DEPUTY CLERK

3. Appellant further agrees, that she may appear in proper person, as permitted under NRAP 46A.

4. Appellant further agrees and acknowledges that there is a huge benefit of having an attorney to assist in any legal action, especially one before the Nevada Supreme Court of Nevada. However, Appellant does not have the financial means to pay for a qualified and experienced appellant attorney to prosecute this appeal.

5. Appellant further agrees and acknowledges that she has reviewed the mandated rules, procedures, and policies that govern this appeal.

6. Appellant further agrees and acknowledges that she has a duty to meet the mandated requirements while appearing and proceeding in proper person during this instant action before the Nevada Supreme Court.

7. Appellant request this Honorable Court pursuant to NRAP 40(b)(3) to allow her to file petition for rehearing in Proper Person in excess of 4,667 words. This case is sufficiently extraordinary and compelling to justify the additional length.

8. Appellant request this Honorable Court to give her addition extension of 14 days to file petition for rehearing.

THEREFORE;

Appellant hereby agrees and approves to the substitution of,
