NON-OPPOSITION TO APPELLANT'S MOTION TO SUSPEND NRAP 9
AND ALLOW AN AUDIO RECORDING TO BE REVIEWED IN LIGHT OF THE EMERGENCY MOTION FOR STAY

Respondent, Prime Healthcare Services, LLC dba St. Mary's Regional Medical Center ("St. Mary's"), by and through its attorneys of record, Snell & Wilmer LLP, hereby files its non-opposition to Appellant's motion to suspend NRAP 9 and allow an audio recording to be reviewed in light of the emergency motion for stay.

St. Mary's does not oppose Appellant's motion; however, the transcript for the July 21st hearing has already been ordered and will be filed with this Court on Friday, August 7, 2015. St. Mary's also does not oppose Appellant's motion since St. Mary's would like the pending motion and appeal to be decided as expeditiously as possible, including an expedited briefing schedule. As long as the appeal is pending and a stay is in place, St. Mary's will be compelled to administer useless life sustaining treatments to a dead person (as determined by the Uniform Determination of Death Act NRS 451.007) and there is a hardship on the hospital and its staff required to

1 administer this useless treatment in violation of the law, and its code of ethics and ethical
2 principles of morality by licensed physicians.
