RE: Wynn Las Vegas, LLC ("Wynn") v. Mario LaBarbera ("LaBarbera")

Dear Mr. Albregts,

This letter is regarding the witness disclosure in Wynn's Third Supplemental Rule 16.1 Disclosure and Wynn's offer to permit you to take the deposition of any or all of these witnesses prior to the trial in the above-referenced matter.

Before the Pretrial Conference on February 18, 2016, I asked if you would like to take the deposition of any of these witnesses and offered to continue the trial if necessary to ensure there is sufficient time for the deposition(s). At that time, you did not indicate a desire to take the deposition of any of these potential witnesses. Nonetheless, if you would like to take the deposition of any or all of these individuals, please let me know. If you would like to discuss this matter more, please feel free to contact my office.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter.

Truly yours,

RE: Wynn v. LaBarbera
District Court Case No. A-14-695025-C

Dear Chris:

In response to your letter dated February 22, 2016, regarding your untimely disclosure of trial witnesses in the above-referenced action, I cannot even begin to consider taking you up on your offer to allow me to depose these folks until I know to what it is they are going to testify at trial. In other words, you have not adequately disclosed the scope of their knowledge or the subject matter to which they may testify at trial, let alone why they were disclosed at this late date. If you would please provide me further and additional information as to the scope and nature of their testimony, I can be more responsive to your letter.

With that said, we do not intend to waive our Objection to your late disclosure of these witnesses by committing to taking their depositions now or at any time in the future. I just simply cannot consider as much until you provide a more comprehensive disclosure of the scope of their testimony and knowledge in this case. Until then, there is nothing for us to discuss regarding deposing these folks. Again, we probably will not agree to depose these folks in consideration of you being allowed to offer their testimony at trial, but I am more than willing to discuss this matter further with you upon receiving further disclosure as to their proposed trial testimony.

As always, thank you for your professional courtesy and cooperation in this regard.

Very truly yours,

RE: Wynn Las Vegas, LLC ("Wynn") v. Mario LaBarbera ("La Barbera")

Dear Mr. Albregts,

This is in response to your letter dated February 25, 2016, regarding Wynn's Third Supplement Disclosure of Witnesses pursuant to Rule 16.1. As I told you last week, the majority of the witnesses identified are current or former employees of Wynn that verified Mr. La Barbera's identity and/or signature when he requested and signed the casino markers at issue. Wynn disclosed these witnesses in part to rebut any argument that his signature was forged.

The final witness disclosed by Wynn was Sandra Mele. As you know, Ms. Mele was the Director of Credit and Collections for Wynn before she retired. Because you took her deposition and she testified at trial in the Wynn Las Vegas, LLC v. Cristiano Tofani case, you should have an understanding of her expected testimony. Of course, if you would like more information regarding Ms. Mele or her expected testimony, please let me know.

If you would like to discuss this matter more or to take the depositions of these individuals, please feel free to contact my office. I look forward to resolving this issue with you.

Truly yours,

RE: Wynn v. LaBarbera
District Court Case No. A-14-695025-C

Dear LJ:

This letter is in response to your letter dated April 5, 2016, regarding the above-referenced action, as well as your Notice of Deposition for tomorrow for Michael Gros enclosed therewith. With all due respect, you are improperly attempting to try this case by ambush now and your letter and Notice of Deposition here are simply your latest effort in furtherance of as much. Although we also previously objected to as much – meaning to your Third and Fourth Supplements (as well as Pretrial Disclosures) pursuant to NRCP 16.1 and your unilateral Pretrial Memorandum (to which we also objected in our Pretrial Memorandum) -- this letter sets forth precisely our position on this issue and will be provided to the Judge before trial next week, too, as a supplement to our Pretrial Memorandum. Furthermore, the facts you are trying to gloss over here are not even in dispute between us and therefore important to resolution of this issue, i.e., your attempt to try this case by ambush now.

UNDISPUTED FACTS.

The Wynn alleges that Mr. LaBarbera executed twelve gaming markers on April 3, 2008, totaling in excess of $1,000,000. The Wynn did not commence this action to collect on those markers, however, for almost six years and, therefore, it had to voluntarily dismiss all of its other claims in this action against Mr. LaBarbera because of the applicable statute of limitations, leaving for trial it's only remaining claim for breach of contract against him, i.e., the gaming markers. The Wynn only timely disclosed three witnesses in this case in its Initial Disclosures pursuant to NRCP 16.1 in October, 2014, to wit: Mr. LaBarbera, Barbara Conway and its PMK (generally). The Scheduling Order in this case was filed December 12, 2014, setting a discovery cutoff of July 8, 2015, which was not extended otherwise by stipulation or court order. The Wynn conducted Mr. LaBarbera's deposition in Rome, Italy, on June 11, 2015. The Wynn also made two timely supplemental disclosures pursuant to NRCP 16.1 in June, 2015, but of documents only, not witnesses.

At his deposition in Rome, Italy, one month prior to the expiration of discovery in this case, Mr. LaBarbera testified that not only did he not recall signing the twelve markers alleged by the Wynn in this case, but he disavowed his signature on them altogether, albeit he would not say they were "forged" because he did not see anybody else sign them. In other words, the Wynn has known since then that Mr. LaBarbera could not authenticate its markers as genuine and, indeed, he emphatically denied numerous times under oath that it was his signature on them. Mr. LaBarbera also testified that he did not know he allegedly owed the Wynn in excess of $1,000,000 pursuant to these markers until he was called by Mr. Pariente after returning to Italy from his trip to the Wynn in April, 2008, and Mr. Pariente informed him of as much. Ergo, you knew full well in June, 2015, that Mr. LaBarbera not only disputed the markers and his signature on them, but that he also believed that they were not authentic or genuine.

Incredibly enough, the Wynn then served its Third Supplemental Disclosures on our side in February of this year (as well as its Fourth Supplemental Disclosures late the next month, March, 2016) untimely disclosing seven more witnesses including another PMK "as to markers at issue, procedures and processes related to issuance of markers and gaming practices." (Again, the Wynn had only previously disclosed generally a PMK along with Mr. LaBarbera and Ms. Conway.) As you know, these proposed untimely witnesses now are Sandra Mele, Michael Gros, Scott Chang, Wail Nefei, Zuleima Shute, Alverna Duca and this PMK ("as to markers at issue, etc"). The Wynn also listed these untimely disclosed witnesses in its Pretrial Memorandum and Pretrial Disclosures pursuant to NRCP 16.1. Mr. LaBarbera objected to the Wynn's Third and Fourth Supplement (as well as Pretrial Disclosures) pursuant to NRCP 16.1, and to the Wynn's Pretrial Memorandum, and confirmed as much in his Pretrial Memorandum with respect to all four of these pleadings that you are now using to try this case by ambush. As if this procedural process were proper on the part of the Wynn, Mr. Kircher then wrote me on February 22, 2016, offering to allow me to take the depositions of these witnesses less than two months before trial. I responded to Mr. Kircher on February 24, 2016, noting our objections to as much and, just as important, that the Wynn had even failed to disclose the substance of any testimony on the part of these witnesses and, therefore, we would not even know what to depose them on until such disclosure was received. To my knowledge, neither your office nor the Wynn ever responded to my letter back to Mr. Kircher dated February 24, 2016.

You now inform us that you want to take the deposition tomorrow of one of these witnesses untimely disclosed by the Wynn (Michael Gros), less than a week before trial no less, because he is supposedly going to have hernia surgery next week. Please be advised that I am not available for that deposition tomorrow as you have noticed it, nor will I be available for that deposition prior to trial (or any other deposition for that matter). Your untimely disclosure of these witnesses as well as noticing the deposition of this particular witness are patently delinquent, not in good faith, in violation of the applicable rules, intended to prejudice Mr. LaBarbera at trial, and possibly violative of NRCP 11.

MR. LABARBERA'S POSITION.

There are only three witnesses for this trial, to wit: Mr. LaBabera whose deposition testimony both of us will read into the record or to the jury, Ms. Conway whom you timely disclosed, and the Wynn's PMK in general (and not with respect to the specific subject matter of gaming markers). None of the other witnesses you have untimely named should be allowed to testify at trial as they were not timely or properly disclosed including proper disclosure of the subject matter of their proposed testimony in this case. You have known since June, 2015, about your need to disclose additional witnesses to authenticate the markers in question as genuine and you failed to timely or properly act. Your attempt to do so now is nothing less than "trial by ambush" for which you have no rationale or reasonable excuse.

With that said, I will have to you by the end of this week the designations of Mr. LaBarbera's deposition testimony I intend to read to the jury and/or offer into evidence at trial pursuant to NRCP 32. I respectfully suggest that, for reasons of economy, we agree to a few undisputed facts here, such as:

- 1) Mr. LaBarbera's age (63),
- 2) That he has been married for 40 years,
- 3) That he is a citizen and resident of Palermo, Italy,
- 4) That he cannot attend trial because of the bench warrant issued for his arrest by the Clark County District Attorney's Office, and
- 5) That he disavows his signature on the markers alleged by the Wynn in this case.

These facts are not disputed as you well know, and your attempt now to place at least the last fact into dispute here on the eve of trial is nothing more than trial by ambush and we intend to vigorously object to as much every chance we get, as well as to any such deposition testimony you also propose to use at trial (including Mr. Gros).

I trust your understand our position on this matter and, by way of disclosure again, we will be filing a supplement to our Pretrial Memorandum to provide a copy of this letter to the Judge to avoid any confusion or gamesmanship on these issues on the eve of trial.

Very truly yours,

HOLLEY, DRIGGS, WALCH, FINE,

RE: Wynn Las Vegas, LLC v. Mario LaBarbera

Dear Jeff:

We have been made aware that one of our potential witnesses, Michael Gros, is scheduled to have surgery this coming Thursday and will be off work recuperating for the following two weeks. Because we have just found out about Mr. Gros' medical procedure we have noticed his deposition for tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. at Wynn. The deposition notice is attached hereto. While I understand that this is extremely short notice given the circumstances, having his deposition taken tomorrow appears to be our only option given his unavailability for trial. Please confirm that someone from your office will be attending the deposition.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

RE: Wynn Las Vegas, LLC v. Mario LaBarbera

Dear Jeff,

I write in response to your letter of April 5, 2016, regarding the above-referenced matter and the deposition of Michael Gros. To be clear, both Wynn and my office are prepared to work around your schedule in order to ensure that you, or someone from your office, may attend Mr. Gros' deposition. However, based upon your letter, it appears that you are unwilling to appear for Mr. Gros' deposition, regardless of the date or timing. Please advise me immediately if my understanding is in error. If I do not hear from you, Mr. Gros' deposition will go forward today at the time and location noticed.

Your client's unwillingness to participate in discovery and prepare for trial is not a new position. As you acknowledge, Wynn disclosed these additional witnesses (including Mr. Gros) almost two months ago, on February 10, 2016. On February 25, 2016, my office wrote to you providing additional details about these witnesses' knowledge and offering to make them available for deposition. Indeed, as this letter pointed out, you had already deposed at least one of the witnesses in the other case you are handling involving markers that went unpaid by an Italian gambler (and acquaintance of Mr. La Barbera) – Wynn Las Vegas v. Cristiano Tofani. Thus, you are more than familiar with the nature of this witnesses' knowledge. However, you refused Wynn's offer to depose these witnesses with more than two months left before the trial date.

As we have already shown, these witnesses were disclosed by Wynn because of Mr. La Barbera's seemingly ever-changing "defense" to Wynn's claims. Prior to the March 3, 2016, hearing on Wynn's Motions in Limine, your client appeared to be relying on the defense that he lacked capacity to sign the markers. However, any evidence regarding Mr. La Barbera's claimed intoxication or gambling addiction was excluded. Also excluded is any claim that Mr. La Barbera's signatures on the markers were forged. Notably, your client admits he signed the credit agreements but has stated that he "doesn't know" or "doesn't remember" if the signatures on his markers are his. However, Mr. La Barbera simultaneously rejects any contention that these signatures are forged. With all due respect, it is your client that is engaging in gamesmanship – not Wynn. If Mr. La Barbera wants to dispute his signatures, then he bears the burden of proving his affirmative defense. Well aware that he cannot meet this burden (because the signatures are clearly his), Mr. La Barbera tries to pretend that the issue is one of "authentication." Nonsense.

Wynn is prepared to properly authenticate its business records with the testimony of its custodian of records. Nothing else is required. Moreover, the genuineness of Mr. La Barbera's signatures is conclusively proved by his responses to Wynn's Requests for Admissions wherein he admits that the signatures "appear to be his." As Wynn will demonstrate to the Court, there is not, nor can there be, any dispute about the admissibility or enforceability of Mr. La Barbera's gaming markers.

As you are aware, the overriding concern for a Court faced with a dispute about the timing of discovery disclosures is whether there has been any prejudice. Wynn has provided your office with every opportunity to depose these witnesses – including Mr. Gros. Because prejudice cannot be self-imposed, these witnesses must be permitted to testify.

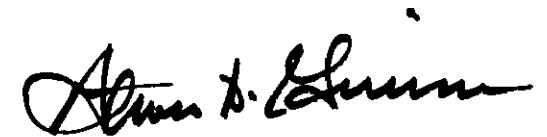

As always, if you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "L. J. Semenza, III". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "L" and a stylized "J".

Lawrence J. Semenza, III, Esq.

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

WYNN LAS VEGAS, LLC,
Plaintiff,

vs.

MARIO LA BARBERA,
Defendant.

CASE NO. A695025

DEPT. XXVIII

BEFORE THE HONORABLE RONALD J. ISRAEL, DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 2016

TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT
DEFENDANT'S OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY
JUDGMENT AND COUNTERMOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

APPEARANCES:

For the Plaintiff:

CHRISTOPHER D. KIRCHER, ESQ.

For the Defendant:

JEFFREY RICHARD ALBREGTS, ESQ.

RECORDED BY: JUDY CHAPPELL, COURT RECORDER

TRANSCRIBED BY: BRITTANY MANGELSON, INDEPENDENT TRANSCRIBER

1 THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 2016 AT 9:04 A.M.

3 THE CLERK: Case number A695025, Wynn Las Vegas versus Mario La
4 Barbera.

5 MR. KIRCHER: Good morning, Your Honor. Christopher Kircher on behalf of 6 Wynn Las Vegas.

7 MR. ALBREGTS: Good morning, Your Honor. Jeff Albregts on behalf of Mr.
8 La Barbera.

9 THE COURT: Good morning. So I've read all this stuff and although 10 there -- well, I'll let you go ahead. Plaintiff's motion.

11 MR. KIRCHER: Thank you, Your Honor. It -- you know, it --

12 THE COURT: Do you have anything to add?

13 MR. KIRCHER: I -- you know, I really don't. I can just hit some -- highlight
14 some points for you. But really I think we've briefed it --

15 THE COURT: Well, let me --

16 MR. KIRCHER: -- really well.

17 THE COURT: -- let me ask you the big thing.

18 MR. KIRCHER: Okay.

19 THE COURT: Or the only thing probably -- but we'll get to that later. They're 20 claiming that the signatures may or may not be his, which nobody's done any 21 discovery on that, I assume. There's no experts regarding the signatures.

22 MR. KIRCHER: No, there is not an expert regarding the signatures. And just 23 take a step back, the -- you know, the Defendant came to Wynn, gambled --

24 THE COURT: I got all that.

25 MR. KIRCHER: -- and did all that, signed a bunch of documents. He's, you

1 know -- we're, you know, saying that there's over 20 documents that he signed here.
2 And the only documents now -- even though he admitted that his credit line was 3 increased to a million dollars, he's saying that he doesn't believe -- that the 4 signatures on the markers don't look like his. And that's --

5 THE COURT: Is this a bench trial or a jury trial?

6 MR. KIRCHER: This is a jury trial.

7 MR. ALBREGTS: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Okay, good then.

9 MR. KIRCHER: So I guess the issue is, you know, does it create an issue of 10 fact if it doesn't look like his signature. He said -- throughout the deposition 11 testimony he says that he doesn't remember, it was a long times ago, this was in 12 2008.

13 But this -- these are business records, casino records, they're kept in 14 the normal course. They go through a verification process when somebody takes 15 out a marker where multiple people verify the person signing the instrument. He 16 didn't raise an issue with it until the lawsuit was filed.

17 THE COURT: Yeah. He doesn't want to repay the million.

18 MR. KIRCHER: Exactly.

19 THE COURT: I get that. But that's pretty much the only issue that they can 20 hang their hat on. But, if in fact he's going to come in and say it's not my signature, 21 it's a question of fact.

22 MR. KIRCHER: And he's taken inconsistent positions with that. In some of 23 the requests he's said --

24 THE COURT: I understand.

25 MR. KIRCHER: -- that it appears to be his signature. At the deposition, all of

1 the sudden, he's like oh, this doesn't look like my signature. I can't say it was
2 forged, but, you know. And that's -- I guess that is the issue that -- Your Honor hit
3 the nail on the head.

4 THE COURT: All right. Opposition and counter motion.

5 MR. ALBREGTS: Yes, sir, Your Honor. Thank you.

6 Your Honor, you obviously read everything, but for the record I do
7 my --

8 THE COURT: Being drunk doesn't fly. There's a case right on point in 9 Nevada --

10 MR. ALBREGTS: Well it raises an issue --

11 THE COURT: -- that I know you're aware of.

12 MR. ALBREGTS: Yeah. Well, you know, I've had the pleasure and privilege,
13 Your Honor, by way of a little bit of background, of litigating three of these with Mr.
14 Kircher and Mr. Semenza. Judge Adair, on one of them, granted summary
15 judgment, Judge Togliatti gave us a shot at jury trial in early December. The jury
16 came back and threw out the largest marker.

17 The defenses are the same. What is notable in all three cases is an 18 individual named Alex Pariente recruits these guys from Italy, they all three have 19 gambling addictions, they come here, they sign the markers and Mr. Pariente is 20 never produced in order to provide any evidence to rebut or oppose what they say.

21 I can go -- I wanted to make a record because these cases will play out
22 later, Your Honor, in Italy under the Head Convention Treaty, as you might expect.
23 And in order --

24 THE COURT: Isn't this two-inch thick, your record?

25 MR. ALBREGTS: So stipulated, Your Honor. But if I may real briefly?

1 THE COURT: If this was Reno, you wouldn't even get oral argument.

2 MR. ALBREGTS: That's true. That's true, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: So all right. As if there's something you need to add to this.

4 MR. ALBREGTS: But the reason the intoxication -- the only thing I need to 5 add, Your Honor -- and I think it'd be best addressed through motions in limine.

6 Our defenses are basically fourfold and that is the one defense that 7 appears not to be very well accepted here, is that the Wynn is using the 8 affirmative -- or they're using the statute barring the affirmative defense of gambling,
9 sickness, or addiction as a sword and a shield. It goes and recruits these guys. La
10 Barbera is a guy who is certified and who would produce the report as being a
11 gambling addict in Italy.

12 Again, you can address that by a motion in limine. But the most
13 important thing is based on the lack -- on the intoxication, his lack of English -- and I
14 can go to the depo transcript: Can you read English? No. Can you write English?
15 No. I do not know these were checks. Nobody explained that to me. If he would 16 have explained it to me, I would have got on the plane, went back to Sicily.

17 In fact, Mr. Semenza went through the exact admonition on the 18 instrument about criminal penalties. He said if he understood that, he would have 19 never signed them. So what the triable issue of fact we --

20 THE COURT: These are all self-serving statements.

21 MR. ALBREGTS: Mr. Pariente is not a --

22 THE COURT: The jury's going to hear.

23 MR. ALBREGTS: Right. Right, right, right, right, right. But I think, you know,
24 when you don't produce Mr. Pariente and the only basis by which you consider what 25 they have offered as evidence being the markers which are disputed as to whether

1 he signed them or not -- and he was not willing to say they were forgeries in his
2 deposition, but he did emphatically say they weren't his signatures.

3 I think at that point in time his unopposed testimony provides a
4 sufficient basis for you to grant summary judgment in his favor on the breach of 5 contact claim. They don't even have an equitable claim for unjust enrichment here,
6 Your Honor. This gentleman has testified and nobody's rebutted it that he didn't
7 know what he was signing. They were not translated. He was intoxicated --

8 THE COURT: Well how can you --

9 MR. ALBREGTS: -- when they were signed.

10 THE COURT: Hey, how could you possibly -- who in the world could you get 11 to say he didn't understand it except he's saying it. It's a question --

12 MR. ALBREGTS: Unless we --

13 THE COURT: -- of fact for the jury to believe or not believe.

14 MR. ALBREGTS: And I agree, Your Honor, but in answer to that --

15 THE COURT: Nobody can crawl into his brain.

16 MR. ALBREGTS: I agree, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Yet.

18 MR. ALBREGTS: But in answer to that question, Your Honor, Mr. Pariente, if 19 they were to produce him -- who was with him as a host when he was supposedly 20 signing this stuff, then they would have a genuine issue of fact. With Mr. La
21 Barbera's testimony on its face, taken at face value, and it doesn't contradict itself,
22 with respect, I think we're entitled to summary judgment.

23 I -- you know, and this case was filed two months before the six-year
24 expiration of the statute of limitations. And simply because you consider the 25 markers based on hearsay exception, business records exception, doesn't mean

1 they're authentic and genuine, which is also a question for the jury, as you have well
2 pointed out.

3 THE COURT: Did you object in your 16.1 to their authenticity?

4 MR. ALBREGTS: I always preserve that objection in the jury case conference
5 report, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

7 MR. ALBREGTS: I'm glad --

8 THE COURT: Then you'll have to deal with that --

9 MR. ALBREGTS: I'm glad I've been teaching the kids to do that too.

10 THE COURT: Good.

11 MR. ALBREGTS: I apologize for interrupting.

12 THE COURT: Countermotion. On his countermotion for summary judgment,
13 do you have anything to add?

14 MR. KIRCHER: You know, and -- you know, we have -- most of its laid down.
15 I don't want to beat a dead horse, but the Pariente issue is they had the opportunity
16 to subpoena and have this guy testify if they really believe it, which they didn't do.
17 Number two -- and --

18 THE COURT: He's local?

19 MR. KIRCHER: No, he's not.

20 MR. ALBREGTS: He's in the Bahamas.

21 MR. KIRCHER: Right now I believe he's in Miami, but he -- you know, you
22 can look him up by just doing a Google search. He was in the Bahamas, now I
23 believe he's in Miami. You know, he's still working in the gaming industry. And 24 even in his deposition testimony he says he barely saw Pariente throughout the trip.
25 That's what he testified to. Pariente wasn't there forcing him to sign markers.

1 The second things is his language barrier, the law is clear in all -- pretty
2 much all through the United States that the language barrier does not matter. If you
3 sign a contact you're obligated to those terms. That would basically turn commercial
4 instruments upside down because everybody's like oh, I didn't understand this
5 contact. I didn't understand the terms, I couldn't read English. Well, you shouldn't 6 have signed the contact unless you asked somebody to translate it.

7 And he testified throughout his deposition, for almost every document,
8 he never asked one person to translate the document for him. So it -- the case law
9 is clear that it's his -- there's no mistake on his part, there's no anything else, it's his 10 burden to understand what he's -- what kind of contact he's entering into.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I'm denying the motion for summary
12 judgment. I'm denying the countermotion for summary judgment.

13 The motion for summary judgment, as far as I can see there's only one 14 real question of fact as I stated and that'll be -- that's certainly -- or easily is,
15 regarding his questioning of whether or not the documents were actually signed by 16 him.

17 And regarding the countermotion, there are an abundance of facts
18 denying the countermotion. His -- the document -- he's right that these are contracts
19 that he's signed. Nobody -- he's not saying somebody forced his hand to it. And his 20 now saying he didn't understand what he was signing 20 times is going to be a 21 question for the jury.

22 MR. ALBREGTS: I agree, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: A thin question for the jury.

24 MR. ALBREGTS: I don't think it's a thin question, if I may, Your Honor, based 25 on posterity and --

1 THE COURT: I'm just commenting. I'm not the Trier of fact.

2 MR. ALBREGTS: I know. Taking the Bar so many year ago. But, Your
3 Honor, you know, we live in this rarified world of ours in Vegas. Can you imagine
4 any other credit instrument or contract, mortgage, insurance contract, any contract,
5 or anybody coming in with a contract to court, saying this is enforceable when I
6 intoxicated the hell out of the guy, they couldn't speak English, and I have no proof it
7 was translated and he understood what he was signing. Only gaming markers do
8 we hear in this rarified community under the scrutiny of the rest of the world --

9 THE COURT: I'm sure. And he's --

10 MR. ALBREGTS: -- allow that to happen.

11 THE COURT: And he's going to say your guy who is an addict came here
12 because he couldn't gamble in Italy --

13 MR. ALBREGTS: That's true.

14 THE COURT: -- and so he knew exactly what he was doing.

15 MR. ALBREGTS: It's true.

16 THE COURT: And --

17 MR. ALBREGTS: I don't think he can gamble in Italy.

18 THE COURT: -- he's responsible for his actions. That's what they're going to 19 say.

20 MR. ALBREGTS: He's also Sicilian, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

22 MR. ALBREGTS: Right out of the textbook. You look up the picture of a
23 Sicilian, you'll see this little guy here.

24 THE COURT: All right. When is the trial? Is there a date?

25 MR. ALBREGTS: Do we have a trial date, Chris?

1 THE CLERK: Yes.

2 MR. KIRCHER: I think we --

3 THE CLERK: March 14th is the stack.

4 MR. ALBREGTS: Yeah, we'll be ready to go.

5 THE CLERK: So --

6 THE COURT: You guys are going to be ready?

7 THE CLERK: -- February 18th is the pretrial conference.

8 MR. KIRCHER: February 18th?

9 MR. ALBREGTS: I'm working on getting bench warrant quashed so I can get 10 him here.

11 THE COURT: How long --

12 MR. ALBREGTS: But other than that.

13 THE COURT: How long --

14 MR. KIRCHER: It wasn't quashed?

15 MR. ALBREGTS: Was it quashed?

16 MR. KIRCHER: [Indiscernible] -- I don't know.

17 MR. ALBREGTS: I don't know if his was quashed or not. I'm sorry. We're 18 sorry.

19 MR. KIRCHER: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: How long -- what -- I don't think --

21 MR. ALBREGTS: The one in front of Judge Togliatti --

22 THE COURT: -- it was in front of me.

23 MR. ALBREGTS: -- it took us -- it took us one day to pick the jury and then it
24 took us three days to try the case and they came back at 6:00 on a Friday evening
25 and we started on Tuesday.

1 THE COURT: So --
2 MR. KIRCHER: I'd say five --
3 THE COURT: -- a week.
4 MR. KIRCHER: Yeah, I'd say five days.
5 MR. ALBREGTS: Four to five days, Your Honor. Yes, sir.
6 THE COURT: Okay.
7 MR. KIRCHER: Because we were rushing a little bit.
8 THE COURT: We'll have it for an entire week and --
9 MR. ALBREGTS: You'll enjoy it.
10 THE COURT: How old is --
11 MR. ALBREGTS: It's enjoyable, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: It's --
13 MR. KIRCHER: I'm sure we'll have some motions in limine too.
14 THE COURT: I don't have to make --
15 MR. ALBREGTS: I'm sure you will.
16 THE COURT: You know, it's up to a jury.
17 THE CLERK: Who's going to prepare the order?
18 THE COURT: You can prepare the order unless you want --
19 MR. ALBREGTS: No, no. Mr. Kircher would do that.
20 MR. KIRCHER: Okay.
21 MR. ALBREGTS: Again, it's been a --
22 THE COURT: Pass it --
23 MR. ALBREGTS: -- pleasure working with him and Mr. Semenza.
24 THE COURT: Their --
25 MR. KIRCHER: So the one issue of facts whether the documents were

1 actually signed by him.

2 THE COURT: Mutual ones. Okay. So --

3 MR. ALBREGTS: I even bought Mr. Kircher dinner in Rome, Your Honor, just 4 for -- so the record will reflect that.

5 MR. KIRCHER: He did. And it was delicious.

6 THE COURT: I'll bet you bought him --

7 MR. KIRCHER: It was a nice dinner.

8 THE COURT: For getting to go to Rome.

9 MR. ALBREGTS: Exactly.

10 THE COURT: And then bill your client.

11 MR. ALBREGTS: Exactly, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: We won't talk about that.

13 THE CLERK: I don't have any warrants in the system for --

14 MR. ALBREGTS: Oh, for La Barbera?

15 THE CLERK: -- this case.

16 MR. ALBREGTS: Okay. Yeah.

17 THE CLERK: I don't know if it was for this case or not.

18 MR. ALBREGTS: Well my brother's got that end. He's the criminal defense
19 guy in the family. So.

20 THE CLERK: Okay.

21 THE COURT: All right. So we'll see you in --

22 MR. ALBREGTS: Thank you, Your Honor. Pleasure.

23 THE COURT: -- end of February --

24 MR. KIRCHER: Okay.

25 THE COURT: -- or whatever and --

1 THE CLERK: Mid-February.

2 THE COURT: -- a week for the trial. How old are, you know -- are they the 3 oldest one?

4 MR. KIRCHER: We're --

5 MR. ALBREGTS: We've only been around two years on this, have we?

6 THE COURT: Hey, two years, time to trial --

7 MR. KIRCHER: Two years.

8 THE COURT: -- we're getting them done.

9 MR. ALBREGTS: Yeah, I know we are.

10 MR. KIRCHER: Yes.

11 MR. ALBREGTS: That is nice, Your Honor. Hopefully the Supreme Court will 12 start issuing things a little quicker too. But I digress.

13 THE CLERK: There's eleven on the stack. They are the second.

14 THE COURT: So, you're almost certainly going to go.

15 MR. ALBREGTS: We'll make you proud on jury instructions and everything,
16 Your Honor. We kind of got this down.

17 MR. KIRCHER: Yeah, we kind of have a template --

18 MR. ALBREGTS: Yeah.

19 MR. KIRCHER: -- for everything now.

20 THE COURT: A track record. Okay. Have a good --

21 MR. ALBREGTS: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. Thank you, sir.

22 MR. KIRCHER: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Have a good day.

24 MR. ALBREGTS: Have a great week everybody. Remainder of the week,
25 weekend.

Warning: For the purpose of Nevada law, a credit instrument is identical to a personal check and may be deposited in or presented to a bank or other financial institution on which the credit instrument is drawn. Willfully drawing or passing a credit instrument with the intent to defraud, including knowing that there are insufficient funds in the account upon which it may be drawn, is a crime in the State of Nevada which may result in criminal prosecution in addition to civil proceedings to collect the outstanding debt.

Before drawing on my permanent or temporary marker limit, if granted, I agree to sign credit instruments (i.e. markers or checks) in the amount of the draw. I authorize Wynn Las Vegas to complete any information on the credit instruments as is necessary for the instrument to be presented for payment, including but not limited to (1) name of payee; (2) a date; (3) name, account number and/or address of any of my banks or financial institutions; (4) electronic encoding of the above; and (5) as otherwise authorized by law. I further authorize Wynn Las Vegas to add information relating to any account, which I now have or may in the future have, regardless of whether that account now exists, or whether I provided the information on the account.

I agree that each draw against my marker limit is a separate transaction with Wynn Las Vegas. If I receive funds (ie cash, chips, tokens, etc.) before I execute a credit instrument, I promptly will sign a credit instrument in the amount of the funds provided.

I agree that Nevada law exclusively applies to these transactions. I agree that the exclusive jurisdiction for any dispute arising out of or related to any of the above shall be a federal or state court situated in Clark County, Nevada.

In addition to any amounts authorized by Nevada law, I agree to pay all costs of collection, including attorneys' fees and court costs and interest at the rate of 18%, unless prohibited by Nevada law, and in such case at the highest amount permitted by Nevada law, from the date of issuance of the marker (if dishonored by a financial institution).
