DOCKETING STATEMENT CIVIL APPEALS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Appellants must complete this docketing statement in compliance with NRAP 14(a). The purpose of the docketing statement is to assist the Supreme Court in screening jurisdiction, identifying issues on appeal, assessing presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, scheduling cases for oral argument and settlement conferences, classifying cases for expedited treatment and assignment to the Court of Appeals, and compiling statistical information.

WARNING

This statement must be completed fully, accurately and on time. NRAP 14(c). The Supreme Court may impose sanctions on counsel or appellant if it appears that the information provided is incomplete or inaccurate. Id. Failure to fill out the statement completely or to file it in a timely manner constitutes grounds for the imposition of sanctions, including a fine and/or dismissal of the appeal.

A complete list of the documents that must be attached appears as Question 27 on this docketing statement. Failure to attach all required documents will result in the delay of your appeal and may result in the imposition of sanctions.

This court has noted that when attorneys do not take seriously their obligations under NRAP 14 to complete the docketing statement properly and conscientiously, they waste the valuable judicial resources of this court, making the imposition of sanctions appropriate. See KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 344, 810 P.2d 1217, 1220 (1991). Please use tab dividers to separate any attached documents.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND AND HISTORY

KVR proposes to develop a molybdenum mine, also known as the Mount Hope Mine Project, to be located in Eureka County, Nevada. The Mount Hope Mine Project will be one of the largest primary molybdenum mines in the world. The development and operation of the mine will greatly enhance the economic development efforts of the State of Nevada and provide substantial tax revenue for Eureka County. Almost $300 million dollars has already been invested in this effort and it is expected that when the mine is operational, it will employ about 400 people in full-time positions. This Court, in its March 9, 2016, order, denied water rights that are required for this project to succeed.

To develop the mine, several water applications were filed with the State Engineer to appropriate new water rights and change the point of diversion, place of use, and/or manner of use of existing water rights (collectively hereinafter "Applications").¹ The applications sought a total combined duty of 11,300 afa of groundwater for mining and milling purposes associated with the proposed mine. The Applications were protested by various parties including Eureka County.

KVR has expended significant time and resources in pursuit of the Applications, including three separate trips through this Court. In October 2008, the State Engineer conducted five days of hearings on the applications and, six months later, issued a ruling granting most of them. Eureka County and other protesters appealed that determination. This Court subsequently vacated the ruling and remanded the case back to the State Engineer for additional proceedings. The State Engineer conducted a second round of hearings in December 2010 and May 2011. On July 5, 2011 the State Engineer issued Ruling 6127 granting KVR 11,300 afa of groundwater rights. The Ruling was conditioned on the submission of a monitoring, management, and mitigation plan (hereinafter "3M Plan").

The Protestants again appealed the State Engineer's grant of the Applications. While the appeal was pending, in October 2011, KVR submitted a draft 3M Plan to the State Engineer. Although 3M Plans are regularly prepared in conjunction with large water rights projects, there is no statute or ¹ The Applications were filed by a variety of individuals and entities. Those Applications not filed by KVR were later assigned and/or transferred to KVR.

1 regulation which governs the development of such plans. Applicants rely heavily on the direction and 2 guidance of the State Engineer regarding how a plan should be drafted.

3 Accordingly, during the process of developing the plan, KVR met with the State Engineer to 4 discuss the draft plan's sufficiency. In reliance on the guidance provided by the State Engineer, KVR
5 revised the draft 3M Plan and submitted its final plan on May 10, 2012.

6 In June 2012, the State Engineer approved the final 3M Plan. At about the same time, on June
7 13, 2012, this Court upheld the findings and conclusions of the State Engineer in Ruling 6127. In July
8 2012, Protestants also appealed the State Engineer's approval of the final 3M Plan to this Court and on 9 May 15, 2013, this Court upheld the State Engineer's approval of the 3M Plan.

10 This Court's approvals of the State Engineer's determinations were appealed to the Nevada
11 Supreme Court and the two appeals were consolidated into a single appeal. After briefing and argument, 12 the Supreme Court reversed and remanded the case to this Court. In the order of reversal and remand, 13 the Supreme Court specifically declined to answer the question of whether "the State Engineer has 14 authority to grant an application that conflicts with existing rights based on a determination that the 15 applicant will be able to mitigate" the conflict.² Instead the Supreme Court found that the specific 3M
16 Plan approved by the State Engineer "is not supported by sufficient evidence that successful mitigation 17 effort may be undertaken so as to dispel the threat to the existing rights holders."³

18 The standards for 3M Plans adopted by the Supreme Court in the decision were unprecedented
19 and, therefore, unknown to both KVR and the State Engineer at the time the plan was drafted and 20 approved. Neither KVR nor the State Engineer could have reasonably anticipated that the final 3M Plan 21 would be required to comply with such standards.

22 On March 9, 2016, this Court entered its Amended Order Granting Objection to Proposed Order
23 Remanding to State Engineer; Order Granting Petitions for Judicial Review; and Order Vacating
24 Permits. This Order effectively denies KVR's Applications outright, requires KVR to start over, and 25 makes it significantly more difficult, expensive, and time-consuming to acquire the water resources

28 ³ Id.

1 needed to develop the mine project.

2 KVR respectfully submits that this Courts March 9, 2016, Amended Order was issued in error
3 and, pursuant to NRCP 59(e), requests this Court alter or amend the order to allow the case to be 4 remanded to the State Engineer for the purpose of allowing KVR to submit evidence of its ability to 5 successfully mitigate conflicts and amend the 3M Plan to bring it into compliance with instructions
6 provided by the Supreme Court.

7 II. STANDARD OF REVIEW

8 NRCP 59(e) authorizes a party to file a motion requesting alteration or amendment of a judgment
9 within "10 days after service of written notice of entry of the judgment." Notice of Entry of Judgment in 10 this matter was filed on March 14, 2016. Since Rule 59(e) does not provide standards for granting a 11 motion to alter or amend a judgment, a district court enjoys considerable discretion in granting or 12 denying a Rule 59(e) motion.⁴ A district court's decision to grant or deny a motion for reconsideration is 13 reviewed under an abuse of discretion standard.⁵ "A district court may properly reconsider its decision if 14 it (1) is presented with newly discovered evidence, (2) committed clear error or the initial decision was 15 manifestly unjust, or (3) if there is an intervening change in controlling law."⁶

16 KVR respectfully submits that the March 9, 2016 order was issued in error and is manifestly
17 unjust in that it fails to allow KVR an adequate opportunity to amend the 3M Plan to render it compliant
18 with the newly articulated and wholly unprecedented standards adopted by the Nevada Supreme Court.

19 III. ARGUMENT

20 A. This Court erroneously concluded that the Supreme Court would have remanded
21 this case directly to the State Engineer if it had intended for further proceedings
22 to occur before the State Engineer.

23 This Court stated that "[t]he Nevada Supreme Court did not remand the cases to the State Engineer
24 for further proceedings consistent with its opinion which it could have done if the court concluded
25 additional administrative review and findings were necessary." However, the Supreme Court is not

26
27 ⁴ Stevo Design, Inc. v. SBR Marketing Ltd., 919 F.Supp.2d 1112, 1117 (D. Nev. 2013).

28 ⁵ Smith v. Clark County School Dist., 737 F.3d 950, 954 (9th Cir., 2013).

⁶ Id. at 955 (internal quotations and citations omitted).

1 empowered to remand issues directly to the State Engineer.⁷ Instead, in administrative appeals,
2 particularly when the Supreme Court wants an administrative agency to take substantive action consistent
3 with its instructions, the Supreme Court remands to a district court for that court to then remand to the 4 administrative agency.⁸

5 Given this long-standing practice, it would be quite extraordinary for the Supreme Court to 6 bypass a district court and remand a case directly to the State Engineer. When the Supreme Court
7 remanded this case back to this Court it did so for the purpose of having the Court conduct or order
8 "proceedings consistent with this order."⁹ Since a district court is only empowered by NRS 533.450 to 9 review the fact-finding proceedings conducted by the State Engineer, and not to conduct its own fact-
10 finding proceedings in the matter, an order for remand to the district court is effectively an order
11 requiring the district court to further remand the issue to the State Engineer for additional fact-finding.

12 In addition, the statement in the Supreme Court decision that "the State Engineer's decision to 13 grant KVR's applications cannot stand" must be read within its proper context.¹⁰ The Supreme Court
14 did not find that no 3M Plan can ever provide substantial evidence for a finding that impacts from 15 proposed pumping can be fully mitigated. It only held that this particular 3M Plan did not provide such 16 substantial evidence. This is the context for the quote.

17 What the Supreme Court effectively said was that if this particular 3M Plan is the only 18 substantial evidence supporting the State Engineer's determination, that determination cannot be upheld.
19 This opens the door for the development and implementation of a different 3M Plan on remand that 20 could provide substantial evidence supporting the State Engineer's approval of the permits. Given the 21 enormous negative economic impacts that will result from a complete denial of KVR's Applications,
22 KVR urges this Court to give it the opportunity to develop such a plan and provide evidence of its ability

1 to successfully mitigate conflicts without requiring it to start over.

2 B. KVR reasonably relied on the State Engineer's direction regarding the 3 development of the 3M Plan.

4 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that "the State Engineer has been charged with the statutory 5 duty of administering the complex system of water rights within the state. We believe that lay members
6 of the public are entitled to rely upon its advice as to the procedures to be followed under the state water
7 law."¹¹ As noted above, Nevada currently has no statute or regulation governing the development, 8 amendment, and implementation of 3M Plans. Accordingly, applicants who are required to submit such 9 plans must rely solely on the direction and guidance of the State Engineer as to what elements must be 10 included within such plans and what standards will be used to review a plan.

11 In accordance with the requirements of Ruling 6127, KVR submitted a draft 3M Plan for the 12 State Engineer to review and provide feedback.¹² A meeting was held between KVR and the State
13 Engineer for the specific purpose of receiving input from the State Engineer regarding the sufficiency of 14 the plan.¹³ Based on this guidance, KVR made revisions and submitted a final 3M Plan to the State
15 Engineer for approval.¹⁴ In addition, throughout the development of the plan, KVR consulted with 16 Eureka County and other Protestants to ensure that their concerns would be fully addressed.¹⁵ The final
17 3M Plan was approved by the State Engineer after more than a year of cooperation and collaboration
18 between KVR, the State Engineer, and the Protestants.

19 KVR's reliance on the State Engineer's advice and guidance as to the sufficiency of the 3M Plan 20 was reasonable given the fact that there was no statute, regulation, or precedential case law which 21 provided alternative direction as to what the plan should include or what standards would guide its 22 approval. In good-faith reliance on the State Engineer's advice, KVR diligently pursued the 23 development of the 3M Plan using the best resources available to it at the time. The Nevada Supreme 24 Court has clearly directed that an applicant "cannot be punished for the State Engineer's failure to follow his statutory duty.”¹⁶ The Supreme Court’s finding that the State Engineer failed to meet his statutory duty in approving the 3M Plan and the associated permits should not result in KVR being punished with the vacation of the permits. Rather, this Court should remand the case to the State Engineer to allow KVR to revise the 3M Plan to conform to the Supreme Court’s newly adopted standards.

C. The decision of the Nevada Supreme Court articulated new and unprecedented standards for the development of 3M Plans.

Prior to the Supreme Court’s decision, there was no statute, regulation, or case law that articulated the standards for approval of a 3M Plan developed in conjunction with an application to appropriate water. The adoption by the Supreme Court of the standard of review for 3M Plans is new and wholly unprecedented. There is simply no way that KVR could have known the standard that the Supreme Court would apply to its review of the plan before the rendering of the decision. If the State Engineer and KVR had known the Supreme Court would require a 3M Plan to be part of the original approval or to include more specific mitigation evidence, KVR would have done it. KVR should be given the opportunity to do that now.

This Court, on two prior occasions [Judges Papez and Thompson] affirmed the actions taken by the State Engineer. Given this, it is manifestly unjust to vacate the Permits before providing KVR an opportunity to amend the plan in a manner that will bring it into conformance with the Supreme Court’s directive.

D. This Court’s vacation of the KVR’s permits is manifestly unjust.

The denial of KVR’s Applications, as required by this Court’s Order, will have significant economic ramifications for the State of Nevada. KVR may lose the priority position of the Applications for the remaining water in Kobeh Valley. In the time since KVR’s Applications were filed, numerous entities, including Eureka County, have filed new applications to appropriate the groundwater sought by KVR. If KVR’s applications are denied, the water associated with those applications will be made available to these later-filed applications. This is a manifestly unjust result. A project of great economic significance to the State of Nevada should not be placed in jeopardy based on a failure of the 3M Plan to ¹⁶ Great Basin Water Network v. State Eng’r, ___ Nev. ___, ___, 234 P.3d 912, 920 (2010).

1 conform to a post-hoc standard articulated by the Supreme Court. Rather, KVR should be given a fair
2 opportunity to draft a plan that complies with the ruling of the Supreme Court before they are summarily
3 denied.

4 IV. CONCLUSION

5 For the reasons stated above, KVR respectfully requests this Court amend its Order to allow the 6 case to be remanded to the State Engineer for the purpose of providing KVR the opportunity to 7 address the issues raised by the Supreme Court and amend the 3M Plan to bring it into compliance
8 with the standards articulated the Supreme Court.

On May 20, 2013, petitioners MICHEL AND MARGARET ANN ETCHEVERRY FAMILY, LP, DIAMOND CATTLE COMPANY, LLC and KENNETH F. BENSON appealed this Court's findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order denying petitions for judicial

1 review, entered May 17, 2013 (Nevada Supreme Court case no. 63258). The appeal was 2 consolidated with the appeal in Nevada Supreme Court case no. 61324 for appellate 3 purposes. The court reversed and remanded the case for proceedings consistent with the 4 opinion.¹ The remittitur was issued on November 23, 2015.

5 On November 25, 2015, Kobeh Valley Ranch, LLC ("KVR") via email, submitted to 6 the court a proposed order remanding to State Engineer; on December 3, 2015, Eureka
7 County, Kenneth F. Benson, Diamond Cattle Company LLC and Michel and Margaret Ann
8 Etcheverry Family, L.P. filed a joint objection to proposed orders of Kobeh Valley Ranch,
9 LLC; on December 7, 2015, Michel and Margaret Ann Etcheverry Family, L.P., Diamond
10 Cattle Company, LLC and Kenneth Benson ("petitioners") filed an objection to proposed 11 orders of Kobeh Valley Ranch, LLC; on December 16, 2015, KVR filed its reply to joint 12 objection to proposed orders of Kobeh Valley Ranch LLC; on December 15, 2015,
13 respondent Jason King, P.E., the State Engineer, filed his joinder to Kobeh Valley Ranch,
14 LLC's reply to joint objection to proposed orders; on January 8 and 12, 2016, petitioners 15 filed a request for review of objection to proposed orders of Kobeh Valley Ranch, LLC, the 16 court has reviewed the pleadings and finds that no further briefing or hearing is 17 necessary.²

18 The court has reviewed the Nevada Supreme Court's opinion Issued October 29, 19 2015. The Nevada Supreme Court held that "substantial evidence does not support the 20 State Engineer's finding that KVR would be able to "adequately and fully" mitigate the fact 21 that its ground water appropriations will cause Kobeh Valley springs that sources existing 22 rights to cease to flow."³ The court further held that "The State Engineer's decision to

1 grant KVR's applications when the result of appropriations would conflict with existing 2 rights and based upon unsupported findings that mitigation would be sufficient to rectify
3 the conflict violates the Legislature's directive that the State Engineer must deny use or 4 change applications when the use or change would conflict with existing rights."⁴ Having 5 found petitioners had met their burden to show the State Engineer's decision was 6 incorrect, the court held "the State Engineer's decision to grant KVR's applications cannot 7 stand."⁵ The court reversed and remanded these cases to the district court for further 8 proceedings consistent with this opinion.⁶

9 The Nevada Supreme Court did not remand the cases to the State Engineer for 10 further proceedings consistent with its opinion which it could have done if the court 11 concluded additional administrative review and findings were necessary. Based upon the 12 Supreme Court's reversal of this Court's order denying petitions for judicial review and the 13 State Engineer's decision to grant KVR's applications, this Court finds that the petitions 14 for judicial review filed by the petitioners must be granted.

15 Good cause appearing,

16 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the petitions for judicial review filed by petitioners

Case No. 70157

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Appellant, the State of Nevada State Engineer, by and through counsel, Nevada Attorney General Adam Paul Laxalt and Senior Deputy Attorney General Micheline N. Fairbank, hereby respectfully moves for an extension of time to file the Docketing Statement. This Motion is made pursuant to NRAP 14(d) and NRAP 26(b)(1)(a) and is supported by the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION AND FACTUAL SUMMARY

Appellant timely initiated this appeal on April 8, 2016. The appeal was docketed with the Court on April 14, 2016. Pursuant to NRAP 14(b), the docketing statement was due to be filed on May 4, 2016. Due to a bona fide clerical error, the docketing statement, while prepared for filing, was not timely filed with the Court. Appellant sought to file the docketing statement on May 5, 2016; however, due to it being untimely, it was rejected. Appellant asserts that this Motion is sought in good faith and good cause exists to grant the motion. Accordingly, Appellant respectfully requests an extension of time to file the docketing statement.

II. LEGAL DISCUSSION

Pursuant to NRAP 14(b), a docketing statement must be filed within twenty (20) days of the docketing of an appeal. The rule specifically provides that an extension of time will be granted for good cause. NRAP 14(d). Good Cause has generally been defined as “a ‘substantial reason; one that affords a legal excuse.’” Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (citing Colley v. State, 105 Nev. 235, 236, 773 P.2d 1229, 1230 (1989)). Further, “[f]or good cause, the court . . . may permit an act to be done after the time expires.” FRAP 26(b)(A).

Good cause exists to grant the requested extension of time as the docketing statement was drafted and transferred to the undersigned counsel's assistant for filing on May 4, 2016. However, due to a clerical error, the assistant failed to timely file the document prior to the conclusion of the day. Upon discovery of the omission, the docketing statement was submitted to the Court for filing; however, it was rejected on the basis that it was untimely. See Exhibit 1, Receipt of Electronic Document Submitted for Filing; Exhibit 2, State Engineer's Docketing Statement; and Exhibit 3, Rejection of Electronic Document No. 70157. Here, Appellant was diligent in attempting to meet the deadline, but despite that diligence, the deadline was not met. Granting a modest extension of time, to permit the filing of Appellant's docketing statement will not result in prejudice to any party as the appeal is in its early stages.

Accordingly, in an effort to assure that the docketing statement is properly submitted to the Court, this extension of time is sought. The Appellant asserts that the basis upon which the deadline was missed is excusable and good cause exists to grant this extension.

III. CONCLUSION

Appellant respectfully requests an extension of time to file the docketing statement pursuant to NRAP 14(d) and NRAP 26(b)(1)(A). Appellant asserts that good cause exists for the extension of time and that such is reasonable and warranted in this matter.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 5th day of May, 2016.
