1 on for hearing on the 3rd day of June 2015 at the hour of 9:00 a.m. before Department XXXI of 2 the Eighth Judicial District Court, in and for Clark County, Nevada with the honorable JUDGE 3 JOANNA S. KISHNER presiding. PLAINTIFFS appeared by and through their attorney, DUANE 4 E. SHINNICK, ESQ. of the law firm, SHINNICK, RYAN & RANSAVAGE, P.C.; and 5 DEFENDANT U.S. HOME CORPORATION appeared by and through its attorney, GREGORY 6 KING, ESQ. of the law firm, PAYNE & FEARS LLP. All other appearances noted in the record.
7 Having reviewed the papers and pleadings on file herein, and heard the oral arguments of the 8 attorneys, the Court makes the following Findings of Fact, and Conclusions of Law:

9 FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

10 1. PLAINTIFFS THE MICHAEL BALLESTEROS TRUST; RODRIGO ASANION; 11 FEDERICO AGUAYO; FELIPE ENRIQUEZ; JIMMY FOSTER JR.; THE GARCIA FAMILY 12 TRUST; ARNULFO ORTEGA-GOMEZ and ELVIRA GOMEZ-ORTEGA; JOHN J. and IRMA
13 A. OLSON; OMAR PONCE; BRANDON WEAVER; JON YATES; and MINTESNOT
14 WOLDETSADIK ("PLAINTIFFS") are alleged to be owners of individual residences within the 15 "Azure Manor/Rancho de Paz" development located in Las Vegas, Nevada.

16 2. The "Azure Manor/Rancho de Paz" community was developed and/or built by 17 DEFENDANT and sold to PLAINTIFFS, or PLAINTIFFS' predecessors, from approximately 18 2004 to 2005.

19 3. On February 20, 2015, twelve (12) of the PLAINTIFF homeowner groups¹ filed
20 their Complaint against DEFENDANT as a result of an alleged multitude of constructional defects
21 located within the single family residences and common area elements² located within the Azure
22 Manor/Rancho de Paz community. The matter was assigned to Department XXXI.

23 4. On April 30, 2015, DEFENDANT moved this Court to compel all twelve (12) of 24 the PLAINTIFF homeowner groups to seek redress of their construction defect disputes via 25 arbitration (the "Motion") based upon arbitration provisions within the Covenants, Conditions and 26 Restrictions ("CC&Rs") of the Azure Manor/Rancho de Paz community where their homes are 27 ¹ A "homeowner group" encompasses those owners who jointly own the residence.

28 ² See PLAINTIFFS' Construction Defect Complaint filed on February 20, 2015, Paragraphs 3, 21, 22, 23, and 24.

1 located. DEFENDANT further seeks to specifically compel arbitration for construction defects for 2 PLAINTIFFS John and Irma Olson, and Michael Ballesteros, as trustee of the Michael Ballesteros
3 Trust, based upon the arbitration provisions provided within Paragraph 18 of their purchase and 4 sales agreements ("PSAs") entered into with DEFENDANT US HOME.

5 5. DEFENDANT argues that all PLAINTIFFS are bound by the CC&Rs, and the 6 arbitration provisions contained therein. DEFENDANT further contends that the Federal 7 Arbitration Act ("FAA"), Title 9 U.S.C. §§1 et seq. mandates enforcement of the arbitration
8 provisions, and any state laws providing the contrary are preempted by the FAA. DEFENDANT
9 asserts that the arbitration provisions are neither procedurally nor substantively unconscionable,
10 therefore such provisions must be enforced. PLAINTIFFS opposed the Motion stating that there
11 are no valid agreements to arbitrate, that the FAA does not apply, that the arbitration provisions 12 are procedurally and substantively unconscionable, the arbitration provisions are contrary to 13 Nevada law, and that compelling arbitration would not be judicially efficient. There would have to 14 be twelve (12) separate arbitrations (assuming that agreements to arbitrate were proven as to all 15 PLAINTIFFS).

16 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17 6. In analyzing the matter, this Court first notes that in order to compel arbitration, 18 DEFENDANT US HOME must show that there is a valid and enforceable agreement between the 19 parties to arbitrate. See Mitri, et al. v. Arnel Management Company, et al., 157 Cal.App.4th 1164, 20 69 Cal.Rptr.3d 223 (Cal.App. 2007). Here, PLAINTIFFS do not dispute the existence of the 21 arbitration provisions at issue, or that the claims fall within the scope of the arbitration provisions,
22 but rather contend that the arbitration provisions are unenforceable in light of the NRS Chapter 40
23 protections of homeowner rights, and the fact that the provisions are unconscionable.

24 7. The United States Congress enacted the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA") in 1925
25 in response to widespread judicial hostility to arbitration agreements. See AT&T Mobility, LLC
26 v. Concepcion, ___ U.S. ___, 131 S.Ct. 1740, 1745, 179 L.Ed.2d 742 (2011), citing Hall Street
27 Associates, LLC v. Mattel, Inc., 552 U.S. 576, 581, 128 S.Ct. 1396, 170 L.Ed.2d 254 (2008).

1 Title 9 U.S.C. § 2, the “primary substantive provision of the Act,”³ provides in relevant part as 2 follows:

3 A written provision in any maritime transaction or a contract evidencing a 4 transaction involving commerce to settle by arbitration a controversy thereafter 5 arising out of such contract or transaction...shall be valid, irrevocable, and 6 enforceable, save upon such grounds as exist at law or in equity for the 7 revocation of any contract

8 8. The United States Supreme Court has described Title 9 U.S.C. § 2 as reflecting 9 both a “liberal federal policy favoring arbitration,”⁴ and the “fundamental principal that 10 arbitration is a matter of contract.”⁵ Keeping in line with these principles, the high court has 11 held judges must place arbitration agreements on an equal footing with other contracts, and 12 enforce them according to their terms. AT&T Mobility, LLC, 131 S.Ct. at 1745-46.

13 9. The Court notes that the FAA specifically sets forth in part, “a contract 14 evidencing a transaction involving commerce to settle by arbitration a controversy...shall be 15 valid, irrevocable, and enforceable,...” Title 9 U.S.C. §2 (Emphasis added). As other state and 16 federal courts have found, in order to activate the application of the FAA, the commerce
17 involved in the contract must be interstate or foreign. See Bradley v. Brentwood Homes, Inc., 18 398 S.C. 447, 454, 730 S.E.2d 312, 315-16 (2012), citing 2 S.C. Jur. Arbitration § 6 (Supp.
19 2012) (“Interstate commerce is a necessary basis for application of the federal act, and a 20 contract not so predicated must be governed by state law. To activate application of the federal 21 act, the commerce involved in the contract must be interstate or foreign.”).

22 10. The United States Supreme Court has held that the phrase “involving commerce”
23 is the same as “affecting commerce,” which has been broadly interpreted to mean Congress
24 intended to use its powers to regulate interstate commerce to its full extent. See Blanton v.
25 Stathos, 351 S.C. 534, 540, 570 S.E.2d 565, 568 (Ct.App. 2002), citing Allied-Bruce Terminex
26 Cos. v. Dobson, 513 U.S. 265, 115 S.Ct. 834, 130 L.Ed. 753 (1995). “Congress’ Commerce
27 Clause power ‘may be exercised in individual cases without showing any specific effect upon

1 interstate commerce' if in the aggregate the economic activity in question would represent 'a 2 general practice...subject to federal control.'" Citizens Bank v. Alafabco, Inc., 539 U.S. 53, 56-3 57, 123 S.Ct. 2037, 156 L.Ed.2d 46 (2003), quoting Mandeville Island Farms, Inc. v. Am.
4 Crystal Sugar Co., 334 U.S. 219, 236, 68 S.Ct. 996, 92 L.Ed.2d 1328 (1948). "Despite this 5 expansive interpretation of the FAA, the FAA does not reflect a congressional intent to occupy the 6 entire field of arbitration." Zabinski v. Bright Acres Associates, 346 S.C. 580, 592, 553 S.E.2d
7 110, 116 (2001), citing Volt Information Sciences, Inc. v. Board of Trustees of Leland Stanford
8 Junior University, 489 U.S. 468, 478, 109 S.Ct. 1248, 103 L.Ed.2d 488 (1989) (Emphasis added).

9 11. Both state and federal jurisdictions addressing the issue have held the sale of 10 residential real estate is inherently intrastate, whereby the FAA does not apply. See Saneii v.
11 Robards, 289 F.Supp.2d 855, 858 (W.D.Ky. 2003); SI V, LLC v. FMC Corporation, 223
12 F.Supp.2d. 1059, 1062 (N.D.Cal. 2002), citing Cecala v. Moore, 982 F.Supp. 609,612 (N.D.Ill.
13 1997); Bradley, 298 S.C. at 456, 730 S.E.2d at 317; see also Garrison v. Palmas Del Mar
14 Homeowners Association, Inc., 538 F.Supp.2d 468, 473 (D.P.R. 2008). These courts reason that 15 contracts strictly for the sale of residential real estate focus entirely on the commodity, which is 16 the land firmly planted in one particular state. The citizenship of the immediate parties, the buyer 17 and seller, or their movements to and from that state are incidental to the real estate transaction.
18 That is, those movements are not part of the transaction itself.

19 12. In the present case, this Court concludes that the FAA does not apply to the 20 arbitration agreements because the construction defect claims at issue relate to real property
21 contained entirely within the state of Nevada, and therefore do not affect interstate commerce.
22 Furthermore, no federal law is implicated by the construction defect claims. For these reasons, 23 logic suggests such transactions are not among those considered as involving interstate commerce.

24 13. Although the Court finds the FAA to be inapplicable here⁶, arbitration may still be 25 compelled pursuant to Nevada law. In Nevada, strong public policy favors arbitration, and such 26 clauses generally are enforceable. Gonski v. Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 126 Nev. ___, 245 P.3d

27 ⁶ Even if the FAA were found to apply, "[g]enerally applicable contract defenses, such as fraud, duress, or 28 unconscionability, may be applied to invalidate arbitration agreements without contravening. . .[the FAA]". Doctor's Associates, Inc. v. Casarotto, 517 U.S. 681, 682, 116 S.Ct. 1652, 1653 (1996).

1 1164, 1168 (2010), citing D.R. Horton, Inc. v. Green, 120 Nev. 549, 553, 96 P.3d 1159, 1162
2 (2004). The Supreme Court of Nevada has held that there is a "presumption of arbitrability" where 3 there is an agreement to arbitrate. Phillips v. Parker, 106 Nev. 415, 417, 794 P.2d 716, 718 (1990).
4 Even though the party seeking to enforce an arbitration clause bears the burden of proving the 5 clause's valid existence, any party opposing the arbitration may establish a defense to enforcement.
6 Gonski, 245 P.3d at 1169, citing D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 553, 96 P.3d at 1162.

7 14. The arbitration clause may be invalidated if it is found by this Court to be 8 unconscionable. Cf Picardi v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Ct., 127 Nev. ___, 251 P.2d 723, 726 (2011),
9 effectively overruled by AT&T Mobility, LLC v. Concepcion, ___ U.S. ___, 131 S.Ct. 1740, 179
10 L.Ed.2d 742 (2011), quoting Rivero v. Rivero, 125 Nev. 410, 429, 216 P.3d 213, 226 (2009)
11 ("Parties are free to contract, and the courts will enforce their contracts if they are not 12 unconscionable, illegal, or in violation of public policy."). In order to find the arbitration
13 provisions to arbitrate unconscionable, the Court must determine whether the arbitration
14 provisions are both procedurally and substantively unconscionable. D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 553,
15 quoting Burch v. Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 118 Nev. 438, 442, 49 P.3d 647, ___ (2002). That is, a 16 finding of unconscionability requires the "procedural" element focusing on "oppression" or 17 "surprise" due to unequal bargaining power, and the "substantive" factor on "overly harsh" or 18 "one-sided" results. Armendariz v. Foundation Health Psychcare Service, Inc., 24 Cal.4th 83, 114, 19 99 Cal.Rptr.2d 745, ___, 6 P.3d 669, 690 (Cal. 2000).

20 15. An arbitration agreement is "procedurally unconscionable when a party lacks a 21 meaningful opportunity to agree to the clause terms either because of unequal bargaining power, 22 as in an adhesion contract, or because the clause and its effects are not readily ascertainable upon a
23 review of the contract." D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 554. "Procedural unconscionability" often 24 involves the "use of fine print or complicated, incomplete or misleading language that fails to 25 inform a reasonable person of the contractual language's consequences." D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 26 556. The defendant does not have a duty to explain in detail each and every right the plaintiff 27 would be waiving by agreeing to arbitration for the provision to be enforceable. However, an 28

1 arbitration clause; at the least, must be conspicuous and clearly place him or her on notice that
2 he/she is waiving important rights under Nevada law. D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 556-57.

3 16. In the present matter, the Court finds that the arbitration clause set forth in the 4 CC&Rs is procedurally unconscionable. The arbitration provision is located on page 76 of 86 of 5 the CC&Rs, and is in the same sized font as the rest of the CC&Rs. The arbitration provisions are 6 inconspicuously placed within the voluminous document, and there is nothing to draw attention to 7 the average home buyer of the important rights being waived. The text of the arbitration provisions
8 is not bolded or capitalized, is in the same font as the other provisions of the CC&Rs, and does not 9 stand out to draw attention to the fact that significant rights are being waived.

10 17. Furthermore, the CC&Rs abrogate Nevada's Chapter 40 and are against public 11 policy in requiring different timelines and/or additional procedures to bring construction defect
12 claims. The Nevada Supreme Court has held that arbitration provisions in homes sales contracts
13 (and presumably in CC&Rs) that abrogate a homeowner's NRS Chapter 40 rights are not 14 enforceable as they are unconscionable and violate the public policy behind NRS Chapter 40. See 15 Gonski v. Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 126 Nev. ___, 245 P.3d 1164 (2010). Here, the arbitration
16 hearing is to be convened no later than one hundred eighty (180) days from the date the arbitrator
17 is appointed. This timeline and procedure is not mandated under NRS Chapter 40.

18 18. The arbitration provisions in Paragraph 18 of the PSAs are also procedurally
19 unconscionable because they do not draw attention to the arbitration provisions. To the contrary, 20 the text of the arbitration clauses is not capitalized or bolded to bring attention to such provisions.
21 There is no explicit "construction defect" term mentioned indicating that such claims must be 22 arbitrated. The arbitration clauses, like many others within the PSAs, are inconspicuous on page 2
23 of 4. There is nothing to highlight the importance of the arbitration provisions. Furthermore, the 24 arbitration provisions are confusing because they state that claims should be arbitrated, not by or 25 in a court of law. However, shortly thereafter the provisions state that "in the event the 26 Homeowner's Warranty provided by Seller does not provide for binding arbitration, a claim under,
27 or covered by, the warranty will be administered as provided in the warranty prior to submission
28 to binding arbitration." It is therefore uncertain whether Plaintiffs must first proceed through a

1 Homeowner's Warranty process prior to seeking arbitration for any claims. Even had Plaintiffs 2 been aware that there were arbitration provisions and read them, it would be difficult to understand 3 this confusing and apparently contradictory provision.

4 19. The arbitration provisions do not clearly state that the purchaser is waiving his right
5 to a jury trial, nor does it mention any impact on the purchaser's rights under NRS Chapter 40.
6 The Court finds that the arbitration provisions lack clarity. While a DEFENDANT does not have 7 the duty to explain in detail each and every right the prospective home buyer would be waiving by 8 agreeing to Paragraph 18, the arbitration provisions must be conspicuous and clearly place the 9 purchaser on notice that he or she is waiving substantial rights under Nevada law. As previously
10 indicated, PLAINTIFFS were not given an opportunity to negotiate the terms of the arbitration
11 provisions, and/or that they would be given up certain important rights, including Chapter 40
12 rights. For these reasons, this Court concludes that Paragraph 18 of the PSAs is "procedurally 13 unconscionable".

14 20. The next issue is whether the arbitration clauses in the CC&Rs and PSAs are 15 "substantively unconscionable". "Substantive unconscionability" focuses on the "one-sidedness 16 of the contract terms." D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 554. In D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 554, the 17 Nevada Supreme Court relied upon the substantive unconscionability analysis employed by the 18 Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in Ting v. AT&T, 319 F.2d 1126, 1149 (9th Cir. 2003). In that 19 case, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals required an arbitration agreement have a "modicum of 20 bilaterality." Ting, 319 F.2d at 1149, quoting Armendariz, 99 Cal.Rptr.2d 745, 6 P.3d at 692.

21 21. Section 17.16 of the CC&Rs state that "costs of the arbitration shall be borne
22 equally by the parties." The Nevada Supreme Court in the D.R. Horton case found substantively 23 unconscionability when there was a requirement that each party pay equally for the costs of 24 arbitration. D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 1165.

25 22. Further, the arbitration provisions contained in the CC&Rs would not be binding on 26 any subcontractors. As the subcontractors would not be required to arbitrate, there would be 27 inconsistent results – those reached in arbitration versus the court, along with a duplication of 28

1 efforts, and no saving of costs. As written, the CC&Rs would give US HOME the sole right to 2 bring subcontractor parties in the separately arbitrated matters or to consolidate proceedings.

3 23. In Paragraph 18, page 3, of the PSA, the "Seller shall have the option to include its 4 subcontractors and suppliers as parties in the mediation and arbitration". There is no bilaterality in 5 the sole option of DEFENDANT to include subcontractors and suppliers in mediation and 6 arbitration. This provision is impermissibly one-sided as it divests PLAINTIFFS of the similar 7 right to include subcontractors and suppliers that it would ordinarily be given under NRS Chapter 8 40 in litigation. Further, Paragraph 18 of the PSAs requires the parties to equally share the costs of 9 the arbitration, and implicitly to bear their own attorneys' fees. Such provisions contradict the 10 policies underlying NRS 40.600 et seq. which provide the claimant is entitled to reimbursement of 11 his or her attorney's fees if a constructional defect is proven, and the contractor or builder elected
12 not to inspect and repair. See NRS 40.655. This is in abrogation of a claimant's right under NRS
13 Chapter 40, which alone is enough for a finding of substantive unconscionability. See Gonski v.
14 Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 126 Nev. ___, 245 P.3d 1164, 1173 (2010). In addition, under Nevada
15 law, the prevailing party is entitled to reimbursement of costs. See NRS Chapter 18. In this Court's 16 view, such provisions, essentially stripping the home buyer of his entitlements, indicate 17 "impermissible one-sidedness". Furthermore, the PLAINTIFFS were not given the opportunity to 18 negotiate the terms of such provisions, therefore they were contracts to "take it or leave it", which 19 are impermissibly adhesive. All in all, this Court concludes that the arbitration provisions in the 20 CC&Rs and in Paragraph 18 of the PSAs are "substantively unconscionable" consistent with the 21 findings in D.R. Horton, Gonski, and Burch cases.

22 24. As the arbitration provisions in both the CC&Rs and PSAs are both procedurally 23 and substantively unconscionable, the Court finds that the arbitration provisions are 24 unenforceable.

13 A. OLSON; OMAR PONCE; BRANDON WEAVER; JON YATES; and MINTESNOT
14 WOLDETSADIK ("PLAINTIFFS") are alleged to be owners of individual residences within the 15 "Azure Manor/Rancho de Paz" development located in Las Vegas, Nevada.

16 2. The "Azure Manor/Rancho de Paz" community was developed and/or built by 17 DEFENDANT and sold to PLAINTIFFS, or PLAINTIFFS' predecessors, from approximately 18 2004 to 2005.

19 3. On February 20, 2015, twelve (12) of the PLAINTIFF homeowner groups¹ filed
20 their Complaint against DEFENDANT as a result of an alleged multitude of constructional defects
21 located within the single family residences and common area elements² located within the Azure
22 Manor/Rancho de Paz community. The matter was assigned to Department XXXI.

23 4. On April 30, 2015, DEFENDANT moved this Court to compel all twelve (12) of 24 the PLAINTIFF homeowner groups to seek redress of their construction defect disputes via 25 arbitration (the "Motion") based upon arbitration provisions within the Covenants, Conditions and 26 Restrictions ("CC&Rs") of the Azure Manor/Rancho de Paz community where their homes are 27 ¹ A "homeowner group" encompasses those owners who jointly own the residence.

28 ² See PLAINTIFFS' Construction Defect Complaint filed on February 20, 2015, Paragraphs 3, 21, 22, 23, and 24.

1 located. DEFENDANT further seeks to specifically compel arbitration for construction defects for
2 PLAINTIFFS John and Irma Olson, and Michael Ballesteros, as trustee of the Michael Ballesteros
3 Trust, based upon the arbitration provisions provided within Paragraph 18 of their purchase and 4 sales agreements ("PSAs") entered into with DEFENDANT US HOME.

5 5. DEFENDANT argues that all PLAINTIFFS are bound by the CC&Rs, and the 6 arbitration provisions contained therein. DEFENDANT further contends that the Federal 7 Arbitration Act ("FAA"), Title 9 U.S.C. §§1 et seq. mandates enforcement of the arbitration
8 provisions, and any state laws providing the contrary are preempted by the FAA. DEFENDANT
9 asserts that the arbitration provisions are neither procedurally nor substantively unconscionable,
10 therefore such provisions must be enforced. PLAINTIFFS opposed the Motion stating that there
11 are no valid agreements to arbitrate, that the FAA does not apply, that the arbitration provisions 12 are procedurally and substantively unconscionable, the arbitration provisions are contrary to 13 Nevada law, and that compelling arbitration would not be judicially efficient. There would have to 14 be twelve (12) separate arbitrations (assuming that agreements to arbitrate were proven as to all 15 PLAINTIFFS).

16 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17 6. In analyzing the matter, this Court first notes that in order to compel arbitration, 18 DEFENDANT US HOME must show that there is a valid and enforceable agreement between the 19 parties to arbitrate. See Mitri, et al. v. Arnel Management Company, et al., 157 Cal.App.4th 1164, 20 69 Cal.Rptr.3d 223 (Cal.App. 2007). Here, PLAINTIFFS do not dispute the existence of the 21 arbitration provisions at issue, or that the claims fall within the scope of the arbitration provisions,
22 but rather contend that the arbitration provisions are unenforceable in light of the NRS Chapter 40
23 protections of homeowner rights, and the fact that the provisions are unconscionable.

24 7. The United States Congress enacted the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA") in 1925
25 in response to widespread judicial hostility to arbitration agreements. See AT&T Mobility, LLC
26 v. Concepcion, ___ U.S. ___, 131 S.Ct. 1740, 1745, 179 L.Ed.2d 742 (2011), citing Hall Street
27 Associates, LLC v. Mattel, Inc., 552 U.S. 576, 581, 128 S.Ct. 1396, 170 L.Ed.2d 254 (2008).

1 Title 9 U.S.C. § 2, the “primary substantive provision of the Act,”³ provides in relevant part as 2 follows:

3 A written provision in any maritime transaction or a contract evidencing a 4 transaction involving commerce to settle by arbitration a controversy thereafter 5 arising out of such contract or transaction...shall be valid, irrevocable, and 6 enforceable, save upon such grounds as exist at law or in equity for the 7 revocation of any contract

8 8. The United States Supreme Court has described Title 9 U.S.C. § 2 as reflecting 9 both a “liberal federal policy favoring arbitration,”⁴ and the “fundamental principle that 10 arbitration is a matter of contract.”⁵ Keeping in line with these principles, the high court has 11 held judges must place arbitration agreements on an equal footing with other contracts, and 12 enforce them according to their terms. AT&T Mobility, LLC, 131 S.Ct. at 1745-46.

13 9. The Court notes that the FAA specifically sets forth in part, “a contract 14 evidencing a transaction involving commerce to settle by arbitration a controversy...shall be 15 valid, irrevocable, and enforceable,...” Title 9 U.S.C. §2 (Emphasis added). As other state and 16 federal courts have found, in order to activate the application of the FAA, the commerce
17 involved in the contract must be interstate or foreign. See Bradley v. Brentwood Homes, Inc., 18 398 S.C. 447, 454, 730 S.E.2d 312, 315-16 (2012), citing 2 S.C. Jur. Arbitration § 6 (Supp.
19 2012) (“Interstate commerce is a necessary basis for application of the federal act, and a 20 contract not so predicated must be governed by state law. To activate application of the federal 21 act, the commerce involved in the contract must be interstate or foreign.”).

22 10. The United States Supreme Court has held that the phrase “involving commerce”
23 is the same as “affecting commerce,” which has been broadly interpreted to mean Congress
24 intended to use its powers to regulate interstate commerce to its full extent. See Blanton v.
25 Stathos, 351 S.C. 534, 540, 570 S.E.2d 565, 568 (Ct.App. 2002), citing Allied-Bruce Terminex
26 Cos. v. Dobson, 513 U.S. 265, 115 S.Ct. 834, 130 L.Ed. 753 (1995). “Congress’ Commerce
27 Clause power ‘may be exercised in individual cases without showing any specific effect upon

4 Crystal Sugar Co., 334 U.S. 219, 236, 68 S.Ct. 996, 92 L.Ed.2d 1328 (1948). "Despite this 5 expansive interpretation of the FAA, the FAA does not reflect a congressional intent to occupy the 6 entire field of arbitration." Zabinski v. Bright Acres Associates, 346 S.C. 580, 592, 553 S.E.2d
7 110, 116 (2001), citing Volt Information Sciences, Inc. v. Board of Trustees of Leland Stanford
8 Junior University, 489 U.S. 468, 478, 109 S.Ct. 1248, 103 L.Ed.2d 488 (1989) (Emphasis added).

9 11. Both state and federal jurisdictions addressing the issue have held the sale of 10 residential real estate is inherently intrastate, whereby the FAA does not apply. See Saneii v.
11 Robards, 289 F.Supp.2d 855, 858 (W.D.Ky. 2003); SI V, LLC v. FMC Corporation, 223
12 F.Supp.2d, 1059, 1062 (N.D.Cal. 2002), citing Cecala v. Moore, 982 F.Supp. 609,612 (N.D.Ill.
13 1997); Bradley, 298 S.C. at 456, 730 S.E.2d at 317; see also Garrison v. Palmas Del Mar
14 Homeowners Association, Inc., 538 F.Supp.2d 468, 473 (D.P.R. 2008). These courts reason that 15 contracts strictly for the sale of residential real estate focus entirely on the commodity, which is 16 the land firmly planted in one particular state. The citizenship of the immediate parties, the buyer 17 and seller, or their movements to and from that state are incidental to the real estate transaction.
18 That is, those movements are not part of the transaction itself.

19 12. In the present case, this Court concludes that the FAA does not apply to the 20 arbitration agreements because the construction defect claims at issue relate to real property
21 contained entirely within the state of Nevada, and therefore do not affect interstate commerce.
22 Furthermore, no federal law is implicated by the construction defect claims. For these reasons, 23 logic suggests such transactions are not among those considered as involving interstate commerce.

24 13. Although the Court finds the FAA to be inapplicable here⁶, arbitration may still be 25 compelled pursuant to Nevada law. In Nevada, strong public policy favors arbitration, and such 26 clauses generally are enforceable. Gonski v. Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 126 Nev. ___, 245 P.3d

27 ⁶ Even if the FAA were found to apply, "[g]enerally applicable contract defenses, such as fraud, duress, or 28 unconscionability, may be applied to invalidate arbitration agreements without contravening. . .[the FAA]". Doctor's Associates, Inc. v. Casarotto, 517 U.S. 681, 682, 116 S.Ct. 1652, 1653 (1996).

1 1164, 1168 (2010), citing D.R. Horton, Inc. v. Green, 120 Nev. 549, 553, 96 P.3d 1159, 1162
2 (2004). The Supreme Court of Nevada has held that there is a "presumption of arbitrability" where 3 there is an agreement to arbitrate. Phillips v. Parker, 106 Nev. 415, 417, 794 P.2d 716, 718 (1990).
4 Even though the party seeking to enforce an arbitration clause bears the burden of proving the 5 clause's valid existence, any party opposing the arbitration may establish a defense to enforcement.
6 Gonski, 245 P.3d at 1169, citing D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 553, 96 P.3d at 1162.

7 14. The arbitration clause may be invalidated if it is found by this Court to be 8 unconscionable. Cf Picardi v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Ct., 127 Nev. ___, 251 P.2d 723, 726 (2011),
9 effectively overruled by AT&T Mobility, LLC v. Concepcion, ___ U.S. ___, 131 S.Ct. 1740, 179
10 L.Ed.2d 742 (2011), quoting Rivero v. Rivero, 125 Nev. 410, 429, 216 P.3d 213, 226 (2009)
11 ("Parties are free to contract, and the courts will enforce their contracts if they are not 12 unconscionable, illegal, or in violation of public policy."). In order to find the arbitration
13 provisions to arbitrate unconscionable, the Court must determine whether the arbitration
14 provisions are both procedurally and substantively unconscionable. D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 553,
15 quoting Burch v. Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 118 Nev. 438, 442, 49 P.3d 647, ___ (2002). That is, a 16 finding of unconscionability requires the "procedural" element focusing on "oppression" or 17 "surprise" due to unequal bargaining power, and the "substantive" factor on "overly harsh" or 18 "one-sided" results. Armendariz v. Foundation Health Psychcare Service, Inc., 24 Cal.4th 83, 114, 19 99 Cal.Rptr.2d 745, ___, 6 P.3d 669, 690 (Cal. 2000).

20 15. An arbitration agreement is "procedurally unconscionable when a party lacks a 21 meaningful opportunity to agree to the clause terms either because of unequal bargaining power, 22 as in an adhesion contract, or because the clause and its effects are not readily ascertainable upon a
23 review of the contract." D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 554. "Procedural unconscionability" often 24 involves the "use of fine print or complicated, incomplete or misleading language that fails to 25 inform a reasonable person of the contractual language's consequences." D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 26 556. The defendant does not have a duty to explain in detail each and every right the plaintiff 27 would be waiving by agreeing to arbitration for the provision to be enforceable. However, an 28

1 arbitration clause, at the least, must be conspicuous and clearly place him or her on notice that
2 he/she is waiving important rights under Nevada law. D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 556-57.

3 16. In the present matter, the Court finds that the arbitration clause set forth in the 4 CC&Rs is procedurally unconscionable. The arbitration provision is located on page 76 of 86 of 5 the CC&Rs, and is in the same sized font as the rest of the CC&Rs. The arbitration provisions are 6 inconspicuously placed within the voluminous document, and there is nothing to draw attention to 7 the average home buyer of the important rights being waived. The text of the arbitration provisions
8 is not bolded or capitalized, is in the same font as the other provisions of the CC&Rs, and does not 9 stand out to draw attention to the fact that significant rights are being waived.

10 17. Furthermore, the CC&Rs abrogate Nevada's Chapter 40 and are against public 11 policy in requiring different timelines and/or additional procedures to bring construction defect
12 claims. The Nevada Supreme Court has held that arbitration provisions in homes sales contracts
13 (and presumably in CC&Rs) that abrogate a homeowner's NRS Chapter 40 rights are not 14 enforceable as they are unconscionable and violate the public policy behind NRS Chapter 40. See 15 Gonski v. Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 126 Nev. ___, 245 P.3d 1164 (2010). Here, the arbitration
16 hearing is to be convened no later than one hundred eighty (180) days from the date the arbitrator
17 is appointed. This timeline and procedure is not mandated under NRS Chapter 40.

18 18. The arbitration provisions in Paragraph 18 of the PSAs are also procedurally
19 unconscionable because they do not draw attention to the arbitration provisions. To the contrary, 20 the text of the arbitration clauses is not capitalized or bolded to bring attention to such provisions.
21 There is no explicit "construction defect" term mentioned indicating that such claims must be 22 arbitrated. The arbitration clauses, like many others within the PSAs, are inconspicuous on page 2
23 of 4. There is nothing to highlight the importance of the arbitration provisions. Furthermore, the 24 arbitration provisions are confusing because they state that claims should be arbitrated, not by or 25 in a court of law. However, shortly thereafter the provisions state that "in the event the 26 Homeowner's Warranty provided by Seller does not provide for binding arbitration, a claim under,
27 or covered by, the warranty will be administered as provided in the warranty prior to submission
28 to binding arbitration." It is therefore uncertain whether Plaintiffs must first proceed through a

1 Homeowner's Warranty process prior to seeking arbitration for any claims. Even had Plaintiffs
2 been aware that there were arbitration provisions and read them, it would be difficult to understand 3 this confusing and apparently contradictory provision.

4 19. The arbitration provisions do not clearly state that the purchaser is waiving his right
5 to a jury trial, nor does it mention any impact on the purchaser's rights under NRS Chapter 40.
6 The Court finds that the arbitration provisions lack clarity. While a DEFENDANT does not have 7 the duty to explain in detail each and every right the prospective home buyer would be waiving by 8 agreeing to Paragraph 18, the arbitration provisions must be conspicuous and clearly place the 9 purchaser on notice that he or she is waiving substantial rights under Nevada law. As previously
10 indicated, PLAINTIFFS were not given an opportunity to negotiate the terms of the arbitration
11 provisions, and/or that they would be given up certain important rights, including Chapter 40
12 rights. For these reasons, this Court concludes that Paragraph 18 of the PSAs is "procedurally 13 unconscionable".

14 20. The next issue is whether the arbitration clauses in the CC&Rs and PSAs are 15 "substantively unconscionable". "Substantive unconscionability" focuses on the "one-sidedness 16 of the contract terms." D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 554. In D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 554, the 17 Nevada Supreme Court relied upon the substantive unconscionability analysis employed by the 18 Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in Ting v. AT&T, 319 F.2d 1126, 1149 (9th Cir. 2003). In that 19 case, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals required an arbitration agreement have a "modicum of 20 bilaterality." Ting, 319 F.2d at 1149, quoting Armendariz, 99 Cal.Rptr.2d 745, 6 P.3d at 692.

21 21. Section 17.16 of the CC&Rs state that "costs of the arbitration shall be borne
22 equally by the parties." The Nevada Supreme Court in the D.R. Horton case found substantively 23 unconscionability when there was a requirement that each party pay equally for the costs of 24 arbitration. D.R. Horton, 120 Nev. at 1165.

25 22. Further, the arbitration provisions contained in the CC&Rs would not be binding on 26 any subcontractors. As the subcontractors would not be required to arbitrate, there would be 27 inconsistent results – those reached in arbitration versus the court, along with a duplication of 28

1 efforts, and no saving of costs. As written, the CC&Rs would give US HOME the sole right to 2 bring subcontractor parties in the separately arbitrated matters or to consolidate proceedings.

3 23. In Paragraph 18, page 3, of the PSA, the "Seller shall have the option to include its 4 subcontractors and suppliers as parties in the mediation and arbitration". There is no bilaterality in 5 the sole option of DEFENDANT to include subcontractors and suppliers in mediation and 6 arbitration. This provision is impermissibly one-sided as it divests PLAINTIFFS of the similar 7 right to include subcontractors and suppliers that it would ordinarily be given under NRS Chapter
8 40 in litigation. Further, Paragraph 18 of the PSAs requires the parties to equally share the costs of 9 the arbitration, and implicitly to bear their own attorneys' fees. Such provisions contradict the 10 policies underlying NRS 40.600 et seq. which provide the claimant is entitled to reimbursement of 11 his or her attorney's fees if a constructional defect is proven, and the contractor or builder elected
12 not to inspect and repair. See NRS 40.655. This is in abrogation of a claimant's right under NRS
13 Chapter 40, which alone is enough for a finding of substantive unconscionability. See Gonski v.
14 Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 126 Nev. ___, 245 P.3d 1164, 1173 (2010). In addition, under Nevada
15 law, the prevailing party is entitled to reimbursement of costs. See NRS Chapter 18. In this Court's 16 view, such provisions, essentially stripping the home buyer of his entitlements, indicate 17 "impermissible one-sidedness". Furthermore, the PLAINTIFFS were not given the opportunity to 18 negotiate the terms of such provisions, therefore they were contracts to "take it or leave it", which 19 are impermissibly adhesive. All in all, this Court concludes that the arbitration provisions in the 20 CC&Rs and in Paragraph 18 of the PSAs are "substantively unconscionable" consistent with the 21 findings in D.R. Horton, Gonski, and Burch cases.

22 24. As the arbitration provisions in both the CC&Rs and PSAs are both procedurally 23 and substantively unconscionable, the Court finds that the arbitration provisions are 24 unenforceable.

17 and believe, and thereon allege, that each of the said fictitiously named defendants are responsible in 18 some manner for the defective and negligent engineering, architecture, construction, supply of 19 improper materials, and inspection of the subject property single family homes, or in some other 20 actionable manner were an integral part of the chain of development, construction and marketing of 21 the subject property single family homes, and that Plaintiffs damages as herein alleged were 22 proximately caused by their conduct. Plaintiffs pray for leave to amend this Complaint when the true 23 names and capacities of such defendants are ascertained.
24

25 8. Defendants Does 1 through 500, inclusive, whether individual, corporate, associate or 26 otherwise are fictitious names of defendants whose true names and capacities, at this time, are 27 unknown to Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereupon allege that at all times 28

1 herein mentioned each of the defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 500 was the agent, servant 2 and employee of his or her co-defendants, and in doing the things hereinafter mentioned was acting in 3 the scope of his or her authority as such agent, servant and employee, and with the permission and 4 consent of his or her co-defendants; and that each of said fictitiously named defendants, whether an 5 agent, corporation, association, or otherwise, is in some way liable or responsible to the Plaintiffs on 6 the facts hereinafter alleged, and caused injuries and damages proximately thereby as hereinafter 7 alleged. At such time as defendants' true names become known to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs will ask leave 8 of this Court to amend this Complaint to insert said true names and capacities.
9

11 9. Plaintiffs have discovered defects and damages within the periods of the applicable statutes 12 of limitations that the subject property has and is experiencing defective conditions, in particular, 13 there are damages stemming from, among other items, defectively built roofs, leaking windows, dirt 14 coming through windows, drywall cracking, stucco cracking, stucco staining, water and insect 15 intrusion through foundation slabs, and other poor workmanship.
16

17 It was the result of the representations by Defendants that they would repair the defects and 18 their conduct in so performing some works of repair, as well their proposals for correcting the defects 19 that induced Plaintiffs to withhold conducting their own independent investigation and/or filing suit 20 against said Defendants. By virtue of the fact that Defendants were the developers, contractors and 21 sellers of the subject property and aware of the particular nature of the project, including its design, 22 composition, and component parts, and when said Defendants represented that Defendants would 23 repair the defects and, in fact, some works of repair were commenced, Plaintiffs were justified in 24 relying on said representations and conduct by said Defendants in permitting them to investigate and 25 repair the defects. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs' obligation to commence an action 26 against Defendants for the defects and/or damages set forth above was tolled pursuant to NRS 11.190.
27
28

1 On numerous occasions Defendants represented to Plaintiffs that the defective systems and 2 materials were not inadequate, and that repairs had been successfully performed thereby inducing 3 reasonable reliance thereupon by Plaintiffs that conditions were not in need of repairs, therefore, 4 Defendants are estopped from asserting any potentially applicable statutes of limitations. Damage 5 has also occurred at various times in the past, including progressive damage.
6

7 10. Within the last year, Plaintiffs have discovered that the subject property has and is 8 experiencing additional defective conditions, in particular, there are damages stemming from, among 9 other items, defectively built roofs, leaking windows, dirt coming through windows, drywall 10 cracking, stucco cracking, stucco staining, water and insect intrusion through foundation slabs, and 11 other poor workmanship which would extend the statute of limitations an additional two (2) years 12 pursuant to NRS 11.203(2).
13

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Breach of Contract and Breach of Express Warranties as Against 16 All Defendants and Does 1 through 500)

17 11. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 10 of the Complaint 18 as though fully set forth herein.
19

20 12. On or about various dates commencing in 2005, and continuing thereafter in the City of 21 North Las Vegas, County of Clark, State of Nevada, the Plaintiffs and each of them or their 22 predecessors in interest, entered into contracts in writing with Defendants for the purchase from said 23 Defendants of one or more of the units in the subject property.
24

25 13. At the time of negotiations of said contracts, but before said contracts were executed 26 between the Plaintiffs and/or their predecessors in interest and said Defendants, as an inducement to 27 the Plaintiffs and/or their predecessors in interest to purchase said units, and as a part of the basis of 28

1 the bargain of the parties that culminated in the making of the contracts, said Defendants expressly 2 warranted to Plaintiffs and/or their predecessors in interest that said units were constructed in 3 conformity with the applicable building codes and the specific codes and regulations of Clark County, 4 the approved plans and specifications, and that said structures were and are sound and safe, and 5 would remain so.
6

7 14. The Plaintiffs purchased said homes in reliance on the express warranties, affirmations of 8 fact, and promises made by Defendants. Plaintiffs, and each of them, have duly performed all the 9 conditions and covenants of said contracts on their part to be performed.
10

11 15. Certain Plaintiffs and/or homeowners of the subject property, notified Defendants of said 12 breach of contract and breach of warranties, and said Defendants have refused, and continue to refuse, 13 to remedy these defects.
14

15 16. As a direct and proximate result of the breach of the express warranties (written and oral) 16 by Defendants, and each of them, as herein above alleged, Plaintiffs suffered damages stemming 17 from, among other items, defectively built roofs, leaking windows, dirt coming through windows, 18 drywall cracking, stucco cracking, stucco staining, water and insect intrusion through foundation 19 slabs, and other poor workmanship.
20

21 17. Plaintiffs have suffered damages in an amount not fully known, but believed to be within 22 the jurisdiction of this Court in that they have been and will hereafter be required to perform works of 23 repair, restoration, and construction to portions of the structures to prevent further damage and to 24 restore the structures to their proper condition. Plaintiffs will establish the precise amount of such 25 damages at trial, according to proof.
26

27 18. Plaintiffs are entitled to all damages set forth at NRS 40.655.
28

as against Does 1 through 500)

22. The Plaintiffs purchased their homes in reliance on the implied warranties and promises made by Doe defendants, and each of them. Plaintiffs have duly performed all of the covenants and conditions of said contracts on their part to be performed.

1 23. Certain Plaintiffs and/or Homeowners at the subject property have notified Doe 2 defendants of said breach of implied warranties and said Doe defendants have refused and continue to 3 refuse to remedy these defects.
4

5 24. As a direct and proximate result of the breach of the implied warranties by Doe 6 defendants and each of them as herein above alleged, Plaintiffs suffered damages stemming from, 7 among other items, defectively built roofs, leaking windows, dirt coming through windows, drywall 8 cracking, stucco cracking, stucco staining, water and insect intrusion through foundation slabs, and 9 other poor workmanship. Numerous additional defective conditions exist as more particularly 10 described in Plaintiffs' expert reports. Plaintiffs are presently unaware of the precise amount of 11 damages, but will establish the same at trial according to proof, and in accordance with NRS 40.655.
12

13 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Negligence and Negligence per se

15 As to All Defendants, and Does 1 through 500)
16

17 25. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 24 of the Complaint 18 as though fully set forth herein.

19 26. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants, and each of them, knew or should have known that if the 20 subject structure and subject premises were not properly or adequately designed, engineered, 21 marketed, supervised and/or constructed, that the owners and users would be substantially damaged 22 thereby, and that the subject structures would be defective and not of merchantable quality.
23

24 27. Plaintiffs allege that the Defendants, and each of them, named herein were under a duty to 25 exercise ordinary care to avoid reasonably foreseeable injury to users and purchasers of the subject 26 premises and structures, and knew or should have foreseen with reasonable certainty that purchasers 27 and/or users would suffer the monetary damages set forth herein, if said Defendants, and each of 28

1 them, failed to perform their duty to cause the subject premises and subject structures to be designed, 2 engineered and completed in a proper and workmanlike manner and fashion.

3 28. Said Defendants, and each of them, breached their duty owed to Plaintiffs, failed and 4 neglected to perform the work, labor and services properly or adequately in that each said Defendants 5 so negligently, carelessly, recklessly and in an unworkmanlike manner designed, constructed and 6 inspected the subject property and performed the aforesaid work, labor and/or services, such that the 7 subject premises and subject structures as described herein were designed, engineered and/or 8 constructed improperly, negligently, carelessly and/or in an unworkmanlike manner, thereby 9 breaching the duty owed to Plaintiffs. Further, Defendants' sellers knew or should have known that 10 the premises were constructed in an unworkmanlike manner.
11

13 29. Defendants' negligence alleged above includes the failure to meet the applicable building 14 codes and ordinances which were in effect. Plaintiffs' members and their predecessors in interest 15 were members of the class of persons which the building codes and ordinances were designed to 16 protect. Such violations are negligence per se on the part of Defendants, and each of them.
17

18 30. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing negligence and negligence per se, 19 carelessness and unworkmanlike conduct, actions and/or omissions by said Defendants, and each of 20 them, Plaintiffs have suffered damages in an amount in excess of $10,000.00. Plaintiffs are presently 21 unaware of the precise amount of damages needed in order to correct the defective conditions of the 22 subject property and subject structures, but will establish the same at trial according to proof.
23

24 31. Plaintiffs are also entitled to the damages set forth at NRS 40.655.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Breach of Implied Warranty of Habitability as to All Defendants and Does 1 through 500)

3 32. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 31 of the Complaint, 4 as though fully set forth herein.
5

6 33. All Defendants each impliedly warranted that said homes would be of good and 7 merchantable quality, would be habitable, and would be completed in a workmanlike manner.
8 Further, said Defendants impliedly warranted the quality of construction of the homes and common 9 areas as provided in NRS 116.4114.
10

11 34. The Plaintiffs purchased their homes in reliance on the implied warranties and promises 12 made by Defendants, and each of them. Plaintiffs have duly performed all of the covenants and 13 conditions of said contracts on their part to be performed.
14

15 35. Certain Plaintiffs and/or Homeowners at the subject property have notified Defendants of 16 said breach of implied warranties and said Defendants have refused and continue to refuse to remedy 17 these defects.

18 36. As a direct and proximate result of the breach of the implied warranties by Defendants and 19 each of them as herein above alleged, Plaintiffs suffered damages stemming from, among other items, 20 defectively built roofs, leaking windows, dirt coming through windows, drywall cracking, stucco 21 cracking, stucco staining, water and insect intrusion through foundation slabs, and other poor 22 workmanship. Plaintiffs are presently unaware of the precise amount of damages, but will establish 23 the same at trial according to proof.
