NOTICE

Dollar Loan has filed a request for rehearing of this Court’s recent decision objecting to the “portion of Footnote 2 stating that ‘original loans can’t be made pursuant to NRS 604A.480(2).’”<sup>1</sup> Appellant previously has acknowledged that the “parties did not litigate the issue of whether an original loan can be issued under NRS 604A.480(2), and takes no position on that issue in this case.”<sup>2</sup> Appellant has not changed its position and therefore does not take a position regarding the “very narrow” relief now requested by Dollar Loan—namely, that the Court “remove” the phrase “original loans can’t be made pursuant to NRS 604A.480(2).”<sup>3</sup>

But if the Court were to grant that relief, Appellant reiterates what it said in its Notice of Clarification (filed June 8, 2017): that this Court should make clear that, consistent with the logic and reasoning in its recent decision, the civil remedies bar in NRS 604A.480(2)(f) applies equally to an “original loan” issued under NRS 604A.480(2), as it does to a “refinance loan” issued under NRS 604A.480(2). In short, the civil remedies bar applies to all Subsection 2 loans, regardless of how they are originated.

Respectfully submitted this 29th day of January 2018.
