16 Attorneys for Plaintiff,

17 The Fredric and Barbara Rosenberg Living Trust

18 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

19 Malek's Opposition is premised on a major flaw: that the lis pendens recorded by the Rosenberg
20 Trust was false. The Rosenberg Trust disputes that the lis pendens was false. A lis pendens or notice of 21 pending action, "provides constructive notice to the world that a dispute involving real property is 22 ongoing." Weddell v. H2O, Inc., 271 P.3d 743, 751 (Nev. 2012) citing NRS 14.010(3). The Rosenberg
23 Trust has alleged that a restrictive covenant, which affects title, exists over the golf parcel sold to Malek.
24 As such, the Rosenberg Trust recorded the lis pendens to give the world notice that it disputed the title
25 to the golf parcel. Even though this Court expunged the lis pendens, this does not automatically establish 26 that the lis pendens was false. Nevertheless, for purposes of its Motion, the Rosenberg Trust focused on 27 the other two elements of Malek's slander of title claim because there can be no doubt that the Rosenberg
28 Trust acted in good faith and Malek has not established any damages.

With respect to the malice element, Malek still has not shown any evidence of "reckless disregard" on the part of the Rosenberg Trust. Not only does the advice of counsel negate malice, but
"where a [party] has reasonable grounds for belief in his claim, he has not acted with malice." Rowland

1 v. Lepire, 99 Nev. 308, 313, 662 P.2d 1332, 1335 (1983), citing Merchants Nat. Bank of Mobile v.
2 Steiner, 404 So.2d 14 (Ala. 1981); Whildin v. Kovacs, 403 N.E.2d 694 (Ill.App.Ct. 1980). The
3 Rosenberg Trusts' answers to written discovery, Barbara Rosenberg's testimony and the declaration of 4 Peter Bernhard, Esq., all show that there was no malice on the part of the Rosenberg Trust in recording
5 the lis pendens. Malek wrongfully claims that Barbara Rosenberg's experience as a real estate agent
6 means she should have had sufficient knowledge regarding the effect of a lis pendens, a legal 7 mechanism often recorded by lawyers, not a mechanism recorded by real estate agents. Nothing in 8 Barbara's testimony suggests she acted with malice. Instead, she reasonably believed the lis pendens
9 would prevent Malek from building, but this is exactly what the Rosenberg Trust was seeking by way
10 of this lawsuit i.e. to enforce the restrictive covenant which mandates that the golf parcel remain part of 11 the golf course. As such, it is perfectly reasonable that Barbara, a non-lawyer, would believe that a lis
12 pendens would protect this interest. Regardless of whether this was right, this does not amount to malice.
13 Malek has offered no evidence whatsoever that the Rosenberg Trust acted with "reckless disregard."

14 But in the end, the recording of the lis pendens was done at the advice of counsel, and Peter
15 Bernhard has been practicing since 1975 or 40 years. But Malek wants this Court to believe that Barbara,
16 as a real estate agent, in California no less, knew better than her seasoned, Nevada attorney on whether 17 a lis pendens should be recorded. The Rosenberg Trust is entitled to rely on the advice of counsel, and 18 as Mr. Bernhard's declaration evidences, he too recorded the lis pendens on a good faith belief that it
19 was proper under Nevada law.

20 Contrary to Malek's contention, Mr. Bernhard's declaration is admissible, and Malek was not 21 deprived of any discovery. Mr. Bernhard, and his firm, represented the Rosenberg Trust in this matter
22 as early as September 2013 when the Complaint was filed. Undersigned counsel did not substitute in as 23 counsel until January 21, 2014. As such, it is not as if Mr. Bernhard was an attorney unknown to Malek,
24 and operating behind the scenes. Because he was the attorney who recorded the lis pendens, Malek
25 could have deposed him irrespective of when the Rosenberg Trust disclosed him as a witness. Malek
26 chose not to, to his own detriment. Additionally, the declaration of Mr. Bernhard was offered to show
27 the expected testimony of Mr. Bernhard, and that in light of this testimony no genuine issues of material
28 fact exists regarding the element of malice. Malek cannot fail to adequately

1 “work up” his claim, which he bears the burden to prove, and then cry foul when testimony is offered
2 showing no genuine issue of material fact exists. Malek further had notice as early as February 11, 2015,
3 when the Rosenberg Trust served its Answers to Interrogatories that the lis pendens was filed on the 4 advice of counsel. Still, Malek did not choose to depose the Rosenberg Trust’s attorneys.

5       Additionally, the fact that Barbara did not date the declaration page, is harmless error and does
6 not render the Interrogatory responses void. Hearn v. Howard, 99 Cal.Rptr.3d 642, 652 (Cal.Ct.App.
7 2009) citing People v. Flores, 44 Cal.Rptr.2d 585 (Cal.Ct.App. 1995) (noting that “courts have held
8 procedural or technical errors [under § 2015.5 to be harmless].”). See also, Hirschman v. Saxon, 54
9 Cal.Rptr. 767 (Cal.Ct.App. 1966) (finding no need to determine effect of undated declaration, a technical 10 defect under section 2015.5).<sup>1</sup>

11       In short, with regard to the malice element, this case is at the dispositive motion phase. Malek
12 must “do more than simply show that there is some metaphysical doubt” as to the operative facts in order
13 to avoid summary judgment. Woods v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 732, 121 P.3d 1026, 1031 (2005)
14 citing Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co., Ltd. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 106 S.Ct. 1348 (1986).
15 Malek has provided no evidence that creates a genuine issue of material fact as to malice. His entire 16 Opposition to the malice element is premised on the innocuous statement by Barbara that she believed 17 the lis pendens would avoid any building by Malek on the golf parcel. Of course, Malek ignores the full 18 picture, but even so, this one statement does not prove malice.

19       Finally, Malek still has offered no evidence of special damages as a direct result of the lis
20 pendens. The Nevada Supreme Court has held that attorney’s fees are special damages, and special
21 damages must be specially pleaded under NRCP 9(g) and “proved by competent evidence just as any 22 other element of damages.” Sandy Valley Associates v. Sky Ranch Estates Owners Ass’n, 117 Nev.
23 948, 956-57, 35 P.3d 964, 969 (2001); Horgan v. Felton, 123 Nev. 577, 586, 170 P.3d 982, 988 (2007).
24 The Sandy Valley Court also held that the “mention of attorneys fees in a complaint’s general prayer
25 for relief is insufficient to meet this requirement.” Id. at 957. Contrary to Malek’s contention, these 26 holdings were not made in dicta.

1 Under Sandy Valley, Malek's claim that he alleged damages in excess of $10,000, and therefore
2 has met his burden is contrary to Nevada law. Even Malek's Fourth Supplement (which was never
3 served on Plaintiff)<sup>2</sup> is contrary to Nevada law, because it does not include any competent evidence i.e.
4 billing records, to support the claimed amount. In fact, it is hard to imagine that Malek spent $45,000
5 for one motion to expunge. Malek cannot come to trial, and merely claim he incurred $45,000 without 6 any documentary support. This is no different than a personal injury plaintiff claiming thousands of 7 dollars in medical expenses without any proof. Particularly concerning is Malek's statement that his 8 fees "continue to grow." This statement suggests that Malek is including his attorneys fees for more
9 than just the removal of the lis pendens, but under Nevada law this is all he would be entitled to if he
10 prevailed on his claim. He is not entitled to all his fees in defending against the Rosenberg Trust's
11 request for injunctive relief. This is why competent evidence is required for special damages.

12 Additionally, Malek's suggestion that the Rosenberg Trust's decision not to file a motion to 13 dismiss somehow means his failure to establish his damages is not significant makes no sense. Damages
14 is an element of a slander of title claim. If a party fails to establish even one element of his claim, the 15 claim fails as a matter of law. The Rosenberg Trust does not bear the burden of proof on Malek's claim;
16 instead, he bears the burden to establish damages, and his failure to do so justifies summary judgment
17 in favor of the Rosenberg Trust. It is astounding that even in light of a motion for summary judgment,
18 Malek still has not produced any evidence of his alleged special damages. This is not to say that the 19 Rosenberg Trust would not have objected, but as it stands now, there is absolutely no evidence to 20 support Malek's claimed attorney's fees. As such, summary judgment in favor of the Rosenberg Trust 21 is appropriate.

27 <sup>2</sup> Malek never served his Fourth Supplemental Disclosures on Plaintiff. On March 16, 2015 Malek's counsel emailed
28 undersigned counsel explaining difficulties he was having with Wiznet. Having not received the Disclosure by March 19,
2015, undersigned counsel emailed Malek's counsel and explained she still never received service of the Fourth Supplement and never consented to service by email. Still, Malek's counsel never served the Fourth Supplement. See Declaration of Karen L. Hanks attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

1 Because no genuine issues of material fact exist regarding malice or damages, the Rosenberg
2 Trust respectfully requests this Court enter summary judgment in its favor and against Defendant Malek
3 on Malek's claim for slander of title.

REC # _____

BAC Home Loans Servicing, LP, a subsidiary of Bank of America, N.A.

REAL ESTATE PURCHASE ADDENDUM

This Real Estate Purchase Addendum ("Addendum") is to be made part of, and incorporated into, the Real Estate Purchase Contract dated March 10th, 2013 ("Contract") between BAC ("Seller" and the term "Seller" shall also include BAC Home Loans Servicing, LP, a subsidiary of Bank of America, N.A.) and Barbara & Fredric Rosenberg ("Buyer") for the property and improvements located at the following address: 596 Lairmont Place Henderson, NV 89012 ("Property"). Buyer and Seller may each be referred to herein as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties." The Contract and this Addendum together constitute the "Agreement".

The Seller and the Buyer agree as follows:

1. LIMITATION OF SELLER'S LIABILITY AND BUYER'S WAIVER OF IMPORTANT RIGHTS:

BUYER UNDERSTANDS AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT SELLER HAS ACQUIRED THE PROPERTY THROUGH FORECLOSURE, DEED-IN-LIEU OF FORECLOSURE, OR SIMILAR PROCESS. SELLER HAS NEVER OCCUPIED THE PROPERTY, AND SELLER HAS LITTLE OR NO DIRECT KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THE CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY. BUYER AGREES THAT BUYER IS BUYING THE PROPERTY "AS IS" (AS MORE FULLY SET FORTH IN SECTION 13 OF THIS ADDENDUM).

NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PROVISION TO THE CONTRARY IN THE AGREEMENT, SELLER'S LIABILITY AND BUYER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY IN ALL CIRCUMSTANCES AND FOR ALL CLAIMS (AS THE TERM IS DEFINED IN SECTION 26 OF THIS ADDENDUM, AND ALL REFERENCES IN THIS ADDENDUM TO "CLAIMS," "CLAIM," "Claims," or "Claim" SHALL HAVE SUCH MEANING) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING IN ANY WAY TO THE AGREEMENT OR THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY TO BUYER INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, SELLER'S BREACH OR TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT, THE CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY, SELLER'S TITLE TO THE PROPERTY, THE OCCUPANCY STATUS OF THE PROPERTY, THE SIZE, SQUARE FOOTAGE, BOUNDARIES, OR LOCATION OF THE PROPERTY, ANY COST OR EXPENSE INCURRED BY BUYER IN SELLING A CURRENT OR PRIOR RESIDENCE OR TERMINATING A LEASE ON A CURRENT OR PRIOR RESIDENCE, OBTAINING OTHER LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS, MOVING, STORAGE OR RELOCATION EXPENSES, OR ANY OTHER COSTS OR EXPENSES INCURRED BY BUYER IN CONNECTION WITH THE AGREEMENT SHALL BE LIMITED TO NO MORE THAN:

(A) A RETURN OF BUYER'S EARNEST MONEY DEPOSIT IF THE SALE TO BUYER DOES NOT CLOSE; AND

(B) THE LESSER OF BUYER'S ACTUAL DAMAGES OR $5,000.00 IF THE SALE TO BUYER CLOSSES.

BUYER SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO A RETURN OF BUYER'S EARNEST MONEY DEPOSIT IF BUYER MATERIALLY BREACHES THE AGREEMENT.

BUYER AGREES THAT SELLER SHALL NOT BE LIABLE TO BUYER UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES FOR ANY SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES WHATSOEVER, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY), OR ANY OTHER LEGAL OR EQUITABLE PRINCIPLE, THEORY, OR CAUSE OF

ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED IN ANY WAY TO ANY CLAIM, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE AFOREMENTIONED CLAIMS.

ANY REFERENCE TO A RETURN OF THE BUYER'S EARNEST MONEY DEPOSIT CONTAINED IN THE AGREEMENT SHALL MEAN A RETURN OF THE EARNEST MONEY DEPOSIT, LESS ANY ESCROW CALCULATION FEES APPLICABLE TO THE BUYER UNDER THE AGREEMENT AND LESS FEES AND COSTS PAYABLE FOR SERVICES AND PRODUCTS PROVIDED DURING ESCROW AT THE BUYER'S REQUEST. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW THE BUYER WAIVES ANY CLAIMS THAT THE PROPERTY IS UNIQUE AND THE BUYER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT A RETURN OF ITS EARNEST MONEY DEPOSIT CAN ADEQUATELY AND FAIRLY COMPENSATE THE BUYER FOR ALL CLAIMS. UPON RETURN OF THE EARNEST MONEY DEPOSIT TO THE BUYER, THE AGREEMENT SHALL BE TERMINATED, AND THE BUYER AND THE SELLER SHALL HAVE NO FURTHER LIABILITY, OBLIGATION, OR RESPONSIBILITY TO EACH OTHER IN CONNECTION WITH THE AGREEMENT. IF THE SALE TO BUYER CLOSING AND SELLER COMPENSATES BUYER AS PROVIDED ABOVE FOR BUYER'S ACTUAL DAMAGES, IF ANY, THEN THE BUYER AND THE SELLER SHALL HAVE NO FURTHER LIABILITY, OBLIGATION, OR RESPONSIBILITY TO EACH OTHER IN CONNECTION WITH THE AGREEMENT.

SELLER'S LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND BUYER'S WAIVERS PROVIDED IN THE AGREEMENT ARE A MATERIAL PART OF THE CONSIDERATION TO BE RECEIVED BY THE SELLER UNDER THE AGREEMENT AS NEGOTIATED AND AGREED TO BY THE BUYER AND THE SELLER.

THE BUYER FURTHER WAIVES THE FOLLOWING, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW:

- (A) ALL RIGHTS TO FILE AND MAINTAIN AN ACTION AGAINST THE SELLER FOR SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE;
- (B) RIGHT TO RECORD A LIS PENDENS AGAINST THE PROPERTY OR TO RECORD THE AGREEMENT OR A MEMORANDUM THEREOF IN THE REAL PROPERTY RECORDS;
- (C) RIGHT TO INVOKE ANY EQUITABLE REMEDY THAT WOULD PREVENT THE SELLER FROM CONVEYING THE PROPERTY TO A THIRD PARTY BUYER;
- (D) ANY CLAIMS ARISING FROM THE ADJUSTMENTS OR PRORATIONS OR ERRORS IN CALCULATING THE ADJUSTMENTS OR PRORATIONS THAT ARE OR MAY BE DISCOVERED AFTER CLOSING UNLESS SUCH CLAIMS ARE MATERIAL AND BUYER NOTIFIES SELLER IN WRITING OF SUCH CLAIMS WITHIN THIRTY (30) DAYS OF THE CLOSING DATE;
- (E) ANY REMEDY OF ANY KIND THAT THE BUYER MIGHT OTHERWISE BE ENTITLED TO AT LAW OR EQUITY (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, RESCISSION OF THE AGREEMENT), EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THIS ADDENDUM;
- (F) ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LITIGATION ARISING FROM OR RELATED IN ANY WAY TO THE AGREEMENT;
- (H) ANY RIGHT TO AVOID THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY OR REDUCE THE PRICE OR HOLD THE SELLER LIABLE FOR ANY CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED IN ANY WAY TO THE CONDITION, CONSTRUCTION, REPAIR, OR TREATMENT OF THE PROPERTY, OR ANY DEFECTS, APPARENT OR LATENT, THAT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER EXIST WITH RESPECT TO THE PROPERTY;

cooperate and comply with all requests for documents and information from the Buyer's chosen lender during the loan application process. Failure of the Buyer to comply with such requests from the lender that results in the denial of the mortgage loan shall be considered a material breach of the Agreement and the Seller shall be entitled to retain any earnest money deposited by Buyer.

If the Agreement is contingent on financing, as a sales condition, Buyer must obtain a pre-approval letter from a branch office of BAC Home Loan Servicing, LP a subsidiary of Bank of America, N.A. for a mortgage loan in an amount and under terms sufficient for Buyer to perform his obligations under the Agreement, and such letter must accompany the Agreement. The pre-approval shall include, but is not limited to, the pre-approval letter, a satisfactory credit report, and proof of funds sufficient to meet Buyer's obligations under the Agreement. Buyer's submission of proof of pre-approval is a condition precedent to Seller's acceptance of Buyer's offer. Seller may require Buyer to obtain, at no cost to Buyer, loan pre-approval as Seller may direct. Notwithstanding any Seller required pre-approval, Buyer is not required to obtain financing from BAC Home Loan Servicing, LP, a subsidiary of Bank of America, N.A. or Seller. Buyer may obtain financing from any source. As an incentive for the Buyer to obtain financing from BAC Home Loan Servicing, LP, a subsidiary of Bank of America, N.A., BAC Home Loan Servicing, LP, a subsidiary of Bank of America, N.A. will offer a free appraisal and a free credit report if the Buyer finances and closes the purchase of the Property through financing from BAC Home Loan Servicing LP, a subsidiary of Bank of America, N.A.

Notwithstanding the terms provided in Section 17 for inspection of the Property, in the event of a noncontingent cash offer all inspections shall be completed and any notice of disapproval shall be given to Seller within seven (7) calendar days of the Effective Date. Failure to timely notify Seller of any disapproval shall be deemed acceptance by Buyer of the inspection results and the condition of the Property. Cash offer shall not be subject to any contingency, unless specifically described in Section 19 of this Agreement.

(c) The Buyer is aware that the price and terms of this transaction were negotiated on the basis of the type of financing selected by the Buyer. Any change of the loan type, loan terms, financing, or Buyer's lender after the Agreement has been entered into shall be subject to Seller's approval and may require, at Seller's sole discretion, renegotiation of all or some of the terms of the Agreement.

12. Inspection

(a) On or before ten (10) calendar days (seven days for noncontingent cash offers as indicated in Section 5 (b) above) from the Effective Date, the Buyer shall inspect the Property or obtain for its own use, benefit and release, inspections and/or reports on the condition of the Property, or Buyer shall be deemed to have 1) waived such inspections and any objections to the condition of the Property, and 2) accepted the condition of the Property. The Buyer shall keep the Property free and clear of liens and judgments and hold the Seller and the Indemnified Parties harmless from all Claims arising out of or relating in any way to the Buyer's inspections, and the Buyer shall repair the Property, at Buyer's sole expense, for all such Claims. The Buyer shall not directly or indirectly cause any inspections to be made by any governmental building or zoning inspector or government employees without the prior written consent of the Seller, unless required by law. In which case, the Buyer shall provide reasonable notice to the Seller prior to any such inspection. If the Seller has authorized the Property and the Buyer desires to have the Property inspected, the listing agent will have the Property re-inspected prior to inspection and re-inspected after inspection. The Buyer agrees to pay the expense in advance to the listing agent. The amount paid under this provision shall be non-refundable.

Within five (5) calendar days of receipt of any inspection report prepared by or for the Buyer, but not later than ten (10) calendar days (seven days for noncontingent cash offers as indicated in Section 5 (b) above) from the Effective Date, whichever first occurs, the Buyer shall provide written notice to the Seller of any items disapproved or problems with the condition of the Property. The Buyer's failure to provide such written notice to Seller shall be deemed as Buyer's acceptance of the condition of the Property. The Buyer shall immediately provide to the Seller, at Buyer's request by the Seller, complete copies of all inspection reports upon which the Buyer's disapproval of the condition of the Property is based. In no event shall the Seller be obligated to make any repairs or replacements, or correct any problems or defects that may be indicated in the Buyer's inspection reports. The Seller may, at its sole discretion, make such repairs, replacements, or corrections to the Property. If the Seller elects not to repair or correct the Property, the Buyer may cancel the Agreement within five (5) calendar days of receiving notice from Seller that Seller elects not to repair or correct the Property. If Buyer timely notifies Seller of such cancellation, then Buyer shall receive all earnest money deposited. If the Seller elects to make any such repairs or corrections to the Property, the Seller shall notify the Buyer after completion of the repairs or corrections and the Buyer shall have five (5) calendar days from the date of such notice, to inspect the repairs or corrections and notify the Seller of any items disapproved. The Buyer's failure to notify Seller of any items disapproved shall be deemed acceptance by Buyer of the condition of the Property.

In situations that are applicable, a structural, electrical, mechanical or similar inspection report may have been prepared for the benefit of the Seller. Upon Buyer's request, the Buyer may review such reports, but the Buyer acknowledges that such inspection reports were prepared for the sole use and benefit of the Seller. Buyer shall not rely upon any such inspection reports obtained by the Seller in making a decision to purchase the Property, and such reports shall not serve as a basis for Buyer to terminate the Agreement.

(b) If the Property is a condominium or planned unit development or co-operative, unless otherwise required by law, the Buyer, at the Buyer's own expense, is responsible for obtaining and reviewing the covenants, conditions and restrictions, and bylaws of the condominium or planned unit development or cooperative within ten (10) calendar days of the Effective Date. The Seller agrees to use reasonable efforts, as determined at the Seller's sole discretion, to assist the Buyer in obtaining a copy of the covenants, conditions and restrictions, and bylaws. The Buyer will be deemed to have accepted the covenants, conditions and restrictions, and bylaws if the Buyer does not notify the Seller in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days of the Effective Date of the Buyer's objection to the covenants, conditions and restrictions, and/or bylaws.

Buyer is advised to consult with an attorney to fully understand the import and impact of the foregoing. Buyer agrees Buyer shall have no recourse against Seller in the event the right of redemption is exercised.

16. Personal Property: Items of personal property, including but not limited to, window coverings, appliances, manufactured homes, mobile homes, vehicles, spas, antennas, satellite dishes, and garage door openers, now or hereafter located on the Property, are not included in this sale or the purchase price unless the personal property is specifically described and referenced in Section 10 of this Addendum. In determining prorations, the Closing Date shall be allocated to the Buyer. storage tanks for fuel oil, liquefied petroleum gases, or similar fuels, the Buyer will buy the fuel in the tank at closing at the current price as calculated by the supplier. In the event the Seller has paid any taxes, special assessments, or other fees and there is a refund of any such taxes, assessments, or fees after closing, Buyer, as the then current owner of the Property, or the closing agent, in the event of a holdback for payment of such items, shall immediately remit the refund to the Seller.

(b) Seller shall only pay those closing costs and fees associated with the transfer of the Property that local custom or practice clearly allocates to Seller and any closing costs and fees specifically agreed to in Section 6, and Buyer shall pay all remaining fees and costs. Notwithstanding the foregoing, FHA/VA allocation of closing costs shall apply when applicable.

(c) The Seller shall pay the real estate commission per the listing agreement between the Seller and the Seller's listing broker. Unless disclosed to Seller, Buyer represents that Buyer is not a real estate licensee, and that the real estate licensee representing Buyer is not related to, or affiliated with Buyer.

18. Delivery of Funds: Regardless of local custom or practice, Buyer shall deliver all funds due the Seller from the sale by wire transfer or in the form of cash, bank check, or certified check to the closing agent prior to delivery of the deed by the Seller to the Buyer.

The Buyer shall make application for all required Certificates of Occupancy within ten (10) calendar days of the Effective Date. The Buyer shall not have the right to delay the closing due to the Buyer's failure or inability to obtain any required Certificate of Occupancy. Failure of the Buyer to obtain and furnish the Certificate of Occupancy shall be a material breach of the Agreement.

20. Delivery of Possession of Property: The Seller shall deliver possession of the Property to the Buyer at closing and funding of the sale. The delivery of possession shall be subject to the rights of any tenants or parties in possession per Section 15 of this Addendum. If the Buyer alters the Property or causes the Property to be altered in any way and/or occupies the Property or allows any other person to occupy the Property prior to closing and funding without the prior written consent of the Seller, then: (A) Such event shall constitute a material breach by the Buyer under the Agreement; (B) The Seller may terminate the Agreement; (C) The Buyer shall be liable to the Seller for all Claims caused by any such alteration or occupation of the Property prior to closing and funding; and (D) Buyer waives all Claims for improvement made by the Buyer to the Property including, but not limited to, any Claims for unjust enrichment.

Any reference to the term "deed" or "Special Warranty Deed" herein shall be construed to refer to such form of deed.

22. Defects in Title: If the Buyer raises an objection to the Seller's title to the Property, which, if valid, would make title to the Property unmarketable, the Seller shall have the right unilaterally to terminate the Agreement by giving written notice of the termination to the Buyer. However, if the Seller is able to correct the problem through reasonable efforts, as the Seller determines, at its sole and absolute discretion, prior to the closing date set forth in the Agreement, including any written exceptions, or if title insurance is available from a reputable title insurance company at regular rates containing affirmative coverage for the title objections, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and the Buyer shall perform pursuant to the terms set forth in the Agreement. The Seller is not obligated to: (A) remove any exception, (B) bring any action or proceeding or bear any expense in order to convey title to the Property, or (C) make the title marketable or insurable. Any attempt by the Seller to remove such title exceptions shall not impose an obligation upon the Seller to remove those exceptions. The Buyer acknowledges that the Seller's title to the Property may be subject to court approval of foreclosure or to a mortgagor's right of redemption. In the event the Seller is not able to (A) make the title insurable or correct all title problems, or (B) obtain title insurance for the Property from a reputable title insurance company,

DEPT NO.: I

DEFENDANT SHAHIN SHANE
MALEK'S REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

I. Introduction

The Trust attempts to refute Malek's arguments by erecting one straw man in their place and deftly knocking it down. To do this, the Trust ignores its own claims in this case, and instead focuses on how Malek's conduct violates an implied restrictive covenant that it presumes to exist over the Golf Parcel. In doing so, the Trust answers a question no one asked; it proposes a solution to a problem that

1 does not exist. Much as how Trust cannot dictate Malek's right to use his property, it cannot redefine
2 his arguments into those it finds most convenient.

3 The Trust has lost the plot of its own case. Its Opposition blurs its four claims against Malek
4 into one essay about implied restrictive covenants, and fails for the following reasons:

- 5 • Contrary to the Trust's claims, Nevada has repudiated implied restrictive covenants for 6 view, privacy, and light – all of which the Trust has identified as its sole concerns in 7 this case;
- 8 • Skipping to its conclusion, the Trust assumes that an implied restrictive covenant runs
9 throughout MacDonald Highlands and grounds its arguments from that position, but 10 never sets forth how one arose and what its scope may be; and
- 11 • The Trust's principal argument for an implied restrictive covenant is that the Trust
12 thought one existed – yet does not introduce any evidence supporting that contention.

13 The Trust's latest argument is that it is protecting the Dragonridge golf course from changing
14 its character or use. This new theory of the case is especially curious because Barbara Rosenberg, who 15 by all appearances is spearheading this litigation for the Trust, does not even play golf. (Dep. of B.
16 Rosenberg at 189:23-190:21) Whatever post hoc rationalization the Trust wishes to give, it has 17 repeatedly stated that its concern over Malek's construction is that it will affect the light, view, and 18 privacy of 590 Lairmont. (MSOF 88, 89, 90, 118) These concerns do not create an implied restrictive 19 covenant.

20 In sum, the Trust believes that its $2.3 million purchase of 590 Lairmont not only bought that
21 property, but the right to dictate its neighbors use of their property as well. Despite the trustees' efforts
22 to portray themselves as a hardscrabble success story that has finally arrived in a prestigious
23 community, 590 Lairmont is only one of many properties owned by the Trust and its trustees. (MSOF
24 52) The Trust knows, or should know, that its property rights do not allow it to dictate Malek's use of 25 his property. This Court should grant Malek's Motion for Summary Judgment and affirm this 26 fundamental tenet of Nevada law.

27 II. Statement of Relevant Facts

28 The Trust's Statement of Facts largely aligns with those advanced by Mr. Malek. The Trust's characterization of certain facts is inadequate, as set forth below. However, the resolution of these characterizations with the facts on record is consistent with the facts set forth in Malek's motion.

1 First, the Trust states that the Golf Parcel was “part of the in-bound play for the 9th hole.” Yet,
2 it cites to portions of Richard MacDonald’s deposition that do not state whether or not the Golf Parcel
3 is out-of-bounds. (Opp. Exh. A-5 at 30:7-8, 61:16-25, 62:8-13) Simultaneously, Malek has submitted
4 evidence that the Golf Parcel was out-of-bounds. (MSOF 13)

5 Second, the Trust’s contention that Bank of America “denied” receiving notice of the Golf
6 Parcel’s re-zoning is inaccurate. (Opp. at 5:20-21) Instead, Bank of America stated that it had no
7 records of learning about the Golf Parcel’s sale, or Malek’s purchase of it, prior to this litigation. (Opp.
8 Exh. A-9 at 6:21-7:7) During Bank of America’s deposition its designee confirmed that the 9 informational meeting’s notice was sent to a valid address for Bank of America (MSOF 50). This is 10 not a “deni[al]” as the Trust claims.

11 The Trust observes that other property owners have purchased portions of the golf course in the 12 past, and that the City of Henderson granted Malek’s application to re-zone the Golf Parcel. (Opp. at 13 6:7-19) It also correctly notes that Malek purchased 594 Lairmont and the Golf Parcel subject to any
14 of the easements that existed on the land. (Id. at 6:20-21) These included requirements that Malek’s
15 home plans are subject to the Design Review Committee’s approval under its guidelines, and an 16 easement for golf balls and golfers retrieving their balls from errant drives. (Id. at 5:9-16)

17 III. Argument

18 By misstating Malek’s arguments, the Trust attempts to contort Nevada law to serve its 19 purposes and prevent Malek from building his home. The Trust focuses on Nevada’s recognition of 20 implied restrictive covenants, and analyzes their history with depth that would be appropriate in an 21 academic journal. That analysis fails to connect with the issues before the Court in this case. The 22 Trust’s latest attempt to describe its potential loss of light, privacy, and view as preservation of the golf
23 course is unavailing, impermissibly elevates form over substance, and smacks of after-the-fact
24 rationalization.

25 A. The Trust Takes a Valid Statement of Law and Stretches It Beyond Its Breaking 26 Point: Nevada Does Recognize Implied Restrictive Covenants, But Not for the 27 Trust’s Purposes in This Case, and Not for the Reasons the Trust has Articulated.

28 The question before the Court is not whether Nevada recognizes implied restrictive covenants, but whether the Trust can assert an implied restrictive covenant over Malek’s property to protect its

1 view and privacy. Nevada law has pointedly held that the Trust cannot do so. Nevada, like other
2 states, has “expressly repudiated” implied restrictive covenants for light, view, and privacy. Probasco
3 v. City of Reno, 85 Nev. 563, 565, 459 P.2d 772, 774 (1969), citing Boyd v. McDonald, 81 Nev. 642,
4 651, 408 P.2d 717, 722 (1965).

5 In an attempt to circumvent this legal principle, the Trust cites a raft of Nevada precedent, yet
6 none of it is applicable in this case. The Trust cites to Boyd, analogizing the continued use of a
7 driveway and patio on nearby land to the concerns over view and privacy repeatedly identified by the 8 Trust in this case. However, there are no physical equivalents of the patio and driveway from Boyd in 9 this case. Here, the Trust seeks only to preserve its view and privacy on the golf course (MSOF 88, 10 89, 90, 118) – interests the Boyd court expressly held do not support an implied restrictive covenant.
11 81 Nev. at 651, 408 P.2d at 722.

12 The Trust goes on to cite Jackson v. Nash for the proposition that Nevada recognizes implied
13 restrictive covenants as a matter of law. 109 Nev. 1202, 866 P.2d 262 (1993). In that case, the Nevada
14 Supreme Court upheld the district court’s conclusion that no implied restrictive covenant existed.
15 Moreover, the Jackson court declined to find an implied easement by necessity that would allow the 16 plaintiff an appellant to have more convenient access to a roadway. Id. at 1211-1212, 866 P.2d at 269.
17 Like Boyd, this case contradicts the Trust’s position.

18 Despite the Trust’s effort to frame itself as the savior of MacDonald Highlands by enforcing a 19 putative implied restrictive covenant throughout the community, it has only produced evidence
20 showing that it seeks to preserve 590 Lairmont’s light, view, and privacy from Malek’s construction
21 (MSOF 88, 89, 90, 118). Its newly professed motivation for bringing this case to protect the golf
22 course directly clashes with its own prior testimony. (Id.; Dep. of B. Rosenberg at 189:23-190:21)
23 However the Trust describes its concerns over view, privacy, and light, they are the Trust’s only 24 concerns in seeking an implied restrictive covenant against Malek. They are not a proper basis for the 25 Court to entertain an implied restrictive covenant over Malek’s property.

1                   B. The Trust Has Not Shown Nevada Recognizes a Cause of Action for Implied
2                   Restrictive Covenant, or that It has Any Basis for Applying the Doctrine
3                   Offensively.

4                   The Trust cites to no authority showing that Nevada has weaponized the legal doctrine of 5                   implied restrictive covenant into a cause of action. Nor can the Trust do so: No such precedent exists.
6                   The Trust makes no effort to show that Nevada would recognize a cause of action for implied
7                   restrictive covenant.

8                   The Trust does not enact the effort to explain why its claim is valid because it cannot do so.
9                   Rather than try in vain to show its claim is cognizable under Nevada law, it makes a tremendous leap
10                  of logic: Because Nevada recognizes the legal concept of an implied restrictive covenant, it therefore 11                  recognizes a cause of action for the same. (Opp. at 9:8-10) This is a fallacy, and one that would allow 12                  parties to turn even the most basic legal concepts into causes of action.

13                  The weight of Nevada’s legal tradition weighs against recognizing a new cause of action, such 14                  as one for an implied restrictive covenant. (See Malek. Mot. for Summary Judgment at 16-20) In 15                  addition to the precedent detailed in Malek’s Motion (id.), the Nevada Supreme Court issued a new 16                  opinion<sup>1</sup> declining to recognize a new cause of action for tortious discharge in violation of public
17                  policy. Brown v. Eddie World, Inc., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 19 (2015). Brown reaffirms the Nevada
18                  Supreme Court’s unwillingness to recognize expanding Nevada law to recognize new causes of action,
19                  and is instructive to this Court. Consistent with the Nevada Supreme Court’s history of declining to 20                  recognize novel causes of action, this Court should enter judgment in Malek’s favor on the Trust’s
21                  claim for implied restrictive covenant.

22                   C. The Trust’s Proffered Evidence Does Not Defeat Malek’s Entitlement to Judgment
23                   in His Favor.

24                  Despite Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 56(e)’s requirement for the Trust to oppose Malek’s
25                  motion with admissible evidence, the Trust failed to authenticate a significant amount of the 26                  documents used in support of its motion. Yet, even if this evidence were admissible, it would not
27                  create the negative view easement the Trust seeks to enforce on Malek’s property.

28                  

<sup>1</sup> The Nevada Supreme Court issued its opinion in Brown v. Eddie World, Inc. on April 16, 2015 – the same day Malek filed his Motion for Summary Judgment.

1           The evidence the Trust relies on relates only to the trustees' subjective beliefs at the time they
2 purchased 590 Lairmont. This evidence does not show the intent of Malek, FHP Ventures, and other
3 land owners who purchased out-of-bounds portions of the Dragonridge golf course to maintain those
4 parcels of land as undeveloped desert land in perpetuity. Similarly, the Trust's attempt to identify a
5 procedural defect with MacDonald Highland's merger of the Golf Parcel into 594 Lairmont does not
6 create an implied restrictive covenant against Malek. Despite the Trust's efforts, it cannot show that 7 an implied restrictive covenant prohibits Malek from developing the Golf Parcel and building his 8 home.

9                           1. Trust's Argument Relies on Inadmissible Evidence.

10           Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 56(e) requires a movant to attach sworn or certified copies of 11 any "papers or parts thereof" in support of a motion for summary judgment. Despite its numerous 12 citations of Exhibit A-6 (the MacDonald Highlands Design Guidelines), Exhibit A-7 (the MacDonald
13 Highlands Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions), Exhibit A-10 (the Informational
14 Meeting Notice), and Exhibit A-11 (the City of Henderson's Notice of Final Action), among other 15 pieces of evidence, the Trust makes no serious effort to authenticate these exhibits.

16           Instead of using deposition testimony for this purpose, the Trust's counsel relies on an attorney
17 declaration to authenticate these documents. This is insufficient to make the Trust's putative evidence
18 admissible. At best, a party attorney's declaration can render a document "unauthenticated hearsay"
19 that cannot support a summary judgment motion. Silver State Intellectual Techs., Inc. v. Garmin Int'l, 20 Inc., 32 F. Supp. 3d 1155, 1170 (D. Nev. 2014). Generally, "a document cannot be authenticated
21 merely by an attorney's declaration stating that the document is true and correct." Sadeh v. Venetian
22 Casino Resort, LLC, Case No. 2:10-cv-02224-KJD-GWF, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 104777 at *11 (D.
23 Nev. July 27, 2012), citing Beyene v. Coleman Sec. Services, Inc., 854 F.2d 1179, 1182 (9th Cir.
24 1988). Without proper authentication, these exhibits are inadmissible and cannot be used to create a
25 question of material fact in opposition to Malek's motion. Henry Prods., Inc. v. Tarmu, 114 Nev. 1017, 26 1019, 967 P.2d 444, 445 (1998) ("[e]vidence introduced in support of or opposition to a motion for 27 summary judgment must be admissible evidence"). To the extent the Trust relies on these pieces of 28 evidence to dispute Malek's facts in this case, the Court cannot credit those arguments.

1 leased portions of the golf course to several others). While the Trust purchased 590 Lairmont subject
2 to the easements and covenants on that property, a blanket prohibition against the Golf Parcel being
3 developed into residential property was not among them. The Trust cannot now show that it is.

4 3. The Homeowners Association Board Implicitly Approved Malek's
5 Acquisition and Re-Zoning of the Golf Parcel.

6 Attempting to find a procedural defect in Malek's acquisition and re-zoning of the Golf Parcel,
7 the Trust asserts that Malek did not obtain the HOA Board's approval for a lot line change. (Opp. at 8 22:2-4) The Trust's argument relies on an incomplete reading of the relevant section of the CC&R's
9 (Opp. Exh. A-7 § 12.9), and ignoring Paul Bykowski and FHP Ventures' controlling position on the 10 Homeowners Association ("HOA") Board. The facts, when fully considered, do not support the 11 Trust's argument.

12 First, the Trust relies on a deliberately narrow reading of Section 12.9 of MacDonald
13 Highlands' CC&R's. (Opp. Exh A-7 § 12.9) The very section the Trust cites for the proposition that 14 Malek required the HOA Board's prior approval before changing his lot lines goes on to state:<sup>3</sup>

15 Declarant, however [illegible] any transferee of Developmental Rights pursuant to 16 Section 15.1, hereby expressly reserves the right to subdivide, change the boundary line
17 of, and replat any Unit(s) or other portion of the Property owned by Declarant or such 18 transferee. (Opp. Exh. A-7 § 12.9)

19 The Trust does not reference this language in its Opposition. Nor does it include the pages of the 20 CC&R's that include Section 15.1, detailing the circumstances where "Developmental Rights" could
21 be transferred to a third party and not require Board approval to adjust the lot lines. (Opp. Exh. A-7)
22 By the plain language of Section 12.9, the CC&R's contemplate lot line changes that do not require the 23 Board's written approval.

24 Second, even if Board approval were necessary, it was implicitly or explicitly obtained from 25 Paul Bykowski, the Board's President. (Dep. of P. Bykowski Vol. I. at 18:21-25) Bykowski's
26 deposition testimony does not establish that the Board never gave prior written approval for lot line
27 changes on Malek's property – only that he did not know. (Opp. Exh A-12 at 28:22-29:1) Bykowski's
28 deposition does establish, though, that FHP Ventures controls the HOA Board, and controlled it

<sup>3</sup> As best as can be discerned from Opposition Exhibit A-7, which is hardly legible in certain portions.

1 throughout the time Malek purchased the Golf Parcel, re-zoned it, and added it to 594 Lairmont.
2 (Bykowski Dep. Vol. I at 17:6-18:20, 19:1-20:5; MSOF 13-15, 26-27) As Bykowski was instrumental
3 in this process, FHP Ventures and the Board's consent to the change of 594 Lairmont's lot lines should
4 be obvious. (MSOF 25, 34-35, 98)

5 Malek followed the required rules for re-zoning and merging the Golf Parcel into 594
6 Lairmont. The Trust's attempts to show otherwise are unavailing, as its own evidence fails to show
7 any failure by Malek to follow the rules. To the contrary, Exhibit A-7 shows that there are 8 circumstances where FHP Ventures retains the right to make lot line changes without prior approval.
9 (Opp. Exh. A-7 § 12.9) Despite the many holes in the Trust's argument, it would not create an implied
10 negative easement over Malek's property even if it were valid.

11 D. By Failing to Respond to Malek's Motion Seeking Summary Judgment on the 12 Trusts Erroneous Claims for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief, the Trust
13 Concedes to Malek's Motion.

14 In its Opposition, the Trust fails to address the case law demonstrating that its claims for 15 injunctive and declaratory relief are remedies, rather than causes of action. By failing to oppose these 16 branches of Malek's motion, the Trust concedes to their merit. EDCR 2.20(e); Walls v. Brewster, 112
17 Nev. 175, 178, 912 P.2d 261, 263 (1996). As such, the Court should enter judgment in Malek's favor
18 on those putative claims.

19 E. The Trust's Policy Analysis Misrepresents Malek's Position and the Consequences
20 of this Litigation Proceeding.

21 The Trust oversimplifies Malek's contention about the stakes of this case. Malek is not arguing
22 that the doctrine of implied restrictive covenants should be abolished, as the Trust claims. The Trust's
23 cited precedent is inapposite to its argument: Reno v. Matley discusses the benefits of a restrictive
24 covenant when enforcing its benefits, 79 Nev. 49, 54, 378 P.2d 256, 258-59 (1963), but this case
25 enforces a burden on Malek. The Trust's attempt to justify its trampling of his property rights by 26 describing it as a "benefit" to the Trust does not change the burdens the Trust seeks to place on Malek
27 to protect 590 Lairmont's light, privacy, and view.

28 This case is not broad enough to call for repudiating any particular legal doctrine. All the Court must do to enter judgment in Malek's favor is to apply Nevada's existing law to the facts of this

1 case. By allowing the Trust to create an implied restrictive covenant over Malek's property out of its
2 speculation and say-so – and for the protection of its light, privacy, and view – contradicts existing
3 law. Probasco, 85 Nev. at 565, 459 P.2d at 774; Boyd, 81 Nev. at 651, 408 P.2d at 722. If the Trust's
4 theory is allowed to advance, it welcomes neighbors to subject one another to the costs and
5 machinations of civil litigation so they may vie for control over another's land. This very case, and its 6 nearly two years of robust litigation among numerous parties over a 1/3-acre parcel of desert land, is 7 evidence that Malek's concerns are not a hollow warning.

8 IV. Conclusion

9 Despite the Trust's considerable research on the subject of implied restrictive covenants, its 10 findings do not connect with the facts of this case. To the extent the Trust's evidence is admissible, it
11 does not contradict Malek's motion or the evidence in support of it. The facts in this case do not show
12 any implied restrictive covenant exists, nor has the Trust has advanced a legal theory entitling it to 13 encumber Malek's development of his land. The Court should grant Malek's Motion for Summary
14 Judgment.

1 up until now. Up until now, you have seen
2 nothing that says the 9th hole is being moved,
3 right?

4 A. Nothing has happened yet.

5 Q. You are unaware of anything that will
6 happen to move the 9th hole as of now, correct?

7 A. I am aware a piece of property has
8 been bought and there will be changes made.

9 Q. The piece of property you are talking
10 about is the bare lot, right?

11 A. What was part of the golf course
12 before.

13 Q. I was calling it the bare lot. That 14 lot has no grass on it, correct?

15 A. Yeah.

16 Q. And it doesn't have any part of the 17 green or the fairway on that lot, correct?

18 A. But it is part of the golf course.

19 Q. I am asking you a question.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Am I correct?

22 A. Uh-huh.

23 Q. And it does not appear to be any kind
24 of a water hazard or a sand trap for that hole,
25 correct?

1 A. I am not a golfer. I don't know.

2 Q. In fact, if you were to view it today,
3 it appears to be raw desert land; is that
4 correct?

5 A. It looks -- yeah, I guess.

6 Q. You say you are not a golfer. Do you
7 know if that land is inbounds or out of bounds
8 for the 9th hole?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. So if that bare lot was out of bounds
11 for the hole, then wouldn't you agree that
12 selling that property to Malek would not be a
13 sale of the 9th hole because it is out of bounds
14 of the 9th hole?

15 A. I don't know what he is going to do
16 there, so I don't know how it is going to affect
17 the 9th hole. I don't know what they would say
18 how they would have to reconfigure it based on
19 what he was doing, so I don't know. You are 20 asking me will it purely stay the way it is. I
21 have no idea.

22 Q. That is not what I am asking.

23 What I am asking is does the sale of
24 that desert land which may be outside the
25 out-of-bounds markers for the hole, will that

DEPOSITION OF PAUL BYKOWSKI

Taken on Wednesday, January 21, 2015

At 10:00 a.m.

At 1055 Whitney Ranch Drive, Suite 110

Henderson, Nevada

REPORTED BY: CHRISTY LYN DeJONKER, CCR NO. 691

1 the Laramont property.

2 MR. GUNNERSON: Objection. Form.

3 Foundation.

4 BY MS. CLINE:

5 Q Do you understand what I am asking?

6 A Kind of. Are you asking the relationship
7 between Foothills Partners, the declarant and the 8 Foothills at MacDonald Ranch Master Association?

9 Q Correct.

10 A Yes, I could explain that.

11 Q Will you?

12 A Sure.

13 Q Thank you.

14 A The MacDonald Highlands project was
15 originally named the Foothills at MacDonald Ranch. So
16 sometimes you will hear it referred to as both. For 17 marketing reasons they changed it to MacDonald
18 Highlands. But the reason the association is Foothills
19 at MacDonald Ranch and the developer is Foothills
20 Partners is because the initial master plan name was 21 Foothills at MacDonald Ranch.

22 Foothills Partners was the declarant that
23 recorded the CC&Rs over the property and established
24 the Foothills at MacDonald Ranch Master Association to,
25 I guess, manage the CC&Rs and collect the HOA dues and

1 run the association. There is an association manager
2 that does most of the work, but the Foothills at
3 MacDonald Ranch Master Association is still developer
4 controlled, as the declarant appoints three of the 5 current five members on the board. The association
6 still votes on everything. But because three of the 7 five are appointed and not voted, it's technically 8 developer controlled.

9 Q Is there a point when it may become
10 controlled by someone other than the developer?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Do you know when that is or what conditions
13 would need to happen for that to happen?

14 A I do. I believe there are two conditions.
15 Either a time, which I am not sure what it is, or at 16 50 percent of the allotted units, which I believe there
17 were 2,000. So I think once we pass 1,000 units, the 18 association gets another elected member and then would 19 technically have control of the board. I am not 20 positive, but I believe that is how it works.

21 Q Okay. Do you have a position within the 22 homeowners association now?

23 A Yes.

24 Q What is that?

25 A I am the president.

1 Q And what are your responsibilities as
2 president of the association?

3 A I run the homeowners association meetings. I
4 am a signature on maps, applications, checks and any
5 other legal documents.

6 Q What kind of applications?

7 A Could be an insurance application. I know I
8 fill out bank forms.

9 Q Okay. So, like, when the association is 10 doing business, they might get insurance, they might 11 get a bank account and you would sign?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Is there anything else that you have the 14 responsibility as a president of the association?

15 A Exclusively as president or as a member of 16 the board?

17 Q Well, let's go with exclusively as president
18 first, and then we can talk about as member of the 19 board. How about that?

20 A Okay. I believe exclusively as president you
21 mainly run the homeowners association meetings and sign
22 things.

23 Q Okay. So as a member of the board?

24 A As a member of the board, I would vote -- or 25 I don't know if I vote because I am the president. So

1 I mostly abstain from the voting. As a member I have
2 input on the expenditures of the association, the post
3 orders for the guards, the landscape maintenance. I am
4 on the Compliance Committee, which is a committee that
5 reviews any violations and the Modifications Committee.

6 Q What does a Modifications Committee do?

7 A The Modifications Committee reviews any 8 modifications to completed properties within the 9 community, such as patio covers, paint changes,
10 landscape changes, pool additions and other
11 architectural changes to a completed property.

12 Q Okay. So besides having input on 13 expenditures, posting orders for the guards,
14 landscaping for the Compliance Committee and 15 Modifications Committee, is there anything else that 16 you have responsibility for as a member of the board?

17 A I think I may, but I can't recall anything
18 specific right now.

19 Q That's okay. If you think of it later, just 20 let me know. Later if we take a break for lunch and 21 you think of something over lunch, you can always bring 22 it back up again, or when we do your deposition as the 23 30(b)(6) witness for the association, we can talk about 24 it then.

25 Can you tell me about the design review

26 INTRODUCTION

27 Plaintiff concedes that it signed a real estate Purchase Agreement that contained an 28 "as-is" provision imposing the duty of due diligence upon it, not the Moving Defendants.

KEMP, JONES & COULTHARD, LLP
 3800 Howard Hughes Parkway

 kjc@kempjones.com

1 See Motion at Undisputed Facts 12 and 13 and Opposition at 3:13-15 (conceding the
2 Motion's Undisputed Facts 1 through 20). It admits that the Purchase Agreement, read
3 closely and reviewed by the Rosenbergs, contained a provision that said Plaintiff was not
4 relying on any representation by the broker or its agent, and waived claims relating to those
5 representations. Undisputed Facts 8 and 13. It admits that the Purchase Agreement provided
6 that it is Plaintiffs' responsibility, no one else's, to determine "whether there [were]
7 unsatisfactory conditions surrounding or otherwise affecting the Property." Undisputed Fact
8 12. Most importantly, perhaps, Plaintiff has no answer to the Nevada Supreme Court's 9 pronouncement that a seller or broker's failure to disclose a condition cannot serve as the 10 basis for a cause of action unless "the seller knows [1] of facts materially affecting the value
11 or desirability of the property which are known or accessible only to [the seller] and [2] also 12 knows that such facts are not known to, or within the reach of the diligent attention and 13 observation of the buyer." Mackintosh v. Jack Matthews & Co., 855 P.2d 549, 552 (Nev.
14 1993).

15 The Opposition confirms what this Court read in the original motion: Plaintiff does 16 not have the facts or law to support her claims against the Moving Defendants. Even in the 17 absence of crystal-clear, unambiguous waivers and other provisions in the Purchase
18 Agreement, the law as set down by the Nevada Supreme Court makes it clear that Plaintiff
19 simply does not have a leg on which to stand. While Plaintiff would like for this Court to 20 focus on what the Moving Defendants knew, when they knew it, and whether it was material
21 to the sale of the subject property, those questions are irrelevant in light of the conceded
22 facts: (1) Plaintiff, not Moving Defendants, had the duty of due diligence under the contract
23 and Nevada law and (2) Plaintiff specifically waived the claims she is trying to pursue
24 against Moving Defendants. The questions of what the Moving Defendants knew or 25 whether that knowledge was material is irrelevant to the motion before the Court and 26 therefore does not constitute a genuine dispute of material fact.

27 Even if that were not the case, Nevada law has conclusively demonstrated that the 28 right Plaintiff seeks to enforce simply does not exist. Plaintiff tries to obscure this fact by

1 stating that it is not seeking an easement for view, but that is exactly what it wants: a right to
2 be able to stop adjoining property owners from utilizing their property in a certain way so
3 that her view can be preserved. Plaintiff can use whatever label it likes, but the fact is that
4 the Supreme Court ruled on this issue back in 1965 in the Boyd v. McDonald case. While 5 Plaintiff wants to argue that Boyd actually supports its position, it should be noted that the 6 easement in Boyd was one for physical use of a property (a driveway and patio) as opposed
7 to an easement to preserve an adjacent landowner's view. Because Plaintiff can never come
8 to grips with this distinction, its legal argument fails. Accordingly, this Court should grant
9 Moving Defendants instant motion for summary judgment for all of the above-stated reasons.

10 II.

11 ARGUMENT

12 A. Plaintiff has conceded the necessary material facts that are dispositive of this 13 motion.

14 Plaintiff begins its opposition by outright conceding Undisputed Facts 1 through 20
15 from the motion for summary judgment; even though Plaintiff makes a superficial objection
16 to "argumentative language," it is clear that Plaintiff concedes that Undisputed Facts 1
17 through 20 are "factually correct."<sup>1</sup> This means that Plaintiff has fully conceded the 18 following dispositive facts:

- 19 • Plaintiff initially offered to take the property "as-is" in Barbara Rosenberg's
20 original letter of intent. Undisputed Facts 1 and 2.
- 21 • Barbara and Frederic Rosenberg reviewed the Purchase Agreement in detail
22 before signing it. Undisputed fact 8.
- 23 • Plaintiff had 12-day due diligence period in which to conduct any and all 24 investigations under the Purchase Agreement. Undisputed Fact 11.
- 25 • The due diligence required of Plaintiff by the Purchase Agreement mandated 26 that "Buyer shall take such action as Buyer deems necessary to determine

27
28 <sup>1</sup> Unless specifically stated otherwise, all references in this Reply to "Undisputed Facts" refer to the Statement of Undisputed Facts in the original motion.

1 whether the property is satisfactory to Buyer including, . . . whether there
2 are unsatisfactory conditions surrounding or otherwise affecting the 3 Property . . .” Undisputed Fact 12 (emphasis added).

- 4 • Plaintiff expressly agreed that it was not relying upon any representations
5 made by the Broker or the Broker’s agent in the purchase of the property.
6 Undisputed Facts 13 and 14.
- 7 • Plaintiff waived all claims against the Broker and its agents regarding, among 8 other things, property defects, inaccurate estimate of acreage or square footage,
9 the Property’s proximity to nuisances, the Property’s zoning, and any “factors
10 related to [Plaintiff’s] failure to conduct walk-through, inspections, and 11 research . . .” Undisputed Fact 13 (emphasis added).
- 12 • Plaintiff’s remedies are contractually limited to, at most, $5,000 by the 13 Real Estate Purchase Addendum attached to the Motion as Exhibit H.
14 Undisputed Fact 15. This fact went completely unaddressed by the Opposition.
- 15 • Plaintiff contractually waived “ANY CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF OR 16 RELATING IN ANY WAY TO ENCROACHMENTS, EASEMENTS,
17 BOUNDARIES, SHORTAGES IN AREA OF ANY OTHER MATTER
18 THAT WOULD BE DISCLOSED OR REVEALED BY A SURVEY OR
19 INSPECTION OF THE PROPERTY OR SEARCH OF PUBLIC
20 RECORDS.” Undisputed Fact 16 (emphasis original).
- 21 • Plaintiff could have accessed the publicly available records regarding the 22 zoning change for what would become Malek’s property in January and 23 February of 2013, before the Rosenbergs signed the Purchase Agreement.
24 Undisputed Fact 20. Even a cursory look at the City of Henderson’s zoning 25 maps indicates information not only about the subject property, but the 26 surrounding properties as well. See map attached hereto as Exhibit A.<sup>2</sup>

2015.

1 As detailed infra, these conceded facts render most, if not all, of the Opposition
2 immaterial to the questions presented by the instant motion. Plaintiff also attempts to inject
3 its own facts into the Opposition, the vast majority of which are irrelevant to the 4 determination of this motion. The rest tend to be misleading. For example, Plaintiff's facts 9
5 and 10 imply that the Moving Defendants made a misrepresentation regarding the timing of 6 the zoning approval for Malek's property. Doiron's testimony on this, though it indicates 7 only that she became aware of the zoning approval at some point, and she did not appear to 8 recall exactly when she learned of it. See Exhibit 1-A to the Opposition at 165:18. Even if 9 this "fact" raises a question in the mind of the Court, however, Moving Defendants have 10 already established that a zoning disclosure instructing Plaintiff to follow up with the City
11 was provided to Plaintiff<sup>3</sup> and that Plaintiff had taken sole responsibility for discovering all
12 such matters in the Purchase Agreement.<sup>4</sup> Therefore, the question of whether and when 13 Doiron had knowledge of a zoning change is completely irrelevant to the question at issue
14 before this Court. Fact 12 from the Opposition is misleading in that it suggests old maps
15 were presented to Plaintiff as current maps. This is not true, and is in fact directly 16 contradicted by the zoning disclosure attached to the original Motion as Exhibit K. The maps
17 to which Plaintiff refers were not labeled as current; they were plainly from 2003 and 2004.
18 See Deposition Transcript of Michael Doiron, attached to the Motion as Exhibit P, at 175:2-19 177:5. Doiron also testified that zoning maps in her office were updated approximately 20 every six months. See id. at 199:13-21.

21 The Opposition's Fact 13 is simply incorrect. The Zoning and Land Use Disclosure,
22 which was in fact attached to the original Motion as Exhibit K, states that "[t]his information
23 is current and plotted as of February 2010." See Exhibit 1-G to the Opposition, on file
24 herein (emphasis original). It also informed plaintiff that the pertinent information was 25 subject to change and that more current information could be obtained directly from the City
26

27 <sup>3</sup> See the Motion's Undisputed Fact 19 (conceded by Plaintiff in the Opposition) and Exhibit K.

28 <sup>4</sup> See the Motion's Undisputed Fact 13 (conceded by Plaintiff in the Opposition) and Exhibit G at BANA 8-9, ¶ 22.

1 of Henderson. See id. Accordingly, this exhibit cuts against Plaintiff's claims instead of 2 bolstering them.

3 Similarly, the Opposition's Fact 16 overstates Doiron's testimony to say that no re-
4 zoning disclosure was made. What Doiron actually said was that she did not recall having 5 conversations with the Rosenbergs about Malek purchasing a section of the golf course, and 6 she was not specifically aware of conversations that her deceased partner may have had with 7 the Rosenbergs on the subject. See Exhibit 1-A to the Opposition at 184:14-185:5. As 8 demonstrated by the Exhibit 1-G to the Opposition, zoning disclosures were in fact made,
9 though Exhibits G and H to the motion (the Purchase Agreement and an addendum, 10 respectively) indicate that Plaintiff agreed not to rely upon Doiron's disclosures and took the 11 responsibility for those matters upon itself. So again, this inaccurate factual statement ends
12 up immaterial to the question at hand.

13 The Opposition's fact 17 is also incorrect in that, as pointed out supra, the Purchase
14 Agreement and its addenda directly refer to off-site conditions and place the 15 responsibility for discovering those conditions on Plaintiff, not Doiron or anyone else.

16 Substantively, then, Plaintiff opposes the instant motion for summary judgment with 17 only three arguments: (1) that there are genuine issues of material fact regarding the Moving
18 Defendants' duty to disclose; (2) that there are genuine issues of material fact regarding 19 alleged misrepresentations made by Moving Defendants to Plaintiff; and (3) there are 20 genuine issues of material fact as to whether a restrictive covenant exists.

21 B. Whether there was a failure to disclose or a misrepresentation is immaterial
22 under Mackintosh because information regarding Malek's property was publicly available before the Rosenbergs even signed the Purchase Agreement.

23 Issues (1) and (2) are completely disposed of by the facts Plaintiff concealed in the 24 Opposition. Whether or not Michael Doiron failed to make a disclosure<sup>5</sup> or whether she 25 misrepresented a fact regarding the neighboring properties is immaterial when all parties
26 conceded that it was Plaintiff's job to investigate and obtain that information. The only 27

28 <sup>5</sup> Plaintiff has conceded that Doiron made just such a disclosure regarding the currentness of zoning and land use maps. See Undisputed Fact 19 and Exhibit K to the Motion.

1 possible exception would be if the information regarding Malek’s property had not been
2 publicly available, but Plaintiff has conceded that it was in fact available before the
3 Purchase Agreement was ever signed. Undisputed Fact 20. Accordingly, the Mackintosh
4 decision renders any issue of a failure to disclose or misrepresentation moot. See
5 Mackintosh, supra, 855 P.2d at 552 (holding that a claim for failure to disclose cannot be 6 maintained unless the facts that went undisclosed were “[1] of facts materially affecting the 7 value or desirability of the property which are known or accessible only to [the seller] and [2]
8 also knows that such facts are not known to, or within the reach of the diligent attention and 9 observation of the buyer”).

10 Plaintiff argues against this conclusion by stating that it “had absolutely no reason” to 11 believe there had been a transaction with Malek regarding the golf course and “would have 12 needed a reason to inspect the zoning.” These assertions have no basis in Nevada law.
13 Moving Defendants, though assert that Plaintiff did have a reason: it undertook, as part of its 14 duties under the Purchase Agreement, a duty of due diligence that encompassed these issues.
15 Undisputed Facts 12 through 14.<sup>6</sup> Regardless of the subjective expectations of the 16 Rosenbergs, the contract they entered into specifically and unambiguously assigned them 17 responsibility for ensuring their satisfaction with the property and all conditions affecting the 18 property. See id. That contract must be strictly construed and enforced by this Court. See, 19 e.g., Anvui, LLC v. G.L. Dragon, LLC, 123 Nev. 212, 215, 163 P.3d 405, 407 (2007) and 20 Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Neal, 119 Nev. 62, 64, 64 P.3d 472, 473 (2003) (both acknowledging 21 that unambiguous terms in contracts will be enforced).

22 Plaintiff attempts to wriggle out of these duties by arguing that the duty of diligence
23 was solely limited to the subject property itself and did not extend to any off-site conditions
24 that might affect the property. Again, this is squarely contradicted by the undisputed
25 language of the Purchase Agreement, which provides that Plaintiff due diligence extended to 26

27
28 <sup>6</sup> While Plaintiff maintains that the “as-is” condition of the property applied only to structural defects, that interpretation is not supported by the language of the agreement itself, and Plaintiff is unable to cite any source other than Barbara Rosenberg’s own testimony to the contrary.

1 “whether there are unsatisfactory conditions surrounding or otherwise affecting the Property
2 (such as location of flood zones, airport noise, noxious fumes or odors, environmental
3 substances or hazards, whether the Property is properly zoned, locality to freeways, railroads,
4 places of worship, schools, etc.) or any other concerns Buyer may have related to the 5 Property.” Undisputed Fact 12. By agreement, then, Plaintiff specifically undertook the 6 responsibility to not only to determine conditions on the property, but conditions affecting 7 the property from offsite. See id.; see also Exhibit G to the Motion at BANA 6, ¶ 12(b).
8 Although the Opposition attempts to muddle the issue by citing to other, less relevant parts of 9 the documents, the unambiguous truth as reflected by the Purchase Agreement is that these
10 items were the sole responsibility of Plaintiff, and Plaintiff knew this because the Rosenbergs
11 closely read and reviewed the Purchase Agreement prior to signing it.

12 As a last resort, Plaintiff argues that the Moving Defendants should be held liable for 13 what it alleges were the misrepresentations of Bank of America, the seller in the transaction.
14 First, it is unclear that Bank of America made any misrepresentations about its knowledge,
15 and Plaintiff does not introduce any evidence addressing the point of Bank of America’s 16 knowledge.

17 Second, without evidence indicating Moving Defendants’ knowledge of these alleged 18 misrepresentations, Plaintiff cannot even begin to show a genuine issue of material fact on 19 this point. See NEV. REV. STAT. § 645.259(1)(a). Additionally the fact that the information
20 at issue was available as a matter of public record indicates that Moving Defendants have no
21 liability for any of Bank of America’s alleged misrepresentations. See id. at subsection 2 22 (holding that a real estate license cannot be held liable for failure to disclose a matter in 23 public record). See also, e.g., Moore v. Prudential Residential Services Ltd. Partnership, 849 24 So.3d 914, 926 (Ala. 2002) (holding that “a real estate agent cannot be held liable where the 25 agent serves as a ‘conduit of information’ between the seller and the buyer” and there was no 26 evidence of bad faith.) The question of what Bank of America did or did not know is 27 immaterial in light of Plaintiff’s voluntarily assumed contractual duty of due diligence. This 28 is even more true for these alleged misrepresentations, as Plaintiff was aware that Bank of

1 America had already provided some incorrect information. See Opposition, on file herein, at 2 11:21-24. Why Plaintiff would fail to exercise the rest of its due diligence investigative 3 power after that is a mystery, and Plaintiff has no one to blame for its mistake other than 4 itself.

5
6 C. Plaintiff's strained interpretation of Boyd v. McDonald to allow something it explicitly forbids cannot defeat the instant motion for summary judgment.

7 The third argument offered by Plaintiff for why there is a genuine issue of material
8 fact is that it may still be able to prove that a restrictive covenant exists which would protect 9 Plaintiff's right to the exact view that existed on the subject property at the time of purchase.
10 When confronted with the Boyd case, which states in no uncertain terms that Nevada does 11 not recognize an implied easement for view, Plaintiff changes its argument to state that it is 12 simply asking that an implied restrictive covenant keep the extra 1/3 acre property that Malek
13 purchased as a golf course, and to enforce that specific use. The problem with this argument, 14 apart from the fact that Barbara Rosenberg said on several occasions that the purpose is 15 indeed to retain her property's view,<sup>7</sup> is that the 1/3 acre purchased by Malek was not ever
16 used as part of the golf course and was always surplusage land or "natural area" that abutted
17 the golf course. See Exhibit L to the Motion at 62:1-10. Plaintiff's new contention, then, that 18 it is asking for the 1/3 acre portion of Malek property to be used as a golf course is requesting 19 a use the subject property has never had.

20 Plaintiff's contention that it "reasonably expected" the use of the property to remain
21 vacant is undercut by the fact that, even if Plaintiff could meet all of the other requirements
22 for an implied restrictive covenant, it would still lose because the only "use" that Plaintiff
23 had for the neighboring property is a view, which Boyd unequivocally said is an invalid use
24 of an implied easement under Nevada law. See Boyd. McDonald, 408 P.2d 717, 722 (Nev.
25 1965). Regardless of whether Plaintiff wants to refer to it as an easement or a covenant, the 26 result is the same, and Nevada law simply does not allow for that result.

1 D. Plaintiff further waived any rights of action based on disclosure of off-site
2 conditions or conditions regarding zoning and property boundaries, and even if it
3 hadn't, it undisputedly limited its remedies in this action.

4 Another issue inadequately addressed by the Opposition is that the Purchase
5 Agreement and related documents contained waivers that apply to all of Plaintiff's claims
6 against the Moving Defendants in this action. As discussed supra, Plaintiff has conceded that
7 paragraph 22 of the Purchase Agreement waives all claims against MacDonald Highlands
8 Realty and Michael Doiron. Undisputed Fact 13. That waiver applied specifically to all
9 factors related to Plaintiff's failure to conduct inspections and research on the property. See
10 id. The Purchase Agreement also contained a second waiver, in one of its addenda, 11 pertaining to any matter that would have been revealed by a search of public records.
12 Undisputed Fact 16. Plaintiff has further conceded that it could have found everything it
13 needed regarding the lot line adjustment in January and February of 2013, before the 14 Purchase Agreement was even signed. Undisputed Fact 20. There is accordingly no
15 reasonable dispute that the waivers in the Purchase Agreement apply to throw out all of 16 Plaintiff's claims as a matter of simple contract law.

17 Even if, for some reason, the Court chose not to enforce either of the above-referenced
18 waivers, both the Purchase Agreement and one of its addenda limited Plaintiff's available
19 remedies – a key point that is unaddressed and therefore conceded by the Opposition.
20 Undisputed Facts 13 and 15. According to those limitations on remedies, it appears that the 21 maximum amount that the Plaintiff could obtain on its claims would be no more than $5,000.
22 Undisputed Fact 15. Plaintiff's concession of this point requires at least partial summary
23 judgment limiting her remedies to $5,000 even if the Court does not grant the broader motion
24 for summary judgment.

21 I. PREFATORY STATEMENT

22 This case arises from the sale of a custom home located in MacDonald Highlands. Specifically, on 23 or about May 15, 2013, Bank of America, N.A. sold real property commonly known as 590 Lairmont
24 Place, Henderson, Nevada 89012 (hereinafter "the Subject Property") to Plaintiff, The Fredric and 25 Barbara Rosenberg Living Trust. Bank of America had acquired the Subject Property via a foreclosure.
26 The Subject Property is a 10,000+ square foot custom home located on the 9th hole of the Dragon Ridge
27 Golf Course, and boasts golf course, city and mountain views. At the time Plaintiff purchased the Subject
28

1 Property, the lot adjacent to it, 594 Lairmont Place, was vacant. This lot had been previously sold to
2 Defendant Malek on or about August 8, 2012, but Mr. Malek had not begun construction.

3 Unbeknownst to Plaintiff, at the time Defendant Malek purchased 594 Lairmont, he entered into
4 an agreement to also purchase a portion of the golf course to extend the rear of his lot by 1/3 of an acre
5 (hereinafter the "Golf Parcel"). Before this purchase could be finalized, however, The Foothills Partners
6 had to apply to the City of Henderson to amend MacDonald Highland's comprehensive plan, change the 7 zoning, and revise the land use. This process took approximately eight (8) months, and on April 8, 2013,
8 the Golf Parcel was transferred to Malek. Among many things, this process included notice to Bank of 9 America because of the impact it had on the Subject Property.
10

11 The extension of 594 Lairmont to include the Golf Parcel, changes the Dragon Ridge Golf Course
12 and significantly impairs Plaintiff's views, privacy and otherwise open feeling of the Subject Property. By 13 way of this litigation, Plaintiff alleges an implied restrictive covenant exists over the Golf Parcel that
14 prohibits Malek from constructing any part of his home on this piece of land, and therefore seeks both
15 injunctive and declaratory relief against Malek.<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff also alleges money damages against Defendants
16 Bank of America, Doiron and MacDonald Realty for failing to disclose the Golf Parcel purchase by 17 Malek.

19 To the extent an implied restrictive covenant is not found to exist on the Golf Parcel, Plaintiff, by 20 way of this Motion, seeks to withdraw its claims for injunctive and declaratory relief against The Foothills
21 Partners, now known as FHP Ventures, and amend its complaint to include claims for money damages
22 and specific performance against FHP Ventures.
23

24 II. STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

25 The MacDonald Highlands CC&Rs provide that The Foothills Partners ("Foothills Partners") now
26 known as FHP Ventures, is the Declarant. See excerpts from the CC&Rs, p. 4, attached hereto as Exhibit

27
28 <sup>1</sup> Currently, Plaintiff also alleges these claims against Defendant The Foothills Partners, now known as FHP Ventures. By way of this Motion, Plaintiff seeks to withdraw these claims against FHP Ventures, and allege different claims against FHP Ventures.

1 2. The CC&Rs, and its amendments, also provide that FHP Ventures shall control developmental rights
2 for MacDonald Highlands through December 31, 2042. See First Amended to CC&Rs attached hereto as
3 Exhibit 3. In addition to controlling development rights, FHP Ventures also controls the Design Review
4 Committee, which is a Committee existing under the CC&Rs, and which is responsible for approving all
5 initial construction on vacant lots within MacDonald Highlands. Id. at p. 39. All initial residential
6 construction is governed by both the CC&Rs and the Design Guidelines.

7
8 The Design Guidelines impose numerous set back restrictions (the distance in which structures 9 may be placed within a given lot) and other restrictions on construction so that view corridors and the 10 overall aesthetic look of MacDonald Highlands is preserved. See excerpts from Design Guidelines
11 attached hereto as Exhibit 4. In fact, the Design Guidelines impose specific restrictions on lots abutting
12 the golf course i.e. the Subject Property and Malek's property. By way of example, all golf course lots
13 must have view fences on the rear property lines, no golf course lots may contain accessory structures i.e.
14 sheds, on the rear property line, and most importantly, a golf course lot may not plant anything taller than 15 4 feet within a distance of 15 feet from the rear yard property corner (known as the "rear yard cone of 16 vision") so that view corridors of adjacent properties are preserved. Id. at pp. 2.15; 2.36; 2.41; 3.10; 5.20.

18 Through the course of discovery, particularly, the depositions of Richard MacDonald, Paul
19 Bykowski, Michael Doiron, the 30(b)(6) designees for The Foothills Partners, DRFH Ventures, LLC f/k/a
20 Dragon Ridge, LLC, FHP Ventures, and MacDonald Properties Limited, and expert witnesses, Plaintiff
21 spent considerable time addressing the CC&Rs and the Design Guidelines' impact of Malek's potential
22 and approved construction on the Golf Parcel.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

NRCP 15(b) provides in pertinent part:

When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues.

See also, United Tungsten Corp. v. Corp. Service, Inc., 76 Nev. 329, 331, 353 P.2d 452, 454 (1960); Close v. Isbell Const. Co., 86 Nev. 524, 527, 471 P.2d 257, 260 (1970).

In the present case, Plaintiff seeks to amend the complaint to conform to the evidence. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to add the following claims against FHP Ventures: (1) breach of contract; (2) breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing; and (3) breach of fiduciary duty. These claims have been tried by implied consent of the parties as the facts and circumstances surrounding these claims were extensively addressed during the depositions of Richard MacDonald, Paul Bykowski, Michael Doiron, the 30(b)(6) designees for The Foothills Partners, DRFH Ventures, LLC f/k/a Dragon Ridge, LLC, FHP Ventures, and MacDonald Properties Limited, and expert witnesses. In all of these depositions, Plaintiff's counsel spent considerable time addressing the CC&Rs and the Design Guidelines' impact of Malek's potential and approved construction on the Golf Parcel. As such, Plaintiff seeks leave to amend the complaint to conform to the evidence.

26 and Stephanie Street (hereinafter the "GOLF PARCEL").

27 17. Situated on the GOLF PARCEL were certain easements/restrictive covenants.

2 and DRFH Ventures, LLC submitted a Vacation Application to the City of Henderson along with 3 supporting documentation requesting to vacate existing “blanket easements” of the GOLF PARCEL

5 feet) from Planning Area 3 (Golf Hole #9) and add it to Lot 2 of Planning Area 10.

6           26.     The MACDONALD APPLICATIONS asserted that the amendment to the GOLF
7 PARCEL area was "minor".

8           27.     The MACDONALD APPLICATIONS asserted that the amendment to the GOLF
9 PARCEL area would have "little or no impact on the adjacent properties".

10          28.     The MACDONALD APPLICATIONS asserted that the amendment to the GOLF
11 PARCEL area would not "conflict with any portion of the goals of the plan".

12          29.     The MACDONALD APPLICATIONS asserted that the impact of the amendment to the 13 GOLF PARCEL would "not adversely impact the general area or portion of the City as to traffic,

26 VACATION APPLICATION.

27          35.     In or around January 2013, the MACDONALD APPLICATIONS were approved
28 subject to certain conditions.

1           36.     The changes and amendments to the MALEK PROPERTY lot lines resulting from the 2 approval of the MACDONALD APPLICATIONS, altered the golf course and negatively impacted the 3 value of the adjacent SUBJECT PROPERTY or its use in an adverse manner.

4           37.     On or about March 8, 2013, BANK OF AMERICA, as Seller, through its real estate
5 agent/broker Defendant MICHAEL DOIRON of Defendant MACDONALD HIGHLANDS REALTY,
6 LLC (hereinafter collectively "SELLER's AGENTS"), listed the SUBJECT PROPERTY for sale in 7 the Multiple Listing Service ("MLS").

8           38.     SELLER's AGENTS marketed the SUBJECT PROPERTY as a "Tuscan-inspired 9 estate" sitting on the ninth hole of Dragonridge Country Club, a five bedroom two-story custom home,
10 on a golf course lot of .660 acres with golf and mountain views, more than 10,000 square feet of living
11 area, a six car garage with amenities including a home theatre, a library/office, gym, game room,

13           39.     On or about March 13, 2013, PLAINTIFF, as Buyer, offered to purchase the SUBJECT
14 PROPERTY for the purchase price of $2,160,000.00.

15           40.     On or about, March 14, 2013, PLAINTIFF, as Buyer, executed Addendum No. 1 to the 16 Purchase Agreement whereby PLAINTIFF acknowledged and agreed to enter into a side agreement
17 with the Master Developer for an extension of the construction clock to complete requirements of the 18 exterior of the property

19           41.     On or about March 19, 2013, PLAINTIFF, as Buyer, executed Addendum No. 2 to the 20 Purchase Agreement amending the purchase price to $2,302,000.00, an increase of $142,000.00 from 21 the original agreed upon price.

22           42.     On or about March, 21, 2013, BANK OF AMERCIA, as Seller, executed Addendum
23 No. 1 to the Purchase Agreement.

24           43     On or about March, 21, 2013, BANK OF AMERCIA, as Seller, executed Addendum
25 No. 2 to the Purchase Agreement amending the purchase price to $2,302,000.00, an increase of 26 $142,000.00 from the original agreed upon price.

27           44.     On or about March, 21, 2013, BANK OF AMERCIA, as Seller, agreed to sell the 28 SUBJECT PROPERTY to PLAINTIFF.

1           45.     PLAINTIFF was represented in the purchase of the SUBJECT PROPERTY and the
2 related negotiations by licensed Real Estate Agent Siobahn McGill and licensed Real Estate Broker
3 Kathryn Bovard of Realty One Group.

4           46.     BANK OF AMERICA was represented in its sale of the SUBJECT PROPERTY and 5 related negotiations by Defendant MICHAEL DOIRON, licensed Real Estate Agent and Broker with 6 MACDONALD HIGHLANDS REALTY, LLC.

7           47.     Defendant MICHAEL DOIRON was BANK OF AMERICA's listing agent for the 8 SUBJECT PROPERTY.

9           48.     On or about May 15, 2013, escrow closed and the title to the SUBJECT PROPERTY
10 transferred from BANK OF AMERICA to PLAINTIFF.

11          49.     At no time did BANK OF AMERICA, as the SELLER, disclose to PLAINTIFF that the 12 adjacent MALEK PROPERTY lot lines were other than presented and had in fact been amended in
13 such a way as to alter the golf course and negatively impact the value of the SUBJECT PROPERTY
14 and its use in an adverse manner.

15          50.     At no time did MICHAEL DOIRON, Seller's representative, disclose to PLAINTIFF
16 that the adjacent MALEK PROPERTY lot lines were other than as presented and had been amended in
17 such a way as to alter the golf course and negatively impact the value of the SUBJECT PROPERTY
18 and its use in an adverse manner.

19          51.     MICHAEL DOIRON, Seller's representative, knew, or should have known, that the 20 adjacent MALEK PROPERTY lot lines were other than as presented to PLAINTIFF and had been
21 amended in such a way as to alter the golf course and negatively impact the value of the SUBJECT
22 PROPERTY and its use in an adverse manner.

23          52.     BANK OF AMERICA, as Seller, knew, or should have known, that the adjacent 24 MALEK PROPERTY lot lines were other than as presented to PLAINTIFF and had been amended in
25 such a way as to alter the golf course and negatively impact the value of the SUBJECT PROPERTY
26 and its use in an adverse manner.

1           53.     MICHAEL DOIRON failed to disclose to PLAINTIFF that the adjacent MALEK
2 PROPERTY lot lines had been amended in such a way as to alter the golf course and negatively
3 impact the value of the SUBJECT PROPERTY and its use in an adverse manner.

4           54.     BANK OF AMERICA failed to disclose to PLAINTIFF that the adjacent MALEK
5 PROPERTY lot lines had been amended in such a way as to alter the golf course and negatively
6 impact the value of the SUBJECT PROPERTY and its use in an adverse manner.

7           55.     Sometime subsequent to the May 15, 2013 transfer of title to PLAINTIFF, PLAINTIFF
8 became aware that the lot lines presented at the time of PLAINTIFF's negotiations and purchase of the 9 SUBJECT PROPERTY were not accurate and that in fact the lot lines of the MALEK PROPERTY, as 10 amended, altered the golf course and negatively impact the value of the SUBJECT PROPERTY and its 11 use in an adverse manner.

12          56.     Upon information and belief, MALEK plans to begin construction on the MALEK
13 PROPERTY imminently.

14          57.     While the transfer of title in and of itself negatively impacts PLAINTIFF, and likely 15 other residents in the area, should MALEK begin construction according to MALEK's plans, the 16 SUBJECT PROPERTY will be even more grossly impacted given the view at the SUBJECT
17 PROPERTY will be substantially altered, and the golf course will be substantially altered.

18          58.     All of the properties described in Plaintiff's Complaint are developed and/or 19 undeveloped lots in the MacDonald Highlands community (hereinafter "MacDonald Highlands").

20          59.     MacDonald Highlands is set in a hillside area that has prime views of the Las Vegas
21 Valley, surrounding mountains and a golf course.

22          60.     MacDonald Highlands, like a substantial number of other properties in Clark County, 23 Nevada, has placed certain written covenants (the Master Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and 24 Restrictions for The Foothills at MacDonald Ranch, hereinafter "Master Declaration"), on each of the 25 residential lots within the MacDonald Highlands development that are for the benefit of all of the 26 property owners in MacDonald Highlands.

27          61.     The Master Declaration was intended to be covenants running with the land and burden
28 every residential property within the MacDonald Highlands' development.

1           62.     The Master Declaration was further intended to bind any assignees and/or successors in
2 interest who subsequently obtained any of the residential lots under those covenants.

3           63.     Each property in MacDonald Highlands is bound by a restrictive covenant that limits
4 activity on any property next to the golf course or within one hundred feet of the boundary of the golf
5 course in order to protect the use and enjoyment of the golf course (the Deed Restriction Relating to 6 Golf Course Property, hereinafter "Golf Course Deed Restriction").

7           64.     The Master Declaration requires strict compliance with the architectural standards set
8 forth in Article 11 of the Master Declaration.

9           65.     Section 11.1 of the Master Declaration requires that all construction activities consider
10 the "unique setting of the Properties in the hillside area."

11           66.     Applications for construction are reviewed and decided by the Design Review
12 Committee ("DRC").

13           67.     The members of the DRC are appointed by the Declarant, FHP Ventures.

14           68.     The development guidelines and application and review procedures for all construction
15 activities within MacDonald Highlands are set forth in the Design Guidelines.

16           69.     The Design Guidelines are adopted by the DRC.

17           70.     Each property in MacDonald Highlands is also bound by a restrictive covenant that all
18 plans and specifications submitted to the DRC for proposed construction on a property be in 19 compliance with the Design Guidelines in order to preserve the unique views of each property and 20 neighboring properties (Deed Restrictions Applicable to Construction of Residence, hereinafter "Construction Deed Restriction").

21           71.     The CC&Rs, and its amendments, provide that FHP VENTURES shall control
22 developmental rights for MacDonald Highlands through December 31, 2042.

23           72.     The CC&Rs further provide that a five-foot strip known as the "Perimeter Strip" exists
24 between the golf course and each Unit (lot) abutting the golf course.

25           73.     Section 12.9 of the CC&Rs provides that "[n]o Unit shall be subdivided or its boundary
26 lines changed except with the prior written approval of the Board of Directors."
28

1           74.     FHP VENTURES also controls the Design Review Committee, a Committee existing
2 under the CC&Rs, and is responsible for approving all initial construction on vacant lots within
3 MacDonald Highlands.

4           75.     All initial residential construction is governed by both the CC&Rs and the Design
5 Guidelines.

6           76.     The Design Guidelines impose numerous set back restrictions (the distance in which 7 structures may be placed within a given lot) and other restrictions on construction so that view corridors
8 and the overall aesthetic look of MacDonald Highlands is preserved.

9           77.     The Design Guidelines impose specific restrictions on lots abutting the golf course i.e. the 10 Subject Property and Malek's property.

11           78.     All golf course lots must have view fences on the rear property lines, no golf course lots
12 may contain accessory structures i.e. sheds, on the rear property line, and most importantly, a golf course
13 lot may not plant anything taller than 4 feet within a distance of 15 feet from the rear yard property corner
14 (known as the "rear yard cone of vision") so that view corridors of adjacent properties are preserved.
15

16           79.     MALEK purchased the GOLF PARCEL subject to the Golf Course Deed Restriction, 17 the Construction Deed Restriction and the other easements, covenants and conditions that burden all of 18 the properties within the MacDonald Highlands community.
19

20           80.     MALEK's construction plans for the MALEK PROPERTY do not comply with the 21 Golf Course Deed Restriction and the Construction Deed Restriction.

22           81.     All Defendants, and each of them, are, in some manner, legally responsible and liable to
23 Plaintiff for the harm and injury to Plaintiff and the damages incurred by Plaintiff as the result of said
24 harm and injury which damages are in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand and No/100 Dollars
25 ($10,000.00), to be proven at time of trial.

26           83.     Plaintiff has been required to engage the services of an attorney to prosecute this action
27 and Plaintiff is entitled to costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred therefore.
28

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Breach of Contract against BANK OF AMERICA)

5           77. BANK OF AMERICA made express representations and warranties in the Purchase
6 Agreement.

7           78. BANK OF AMERICA materially breached the Contract as detailed in paragraphs 1
8 through 73 herein.

9           79. Plaintiff incurred significant damages in an amount which cannot easily be ascertained,
10 but without question in excess of ten thousand dollars, as a direct result from the breach.

11           80. Plaintiff has been required to engage the services of an attorney to prosecute this action
12 and Plaintiff is entitled to costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred therefore.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing against BANK OF AMERICA)

15           81. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation as contained above and
16 incorporates them by reference as if fully set forth herein.

17           82. Every agreement imposes, as an implied covenant, an obligation of good faith and fair
18 dealing in its performance or enforcement.

19           83. Plaintiff and Defendant BANK OF AMERICA were parties to a valid and enforceable
20 contract.

21           84. Defendant BANK OF AMERICA owed a duty of good faith and fair dealing under the 22 Contract.

23           85. BANK OF AMERICA breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

24           86. Plaintiff was justified in their expectations under the Contract and, as a result of the 25 breach, those expectations were denied.

26           87. As a direct and proximate result of the breach, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount
27 in excess of ten thousand dollars that shall be proven at trial.
28

1 88. Plaintiff has been required to engage the services of an attorney to prosecute this action
2 and Plaintiff is entitled to costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred therefore.

3
4 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
5 (Unjust Enrichment against BANK OF AMERICA, BAC HOME LOANS SERVICING, LP,
6 MACDONALD HIGHLANDS REALTY, LLC, and MICHAEL DOIRON)

7 89. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation as contained above and
8 incorporates them by reference as if fully set forth herein.

9 90. As a result of Defendant BANK OF AMERICA, BAC HOME LOANS SERVICING,
10 LP, MACDONALD HIGHLANDS REALTY, LLC, and MICHAEL DOIRON actions, as fully 11 alleged herein, each has been unjustly enriched.

12 91. As a result of Defendants, BANK OF AMERICA, BAC HOME LOANS SERVICING,
13 LP, MACDONALD HIGHLANDS REALTY, LLC, and MICHAEL DOIRON and actions, Plaintiff
14 has been required to engage the services of an attorney to prosecute this action and Plaintiff is entitled 15 to costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred therefore.

16 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
17 (Fraudulent or Intentional Misrepresentation – BANK OF AMERICA, BAC HOME LOANS 18 SERVICING, LP, MACDONALD HIGHLANDS REALTY, LLC, and MICHAEL DOIRON)

19 92. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation as contained above and 20 incorporates them by reference as if fully set forth herein.

21 93. A person has committed common law fraud if that person has made a false
22 representation or willful omission with respect to a material fact with knowledge of its falsity and with 23 intent to deceive, and the person acts in reliance on the false representation.

24 94. Defendants, BANK OF AMERICA, BAC HOME LOANS SERVICING, LP,
25 MACDONALD HIGHLANDS REALTY, LLC, and MICHAEL DOIRON knowingly made false

1 Q. Okay. And, so is a better way to
2 describe it is a five foot strip bordering the golf
3 course that abuts the unit owner's property?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And then just on that same page, since
6 I know we used different terms, when we talk about
7 an owner's piece of property, at the bottom it
8 defines unit. "Means a portion of the property
9 whether improved or unimproved that may be 10 independently owned and conveyed." And I'll stop
11 there.
12 I just want it make sure we're
13 basically talking about another term you could use
14 as lots, correct? Unimproved unit would be another
15 term as lot that we've used in this case?
16 A. A lot is a unit, but not all units are 17 lots.
18 Q. Right. Some units could include
19 properties that have a house located on them,
20 correct?
21 A. That is another unit.
22 Q. Now, if you turn to page 21, should be 23 the next page. In Subsection C, it says "other
24 property."
25 Do you see that?

Page 26

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And it indicates that "the association
3 may maintain other property which it does not own
4 including the perimeter strip."
5 So as of 2012 and 2013, was the 6 association responsible for maintaining the 7 perimeter strip?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Who was responsible for maintaining the 10 perimeter strip in 2012 and 2013?
11 A. DRFH Ventures.
12 Q. If the CC&R's provide the association
13 may provide for, is there any reason why DFRH
14 decided to?
15 Did I say that name right?
16 A. Yes.
17 MS. HANKS: DRFH? I'll get it eventually?
18 MR. GUNNERSON: You got it this time.
19 BY MS. HANKS:
20 Q. What was that agreement? I mean, why
21 did the golf course decide to maintain that 22 perimeter strip as opposed to the association?
23 A. Because it was their property.
24 Q. Has that changed in 2014 with the new 25 ownership of the golf course?

Page 27

1 A. No. They still maintain that. The new
2 owner maintains that area, because it's their
3 property.
4 Q. Now, if you turn to the next page, it's
5 page 46. It's BANA181. There's a subsection, 12.9.
6 And I apologize, this is the best copy I have or 7 that I can find of the CC&R's. And maybe you can
8 help me determine some of the words I might not be 9 able to read.
10 Is there a better copy in that
11 binder? Probably should have looked there first.
12 Let me know if I read it incorrectly.
13 For 12.9 it says "subdivision of 14 the unit and timesharing. No unit shall be 15 subdivided or its boundary lines changed except with 16 the prior written approval of the board of 17 directors. Declarant, however, for" -- what's that 18 word there?
19 A. Itself.
20 Q. "For itself and any transferee of 21 developmental rights pursuant to section 15.1 hereby
22 expressly reserves the right to subdivide, change
23 the boundary line of and re-plat any units or other 24 portions of the" -- what's that next word?
25 A. Of the project.

1 Q. "Of the project owned by declarant or
2 such transferee. Any such division boundary line
3 change or re-platting shall not be in violation of 4 the applicable subdivision and zoning regulations."
5 Now, the declarant which is
6 Foothills did not own any portion of Dragon Ridge
7 Golf Club in 2012, correct?
8 A. That calls for a legal conclusion.
9 Q. Do you know if Foothills Partners owned
10 any part of the golf course property in 2012?
11 A. Foothills Partners did not.
12 Q. And when the term "board of directors"
13 is used in this subsection, that's referring to the 14 board of directors of the homeowner's association,
15 correct?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. Now, it's my understanding that the lot
18 lines for 594 Lairmont Place were changed, correct?
19 A. Correct.
20 Q. And they were changed to include a
21 portion of the golf course; is that correct?
22 A. Correct.
23 Q. Do you know if any prior written
24 approval of the board of directors was received
25 prior to those boundary lines being changed?

Page 29

1 A. Board of directors, no.
2 Q. If someone were to back up -- sorry.
3 Who is supposed to submit the
4 request for written approval? It doesn't seem to 5 indicate that in this section.
6 Do you know?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Do you know why written approval was 9 not received from the board of directors for the 10 change of boundary line for 594 Lairmont Place if it
11 was required by the CC&R's?
12 A. It was done through the declarant, not
13 through the board of directors.
14 Q. Why was it done through the declarant
15 if 12.9 requires it to be done through the board of 16 directors?
17 A. I don't read that it's required by the 18 board of directors.
19 Q. It says "No unit shall be subdivided or 20 it boundary line changed except with prior written
21 approval of the board of directors."
22 A. That's not the entire section.
23 Q. And then it says, "Declarant, however,
24 for itself and any transferee of developmental 25 rights pursuant to section 15.1 hereby expressly

Page 30

1 reserves the right to subdivide, change the boundary
2 line of, and re-plat any units or other portion of
3 the project owned by the declarant."
4 Right? So they have to own it
5 before they have that reservation of right, correct?
6 A. Or such transferee.
7 Q. Who would be the transferee in the
8 changing of the boundary lines for 594 Lairmont
9 Place?
10 A. That's a legal question.
11 Q. But as far as you know, Foothills, the 12 declarant, did not own the golf course, correct?
13 A. Correct.
14 Q. So do you know why written approval
15 wasn't received from the board of directors?
16 MR. GUNNERSON: Objection. Asked and 17 answered.
18 THE WITNESS: I would say because DRFH and
19 Foothills were part of the same umbrella company.
20 That's why it's DRFH, Dragon Ridge Foothills.
21 BY MS. HANKS:
22 Q. And that's because it's all connected
23 to Richard MacDonald?
24 A. Correct.
25 Q. But they are separate and distinct

Page 31

1 entities, correct?
2 MR. GUNNERSON: Objection. Calls for legal
3 conclusion, but you can answer if you know.
4 THE WITNESS: I can't speak to the exact
5 relationships of the companies, but there is some 6 sort of an umbrella group of companies together.
7 BY MS. HANKS:
8 Q. What is that company?
9 A. I think the Foothills had DRFH as part
10 of the company. I know they -- I don't know the 11 exact technical relationship between the companies,
12 but there is subsidiaries and cross relationships
13 between Foothills and DRFH.
14 Q. Who would be the best person to know
15 the actual relationship in terms of whether it's a 16 subsidiary?
17 A. Rich MacDonald.
18 Q. What is the Design Review Committee?
19 A. That's the committee that reviews and 20 approves the initial construction within MacDonald
21 Highlands.
22 Q. And who serves on that committee
23 currently?
24 A. Myself, Rich MacDonald, and Michael 25 Doiron.

Page 32

1 Q. Who served on that committee in 2006?
2 A. To the best of my knowledge, it was
3 myself, Rich MacDonald, Paula Gibson, and Art
4 Elliott. And I can't recall if Michael was on the 5 committee at that time or not.
6 Q. What is the purpose of the Design
7 Review Committee?
8 A. To ensure that the construction within 9 MacDonald Highlands is done in accordance to the 10 design guidelines.
11 Q. When someone purchases -- and we'll
12 limit it to 2012 and '13.
13 When someone purchased a vacant
14 property lot in MacDonald Highlands, did they 15 purchase it subject to the CC&R's that we just 16 discussed?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Did they purchase it subject to the 19 design guidelines?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Can you turn to page 52 in the CC&R's?
22 Referring to section 13.5, "Easement over resort
23 properties for benefit of association." I'm just 24 going to read the first sentence.
25 It indicates that "The declarant

Page 137

1 Q. When you came up with the exhibit for
2 the proposed outline of the new boundary lines, were
3 they ever changed?
4 In other words, did any of the
5 other people involved in the process say, no, I
6 think the lines should be moved here or there?
7 A. The lines on the exhibit were not
8 exactly the same on the final map.
9 Q. Is that just because of the actual
10 survey or changing it or because someone with the 11 Design Review Committee suggested a change?
12 A. I believe it was the civil engineer and 13 I discussed the -- how the lines would go, whether 14 it would be an arc or a straight line and how it
15 would connect to the common element parcel.
16 Q. And let's take a look at Exhibit 5. I
17 think that's the best map we have right now that 18 kind of shows us the addition of that parcel, and it
19 has a little bit of a triangle at the top or peak so
20 to speak at the top.
21 Do you agree with that
22 description?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And so the ultimate lot lines that you
25 see here on Exhibit 5, they came about after

1 speaking with the civil engineer; is that correct?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. The lot lines that we see on Exhibit 5
4 that include the additional parcel of the golf
5 course to 594 Lairmont Place, were they changed in 6 anyway after the applications were submitted to the 7 City of Henderson?
8 A. Not that I'm aware of.
9 Q. Now, you had testified earlier two
10 weeks back when you were here in your individual
11 capacity, there were some other properties in 12 MacDonald Highlands where similar lot line changes
13 were completed, meaning parts of the golf course
14 were added to existing lots.
15 Do you remember that testimony?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Okay. Can you go through -- I think 18 there was one on St. Croix. Can you explain what 19 that involved?
20 A. What do you mean by what did it
21 involve?
22 Q. What property was it and where in the 23 MacDonald Highlands is that property located, what
24 planning area and in terms of how much golf parcel
25 was added?

Page 139

1 A. Planning area 15 and 16. I believe it
2 was around a quarter of an acre on a hill that was
3 out of play.
4 Q. Do you know if that area can be seen on 5 Exhibit O within the Design Guidelines? It may or 6 may not be.
7 A. I see the area.
8 Q. Okay. Is that the actual lot
9 delineated on this particular map?
10 A. Kind of.
11 Q. Can you point me into the direction
12 where it is, and then we'll go from there?
13 A. That's the area that it was adding.
14 Q. Okay. So it looks like there is this
15 little -- almost looks like an island that's marked
16 in red, and it's flanked by two our other, I guess,
17 kidney bean shaped types.
18 So this is the St. Croix property
19 area?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And the little circle that you marked
22 on Exhibit O within the Design Guidelines is the 23 area that MacDonald Highlands added to that other
24 red property?
25 A. Not the red property. The red and two

Page 140

1 yellows were actually combined to one giant lot. So
2 that whole area with white, red, and yellow is one
3 lot. And the little circle was added to the back of 4 that.
5 Q. Okay. And what hole is this on the
6 golf course?
7 A. That is the tenth.
8 Q. Now, when this property, this piece was 9 added as a whole to the two yellow kidney bean
10 shaped properties and the red property marked on 11 this map, did it stay in line with the rear property
12 lines for the other parcels we see along this golf
13 hole?
14 A. No.
15 Q. How far did it extend beyond those 16 other rear property lines of the other parcels?
17 A. I'm not sure of the exact dimension.
18 Q. Has that addition been approved by the 19 City of Henderson, that lot line change?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Has the map been finalized reflecting
22 the change in those lot lines?
23 A. The map has been finalized, but I'm not
24 sure of the status of the final signatures.
25 Q. What was the purpose of changing the

Page 141

1 lot lines to that -- we'll call the St. Croix
2 property?
3 MR. GUNNERSON: Objection. Foundation. Calls
4 for speculation.
5 THE WITNESS: To add additional rear yard,
6 they kind of flat lower area to the larger lot it
7 connected to.
8 BY MS. HANKS:
9 Q. Was the building already constructed, a
10 housing structure on that area?
11 A. Yes.
12 MR. GUNNERSON: Objection. Form as to area.
13 BY MS. HANKS:
14 Q. The additional golf parcel that's going
15 to become a part of those three parcels that we see
16 delineated on Exhibit O, is it going to just be a
17 landscaped area?
18 MR. GUNNERSON: Objection. Foundation.
19 THE WITNESS: The current plans, yes, but it
20 could be more.
21 BY MS. HANKS:
22 Q. How can it change to be more?
23 A. Well, after the map was signed, a
24 casita can be constructed in that area.
25 Q. And why is that? In other words, how,

Page 142

1 if the plans don't show the casita now, how can that
2 be changed later after the map is finalized?
3 A. Well, the map just creates the new
4 property lines. And then if the owner would like,
5 he could submit to the modifications committee a
6 plan for an accessory structures in that area.
7 Q. Okay. But right now the Design Review
8 Committee has approved just landscaping in that 9 area, the new addition area?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Okay. Who has approved what's going to 12 go in that area as of now?
13 A. There are no changes proposed to the 14 area.
15 Q. As it stands now?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. And, I'm sorry. I realize I should
18 have known that. It wouldn't be in the Design
19 Review Committee's purview anymore, because you said
20 there is already a house built on the existing lots?
21 A. Correct. If there is any changes to 22 that area, it would go through the MacDonald
23 Highlands modifications committee, but there aren't
24 currently any plans.
25 Q. Okay. What is the next property that

Page 143

1 was rezoned to include a portion of the golf course?
2 MR. GUNNERSON: Objection. Form as to next.
3 THE WITNESS: What do you mean?
4 BY MS. HANKS:
5 Q. Well, we agreed in our notice that
6 we're going to put the areas that we talked about in 7 your last deposition and I have. You said there was 8 -- your testimony says there is an area north of 9 planning area 11 that has been rezoned but not met.
10 Does that --
11 A. Correct.
12 Q. Does that refresh your recollection?
13 Where is area 11?
14 A. This map has been changed but in 15 generalities, here.
16 Q. And how has this map been changed?
17 A. This is area 11. That street alignment
18 is not accurate within 11.
19 Q. Okay. So the Design Guidelines have a
20 different, a newer Exhibit O now?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Okay. So when you say, "this map has 23 been changed", Exhibit O hasn't been changed, you're 24 just saying that the Exhibit O map that's reflected 25 here or, I guess, what Exhibit O took from has

Page 144

1 changed?
2 A. The area that Exhibit O shows the
3 layout of the lots has changed, and Exhibit O wasn't
4 updated to reflect the new street alignment.
5 Q. And that's only for area 11 that there
6 is a difference, right?
7 A. From the red lots, it's fairly close.
8 Q. Okay. So can you mark with a circle or 9 an "X" like you did with the first, the St. Croix
10 property, and tell me how the addition of the golf
11 parcel portion of the property was added to a
12 specific lot in planned area 11?
13 A. It's zoned, but it has not been mapped.
14 Q. And it looks like -- is that two or 15 three parcels that --
16 A. I believe it's three.
17 Q. So three parcels, I'm going to mark
18 them with a dot.
19 A. The first one, I don't think so. The 20 next three or so.
21 Q. Okay.
22 A. Those three had sections that were a
23 little deeper in the back. So this might be -- like 24 I said, the lot lines changed. So I think this was 25 a custom layout, and when it was sold the total lots

1 got a little smaller. In general, the street
2 alignment is the same. So the exhibit can still be
3 followed, because it's representative of the lots
4 that border the golf course within 11. We didn't go
5 back and change the actual lot lines, but I believe
6 there is three lots that have extended rear yard
7 developed.

8 Q. How much did the yard get extended for 9 those three lots?

10 A. I don't recall the exact square
11 footage. I can't remember the exact square footage.

12 Q. Before we go to that one, when did this 13 rezoning happen? When did the applications get 14 submitted for the St. Croix property?

15 I'm not concerned with an exact
16 date. I'm just looking for the year.

17 A. It was about a year ago, so it was 18 probably late 2013 or early 2014. So around that 19 timeframe would be my estimation.

20 Q. And how about for planning area 11,
21 those three lots that we've marked with the dots,
22 when did that application get submitted?

23 A. That was a long time ago. It was 24 during the construction of that area which I think
25 was 2004 or '05. So it could have been anywhere

1 from 2004 to 2006 probably timeframe.

2 Q. Do you know what that area includes
3 whether it be a structure or landscaping?

4 A. There is nothing in there. It was
5 mountain. That area was rezoned, because when they 6 developed the lots from that street, there was a big 7 knob there that stuck up in the air and blocked the 8 view from these homes.

9 Q. Views of the golf course?

10 A. View of the golf course. So even 11 though it was outside of that developable area, we 12 decided to take down the area and blast it down to 13 grade so that you could see through that area.

14 So after it was blasted, it was no
15 longer natural. It was just broken rock. So the 16 lots had previously stopped on the other side of the 17 mountain. And now you had a blasted rock area
18 between the lots and the golf course. And the golf 19 course was really far away from the backs of those 20 lots.

21 So initially the lots went up to 22 the mountain, but then it didn't make a whole lot of 23 sense to have three lots that were looking at a
24 little hill when it had this beautiful golf course
25 on the other side. So we blasted it down and then

1 went through the rezoning process so that the land
2 could be added to those three lots at a future time.

3 If they chose to purchase it, we
4 could then remap it and sell them to it, sell the 5 area to the residents that lived in those lots so
6 that they could extend their backyard.

7 Q. So at this juncture, 2015, those three
8 parcel owners have not actually purchased that 9 additional land?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Is it just a natural desert landscape
12 there now, or is it still that --

13 A. It is just broken rock.

14 Q. Who owns that portion of the land?

15 A. The Pacific Links entity, Dragon Ridge,
16 whoever we sold the golf course to. I'm not
17 positive what their entity name is. It's some sort
18 of Dragon Ridge related.

19 Q. So the new entity, the entity that 20 bought the golf course from Dragon Ridge now owns
21 that sliver that you've marked on the Exhibit O?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then there is a third one that you
24 indicated in your deposition. You said lot one in 25 area 20?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Where is that located?

3 A. (Witness indicates.)

4 Q. Okay. And you've marked the corner.
5 You've kind of drawn a triangle on this big yellow
6 section on Exhibit O at the very top.

7 What does that yellow section
8 represent? What piece of land is that?

9 A. Planning area 20.

10 Q. Okay. I don't see any individual lines
11 within that larger area.

12 Are there individual lots within
13 that yellow?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Is there any reason why that area
16 doesn't have the delineations of the individual
17 lots?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Why?

20 A. At the time the exhibit was made, there
21 were no lots in there.

22 Q. Okay. What hole of the golf course is 23 this property abutting?

24 A. Fifteen.

25 Q. And when was this application for

Page 149

1 rezoning submitted?
2 A. The same as the St. Croix application.
3 Q. So around late 2013, early 2014 is your
4 best estimate?
5 A. That's my estimate.
6 Q. How much property was added to this
7 particular parcel?
8 A. I think it was less than a quarter of 9 an acre.
10 Q. And what was the purpose of adding that 11 less than a quarter of an acre to that parcel?
12 A. Increase the size of the lot and the 13 buildable area for the home.
14 Q. Was the lot already sold when that 15 addition was applied for?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Was it already built? Was it already 18 improved?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Did the owner approach you -- I'm 21 saying you -- any of the entities you're here on 22 behalf of to purchase that parcel?
23 A. No.
24 Q. How did that come about then?
25 A. One of our representatives suggested it

Page 150

1 to the owner to see if they were interested.
2 Q. And what representative?
3 A. I believe Michael contacted the owner.
4 Q. And do you know why she recommended it?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Why?
7 A. I had received preliminary plans for
8 that area for the house, and it was really tight.
9 They were trying to squeeze some improvement in that 10 corner. And it wasn't working real well just 11 because of the site constraints. And the area next 12 to it in that triangle that I've outlined is between 13 two "T Boxes". It's not playable. And it was 14 fairly flat so that she could build on it if it was 15 added.
16 So I thought it would probably
17 help the design of her house if we added that into 18 the lot.
19 Q. Has the lot owner submitted -- or,
20 excuse me.
21 Has the City of Henderson approved
22 that lot line change?
23 A. Which entity within Henderson?
24 Q. Well, I guess at what point in the 25 process of the rezoning is that particular parcel?

Page 151

1 A. It's in final signature. So the last
2 update I had was being signed, the final map by all
3 the individual departments that need to sign the 4 last maps.
5 So it had been approved through
6 all the public hearings. The map has been approved
7 for final signature, and it was routing for the 8 physical signature on the map.
9 Q. Who owns that parcel, the extra golf
10 parcel that is going to ultimately be rezoned?
11 A. Right now it's owned by Pacific Links
12 entity that bought the course.
13 Q. Is that who that lot owner is going to 14 pay to purchase that portion?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Was there an exception carved out from 17 the purchase from Dragon Ridge to the Pacific Links
18 that Dragon Ridge would still get the sale of 19 proceeds from the sale of that portion of the golf
20 course?
21 A. There is an exception, but I don't know
22 if it's technically the sale.
23 Q. You mean the parcel that's going to be
24 added to that -- what is it? Lot one, planning area
25 20, you're not sure if it's actually a sale?

Page 152

1 A. Correct.
2 Q. You said it might be an exception?
3 A. There was an exception in the agreement
4 that the property would be deeded without cost to --
5 back to DRFH.
6 Q. That less than a quarter of an acre
7 that we're talking about adding to lot one in 8 planning area 20?
9 A. Correct. That's why I don't think that
10 it might not technically be a sale.
11 Q. But then will DRFH then sell it to lot
12 owner one? I mean, is that the plan?
13 A. The way the deal is currently 14 structured, I don't know if it's technically a sale.
15 I think the way escrow is 16 currently set up is that DRFH is being paid to 17 coordinate the map signatures so that the boundary
18 line is adjusted.
19 Q. Is the same true for St. Croix? How 20 was that deal done?
21 A. St. Croix, I do not believe anyone is 22 being paid through escrow. That one is not in 23 escrow.
24 Q. Do you know when the map that changed
25 the lot lines for 594 Lairmont Place was recorded?

DEFENDANT’S RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF’S REQUESTS FOR ADMISSIONS

TO: Plaintiff THE FREDERIC AND BARBARA ROSENBERG LIVING TRUST; and
TO: Howard C. Kim, Esq., Diana S. Cline, Esq., Jacqueline A. Gilbert, Esq., KIM & ASSOCIATES, its attorneys.

Pursuant to Rule 36 of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant Shahin Shane Malek (hereinafter “Defendant”) by and through his attorneys, Sarah M. Chavez, Esq. of The Law Office of Sarah M. Chavez, PLLC, and Preston P. Rezaee, Esq., and Ryan E. Alexander, Esq. of The Firm, P.C., hereby respond to Plaintiff’s first Requests for Admissions as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

These responses and objections are based on information presently known to Defendant. Further discovery may lead to additions to, changes in, or modification of these responses. Accordingly, these responses are being given without prejudice to Defendant’s right to produce subsequent discovery evidence and to introduce same at trial.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1: Admit that the MacDonald Applications to re-zone the Golf Course Parcel were submitted upon your request.

RESPONSE: Defendant objects on the grounds that this request is overly broad, vague and ambiguous. Without waiving said objections Defendant responds as follows: I admit that I requested the Golf Course Parcel be re-zoned, but I was not involved in the further preparation or submission of the MacDonald Applications. To my understanding, the MacDonald Applications were prepared and submitted by among possibly others who are unknown to Defendant, Paul Bykowski, MacDonald Properties, Ltd. and Dragonridge Properties. There may be additional parties who were involved in the MacDonald Applications to which I am unaware of because again, I did not prepare or submit the MacDonald Applications.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2: Admit that, at the time the MacDonald Applications were submitted, if the MacDonald Applications were subsequently approved, you intended to purchase the Golf Course Parcel.

RESPONSE: Admit.

1 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3: Admit that, prior to March 13, 2013, you knew that the Golf
2 Course Parcel had been successfully rezoned.

3 RESPONSE: Defendant is without sufficient information or knowledge to admit or deny the truth of 4 this paragraph and therefore denies same. Nevertheless, Defendant became aware of the rezoning once
5 it became successfully rezoned.

6 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 4: Admit that, prior to March 13, 2013, you entered into an
7 agreement to purchase the Golf Course Parcel from Dragonridge Properties, LLC.

8 RESPONSE: Admit.

9 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 5: Admit that, prior to March 13, 2013, you had not recorded
10 your interest in the Golf Course Parcel.

11 RESPONSE: Defendant objects on the grounds that this request is vague and overly burdensome in 12 that it seeks information already readily available to Plaintiff via public records. Without waiving said
13 objection Defendant responds as follows: I admit that I did not record an interest in the Golf Course
14 Parcel prior to March 13, 2013, as this is prior to the date that I possessed an ownership interest in the 15 Golf Course Parcel with which to record.

16 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 6: Admit that, prior to May 15, 2013, you did not place anything
17 on the Golf Course Parcel (i.e. stakes, construction material, etc.) that would indicate that the Golf
18 Course Parcel had been re-zoned and was now your property.

19 RESPONSE: I admit that I did not personally place anything on the Golf Course Parcel.
20 Nevertheless, construction material and stakes were placed on the Golf Course Parcel by professional 21 surveyor Wallace Morris Surveyors prior to May 15, 2013 which would indicate the re-zoning and 22 ownership change of the Golf Course parcel.

23 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 7: Admit that, prior to May 15, 2013, you did not inform 24 Frederic, Barbara, and/or David Rosenberg—or any of their agents, including but not limited to, their 25 real estate agent—that you owned the Golf Course Parcel.

26 RESPONSE: Defendant objects on the grounds that this request is overly broad, vague and ambiguous
27 and therefore denies same. Without waiving said objections Defendant responds as follows: Admit as 28 Defendant did not know Frederic, Barbara, and/or David Rosenberg or their realtor, or have reason to

1 seek them out to advise them of his ownership interest which was a matter of public record. Further,
2 Defendant is unaware of the identities of their “agents” and/or whether he may have informed such
3 agents of his ownership of the Golf Course Parcel without realizing the connection. Defendant did not
4 hide or keep secret the fact that he owned the Golf Course Parcel.

5 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 8: Admit that you purchased the Golf Course Parcel with an
6 intent to build or develop onto the Golf Course Parcel, beyond the original boundaries of Malek Lots 1
7 and 2.

8 RESPONSE: Admit. I purchased the Golf Course Parcel with the intent to include this in the area
9 surrounding my home.

10 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 9: Admit that you intend to build or develop onto the Golf Course
11 Parcel, beyond the original boundaries of Malek 1 and 2.

12 RESPONSE: Admit.

13 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 10: Admit that you are subject to any easements existing on the 14 Golf Course Parcel at the time you purchased it.

15 RESPONSE: Defendant objects on the grounds that this request calls for a legal conclusion rather than 16 an admission of fact. Without waiving said objections Defendant responds as follows: Admit.

17 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 11: Admit that if you build or develop beyond the original
18 boundaries of Malek lots 1 and 2, it will materially and negatively affect the value of the Rosenberg
19 Property.

20 RESPONSE: Deny. To the contrary, Defendant believes the improvement of the Golf Course Parcel
21 will further enhance and beautify the area as the Golf Course Parcel is an unimproved bare piece of 22 bare desert land which could benefit from professionally designed work. Further, any proposed design 23 changes, landscaping and/or construction will be subject to final review and approval by the 24 community’s design review committee, thus ensuring this result.

25 REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 12: Admit that if you build or develop, beyond the original
26 boundaries of Malek Lots 1 and 2, it will allow you to invade the privacy of those living on the 27 Rosenberg Property.

28

1 RESPONSE: Deny. To the contrary, Defendant is a very private person and he will continue to utilize
2 his property accordingly. Defendant has and will continue to not invade the privacy of his neighbors
3 including but not limited to those living on the Rosenberg Property, nor does Defendant wish to open
4 himself up to such an invasion of privacy.

The 14,841 square-foot non-exclusive utility easement proposed to be vacated was granted April 3, 2007, per Book 136, Page 21 of Plats, Clark County, Nevada.

ANALYSIS

The applicant is requesting to vacate and remove existing “blanket easements” over a portion of Golf Hole #9, northwest of MacDonald Ranch Drive and Stephanie Street. This approximately 14,841-square-foot common area is now being proposed for inclusion into an adjacent undeveloped single-family parcel.

The applicant states the amendment to this area will allow for the appropriate design and development of a custom home, while having little or no impact on the adjacent properties.

Staff concurs with the proposed vacation and recommends approval.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT CONDITIONS

RESPONSE TO MALEK'S STATEMENT OF UNDISPUTED FACTS

25 Plaintiff, THE FREDRIC AND BARBARA ROSENBERG LIVING TRUST, by and through 26 its counsel of record, HOWARD KIM & ASSOCIATES, hereby responds to Malek's statement of 27 undisputed facts.
28

3 Defendant Malek's statement of undisputed facts is riddled with irrelevant facts, includes 4 argumentative or suggestive language that renders the statement false or misleading, and contains
5 blatant misstatements of fact. Because Plaintiff's claims against Malek rest on the issue of whether an
6 implied restrictive covenant exists over the golf course land that was sold to Malek, Plaintiff will not
7 address facts that do not relate to this issue, as they are not material, and have no bearing on the issue.
8 These facts include Nos. 6-8; 11-12; 16-24; 28-47; 49-50; 52-59; 63-64; 67-68; 71-85; 88-89; 92-93;
9 95-97; 106-107; 109-113; 116-121. See Defendant Malek's Statement of Undisputed Material Facts on 10 file herein. The decision to forego any discussion regarding these irrelevant facts should not be 11 construed as an admission that Malek's summary of these facts is accurate. In fact, Plaintiff disputes
12 most of Malek's characterization of these facts.

13 As for the remaining facts alleged by Malek, Plaintiff states as follows:

14 1. Golf courses with Las Vegas' exclusive communities sell pieces of land to adjacent 15 landowners.

16 Disputed: This statement is made within the context of diminution of value which 17 is not at relevant to the claims against Malek.

18 2. Red Rock Country Club has sold parts of golf course land to landowners within 19 community

20 Disputed: The citation for this statement is incorrect.

21 3. Southern Highlands' Golf Community has sold parts of gold course land to property
22 owners within the community.

23 Disputed: The citation for this statement is incorrect.

24 4. The MacDonald Highlands Community has sold or leased out-of-bound portions of its 25 golf course to property owners within the community.

26 Disputed: There were three instances wherein the Golf Course was severed. The first 27 was in planning area 15 and 16, which occurred in 2013 or 2014, and involved an out-of-play area
28

1 located on a hill.<sup>1</sup> This Richard MacDonald's property, and he testified, "I had an area of the golf
2 course that I basically moved into, moved into with my yard so to speak. It was technically part of the 3 golf course, but I haven't bothered to subdivide it, move it in..."<sup>2</sup> Mr. Bykowski testified that there
4 are "no changes proposed for the area."<sup>3</sup> The second instance took place in 2004 or 2005, and
5 involved a hill-like area that was blocking the view to the Golf Course for three houses.<sup>4</sup> MacDonald
6 Highlands leveled the hill, but this area was never sold to the property owners, and is still owned by
7 the Golf Course.<sup>5</sup> The third, and final instance, involved planning area 20, and occurred in 2013 and
8 2014.<sup>6</sup> This area has not been sold, but included the addition of a corner of non-playable area between 9 two T boxes to a lot so the owner could adequately fit his house on the lot.<sup>7</sup>

10 5. DRFH Ventures LLC sold approximately 15,000 square feet of land, APN 178-28-520-
11 001, to Shane Malek.

12 Not disputed.

13 9. The Golf Parcel went through a re-zoning process before its sale to Malek was 14 recorded.

15 Not disputed.

16 10. Malek has lived in MacDonald Highlands since 2006.

17 Not disputed.

18 13. Malek learned from his agent that 594 Lairmont's prior owner planned to acquire an 19 out-of-bounds portion of the golf course to add to the lot.

20 Disputed: Michael Doiron testified that she did not believe that the prior owner of 594
21 Lairmont planned to purchase a portion of the golf course.<sup>8</sup>

22 14. Malek planned to buy 594 Lairmont as well as the Golf Parcel to increase his lot size
23 and building area.

25 <sup>1</sup> See Bykowski Dep. II, 139:1-3; 145:13-18

26 <sup>2</sup> See MacDonald Dep., 127:19-24.

27 <sup>3</sup> See Bykowski Dep. II, 142:13-14.

28 <sup>4</sup> See Bykowski Dep. II, 146:4-25 through 147:1-10.

1 Not disputed.

2 15. Malek planned to merge the Golf Parcel into 594 Lairmont.

3 Not disputed.

4 25. MacDonald Highlands hired B2 Development to apply for the Golf Parcel's re-zoning.

5 Not disputed.

6 26. MacDonald Highlands has re-zoned other portions of the golf course to residential use,
7 and added them to adjacent residential lots.

8 Disputed: The prior severances to the Golf Course have not been rezoned.<sup>9</sup>

9 27. MacDonald Highlands complied with the steps necessary to re-zone the Golf Parcel
10 from public/semi-public to residential.

11 Disputed: Bank of America has denied receiving notice of the application for zoning
12 changes.<sup>10</sup>

13 48. The City of Henderson's final map showing the changed zoning for the Golf Parcel was 14 not recorded until on or about June 26, 2013, although maps showing the new zoning were available
15 from the City of Henderson before recordation.

16 Disputed: Michael Tassi, City of Henderson planning manager, could not recall the 17 when the final map was recorded.<sup>11</sup>

18 51. BANA did not take any action in response to B2's notice of the October 22, 2012
19 neighborhood meeting about a proposed zoning change to the Golf Parcel.

20 Disputed: Bank of America has denied receiving notice of the application for zoning
21 changes.<sup>12</sup>

22 60. None of the Rosenbergs ever researched or investigated the zoning near 590 Lairmont,
23 and never contacted the City of Henderson about the same.

24 Not disputed.

25 61. The Trust waived much of its rights to inspections of 590 Lairmont.

26

27 <sup>9</sup> See Bykowski Dep. II, 142:13-14; 147:7-22; 150:12-25 through 152:1-18.

28 <sup>10</sup> See Bank of America's Answers to Interrogatories, No. 15, attached as Exhibit A-8.

1 Disputed: To the extent this statement includes the surrounding areas, the Trust did not
2 a sign a waiver of rights to inspections.

3 62. Barbara Rosenberg did not look onto Malek's property when walking through 590
4 Lairmont.

5 Not disputed.

6 65. The Trust's representatives signed a disclosure regarding the nearby zoning
7 classifications for 590 Lairmont, advising that its data was only current through February 2010.

8 Disputed: The Trust signed an out-dated disclosure form.

9 66. The zoning notice the Trust signed advised the Trust, in bold type, that it could obtain
10 more current information from the City of Henderson, and contained the address and phone number
11 for Henderson's city hall.

12 Not disputed: The document speaks for itself.

13 69. The Trust bought 590 Lairmont from BANA "as-is", where is" and understood that it
14 agreed to those terms.

15 Disputed: The Trust understood "as-is," and "where is" to pertain to 590 Lairmont only,
16 and not the surrounding areas.

17 70. The Trust bought 590 Lairmont from BANA agreeing to satisfy itself as to the 18 property's condition before closing on May 10, 2013.

19 Disputed: The condition of 590 Lairmont only and not the surrounding areas.

20 86. The Golf Parcel contains rocks and brush, consistent with undeveloped desert.

21 Disputed: MacDonald Highlands has three landscape pallets it uses and the Golf Parcel 22 is a natural landscape pallet.<sup>13</sup>

23 87. Beyond the desert of the Golf Parcel, 590 Lairmont looks out to Stephanie Street and 24 the Dragon Ridge Country Club employee parking lot.

25 Disputed: This is a mischaracterization about what the view is comprised of and is 26 argumentative.

27
28

1           90.     The Trust's discovery responses identify damages to its view, privacy, and access to air
2 and light as the harms caused by Malek's potential building.

3           Disputed: The Trust does not make a claim for air and light.

4           91.     Development is considered to improve views compared to undeveloped land.

5           Disputed: Misstates testimony.

6           94.     The deed restrictions do not prohibit Malek from developing the Golf Parcel.

7           Disputed: The Grant, Bargain, Sale Deed between DRFH Ventures and Malek, 8 specifically states,

9           SUBJECT TO:

- 10           1.     Taxes for the current fiscal year, not delinquent, including personal property 11           taxes of any former owner, if any:
12           2.     Restrictions, conditions, reservations, rights, rights of way and easements
13           now of record, if any, or any that actually exist on the property.<sup>14</sup>

14           Malek admitted he is subject to any easements existing on the Golf Course Parcel at the time he 15 purchased it.<sup>15</sup>

16           98.     As part of its re-zoning of the Golf Parcel, B2 submitted an application to vacate any 17 easements on that property.

18           Disputed: The application was to vacate utility easements only.

19           99.     The City of Henderson found there were no easements on the Golf Parcel to vacate.

20           Disputed: The City of Henderson found there were no utility easements on the Golf
21 Parcel.<sup>16</sup>

22           100.    The Trust asserts a cause of action against Malek is for implied restrictive covenant.

23           Not disputed.

24           101.    The Trust claims "an implied restrictive covenant running with the land requires the 25 Golf Parcel to be used as part of the 18-hole golf course and for no other purpose."

26           Not disputed.

27
28 <sup>14</sup> See Grand, Bargain, Sale Deed, attached as Exhibit A-1.

<sup>15</sup> See Defendant's Responses to Plaintiff's Requests for Admission, No. 10, attached as Exhibit A-11.

1 102. The Amended Complaint alleges that the implied restrictive covenant binds Malek and
2 forbids him from building on the Golf Parcel.

3 Not disputed.

4 103. Construction on the Golf Parcel would affect the Trust's secondary, or borrowed view
5 across the adjacent Golf Parcel, if anything.

6 Disputed: This statement is false because the view is not secondary or borrowed.

7 104. Secondary views are not permanent and not guaranteed.

8 Disputed: The citation for this statement is incorrect.

9 105. The Trust's Amended Complaint does not allege an easement or implied restrictive
10 covenant by way of necessity.

11 Disputed: In Nevada, necessity means intent of the property.

12 108. The Trust's complaint sought only an easement and declaratory relief against Malek.

13 Not disputed.

14 114. The Trust's claim for declaratory relief seeks relief that is coextensive with its claim for 15 easement.

16 Not disputed.

17 115. The Trust asserts a claim for "mandatory injunction" against Malek.

18 Not disputed.

19 DATED this 4th day of May, 2015.

1 C. PRELIMINARY TITLE REPORT: Within ten (10) business days of Opening of Escrow, Title Company
2 shall provide Buyer with a Preliminary Title Report ("PTR") to review, which must be approved or rejected within five (5)
3 business days of receipt thereof. If Buyer does not object to the PTR within the period specified above, the PTR shall be
4 deemed accepted. If Buyer makes an objection to any item(s) contained within the PTR, Seller shall have five (5) business
5 days after receipt of objections to correct or address the objections. If, within the time specified, Seller fails to have each such
6 exception removed or to correct each such other matter as aforesaid, Buyer shall have the option to: (a) terminate this
7 Agreement by providing notice to Seller and Escrow Officer, entitling Buyer to a refund of the EMD or (b) elect to accept title
8 to the Property as is. All title exceptions approved or deemed accepted are hereafter collectively referred to as the "Permitted
9 Exceptions."

11 13. WALK-THROUGH INSPECTION OF PROPERTY: Buyer is entitled under this Agreement to a walk-through of 12 the Property within 3 calendar days prior to COB to ensure the Property and all major systems, appliances,
13 heating/cooling, plumbing and electrical systems and mechanical fixtures are as stated in Seller's Real Property Disclosure
14 Statement, and that the Property and improvements are in the same general condition as when this Agreement was signed by 15 Seller and Buyer. To facilitate Buyer's walk-through, Seller is responsible for keeping all necessary utilities on. If any
16 systems cannot be checked by Buyer on walk-through due to non-access or no power/gas/water, then Buyer reserves the right
17 to hold Seller responsible for defects which could not be detected on walk-through because of lack of such access or 18 power/gas/water. The purpose of the walk-through is to confirm (a) the Property is being maintained (b) repairs, if any, have 19 been completed as agreed, and (c) Seller has complied with Seller's other obligations. If Buyer elects not to conduct a walk-
20 through inspection prior to COE, then all systems, items and aspects of the Property are deemed satisfactory, and Buyer
21 releases Seller's liability for costs of any repair that would have reasonably been identified by a walk-through inspection,
22 except as otherwise provided by law.

24 14. DELIVERY OF POSSESSION: Seller shall deliver the Property along with any keys, alarm codes, garage door
25 opener/controls and, if freely transferable, parking permits and gate transponders outside of Escrow, upon COE. Seller agrees
26 to vacate the Property and leave the Property in a neat and orderly, broom-clean condition and tender possession no later than 27 COE-OR-. In the event Seller does not vacate the Property by this time, Seller shall be 28 considered a trespasser and shall be liable to Buyer for the sum of $ 150.00 per calendar day in addition to 29 Buyer's legal and equitable remedies. Any personal property left on the Property after the date indicated in this section shall be 30 considered abandoned by Seller.

31
32 15. RISK OF LOSS: Risk of loss shall be governed by NRS 113.040. This law provides generally that if all or any
33 material part of the Property is destroyed before transfer of legal title or possession, Seller cannot enforce the Agreement and 34 Buyer is entitled to recover any portion of the sale price paid. If legal title or possession has transferred, risk of loss shall shift
35 to Buyer.

37 16. ASSIGNMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT: Unless otherwise stated herein, this Agreement is non-assignable by 38 Buyer.

40 17. CANCELLATION OF AGREEMENT: In the event this Agreement is properly cancelled in accordance with the 41 terms contained herein, then Buyer will be entitled to a refund of the EMD. Neither Buyer nor Seller will be reimbursed for any 42 expenses incurred in conjunction with due diligence, inspections, appraisals or any other matters pertaining to this transaction
43 (unless otherwise provided herein).

45 18. DEFAULT:
46
47 A. MEDIATION: Before any legal action is taken to enforce any term or condition under this Agreement, the 48 parties agree to engage in mediation, a dispute resolution process, through OLVAR. Notwithstanding the foregoing,
49 in the event the Buyer finds it necessary to file a claim for specific performance, this section shall not apply.
50
51 B. IF SELLER DEFAULTS: If Seller defaults in performance under this Agreement, Buyer reserves all legal 52 and/or equitable rights (such as specific performance) against Seller, and Buyer may seek to recover Buyer's actual 53 damages incurred by Buyer due to Seller's default.

54
55 Each party acknowledges that he/she has read, understood, and agrees to each and every provision of this page unless a
56 particular paragraph is otherwise modified by addendum or counteroffer.

1 C. IF BUYER DEFAULTS: IF Buyer defaults in performance under this Agreement, Seller shall have one of the 2 following legal recourses against Buyer (initial one only):
3

4   As Seller's sole legal recourse, Seller may retain, as liquidated damages, the EMD. In this
5 respect, the Parties agree that Seller's actual damages would be difficult to measure and that the EMD is in fact a
6 reasonable estimate of the damages that Seller would suffer as a result of Buyer's default. Seller understands that any
7 additional deposit not considered part of the EMD in Section 1(B) herein will be immediately released by ESCROW
8 HOLDER to Buyer.

9 -OR-

10   Seller shall have the right to recover from Buyer all of Seller's actual damages that Seller may 11 suffer as a result of Buyer's default including, but not limited to, commissions due, expenses incurred until the

Instructions to Escrow

14
15 19. ESCROW: If this Agreement or any matter relating hereto shall become the subject of any litigation or controversy,
16 Buyer and Seller agree, jointly and severally, to hold ESCROW HOLDER free and harmless from any loss or expense, except
17 losses or expenses as may arise from ESCROW HOLDER'S negligence or willful misconduct. If conflicting demands are 18 made or notices served upon ESCROW HOLDER with respect to this Agreement, the parties expressly agree that Escrow is 19 entitled to file a suit in interpleader and obtain an order from the Court authorizing ESCROW HOLDER to deposit all such 20 documents and monies with the Court, and obtain an order from the Court requiring the parties to interplead and litigate their
21 several claims and rights among themselves. Upon the entry of an order authorizing such interpleader, ESCROW HOLDER
22 shall be fully released and discharged from any obligations imposed upon it by this Agreement; and ESCROW HOLDER shall 23 not be liable for the sufficiency or correctness as to form, manner, execution or validity of any instrument deposited with it, nor
24 as to the identity, authority or rights of any person executing such instrument, nor for failure of Buyer or Seller to comply with 25 any of the provisions of any agreement, contract or other instrument filed with ESCROW HOLDER or referred to herein.
26 ESCROW HOLDER'S duties hereunder shall be limited to the safekeeping of all monies, instruments or other documents
27 received by it as ESCROW HOLDER, and for their disposition in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. In the event
28 an action is instituted in connection with this escrow, in which ESCROW HOLDER is named as a party or is otherwise
29 compelled to make an appearance, all costs, expenses, attorney fees, and judgments ESCROW HOLDER may expend or incur
30 in said action, shall be the responsibility of the parties hereto.
31

32 20. UNCLAIMED FUNDS: In the event that funds from this transaction remain in an account, held by ESCROW
33 HOLDER, for such a period of time that they are deemed "abandoned" under the provisions of Chapter 120A of the Nevada
34 Revised Statutes, ESCROW HOLDER is hereby authorized to impose a charge upon the dormant escrow account. Said charge
35 shall be no less than $5.00 per month and may not exceed the highest rate of charge permitted by statute or regulation.
36 ESCROW HOLDER is further authorized and directed to deduct the charge from the dormant escrow account for as long as the 37 funds are held by ESCROW HOLDER.
38

Brokers

39
40 21. BROKER FEES: Buyer herein requires, and Seller agrees, as a condition of this Agreement, that Seller will pay
41 Listing Broker and Buyer's Broker, who becomes by this clause a third party beneficiary to this Agreement, that certain sum
42 and/or percentage of the Purchase Price (commission), that Seller, or Seller's Broker, offered for the procurement of ready,
43 willing and able Buyer via the Multiple Listing Service, any other advertisement or written offer. Seller understands and
44 agrees that if Seller defaults hereunder, Buyer's Broker, as a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement, has the right to pursue
45 all legal recourse against Seller for any commission due. In addition to any amount due to Buyer's Broker from Seller or 46 Seller's Broker, Buyer  will-OR-  will not pay Buyer's Broker additional compensation in an amount determined
47 between the Buyer and Buyer's Broker.
48

50 or Broker's agent. Buyer acknowledges that at COE, the Property will be sold AS-IS, WHERE-IS without any representations
51 or warranties, unless expressly stated herein. Buyer agrees to satisfy himself, as to the condition of the Property, prior to COE.

1 Buyer acknowledges that any statements of acreage or square footage by Brokers are simply estimates, and Buyer agrees to
2 make such measurements, as Buyer deems necessary, to ascertain actual acreage or square footage. Buyer waives all claims

DEFENDANT SHAHIN SHANE
MALEK'S OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF
/ COUNTERCLAIM DEFENDANT'S

Hearing Date: May 19, 2015
Hearing Time: 9:00 am

I. Introduction

The Trust's motion for summary judgment is inadequate and the Court should deny it. In an attempt to defeat Shane Malek's counterclaim, the Trust relies on cherry-picked and dubiously admissible evidence. A more complete review of the record shows that not only are the Trust's

1 contentions false, but that the opposite result is proper: Not only should the Court deny the Trust's
2 motion for summary judgment on Malek's Counterclaim, it should grant Malek's cross-motion for 3 summary judgment on the same claim.

4 II. Statement of Facts

5 On January 23, 2013, the City of Henderson's publicly available zoning maps showed that a
6 1/3-acre piece of undeveloped land in the Dragonridge Country Club golf course, near certain parcels
7 of land on Lairmont Place, had been zoned for residential use. (Dep. of M. Tassi at 27:17-30:15) This
8 information was readily available on the City of Henderson's website by mid-February of 2013, and
9 could be accessed in less than five minutes. (Id. at 26:14-27:16, 56:16-24) This 1/3-acre piece of land
10 (the "Golf Parcel") was situated in the out-of-bounds area of Dragonridge Country Club's ninth hole,
11 and adjacent to the vacant lot at 594 Lairmont Place – a lot owned by Shane Malek, and the reason he 12 is a defendant in this lawsuit. (Dep. of B. Rosenberg at 190:2-5; Dep. of S. Malek at 14:17-15:17, 13 47:4-17) Upon being re-zoned, Malek would add the Golf Parcel to 594 Lairmont and begin building
14 his home (Rosenberg Dep. at 46:19-47:10; Malek Dep. at 47:4-17).

15 In late February 2013, the Trust's representatives, Barbara and David Rosenberg, attempted to 16 purchase 590 Lairmont Place – the lot adjacent to 594 Lairmont – from defendant Bank of America
17 National Association. (See Rosenberg Dep. at 50:10-51:4) In its rush to acquire the property, the Trust
18 attempted to buy 590 Lairmont from Bank of America before it was publicly listed for sale.
19 (Rosenberg Dep. at 50:10-51:25, 55:13-57:19) The Trust waived its walk-through of 590 Lairmont,
20 and wanted to buy the property as quickly as it could. (Id. at 129:1-130:2) In its haste, the Trust's
21 representatives failed to conduct any research about 590 Lairmont, including the zoning or planned use
22 of nearby properties. (Id. at 47:11-24, 115:12-116:15, 121:23-123:4, 129:1-130:2; Tassi Dep. at 55:21-
23 56:12) In fact, the Trust knew that Malek would be building on his next-door lot when it purchased
24 590 Lairmont. (Rosenberg Dep. at 47:21-24) The Trust later decided it did not want Malek to build on 25 his own property, and filed this lawsuit seeking injunctive relief against his planned construction. (See 26 generally Compl.; Am. Compl.)

27 The Trust knew that merely filing a lawsuit would not stop Malek from building his home. In 28 order to prevent his construction, the Trust filed a lis pendens on 594 Lairmont immediately after filing

1 this lawsuit. (Not. of Lis Pendens) The Trust then filed an amended lis pendens on 594 Lairmont on
2 October 24, 2013. (Am. Not. of Lis Pendens) According to Barbara Rosenberg, one of the Trust's
3 trustees, the lis pendens' purpose was to prevent Malek from building on his property. (Rosenberg
4 Dep. at 265:3-266:9)

5 Malek moved to expunge the lis pendens the Trust wrongfully filed on his property. Finding
6 there was no basis for the Trust to file a lis pendens on Malek's property, the Court granted Malek's
7 motion in December 2013. The Court entered its final order expunging the Trust's lis pendens from 8 Malek's property on January 9, 2014. In the course of defending this litigation and expunging the 9 Trust's lis pendens, Malek incurred attorney's fees and costs. (Malek's Fourth Supplemental 10 Disclosures, attached as Exhibit 1, at 5) Malek brought his counterclaim for slander of title against the 11 Trust for filing its lis pendens that the Court later expunged, seeking his attorneys' fees and costs
12 incurred in removing the false lis pendens from 594 Lairmont.

13 III. Legal Standard

14 Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 56(c) allows a Court to enter summary judgment in favor of a 15 moving party only when there is no genuine issue as to any material fact, and the moving party is 16 entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 729, 121 P.3d 1026,
17 1029 (2005). To defeat a motion for summary judgment, the non-movant must only show that a
18 genuine issue of material fact exists to be resolved at trial. Nev. R Civ. P. 56(e); Wood, 121 Nev. at 19 131, 121 P.3d at 1030-31. In the Court's evaluation of the motion, "the evidence, and any reasonable 20 inferences drawn from it, must be viewed in a light most favorable to the nonmoving party." Wood,
21 121 Nev. at 729, 121 P.3d at 1029. When a question of material fact exists, the Court must deny the 22 motion for summary judgment. St. James v. Diversified Commercial Fin. Corp., 102 Nev. 23, 27, 714
23 P.2d 179, 182 (1986) (reversing district court's grant of summary judgment where genuine issue 24 remained as to a material fact).

25 Analogous Federal precedent that Nevada's Supreme Court has cited favorably also holds that 26 the test before the Court is to determine whether a question of material fact exists. Wood, 121 Nev. at 27 730, 121 P.3d at 1030, citing Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986) and Anderson v. Liberty
28 Lobby, 477 U.S. 242 (1986). "The inquiry performed is the threshold inquiry of determining whether

1 there is the need for trial.” Anderson, 477 U.S. at 250. The non-moving party’s burden merely is to
2 produce evidence “showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.” Celotex, 477 U.S. at 321 n. 3. When
3 the non-moving party meets this burden, the Court must deny a motion for summary judgment.

4 IV. Argument

5 Malek’s counterclaim for slander of title requires him to show the Trust made a false statement
6 about his property, with malice, that caused him damage. Exec. Mgt. Ltd. v. Ticor Title Ins. Co., 114
7 Nev. 823, 824, 963 P.2d 465, 478 (1998). Under this test, Malek must show that the Trust made its 8 false statements about his property with knowledge of their falsity or reckless disregard for their truth.
9 See Pond Place Partners v. Poole, 567 S.E.2d 881, 892 (S.C. Ct. App. 2002) (finding malice where 10 statement is knowingly false or made with reckless disregard for the truth). Nevada law recognizes 11 that filing a false document, such as a lis pendens when there is no dispute as to possession or title of 12 property, is a basis for slander of title. Summa Corp v. Greenspun, 96 Nev. 247, 254, 607 P.2d 569, 13 573 (1980).

14 A. The Trust Acted with Malice in Filing Its Lis Pendens on Malek’s Property.

15 The Trust’s primary defense to Malek’s counterclaim, that it relied on the advice of counsel, is 16 based on equivocation and of no avail in this case. As set forth in the Trust’s own motion, “evidence 17 of a defendant’s reliance on the advice of counsel tends to negate evidence of malice.” Rowland v.
18 Lepire, 99 Nev. 308, 313, 662 P.2d 1332, 1335 (1983) (emphasis added). Instead of presenting a
19 shield against liability, Rowland sets forth a two-step process that merely lets a defendant explain away
20 – but not contradict – its own evidence. First, a defendant must show evidence that the defendant
21 “reli[ed]” on the advice of counsel. Id. Once a defendant produces such evidence, it merely “tends to”
22 mitigate evidence of malice, but does not disprove it. Id.

23 In an attempt to satisfy this standard, the Trust relies on the deposition of Barbara Rosenberg
24 and a declaration from Peter Bernhard. Barbara Rosenberg, a seasoned real estate professional,
25 testifies that she knew what a lis pendens was, wanted to stop Malek from building his house, and
26 hoped he would not build a house on his property. (Rosenberg Dep. at 265:3-266:9) Mr. Bernhard’s
27 declaration contains a cursory opinion of the Trust’s actions, and lacks any facts that would make it a 28 credible justification for the Trust’s conduct. (Trust Mot. for Summary Judgment (“Trust MSJ”) Exh.

1 2) For these reasons, there is ample reason to find the Trust acted with actual malice in filing its lis
2 pendens on Malek's property.

3 1. Barbara Rosenberg's Testimony Shows The Trust Knew a *Lis Pendens
4 Was Baseless, But Harmed Malek's Property as It Desired.

5 The Trust's motion for summary judgment admits it filed the lis pendens "to try to stop
6 [Malek] from building." (Trust MSJ at 5:19-22, quoting Exh. 1-A) This is not a proper basis for filing
7 a lis pendens. Nevada law permits the filing of a lis pendens in an action affecting possession or title
8 to property. NRS 14.010, 14.015; Weddell v. H20, Inc., 128 Nev. Adv. Rep. 9, 271 P.3d 743, 751
9 (2012) (holding that lis pendens was improperly filed in action to enforce an option contract), quoting
10 Thomas v. Nevans, 67 Nev. 122, 130, 215 P.2d 244, 247-48 (1950); see Coury v. Tran, 111 Nev. 652, 11 656, 895 P.2d 650, 652 (1995) (holding that a lis pendens is only properly filed in cases "affecting the 12 title or possession of real property").

13 This lawsuit did not relate to either of these issues. (See generally, Compl.) The lis pendens
14 thus falsely communicated that the Trust claimed an ownership or possessory interest in Malek's
15 property. De Carnelle v. Guimont, 101 Nev. 412, 415, 705 P.2d 650, 651-652 (1985) (holding that a lis
16 pendens filed without a claim to possession or title of real property is false). Accordingly, the Court
17 expunged the Trust's lis pendens by its Order entered January 9, 2014.

18 Barbara Rosenberg's attempts to deflect accountability for the Trust's wrongful filing of a lis
19 pendens in this action are unavailing. Barbara Rosenberg is a real estate agent with more than 25 years
20 of experience selling residential property, and previously purchased numerous pieces of real estate for 21 herself or the Trust. (Rosenberg Dep. at 12:19-22, 15:6-16:13) During her career, Barbara Rosenberg
22 has closed more than 500 sales. (Id. at 88:8-25) She is familiar with the documents and principles
23 underlying residential property sales. (Id.) For her to have this depth of knowledge about residential
24 real estate, and then claim she did not know whether it was proper to file a lis pendens in this case –
25 while admitting the Trust did so to keep Malek from building his home (Id. at 265:17-21) – strains
26 credulity past its breaking point.

27 Despite her real estate knowledge, Barbara Rosenberg repeatedly states that she is "not a 28 lawyer," as if that provides immunity against the consequences of her actions. (Rosenberg Dep. at

1 147:7-148:22, 172:16-173:11, and 265:3-266:9 (stating, repeatedly, that she is not a lawyer, while
2 admitting her knowledge of elements to her case)) Barbara Rosenberg’s lack of legal training does not
3 change or defeat the plain meaning of her words, or the Court’s right to rely on them. LifeScan, Inc. v.
4 Polymer Technology Int’l Corp., Case No. C94-672R 1995 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4916 at *32-33 (W.D.
5 Wash. Jan. 3, 1995) (crediting testimony of witness even where he stated he was “a scientist, not a
6 lawyer”). Barbara Rosenberg knew what a lis pendens was, knew that she did not want Malek to
7 build on his own property, and did not care whether or not the lis pendens was proper. (Rosenberg
8 Dep. at 265:3-266:12) Barbara Rosenberg’s testimony demonstrates the Trust’s reckless disregard for 9 the lis pendens’ truth, if not knowledge of its falsity.

10 2. Peter Bernhard’s Untimely Declaration Fails to Justify the Trust’s
11 Conduct.

12 Peter Bernhard’s declaration fails to justify the Trust’s conduct. Mr. Bernhard testifies only
13 that “[i]n [his] opinion,” the Trust relied on him in filing the lis pendens. (Trust MSJ Exh 2 ¶ 4) This 14 opinion is not accompanied by any surrounding facts, circumstances, or other explanation that would
15 indicate whether this opinion is valid. (Id.) Moreover, even if the Court finds Mr. Bernhard’s
16 testimony creditable, and further finds the Trust relied on his advice, it is not a bar to the Court finding 17 the Trust acted with actual malice in filing its lis pendens. Rowland, 99 Nev. at 313, 662 P.2d at 1335.

18 Mr. Bernhard goes on to state that he is “not aware of any ulterior motive or purpose” for the 19 Trust’s wrongful lis pendens. (Id.) This statement is found in the same two-sentence paragraph as Mr.
20 Bernhard’s prior statement of opinion. (Id.) Like the prior statement, this one also is conspicuously
21 free of any facts or circumstances that provide the grounds for his knowledge – or lack thereof. (Id.)
22 To the extent this Court may consider Mr. Bernhard’s declaration as admissible evidence, as discussed
23 below, it does nothing to exonerate the Trust’s actions. While Mr. Bernhard states that he “is not 24 aware” of any ulterior motive or purpose of the Trust in filing its lis pendens on Malek’s property (id.),
25 Barbara Rosenberg’s testimony demonstrates that the Trust acted to stop Malek from building his
26 home. (Rosenberg Dep. at 265:3-266:9) This lone declaration does not entitle the Trust to summary
27 judgment on Malek’s counterclaim, nor defeat his cross-motion for judgment in his favor.

1                   B. Malek Has Pled and Produced Evidence of Special Damages Arising from the
2                   Trust’s Lis Pendens Filings.

3                   Contrary to the Trust’s arguments, Malek’s attorneys’ fees costs are not only identified in his
4 counterclaim, but substantiated by evidence as well. Malek’s counterclaim made obvious his pursuit
5 of attorneys’ fees in this case as a form of damages. He also produced evidence of his damages during
6 the course of this litigation. The Trust, however, neglected to apprise the Court of this fact. As set
7 forth below, neither of these arguments entitle the Trust to summary judgment.

8                   1. The Trust’s Legal Arguments Against Malek’s Slander of Title Claim Are 9                   Erroneous.

10                  Malek’s Counterclaim sufficiently identifies his attorneys’ fees expended in removing the 11 Trust’s lis pendens from his property as special damages. “[E]xpenses sustained in removing the cloud
12 on plaintiff’s title caused by the false statement” constitute damages for a slander of title claim. Tai-si
13 Kim v. Kearney, 838 F. Supp. 2d 1077 (D. Nev. 2012), citing Summa Corp. v. Greenspun, 98 Nev.
14 528, 655 P.2d 513 (1982). These attorneys’ fees are available as damages in slander of title actions.
15 Horgan v. Felton, 123 Nev. 577, 586, 170 P.3d 982, 988 (2007). Malek sets these damages forth in his
16 counterclaim as required by Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure.<sup>1</sup> (Counterclaim at 8:1-11) Malek
17 alleges that that trust’s slander of title injured him in an amount of more than $10,000 (id. ¶ 22), and 18 goes on to claim his attorneys’ fees and costs as a portion of his damages in this action (id. at 8:1-11).

19                  The Trust’s cited precedent is inapposite. Relying on footnotes, dictum, and a court that 20 “implicitly acknowledge[ed]” that attorneys’ fees should be specifically pled, the Trust ignores the 21 plain language of Malek’s counterclaim. In addition to alleging more than $10,000 in damages
22 separate from any diminution of value in his property, Malek requests an award of his attorneys’ fees
23 and costs in the Counterclaim (Counterclaim at 8:1-11). The counterclaim goes on to request exactly 24 the damages that may be awarded for slander of title: “reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in 25 removing the Trust’s slander of title in this action.” (Id.)

27
28 <sup>1</sup> Curiously, this is the very first time the Trust has raised this issue. If the question of Malek’s special damages and incurred attorneys’ fees were as clear as the Trust represents in its motion for summary judgment, it theoretically could have prevailed on Malek’s counterclaim months ago upon a motion to dismiss. The Trust never filed such a motion, indicating that this issue is of far less significance and certainty than the Trust now claims.

1                                   2. Malek Produced Evidence of His Damages in This Litigation, which the
2                                   Trust Neglected to Provide to the Court.

3           First and foremost, the Trust relies on Malek’s deposition to reach an unsupportable
4 conclusion. The Trust’s motion for summary judgment attempts to discredit Malek’s evidence of his
5 attorney’s fees by pointing out that he did not know the exact amount he had incurred as he sat in the 6 deposition. (Trust MSJ Exh. 1-D) Malek’s testimony was not that he had incurred no attorneys’ fees,
7 but only that he did not know – when asked well into his deposition – the exact amount. (Id.) This
8 statement cannot be twisted to mean that Malek suffered no damages. Malek went on to testify that he 9 would provide an amount of attorneys’ fees he had incurred (id.), and did so through his counsel.

10           Malek provided evidence of his special damages to the Trust, which the Trust neglected to tell
11 the Court. In his Fourth Supplemental Initial Disclosures, Malek informed the Trust and all other 12 parties that his attorneys’ fees and costs in the action amounted to more than $45,000 – a number that
13 continues to grow. (Exhibit 1 at 5) As Malek stated in his deposition, the calculation of attorneys’ fees
14 and costs he incurred would be disclosed, and it was. This evidence not only contradicts the Trust’s
15 contentions, but compels the opposite result: Finding the Trust liable for slander of title.<sup>2</sup>

16           The attorneys’ fees and costs Malek incurred to remove the slander of title in this action should 17 be obvious. Malek retained counsel to respond to the lawsuit and remove the Trust’s lis pendens from 18 his property. In fact, Malek’s prior counsel extensively litigated this issue before the Court ordered the 19 Trust’s lis pendens expunged.<sup>3</sup> This Court’s very record demonstrates that Malek retained counsel and 20 incurred attorneys’ fees to remove the Trust’s false lis pendens from his property. It defies credulity
21 for the Trust to claim that there is no evidence showing Malek incurred attorneys’ fees as damages in 22 support of his counterclaim.

23                                   C. The Trust Impermissibly Relies on Inadmissible Evidence in Support of its
24                                   Motion.

25           A party seeking summary judgment must present facts that “would be admissible as evidence”
26 to prevail on its motion. Nev. R. Civ. P. 56(e); see Rossi v. Trans World Airlines, Inc. 507 F.2d 404,

27 _____
28 <sup>2</sup> See generally Malek’s Motion for Summary Judgment.

<sup>3</sup> See Malek’s Nov. 13, 2013 Mot. to Expunge, Dec. 3, 2013 Reply in support of Mot. to Expunge, Dec. 18, 2013 Supp. Brief in support of Mot. to Expunge, Dec. 19, 2013 Hrg. on Mot. to Expunge.

1 406 (9th Cir. 1974) (affirming summary judgment where affidavits contained inadmissible information
2 and were properly disregarded under Rule 56(e)). The Trust's motion is based on several pieces of
3 inadmissible evidence. The Court cannot credit that evidence in support of the Trust's motion, and the 4 Trust's legal arguments based on inadmissible evidence necessarily fail.

5 1. The Trust's Ambush Declaration of Peter Bernhard, Executed Long
6 After the Close of Discovery, Is Inadmissible.

7 Discovery in this case ended on March 16, 2015. In attempt to shift blame from itself to its
8 prior counsel, the Trust filed a declaration from Peter Bernhard that was executed on April 15, 2015, in
9 support of its motion for summary judgment. (Trust MSJ Exh. 2) By sheer logic alone, this declaration
10 never could have been produced prior to the close of discovery. Further, the Trust never disclosed Mr.
11 Bernhard as a potential witness until just six days before the close of discovery. (Plaintiff's Ninth 12 Supplemental Initial Disclosures at 9:10-19, attached as Exhibit 2) By timing its disclosure of Mr.
13 Bernhard's as its last-identified witness (id.), the Trust deprived Malek and the other parties the 15
14 days necessary to properly notice his deposition under Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 30(b)(1). In 15 sum, the Trust deprived Malek of an opportunity to meaningfully scrutinize Mr. Bernhard's testimony.

16 Even if the Court finds Mr. Bernhard's declaration is acceptable procedurally, it suffers from 17 substantive defects that render it inadmissible. Mr. Bernhard's testimony about the Trust's reliance on 18 his advice is entirely based on his opinion, and without facts upon which his opinion is based. (Trust 19 MSJ Exh. 2 ¶ 4) Nevada law excludes opinion testimony except when "rationally based on the 20 perception of the witness." NRS 50.265(1). Nevada's rule mirrors Federal Rule of Evidence 701, and 21 "federal law is instructive" in its interpretation. Rossana v. State, 113 Nev. 375, 380, 934 P.2d 1045.
22 1048 (1997).

23 While the Court may allow lay opinion testimony based on the witness' observations, the 24 witness must provide a foundation for those opinions and an opportunity for cross-examination. See
25 Barnett v. Pa. Consulting Group, Inc., 35 F. Supp. 3d 11, 21 (D.D.C. 2014). Malek did not have an 26 opportunity to cross-examine Bernhard about the matters set forth in his declaration, or to establish 27 how he formed his opinion that the Trust relied on his advice. Additionally, testimony opining about 28 defendant's ultimate motivations is not helpful under FRE 701, and its corollary in NRS 50.265, and

1 thus inadmissible. Barnett, 35 F. Supp. 3d at 21 (excluding witness testimony opining about a
2 defendant's motivation), citing U.S. v. Rea, 958 F.2d 1206, 1216 (2d Cir. 1992). Mr. Bernhard's
3 opinion as to the Trust's motives in this case is unilluminating. (Trust MSJ Exh. 2) Additionally, the
4 facts necessary for the Court to ascertain the Trust's actual malice in filing a lis pendens on Malek's
5 property are already on the record in the form of Barbara Rosenberg's testimony. The Court should 6 deem Mr. Bernhard's opinion testimony inadmissible and disregard it.

7 2. The Trust's Responses to Malek's Interrogatories Are Unverified and 8 Inadmissible.

9 Barbara Rosenberg failed to properly verify the Trust's interrogatories used in Exhibit 1-B to 10 its motion for summary judgment, and those responses are therefore inadmissible. Nev. R. Civ. P.
11 33(b)(1) (requiring interrogatories to be answered under oath). The Trust elected to verify its 12 interrogatory responses under NRS 53.045. In doing so, it ignored NRS 53.045's requirement for 13 declarations to bear the date of their execution. (Trust MSJ Exh 1-B at 7) Barbara Rosenberg's
14 undated signature renders her verification defective under NRS 53.045, leaving the interrogatory
15 responses unverified.

16 Without proper verification, the Court cannot credit the Trust's interrogatory responses as 17 admissible evidence. Other courts have held that unverified interrogatories are inadmissible. Agha v.
18 Secretary of Army, Case No. C-85-20693(SW), 1992 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 18936 at *18 (N.D. Cal. Oct.
19 26, 1992) (finding unauthenticated interrogatory responses inadmissible); see Mary Kay, Inc. v. Weber, 20 601 F. Supp. 2d 839, 850 (N.D. Tex. 2009). Similarly, as the Trust failed to comply with the 21 requirements of Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 33 and produced unverified interrogatory responses,
22 the Court should disregard its putative evidence.

DEPOSITION OF MICHAEL TASSI

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2015

Reported by: Johanna Vorce, CCR No. 913

JOB NO.: 235400

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you know if the City of Henderson's website has
3 changed at all regarding zoning maps in the last two years?

4 A. Are you talking about process or actual website
5 itself?

6 Q. Process of accessing zoning maps through the 7 website.

8 A. I don't know for sure.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. I don't believe so, but I don't know for sure.

11 Q. You're not aware of any changes that have 12 occurred?

13 A. I am not aware, no.

14 Q. Have you personally been on the Henderson's city
15 website and accessed zoning maps online?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you did that also in 2013; is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. If you were to get on the internet right now, how 20 long would you say it would take you to access a zoning map
21 of a particular property in the City of Henderson?

22 A. Maybe five minutes.

23 Q. Would you say that's short end or the long end of 24 that time?

25 A. I would say that's probably the long -- the long

1 end.

2 Q. You could do it quicker than five minutes; is that
3 correct?

4 A. I could do it quicker, yes.

5 Q. And if you access the zoning maps on the website,
6 is it initially like a map of the entire zoning for the 7 entire City of Henderson?

8 A. When you go on our interactive website, yes,
9 that's -- that's the first screen you see is the entire City
10 of Henderson. You have to zoom into the parcel that you're 11 looking for.

12 Q. But you can do that with the online function of 13 the website, zoom in and look at a particular property --

14 A. Yes, you can.

15 Q. -- is that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. We have talked a little bit about the particular
18 zoning change at issue here, which we identified through 19 Exhibit B as the zoning change ZCA-06-660018-A15, pertaining 20 to property adjacent to the Ninth Hole Golf Course at 21 MacDonald Highlands, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. As it pertains to that property specifically, is 24 it your understanding that that final zoning ordinance
25 change was ultimately recorded with the recorder's office?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And is that document, to your understanding,
3 memorialized in Exhibit C and D that are in front of you?

4 A. Yes, it is.

5 Q. So particularly in this case then, when would the 6 physical maps pertaining to the zoning change have been 7 updated?

8 A. We updated the physical maps on this particular
9 item on January 24th.

10 Q. What year was that?

11 A. 2013.

12 Q. After those physical maps were updated, as you
13 stated previously, the process would have been to send them
14 to the IT Department, correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Do you know when the website was updated to 17 incorporate those zoning changes?

18 A. I do not know.

19 Q. Do you have an approximate timeline as to when 20 they were updated?

21 A. Approximately the typical process. Approximately,
22 one to two weeks.

23 Q. Are you aware if it's ever taken longer than a
24 month to update the website after physical maps have been 25 changed?

1 A. I am not aware.

2 Q. Do you know if there's anybody at the City of
3 Henderson who knows the exact date as to which those maps
4 would have been updated online?

5 A. I don't know who that would be.

6 Q. As the planning manager of the City of Henderson,
7 what is the longest amount of time you're aware it has taken
8 to update zoning changes online once the physical map has 9 been updated?

10 A. That's not something I prepared for. I don't 11 know.

12 Q. But in your personal knowledge as someone who's 13 worked on zoning changes, do you have an estimate of the 14 amount of time which is the longest amount of time you
15 understand it's taken to update those?

16 A. I -- I don't. I looked at our typical process. I
17 thought that's what we were asked to do.

18 MR. KEMBLE: He just asked in your personal.

19 THE WITNESS: Okay. Yeah. I'm sorry. I don't.
20 I don't know.

21 BY MR. GUNNERSON:

22 Q. So you had mentioned before that it takes one to 23 two weeks to your understanding, correct?

24 A. For a map to be -- once we submit it to IT
25 Department for a map to be online, yes, one to two weeks.

1 Q. Where did that one to two weeks come from?

2 A. In talking with our GIS Department, in their
3 experience, it takes -- it's usually faster. But two weeks
4 is kind of the outside. So I guess that would be the answer
5 to your question. Two weeks is typically the longest.

6 Q. So even though you have not found anything that
7 shows exactly when this particular zoning change was updated
8 on the maps, in speaking with your GIS experts, they have 9 indicated that the outside frame as to when this is usually 10 updated on the website is two weeks; is that correct?

11 A. That's correct, yes.

12 Q. So if the physical maps were updated on 13 January 24th, 2013, two weeks following would have been 14 sometime in mid February 2013, correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. So based upon your discussion with your GIS
17 experts and your knowledge as the planning manager, these 18 maps were more than likely available online in March 2013,
19 correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 (Defendants' Exhibit E was marked
22 for identification.)

23 BY MR. GUNNERSON:

24 Q. I'm handing you what I've marked as Exhibit E.
25 What it is is it's a handful of screen shots from the

1 Q. So it's instantaneous?

2 A. It is.

3 Q. Thank you.

4 Now, you had also discussed the hearing process
5 regarding planning meetings and city council meetings
6 regarding zoning changes.

7 Are you aware of instances where people have tried
8 to communicate directly with the planning department about 9 zoning changes?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Were there any such communications in the case of 12 the rezoning for APN:178-28-520-001?

13 A. I did look at the staff report in the -- in the 14 back of documentation for that specifically to see who 15 received notices. And then the process is when we send out
16 our public hearing notices, we send them out on yellow
17 cards. And on that yellow card, it goes to whoever is the 18 owner of that property. And they can write -- there's check
19 boxes, I support I oppose. We had two of those yellow cards
20 submitted back to us and both of those were in support.

21 Q. Do you recall receiving any communication opposing 22 the change to the zoning for this lot?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Do you recall at any time between January 1st and 25 say July 1st, 2013, whether you or anyone at the planning

1 department had any communication with Barbara Rosenberg?

2 A. Not that I'm aware of. I -- I did not.

3 Q. Do you recall if you or anyone at the planning
4 department for the same time period, between January 1st,
5 and July 1st, 2013, received any communication from David
6 Rosenberg?

7 A. Not that I recall, no.

8 Q. And basically the same question. Do you know if 9 you or anyone at the planning department had any 10 communication from Fredric Rosenberg from January 1st to 11 July 1st, 2013?

12 A. No.

13 MR. DEVOY: I have nothing further.

14 FURTHER EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. GUNNERSON:

16 Q. I have one followup question.

17 Again, Spencer Gunnerson.

18 When the map is available -- you've talked about
19 it being available up front at the front desk.

20 Just to confirm, I don't know if we got this in 21 the record yet.

22 Once it's at the front desk, it's available to 23 anyone who walks in and wants to view it, correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 MR. GUNNERSON: I have nothing further.

DEPOSITION OF BARBARA ROSENBERG

Taken on Monday, December 8, 2014
By a Certified Court Reporter
At 1:04 p.m.
At Akerman, LLP
1160 Town Center Drive, Suite 330
Las Vegas, Nevada

Reported By: Cindy Huebner, CCR 806

1 Q. What did you speak with your son about
2 regarding --

3 A. Just the general mechanics of a
4 deposition.

5 Q. Did you speak about any of the 6 substantive material issues in the litigation?

7 A. No.

8 MS. CLINE: Can you just give her more
9 information on what you mean by substantive
10 material issues?

11 MR. GUNNERSON: That's fine.

12 BY MR. GUNNERSON:

13 Q. Have you spoken to anyone else besides
14 your husband or your son?

15 A. Aside from my lawyers?

16 Q. Of course. Not including your 17 lawyers.

18 A. Not that I can think of.

19 Q. What do you do for a living?

20 A. I am a realtor.

21 Q. How long have you been a realtor?

22 A. About 25 years.

23 Q. And is that a realtor in California?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Do you have a real estate license in

1 BY MR. GUNNERSON:

2 Q. Do you own any other homes besides
3 your home at Via la Cuesta and the subject
4 property?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Where else do you own a home?

7 A. We own Lairmont.

8 Q. You are talking about 590 Lairmont in
9 MacDonald Highlands?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. For the purposes of this deposition,
12 if I just call that the subject property, would 13 that be sufficient to understand what we are 14 talking about?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Other than the subject property and 17 your property at Via la Cuesta, where else do
18 you own a home?

19 A. We own a home in Los Alamitos,
20 California, we own two condos in Manhattan
21 Beach, and a house in Hermosa Beach.

22 MS. CLINE: Just to clarify, you are
23 asking whether or not the Rosenbergs themselves
24 or the Rosenberg Trust?

25 MR. GUNNERSON: That's a great point.

1 BY MR. GUNNERSON:

2 Q. Because the Plaintiff in this case is
3 the trust and yet often times the trust don't do
4 things, normally people who are parties to the 5 trust are the ones that do things. I will be 6 better clarifying it.

7 At this point, let me differentiate
8 between the two. The homes and properties you
9 just told me about, are those homes owned by the 10 Rosenbergs themselves or by the trust?

11 A. Some are owned by the trust and some 12 are just by the Rosenbergs, and I really don't 13 know which right now.

14 Q. That's fair.

15 Of the other properties you informed
16 me of the Los Alamitos, the Manhattan Beach, and 17 the Hermosa Beach properties, are any of those 18 on golf courses?

19 A. No.

20 Q. When did you first begin looking for 21 property in Nevada?

22 A. We first started thinking about it in 23 2009.

24 Q. What was the reason for starting to 25 think about property purchases in Nevada?

1 Q. Were you the sole drafter of the 2 letter?

3 A. I was the main drafter of the letter.

4 Q. The second paragraph says, "Based on 5 the current conditions of the home, the view is 6 not facing the Las Vegas Strip." What were you
7 meaning by that?

8 A. There is a head-on Las Vegas Strip
9 view where you look out your window and bam,
10 there is the view. This is not a bam,
11 straight-out Las Vegas Strip view. This is a 12 beautiful view of the strip, but it is not in 13 your face.

14 Q. When you say the view is not facing
15 the Las Vegas Strip, it doesn't mean there is 16 not a view of the Strip, only that it doesn't
17 directly face the Strip; is that correct?

18 A. Exactly.

19 Q. You also state in that same sentence,
20 if you go on, "The home next door is halfway
21 built (bank owned)," and then it says, "The 22 piece of land next door will be starting 23 construction soon." Do you see that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. That piece of land next door, are you

1 referring to the Malek property at --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Let me finish.

4 Were you referring to the Malek
5 property at 594 Lairmont Place?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How did you know the construction
8 would be starting soon?

9 A. Well, he had bought the lot. I
10 assumed that he was going to build on it.

11 Q. You hadn't spoken to him or anybody
12 else about construction timing for the Malek
13 property?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You didn't know if he was going to be
16 flipping the property or sitting on it for a
17 long time without building, you didn't know what 18 he was going to do with it, correct, at the time
19 you drafted the letter?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. You hadn't spoken to the HOA or the 22 developer about Malek's plans to develop the 23 property, correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. At this time?

1 grouping on which it was provided.

2 BY MR. GUNNERSON:

3 Q. Did you get a chance to look at those?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Are all of these emails true and
6 correct copies of emails in which you were
7 either the sender of the email or the receiver
8 of the email?

9 A. It appears so.

10 Q. If we could go on to the first page --
11 it appears if you go three pages down to what is 12 on the bottom that says PLTF 3304, it looks like 13 if you glance at these, this appears to be where 14 you are trying to find the right contact,
15 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And then in fact, while you are in 18 that process, the email you received at the 19 bottom of that page from Elana Escobar states,
20 "Good morning, Lisa -- actually, this isn't an 21 email to you. It is to you but it is addressed
22 to Lisa and you are copied on it. "Good
23 morning, Lisa. This is a Bank of America
24 property. It is not listed at this time."

25 Is that what it states?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. On February 21, 2013, it was not
3 listed, right?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. At the top of that page, it states
6 Kelli Barrington is going to be the contact on 7 the file, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. If you go to the next page, it
10 identifies PLTF 3294 -- actually, that appears
11 to be similar emails to what we just looked at.
12 So let's go to the first page, PLTF 3311. If 13 you look at the email sent by Kelli Barrington,
14 it states, "At this time, the seller is not 15 ready to negotiate offers." Do you see that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And that they anticipated completion
18 of their due diligence and marketing
19 preparations to be completed within the next few 20 weeks at the latest, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And she states she will contact you
23 when they are ready to begin negotiations,
24 correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 BY MR. GUNNERSON:

2 Q. I have handed you what has been marked
3 as Exhibit G. Do you see that?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. Do you know what that is?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Is this a true and correct copy of an 8 email from Kelli to you and then from you to 9 Kelli regarding the 590 Lairmont Place property?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Is that a yes?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And it appears in the first email
14 that -- it appears in the email above from you
15 to Kelli, it appears you are reaching out to 16 find out when they are going to start
17 negotiations; is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. That was on Tuesday, March 5th,
20 correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And then on Exhibit H, is this also a
23 true and correct copy of an email from you to 24 Kelli Barrington?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. This is the next day on March 6th,
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. It states here you have been
5 attempting to contact her, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. You state in your email, "I left three 8 messages at your office to call me as to the 9 progress of Lairmont." Do you recall that?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Do you recall leaving those messages?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. How often were you leaving messages
14 with her regarding this property?

15 A. I was not getting responses and I am
16 very serious about the property.

17 Q. And in fact, you stated at the end of 18 your email, "We would like to take the next step
19 to acquire the property," correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. If you go to Exhibit I, is this also a
22 true and correct copy of an email from Kelli
23 Barrington to you from March 7, 2013?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And in her email to you, it states,

1 "When we talked previously -- this is on the
2 second line -- I indicated that this process
3 could take several weeks," and then is this her
4 way of telling you don't worry, we are still
5 working on it, it is just taking time?

6 A. I don't know what she intended by 7 saying that.

8 Q. How did you take that? What did you
9 take she was telling you with that?

10 A. I took it as to understand that she 11 understood that I had sincere interest in the 12 property and she would get back to me as soon as 13 I would be able to pursue acquiring the
14 property.

15 Q. And then a couple lines down, it says,
16 "Due to the restrictions in this neighborhood,
17 you will need to work with a realtor." Do you
18 see that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was this the first time you recall
21 being informed that you are going to need to 22 work with a realtor or had you known that prior 23 to this email, if you recall? If you don't 24 recall, that's fine.

25 A. I don't recall -- actually, in the

1 parcels, which is what I was calling the bare
2 lot, which as you can see from Paragraph 17 is
3 the .34 acre portion that was a part of Golf
4 Course 9 which was purchased by Malek. Are we 5 on the same page?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. On Number 18, it says, "Situated on 8 the golf parcel were certain easements." Do you
9 see that?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What easements are you claiming were 12 on the golf parcel?

13 A. I don't know. I am not an attorney.

14 Q. So you don't know what this is 15 referring to when it says there were easements
16 on the golf parcel?

17 A. No.

18 Q. You are a real estate agent, correct?

19 A. Yes, but I am not an attorney. This 20 is a legal document.

21 Q. That is okay. You are a real estate
22 agent, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And as a real estate agent, you looked 25 at many title reports?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. When you look at title reports, do you
3 look at easements on the title reports?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You understand what an easement is?

6 A. I know what an easement is.

7 Q. Without looking at this then, just me
8 asking you, are you claiming there are certain
9 easements on the bare lot or what is referenced
10 in your complaint as the golf parcel?

11 A. I don't know what is meant here
12 because I am not a lawyer. I know what an 13 easement is. I know what it does, but I don't 14 know what it is claiming here.

15 Q. Let's get away from the complaint real
16 quick. I just want to know you personally, do
17 you have any -- let me phrase this correctly.

18 Are you aware personally of any
19 easements on the bare lot?

20 A. I would assume there is an easement
21 because it is part of the golf course and can't 22 be used to build.

23 Q. You assume there are certain easements
24 on there. Do you think there is a restriction
25 for building an easement on that property?

1 A. It has to do with in terms of Bank of
2 America, it has to do not with his purchasing it
3 but their failure to tell us about his
4 purchasing it.

5 Q. Fair enough. Thank you.

6 Is there anything else other than
7 that?

8 A. There might be. I don't know.

9 Q. You are unaware of anything else,
10 because this is your chance to tell me if there
11 is. Are you aware of anything else?

12 A. No, not right this minute.

13 Q. Hopefully, it is before we end the 14 deposition because we need to proceed
15 accordingly.

16 Let's go to the sixth claim for relief
17 which is real estate broker's violations of NRS
18 645. Again, this is an attempt to clarify
19 because what is stated here is that it is on the 20 newer version which I think is fairly identical
21 to the older one. It states that in Number 104, 22 do you see that?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Defendants MacDonald Highlands Realty
25 and Michael Doiron violated the duties and

1 obligations as defined in NRS 645.252 and
2 additional provisions of NRS 645.

3 I don't know if you know this or not,
4 but I have to ask. Do you know what additional 5 provisions of NRS 645 were violated by the 6 realty company and Michael Doiron?

7 A. No, but my attorneys do.

8 Q. Your attorneys know but you do not?

9 A. No.

10 Q. So I will have to ask them.

11 A. Good idea.

12 Q. You are unaware of any other
13 provisions sitting here today, correct?

14 A. Any other provisions?

15 Q. Let me ask you this: Back to what we 16 were talking about in 104, you said your
17 attorneys would know, and I want to make sure I
18 have your knowledge. You are not aware of any 19 additional provisions, are you?

20 A. I don't know what NRS 645 is. I don't
21 know what 645.252 is. I am not a lawyer.

22 Q. That is fair enough.

23 So the answer would be you do not know
24 what other provisions are violated?

25 A. That's correct.

1 A. I am not a golfer. I don't know.

2 Q. In fact, if you were to view it today,
3 it appears to be raw desert land; is that
4 correct?

5 A. It looks -- yeah, I guess.

6 Q. You say you are not a golfer. Do you
7 know if that land is inbounds or out of bounds
8 for the 9th hole?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. So if that bare lot was out of bounds
11 for the hole, then wouldn't you agree that
12 selling that property to Malek would not be a
13 sale of the 9th hole because it is out of bounds
14 of the 9th hole?

15 A. I don't know what he is going to do
16 there, so I don't know how it is going to affect
17 the 9th hole. I don't know what they would say
18 how they would have to reconfigure it based on
19 what he was doing, so I don't know. You are 20 asking me will it purely stay the way it is. I
21 have no idea.

22 Q. That is not what I am asking.

23 What I am asking is does the sale of
24 that desert land which may be outside the
25 out-of-bounds markers for the hole, will that

1 lis pendens on the same property, 594 Lairmont?

2 A. I don't know about that.

3 Q. Speaking generally about the lis
4 pendens, and speaking both the amended original
5 lis pendens collectively as a lis pendens, do
6 you know why you filed a lis pendens on Malek's
7 property?

8 A. I think because of the new piece of 9 property, to try to stop him from building on 10 the new piece of property.

11 Q. You are a real estate agent. You know
12 what a lis pendens is, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. You know the effect a lis pendens
15 could have on a piece of property?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. You filed it for the purposes of 18 keeping him from constructing on the new
19 property?

20 A. We filed it because we felt what he 21 was doing was illegal.

22 Q. And the collateral effect of filing a
23 lis pendens is that you believe he could not
24 build on the property while it was pending?

25 MS. CLINE: Objection. Calls for

1 speculation, form.

2 MR. DEVOI: I am only asking for her
3 state of mind at the time she filed --

4 THE WITNESS: I am not a lawyer.

5 BY MR. DEVOI:

6 Q. You were not unhappy that a lis
7 pendens would have kept him from building on the
8 property?

9 A. I would not be unhappy, no.

10 Q. And you are aware that the lis pendens
11 was discharged by the court, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You mentioned earlier that disclosure
14 is a big issue, you said you would have lost
15 your license in California if you had not 16 disclosed something of this character. Have you
17 ever had any complaints arising from 18 circumstances arising after you sold a house to 19 someone?

20 A. After I sold a house?

21 Q. Yes.

22 A. No.

23 Q. Are you aware of any clients you had 24 during the course of your career that had their 25 property values decline after you sold them the

DEPOSITION OF SHAHIN SHANE MALEK

Taken at the Law Offices of

1055 Whitney Ranch Drive, Suite 110
Henderson, Nevada 89014

On Tuesday, January 27, 2015
At 1:02 p.m.

Reported by: Leah D. Armendariz, CCR No. 921

1 MR. DEVOY: I want to object about
2 misstating former testimony about not finding
3 anything he liked.

4 You still have to answer the question.

5 THE WITNESS: Okay.

6 BY MS. HANKS:

7 Q. It's okay. I'll go ahead and repeat. I'm 8 just kind of summarizing what you said just to make
9 sure I understood.

10 My understanding is you had -- you and
11 your wife had looked for homes in the community,
12 couldn't really find anything that you cared for or 13 liked so you thought about building your own home?

14 A. We decided if we build, we could probably 15 incorporate all the things that we needed into the 16 home.

17 Q. Sure. And at some point, you were talking
18 to an agent at Blue Heron who was explaining she had 19 a client that had bought a parcel or a lot in 20 MacDonald Highlands and was looking to sell it?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And thought that you might be interested
23 in it?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And it's your understanding that's the

1 594 Lairmont that you eventually purchased?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, you indicate she also mentioned
4 something about he was going to buy another parcel
5 to extend it?

6 MR. DEVOY: Objection. Vague.

7 You still have to answer.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 BY MS. HANKS:

10 Q. And what was your understanding of what 11 other parcel?

12 A. Well, there was a vacant piece of golf
13 course in front of the building -- in front of the 14 other lot. Not the building, I apologize. In front
15 of the other lot, that was separated from trees from 16 the actual golf course. It was just vacant land
17 that was just sitting there.

18 Q. Okay. And the conversation you had with 19 her, it was her understanding based on her
20 communications with her client that he was thinking
21 about purchasing that?

22 A. Yeah, I think that was her plan -- that 23 was their plan.

24 Q. Okay. But at the time, you were talking
25 to him, he had not owned it, correct?

1 year -- January, February the following year.

2 Q. January, February 2013?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what -- when you say the area had to 5 be rezoned, what was your understanding of what the 6 area was zoned for at the time before you purchased
7 it?

8 MR. DEVOY: Objection. Vague as to what 9 the area is.

10 You can answer if you understand.

11 THE WITNESS: I think I understand.

12 You're talking about the golf parcel?

13 BY MS. HANKS:

14 Q. Golf parcel.

15 A. It was called a golf parcel, so I'm 16 assuming it was as part -- you know, as part of the 17 golf course.

18 Q. And when they said they rezoned it, it was 19 your understanding they were rezoning it to what?

20 A. To be residential.

21 Q. Did anyone explain to you -- I know you
22 understood there was going to be a hearing of some 23 sort. Did anyone explain to you that notice would 24 be sent to other lot owners within the community
25 about the rezoning?
