DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER REINSTATING BRIEFING

On March 8, 2017, this court entered an order directing appellant's to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. It appeared that timely motions to alter or amend the judgment and for a new trial remained pending in the district court, rendering the notice of appeal premature. See NRCP 59; NRAP 4(a)(4).

Appellants have responded to our order and have provided the district court's orders denying the motions; accordingly we conclude that we have jurisdiction and this appeal may proceed. See NRAP 4(a)(6).

Appellants shall have 60 days from the date of this order to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. Thereafter, briefing shall proceed in accordance with NRAP 31(a)(1). Failure to timely comply with this order may result in the imposition of sanctions.

It is so ORDERED.
