Denise McKay, Esq., also present on behalf of the Nevada Department of Corrections. Captain Michael See present on behalf of the Metropolitan Police Department.

Court stated that it placed this matter on calendar to determine the readiness of counsel as there may be a potential conflict with the Court's trial schedule as there is another trial, a longer term pending murder case, that is set for the week before which will overlap with this case. Mr. Langford advised the Court that the psychologist may need to meet with the deft. several times over a two week period, therefore, given where the deft. is being housed, requested that the deft. be remanded to the Clark County Detention Center to allow for access to the deft. Colloquy. Ms. McKay advised the Court that she has spoken with the Warden's secretary and was advised that maximum security inmates have two visiting days a week and will only need a minimum of 24 hour notice so that the attorneys can visit on any day; further, inquiry was also made regarding access for physician's, psychologists and psychiatrists and was told that they would need to be pre-approved. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Geinzer stated that the Clark County Detention Center does not have any problems housing the deft., however, there is an issue if it's a prolonged amount of time. Colloquy between Court, counsel and Captain See regarding housing and the amount of access that counsel will have to the deft. Court stated that what's going to drive the train here in terms of when this motion will be granted and to what extent the time frame will be that the deft. will be back in Las Vegas at the Clark County Detention Center; the Court does not believe that it has the authority to order within the State prison system where the deft. is to be housed and believes that is in the purview of the state prison system but in terms of ordering the deft. to be present in this jurisdiction in order for counsel to have access necessary to prepare for trial, the Court believes that it does fall within its purview to commission the deft. back to the Clark County Detention Center. Conference at the Bench. Court further stated that it will review this case and the concerns and will then determine when the trial will proceed, therefore, ORDERED, the deft. will return to Ely State Prison and the Court will notify counsel if a new date will be set but if it's simply a scheduling determination, counsel will be notified by way of a minute order. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Deft's Motion for Discovery is OFF CALENDAR at this time.

- Following a conference at the Bench, COURT NOTED, Defendant is in custody at the Clark County Detention Center (CCDC) from now until the trial date.

Mr. Stanton advised the Court that no discovery issues have arisen since the last hearing on March 11, 2015; however, the parties have scheduled a day-long vault review. Mr. Stanton noted there are several motions filed by the defense calendared for April 27, 2015; and requested those be rescheduled to coincide with the next Status Check to ensure the parties have ample to file the appropriate replies. Mr. Ericsson concurred, and requested the Defendant's previous Motion to Compel Discovery be heard at that time, as it was taken off calendar in October 2014.

COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED; Motions calendared for April 27, 2015 shall be RESCHEDULED to the Status Check date. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Mr. Ericsson to file a reply as to the discovery motion as soon as possible, and narrow down the specific items the defense believes are in dispute.

Mr. Ericsson noted that Mr. Langford is handling the direct appeal aspect, and the State will not introduce any reference to the post-conviction with this matter, due to an on-going appeal. Mr. Ericsson further advised that another Motion to Exclude that conviction from Defendant's previous trial will be filed. COURT NOTED, the parties were aware of the potential downside of that case proceeding before this matter, as a possible aggravator; and FURTHER ORDERED, counsel to file the appropriate motion.

- COURT NOTED, it appears the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDC) is not complying with previous orders that Defendant is not to be transported for preliminary hearings, as per his request.

As to the jury questionnaires, Mr. Stanton advised the Court that all of the items in highlighted in red have been agreed upon by counsel to be redacted, and stricken; further, everything highlighted in green is in dispute. Mr. Ericsson concurred with counsel's representations, however, argued that the questions in dispute are appropriate, and will be asked directly of the potential jurors if stricken; and allowing their admittance will aid in speeding up the selection process. COURT SO NOTED and ORDERED, a final decision will be made today; counsel will be provided a final version of the questionnaire from Chambers.

Defendant advised the Court he wants to be present for the motions calendared on Thursday, August 27, 2015. COURT SO NOTED, and ORDERED, Defendant shall remain at CCDC, or in Clark County throughout the duration of trial. Following a colloquy between the Court and counsel regarding Thursday's hearing, Mr. Stanton advised Mr. Langford and Ms. Weckerly have a trial starting this week. COURT DIRECTED counsel to confer with each other, and advise Chambers as soon as possible with a date that will work for all parties, if the motions need to be reset. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, the October 12, 2015 trial date will not be rescheduled.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- As to Defendant's Motion to Exclude Still Cameras, TV Cameras and Media Microphones from the Courtroom:

Mr. Ericsson submitted on the briefing. State noted no standing in the matter; however, added that the media was not properly served by the defense. COURT NOTED, there are certain factors to review, in addition to considering a decorum order which will notify all parties and the media. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED; State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Federalize All Motions, Objections, Requests, and Other Applications:

Parties submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE, noting the Court will be mindful of other requests a tenet to this motion, and will be dealt with during trial. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Preclude the State from Admitting Into Evidence Photographs or Videos Which Are Unduly Prejudicial and/or Cumulative:

Mr. Ericsson requested the State present its proposed pictures or videos to allow the defense an opportunity to make an early objection to be determined by the Court. Mr. Stanton stated there are approximately 200 to 300 graphic photographs to be admitted; and the legal causation of the victims' deaths is important for the State to develop in the record. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE, noting it is premature at this time. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Preclude the Consideration of Victim Impact Evidence Pursuant to NRS 175.552, 200.033 and 200.035:

Parties submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED, and NOTED this matter is too narrow, Nevada case law has evolved, and it has been determined to be relevant and pertinent. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Bifurcate Penalty Phase:

Mr. Ericsson argued that there is no logical way that conducting this phase in this manner will take longer; and argued it is more prejudicial and inflammatory that does not relate to a statutory aggravator. Opposition by the State, arguing that bifurcation is unworkable in practicality. Further argument by Mr. Ericsson. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED; State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion in Limine to Prohibit Any References to the Trial Phase as the "Guilt Phase":

Counsel submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED, noting it is typical to admonish in advance that the State agrees it will minimize the use of those terms and terminology; and it should not be used where it can be avoided. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Preclude the State from Seeking the Death Penalty on Counts 2 and 3:

Counsel submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED; State to prepare individual order and include that the Court found its arguments persuasive.

As to Defendant's Motion to Consolidate Counts 5-11 and Companion Motion to Consolidate the Allegations in the State's Notice of Intent to Seek the Death Penalty:

Counsel submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE, as there is no support for the argument at this time; however, this issue will be determined if/when Defendant is convicted. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Prohibit the Use of Peremptory Challenges to Exclude Jurors Who Express Concerns About Capital Punishment:

Counsel submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED; and NOTED, there is no legal basis for this Court to direct that peremptory challenges could not be used in this way. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Preclude the Prosecution from Questioning Prospective Jurors About Their Attitudes Toward the Death Penalty:

Counsel submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED; as the case law is clear, the Nevada Supreme Court (NSC) has previously rejected this and that there is ample guidance that these inquiries need to be made to ensure a fair and impartial panel is seated. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Require the State of Nevada to Articulate Reasons for Exercising Peremptory Challenges Upon Any Member of a Protected Class:

Counsel submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE, and NOTED this matter will be dealt with accordingly during jury selection. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion for Disqualification From the Jury Venire All Potential Jurors Who Would Automatically Vote for the Death Penalty if the Found Defendant Guilty of First Degree Murder:

Mr. Ericsson submitted. State argued it is inappropriate to exclude them as a matter of law without the voir dire process occurring. COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED; noting out of an abundance of caution if there is any doubt about a potential juror's opinion, the Court will bring him/her in for voir dire. State to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Compel Production of Criminal History Information:

Mr. Ericsson requested the State be ordered to provide the information if in its possession. Opposition by Mr. Stanton, arguing that that State may show copies of what exists to defense counsel, and he understands the State's obligation. COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED; State must disclose any crimes of moral turpitude or impeachment to the defense. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, defense counsel cannot have printed copies of any NCIC or related information. Mr. Ericsson to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Compel Disclosure of Information Relating to Aggravating and Mitigating Factors:

Court NOTED no opposition from the State; and ORDERED, motion GRANTED reciprocally. Mr. Ericsson to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion to Compel the Opposition by the State. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED; there is no legal basis or process to compel said production. Mr. Ericsson to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion for Discovery and Evidentiary Hearing Regarding the Manner and Method of Determining in Which Murder Cases the Death Penalty Will be Sought:

Parties submitted. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED, as it is not unconstitutional for the State to exercise its discretion to seek the death penalty; and it is up to the jury to determine if Defendant is eligible. Mr. Ericsson to prepare individual order.

As to Defendant's Motion for Discovery (Not on Calendar):

Court NOTED, there is an on-going obligation for exculpatory and inculpatory information to be provided. Upon the Court's inquiry, Mr. Ericsson requested this matter be heard at a later date, as the parties have a file review scheduled for next week, and after that, counsel will be better suited to apprise the Court as to any outstanding discovery. State concurred. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED to September 30, 2015.

Mr. Ericsson advised the Court that Defendant's sister recently passed away and his mother is extremely distraught; however, her testimony is critical, should this matter proceed to the penalty phase. Mr. Ericsson further advised he intends to speak with her this weekend. COURT NOTED if Defendant is found guilty, the penalty phase will occur in November.

Mr. Ericsson inquired as to the mittens Defendant wears when making court appearances. COURT ORDERED, Defendant will not be required to wear the mittens at future hearings, and he will be dressed appropriately at trial with no restraints. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Status Check CONTINUED.

- As to the State's Motion to Strike Defense Expert - Norton Roitmen (Calendared for October 5, 2015):

Mr. Stanton advised the Court that the State is concerned about the detail and lack of specifics as to what Mr. Roitmen will testify; further, the defense says he is a guilt-phase witness. Mr. Stanton further advised that another notice for expert witness was filed on September 25, 2015 as to Shera Bradley, whom the defense says is a penalty-phase witness; both Mr. Roitmen and Ms. Bradley are not an impediment to trial, however.

Mr. Ericsson advised the Court that he provided all of Mr. Roitmen's materials to the State; and will be sending over the finalized report tomorrow or Friday. As to Ms. Bradley's supplement, Mr. Ericsson stated he will have that provided as soon as possible.

COURT SO NOTED, and DIRECTED Mr. Ericsson to expedite that data as quickly as possible, as this Court's preference would be tomorrow, Thursday, October 1, 2015 as opposed to Friday, October 2, 2015.

As to Defendant's Motion for Brady, Kyles, Giglio, and Related Discovery Materials:

Mr. Stanton advised the Court that the State has discs with hundreds of photographs, however, they may not have all of them, as counsel is unable to make any representations as to the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (LVMPD's) event numbers. Upon the Court's inquiry, Mr. Stanton advised that everything the State has in its possession, the defense has, or has had an opportunity to review it.

Mr. Ericsson noted that he has received many letters from the LVMPD, stating the defense must go through the State to obtain any information; however, the parties do have a file review scheduled for today at 3:00 pm.

COURT ORDERED, the State is not required to print any NCIC records, however, will be required to make the information available for the defense; COURT FURTHER ORDERED, State and defense to disclose and identify any jail calls intended to be used. FURTHER, the Court will issue the discovery order by tomorrow, Thursday, October 1, 2015 at the latest.

- Ms. Weckerly advised the Court that discovery has been provided to the defense as to Shera Bradley, therefore, that matter is no longer an issue. Ms. Weckerly cited the "Pineda" case, and advised that the law precludes an expert from testifying for a criminal defendant as to state of mind; however, the defense has indicated their expert would not participate in such testimony, therefore, the State has no basis for this Motion at this time.

Mr. Ericsson concurred, and noted he does not anticipate Norton Roitmen will testify as to Defendant's mental state; however, he will give general workings of the mind, as well as the mental and physiological effects of various drugs alcohol.

COURT NOTED as long as Norton Roitmen does not attempt to testify on behalf of Defendant, the Court will consider this Motion premature; and ORDERED, DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE, to be readdressed at trial during testimony, if need be.

As to the jury questionnaires, COURT ADMONISHED counsel to comply with the information requested by the Court accordingly; and NOTED, the Court will issue its ruling regarding a definitive list of excusals and the outstanding Discovery Motion today. Conference at the Bench.

Mr. Langford advised the Court that Defendant has elected to not be present for any portion of the penalty phase hearing, despite it being against counsel's advice. Mr. Stanton requested that the Court ensure Defendant is aware of his right to allocute to the jury. Upon the Court's inquiry, Defendant stated he understands his rights and stands by his decision to not be present going forward. COURT NOTED, an instruction will be given to the jury at the beginning of today's proceeding that they are not to be concerned with Defendant's presence, or lack thereof.

Following arguments by counsel regarding a mistrial due to the error on the verdict form, COURT ORDERED, the jury will not inquired further, they will not deliberate further, and the verdict form will not be corrected; as the instructions were clear, they were fully instructed as to all possibilities of determination they could make of Defendant's guilt or innocence. COURT FURTHER NOTED, the lack of a "Manslaughter" option was inadvertently excluded; however, that is not grounds to grant a mistrial; and ORDERED, Defendant's oral Motion for Mistrial DENIED.

Upon further inquiry of the Court, Defendant advised he has not changed his mind; and does not want to be present for the penalty hearing. COURT SO NOTED, and ORDERED, Defendant EXCUSED from the Courtroom.
