UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE OPENING BRIEF

Appellants First Transit, Inc. and Jay Farrales request 30 days, through October 20, 2017, to file their opening brief and appendix.

NRAP 31(b)(3). This is the second such request. (The parties previously stipulated to extend the deadline pursuant to NRAP 31(b)(2).) The brief was originally due August 21 and without the extension would be due September 20. No requests for extension have been denied or denied in part.

Appellants' counsel has conferred with counsel for respondents, who represents that he does not oppose this request. (His courtesy is appreciated.)

Additional time is necessary to complete the brief. One of the lawyers preparing the brief has had to take time to care for a parent transitioning from the hospital to a nursing home. And the associate most familiar with the facts has had to take time from the brief to care for his one-year-old daughter, who is sick, as the family is still struggling to reach a permanent solution for child care. The additional time will enable counsel to ensure all relevant authorities and considerations are presented as thoroughly and succinctly as possible.

Dated this 20th day of September, 2017.
