5 instant motion. The NRAP 27(b) states:

6       "b) Disposition of a Motion for a Procedural Order. The court may 7 act on a motion for a procedural order—including a motion under Rule
8 26(b)—at any time without awaiting a response. Under Rule 27(c), the 9 clerk may act on motions for specified types of procedural orders. A party
10 adversely affected by the court's, or the clerk's, action may file a motion
11 to reconsider, vacate or modify that action. Timely opposition filed after 12 the motion is granted in whole or in part does not constitute a request to 13 reconsider, vacate, or modify the disposition; a motion requesting that 14 relief must be filed."

15       Petitioner, has arguable claims and should be permitted to file documents with this 16 court in support of Petitioner's prosecution of the instant petition.

17       Kim believes that he should be entitled to file papers and documents with this court
18 and an order issue without any delay.

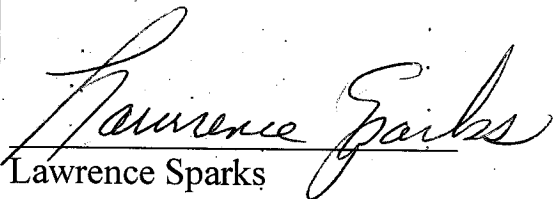

19       The Motion to file a Reply is something this court should seriously consider and 20 should properly file and consequently allow Petitioner to file a Reply.

22 CONCLUSION

23
24       For the foregoing reasons Petitioner, requests that the court issue an order
