004)); see also Duhamel v.
22 Collins, 955 F.2d 962, 967 (5th Cir. 1992); Heath, 941 F.2d at 1132. “Appellate counsel is 23 not required to raise every non-frivolous or meritless issue to provide effective assistance.”
24 Id. (quoting Lara, 120 Nev. at 184, 87 P.3d at 532). Moreover, where an issue has already
25 been decided on the merits by the Nevada Supreme Court, the Court’s ruling is law of the case,
26 and the issue will not be revisited. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 34 P.3d 519 (2001). This 27 rule cannot be avoided by a more detailed and precisely focused argument subsequently made 28

1 after reflection upon the previous proceedings.” Hall v. State, 91 Nev. 314, 316, 535 P.2d 797,
2 799 (1975).

3 Defendant’s appellate counsel challenged Jury Instruction No. 40 on direct appeal, and
4 the Nevada Supreme Court found the instruction to be a proper statement of the law concerning
5 the admissibility of co-conspirator statements as set forth in McDowell v. State, 103 Nev. 527, 6 746 P.2d 149 (1987). Defendant cannot now avoid this conclusion by slightly modifying his
7 argument by making a claim that the McDowell holding should be reevaluated. That argument
8 is without merit. As such, appellate counsel was not required to raise this version of the 9 argument on appeal, as it is frivolous, and cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to do so.
10 Defendant has also failed to show that this claim would have had a reasonable probability of 11 success on appeal had it been raised. Therefore, Defendant’s appellate counsel cannot be 12 deemed ineffective, and the claims contained in Ground 2 are denied.

13 In Ground 3, Defendant claims his trial counsel was ineffective for not objecting to Jury
14 Instructions 19, 20, and 22, for not arguing that a jury instruction pursuant to People v.
15 Prettyman, 14 Cal. 4th 248, 926 P.2d 1013 (1996) should have been given, and for not
16 tendering an instruction that to return a second degree murder guilty verdict, the Defendant’s
17 acts must have demonstrated an abandoned and malignant heart and have been the immediate 18 and direct cause of the victim’s death. The first claim is partially belied by the record. Counsel
19 for Defendant and counsel for Defendant’s father worked together in preparing and objecting
20 to jury instructions, and an objection by either was intended and understood by the parties and
21 the court as an objection made on behalf of both defendants. In this manner, Jury Instruction
22 No. 19 and Jury Instruction No. 22 were objected to by one or both sets of counsel. Further,
23 Defendant has not demonstrated that counsel’s performance fell below an objective standard
24 of reasonableness in not objecting to Jury Instruction No. 20. That instruction correctly
25 instructed the jury regarding liability for crimes via aiding and abetting. Bolden v. State, 121
26 Nev. 914, 922-23, 124 P.3d 195, 201 (2005); Sharma v. State, 118 Nev. 648, 652-58, 56 P.3d
27 868, 870-74 (2002). As such, an argument by counsel to the contrary would have been futile
28 and meritless.

1 Moreover, Instructions 19 & 22 accurately stated that under Nevada law, Second
2 Degree Murder can be a general intent crime (see Poole v. State, 97 Nev. 175, 178-79, 625
3 P.2d 1163, 1165 (1981)), and that under a conspiracy or aiding and abetting theory of liability,
4 a defendant is liable for the reasonably foreseeable consequences of general intent crimes.
5 Bolden, 121 Nev. at 922-23, 124 P.3d at 201; Sharma, 118 Nev. at 652-58, 56 P.3d at 870-74.
6 Instruction 22 correctly distinguished that a defendant is only liable as a co-conspirator for the 7 offenses he specifically intended to be committed. Id. Thus, counsel's failure to object to 8 these instructions did not constitute ineffective assistance.

9 Defendant likewise fails to establish that counsel erred by not tendering an instruction
10 pursuant to Prettyman, because such an instruction would have been duplicitous to Jury
11 Instructions 6-25 given at trial and thus would have been rejected by the district court. For 12 this reason, the claim would have also been rejected on direct appeal. Similarly, Defendant
13 fails to show that counsel erred by not tendering a jury instruction explaining that second 14 degree felony murder requires proof of an abandoned and malignant heart, because under 15 Nevada law, the offense of second degree felony murder satisfies the implied
16 malice/abandoned and malignant heart requirement. See Sherriff v. Morris, 99 Nev. 109, 112-
17 117, 659 P.2d 852, 855-58 (1983). Thus, tendering a jury instruction to the contrary would 18 have been futile and meritless, and the issue would have been likewise rejected on appeal.

19 Defendant further fails to demonstrate that counsel erred by not tendering a jury
20 instruction pursuant to Rose v. State, 127 Nev. ___, 255 P.3d 291 (2011) or Ramirez v. State,
21 126 Nev. ___, 235 P.3d 619 (2011), instructing the jury that they must find a direct and
22 immediate causal relationship between Defendant's action and the victim's death. Because 23 these cases were decided after Defendant was convicted, trial counsel had no duty to request
24 an instruction pursuant to these holdings. Finally, Defendant argues his appellate counsel erred
25 in not raising the same issue on appeal. However, this claim is without merit as the issue was 26 not available to appellate counsel because it was not preserved for appeal by trial counsel.
27 Nevada applies new rules of state law retroactively to cases pending on appeal, before
28 conviction is final on direct appeal, only where the issue was preserved for appeal in the district

1 court. Richmond v. State, 118 Nev. 924, 928-29, 53 P.3d 1249, 1252 (2002). Defendant has
2 not met his burden in showing that trial and appellate counsel's performance was objectively
3 unreasonable. Defendant fails to establish prejudice, as he cannot show a reasonable
4 probability that that but for counsel's alleged errors the outcome of his trial would have been
5 different, or that his proposed claims would have had a reasonable probability of success on
6 appeal. Therefore, neither trial nor appellate counsel rendered ineffective performance and 7 the claims in Ground 3 are denied.

8 In Ground 4, Defendant argues his trial counsel was ineffective for not seeking
9 severance of Defendant's trial from his co-defendant, Hidalgo, Jr., when Defendant attempted
10 to admit testimony of a witness from the trial of Kenneth Counts and Hidalgo, Jr.'s counsel
11 objected on the grounds that the testimony was prejudicial to Hidalgo, Jr. In order to promote 12 efficiency and equitable outcomes, Nevada law favors trying multiple defendants together.
13 Jones v. State, 111 Nev. 848, 853, 899 P.2d 544, 547 (1995). A defendant is only entitled to 14 a severed trial if he presents facts that sufficiently demonstrate that a joint trial would result in 15 substantial prejudice. Rowland v. State, 118 Nev. 31, 44, 39 P.3d 114, 122 (2002) (citing NRS
16 174.165). "Generally, where persons have been jointly indicted they should be tried jointly,
17 absent compelling reasons to the contrary." Id., 39 P.3d at 122 (quotation omitted). Further,
18 the court not only considers the potential prejudice to the defendant, but also prejudice to the 19 State "resulting from two time-consuming, expensive and duplicitous trials." Id., 39 P.3d at 20 122 (quotation omitted). Courts will find a compelling reason to try cases separately when it
21 appears that a joint trial will be unduly prejudicial to one defendant. See Bruton v. United 22 States, 391 US 123 (1968); NRS 174.165.

23 Defendant has not shown that counsel's performance fell below an objective standard
24 of reasonableness, because filing a motion for severance would have been futile. Defendant
25 concedes that Hidalgo, Jr. and he shared a similar and compatible defense throughout trial.
26 However, the denial of Defendant's attempt to admit the prior testimony at issue was addressed
27 on appeal. See Hidalgo, III v. State, Docket No. 54272, Order of Affirmance (June 21, 2012).
28 Therein, the Nevada Supreme Court upheld the district court's exclusion of the prior testimony

1 and ruled that the prior testimony was inadmissible due to evidentiary rules, not because of
2 prejudice against one of the co-defendants. Id. at 6-7. Therefore, the prior testimony would
3 have been inadmissible in severed trials, just as it was in Defendant's joint trial. As such,
4 Defendant has failed to demonstrate that a joint trial was at any point unduly or substantially
5 prejudicial as to warrant a successful motion to sever, and therefore trial counsel cannot be
6 deemed ineffective for not making such a motion. Finally, Defendant has failed to demonstrate 7 that, but for counsel's alleged errors, the outcome of his trial would have been different. As 8 such, Defendant's trial counsel provided effective assistance and the claim contained in 9 Ground 4 is denied.

10 In Ground 5, Defendant claims his trial counsel was ineffective for not filing a motion
11 to sever COUNTS 3 & 4, and that his appellate counsel was ineffective for not raising this
12 issue on appeal. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same indictment or information
13 in a separate count for each offense if the offenses charged, whether felonies or misdemeanors
14 or both, are: 1) Based on the same act or transaction; or 2) Based on two or more acts or 15 transactions connected together or constituting parts of a common scheme or plan. NRS
16 173.115. Where evidence of one charge would be cross-admissible at a separate trial on 17 another charge, then both charges may be tried together and need not be severed. Mitchell v.
18 State, 105 Nev. 735, 738, 782 P.2d 1340, 1342 (1989) (internal citations omitted). Cross-
19 admissibility is recognized in the "connected together" language of NRS 173.115. Weber v.
20 State, 121 Nev. 554, 573, 119 P.3d 107, 120-21 (2005). "To establish that joinder was
21 [unfairly] prejudicial 'requires more than a mere showing that severance might have made
22 acquittal more likely.' Rather, the defendant carries the heavy burden of showing an abuse of 23 discretion by the district court." Id. at 574-75, 121.

24 Evidence of other crimes, wrongs or acts is not admissible to prove the character of a
25 person in order to show that the person acted in conformity therewith. It may, however, be
26 admissible for other purposes such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan,
27 knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident. NRS 48.045(2). For such evidence to
28 be admissible, it must be relevant, proven by clear and convincing evidence, and its probative

1 value must not be outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice. Weber, 121 Nev. At 574-75,
2 119 P.3d at 121. "The motive exception [of NRS 48.045(2) is] applicable where the charged
3 crime was motivated by a desire to hide the prior bad act." Richmond v. State, 118 Nev. 924,
4 933, 59 P.3d 1249, 1255 (2002). Evidence of another act or crime which is so closely related
5 to an act in controversy or a crime charged that an ordinary witness cannot describe the act in
6 controversy or the crime charged without referring to the other act or crime shall not be
7 excluded, but at the request of an interested party, a cautionary instruction shall be given
8 explaining the reason for its admission. NRS 48.035(3).

9 First, Defendant has not shown that his trial counsel's performance was objectively
10 unreasonable, because a motion to sever at the trial stage would have been futile as it would
11 have been denied by the district court. As such, the same issue would have likewise been a
12 frivolous argument on appeal. Defendant was charged in COUNTS 3 & 4 of the 4th Amended
13 Indictment for soliciting the murders of two witnesses to the crimes charged in COUNTS 1 &
14 2. Thus, the evidence of solicitation would have been admissible in separate trials even if the 15 counts were separated, as it was relevant to Defendant's guilt, his participation/identity,
16 consciousness of guilt, his motive, and his intent for the crimes charged in COUNTS 1 & 2.
17 Defendant concedes that there was overwhelming evidence of his solicitation, thus it was 18 proven by more than clear and convincing evidence. Finally, the probative value was not 19 substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice because Defendant's defense was 20 that he was not part of the conspiracy. Therefore, again, the solicitation evidence was highly
21 probative of identity, motive, participation, guilt, and consciousness of guilt for COUNTS 1
22 & 2. Further, the evidence of COUNTS 1 & 2 was also cross-admissible pursuant to both NRS
23 48.045(2) and NRS 48.035(3) as evidence of motive for COUNTS 3 & 4 that was so closely
24 related to those counts that witnesses could not describe the solicitation charges without 25 discussing the crimes in COUNTS 1 & 2. Thus, a motion to sever would have been futile, and 26 counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to file such a futile request. Similarly,
27 Defendant cannot show that the claim had a reasonable probability of success on appeal.
28 Therefore, Defendant's counsel was not ineffective, and the claims in Ground 5 are denied.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Post-Conviction Relief shall be, and it is, hereby denied.

DATED this 6th day of March, 2015.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

DATE OF HEARING: DECEMBER 15, 2014
TIME OF HEARING: 10:00 AM

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable VALERIE ADAIR, District Judge, on the Day 8th of December, 2014, the Defendant not being present, represented by RICHARD CORNELL, Esq., the Respondent being represented by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, by and through MARC DIGIACOMO, Chief Deputy District Attorney and GIANCARLO PESCI, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, no arguments of counsel, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This is Defendant's Supplemental Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. On January 23, 2009, LUIS ALONSO HIDALGO, aka, Luis Alonso Hidalgo III (hereinafter "Defendant")

1 was charged by way of 4th Amended Information with Conspiracy to Commit Murder, Murder
2 With Use of a Deadly Weapon, and two counts of Solicitation to Commit Murder. The last
3 two counts were based on Defendant's solicitation of the murder of two witnesses to the crimes
4 charged in the first two counts.

5 On January 27, 2009, Defendant proceeded to trial with his father, Luis Hidalgo, Jr.
6 ("Hidalgo, Jr."), as his co-defendant. Defendant and Hidalgo, Jr. were each represented by 7 their own counsel, respectively. However, Defendant and Hidalgo, Jr. shared a similar and 8 compatible defense. On February 17, 2009, the jury returned a verdict of guilty against 9 Defendant on all four counts. On March 10, 2009, Defendant filed a Motion for Judgment of 10 Acquittal, or in the Alternative Motion for New Trial. The State filed its Opposition on March 11 17, 2009, and Defendant's Reply followed on April 15, 2009. The court denied the motion on 12 June 23, 2009.

13 On June 23, 2009, Defendant was sentenced to 12 months in the Clark County
14 Detention Center (CCDC) with respect to COUNT 1, 120 months to Life in the Nevada
15 Department of Corrections (NDC) plus an equal and consecutive 120 months to Life in the
16 NDC with respect to COUNT 2, and 24 - 72 months in the NDC on each of COUNTS 3 & 4,
17 respectively. Sentences for all counts were to run concurrently. Defendant received 1,492
18 days credit for time served. A Judgment of Conviction was filed on July 10, 2009. Defendant
19 appealed his conviction on July 16, 2009, and the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed on June
20 21, 2012. Rehearing was denied on July 27, 2012, and En Banc reconsideration was denied
21 November 13, 2012. Remittitur issued on April 10, 2013.

22 On January 22, 2014, Defendant filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-
23 Conviction). Before the State filed a response, Defendant's counsel informed the Court and
24 the State that he would be filing a Supplemental Petition, and that the State could respond to
25 the Supplemental rather than the original petition. In the Supplemental Petition, Defendant
26 raised five grounds of error alleging ineffective assistance of both trial and appellate counsel.
27 The State filed its response on July 16, 2014. This Court held an Evidentiary Hearing in the 28 matter on September 23, 2014, and heard argument on Grounds 1, 2, 3 & 5. Pursuant to a

1 request by the State, the Court set a second Evidentiary Hearing to address Ground 4, and
2 delayed making its findings on any of Defendant's grounds of error until that hearing. On
3 December 15, 2014, the second Evidentiary Hearing was held, and after hearing testimony and
4 argument on Defendant's Ground 4, the Court denied the Supplemental Petition in total. That
5 denial is based on the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

6 In order to assert a claim for ineffective assistance of counsel, a defendant must prove
7 that he was denied "reasonably effective assistance" of counsel by satisfying the two-prong
8 test set forth in Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686-87, 104 S.Ct. 2052, 2063-64
9 (1984). Under Strickland, a defendant must show: 1) that his counsel's representation fell
10 below an objective standard of reasonableness; and 2) that but for counsel's errors, there is a
11 reasonable probability the result of the proceeding would have been different. See Strickland,
12 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S.Ct. at 2065, 2068. The court begins with the presumption of 13 effectiveness and then must determine whether the defendant has demonstrated by a
14 preponderance of the evidence that counsel was ineffective. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001,
15 103 P.3d 35 (2004). The court will "judge the reasonableness of counsel's challenged conduct
16 on the facts of the particular case, viewed as of the time of counsel's conduct." Strickland,
17 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S.Ct. at 2066.

18 Counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or arguments. See 19 Ennis v. State, 122 Nev. 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006). Trial counsel "has the 20 immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if and when to object, which witnesses, if 21 any, to call, and what defenses to develop." Wainwright v. Sykes, 433 U.S. 72, 93, 97 S. Ct.
22 2497, 2510 (1977); see also Rhyne v. State, 118 Nev. 1, 8, 38 P.3d 163, 167 (2002). Even if
23 a defendant can demonstrate that his counsel's representation fell below an objective standard
24 of reasonableness, he must still demonstrate prejudice and show a reasonable probability that,
25 but for counsel's errors, the result of the trial would have been different. McNelson v. State,
26 115 Nev. 396, 403, 990 P.2d 1263, 1268 (1999) (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687). "A
27 reasonable probability is a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome." Id.
28 (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-89, 694).

1 In Ground 1, Defendant claims his trial counsel was ineffective for not tendering a jury
2 instruction pursuant to the Nevada Supreme Court's decision in Moore v. State, 117 Nev. 659,
3 27 P.3d 447, (2001), and for failing to file a motion pursuant to NRS 175.381(2). With respect
4 to the jury instruction claim, Moore only prohibits a Deadly Weapon enhancement on a
5 conviction and sentence for a charge of conspiracy, not a conviction for murder on a conspiracy
6 theory of liability. As such, Defendant's proposed instruction, instructing the jury not to find
7 the existence of the deadly weapon enhancement if the jury were to find Defendant guilty of 8 Second Degree murder on a conspiracy theory, would be an inaccurate statement of law.
9 Proffering a legally incorrect jury instruction would have been futile, as the instruction would
10 have been rightfully rejected by the district court. Moreover, Defendant's trial counsel ensured
11 that a proper jury instruction was given based on Brooks v. State, 124 Nev. 203, 180 P.3d 657
12 (2008), which is the current Nevada law controlling whether an unarmed co-conspirator or 13 aider and abettor is subject to an enhancement for use of a deadly weapon. Moreover,
14 Defendant's trial counsel did in fact file a post-trial Motion for Judgment of Acquittal or, in
15 the Alternative, a New Trial, pursuant to NRS 175.381, challenging in part the deadly weapon
16 enhancement on the Second Degree Murder With Use of a Deadly Weapon conviction.
17 Defendant has not established that counsel's decision not to proffer the inaccurate instruction
18 fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and has not established prejudice by 19 showing a reasonable probability that the outcome of the proceedings would have been 20 different had the proposed instruction been tendered. Therefore, this claim is denied.

21 In Ground 2, Defendant claims his trial counsel was ineffective for not tendering a jury
22 instruction stating that out-of-court statements made by a co-conspirator may not be used
23 against a defendant if the statements themselves are the only evidence that the defendant
24 participated in the conspiracy. Defendant has not shown that trial counsel's performance fell 25 below an objective standard of reasonableness, as the proffered instruction would have been
26 duplicitous to the points of law contained in Jury Instruction No. 40 given at trial. "It is not
27 error for a court to refuse [a jury] instruction when the law in that instruction is adequately
28 covered by another instruction given to the jury." Rose v. State, 123 Nev. 194, 205, 163 P.3d

1 408, 415 (2007) (quoting Doleman v. State, 107 Nev. 409, 416, 812 P.2d 1287, 1291 (1991)).
2 Instruction No. 40 explained that: "Whenever there is slight evidence that a conspiracy
3 existed, and that the defendant was one of the members of the conspiracy, then the statements
4 and acts by any person likewise a member maybe considered by the jury,...." As such, the
5 proffer of a duplicate instruction would have been futile. Thus, counsel cannot be deemed
6 ineffective for not proffering such an instruction. Moreover, Defendant fails to allege with
7 specificity facts which would entitle him to relief because he fails to identify which statements,
8 if any, he feels the jury would have disregarded and/or that the district court should not have
9 admitted and fails to provide any citations to the record. Therefore, Defendant has failed to 10 demonstrate that, but for counsel's alleged errors, the outcome of the proceedings would have 11 been different.

12 Defendant further alleges in Ground 2 that his appellate counsel was ineffective for 13 failing to raise the instant version of this particular issue on direct appeal. Effectiveness of 14 appellate counsel is also addressed under the Strickland standard. Foster v. State, 121 Nev.
15 165, 111 P.3d 1083 (2005). There is a strong presumption that appellate counsel's
16 performance was reasonable and fell within "the wide range of reasonable professional 17 assistance." See United States v. Aguirre, 912 F.2d 555, 560 (2nd Cir. 1990); citing Strickland,
18 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S.Ct. at 2065. "[I]n order to establish prejudice based on deficient
19 assistance of appellate counsel, the petitioner must show that the omitted issue would have had
20 a reasonable probability of success on appeal." Foster, 121 Nev. at 170, 111 P.3d at 1087
21 (citing Lara v. State, 120 Nev. 177, 183-84, 87 P.3d 528, 532 (2004)); see also Duhamel v.
22 Collins, 955 F.2d 962, 967 (5th Cir. 1992); Heath, 941 F.2d at 1132. "Appellate counsel is 23 not required to raise every non-frivolous or meritless issue to provide effective assistance."
24 Id. (quoting Lara, 120 Nev. at 184, 87 P.3d at 532). Moreover, where an issue has already
25 been decided on the merits by the Nevada Supreme Court, the Court's ruling is law of the case,
26 and the issue will not be revisited. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 34 P.3d 519 (2001). This
27 rule cannot be avoided by a more detailed and precisely focused argument subsequently made 28

1 after reflection upon the previous proceedings.” Hall v. State, 91 Nev. 314, 316, 535 P.2d 797,
2 799 (1975).

3 Defendant’s appellate counsel challenged Jury Instruction No. 40 on direct appeal, and
4 the Nevada Supreme Court found the instruction to be a proper statement of the law concerning
5 the admissibility of co-conspirator statements as set forth in McDowell v. State, 103 Nev. 527,
6 746 P.2d 149 (1987). Defendant cannot now avoid this conclusion by slightly modifying his
7 argument by making a claim that the McDowell holding should be reevaluated. That argument
8 is without merit. As such, appellate counsel was not required to raise this version of the 9 argument on appeal, as it is frivolous, and cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to do so.
10 Defendant has also failed to show that this claim would have had a reasonable probability of 11 success on appeal had it been raised. Therefore, Defendant’s appellate counsel cannot be 12 deemed ineffective, and the claims contained in Ground 2 are denied.

13 In Ground 3, Defendant claims his trial counsel was ineffective for not objecting to Jury
14 Instructions 19, 20, and 22, for not arguing that a jury instruction pursuant to People v.
15 Prettyman, 14 Cal. 4th 248, 926 P.2d 1013 (1996) should have been given, and for not
16 tendering an instruction that to return a second degree murder guilty verdict, the Defendant’s
17 acts must have demonstrated an abandoned and malignant heart and have been the immediate 18 and direct cause of the victim’s death. The first claim is partially belied by the record. Counsel
19 for Defendant and counsel for Defendant’s father worked together in preparing and objecting
20 to jury instructions, and an objection by either was intended and understood by the parties and
21 the court as an objection made on behalf of both defendants. In this manner, Jury Instruction
22 No. 19 and Jury Instruction No. 22 were objected to by one or both sets of counsel. Further,
23 Defendant has not demonstrated that counsel’s performance fell below an objective standard
24 of reasonableness in not objecting to Jury Instruction No. 20. That instruction correctly
25 instructed the jury regarding liability for crimes via aiding and abetting. Bolden v. State, 121
26 Nev. 914, 922-23, 124 P.3d 195, 201 (2005); Sharma v. State, 118 Nev. 648, 652-58, 56 P.3d
27 868, 870-74 (2002). As such, an argument by counsel to the contrary would have been futile
28 and meritless.

1 Moreover, Instructions 19 & 22 accurately stated that under Nevada law, Second
2 Degree Murder can be a general intent crime (see Poole v. State, 97 Nev. 175, 178-79, 625
3 P.2d 1163, 1165 (1981)), and that under a conspiracy or aiding and abetting theory of liability,
4 a defendant is liable for the reasonably foreseeable consequences of general intent crimes.
5 Bolden, 121 Nev. at 922-23, 124 P.3d at 201; Sharma, 118 Nev. at 652-58, 56 P.3d at 870-74.
6 Instruction 22 correctly distinguished that a defendant is only liable as a co-conspirator for the 7 offenses he specifically intended to be committed. Id. Thus, counsel's failure to object to 8 these instructions did not constitute ineffective assistance.

9 Defendant likewise fails to establish that counsel erred by not tendering an instruction
10 pursuant to Prettyman, because such an instruction would have been duplicious to Jury
11 Instructions 6-25 given at trial and thus would have been rejected by the district court. For 12 this reason, the claim would have also been rejected on direct appeal. Similarly, Defendant
13 fails to show that counsel erred by not tendering a jury instruction explaining that second
14 degree felony murder requires proof of an abandoned and malignant heart, because under 15 Nevada law, the offense of second degree felony murder satisfies the implied
16 malice/abandoned and malignant heart requirement. See Sherriff v. Morris, 99 Nev. 109, 112-
17 117, 659 P.2d 852, 855-58 (1983). Thus, tendering a jury instruction to the contrary would 18 have been futile and meritless, and the issue would have been likewise rejected on appeal.

19 Defendant further fails to demonstrate that counsel erred by not tendering a jury
20 instruction pursuant to Rose v. State, 127 Nev. ___, 255 P.3d 291 (2011) or Ramirez v. State,
21 126 Nev. ___, 235 P.3d 619 (2011), instructing the jury that they must find a direct and
22 immediate causal relationship between Defendant's action and the victim's death. Because 23 these cases were decided after Defendant was convicted, trial counsel had no duty to request
24 an instruction pursuant to these holdings. Finally, Defendant argues his appellate counsel erred
25 in not raising the same issue on appeal. However, this claim is without merit as the issue was 26 not available to appellate counsel because it was not preserved for appeal by trial counsel.
27 Nevada applies new rules of state law retroactively to cases pending on appeal, before
28 conviction is final on direct appeal, only where the issue was preserved for appeal in the district

1 court. Richmond v. State, 118 Nev. 924, 928-29, 53 P.3d 1249, 1252 (2002). Defendant has
2 not met his burden in showing that trial and appellate counsel's performance was objectively
3 unreasonable. Defendant fails to establish prejudice, as he cannot show a reasonable
4 probability that that but for counsel's alleged errors the outcome of his trial would have been
5 different, or that his proposed claims would have had a reasonable probability of success on
6 appeal. Therefore, neither trial nor appellate counsel rendered ineffective performance and 7 the claims in Ground 3 are denied.

8 In Ground 4, Defendant argues his trial counsel was ineffective for not seeking
9 severance of Defendant's trial from his co-defendant, Hidalgo, Jr., when Defendant attempted
10 to admit testimony of a witness from the trial of Kenneth Counts and Hidalgo, Jr.'s counsel
11 objected on the grounds that the testimony was prejudicial to Hidalgo, Jr. In order to promote 12 efficiency and equitable outcomes, Nevada law favors trying multiple defendants together.
13 Jones v. State, 111 Nev. 848, 853, 899 P.2d 544, 547 (1995). A defendant is only entitled to 14 a severed trial if he presents facts that sufficiently demonstrate that a joint trial would result in
15 substantial prejudice. Rowland v. State, 118 Nev. 31, 44, 39 P.3d 114, 122 (2002) (citing NRS
16 174.165). "Generally, where persons have been jointly indicted they should be tried jointly,
17 absent compelling reasons to the contrary." Id., 39 P.3d at 122 (quotation omitted). Further,
18 the court not only considers the potential prejudice to the defendant, but also prejudice to the 19 State "resulting from two time-consuming, expensive and duplicitous trials." Id., 39 P.3d at 20 122 (quotation omitted). Courts will find a compelling reason to try cases separately when it
21 appears that a joint trial will be unduly prejudicial to one defendant. See Bruton v. United 22 States, 391 US 123 (1968); NRS 174.165.

23 Defendant has not shown that counsel's performance fell below an objective standard
24 of reasonableness, because filing a motion for severance would have been futile. Defendant
25 concedes that Hidalgo, Jr. and he shared a similar and compatible defense throughout trial.
26 However, the denial of Defendant's attempt to admit the prior testimony at issue was addressed
27 on appeal. See Hidalgo, III v. State, Docket No. 54272, Order of Affirmance (June 21, 2012).
28 Therein, the Nevada Supreme Court upheld the district court's exclusion of the prior testimony

1 and ruled that the prior testimony was inadmissible due to evidentiary rules, not because of
2 prejudice against one of the co-defendants. Id. at 6-7. Therefore, the prior testimony would
3 have been inadmissible in severed trials, just as it was in Defendant's joint trial. As such,
4 Defendant has failed to demonstrate that a joint trial was at any point unduly or substantially
5 prejudicial as to warrant a successful motion to sever, and therefore trial counsel cannot be
6 deemed ineffective for not making such a motion. Finally, Defendant has failed to demonstrate 7 that, but for counsel's alleged errors, the outcome of his trial would have been different. As
8 such, Defendant's trial counsel provided effective assistance and the claim contained in 9 Ground 4 is denied.

10 In Ground 5, Defendant claims his trial counsel was ineffective for not filing a motion
11 to sever COUNTS 3 & 4, and that his appellate counsel was ineffective for not raising this
12 issue on appeal. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same indictment or information
13 in a separate count for each offense if the offenses charged, whether felonies or misdemeanors
14 or both, are: 1) Based on the same act or transaction; or 2) Based on two or more acts or 15 transactions connected together or constituting parts of a common scheme or plan. NRS
16 173.115. Where evidence of one charge would be cross-admissible at a separate trial on 17 another charge, then both charges may be tried together and need not be severed. Mitchell v.
18 State, 105 Nev. 735, 738, 782 P.2d 1340, 1342 (1989) (internal citations omitted). Cross-
19 admissibility is recognized in the "connected together" language of NRS 173.115. Weber v.
20 State, 121 Nev. 554, 573, 119 P.3d 107, 120-21 (2005). "To establish that joinder was
21 [unfairly] prejudicial 'requires more than a mere showing that severance might have made
22 acquittal more likely.' Rather, the defendant carries the heavy burden of showing an abuse of 23 discretion by the district court." Id. at 574-75, 121.

24 Evidence of other crimes, wrongs or acts is not admissible to prove the character of a
25 person in order to show that the person acted in conformity therewith. It may, however, be
26 admissible for other purposes such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan,
27 knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident. NRS 48.045(2). For such evidence to
28 be admissible, it must be relevant, proven by clear and convincing evidence, and its probative

1 value must not be outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice. Weber, 121 Nev. At 574-75,
2 119 P.3d at 121. "The motive exception [of NRS 48.045(2) is] applicable where the charged
3 crime was motivated by a desire to hide the prior bad act." Richmond v. State, 118 Nev. 924,
4 933, 59 P.3d 1249, 1255 (2002). Evidence of another act or crime which is so closely related
5 to an act in controversy or a crime charged that an ordinary witness cannot describe the act in
6 controversy or the crime charged without referring to the other act or crime shall not be
7 excluded, but at the request of an interested party, a cautionary instruction shall be given
8 explaining the reason for its admission. NRS 48.035(3).

9 First, Defendant has not shown that his trial counsel's performance was objectively
10 unreasonable, because a motion to sever at the trial stage would have been futile as it would
11 have been denied by the district court. As such, the same issue would have likewise been a
12 frivolous argument on appeal. Defendant was charged in COUNTS 3 & 4 of the 4th Amended
13 Indictment for soliciting the murders of two witnesses to the crimes charged in COUNTS 1 &
14 2. Thus, the evidence of solicitation would have been admissible in separate trials even if the 15 counts were separated, as it was relevant to Defendant's guilt, his participation/identity,
16 consciousness of guilt, his motive, and his intent for the crimes charged in COUNTS 1 & 2.
17 Defendant concedes that there was overwhelming evidence of his solicitation, thus it was 18 proven by more than clear and convincing evidence. Finally, the probative value was not 19 substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice because Defendant's defense was 20 that he was not part of the conspiracy. Therefore, again, the solicitation evidence was highly
21 probative of identity, motive, participation, guilt, and consciousness of guilt for COUNTS 1
22 & 2. Further, the evidence of COUNTS 1 & 2 was also cross-admissible pursuant to both NRS
23 48.045(2) and NRS 48.035(3) as evidence of motive for COUNTS 3 & 4 that was so closely
24 related to those counts that witnesses could not describe the solicitation charges without 25 discussing the crimes in COUNTS 1 & 2. Thus, a motion to sever would have been futile, and 26 counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to file such a futile request. Similarly,
27 Defendant cannot show that the claim had a reasonable probability of success on appeal.
28 Therefore, Defendant's counsel was not ineffective, and the claims in Ground 5 are denied.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Post-Conviction Relief shall be, and it is, hereby denied.

DATED this 6th day of March, 2015.

AS TO THE WRIT: Court noted the issue stems from the tape introduced at the Preliminary Hearing. Mr. Draskovich concurred and stated it is unclear who is actually speaking. Mr. DiGiacomo stated that was untrue, that the Detective that is familiar with their voices identified them. Arguments by Mr. Draskovich, Mr. Oram and Ms. Wildeveld regarding the tape, how it was obtained and the statements made and asking for the tape to be disallowed. Court noted there was a quantum of evidence produced at the Preliminary Hearing and he needs to evaluate if the Justice of the Peace had enough sufficient evidence to bind this over and this Court feels he did. Therefore, COURT ORDERED, Writ DENIED.

As to Deft Hidalgo: Mr. Stein advised he is a friend of the family and they have asked that he join Mr. Draskovich in representation and provided the paperwork to the Court. COURT ORDERED, matter UNDER ADVISEMENT.

As to Deft Espindolas: Mr. Oram advised he was retained and at this time because of her assets, co-counsel cannot be appointed.

Ms. Wildeveld argued that 5 people got together and formed a plan that Deft. Counts was not involved in; he was picked up by a van, driven to the scene and driven back. Arguments by Mr. DiGiacomo. Ms. Wildeveld stated the majority of evidence does not pertain to Deft. Counts. Mr. DiGiacomo stated there will be testimony that Defendant was paid $6,000 after the murder. Following additional arguments, COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED. Mr. Figler and Mr. Whipple advised they have submitted Ex-Parte Orders for Investigators that they have not received back from the Court. Court advised $5,000 would be approved and will see if the Orders are in chambers.

Mr. Whipple advised he has asked for scope on the other co-defendants. Mr. DiGiacomo advised some of what he wants is juvenile. Court requested counsel put this on calendar.

Mr. Figler requested to join Defendant Carroll in motions if necessary. Mr. Jackson stated Court's secretary told him to be present, his client Defendant Taoipu is not on calendar; however, counsel requested Court move 3/27/06 motions to accommodate his schedule. Mr. Di Giacomo stated Defendant Taoipu (Mr. Jackson's client) fled to California, was brought back through Boulder City, he was given the same case number, and Mr. Jackson filed a Motion to Sever Defendant Taoipu. COURT ORDERED, motions CONTINUED and Evidentiary Hearing SET 4/21/06 at 9:00 a.m. COURT ORDERED, all motions MUST BE ON CALENDAR FROM NOW ON. Mr. Figler will file his motions in short order. Ms. Wildeveld requested Defendant Counts' motions be separated from other defendants as Defendant Counts is not involved if other charges. COURT ORDERED, Request is DENIED. Ms. Wildeveld requested to Join in Motions in issues are related.

Argument by Ms. Thomas, Mr. Draskovich, and Mr. Orme in support of Defts Hidalgo's and Espindola's Motion to Strike Notice of Intent to Seek Death Penalty. Ms. Thomas argued defendants did not intend to kill anyone, argument regarding pecuniary gain factor, and counsel requested all aggravators stricken. Mr. Draskovich stated baseball bats and garbage bags were not included in the taped conversations; argument by counsel in opposition to State's intent to seek the death penalty. Argument by Mr. Di Giacomo in opposition to motion. Mr. Orme read from the transcript to correct testimony (Page 4 after 844); counsel stated there is nothing in the tapes indicating Defendant Espindola intended to kill anyone, and the death penalty is not appropriate. Colloquy regarding if defendants were aware of surveillance. Mr. Draskovich argued this case cannot be raised to a death case. COURT ORDERED, motion is UNDER ADVISEMENT.

DEFT COUNTS' MTN TO ALLOW THE DEFENSE TO ARGUE LAST AT THE PENALTY PHASE: Matter submitted by Ms. Wildeveld; Mr. Pesci argued this claim has no merit. COURT ORDERED, motion is DENIED.

DEFT COUNTS' MTN TO FEDERALIZE ALL MOTIONS, OBJECTIONS, REQUESTS AND OTHER APPLICATIONS FOR THE PROCEEDINGS IN THE ABOVE ENTITLED CASE: Argument by Ms. Wildeveld. Mr. Di Giacomo argued motion does not solve the problems before the Federal Court, and this Court should be given the opportunity to address proper concerns. Ms. Wildeveld is not asking to be completely relieved of her obligation, and counsel will make every effort to make a full objection. COURT ORDERED, motion is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

DEFT COUNTS' MOTION FOR INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE: Matter submitted by counsel. COURT ORDERED, motion is DENIED.

DEFT COUNTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE AUTOPSY, CRIME SCENE, AND OTHER GRUESOME PHOTOGRAPHS: COURT ORDERED, motion is PREMATURE and Court RESERVES RULING.

DEFT COUNTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE THE INTRODUCTION OF VICTIM IMPACT

EVIDENCE: Argument by Ms. Wildeveld in opposition to the jury hearing benevolent testimony regarding victim as he did participate in a drug deal. COURT ORDERED, Court WILL ALLOW testimony from victim's son and daughter; however, Court RESERVES RULING on this motion. DEFT COUNTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO PROHIBIT ANY REFERENCES TO THE FIRST PHASE AS THE "GUILT PHASE": Matter submitted by counsel. COURT ORDERED, motion is DENIED. DEFT COUNTS' MOTION TO BIFURCATE PENALTY PHASE: Matter submitted by Ms. Wildeveld, and argument by Mr. Pesci. COURT ORDERED, motion is DENIED. DEFT COUNTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO BAR IMPROPER PROSECUTORIAL ARGUMENT: Matter submitted by counsel. COURT ORDERED, motion is GRANTED. DEFT COUNTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE ADMISSION OF GANG AFFILIATION, DRUG ACTIVITY, HANDLING OF GUNS AND BATTERIES: Arguments by counsel. COURT ORDERED, GANG AFFILIATION and DRUG ACTIVITY WILL NOT BE DISCUSSED unless State brings a Motion for Bad Acts at trial; HOWEVER, information WILL BE ALLOWED AT THE PENALTY PHASE. Regarding issue of handguns, Ms. Wildeveld argued she does not have Defendant Counts' scope, Judicial Clearance document provided to the Court, and counsel argued another Kenneth Counts is located in California. Mr. Di Giacomo argued defendant does not dispute felony convictions for drugs or Ex-Felon in Possession of Firearm, and information will not be brought out at trial unless State brings a Motion for Bad Acts. COURT SO ORDERED, however, information WILL BE AVAILABLE DURING THE PENALTY PHASE. Arguments by counsel regarding viewing the State's information. COURT ORDERED, counsel to GET TOGETHER and SHARE CRIMINAL RECORDS, and fingerprints MUST BE MADE if necessary. For the record, Ms. Wildeveld stated she went to California Court, did extensive research on Defendant Counts' convictions, and counsel did not find anything except what was already discussed. COURT ORDERED, DEFT COUNTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE ADMISSION OF GANG AFFILIATION, DRUG ACTIVITY, HANDLING OF GUNS AND BATTERIES is GRANTED IN PART (as indicated above). DEFT COUNTS' MOTION FOR DISCOVERY AND EVIDENTIARY HEARING REGARDING THE MANNER AND METHOD OF DETERMINING IN WHICH MURDER CASES THE DEATH PENALTY WILL BE SOUGHT: Ms. Wildeveld argued for information on how State determines death penalty cases. Mr. Pesci argued the State follows criteria of the statute to determine aggravators, and the jury determines if aggregators exist. Argument by Mr. Di Giacomo regarding State's committee to review cases, and requests by defense counsel to offer a presentation to committee. Ms. Wildeveld was not aware that opportunity existed. COURT ORDERED, motion is DENIED. DEFT COUNTS' MOTION FOR DISQUALIFICATION FROM THE JURY VENIRE OF ALL POTENTIAL JURORS WHO WOULD AUTOMATICALLY VOTE FOR THE DEATH PENALTY IF THEY FOUND KENNETH COUNTS GUILTY OF CAPITAL MURDER: Arguments by Ms. Wildeveld and Mr. Di Giacomo. COURT ORDERED, motion is GRANTED. Ms. Wildeveld requested defendant's shoulder be examined at the jail as defendant has sent several kytes without success. COURT ORDERED, defendant MUST HAVE HIS SHOULDER EXAMINED at the jail.

- DEFT'S MOTION FOR SEVERANCE...DEFT'S MOTION TO SUPPRESS STATEMENT...EVIDENTIARY HEARING

AS TO SEVERANCE: Mr. DiGiacomo advised he has no objection to the motion as this Defendant was arrested at a different time and has a different Information. COURT ORDERED, Motion GRANTED and this Defendant to receive a new case number.

AS TO STATEMENT: Mr. DiGiacomo advised this entire issue was litigated at the Preliminary Hearing. Mr. Jackson requested to call witnesses and outlined his reasons why. Hearing commenced. Testimony and evidence presented. Mr. Jackson argued Defendant was not mirandized, was not allowed to leave, was held in a small locked room and was not able to call his parents. Mr. DiGiacomo stated there was no evidence of coercion. Defendant's statement clearly indicates that he thought he was free to leave. Even if Defendant asked for his father, due to the charge, the father would not have been called. Court noted the reason Deft Carroll brought Defendant to the Police is of no consequence; as to the room, Defendant agreed he was free to leave and using video versus audio for interview is simply an investigative tool. Therefore, COURT ORDERED, Motion to Suppress Statement is DENIED.

Court noted the trial and all the motions will be continued due to Ms. Wildeveld's condition. As to length, Mr. DiGiacomo stated if all Defendants were tried together it would take about 5 weeks and noted Deft Taoipu has been severed, however, Deft Carroll has not. Mr. Figler concurred and stated there is a Bruten problem and will not object to a severance, he stated he just has not filed one and added the co-defendants do not want to be tried with Deft Carroll. Mr. DiGiacomo stated he had no objection to Deft Carroll being severed out. Ms. Thomas stated if the State was not going to introduce Deft Carroll's statements, then there is no need for a severance. Mr. DiGiacomo advised he was.

Conference at the Bench. By oral stipulation, COURT ORDERED, Defendant Carroll is severed out. As to motions, Court directed counsel to have all motions filed by 7/27; answers to be filed by 8/10; replies by 8/24 and matter set for argument on 8/31/06. Further, trial date VACATED and RESET as to Counts, Hidalgo and Espindola. Matter set for status check as to trial for Carroll and Taoipu.

JOURNAL ENTRIES- STATUS CHECK: TRIAL DATE (CARROLL & TAOIPU)

Mr. Figler stated Deft. Carroll was severed as was Deft. Taoipu and both should have separate trials. All counsel concurred. However, Mr. Jackson stated due to his schedule, he will not be ready for trial on 7/24 and would request an additional 90 days to prepare. Mr. Figler stated the status check date was moved up, however, he spoke briefly to his Investigator and they feel they could be ready for trial phase, however, not sure for penalty phase as there is still a lot of work to be done. Mr. Draskovich advised he is ready for Deft. Espindola and would request to go to trial as originally scheduled. Mr. DiGiacomo objected and advised Defts Counts, Hidalgo and Espindola need to be tried together. Court DENIED request. Following additional colloquy and discussion as to Court's schedule, COURT ORDERED, trial date for Defts Carroll & Taoipu VACATED; trial date set for Defts Counts, Hildago & Espindola are MOVED BACK ONE WEEK and start on 4/23; Deft. Carroll will be set for trial on 4/16 and Deft. Taoipu will start on 5/8. Objections by Mr. Draskovich and Ms. Thomas. Court so noted. Mr. Jackson advised he had a Motion set for 7/10 to continue the trial date. COURT ORDERED, Motion VACATED.

Mr. Figler would like to join in the motions as to Deft. Carroll and would request his presence be waived. Mr. DiGiacomo objected as he has not received any motions relating to this defendant. Mr. Figler argued that most of these motions are very broad and would apply to Deft. Carroll as well. COURT ORDERED, GRANTED. Ms. Wildeveld advised Mr. Whipple is still in a murder trial and would request some of the motions as to Deft Counts be continued for his presence. COURT ORDERED, GRANTED.

1) Ms. Thomas advised they would like open ended questions as opposed to racial questions. Objections by Mr. DiGiacomo. Court noted voir dire will be relaxed and counsel will be able to expand on some questions, however, open ended questions will not be asked. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

2) Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. DiGiacomo advised he is not sure what defense is asking. Ms. Thomas stated her concerns. Statements by Mr. DiGiacomo. COURT ORDERED, DENIED as this issue is moot.

3) Ms. Thomas requested this be done to get an idea of where the State will be going. Court advised it has never done this and will not deviate now. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

4) Court noted it has reviewed what was submitted and advised there are a number of them that will not be allowed. Further, Court noted there will not be a lot of questions either. Following colloquy, Court advised it feels this would be a profiling process, which will not be allowed. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

5) Counsel advised this was submitted for appeal purposes. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

6) Court noted it takes exception to this in regards to his staff. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

7) Counsel argued that hearsay should be allowed. Following arguments, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

8) Ms. Thomas argued that even if the Supreme Court has O.K.'d this, she does not feel they have addressed both issues at the same time. Arguments by Mr. Draskovich. Following additional arguments, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

9) Following discussion by counsel, Court noted it is not uncommon for the Court to ask questions of potential jurors and ORDERED, DENIED.

10) Court advised the death penalty is not on trial. Counsel advised the issue was raised for appeal. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

11) Court noted this is contrary to State law. Arguments by Ms. Thomas. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

12) Ms. Thomas stated jurors relate their own personal experiences to other jurors and she feels that counsel should know what their life experiences are. Court advised there would be no end to the inquiry of every experience. Mr. Draskovich advised that there could be 5 or 6 specific questions unique to this case. Court advised counsel may submit some questions for review, however, MOTION, DENIED.

13) Ms. Thomas advised they take exception as to how the State determines which case gets the death penalty. Following statements by Mr. DiGiacomo, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

14) COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

15) Ms. Thomas argued that if the drugs used are not applied properly, it can cause extreme pain. Mr. DiGiacomo advised this is the cart before the horse, first there needs be a guilty verdict and feels this is a premature issue. Following arguments, Court advised this issue has been preserved and there is a presumption of legality, however, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

16) Court advised this has been recognized and ORDERED, GRANTED.

17) Mr. Whipple requested a continuance as to this motion as he is still in trial. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED.

18) Mr. Whipple requested a continuance as to this motion as he is still in trial. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED.

19) Matter submitted by Ms. Wildeveld. Court advised it does see the relevancy and ORDERED, DENIED.

20) Ms. Wildeveld stated they would like to know if the family members agree with the death penalty. Mr. DiGiacomo argued the victim's family are not allowed to discuss punishment. Following colloquy, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

21) Mr. DiGiacomo advised he does not understand why they want this information, that the only juvenile is Taoipu, however, he is not a witness but a defendant, however, will provide the records to the Court for an in-camera review. Following additional arguments, at request of Ms. Wildeveld, COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED for Mr. Whipple.

22) Mr. Whipple requested a continuance as to this motion as he is still in trial. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED.

23) Mr. Whipple requested a continuance as to this motion as he is still in trial. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED.

24) Ms. Wildeveld referred to Floyd vs State and submitted. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

25) Mr. Whipple requested a continuance as to this motion as he is still in trial. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED.

26) Ms. Thomas argued the peremptory challenges should be declared unconstitutional as they lead to Batson challenges. Ms. Thomas stated she feels there should be 4 challenges for each side with no peremptory challenges. Objections stated by Mr. DiGiacomo. Following additional arguments, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

27) Ms. Thomas argued that the State should not apply aggravators to any other defendant. Mr. DiGiacomo stated the aggravators are specific as to each Defendant. Statements by Mr. Draskovich. Court advised it feels this issue is moot and does not feel it will occur, however, ORDERED, GRANTED.

28) Mr Draskovich advised the Supreme Court has addressed this issue. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

29) Court noted what counsel want is a mini trial before trial. Ms. Thomas advised this Court did this in the early 80's. Following additional colloquy, Court noted the concept is not inappropriate, however, feels it is just another layer before trial with no meaningful result. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

30) Ms. Thomas stated they do not want the State to blow up the statues as to mitigators for their closing. Mr. DiGiacomo advised he does not disagree with this and will not do it. COURT ORDERED, RESOLVED.

31) Ms. Thomas stated she feels the jury pool should include names from the power bills and not just from DMV. She argued that in rural areas, the power bills are used and would request it be done here to get a diverse panel. Mr. DiGiacomo stated there is no statute that requires the Court to compel Nevada Power to comply. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

32) Court advised it has not done this in the past and will not start now. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

COURT ORDERED, motions not heard today are CONTINUED and matter set for status check as to trial and all counsel to be present next date.

1) Mr. Whipple state if the jury cannot consider the death penalty for all defendants, that Mr. Counts should be severed out. Following additional arguments, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

PRINT DATE: 03/24/2015

Page 36 of 201

Minutes Date: June 27, 2005

2) Mr. Whipple feels this is a prejudicial vs probative issue. If Defendant takes the stand, there is a prejudicial issue as to his priors, however, they are drug related. Mr. DiGiacomo stated that non violent felonies are admissible and concurred that they are drug related. Following additional colloquy, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

3) Court advised it will review these records in chambers. Mr. DiGiacomo advised there are two, Zone and Taoipu. However, Taoipu is not a witness, but a charged Defendant. If he does become a witness, then his records will be submitted for review. Mr. Whipple argued that Taoipu was the only witness in the car with a gun. Following additional arguments, Mr. DiGiacomo stated the propensity of evidence to commit a crime is not admissible. Just because Taoipu may have had a gun two years ago, does not mean he had a gun in this instance. Mr. Whipple requested the Court review the records. Following additional arguments, Court advised it thinks this will be of no value, however, ORDERED, GRANTED.

4) Mr. Whipple advised there is no bail at this time and would request a bail amount be set. Mr. DiGiacomo argued this has been before the Court before and since the last time, we have learned that Defendant was an absconder from probation when he committed this crime. Mr. Whipple argued that Defendant has been a good role model, has a family and is a Little League coach. Mr. DiGiacomo argued Defendant has picked up 2 new charges in California. Following additional arguments, COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

5) Court noted this involves jail phone calls and Mr. Whipple feels they should be disallowed. Mr. Whipple concurred and stated he feels it is speculation as to all calls. Arguments by Mr. DiGiacomo including that Defendant Counts was never informed prior to a phone call that he was being involved with Deft. Carroll. Further, Deft Counts' descriptions in conversations are an admission of guilt. Court advised if there is evidence to support the theory, then there is no speculation. COURT ORDERED, DENIED. Mr. Whipple requested an offer of proof from the State regarding the phone calls. Mr. DiGiacomo stated if he is going to use these phone calls, he will have them transcribed. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. DiGiacomo advised he played 7 phone calls at the Preliminary Hearing and may play 2-3 more. Court requested all calls be transcribed and this issue can be reviewed later, however, prior ruling stands.

6) Court noted Defendant was found in the attic and that is not flight. Mr. Whipple advised Defendant was acting irrational, but there was no flight; Defendant was not trying to secret himself. Further, he does not feel these were actions of guilt, but irrational behavior. Court advised this does not preclude the State from arguing the opposite. Mr. DiGiacomo argued Defendant was trying to hide from Police to not be arrested. Mr. Whipple argued that the Police knew he was there, he was not trying to hide, he was acting irrational. Court advised it will not embrace either side, however, ORDERED, DENIED.

7) Question as to Death Penalty: Court noted the Defense attorneys feel they should be present for the Death Review panel. Mr. DiGiacomo advised if the State can't prove intent, there will be no death case against the Defendants. Ms. Thomas argued the Notice the State filed is bad and should not be holding the Defendants as to the death penalty. Mr. Draskovich advised the State is seeking the death penalty against two of the Defendants that did not actually kill the victim. Following additional arguments, Court felt that Defense counsel should attend the review, however, at this time, Motion DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

As to intent to kill, Court advised there was enough evidence to be bound over, it will not prejudice the evidence and is a question for the Jury. COURT ORDERED, DENIED.

- Mr. DiGiacomo stated he is concerned as a time limit was set in July to file any motions; there was a hearing in September wherein Mr. Figler joined into the motions already on calendar. Mr. DiGiacomo advised his concern is that Mr. Figler will wait until it is closer to trial to file any motions for his Defendant and thus frustrate the trial date. Mr. Figler stated he has no intention of continuing the trial. He advised he is working on motions that are unique and not the boiler plate ones that were submitted already; he advised they will be ready to file soon. Following colloquy, COURT ORDERED, Mr. Figler to file his motions by 12/1/06 and the State to respond by 1/2/07.

- Court advised this matter was continued to give Ms. Wildevelt time to review the writ filed by the co-defendants to see if it would be something she would be filing a joinder on behalf of Defendant Counts. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Wildevelt advised she and Mr. Whipple would not be joining in on the writ, announced ready for trial and requested the 6/4/07 trial date. Colloquy between Court and counsel regarding the writ. Mr. Pesci advised he feels the trial should not go forward until the Supreme Court has ruled on the writ. Ms. Wildevelt adamantly requested the 6/4/07 trial date. Further colloquy regarding the trial date. Following CONFERENCE AT BENCH, COURT ORDERED, matter set for JURY TRIAL on 6/4/07 at the request of Ms. Wildevelt. Ms. Wildevelt inquired about a jury questionnaire and advised they will get one to the State and Court this evening or first thing tomorrow. Court advised Ms. Wildevelt that it did not think it would be possible, logistically, to have a jury questionnaire at such a late date. Following CONFERENCE AT BENCH, Ms. Wildevelt advised that Mr. Whipple had already forwarded a copy of the proposed jury questionnaire to Mr. DiGiacomo and Mr. Pesci stated he will check with him to see if he has it.

- AT REQUEST OF COURT: IN-COURT DEPOSITION (COUNTS, HIDALGO & ESPINDOLA)
8:04 A.M.--Robert Langford, Esq. present with witness Omar Manor. Court advised this hearing is due to a potential conflict that arose with Ms. Wildeveld and Mr. Whipple regarding a witness. If there is not a conflict, this video will be used as testimony in any trial regarding Deft. Counts wherein he is represented by Ms. Wildeveld or Mr. Whipple. Mr. DiGiacomo advised he does not plan on playing the video of Mr. Manor if he is available. Court advised the video has to be used to waive any conflict. Mr. DiGiacomo advised the defense would have to waive any defect. Mr. Whipple advised that is inherent. Court advised, in any case where Deft. Counts is represented by Ms. Wildeveld or

Mr. Whipple, this video must be used. Mr. DiGiacomo advised all counsel would have to agree. All defense counsel present agreed. Court advised the video is locked on the witness as Defts. Counts, Hidalgo and Espindola were brought over in jail clothing, so they will not appear on the video but everyone's voices will be picked up. Court advised, if there is a conflict, Ms. Wildeveld and Mr. Whipple would have to be relieved and new counsel appointed, then the State could call Mr. Manor live. 8:11 a.m.--Omar Manor sworn and testified. 8:17 a.m.--Court stated it appears Ms. Wildeveld and Mr. Whipple can go forward in this case and ORDERED, Ms. Wildeveld and Mr. Whipple will remain as counsel for Deft. Counts. Court advised a status check is already set before Judge Adair on this matter. Mr. DiGiacomo advised, because there is an ongoing relationship between Omar and Irene, there may be other issues that come up and he will bring those before the Court if such issues arise. 8:19 a.m.--Hearing concluded.

- The Court noted that Mr. Figler filed an emergency stay in the Nevada Supreme Court; he did not file a written motion for continuance in District Court. Mr. Digiacomo announced ready for trial which should last one week and one to two days for the penalty phase, should there be one. He also stated that he has witnesses coming in from Thailand. Mr. Figler advised that the state noticed new witnesses on 11/14/07; defendant Taoipu's attorney said his client would plead the Fifth Amendment, which indicates to him that the state has questioned Taoipu. In addition, he informed the Court that after speaking with the defendant yesterday, he found the defendant seemed to have cognitive problems and he wants him evaluated by Dr. Roitman. He further stated the Mr. Roitman was busy working on another case. The Court noted that the case he is speaking about dealt, which would have left time to request an evaluation. Mr. Digiacomo strongly objected to Mr. Figler's accusation that the state spoke to Mr. Taoipu; Mr. Jackson, who is his attorney was the one that spoke to him and reported to counsel that the defendant would plead the Fifth Amendment. COURT ORDERED, the trial will be heard next week; trial date VACATED and RESET.

The Court stated the trial in this matter would go forward on January 28th. The Supreme Court decision in this matter struck the aggravators regarding the death penalty with regard to Espindola and Hidalgo so this would not be a capital case and there was no reason not to go forward with what could have been done months ago. Mr. Gentile presented argument regarding due process rights of the co-defendants, and the issue regarding the fifteen day notice citing case law to support his position. Mr. Oram advised he was ready to go forward with defendant Espindola and joined all the arguments of Mr. Gentile. Ms. Wildeveld stated her preference would be to proceed on the 28th as she has an issue that would preclude her from going until a much later date. Colloquy between Court and counsel. Mr. Whipple advised he intended to file motions to strike with regard to defendant Counts with the Supreme Court. Court stated this is something that Mr. Whipple should have addressed months ago and it was too late at this point in time but he was free to file with the Supreme Court if he so desired. Mr. DiGiacomo addressed the issue of the remittitur and authority of the Court to proceed lacking the receipt of the formal remittitur and requested the Court stay this matter in order for him to return to the Supreme Court on an emergency writ. COURT ORDERED, request for STAY DENIED; trial for Counts will proceed on January 28th at 10:00 AM. This Court had previously started the trial in the Counts case as a death penalty case when an issue arose that had to be heard by Judge Bell; however, it is still a death penalty case and since trial counsel was prepared to go forward at that time as a death penalty case, there is no reason why it should not go forward as such now. FURTHER ORDERED, DEFENDANT COUNTS IS SEVERED FROM DEFENDANTS HIDALGO AND ESPINDOLA as these defendants are no longer death qualified. Trial for defendants Hidalgo and Espindola will proceed following this case on February 11th at 9:30 AM. Colloquy between Court and counsel regarding jury questionnaires. CONFERENCE AT BENCH. COURT ORDERED, the jurors will fill out a questionnaire based on the death penalty and if the Supreme Court strikes the aggravators as to Counts then a new panel will be brought in. The Court would not use the same panel that filled out a death questionnaire for a trial where that was no longer a consideration.

Mr. Gentile requested a hearing on the motion for audibility and presented argument. Response by the State. Colloquy between Court and counsel. COURT ORDERED, it would listen to the CD and read the transcript and then issue a ruling on January 29th at 9:30 AM.

Mr. Gentile presented argument on the issue of bail regarding defendant Hidalgo. State argued in opposition. Court stated that if it were inclined to issue bail in this matter it would in all likelihood be set at a significantly high amount. COURT ORDERED, matter to be taken UNDER ADVISEMENT and a decision to be issued.

Counsel advised that there is a motion regarding defendant Counts set for January 29th that needs to be addressed prior to the trial date. Colloquy. COURT ORDERED, due to its schedule this matter will be heard by Judge Bell on January 22nd so that this matter can proceed to trial on the 28th.

Mr. Jackson requested that defendant Taoipu's sentencing date be set within thirty days. COURT SO ORDERED and referred the matter to the Division of Parole and Probation for a presentence investigation report to be prepared. Mr. Jackson inquired about an order for excess investigation fees. Court informed Mr. Jackson to prepare the order and submit it and it would be signed.

- Court advised this is Judge Adair's case, however, she is on vacation and he is hearing this motion as counsel need a ruling prior to trial. Mr. Whipple provided a copy of the Hidalgo decision to the Court and argued regarding Rule 250, late Notice of Intent, aggravating circumstances and specificity. Mr. Whipple advised the co-Deft. had the aggravators stripped and that case is no longer a capital case. Mr. DiGiacomo argued Deft. Counts was still under a sentence of imprisonment in two cases when this occurred and was in warrant status in one of them so there is no specificity problem as to the first aggravator. Mr. Whipple argued the issue is how the State pled it. Mr. Pesci argued the law says they can still plead in the alternative. Mr. Whipple argued the issue goes to notice and argued the State cannot boot strap. Court advised he will read the Hidalgo decision and ORDERED, matter CONTINUED to tomorrow for decision. Mr. Whipple advised, if the Court strikes the aggravators, they are ready for trial; if not, he will request a stay. Court advised he is not the trial judge and will not grant a stay, so counsel should be forewarned.

- Court advised he has read the pleadings and cases provided and ORDERED, motion DENIED. Court stated he does not believe the decision has much changed the pleadings rules as they have known them over the years. Every theory has to be charged. Court advised this case also says they have to charge anything on which there has to be notice. They can be charged in the alternative but everything in the alternative has to be supporting that. Court advised, in death penalty cases, it has to be the case that each and every prong is supported. Court FINDS if Deft. was on probation for a Felony with an underlying term, that IS a sentence of imprisonment and was charged appropriately. Court advised Ms. Wildeveld has a motion to stay and ORDERED, stay DENIED and the defense may go to the Supreme Court. Mr. DiGiacomo advised they need to have the jury questionnaire to the Department this morning. Colloquy. Court advised he is not getting to substantive issues of whether a stay is appropriate. He heard this motion for Judge Adair and he is not going to set this trial off in her absence. If the Supreme Court does, so be it. Ms. Wildeveld advised, for the record, they are ready to go to trial. Hearing concluded.

- OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Counsel advised that defendant Taoipu sent a letter to Mr. Counts, which was received last night at 10:00 PM. Colloquy regarding having investigator pick up witnesses from Tonopah to testify Wednesday. Discussion regarding Discovery. Colloquy regarding scheduling of witnesses. Mr. Digiacomo stated he believes Mr. Bremmer can wait his turn as his witnesses (who are not incarcerated) have been inconvenienced. Further discussion regarding Discovery. Mr. Whipple informed the Court that he received a phone call from Cal Potter's office regarding post conviction relief for Defendant in Palomino murder in 2000. They believe this murder was set up by Hildalgo. The State inquired the validity of that having anything to do to this case. Mr. Whipple advised that he didn't really know, but wanted to make a record and make a Court's exhibit and requested a twenty-four hour continuance to find "Airial" AKA Michelle Schwanderlik. Mr. Digiacomo stated that the other murder was when the Palomino Club was under different ownership; also, the person Mr. Whipple is looking for cannot be found. He further advised that there is no evidence linking this murder to the other murder in case C182148 filed on 8/6/02. COURT FINDS, there is no need for a Court's exhibit, and DENIED the continuance. Mr. Digiacomo stated he had no problem with the Court reviewing the other case. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. The Court inquired of Mr. Taoipu if he discussed testifying with his counsel, Terry Jackson, Esq. Mr. Taoipu stated that he had spoken with counsel and that he understands his rights. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Testimony and exhibits presented per worksheet. Evening recess. MATTER CONTINUED.

Audibility tapes played on the record. COURT ORDERED, as to Defendant's Motion for Audibility Hearing and Transcript Approval, both transcripts will be provided to the jury and the tape will be played twice per stipulation of counsel.

Custodial statements recordings played. Arguments by Ms. Armeni that Defendant was not told he did not have to talk with the Detective. The Court noted he was listening and responding, even thought it was not in the manner the Detectives wanted him to respond. Although it was obvious he had a cough, there were long periods of time that he didn't cough. COURT ORDERED, the tape is more appropriate than the transcript. State submitted. Colloquy regarding defense agreement to testify; if introduced to the jury it may create an inference. COURT ORDERED, the only way it will come in is if the door was opened; agrees it is prejudicial, therefore Defendant's Motion to Suppress Custodial Statements was ADDRESSED BY THE COURT.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Mr. Gentile introduced Chris Adams, Esq. from Atlanta, who will be substituting in as counsel for Luis Hidalgo, III; also John Arascata, Esq. from Reno will be appearing later. He further stated that these attorneys will be representing Hidalgo, III because of the issues that can be raised between Hidalgo, III and Hidalgo, Jr. and because of the Nevada Supreme Court's narrow mandate in their ruling. Mr. Gentile advised he will continue to represent Hidalgo, Jr. and requested additional time to file oppositions for the Motions to Consolidate cases C212667 and C241394. Mr. Digiacomo requested time for the State to file replies to Mr. Gentile's opposition. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Gentile's

Attorney

Hidalgo, Luis A

Defendant

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Christopher W. Adams, Esq., from Atlanta, Georgia, also present on behalf of Defendant Hidalgo III. Mr. Arrascada advised he has filed an Order for association of counsel on behalf of Mr. Adams, Court advised it did not see a problem with this and it will sign the Order. Dominic P. Gentile, Esq., also present on behalf of DEFENDANT HIDALGO, JR., case C241394. Mr. DiGiacomo advised that when he picked-up his copy of Defendants' opposition to the State's motion to consolidate, there were two (2) additional motions to strike the amended notice to seek death penalty on behalf of both Defendants and the State has not had an opportunity to respond and requested time to do so, noting he spoke to Mr. Gentile regarding this matter. Court informed counsel that if the motion is granted, and the notice to seek the death penalty is stricken for either Defendant, the motion to consolidate will not be granted. COURT ORDERED, Defendants' Motions to Strike the Amended Notice to seek Death Penalty CONTINUED. As to the State's motion to consolidate, Mr. Gentile stated his objections on the record. Mr. Gentile informed, if Court grants this motion, it would deprive Defendants their right to eight (8) preemptory challenges each. Mr. Adams advised he is joining in this motion on behalf of Defendant Hildalgo III. Response by Mr. DiGiacomo. Court advised the biggest problem it foresees in granting the motion to consolidate would be during the penalty phase of the trial, where possibly family members would have to choose which of the two (2) Defendants they would testify on behalf of and, then if called upon to testify as to the other Defendant, they could not testify to the contrary. Court advised Mr. Gentile his argument was very interesting and, ORDERED, RULING RESERVED to continuance date.
