Grand Jury Case # 09AGJ036X

Exhibit # 2

Date 7/14/09

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Every person who, by day or night, enters any house, room or apartment with the intent to commit assault therein has committed the crime of Burglary.

“Assault” means intentionally placing another person in reasonable apprehension of immediate bodily harm.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

It is not necessary that the State prove the defendant actually committed an assault inside the house, room or apartment, after he entered in order for you to find he has committed the crime of burglary. The gist of the crime of burglary is the unlawful entry with criminal intent. Therefore, a burglary was committed if the defendant entered the house, room or apartment with the intent to commit an assault regardless of whether or not that crime occurred.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Consent to enter is not a defense to the crime of burglary so long as it is shown that entry was made with the specific intent to commit an assault therein.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Every person who commits the crime of burglary, who has in his possession or gains possession of any firearm or deadly weapon at any time during the commission of the crime, at any time before leaving the structure, or upon leaving the structure, has committed the crime of burglary while in possession of a weapon.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

"Deadly weapon" means any instrument which, if used in the ordinary manner contemplated by its design and construction, will or is likely to cause substantial bodily harm or death, or, any weapon, device, instrument, material or substance which, under the circumstances in which it is used, attempted to be used or threatened to be used, is readily capable of causing substantial bodily harm or death.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

An Assault With a Deadly Weapon is an intentional placing of another person in reasonable apprehension of immediate bodily harm, by or through the use of a deadly weapon.

To constitute an assault, it is not necessary that any actual injury be inflicted.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Murder is the unlawful killing of a human being, with malice aforethought, either express or implied. The unlawful killing may be effected by any of the various means by which death may be occasioned.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Malice aforethought means the intentional doing of a wrongful act without legal cause or excuse or what the law considers adequate provocation. The condition of mind described as malice aforethought may arise, from anger, hatred, revenge, or from particular ill will, spite or grudge toward the person killed. It may also arise from any unjustifiable or unlawful motive or purpose to injure another, proceeding from a heart fatally bent on mischief or with reckless disregard of consequences and social duty. Malice aforethought does not imply deliberation or the lapse of any considerable time between the malicious intention to injure another and the actual execution of the intent but denotes an unlawful purpose and design as opposed to accident and mischance.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Express malice is that deliberate intention unlawfully to take away the life of a fellow creature, which is manifested by external circumstances capable of proof.

Malice may be implied when no considerable provocation appears, or when all the circumstances of the killing show an abandoned and malignant heart.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

There are certain kinds of murder which carry with them conclusive evidence of malice aforethought. One of these classes of murder is murder committed in the perpetration or attempted perpetration of burglary. Therefore, a killing which is committed in the perpetration of a burglary is deemed to be murder of the first degree, whether the killing was intentional or unintentional or accidental. This is called the Felony-Murder rule.

The specific intent to perpetrate or attempt to perpetrate burglary must be proven by slight or marginal evidence for purposes of this grand jury hearing.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Every person found to be carrying any pistol, revolver, firearm or other dangerous or deadly weapon concealed on his person is guilty of the crime of Carrying a Concealed Weapon.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

"Concealed Weapon" means any pistol, revolver, firearm or other dangerous or deadly weapon, whether loaded or unloaded, which is carried upon a person in such a manner as not to be discernible by ordinary observation.

"Carrying upon a person" means actually on the person or in a container carried by the person.

"In a moment I am going to show you a group of photographs. This group of photographs may or may not contain a picture of the person who committed the crime now being investigated. The fact that the photos are being shown to you should not cause you to believe or guess that the guilty person has been caught. You do not have to identify anyone. It is just as important to free innocent persons from suspicion as it is to identify those who are guilty. Please keep in mind that hair styles, beards, and mustaches are easily changed. Also, photographs do not always depict the true complexion of a person - it may be lighter or darker than shown in the photo. You should pay no attention to any markings or numbers that may appear on the photos. Also, pay no attention to whether the photos are in color or black and white, or any other difference in the type or style of the photographs. You should study only the person shown in each photograph. Please do not talk to anyone other than Police Officers while viewing the photos. You must make up your own mind and not be influenced by other witnesses, if any. When you have completed viewing all the photos, please tell me whether or not you can make an identification. If you can, tell me in your own words how sure you are of your identification. Please do not indicate in any way to other witnesses that you have or have not made an identification. Thank you."

"In a moment I am going to show you a group of photographs. This group of photographs may or may not contain a picture of the person who committed the crime now being investigated. The fact that the photos are being shown to you should not cause you to believe or guess that the guilty person has been caught. You do not have to identify anyone. It is just as important to free innocent persons from suspicion as it is to identify those who are guilty. Please keep in mind that hair styles, beards, and mustaches are easily changed. Also, photographs do not always depict the true complexion of a person - it may be lighter or darker than shown in the photo. You should pay no attention to any markings or numbers that may appear on the photos. Also, pay no attention to whether the photos are in color or black and white, or any other difference in the type or style of the photographs. You should study only the person shown in each photograph. Please do not talk to anyone other than Police Officers while viewing the photos. You must make up your own mind and not be influenced by other witnesses, if any. When you have completed viewing all the photos, please tell me whether or not you can make an identification. If you can, tell me in your own words how sure you are of your identification. Please do not indicate in any way to other witnesses that you have or have not made an identification. Thank you."

- Mr. Coffee announced ready for trial and advised they reviewed the State's file and will be picking up copies this morning. He does not anticipate a problem. Mr. Coffee advised he made a Brady request during the file review regarding anyone carrying a weapon at the party. Additionally, several of the witnesses have been represented by his office as juveniles. Mr. Coffee advised his review of the situation is it will not result in a conflict and they will not be using any confidential information. Mr. Coffee advised, also, he expects the issue that this was the victim's 14th birthday party to be raised and stated it does not seem to be part of the res gestae and he will be asking to remove that from the jury's consideration. Mr. Coffee requested a status check on Friday to make sure everything is set and, if there is a resolution, they will not have to scramble to be heard at the last minute. Conference at the bench. COURT ORDERED, this case will proceed to trial on Monday; matter set for status check on Friday and the Court will take up any pre-trial issues at that time.

- Brett Keeler, Deputy District Attorney, present on behalf of the State. Defendant not present in custody with the Nevada Department of Corrections.

Based on the pleadings and without argument, Court FINDS, Defendant has made a vague four (4) sentence request for transcripts, failing to make a specific claim as to what the transcripts are need for; therefore, COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Court noted Defendant will be permitted to file a new motion detailing the issues and/or claims.
