

1 The Appellant made several unsuccessful attempts but was unable to file the Appendix
2 prior to the July 5th deadline.
3

4 The Appellant attempted to file the Fast Track Statement on July 5, but had to fix
5 numerous typing and formatting errors. Eventually, at around 3:00 a.m. on Wednesday,
6 July 6, Appellant's counsel, Mr. Radford Smith, Esq. after fixing all the formatting and 7 typographical errors, attempted to was able to submit the Fast Track Statement for filing.
8

9 While he attached all the pages necessary for the Fast Track Statement (cover page, table
10 of contents, table of authorities, brief, and verification), he did not click on the "submit"
11 button for the final submission of the brief. As a result, the brief was not filed. On July 6, 12 the Appellant's counsel, Ms. Kimberly Medina, Esq. noticed that the brief had not been 13 filed. She then re-filed it. The Brief was, however, rejected because it still did not 14 comply with NRAP 3E(e)(1) requirements. Appellant has now fixed the errors and seeks 15 a two-day extension until July 7, 2016 to file the Fast Track Statement and Appendix.
16

17 This motion is being submitted in good faith, and without the intent to cause undue delay
18 in the appeal.
