I am responding to the Supreme Court to inform them that in the event that the Supreme Court decides to hear this case, I will be appearing in forma Pauperis. I can no longer afford to retain my attorney, Peter J. Bellon, for this matter. With all due respect to the court I have used all available means to retain him.

I do want to address Jennifer Gordon's affidavit in support of motion to proceed on appeal in forma Pauperis. Everything that Jennifer Gordon disclosed is false.

Such as;

She dose and has worked for a law Firm and as you can see, all of the recent attorneys have been pro-bono.

During the summer her boyfriend worked in Washington RECEIVED 10/23/2015 was employed. So, her statement that it makes them unable to be employed at the same time is false. She left ~~our~~ our kids at home during the summer of 2000 while she was at work.

She claims in her affidavit that she has no source of income for the past 12 months but she receives child support and she and our children have a trust fund that she has access to. Her boyfriend makes 2,000 - 3,000$ a week at work and he collects child support for his children. They also receive tax credits on 5 children. I have never claimed our kids on taxes since we were divorced.

She claimed that she has two cars, that is also false. Shortly after filing this affidavit in support she purchased a new Honda Pilot from the Honda dealership at the valley auto mall in Henderson and her boyfriend purchased a 10,000 "chopper" (motorcycle). They also have a Chevy passenger van and a classic early model Chevy suburban.

I dont want to go on forever, so my point, is that they are extremely well off.

The last line in the affidavit in support of motion to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis say's, "I understand that a false statement or answer to any question in this affidavit will subject me to penalties for perjury." This is not the first time she has not told the truth in her filed motions or under oath in court for her own benefit. She is never held accountable.

Jennifer Gordon has the time and resources to consistantly take me to court, I do not have the resources to continually defend myself. These continuous attacks in family court are not only a financial burden, but extremely stressful.

I just want to be a father to Weston and Chevy Geiger and to be an equal part of their upbringing. Most of all I want our children to be happy and healthy and not have to fear their mothers boyfriend.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter,

Matthew Robert Geiger
