MOTION TO EXTEND PRISON
COPYWORK LIMIT

COMES NOW, Petitioner, Fredys A. Martinez, in pro se, and submits his Motion to Extend Prison Copywork Limit, moving the Court to order the Nevada Department of Corrections ("NDOC") to extend his copywork limit for the narrow purposes of the instant habeas corpus proceedings.

This motion is based upon NDOC Administrative Regulation ("AR") 722; all papers and documents on file herein; and the following points and authorities.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Petitioner is an indigent prisoner, as demonstrated by the Motion for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis on record herein.
NDOC AR 722.12(4) allows Petitioner to accrue a $100.00 debt against his account towards legal copywork which, once reached, prohibits him from accumulating any further indebtedness for

1 such copywork. "Exceptions to this rule would be a court order
2 received directly from the courts..." Id. The AR therefore
3 gives this Court authority to issue an order allowing Petitioner
4 to exceed his copywork limit.

5 Petitioner has reached or exceeded the $100.00 limit of AR
6 722.12. As such, NDOC has prohibited him at this time from 7 receiving any further legal copywork in the instant proceeding
8 unless the Court issues an order allowing him to do so.

9 Petitioner's grounds have merit. As such, he is entitled 10 to relief in the instant habeas proceedings; however, he 11 requires copywork services in order to litigate his instant
12 petition. In addition to his originals of all pleadings, 13 motions and other documents in this case, he will need copies to 14 serve upon Respondents per FRCP 5, LR 5-1 and LR 7-2.
15 Additionally, he will require a copy of same for his own 16 records. See e.g. Gluth v. Kangas 951 F.2d 1504, 1510 (9th Cir.
17 1991) (a reasonable amount of copywork for prisoners is found in 18 that required to file, serve opponents and maintain copy for 19 inmate's records).

20 Petitioner does not herein seek a blanket order for 21 unlimited copywork, but seeks only a reasonable allowance of 22 copywork for documents relevant to the instant proceeding,
23 including, but not limited to, supplemented/amended pleadings,
24 motions, responses, replies, notices, etc. Id.

25 As Petitioner's liberty is at the heart of these 26 proceedings, he should be provided an extension of his copywork
27 limitation in order to render him reasonably capable of fairly 28 litigating this habeas action.

1
2 CONCLUSION

3 For the reasons set forth above, the Court should direct
4 the NDOC to extend Petitioner's copywork limitations towards the 5 allowance of receiving copies of documents pertinent to the 6 instant habeas proceedings.
