

15 I. INTRODUCTION

16 Currently pending before this Court is Wynn Resorts, Limited's 17 ("Wynn Resorts") petition for Writ of Prohibition or Alternatively Mandamus filed 18 with this Court on March 30, 2016. (Case No. 70050). That petition challenges the 19 District Court's March 24, 2016 Order requiring Wynn Resorts to turn over 20 information that is subject to the attorney-client privilege merely because the 21 members of the Company's Board of Directors asserted the Business Judgement Rule 22 as a defense to certain claims in this case (the "BHFS Order.")

Also pending before this Court is Wynn Resorts' Petition for Writ of Prohibition or Alternatively Mandamus filed with this Court on May 25, 2016.
(Case No. 70452). This Wynn Resorts' petition challenges the District Court's May 3, 2016 Order requiring Wynn Resorts to turn over information subject to both the attorney-client and work product doctrine related to the investigation conducted by the law firm Freeh Sporkin & Sullivan, LLP (the "Freeh Order").¹

28

Both Petitions have been fully briefed and were argued to the full Court on February 6, 2017. (Ex. 1, Order Changing Start Time for Oral Arg., Jan. 11, 2017.)
These matters have been submitted, and the parties are merely awaiting this Court's decisions.

The District Court had previously stayed these matters, but on a request to 7 extend the stay, at a hearing on April 17, 2017, the District Court entered only a 8 temporary 30-day stay of both the BHFS Order and the Freeh Order associated with 9 the Petitions, and that stay is due to expire on May 17, 2017. (Ex. 2, Order Granting 10 in Part and Denying in Part Wynn Resorts, Ltd.'s Mot. to Extend Stays of (1) the 11 March 24, 2016 Order and (2) the May 3, 2016 Order Pending Pet. for Writ of 12 Prohibition, May 4, 2017, at 2.) The District Court stated that if the Supreme Court 13 had not issued a decision on the two Petitions by May 17, 2017, Wynn Resorts 14 should seek any further stay from this Court. (Id. at 3.) With the expiration of the 15 stay looming, and unable to foretell when this Court may issue decisions on the 16 important issues raised in the Petitions, Wynn Resorts submits this motion for a stay 17 of the subject orders until this Court rules on these fully briefed and argued matters. 18 The NRAP 27(e) Certificate is attached hereto. 19

20 II. ANALYSIS

The grounds for a stay are well known to this Court and form the basis for the District Court's original stay. When considering a stay, courts consider four factors: (1) whether the object of the writ petition will be defeated if the stay is denied; (2) whether petitioner will suffer irreparable injury if the stay is denied; (3) whether the real property in interest will suffer irreparable harm if a stay is granted; and (4) whether petitioner is likely to prevail on the merits of the writ petition.

- 27
- 28
- The two writ petitions hereinafter are collectively referred to as the "Petitions."

NRAP 8(c). No single factor is dispositive and, "if one or two factors are especially strong, they may counterbalance other weak factors." Mikohn Gaming Corp. v. McCrea, 120 Nev. 248, 251, 89 P.3d 36, 38 (2004).

A. The Purpose of the Petitions Would Be Defeated.

The Petitions seek to enjoin the District Court's BHFS Order and Freeh Order 5 because both compel Wynn Resorts to produce privileged documents. If 6 Wynn Resorts is forced to produce privileged BHFS documents prior to the decision 7 by this Court, Wynn Resorts will be irreparably harmed because the object of the 8 Petition - to protect the attorney-client privilege - will be defeated, and the 9 protections of the Business Judgment Rule for the Board members and the Company 10 will be eviscerated. Likewise, if Wynn Resorts is required to release privileged and 11 protected Freeh documents before this Court renders its decision on the pending 12 petition, Wynn Resorts' efforts to protect its attorney-client privilege and work 13 product protection also will be defeated. Inasmuch as the issues brought to the 14 forefront involve critical issues of first impression, as this Court recognized during 15 oral argument, Wynn Resorts' privileges and protections afforded under Nevada law 16 should be maintained until this Court renders its decision on the important issues of 17 law raised in the Petitions. There is no basis to prematurely eviscerate Wynn Resorts' 18 protections. 19

20

B. Wynn Resorts Faces the Potential for Irreparable Harm.

Similarly, denying a stay of the BHFS Order and the Freeh Order exposes 21 Wynn Resorts to serious and irreparable harm. The March 24, 2016 BHFS Order and 22 23 the Freeh Order both require Wynn Resorts to turn over privileged and protected information to its adversaries in a highly contested litigation. If a stay does not issue 24 to maintain the status quo and protections until this Court rules on the Petitions, Wynn 25 Resorts will be irreparably harmed because (1) its privileges and protections will be 26 handed to its adversaries, and cannot be undone; and (2) the presumption afforded 27 28 by Nevada's Business Judgment Rule – a basic protection afforded under Nevada law

- will be rendered entirely unavailable and useless to the Company and its directors.
 Absent a stay, and if this Court ultimately overrules the District Court's Orders after Wynn Resorts is compelled to comply with the Orders, Wynn Resorts will unquestionably be harmed, and irreparably so.

C. A Stay Will Not Harm the Real Party in Interest.

The Okada Parties face no harm from a continued stay. This matter is not set 6 for trial until April 16, 2018, and fact discovery does not close until September 8, 7 2017. Further, discovery in this case was stayed from June 23, 2016 up to and until 8 March 27, 2017. During the stay, the Okada Parties did not seek the production of 9 the documents associated with either the BHFS Order or the Freeh Order, presented 10 oral argument on the Petitions to this Court, and heard the Court's statements and 11 concerns about the important issues of law, first impression, and intersection of 12 privilege and the business judgment rule that were raised in the Petitions. As such, 13 no real harm comes to the Okada Parties in awaiting this Court's ruling on the 14 Petitions, and the law discussed therein. 15

28

D. The Petition has Substantial Merit.

The Petitions have substantial merit as recognized by this Court requesting briefing on both Petitions, hearing oral argument on both Petitions, and expressly stating that the Petitions and related briefing discuss very critical issues of first impression related to the application and use of the business judgment rule, and its intersection with privilege. As such, both Petitions have merit.

22 III. CONCLUSION.

The District Court agreed to a temporary, 30-day stay to await this Court's ruling on both Petitions, and required Wynn Resorts to seek any further stay from this Court. As this Court has yet to rule on the pending Petitions, the temporary stay will expire on May 17, 2017. Wynn Resorts accordingly requests a stay from this Wynn Resorts must seek any further stay from this Court. Inasmuch as the stay expires in less than 2 weeks, and because this Court has not yet issued decisions on the pending Petitions, and Wynn Resorts cannot foretell if decisions will issue before the expiration, Wynn Resorts files its emergency motion for a stay with this Court.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

ORDER CHANGING START TIME FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

These cases were previously scheduled for oral argument on Monday, February 6, 2017, at 10:00 a.m. in Docket No. 70500 and at 10:30 a.m. in Docket No. 70452. The time for argument is hereby changed, and oral argument before the en banc court will be held on Monday, February 6, 2017, at 9:30 a.m. for Docket No. 70500 and 10:00 a.m. in Docket No. 70452. As previously indicated in this court's order dated January 3, 2017, because these cases involve the same parties, it is the court's intent that the two cases be argued together. Petitioners and the real parties in interest shall each have 30 minutes for argument, during which they shall address both cases.

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA

CLERK'S ORDER

It is so ORDERED.
