DECLARATION

18 Neal Golden hereby affirms and declares under penalty of perjury the following:

19 1. I am one of the plaintiffs in this lawsuit seeking unpaid minimum wages from 20 the defendant.

21 2. I was employed by defendant as a taxi cab driver from May of 2002 until 22 May of 2010. During that entire period of employment defendant never furnished me 23 with any written document stating I was entitled to any minimum hourly wage for my 24 work for defendant. Nor did defendant ever orally advise me that I was entitled to any 25 minimum hourly wage.

26 3. In August of 2010 I filed a written complaint with the Nevada Labor 27 Commissioner about the wages I was paid by the defendant while I was employed by 28 the defendant. As part of that complaint I explained to the Nevada Labor

1 Commissioner's office that I was being paid less than the minimum hourly wage, some 2 days earning as little as $3.00 or $4.00 an hour (not including tips) from my work for 3 the defendant.

4 4. The Nevada Labor Commissioner's office took no action on my behalf, of 5 which I am aware, to collect any of the unpaid minimum wages I told them I thought I
6 was owed by Nellis Cab. They never collected anything for me on the claim that I filed
7 with them. It is my understanding that such office after some period of time decided 8 to close its file on my complaint and take no action. The personnel at that office never 9 orally or in writing advised me that I was entitled under the law to the minimum wages
10 I was requesting in the complaint that I had filed. They left me with the understanding 11 that it was not possible for me to pursue a claim for minimum wages against Nellis
12 Cab. I do not have any memory of the Nevada Labor Commissioner's office advising
13 me of any time limit for me to pursue a legal claim, and file a lawsuit, against Nellis
14 Cab for my unpaid minimum wages. Since the Nevada Labor Commissioner's office
15 seemed unable to do anything about my claim for unpaid minimum wages from Nellis
16 Cab I concluded there was nothing further I could do to collect those unpaid minimum 17 wages.

18 I have read the foregoing and affirm under penalty of perjury that the same is 19 true and correct.
