COURT ORDERED, trial date SET. Deft. stated he filed a Motion to dismiss counsel. Court reminded Deft. he has an attorney; and asked what the basis was. Thereafter, Mr. Parris informed the Court Deft. brought this issue up to him earlier this morning, further noting he discussed this with Deft. and with the private investigator at a previous meeting, to which Deft. had received minor reports including various documents from defense, which consisted of 90% of the discovery available. Additionally, defense can provide an additional copy of the discovery packet later this afternoon. Further, Deft. was provided discovery on more than one occasion. Deft. stated he has not received anything at all. Court advised Deft. his attorney will give him another packet today; and asked if there were any more problems. Deft. stated he believes he is getting railroaded for nothing and his attorney is not working in the best interest for him. Court stated it does not know why he believes he is getting railroaded; further noting this Court will not grant the Motion, based on the what Deft. is telling the Court. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED. Mr. Parris noted State's offer got extended, and it is contingent for both Defts. Court asked the Juror what the problem was, due to comments he made to this Court during Voir Dire examination.
