Mr. Foreperson, if you would can make that correction on I believe it is Count II, line 11 on page 2. It should say a minor child under the age of sixteen years.

Ladies and gentlemen, the defendant has been given notice on September 29, 2003, of the meeting of this particular Grand Jury and was invited to testify if he desired. His decision whether or not to decline the invitation to appear cannot in any way be used by any member of the Grand Jury against him.

The State is planning to present six witnesses. The victim witness has elected, under Nevada Revised Statutes, to use a pseudonym which is why you are hearing the words Jane Doe. That is pursuant to NRS 200.3772 which victims of sexual assault are allowed to do. So you will not hear her name at any point. You will meet her and she will be here shortly.

If there are no further questions, I will be willing to call my first witness.

(Whereupon the witness entered the Grand Jury room.)

19	Q	Did you want it to happen?
20	A	No.
21	Q	What happened when they started doing the exam on

Did you prefer that someone perform the exam and 1 Q offer someone else? Did you call in your pediatrician? 2 Α Yes, I did. 3 Why did you guys do that? 4 0 Because I was uncomfortable with the guy doctor. 5 Α 6 Q Your pediatrician is a woman? 7 Α Yes. Doctor Saad? 8 0 9 Α Yes. How sore were you after all this happened? 10 Q I had pain in my shoulders from being pushed. 11 Α How about in your stomach? 12 0 13 Α I had a little pain there. EXAMINATION

BY MS. VILORIA:

Q Ma'am, it is my duty to inform you that the Grand Jury is here considering a proposed Indictment on charges of kidnapping in the first degree, battery with the intent to commit sexual assault on a child and three counts of child sexual assault. It is my understanding you have information concerning these charges; is that correct?

A That's correct.

THE FOREMAN: Are you aware the Grand Jury is investigating charges of kidnapping in the first degree, sexual assault on a child and battery with the intent to commit sexual assault?

THE WITNESS: I am.

BY MS. VILORIA:

- Q Ma'am, please state your name and spell it for the record.
 - A Anna, A-N-N-A. Knapic, K-N-A-P-I-C.
 - Q Where do you work, ma'am?
 - A Carson Tahoe Hospital emergency department.

Α

Yes, I did.

1	Q What do you do in the emergency department?
2	A I am a registered nurse.
3	Q How long have you been a registered nurse?
4	A Fourteen years.
5	Q As a registered nurse, are you trained to perform or
6	observe sexual assault exams?
7	A Yes, I am.
8	Q How is a sexual assault exam completed, just so the
9	Grand Jury knows?
LO	A A sexual assault victim is considered top priority.
L1	They are escorted immediately to a private exam room so their
L2	story remains private. They are assiged one nurse throughout
L3	the entire process so that it doesn't become fragmented. And
L4	that was the case with Jane Doe that day.
L5	I escorted her to the exam room and stayed with her
L6	throughout the process.
17	Q Is part of your duties in addition to escorting these
L8	witnesses, to take statements, medical history, all those kinds
L9 ,	of things for a physician or for yourself for medical diagnosis
20	or treatment?
21	A That's correct.
22	Q Do you recall, ma'am, doing that in this particular
23	case in regards to Jane Doe?

Q

Yes, she did.

1	Q That was on August 7, 2003?
2 .	A That's correct.
3	Q What statements did the victim, Jane Doe and/or her
4	mother give to you about why she was there?
5	A The victim had said that she was picked up by an
6	unknown person under the pretense of babysitting for him and
7	was then taken to a remote area and sexually assaulted.
8	Q Do you goWhen you are taking this history from the
9	individual victim, and especially in the case particularly of
10	Jane Doe, do you ask herdo you go through body parts to find
11	out if she was actually penetrated or touched?
12	A There is a very specific process we do go through an
13	we follow. It is a sexual assault kit. We follow the
14	instructions on that kit step by step, and it does take you
15	through every body part.
16	Q And not to be so intrusive, just so the Grand Jury
17	understands kind of how it works, when you are performing a
18	sexual assault exam on a child Let's back up a bit. What
19	kind of penetration allegation did Jane Doe make?
20	A She stated that her assailant did penetrate her
21	vaginal area.
22	Q Did she also describe having to perform fellatio?

Having cunnilingus performed on her?

through and

Í

A Yes, she did.

Q Is part of the purpose of doing these exams also to preserve any items of evidentiary value that may be located in any of those areas?

A That is correct.

Q Was that kind of--What kind of protocol do you do to make sure that happens?

A Again, we follow the sexual assault kit step by step in order to preserve any evidence that may be available. We document—There are body grams in the kit. They may be able to pass one around. We document any findings on that diagram as well as put evidence in the kit which is preserved in a chain of custody fashion and then turned it over to the police.

Q How about the exam, itself, is it performed both in an external fashion and internal fashion?

A That is correct.

Q Describe the external part?

A The external part starts with basically just an overall view of the patient for bruises, obvious assault. We then go through a process of the patient has to undress. She undresses on blankets so if any debris or dirt, whatever, would fall from her clothing, it is then folded into the blankets and preserved for the police for evidence.

Describe, if you will, how the internal exam is

The internal exam was performed by a female doctor, Jane Doe's pediatrician.

THE WITNESS: I am so sorry.

She's using a pseudonym, Jane Doe. MS. VILORIA:

THE WITNESS: I apologize.

BY MS. VILORIA:

Her pediatrician is Dr. Saad?

Doctor Saad. It is the policy the nurse be at the foot of the bed to observe, in addition to the doctor, any internal injuries so they can be documented.

- Isn't that the truth also for the external injuries?
- Α Yes.
- How did Doctor Saad or you when you are performing Q these exams, see internally?
 - Α Through a speculum, vaginal, with a light.
 - Also a term, isn't there a colposcope that is used? Q
 - There is a colposcope. Α
 - How is that different from the speculum? Q
- The speculum is simply a device that opens the Α vaginal canal. The colposcope is more invasive with pictures and so forth. That was performed the following-- body.

Q I will get to that in one second. In this particula exam, you did not do a colposcope examination?
A That is correct. We did an internal exam using the vaginal speculum.
Q Describe, if you will, the physical observations tha you noted on Jane Doe beginning with her demeanor all the way down to the physical things you observed externally on her

A Obviously, she was distraught, emotionally distraught from the very beginning. And the process, given her age as well as, you know, having been just victimized, certainly I would describe her as distraught. That is the word. It was a very tough day for her.

Q How about any redness that you noticed on her body?

A She did have bruises. I would have to review my records to see those. I know she was punched in the stomach and that was noted.

- Q Would looking at your report help you?
- A Yes, I think that would.
- Q I am showing you--Do you need the entire report or just the diagram?

A I think the diagram page would probably be sufficient.

Q I am showing you what has been marked as Grand Jury

1	Exhibit 3. I ask you to look at that and tell me if you
2	recognize that as your diagram page?
3	A I do.
4	Q How do you recognize it?
5	A I recognize my handwriting.
6	Q Is your signature even on there?
7	A And my signature, yes.
8	Q Please continue?
9	A She did describe that she was duct taped and that was
10	observable across her eyes. The redness across her eyes would
11	be consistent with tape being on her then yanked off. Same
12	with her wrist area. She did have pain in several areas of he
13	abdomen where she had described as being punched. And when Dr
14	Saad did the internal exam and I examined her external
15	genitalia, she had obvious skin tears.
16	Q Where were those skin tears located?
17	A On her labia.
18	Q And how do you classify where they are on the labia?
19	A We simulate it as a clock.
20	Q If you could best put it where it would fit on the
21	clock?
22	A We saw skin tears at 5:00 o'clock and 6:00 o'clock
23	that would be consistent with penetration.

Were you able to observe, in your part of the 1 observation that you did with the exam, the cervix? I, myself, did not view the cervix, however, I did 2 document what Dr. Saad told me. 3 0 What was that? That she did observe blood on the cervix which would 5 be consnistent with the hymen breaking, hymenal membrane. 6 7 Q Why is that significant? Because Jane Doe did state she was a virgin, and that 8 Α being the case, the hymen would have been intact. Had it been 9 10 bloody, the cervix been bloody, that would indicate penetration 11 did occur. Were you able to do anything like that in regards to 12 the child's mouth? 13 14 Α We do oral swabs. 15 Q Was that performed here? That was performed at the same time. 16 Α Do you ask the child whether or not the suspect 17 Q 18 ejaculated? Is that of evidentiary value? 19 Α Yes, we do ask that. 20 О What was the case here? 21 Α No, he did not.

Q What was your -- Were you present during the whole time

Okay. Were swabs taken from the vagina of Jane Doe?

 - Q When they were collected, describe that process for the Grand Jury if you will.

A The swabs are collected. There are I believe four vaginal swabs two of which are from the external vaginal wall and two are from the cervix, and they are immediately put into the rape kit. That, again, remains in my custody at all times until I turn that over to the police in order to maintain chain of custody.

- Q Is that what you did in this particular case?
- 12 A Yes.
 - Q You answered a question a moment ago, ejaculation did not occur in her mouth.
 - A Let me clarify that. We were talking about her mouth.
 - Q I apologize. Did it occur anywhere else in her?
- 18 A It did, yes.
 - O Where?
- 20 A Vaginally.
 - Q Okay. When somebody has--When a male has ejaculated into a female's vagina, what is it you are looking for? First of all, how far up are those swabs taken?

- descriptions of the sperm or semen do you look for?

 - What does motile mean? 0
 - Α Alive.
 - 0 What does nonmotile mean?
- 16 Α Dead.
 - Q What was seen in this particular case?
 - Nomotile sperm was seen on the slide indicating that Α the sperm--there was ejaculation, but sperm was not alive.
 - You maintain custody of that sample taken from inside 0 Jane Doe's vagina until when?
 - Until I hand over the entire rape kit to the officer. Α

- Q Would you please describe to the members of the Grand Jury what she told you about what was penetrated or what was found?
 - A It would help if I could review my report.
- Q Absolutely. For the record, I am showing you Grand Jury Exhibit 4. I ask you take a look at it and tell me if you recognize what that is?

 - Q What is that?

Q My question to you is if you would describe the statements she made about what was penetrated or what was touched?

A She said that her vagina was penetrated by a penis and a tongue. Her mouth was penetrated by a penis and that her breasts had been licked. Her mouth had been licked and she had been kissed on the mouth.

Q Describe, if you will, her demeanor while descsribing these activities to you?

A This young lady was very emotionally upset. She became physically ill while talking to me. She vomited several times. She kept a wash cloth over her face the entire time she was talking with me.

exam on her?

A The reason is in my understanding was photographs had not been taken. A colposcopy machine had not been used at the time of the exam.

- Q Had you seen what their results were?
- A No, I had not.
- Q Were you able to perform an examination on this child?
 - A Yes, I was.
 - Q Were you able to reach some conclusions?
 - A Yes, I was.
 - Q What were those conclusions?

A Based on this exam, I found two lacerations and redness in her posterior Forchet. The posterior Forchet is a small piece of tissue upon which, when the penis is entering into the vagina, the penis rests against that and allows for entry. There was redness to the inner aspect of her labia minora. I introduced a speculum, and I visualized her vaginal vault and her cervix, and blood was noted to be present on the right side of the vaginal vault.

As part of our exam, after we remove the speculum, we then place a dye on the external genitalia, then we wipe that completely off. And where there is injury, the dye adheres.

Where there is no injury, the dye leaves. And the previously mentioned injuries to the labia minora and posterior Forchet were enhanced with the dye.

Q How do you preserve that evidence right there when you see the dye reacting like that to the injuries?

A We take photographs.

Q Is that what you have depicted as the 9 photographs there?

A Yes. These are photographs that were taken when I first looked at her when the speculum was in and then after the speculum was removed, and the dye was applied, so there are pre and post.

Q I am sorry, if you could please walk the Grand Jury through what you are seeing in each one of those pictures since us lay people may not understand what we are seeing there.

A Okay. This is this young lady's genitalia. This is her labia minora. Inside this is her hymenal tissue.

Q That would be in the first photograph?

A That is in the first photograph. In the second photograph, these white marks are my fingers that are gloved. This is the inner aspect of her labia minora with traction placed on it so that we can look deeper into it. And there is redness from 4:00 o'clock to 7:00 o'clock. When you are looking at this picture, this is 12:00 o'clock, this is 6:00 o'clock, 3:00 o'clock and 9:00 o'clock.

This is Exhibit 4-a. This shows her labia minora and her hymenal tissue.

The photograph shows your white gloves also in Q there?

Yes, it does. These two pictures are out of order Α from when we first spoke about them. This is equivalent to picture 2, now labeled 4-b. This shows two small lacerations and her posterior Forchet. 4-c which previously was picture 2-b shows redness of the inner aspect of her labia minora. is a photograph that shows a speculum in place. The cervix is in the center here, and at about 7:00 o'clock on the vaginal wall, there is fresh blood.

This is 4-e which is also a picture of the vaginal wall, and the speculum has been moved slightly. It is a clear plastic so you can see through it. And when I moved it to get a better visualization where bleeding was present, there is more blood present in that area. Those are lacerations to the vaginal wall.

This is 4-f. This is where the dye has been applied

This is 4-f. This is where the dye has been applied after the speculum has been removed. The dye is placed on it then wiped out with KY jelly. Where there is no injury, the dye leaves. As you can see in this photo, there is a large amount ofg dye still present on her labia minora which highlights the redness and brusing and abrasions to that area.

4-g is another picture of her labia minora, and you see bruising to her hymenal tissue which is at the vaginal opening.

4-i is a picture of the area of the posterior

Forchet, and there are lacerations just at about 6:00 o'clock that are highlighted by the dye which is what we saw in the very first picture of the posterior Forchet.

Q Ma'am, in addition to the personal observations that you made and the photographs that you just went through, are your findings consistent with the fact that this child was penetrated in the manner that she alleged?

A Yes.

Q Have you had a chance now to look at the sexual assault exam that was conduct in Carson-Tahoe Hospital?

- A No, I have not.
- Q In this particular exam, were you able to try and get DNA samples from the various body parts that had been affected by this defendant?
 - A Yes. That is part of our protocol.
 - Q What was it you found, if anything?
- A We do a first wet mount which is where when the speculum is in the vaginal vault, after we look at it, we then place a Q-tip in at the opening of the cervix and place the end of the Q-tip into the cervix to try to collect sperm. And on this particular sample, I did not see any motile sperm at that time.
- Q If I tell you that Carson Tahoe Hospital was able to collect nonmotile sperm, is it unusual that you were not able to almost 24 hours later?
 - A No, it is not.
 - Q Why is that?
- A Because, depending on the quality of the sperm that were placed there and the acid base balance in the vagina, it is possible that the sperm would not have survived that long.
- Q Were you able to do any swabs, DNA swabbing for presence of evidence in the child's mouth?
 - A Yes, I did.
 - Q Did you do that in this case?

- Q Did you see any red marks or bruising on her this next day?
- A No, I did not notice any bruising on her at the time that I did my examination.
- Q Based on your training and experience, is it unusual for red marks to be gone 24 hours after it is inflicted?
 - A It is possible.

 - Q Sir, where are you currently employed?
 - A Lyon County Sheriff's Department.
- Q What do you do there?
 - A Deputy currently assigned to narcotics.
 - Q Is that the reason for your attire and piercings?
 - A That is the reason for my attire and piercings, yes.
 - Q How long have you been working with Lyon County Sheriff's Office?
 - A I have been employed with the Sheriff's office in Lyon County since July of 1999.

Dayton.

Your title there? 1 Q Currently it is narcotic investigator. 2 Α Did you have occasion back in August of 2003 to 3 0 assist Washoe County in the serving of a search warrant at a 5 residence there in Lyon County? A Yes, I did. 6 Was that residence, sir, at 71 South Rainbow Street, 7 Q Dayton, Nevada? 8 That is correct. What were you supposed to be doing? 10 I was a representative of Lyon County. Somebody to 11 Α be there while they served the search warrant at the 12 13 residence. At the time, I was on patrol there. I was a patrol 14 unit, marked unit. That is why I was there. 15 Q I am sorry? That is why I was there. 16 Α I am showing you what has been marked for 17 Q identification as Grand Jury Exhibit 5 and ask you to take a 18 19 look at it and tell me if you recognize what is shown in 20 Exhibit 5? 21 Yes, I do. Α 22 What is it? Q

That is the residence located at 71 South Rainbow in

- Q Do you know who the owner of this residence is?
- A Botelho. The Botelho family.
- Q What did you do to assist other than just be present at that particular search of that residence?

A Ultimately, I was there while they were searching the residence. Once we were outside of the residence, I walked around, myself looking around. The area in the back of the house is where I was walking around when I located some stuff.

Q What stuff did you locate?

A Behind the house is a desert, and there is a huge pile of dirt from excavation or what not. And I just walked around the back looking to see if anybody or anything was back there. I walked up the dirt mound. In the middle of the mound was it looked like discarded wood pallets and stuff. I noticed duct tape, used duct tape that was off the roll. From my understanding prior to that, duct tape was used in the crime. That is when I alerted one of the detectives from Washoe County to come over and observe that.

- Q Is that the only duct tape you observed on that property?
 - A No, ma'am, it is not.
 - Q What other duct tape did you observe?
- A As I was leaving and pulled out, I observed duct tape in the dirt. As I was pulled up on it, I almost drove over it,

I stopped, looked, observed it was duct tape, went back and got Washoe County again, had them come look at it.

Q Showing you what has been marked for identification Grand Jury Exhibit 6-a, I will ask if you would take a look at it and tell me if you recognize what is shown in the picture. If you do, please tell us what is shown in the picture.

A Yes, I do recognize. This is the duct tape I located on the dirt mound with the wood and the thickets.

Q What is the condition of that duct tape?

A It appears to have--It is not on a roll, so it has been pulled off the roll. It appears very dirty and wadded up.

Q Showing you Grand Jury Exhibit 6-b, I will ask you to take a look at that and tell me if you recognize what is shown in that picture, if you do?

A This is the duct tape I located on my way out of the residence. In fact, my tire tracks is probably one of these you can see on here.

Q What, again, is the condition of that particular tape?

A Piles of duct tape off the roll wadded up and in the dirt.

Q Again, both 6-a and 6-b were located on the Botelho property?

Α	That	is	correct.

Q	Please describe	for the ladies	and gentlemen of the

On August the 7th of this of this year, 2003, I Α received a phone call from detective sergeant David Nickoley asking I respond to the Carson-Tahoe Hospital on a report of a sexual assault that had just occurred in our jurisdiction. responded to that location to assist detective Pam Church from the Carson City Sheriff's Office.

When you responded to that location which is Carson Tahoe Hospital, who did you meet with?

I met with the victim, Jane Doe, and her mother. Α

When you go there, what information are you seeking 0 to learn?

Seekig to learn just the basic details of what had happened, get the facts from the victim and any details she can give and where it happened.

0 How about the identity of the person who did this to her?

Α Correct.

At the very beginning of this case, what identifying information did you have about the person who had attacked this child?

I had a general description and also a cell phone number the victim had captured on her caller I.D, caller

 - A Yes, I was.
 - Q Please describe that for the Grand Jury if you will.
- A The phone was in the possession of Michael Botelho.

 I called that number a number of times, and on the message,

 Michael Botelho is on the message machine. He also told me the phone does belong to him and he uses that particular cell phone.

- Q Do you recall off the top of your head what number it was?

- A I responded to their address and made contact with the suspect's wife. And upon making contact at that particular address, I came upon a vehicle that the victim had described.
 - Q Do you recall what that vehicle looked like?
 - A Yes, I do.
 - O What did it look like?
 - A It was a red Ford Explorer.
 - Q Where was that red Ford Explorer located?

general area.

I booked them into the evidence section of the Washoe 1 2 County Sheriff's Office. Based on talking to the victim in this case, how is 0 3 it you were able to ascertain or figure out where the crime had occurred? 5 The following day I took the victim--had the victim take me to the area where the crime had occurred, and she took 7 me to the area--to an area up in the hills off of East Lake 8 Boulevard in the south end of East Lake. She took me to the 9 general area where it had taken place. And I had taken the 10

Q You keep qualifying general area. Why are you doing that?

victim there one other time, and she took me to the exact same

A The victim is not able to pinpoint the exact area. So that is why I use the term general area. She took us to the general area in the hills off 5555 East Lake Boulevard which is in Washoe County.

Q What steps have you taken to determine where that crime occurred, whether it occurred in Washoe County or Carson City?

A We took the victim to that area, and when we drove-The top of the hill is Carson City. So that was--We took her up into that area and made sure it definitely didn't happen up

- over the hill. It happened in fact in that area that I referred to which is definitely Washoe County.
 - Q Was she able to give you that, definitely?
 - A Yes, she was.
 - Q I am showing you what has been marked for identification as Exhibits 10 and 11. I would ask you to look at the 10 series first and tell me what that depicts? That would be 10-a?
 - A 10-a depicts the area right in front of 5555 East

 Lake Boulevard. This is the dirt road that the victim directed us to when she was recalling where the suspect had taken her.

 This is the entrance of the dirt road they went up.
 - O Exhibit 10-b?
 - A Exhibit 10-b is an aerial photo of that same road. It shows the beginning and how it curves around into I guess a draw, if you will.
 - Q Can you turn that around as your describe it and show the members of the Grand Jury?
 - A Yes, I can.
 - Q Hold it up.
 - A 10-a. This is the entrance of 5555 East Lake Boulevard, and this is the first dirt road the victim directed us to. And she recalled several things on the entrance that looked familiar to her.

1	Q Now in conjunction with 10-a, where or what is 10-b?
2	A 10-b is an aerial photo of this road. It starts
3	right here and then runs around this draw towards this ranch
4	house up here.
5	Q Before you show it to the members of the Grand Jury,
6	are you able to identify what is depicted there in 10-c?
7	. A Yes.
8	Q What is that?
9	A This is the same area, that dirt road. It is just a
10	different shot from an aerial view. It shows further up the
11	dirt road. It also shows the draw a little better.
12	Q Turn it around and describe what you are seeing.
13	A This is the same dirt road that we drove on. Up
14	here, this right here is the back mountain that goes up over
15	into Carson City.
16	Q So far 10-a, b and c what county is that located in?
17	A Washoe County.
18	Q Again, I am showing you another exhibit. You need to
19	identify it for me first. 10-d?
20	A 10-d is the same draw just taken from, it would be
21	the southeast side of the draw looking down. It shows the road
22	from the other way, the dirt road from the other way out toward
23	East Lake Boulevard.

In fact, in that picture, can't you see Washoe Valley

- 1 Lake, Washoe Lake?
 - A Yes, you can.
 - Q Turn it around so the Grand Jury can see what we are talk about.
 - A This is the same road. It goes around East Lake, there and there is Washoe Lake right in there.
 - Q In any of these pictures so far, are you able to show us on there the general area where the attack on this child sexually occurred?
 - A Yes, I am.
 - Q If you would tell us which exhibit and show us, please. I have other pictures if you need them still.
 - A I believe we might have a better one.
 - Q Then hold off. I am showing you Exhibit 10-e. I as you to tell me whether you recognize what is in Exhibit 10-e. If you do, you can go ahead and tell me you do, then turn it around and show the Grand Jury?
 - A I do.
 - Q Okay. Turn it around and explain what you see?
 - A This is the same dirt road except it shows the hill area behind it a little better where we believe that the incident occurred.
 - Q And is that the photograph your were looking for or are you still looking for another one?

- A I believe this shows it pretty accurately.
- Q Where in that photograph, 10-e, is the Carson City-Washoe County jurisdiction line?

A It is well up on top of the mountain range up here. It is up and over the top. I guess there is a pit area right here to the left. It is a ways back. It kind of runs along the back side up over the top of the hill line and back a ways. So it is quite a ways. It is up over and a little ways back.

Q Consistently, where did the victim, Jane Doe, point to you the general area where the assault occurred?

A On this picture, consistently a long this dirt road along this hill.

Q Again, showing you Exhibit 10-f, I ask you to look at it and tell me if you recognize what is shown in that?

A Yes, I do. This shows the same dirt road with the hill. It gives us a little bit better view to the southeast.

Q If you could again show that and explain it to the Grand Jury.

A This is the same hill. I guess this is the pit area I was referring to. You can see it in this photograph a little bit better. She consistently identified these dirt roads.

This hill is where it had taken place.

Q Based on your traveling with the victim several times, your doing the aerial shot, just reconstructing the route that the suspect took her on, did you have occasion to create maps that would assist the Grand Jury in seeing the route, or were you involved in that?

A I was involved in that, yes.

Q Showing you what has been marked for identification 11-a and 112-b, I will ask you take a look at those and tell me if you recognize those as the maps you were involved in creating?

A Yes, it is.

Q For the record, I need you to hold it up and tell me what 11-a shows?

A 11-a shows a map this is the route that the victim identified to me that they had taken to get out to where-from where she was picked up to where the incident occurred.

Q How is that delineated on that map? Is it a color or anything?

- A Yes, it is highlighted in yellow.
- Q In a thick yellow?
- A Thick yellow, correct.
- Q In 11-b, sir, please describe that for us?

A 11-b provides a map with the approximate location of the incident, and also it shows you the Carson City, Washoe County line.

21	THE WITNESS: I understand.
22	BY MS. VILORIA:
23	O Ma'am if you will please state your name and spell

- A Rene Romero, R-O-M-E-R-O.
- Q What is it you do for a living?
- A I am a supervising criminalists at the Washoe County Sheriff's Office Crime Laboratory, and I work in the DNA section of the laboratory.
- Q How long have you worked in the DNA section of the laboratory?
 - A For 11 years.
- Q What kind of training and experience do you have relative to DNA analysis?
- A I have a Bachelor degree from Michigan State University in chemistry with the fulfillment of a Bachelor degree in Forensic Science also from Michigan State University. And I have a Masters degree in cell and molecular biology from the University of Nevada Reno. And I have attended training specific to my duties at the Crime Lab at the Federal Bureau of Investigation as well as at companies, private companies that make the chemicals, kits and equipment that we use in our laboratory. And I participate in continuing education on an annual basis. I perform DNA proficiency tests twice a year.
- Q This crime lab you work at, Washoe County Crime Lab, is it an accredited laboratory?
 - A Yes, it is. The laboratory is accredited. The laboratory is accredited by the American Society of Crime Lab Directors Laboratory Accreditation Board.

Q What does that mean? Why does that matter?

A It means somebody is checking to see that we do what we say we do. The accrediting body has a certain set of standards and criteria that we have to meet, and an inspection team comes in, makes sure that we are meeting those criteria as well as the criteria we set forth for ourselves in our procedures and our quality assurance manual. And they check to make sure we do what we are saying we do.

Q So the fact the Washoe County Crime Lab is accredited, you guys do what you say you do?

A Yes.

Q Please provide if you will, an explanation for this Grand Jury of DNA analysis, the process of how that works?

A The process or what DNA is?

Q Whichever you think would be more beneficial to their understanding of what you do.

Q Okay. Let's start a little bit with what DNA is.

DNA is something that is found in all of our cells. We get our

DNA from our parents. We get it in the form of a sperm cell and egg cells. That is your DNA that get split out to the rest of your body and is found in all of your cells, hair roots, saliva, blood, semen, et cetera. And in the laboratory, what we do in forensics, we look at areas of DNA that are different among us. Now a lot of our DNA is the same because our DNA codes for being human, code for having a liver, lungs, heart, two arms, two legs, et cetera a lot of our DNA is the same. In forensics, we look at areas of DNA that are different. We look at 13 different areas of DNA in the laboratory, and if we can get results at all 13 areas of DNA, then we will make an identification as to who is the source of a particular piece of evidence that we might be looking at.

Q In general, as it relates to sexual assault cases, how are those handled in your Crime Lab in relation to DNA analysis?

A Typically, an officer will book a sexual assault kit into our evidence section, and then a criminalist from our primary examination section will check that kit out and examine the content of the kit looking for items of evidentiary value that can go down to the DNA section, vaginal swabs, looking for sperm cells, remove the vaginal swabs, put those into a separate envelope, prepare those for DNA testing. So if positive results are found, evidentiary value items are found, a DNA request is made and those items from the kit, not the whole kit, just the items of value go down to the DNA section. We look at those and then we also look at reference standards which would be known DNA. So an oral swab say from the victim

- Q Did you have occasion to look at DNA evidence that had been provided to you in Washoe County case umber WC0-3-8924?
 - A I did.
- Q Did that involve getting a vaginal swab from a 14 year old victim by the name of Jane Doe?
 - A Yes.
- Q Did that include also a DNA swab from a suspect by the name of Michael Todd Botelho?
 - A Yes.
- Q Was the standard process you just described relating to sexual assault cases followed in this particular case?
 - A Yes, they were.
- Q In this particular case, you conducted the DNA analysis?
- A Yes, I did.
 - Q In doing that, were you able to develop a profile?
- A Yes.
 - Q How did you do that?
 - A Going through our DNA testing procedures, when you have a vaginal swab, we do something called a differential extract. Basically what that means, I can separate the sperm cells from the vaginal cells. Sperm cells have a tougher coat around them. They are harder to break open. So I break open the vaginal cells first, set those aside, then I can break open the sperm cells. I did that in this case and developed a DNA profile from those samples as well as from the reference standard from Jane Doe and Mr. Botelho.

Q And in that, were you able to reach a conclusion as to the source of the sperm that was located inside Jane Doe's vagina?

A My conclusion is that Mr. Botelho is the source of the sperm from the vaginal swab from Jane Doe, barring an identical twin. Identical twins have the same DNA profile.

Q If there is no evidence of identical twins, what would that mean in this particular case?

A That he is the source of that DNA.

MS. VILORIA: Thank you. I have nothing further of this witness.

THE FOREMAN: Do the jurors have any questions of this witness?

It is my duty to admonish you that the proceedings before the Grand Jury are secret. Unless anybody requires anything of me, that will be the presentation this afternoon.

A GRAND JUROR: I have a question. Kidnapping in the

1	first degree, the testimony was she got in the car willfully.
2	Can we infer from this that the kidnapping can take place in
3	Washoe County because of where it took place, where the final
4	destination was as oopposed to where she got in the vehicle?
5	MS. VILORIA: You can draw any inference you believe
6	appropriate based on the law provided to you. I did provide a
7	copy of the statute. I believe the kidnapping statute is the
8	final one attached to that, NRS 171.030. That describes when
9	crime is committed in part of one county or part of the other,
LO	both counties are deemed to be able to hear the matter. Does
L1	that answer your question, sir?
L2	A GRAND JUROR: Yes. Yes. Okay.
13	MS. VILORIA: May I be excused?
L 4	(Whereupon the Deputy District Attorney and the Cour
15	Reporter left the Grand Jury room.)
16	(Whereupon the Grand Jury deliberated.)
17	(Whereupon the Deputy District Attorney and the Cour
18	Reporter re- entered the Grand Jury room.)
19	THE FOREMAN: Back in session on the record. The
20	jury returned a True Bill on all five counts.
21	MS. VILORIA: At this time, I would just, today is
22	the 8th day of October, I am affixing my signature on the
23	Indictment at this time.

I need you to strike the custodian of records of

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11TH, 2003; RENO, NEVADA --000--THE COURT: The next matter CR03-2156, State of Nevada verses Michael Todd Botelho. MR. SULLIVAN: Your Honor, can we trail this one? THE COURT: Yes. (At this time a brief recess was taken.) 10 THE COURT: Then let's do CR03-2516, State verses 11 Michael Todd Botelho. 12 MR. SULLIVAN: Sean Sullivan on behalf of the 13 defendant. 14 MS. VILORIA: Kelli Anne Viloria on behalf of the State, your Honor. 15 16 MR. SULLIVAN: Sean Sullivan on behalf of Mr. Botelho, 17 who is present today in custody. 18 THE COURT: All right. Now, this is set for a change 19 of plea. I see that we have a trial date of July 26th, 2004. 20 MS. VILORIA: That's correct, your Honor. 21 THE COURT: What's going to happen here? 22 MR. SULLIVAN: Your Honor, it is my understanding my 23 client -- we have reached negotiations in this matter. 24 Judge, pursuant to negotiations, my client desires to enter a guilty plea to Count I which is alleged in the Indictment, Count II -- excuse me. Count I, Count III, Count IV and Count V. The State will not be pursuing Count II. In exchange for my client's guilty plea, the parties will be free to argue for the appropriate sentence. As part of the negotiations, the State will 7 dismiss Count II. The State will also refrain from pursuing 8 any transactionally related charges or enhancements arising 9 out of the instant offense. And, Judge, on page six of the 10 original Guilty Plea Memorandum, line two, I struck out the 11 words, "The State will be free to arque," and I just inserted 12 the word, "Parties." And I initialled them. Can I approach? 13 MS. VILORIA: That is correct in addition to the 14 interlineation. 15 THE COURT: Mr. Botelho, you heard what your attorney said? 16 17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 18 THE COURT: Is that what you intend to do this 19 morning? 20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 21 THE COURT: All right. I received the Guilty Plea 22 Memorandum. And I see that it says you signed it on the 10th. 23 Is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Now, did you read this before you signed it? 3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir: THE COURT: Do you understand what you read? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir: THE COURT: How much education do you have? THE DEFENDANT: Almost two years of college. 8 THE COURT: All right. And you read and understand English? 9 10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 11 THE COURT: Do you have any questions about anything 12 that is set out or contained in the Guilty Plea Memorandum? 13 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. 14 THE COURT: Now, you were arraigned back in October. 15 You entered a plea in November. And we have a trial set for 16 July in this case. And at page two it sets out your 17 constitutional rights. And you were on your way to receiving the full benefit of those constitutional rights. If you 18 19 change your plea, then that means that you don't want to have 20 the advantage of those constitutional rights and that you are 21 giving them up. Is that how you understand it? 22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 23 THE COURT: All right. And they are set out at page 24 two. You are giving up your right to a jury trial. And, as you know, that's been set for July. At that trial the State would have to convince twelve people of your guilt on all the elements of all the offenses that you are charged with by the Indictment. If you plead guilty, you are telling the State that they don't have to prove or convince anybody of your guilt; that you will admit your guilt in open court. Is that what you want to do?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. And you are giving up your trial right.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. At that trial you would have had the right of confrontation. That means you would get to confront your accusers. You would be present. You would be represented by counsel and he would get to cross examine the witnesses that the State would bring against you in their effort to convince the twelve people on the jury of your guilt.

That's not going to happen, if you plead guilty. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. So you are giving up that constitutional right.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: The right to subpoena witnesses means that -- and this is the compulsory process.

That means, if you had any witnesses who could help you establish a defense, the Court could issue subpoenas. And, if they are properly served, those people would have to come to court and offer their testimony in your behalf.

That happens at the trial. You gave up the trial. You gave up your right of confrontation. So you are necessarily giving up the subpoena process too. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Here it says the privilege against self-incrimination. Obviously, if you enter pleas of guilty, you are convicting yourself. So that's greater than incriminating yourself. So you are necessarily giving up that privilege also. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: The way that works at trial, that privilege, is that the jury is advised that under the law you are presumed innocent of the charges. The State could not call you as a witness against yourself when they are presenting their case.

And, if, for any reason, you chose not to that charge, how do you plead?

THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

testify in your own behalf when it came your time to put on your defense, the State couldn't argue that to the jury to say, "See, he didn't say anything, so he must be guilty." And the jury will be instructed that they could not consider the fact that you didn't testify, if you didn't, as an indicator of guilt. They could not consider that in your deliberations. Okay: That's how the law 8 protects an accused. You are giving up those rights by your 9 pleas of guilty. Do you understand that? 10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 11 THE COURT: Do you understand that once you give them 12 up today, they are gone? 13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 14 THE COURT: All right. Do you want to give them up? 15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 16 THE COURT: Do you want to change the pleas that you 17 have heretofore entered for counts one, three, four and five 18 from not guilty to guilty? 19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 20 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask you, the Indictment 21 that was returned October the 8th, 2003 in Count I charges 22 you with kidnapping in the first degree, a felony offense, to

THE COURT: Count III of that Indictment charges you with the felony offense sexual assault on a child, how do you plead?

THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

THE COURT: Count IV of that Indictment charges you with a second sexual assault on a child. How do you plead?

THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

THE COURT: Count V of that Indictment charges you with a third count of sexual assault on a child. How do you plead?

THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

THE COURT: All right. Miss Viloria, would you give us the element please.

MS. VILORIA: I will, your Honor.

Sir, had we taken this matter to trial, the State would be prepared to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the following elements against you.

In Count I, kidnapping in the first degree, a felony, the State would be prepared to prove the elements as follows: That you on the 7th day of August, 2003 in the County of Washoe, State of Nevada did willfully and unlawfully seize and/or confine and/or entice and/or kidnap and/or carry away the person of Jane Doe, a minor child of the age of fourteen years having a date of birth of November 8th, 1988 and that you did this with the intent to hold and detain and that you did hold and detain such person for the purpose of committing sexual assault upon her and/or you did hold her with the intent to hold her to unlawful service or to perpetrate upon her any unlawful act.

Sir, do you understand the elements the State would have been prepared to prove as to relates to Count I, kidnapping in the first degree?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

MS. VILORIA: The State would also have been prepared to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the following elements in Count II -- excuse me, Count III, sexual assault on a child. That's that you on the 7th day of August, 2003 in the County of Washoe, State of Nevada did willfully and unlawfully subject Jane Doe, a female child under the age of 16 years, having a birth date of the November 8th, 1988 to sexual penetration against her will or under conditions in which you knew or should have known that she was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of her conduct in that you forced the victim to perform fellatio in the hills of Washoe Valley, Washoe County, Nevada.

Do you understand the elements the State would have been prepared to prove as it relates to Count III?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

MS. VILORIA: Likewise, sir, the State would have been prepared to prove the following as it relates to Count IV, sexual assault on a child in that you on the 7th of August, 2003 in the County of Washoe, State of Nevada did willfully and unlawfully subject Jane Doe, a female child under the age of sixteen years, having a date of birth of November 8th, 1988 to sexual penetration against her will or under 8 conditions in which you knew or should have known that she was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or 10 understanding your conduct in that you subjected her to 11 cunnilingus in the hills of Washoe Valley, Washoe County, 12 Nevada.

Do you understand the elements the State would have been prepared to prove as it relates to Count IV?
THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

MS. VILORIA: Likewise, as it relates to Count V, sexual assault on a child, the State would have been prepared to prove the following elements in that you on the 7th of August, 2003 in the County of Washoe, State of Nevada did willfully and unlawfully subject Jane Doe, a female child under the age of sixteen years, having a date of birth of November 8th, 1988 to sexual penetration against her will or under conditions in which you knew or should have known that she was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of her conduct in that you subjected such child to vaginal intercourse with your penis in Washoe Valley, Washoe County, Nevada.

Do you understand the elements the State would have been prepared to prove as it relates to Count V?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

MS. VILORIA: For the record, the victim in this case has elected to proceed under the use of a pseudonym; and this is the reason we are calling her Jane Doe.

THE COURT: All right.

Mr. Botelho, do you understand that by your pleas of guilty you are admitting the facts that were recited by the District Attorney?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Now, the potential consequences of your pleas that you entered this morning, to Count I, you may be imprisoned for a period of life with the eligibility of parole after five years or you could be sentenced to a definite term of fifteen years with parole eligibility after you serve five years in the Nevada State Prison. Probation is not available. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: That means the next time you come to court you will be sent to prison.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir: THE COURT: The punishment that is set out for counts three, four and five are life imprisonment with eligibility of parole after twenty years or for a definite term of twenty years with parole eligibility after five years. MS. VILORIA: It seems strange, your Honor. been corrected in the legislature; but that is the offense 8 when the child is between the ages of fourteen and sixteen. THE COURT: Oh, okay. All right. 10 MR. SULLIVAN: I concur, your Honor. 11 THE COURT: All right. 12 MS. VILORIA: I would just add that, as it relates to 13 counts three, four and five, that the defendant is likewise 14 is not eligible for probation. 15 THE COURT: I was just going to say that. 16 You understand that probation is not 17 available to you? 18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 19 THE COURT: Okay. So, again, when you come next time 20 you will be sent to prison and it's just a matter of how 21 long. 22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 23 THE COURT: Do you understand that? 24 THE DEFENDANT: Uh-huh (affirmative).

THE COURT: The punishment, as I have indicated for counts three, four and five, they are identical counts charging three separate acts; but the punishment is the same. And that is life with the eligibility of parole after twenty years or a definite term of twenty years with parole eligibility after five years. Now, do you understand what concurrent means and consecutive?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. Concurrent means that they can all be done together. Consecutive means you do one, then the other, then the other and so on. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Do you understand that what happens to you at the sentencing is up to the court?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, in this regard, did anybody make any promises to you in that respect?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

THE COURT: All right. One of the constitutional rights that you have not given up is your right to be represented by a lawyer. Mr. Sullivan of the Public Defender's staff is standing there beside you. Was he your attorney throughout?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. VILORIA: Your Honor, did you canvass the defendant as it relates to the lifetime supervision part of this?

THE COURT: Not yet, thank you. At page four, paragraph five of the plea agreement, it says that you have considered and discussed all possible defenses and defense strategies with your counsel. Is this an accurate statement?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. At page seven, paragraph twelve, it says you have discussed the charges, the facts and the possible defenses with your attorney. All of the foregoing rights, the waiver of rights, the elements, the possible penalties and the consequences have been carefully explained to you by your attorney. Is that an accurate statement?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. And then the District Attorney reminded the Court that pursuant to NRS 176.093(1) lifetime supervision is required. That means if you get out on parole you are required to undergo supervision for life. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Has that been explained to you by Mr. Sullivan?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Do you have any questions about that? THE DEFENDANT: No. sir. THE COURT: Are you satisfied with the amount of time that Mr. Sullivan or members of the Public Defender's staff had to spend with you on this particular case? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir: THE COURT: Are you satisfied with the representation they provided so far? 10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. 11 THE COURT: Did anyone promise you anything to get you 12 to plead quilty? THE DEFENDANT: No. 13 14 THE COURT: Did anyone threaten you with anything to 15 get you to plead guilty? 16 THE DEFENDANT: No. 17 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty to these charges 18 because in truth and in fact you are quilty of these crimes? 19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 20 THE COURT: All right. In your own words, I am going 21 to require you to tell me what you did that makes you plead guilty starting with Count I kidnapping? 22 23 THE DEFENDANT: I had been -- I had been drinking and 24 I ended up going out and -- picking up a girl whom I called several times and took her out to the Washoe Lake area and --THE COURT: Against her will? MR. SULLIVAN: Can I have the Court's indulgence? THE DEFENDANT: Excuse me. Say it again. THE COURT: For the purposes of having sex with her against her will? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 8 THE COURT: Count III, sexual assault on a child, what 9 did you do? 10 THE DEFENDANT: I did all -- I did all three counts. 11 I am -- I just choked trying to say it. 12 Sorry. 13 MR. SULLIVAN: He is choked up trying to say it, your 14 Honor. 15 THE COURT: All right. But as far as the allegations that were contained in Count III, forcing the victim to 16 17 perform fellatio on you, is that an accurate statement? 18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 19 THE COURT: Count IV, you subjected her to 20 cunnilingus. Is that an accurate statement? 21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 22 THE COURT: Count V, you subjected her to vaginal 23 intercourse? 24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Are you under the influence of anything this morning?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: You are clearheaded and you understand fully what it is that you are doing?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: The rights that you are giving up? You have to answer audibly.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And the potential consequences of what you are doing this morning?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And you want to do it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: All right. The Court finds that Michael Todd Botelho is competent to enter the pleas of guilty that he entered. The Court finds that there is a factual bases to accept all the pleas. The Court finds that Mr. Botelho does understand his constitutional rights and has freely, knowingly, voluntarily and intelligently waived them. The Court finds that he does understand the true nature of each of the charges that have been filed against him in that Indictment. And the Court finds that he does understand the potential consequences of the convictions that result in his pleas of guilty to those particular charges.

The Court finds that the pleas of guilty that were entered were entered freely, knowingly, voluntarily and intelligently with the advice of counsel. And the court does hereby accept the pleas of guilty.

MR. SULLIVAN: Your Honor, the defense and I believe the State would request a special hearing. I believe two hours would be sufficient. We would like to have a closed hearing, special set, Judge, if that's at all possible. And I am thinking I need a few months to prepare for sentencing for this particular case. The end of March, would that be available?

MS. VILORIA: Your Honor, I will not be available from March 1st on so it has to be the end -- I would actually prefer it to be the middle of February, if the court can accommodate or it's going to have to be continued out past my leave.

But I concur with everything that Mr. Sullivan says, except for the request for a closed hearing. But as it relates to the time set and a special set, I do request that jointly.

MR. SULLIVAN: I just -- I have some concerns. I have a murder trial starting March 1st in Department Four. So can I have the Court's indulgence. Your Honor, does the Court

THE COURT: Next case CR03-2156, State of Nevada versus Michael Todd Botelho.

MS. VILORIA: Good morning. Kelli Anne Viloria on behalf of the state.

MR. SULLIVAN: Sean Sullivan on behalf of Mr. Botelho who is present today in custody.

THE COURT: All right. This is the time set for the entry of plea in this matter.

MR. SULLIVAN: Actually, no, Your Honor. This was the time set for--we continued the Arraignment last time. We set it for a status hearing, I believe, not an entry of plea.

My client, at this point in time, he would like more time to review the discovery. However, we are prepared to go forward with the Arraignment today. He is going to enter a not guilty count— or, excuse me—not guilty plea to each count contained in the Information. He has been advised of his 60-day rule. He will waive that. I understand Ms. Viloria would like the matter set in accordance with her calendar well into next year, July, August, maybe even September. I am not sure which date. But we have no problem with that, Your Honor. We are hopeful my client and I and Ms. Viloria will resolve this case. We just need some time to review the

1 voluminous discovery in this matter. 2 THE COURT: All right. He was handed a copy. 3 waived reading. We ascertained his true name, and now I hear he is going to waive the 60-day rule? 4 5 MR. SULLIVAN: That is correct, Judge. 6 THE COURT: Is that correct? 7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 8 THE COURT: All right. We'll put that on the 9 record. And to the charges that are set out in the Indictment 10 that was returned October the 8, 2003, charging you, 11 Mr. Botelho with Count I, kidnapping in the first degree, how 12 do you plead? 13 THE DEFENDANT: Not guilty. 14 THE COURT: Not quilty. Okay. Count II, battery 15 with the intent to commit sexual assault on a child, how do you 16 plead? 17 THE DEFENDANT: Not quilty. 18 THE COURT: Count III, sexual assault on a child how 19 do you plead? 20 THE DEFENDANT: Not quilty. 21 THE COURT: Count IV, sexual assault on a child, how 22 do you plead? 23 THE DEFENDANT: Not guilty. 24 THE COURT: Count V, sexual assault on a child, how do you plead?

THE DEFENDANT: Not guilty.
THE COURT: All right. And you understand what we are talking about is almost a year from now?
THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
THE COURT: For the trial date.
MR. SULLIVAN: If we resolve this before that, Your Honor, we'll set it for an entry of plea.
THE COURT: Okay. I have got the transcript. So the transcripts are ready.
THE CLERK: How many days, counsel?
MS. VILORIA: I would say no more than four.
THE CLERK: Trial date will be July 26th, 8:30 in the morning. Motion to Confirm will be July 15th at 8:30 in the morning.
MR. SULLIVAN: I am sorry, Miss Clerk, July 15th?
THE CLERK: July 15th, yes.
MR. SULLIVAN: Thank you.
THE COURT: Is that good on your calendar?
MS. VILORIA: Yes. Thank you, Judge.
MR. SULLIVAN: Thanks, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Instant Offense

On August 7, 2003, and under the pretense of needing a babysitter for his children, defendant, MICHAEL TODD BOTELHO, picked fourteen-year-old JANE DOE from her home, drove her into the hills of Washoe Valley beat where he duct-taped and sexually assaulted her. Following the attack, defendant became stressed and had to be calmed by the victim. Defendant kept telling the victim he " ...didn't know what he was going to do with her now." Due to the calmness of her demeanor and a promise not to tell, by calling herself a reputed liar, the victim was able to talk defendant into taking her home. Prior or Other Bad Act Evidence

During the investigation of this case, defendant was interviewed by Detective Greg Herrera of the Washoe County Sheriff's In the interview, defendant admitted to Detective Herrera that he had fantasized about wanting to rape a woman or girl and even about tying the victim up.

Prior to interviewing defendant, Detective Herrera had received information from defendant's ex-wife, Melissa Botelho that defendant had sexual fantasies of raping and dismembering a young Melissa Botelho has further described the defendant's sexual fantasies as evolving, getting worse as time went on and, eventually, being a basis that destroyed their marriage. The State wants to present Melissa Botelho as a witness in defendant's sentencing hearing.

ARGUMENT

The State intends to call the testimony of the defendant and his exwife in regards to the defendant's sexual fantasies as it relates specifically to the defendant's propensity for dangerousness and harm to the children in this community.

Evidence of a defendant's propensity for dangerousness and harm to children is not inadmissible. Williams v. New York, 337 U.S. 242 (1949) is the seminal case dealing with the broad amount of information a trial court is entitled to consider in imposing a sentence. It has been cited with approval in dozens of subsequent United States Supreme court decisions as well as in literally $\frac{\partial \mathcal{L}}{\partial x}$ hundreds of other decisions from other federal and state appellate See, e.g., Williams v. Oklahoma, 358 U.S. 576, 584 (1959); Gregg v. Georgia, 428 U.S. 153, 189 (1976); United States v. Grayson, 438 U.S. 45, 48-49 (1978); Unites States v. Plisek, 657 F.2d 920, 927 (7th Cir. 1986); United States v. Wise, 603, F.2d 1101, 1105 (4th Cir. 1979); Eyman v. Alford, 448 F.2d 306 314, 315 (9th Cir. 1969); Arizona v. Cawley, 648 P.2d 142, 144 (Arizona 1982).

In Williams, the United State Supreme Court offered an extended discussion regarding the broad discretion trial judges have in admitting character evidence pertaining to the defendant.

> Tribunals passing on the guilt of a defendant always have been hedged in by strict evidentiary procedural limitations. But before and since the American colonies became a nation, courts in this country and in England practiced a policy in which a sentencing judge could exercise a wide discretion in the sources and types of evidence used to assist him in determining the kind and extent of punishment to be imposed within limits fixed by law. Out-of-court affidavits have been used frequently, and of course in the smaller communities sentencing judges naturally have in mind their knowledge of the personalities and Background of convicted offenders. manifestation of the historical altitude allowed sentencing judges appears in Rule 32 of the Federal rules of Criminal Procedure. That rule provides for consideration by Federal Judges of reports made by probation officers containing information about a convicted defendant, including such information 'as may be helpful in imposing a sentence or in granting probation or in the correctional treatment of the defendant...'

In addition to the historical basis for different evidentiary rules governing trial and sentencing procedures there are sound practical reasons for the distinction. In a trial before verdict the issue is whether a defendant is guilty of having engaged in certain criminal conduct of which he has been specifically accused. Rules of evidence have been fashioned for criminal trials which narrowly confine the trial contest to evidence that is strictly relevant to the particular events charged. These rules rest in part on a necessity to prevent a time consuming and confusing trial of collateral issues. They were also designed to prevent tribunals concerned solely with the issue of guilt of a particular offense from being influenced to convict for that offense by evidence that the defendant had habitually engaged in other misconduct. sentencing judge, however, is not confined to the narrow issue of guilt. His task within fixed statutory or constitutional limits is to determine the type and extent of punishment after the issue of guilt has been determined. Highly relevant --- if not essential --- to [the trial judges] selection of an appropriate sentence is possession of the fullest information possible concerning the defendants life and characteristics. And modern concepts individualizing punishment have made it all the more necessary that a sentencing judge not be denied an opportunity to obtain pertinent information by requirement of rigid adherence to restrictive rules of evidence properly applicable to the Williams, 337 U.S., at pp. 246-247. In United States v. Plisek, 657 F.2d 920 (1981), the Seventh Circuit relied heavily on Williams in approving a trial court judges consideration of the facts and circumstances relating to a prior case in which the subject defendant had been acquitted following trial. Id., at page 927. In Plisek the court stated:

[T] he scope of a sentencing judge's discretion is wide, and in making the sentencing determination, 'a judge may appropriately conduct an inquiry broad in scope, largely unlimited either as to the kind of information he may consider, or the source from which it may come.' United States v. Tucker, 912 S.Ct. 589, 591, 30 L.Ed.2d 592 (1972). While it has been suggested that consideration of mere arrests or pending charges be prohibited in reaching the sentencing determination, United States v. Johnson, 507 F.2d 826, 832 (7th Cir. 1974), cert denied, 421 U.S. 949, 95 S.Ct. 682, 44 L.Ed.2d 103 (1975) (concurring and dissenting opinion) (Swygert, C.J.), the legislature has chosen to permit a far broader inquiry into 'the background, character and conduct' of a convicted defendant. 18 U.S.C. U3577 (1976). A broad interpretation of this language finds support in the legislative history of $\square 3577$, which makes it clear that the section was intended to 'maximize sources of sentencing information [and] to guard against the unnecessary formalization of sentencing procedure.' Rep. No. 91-617, 91st Cong., 1st Sess 90 (1969), quoted in United States v. Williamson, 567 F.2d 610, $\overline{615}$ (4th Cir. 1977). This legislative mandate reflects a sentencing philosophy articulated by the Supreme Court in Williams v. New York. Plisek, Id. at p.927.

The Plisek court then went on to quote from the Williams decision before concluding that:

[The] Williams court intended that full knowledge of the defendant's entire background should be available to the sentencing court... we believe that under this broad grant of sentencing discretion the trial court did not err in referring to information int he presentence report concerning the circumstances surrounding a report concerning the circumstanc prior acquittal, particularly in view of the wide latitude of response to the information permitted to the defendant. Plisek, Id. at p.927.

In Arizona v. Cawley, 648 P.2d 142 (Arizona 1982), the defendant was convicted in the court below of three counts of child molesting. On appeal, he challenged the trial judge's consideration of hearsay information regarding past evidence of peculiar sexual behavior. This hearsay information was in the form of a pre-sentence report and a report from his United States navy record. The appellate court upheld the trial court's consideration of this hearsay evidence regarding the defendant's abnormal sexual behavior, even though none of the prior incidents resulted in convictions.

Cawley, id, at p.144.

In Smith v. State, 517 A.2d 1081 (MD. 1986), the Maryland Court of Appeals held that testimony concerning a rape defendants alleged participation in an uncharged, unrelated attempted rape of another woman was properly admitted at the sentencing hearing, even though no charges had ever been filed in the attempted rape case. The defendant argued that the testimony was unreliable because no formal charges had been filed. The Court rejected this claim and noted that the victim's testimony was not to be deemed incredible simply because she had not pressed charges. The Court noted she was sworn to tell the truth at sentencing hearing and was subject to cross examination. Smith, id, at pp. 1082-1088.

NRS 175.552 deals with the evidence that may be considered at the penalty\sentencing hearing in first degree murder cases. That section provides:

In the hearing, evidence may be presented concerning aggravated and mitigating circumstances relative to the events, defendant or victim and on any other matter which the court deems relevant to the sentence, whether or not the evidence is ordinarily admissible. 175.552(3).

This section makes clear that the Nevada legislature intended that the sentencing body in first degree murder cases be allowed to consider the broadest amount of information possible.

The Nevada legislature has also made clear that a broad amount of information may be considered by the sentencing court in cases other than first degree murder. NRS 176.145(1)(a)(b) provides that the pre-sentence report compiled to assist the judge at sentencing must contain information regarding the prior criminal record of the defendant and "such information about his characteristics, his financial condition, the circumstances effecting his behavior and the circumstances of the offense, as may be helpful in imposing sentence..."

Accordingly, and based on the facts above, the State will seek to admit the defendant and Melissa Botelho's testimony at sentencing.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing, the State intends to call the testimony of the defendant and his ex-wife in regards to the defendant's deviant sexual fantasies as it relates specifically to 111

OPPOSITION TO STATE'S INTRODUCTION OF PRIOR OR OTHER BAD ACT

EVIDENCE AT SENTENCING HEARING; DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO HAVE THE

MATTER SEALED, TO RECUSE THE PRESENT SENTENCING COURT, AND TO

HAVE THE MATTER TRANSFERRED TO ANOTHER COURT FOR SENTENCING

PURPOSES.

COMES NOW Defendant, Michael Todd Botelho, by and through his counsel, the Washoe County Public Defender, Sean B.

Sullivan, Deputy Public Defender and hereby opposes the State's Notice of Intent to Introduce Prior or Other Bad Act Evidence at Sentencing Hearing. The Defendant hereby respectfully requests that this Court enter an order prohibiting the State from presenting any testimony or evidence at the sentencing hearing regarding any alleged "deviant sexual fantasy" from the las

Defendant's ex-wife, Melissa Botelho, or from allowing Ms.

Botelho to testify at the proceeding in violation of NRS

49.295, NRS 49.405, and the applicable Nevada case law set forth below. Furthermore, the Defendant respectfully requests that this Court enter an order sealing all papers, pleadings, motions, and transcripts pertaining to this present issue.

Finally, the Defendant respectfully requests that this Court, upon entertaining the merits of the present motion, refrain from sentencing the Defendant in the present matter, and that it recuse itself from hearing the sentencing, and transfer the matter to another court for the purposes of sentencing.

The Defendant respectfully requests oral arguments upon the merits of the present matter on or before the time set for sentencing. The sentencing in this matter is currently set for February 18, 2004 at 10:30 a.m., in Department Number Three of the Second Judicial District Court. This opposition and motion is based upon the attached Points and Authorities and the pleadings and papers on file herein.

On February 3, 2004, the State filed a document with this Court entitled Notice of Intent to Introduce Prior or Other Bad Act Evidence at Sentencing Hearing. The main thrust of the State's present motion is that it will attempt to introduce testimony from the Defendant's ex-wife, Melissa Botelho, at the time of sentencing, concerning "deviant sexual fantasies" the Defendant allegedly made during course of their marriage. The content of these alleged deviant sexual fantasies are set forth

25 in the State's present motion, which include the specific details of Ms. Botelho's expected testimony at the upcoming sentencing hearing. See State's motion, pp. 2, lines 14-26. However, as will be demonstrated below, the State's present motion has violated the Defendant's statutory marital communication privilege set forth in NRS 49.295. This statute reads in pertinent part:

- 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3 of NRS 49.305^{1} :
 - (a) A husband cannot be examined as a witness for or against his wife without his consent, nor a wife for or against her husband without her consent.
 - (b) Neither a husband nor a wife can be examined, during the marriage or afterwards, without the consent of the other, as to any communications made by one to the other during the marriage.

2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply to a:

- (a) Civil proceeding brought by or on behalf of one spouse against the other spouse;
- (b) Proceeding to commit or otherwise place a spouse, the property of the spouse or both the spouse and the property of the spouse under the control of another because of the alleged mental or physical condition of the spouse;
- (c) Proceeding brought by or on behalf of a spouse to establish his competence;
- (d) Proceeding in the juvenile court or family court pursuant to chapter 62 of NRS and NRS 4432B.410 to 432B.590, inclusive, and sections 3 to 7, inclusive, of this act; or
- (e) Criminal proceeding in which one spouse is charged with:

¹ NRS 49.305 provides an exception to the privilege, stating that when a husband or wife has been declared insane by a court of competent jurisdiction, the other spouse shall be able to testify under certain circumstances, but that the insane spouse shall be afforded the marital privilege set forth in NRS 49.295 once he or she is declared competent by the court.

- (1) A crime against the person or the property of the other spouse or of a child of either, or of a child in the custody or control of either, whether the crime was committed before or during the marriage.
- (2) Bigamy or incest.
- (3) A crime related to the abandonment of a child or nonsupport of a wife or child.
- 3. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply in any criminal proceeding to events that took place before the husband and wife were married. (Emphasis added).

In short, the marital communication privilege discussed above ". . . enable a spouse to refuse to be examined against his or her spouse, and enable one spouse to prevent the other from being examined regarding statements made in reliance on marital confidence." See Franco v. State, 109 Nev. 1229, 266 (1993).

Furthermore, NRS 49.405(1) provides that "[t]he claim of a privilege, whether in the present proceeding or upon a prior occasion, is not a proper subject of comment by the judge or counsel. No inference may be drawn therefrom." In Hylton v. State, 100 Nev. 539 (1984), the Nevada Supreme Court held that it is improper for the State to attempt to call the defendant's wife as a witness in violation of NRS 49.295; and it is misconduct amounting to reversible error for the Prosecutor to even comment, or make any impermissible inferences on the fact that the defendant invoked the spousal privilege. Citing George v. State, 98 Nev. 196 (1982); NRS 49.405.

In the present matter, it is clear that the Defendant has a statutory right to invoke the marital communication privilege set forth above in NRS 49.295 at the time of sentencing, which would prevent the State from calling the ex-wife of the Defendant, Melissa Botelho, at the sentencing proceeding to testify about any alleged deviant sexual fantasies the Defendant may have expressed during the course of their marriage. It is axiomatic that any sexual fantasy expressed by one spouse to another, whether it be deviant or otherwise, is done so within the strict confines of the marriage, and not expressed to anyone else but the other spouse. This is the entire purpose and intent of the marital communication privilege, insofar as a spouse should be able to communicate with his or her spouse without fear of repercussion or reprisal from the State.

Furthermore, as the State must now concede, these alleged sexual fantasies, according to the Defendant's ex-wife, were made during the course of the couple's marriage, when the couple would engage in sexual relations, and were ultimately the basis that destroyed the marriage. There is no evidence to suggest that these alleged sexual fantasies, if they were made at all, were made in the presence of another person, or made outside the strict confines of the marriage between the Defendant and Ms. Botelho. Accordingly, the marital communication privilege now applies to the present matter and it shall prevent Ms. Botelho from testifying against the Defendant at the upcoming sentencing proceeding.

Finally, in light of the fact that the State has already disregarded the marital communication privilege discussed above by outlining the specific content of the alleged sexual fantasies within its motion, it is now impossible for the Defendant to invoke his statutory right of the marital communication privilege so that he may receive a fair sentencing. In short, the sentencing court has now been tainted because it has already learned of the testimony to be excluded at the sentencing proceedings. It would be impossible for the sentencing court to simply disregard the alleged sexual fantasies set forth by the State in its motion, because the proverbial "bell" has already been rung, and it cannot now be undone.

These alleged sexual fantasies are so damning and prejudicial to the Defendant's position in light of the nature of his current charges, the Defendant hereby requests that this Court enter an order prohibiting the State from presenting any testimony or evidence at the sentencing hearing regarding any alleged "deviant sexual fantasy" from the Defendant's ex-wife, Melissa Botelho, or from allowing Ms. Botelho to testify at the proceeding in violation of NRS 49.295, NRS 49.405, and the applicable Nevada case law set forth above. Furthermore, the Defendant respectfully requests that this Court enter an order sealing all papers, pleadings, motions, and transcripts pertaining to this present issue. Finally, the Defendant respectfully requests that this Court, upon entertaining the merits of the present motion, refrain from sentencing the Defendant in the present matter, and that it recuse itself from hearing the sentencing, and that it transfer the matter to another court for the purposes of sentencing.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. STATEMENT OF POSITION

The State opposes the defendant's three claims for relief, namely, the claim of marital privilege to bar relevant sentencing information, his request for Department Three recusal, and request for sealing of all documents concerning the proposed testimony of Melissa Botelho. The State contends that the marital privilege is inapplicable based upon a statutory exception, his request for recusal is not supported by legal authority and unwarranted in fact, and finally, the request for sealing of documents is likewise unsupported by legal authority and unwarranted.

II. AUTHORITY AND ARGUMENT

A. MARITAL PRIVILEGE CLAIM

The State acknowledges the general rule of marital communication privilege under NRS 49.295. The State also acknowledges that the proffered testimony of Melissa Botelho concerns the defendant's communications to her during the course of their marriage. However, this general statutory bar does not apply to our case here because of a statutory exception to the general rule. Therefore, there is no statutory bar to the proffered testimony.

NRS 49.295(2) codifies 5 general exceptions to the marital privilege statute, which contain other subcategories. Ms.Botelho's proffered testimony is admissible because of the fifth general exception - NRS 49.295(2)(e)(1) which states:

(e) Criminal proceeding in which one spouse is charged with:

TIS

(1) A crime against the person or the property of the other spouse or of a child of either, or of a child in the custody or control of either, whether the crime was committed before or during marriage. [Emphasis added].

Here, the defendant is charged in a criminal proceeding, our case here. NRS 49.295(2)(e). Further, this criminal proceeding involves a crime against a child in his control, fourteen year old Jane Doe as charged in the instant Information. The express language of NRS 49.295(2)(e)(1), one of five codified exceptions to the general rule of privilege encompasses our case facts here. It is undisputed that the defendant lured the child by a false representation of needing a babysitter whereupon the child-victim entered his vehicle equipped with the innocent apparel of child carseats but also containing duct-tape used as a binding device. When Jane Doe entered his vehicle and was thereafter driven as a backseat passenger into the hills of Washoe Valley, she was totally under his control for a substantial period of time on August 7, 2003.

Of particular interest is the statutory language that our Legislature used in the applicable marital privilege exception.

First, NRS 49.295(2)(e)(1) excepts communications involving crimes of one spouse against another or against a child with whom they have a biological relationship ("a child of either"). Second, that subsection then uses broader language that involves a child merely in their custody, or control. This secondary language eliminates the need for a biological or legal relationship. The only legal nexus that the Legislature expressed is control of a child.

V2.200

26

The public policy to be served here is really for the 1 2 benefit of children generally as a protected class. This marital 3 privilege exception essentially protects children by preventing an artificial evidentiary shield being erected between potentially 4 conspiring married partners in crimes against children. Contrary to 5 the often-touted rule of lenity, statutory privileges are to be 6 narrowly construed in favor of the truth-finding process. 7 8 "Testimonial exclusionary rules and privileges contravene the fundamental principles that 'the public...has a right to every man's 9 evidence.' (citations omitted). As such, they must be strictly 10 11 construed and accepted 'only to the very limited extent that permitted a refusal to testify or excluding relevant evidence has a 12 public good transcending the normally predominant principle of 13 Trammel v. 14 utilizing all rational means for ascertaining truth." United States, 445 U.S. 40, 50, 100 S.Ct. 906, 912, 63 L.Ed.2d 186, 15 (1980). Likewise, "We have often recognized that statutes 16 establishing evidentiary privileges must be construed narrowly 17 because privileges impede the search for the truth." Pierce County 18 19 v. Guillen, 537 U.S. 129, 144, 123 S.Ct. 720, 730, 154 L.Ed.2d 610, , (2003). 20 /// 21 22

¹ The fact that the balance of the NRS 49.295((2)(e)(1) exception states it is irrelevant whether or not "the crime was committed before or during marriage" highlights the State's point. There is no marriage preservation public policy to be served here by protecting the defendant's statements to Melissa Botelho - the marriage was terminated years ago. In fact, the marriage was terminated in large part due to the disputed sexual bondage fantasies involving an underage female.

Therefore, under statutory construction rules, NRS 49.295, does not apply to our case facts here and, therefore, is no bar to Melissa Botelho's testimony.

B. REQUEST TO SEAL DOCUMENTS

His request to have "all papers, pleadings, motions and transcripts pertaining to this issue" sealed is offered without any legal authority or meaningful reasoning. Legal arguments made without reference to any supporting legal authority as well as undocumented conclusions are to be summarily rejected. Williams v. State, 88 Nev. 164, 165, 494 P.2d 960 (1972); Cunningham v. State, 94 Nev. 128, 130, 575 P.2d 936, 938 (1978); Steese v. State, 114 Nev. 479, 496, 960 P.2d 321, 332 (1998); Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 627, 28 P.3d 498, 511 (2001). According, the defendant's request for sealing of documents must fail.

C. REQUEST FOR DEPARTMENT RECUSAL

The defendant's request for this Department to recuse itself should be summarily denied for three primary reasons. First, as with his request to seal, his request for recusal is likewise offered without any legal authority. Accordingly, it should be summarily rejected. See Williams, et.al., supra.

Second, his sole factual basis is that this court is somehow irrevocably tainted by routine duties of a trial court in reviewing the admissibility of proposed evidence. If the defendant's argument were sufficient grounds, chaos would result. Theoretically, every trial court would need to recuse itself after denying a defendant's motion to suppress and a conviction resulted. According.

to the defendant's rationale, no trial judge would ever be able to preside over a jury trial after the first overruled defense objection. The defendant offers no principled basis or scale to determine how "damning and prejudicial" evidence must be before a trial judge must recuse themselves after considering its admissibility. It is for this reason among others that a judge is presumed to understand their responsibilities, and follow the law.

Colwell v. State, 118 Nev.Adv.Op. ____, 59 P.3d 463, 468 (2002); Jones v. State, 107 Nev. 632, 636, 817 P. 2d 1179, 1181 (1991). The defendant cites no evidence to suggest that this Department would be unable to disregard any improper evidence and render a just sentence. Without a legal basis and without any evidence in support, the defendant's request should be denied.

Finally, there is no improper taint assuming arguendo a marital privilege shield because substantial portions of this same disputed evidence are clearly admissible by the defendant's own admissions to be offered by the State at sentencing. The proposed testimony of Washoe County Sheriff's Detective Greg Herrera will include that the defendant admitted engaging in fantasies about tying up a young female adult or child and raping them. Therefore, because the defendant cites no legal authority to support his request, because his legal basis is unworkable in practice, and because there is no improper taint, his request for Department Three recusal should be denied.

2 See, State's Notice of Intent to Introduce Prior or Other Bad Act Evidence at Sentencing Hearing, filed February 3, 2004, pp.2, 11.14-18.

The State is confident that this court would render a just sentence. However, in the abundance of caution, the State will not oppose any possible reservations this Department could conceivably have based on the defendant's bald request, in the sole event that this court finds that a marital privilege applies to bar the proffered testimony of Melissa Botelho.

III. CONCLUSION

For the rationale outlined above, and for the legal basis and reasons outlined in the State's formal Notice of Intent, the State requests that the defendant's Opposition's filed February 13, 2004 be denied in its entirety following argument at the scheduled hearing date of March 11, 2004 at 10:00 am. Furthermore, the State requests that this court enter an Order authorizing the State to present the proposed testimony of Melissa Botelho at the scheduled sentencing of April 7, 2004 at 8:30 am.
