The Nevada Restaurant Association (“NvRA”) and the National Restaurant Association (the “Association”) (collectively referred to as “Amici Curiae”) hereby renew their request to participate in oral argument.

On January 21, 2016, the Court granted NvRA’s Motion for Leave to file Amicus Curiae Brief. On February 17, 2016, the Court granted the Association’s Motion to Join the Amicus Brief previously filed by NvRA. Oral arguments in this matter were set by the Court’s Order on February 22, 2016, and are scheduled for April 4, 2016. At the time the Court filed NvRA’s amicus brief, it denied NvRA’s request to participate in oral argument without prejudice and with the opportunity to refile the request if oral argument was ordered. Now that oral argument has been ordered by the Court, Amici Curiae renew their request to participate in oral argument.

Amici Curiae recognize the impact the issues before the Court will have on the restaurant industry—an industry that is vital to Nevada’s economic growth and well-being. These issues directly impact the restaurant industry and nearly every restaurant in the state stands to be significantly affected by the decision in this case. Amici Curiae believe their unique perspective and experience in the restaurant industry will assist the Court in its decision, and, therefore, Amici Curiae respectfully renew their request to participate in oral argument.
