APPELLANT’S OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO POSTPONE ORAL ARGUMENT

Appellant State of Nevada, Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board (“EMRB” or “Board”), by and through its counsel, Adam Paul Laxalt, Attorney General, Gregory Zunino, Bureau Chief, and Donald Bordelove, Deputy Attorney General, hereby submits its opposition to ESEA’s Motion to Postpone Oral Argument.

The Board opposes the instant Motion for the following reasons: First, ESEA was unable to provide guidance on the type of delay that would result from the continuance.<sup>1</sup> Second, an arbitration should not take priority over a Nevada Supreme Court argument. As counsel for ESEA appears unwilling to move his arbitration, counsel for ESEA could simply skip the second day of his arbitration or continue it onto a fourth (if the full 3 days is even required). Counsel for ESEA could even pick up the second day of his arbitration in the afternoon as oral argument is set for the morning for only 30 minutes.

The above was relayed to counsel for ESEA prior to ESEA filing the instant motion. Due to no clarity provided in response, the Board was unable to stipulate to granting ESEA another continuance in this matter.

<sup>1</sup> It is not clear whether the delay would be weeks or months before the same panel would be available in Las Vegas. Moreover, the new date may conflict with another parties' schedule, perhaps another arbitration, and thus the Court may need to continue the matter again.
