FRANK MILFORD PECK, Appellant, vs. VALLEY HOSPITAL MEDICAL CENTER; DAVID R. ZIPF, M.D.; AND MICHAEL D.BARNUM, M.D., Respondents	Supreme Court No. 68664

OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR LEAVE TO REFILE PETITION FOR REVIEW

Pursuant to Nevada Rule of Appellant Procedure (NRAP) 27 Respondent, Michael D. Barnum, M.D., by and through his counsel of record, David J. Mortensen, Esq. and Candace C. Herling, Esq. of the law firm ALVERSON, TAYLOR, MORTENSEN & SANDERS, and hereby presents its Opposition to Appellant Frank Milford Peck's Motion for Leave to Refile Petition for Review.

This opposition is made and based upon the attached points and authorities, any oral argument permitted at the time of hearing of this motion, and all the papers and pleadings on file in this matter.

SUMMARY OF OPPOSITION

Appellant's Motion for Leave to Refile Petition for Review contains a myriad of unconnected quasi-legal arguments, which when combined amount to little more than a desperate attempt to continue a litigation which has been thoroughly reviewed and decided by this Honorable Court. Appellant is attempting to revive his appeal by presenting previously unraised arguments that his litigation should be allowed to continue forward in District Court. Not only are Appellant's arguments untimely pursuant to NRAP 40, and do not warrant any consideration, but even if this Honorable Court was willing to consider Appellant's arguments, they utterly fail as related to this Respondent. As such, this Honorable Court should deny Appellant's Motion for Leave to Refile Petition for Review.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. APPELLANT'S ARGUMENT SHOULD BE DENIED AS UNTIMELY PURSUANT TO NRAP 40(c)(1)

II. DISCOVERY RELATING TO VALLEY HOSPITAL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES DOES NOT HAVE ANY BEARING ON THE UNDERLYING LITIGATION

III. APPELLANT'S PARTICIPATION IN OTHER LITIGATIONS SHOULD NOT HAVE ANY BEARING ON HIS RESPONSIBILITIES TO THIS LITIGATION

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Appellant Frank Peck (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant" or "Mr. Peck") brought the underlying suit against Respondent Michael Barnum, M.D. (hereinafter referred to as "Respondent" or "Dr. Barnum"), David Zipf, M.D., and Valley Hospital Medical Center (hereinafter "Valley Hospital") on October 13, 2014, alleging a foreign body had been left in his hand after hospitalization. AA0066-69. The Eighth Judicial District Court granted a Judgment on the Pleadings in favor of Respondent on August 6, 2015 for failure to attach an affidavit of merit pursuant to NRS 41A.071. AA0076 – 81. Appellant then filed his Notice of Appeal on August 17, 2015. AA0082. Appellant requested, and was granted, pro bono representation for his appeal. Rachel E. Donn, Esq. and Andrea M. Gandara, Esq. of Holley, Driggs, Walch, Fine, Wray, Puzey & Thompson provided legal representation to Appellant. See Order dated December 7, 2015, on file herein.

On September 8, 2016, Appellant stipulated to the dismissal of Valley Hospital. See Stipulation and Order to Dismiss Valley Hospital. The remaining parties filed responsive briefing on September 26, 2016. See generally, Respondent Michael D. Barnum M.D.'s Amended Answering Brief, on file herein. Parties presented oral arguments to this Honorable Court on September 26, 2017. Thereafter, the Court rendered its opinion, upholding the District Court's Judgment on the Pleadings. 133 Nev. Adv. Op. 108 (Dec. 28, 2017).

On February 12, 2018, Appellant's counsel of record filed a Motion to Withdraw, as Appellant's request for a Motion for Reconsideration was beyond the scope of their representation. See Motion to Withdraw as Counsel, on file herein. On March 1, 2018, this Honorable Court ordered Appellant file his petition for review within thirty (30) days. See Order dated March 1, 2018, on file herein. Appellant filed a Motion for Leave and a Motion for Enlargement of Time on March 22, 2018 (on file herein). In addition to the present appeal, Appellant has a long history of Nevada Supreme Court appeals and Eighth Judicial District Court actions. See docketing statements, attached hereto as Exhibit A.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

I. APPELLANT'S ARGUMENT SHOULD BE DENIED AS UNTIMELY PURSUANT TO NRAP 40(c)(1)

Nevada Rule of Appellant Procedure 40(c)(1) states that "no point may be raised for the first time" in a request for reconsideration. The Rule further states that review, rehearing, and reconsideration are only available when the Court has "overlooked or misapprehended a material fact in the records or a material question of law in the case," or when the Court has "overlooked, misapplied, or failed to consider" relevant statues, rules, or controlling authority. NRAP 40(c)(2); NRAP 40A(c).

In his opening brief, Appellant raised four arguments. AA0002. His first three arguments presented questions relating to the constitutionality of NRS 41A.071; the fourth raised a question relating to the allegations necessary to prevail on a motion to dismiss under NRS 41A.100. AA0002. In his briefing, Appellant did not make any arguments that the Eighth Judicial District Court committed reversible error based on Appellant's inability to conduct proper discovery to prove his allegations, as he has here, making these improper, new arguments and grounds for the denial of Appellant's Motion for Leave to File Petition for Review.

Further, Appellant's present Motion does not make any allegations that this Honorable Court overlooked or misapplied relevant facts or law, as required by NRAP 40(c). As such, the arguments presented in Appellant's Motion are impermissible grounds to request review pursuant to NRAP 40(c).

II. DISCOVERY RELATING TO VALLEY HOSPITAL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES DOES NOT HAVE ANY BEARING ON THE UNDERLYING LITIGATION

Even if this Honorable Court was willing to entertain Appellant's argument that an opportunity to conduct discovery might uncover a Valley Hospital policy requiring no foreign objects be left in patients, that argument has no bearing on Appellant's claims against this Respondent.

Whether a party followed its own policies and procedures in connection with the alleged incident is irrelevant. See, e.g. McConnell v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 995 F. Supp. 2d. 1164, 1169) (D. Nev. 2014) ("Whether a defendant's actions in a particular instance are negligent does not at all depend upon his habits or personal guidelines for his own behavior..."). It is well established that whether an individual followed written policies leading up to or following an alleged accident is irrelevant to a negligence claim. Id. In all negligence cases, what matters is whether a defendant complied with the legal standard of care applicable to the case being considered. See Sadler v. PacifiCare of Nev., 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 98, 340 P.3d 1264, 1267 (2014) (setting forth the elements of a negligence claim).

Although Valley Hospital was a party to the underlying District Court litigation, Appellant voluntarily stipulated to its dismissal on September 8, 2016. See Order dated Feb. 7, 2017, on file herein. Respondent Dr. Barnum is not and was not a Valley Hospital employee, and was not subject to its policies and procedures. Moreover, even if Dr. Barnum was subject to Valley Hospital policies, the content or mere presence of policies and procedures relating to "leaving nothing behind in patients" is irrelevant, as policies do not make negligence more or less likely.

Appellant's entire argument relating to policies and procedures is a red herring and has no legal bearing on this matter. Valley Hospital's internal policies are therefore not indicative of negligence or the applicable standard of care because they do not set the standard of care for similar circumstances, as a whole. See McConnell, 995 F. Supp. 2d. at 1169. A business's internal policies may be substantially more stringent than what the legal duty of care requires in some respects out of an abundance of caution, or they may purport to be less stringent in other areas, or they may not touch on certain issues at all. See McConnell, 995 F. Supp. 2d. at 1169. Simply stated, there is not necessarily any correlation between Valley Hospital's internal policies and procedures and the legally-binding standard of care that governs negligence cases. Appellant's sudden request for discovery seeking such evidence, therefore, serves no purpose other than to further delay the conclusion of this appeal and waste valuable judicial resources; as the McConnell court observed, "adherence to insufficient policies would not exculpate a negligent defendant any more than nonadherence to sufficient policies would inculpate him." McConnell, 995 F. Supp. 2d. at 1169. As such, Respondent requests that this Honorable Court deny appellant's Motion for Leave as inappropriate and frivolous.

III. APPELLANT'S PARTICIPATION IN OTHER LITIGATIONS SHOULD NOT HAVE ANY BEARING ON HIS RESPONSIBILITIES TO THIS LITIGATION

Appellant asserts that he is unable to meet the judicial deadlines in this matter because of his responsibilities in nine other matters before not only this Honorable Court, but the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States District Court (though this inventory of court actions does not appear to include open Eighth Judicial District Court actions). See Exhibit A. However, Appellant conveniently ignores the fact that he is the moving party in all nine of those matters, and he has taken extraordinary actions to prevent those cases from reaching their final dispositions, including filing multiple appeals of this Honorable Court's denial of Appellant's Motions to Reconsider previous court rulings. See e.g. Appellant's Informal Brief in Case No. 75141, Docket No. 18-11310.

Appellant has been given countless opportunities to litigate this matter, and has been heard by multiple courts; he is only limited by the burdens he has placed on himself by pursuing this, and countless other actions.

Appellant's colorful litigation history includes actions against, but not limited to, the Department of Corrections, the Washoe County Sherriff, District Court judges, and his court-appointed attorney, in addition to this present matter. In total, Appellant has raised more than fifty (50) appeals since 1998, and does not appear willing to cease his unending actions. Appellant has used this Honorable Court and other appellate courts to create an endless set of legal nesting dolls, where each Appeal and Motion rests inside the one before it, holding his legal adversaries hostage in a never-ending maze of legal complexity. In short, Appellant is requesting judicial relief from deadlines of his own making.

Unlike the Appellant who appears to have no desire to see his appeals end, Respondent has a vested interest in the timely disposition of this appeal. Respondent's interests in timely adjudication should not be overshadowed by Appellant's choice to endlessly pursue legal actions against countless entities, resulting in at least ten separate matters in four separate courts. As such, Respondent requests this Court deny Appellant's Motion and close the underlying Appeal to prevent further filings.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, Respondent requests that this Honorable Court deny Appellant's Motion for Leave to Refile Petition for Review and close the underlying appeal.
