MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

In this personal injury action, Andrea knowingly and willfully concealed evidence that is dispositive of the central issue to her defense – whether Andrea gave Jared permission to drive her car. In particular, Andrea secretly redacted claims notes she produced from her insurance company – removing the one conversation Andrea had with the insurer about permissive use. This conversation is neither privileged nor confidential, and Andrea did not reveal she deleted it.

In the deleted note, Andrea admits Jared had used her vehicle before the accident, Andrea gave Jared the keys on the day of the accident, and Andrea usually left the keys on the mantle. After concealing the note, Andrea was deposed twice. Andrea initially claimed she never let Jared drive her car before the accident. When this was rebutted by other evidence, Andrea admitted Jared had driven her car, but denied giving him the keys and denied ever leaving the keys out in the open. In fact, Andrea testified at length about her many hiding spots for the keys and how she would never leave them out. When questioned about Jared claiming Andrea left the keys on the counter, Andrea used Jared's drug use as a shield, arguing he cannot be trusted.

After Andrea twice gave sworn testimony, Emilia was finally able to independently obtain additional documents from Andrea's insurer through a third-party subpoena. The insurer, for the first time, provided the missing note detailing Andrea's admissions made two weeks after the accident. Andrea's concealment of the note was fraudulent and must result in severe sanctions — particularly considering the note was revealed shortly before trial and after extensive discovery was completed.

Andrea cannot blame her counsel for concealing the note. Even if counsel responded to the discovery requests, Andrea, not her counsel, contradicted her earlier statements and failed to disclose those statements were made. Andrea's tampering with evidence and sworn testimony covering up that tampering must result in striking of her answer. At this point, Andrea cannot be allowed to contest permissive use when she concealed evidence central to that issue.

A. Jared admits the purpose of his trip on January 2, 2011, was to sell a "substantial amount of marijuana."

This action arose on January 2, 2011, when Defendant Jared Awerbach, while driving an automobile owned by his mother, Defendant Andrea Awerbach, negligently caused a motor vehicle accident with a vehicle being driven by Plaintiff Emilia Garcia. In particular, on January 2, 2011, Jared received a phone call from the godmother of his child, Cherise Killian, who wanted "a substantial amount of marijuana." See Mar. 27, 2014, Jared Awerbach Trans., at 113:21-24, attached hereto as Ex. 1-A. Jared used his mother's car to drive to Cherise's apartment to sell her marijuana. Id., at 113-115. Cherise lived in the Villa del Sol apartment complex on Rainbow Boulevard in Las Vegas. Id. Cherise has sworn under oath she "saw Jared smoking marijuana outside my apartment less than 20 minutes before the [January 2, 2011] accident." Ex. 1-B. After completing the marijuana sale and after smoking marijuana, Jared got back into his mother's car and proceeded to the driveway that exited the complex onto Rainbow Boulevard. Id. Jared intended to make a left turn from the driveway onto Rainbow. Id. As Jared was looking toward his left, he saw a city bus approaching in the right lane of the two southbound Rainbow travel lanes, and he saw Emilia's white car behind the bus. Ex. 1-A, at 114:12-115:12. After the bus passed in front of Jared, he initiated his left turn and crashed the front of his mother's car into the rear passenger quarter panel of Emilia's car. Id. Emilia's car spun 180 degrees. Ex. 1-C, at 24. Jared attempted to flee the scene of the accident but was unable to do so because his mother's car was rendered undriveable as a result of the accident. Ex. 1-A, at 114.

B. Jared admits he was in possession of marijuana at the time of the accident.

The police were dispatched to the scene of the accident, and Officer Figueroa of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department generated a Traffic Accident Report detailing his observations and conclusions regarding the accident. Ex. 1-D. Officer Figueroa smelled a strong odor or marijuana on Jared. Ex. 1-E, at 39. Jared admits he had marijuana on him at the time of the accident, and that he told Officer Figueroa he had smoked marijuana before the accident. Ex. 1-A, at 127-128. Officer Figueroa testified Jared admitted smoking marijuana. Ex. 1-E, at 39. Jared was administered several field sobriety tests at the accident scene and failed all of them. Id. According to Officer Figueroa, Jared's breath also smelled strongly of "marijuana" and his eyes were "bloodshot," "watery," and "glassy." Id.; Ex. 1-D.

Jared admits (i) he is a "longtime consumer of [marijuana]"; (ii) he drove his mother's car on January 2, 2011, to sell "a substantial amount of marijuana;" (iii) he was in possession of a substantial amount of marijuana when the accident occurred; (iii) he smelled of marijuana when Officer Figueroa was speaking with him after the accident; and (iv) he told the officer he was smoking marijuana prior to the accident. See Defendant Jared Awerbach's Motions in Limine Nos. 22-26, at 7:5-6 (conceding Jared is a "longtime consumer of cannabis"), on file with this Court. Indeed, Jared also admitted during his deposition that his mother was well aware of his marijuana use before the accident because she had caught him using marijuana on numerous occasions before the accident:

- Q: When you were expelled for possession of marijuana, did they hold a hearing or any type of proceeding before they expelled you?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. Did they tell your mom?
- A. Yes, sir.

- Q. So your mom knew that you had possession of marijuana at Green Valley High School?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Did your mom know that you were smoking weed since you were twelve?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. How did she know that?
- A. From the multiple times that she caught me.
- 24 Ex. 1-A, at 18-20.

C. Jared admits Andrea gave him the keys to her car prior the accident.

Following the accident, Andrea's insurer, Liberty Mutual, opened a claim. On January 4, 2011, days after the accident, Jared gave a recorded statement to Andrea's insurer, admitting he obtained the keys to Andrea's vehicle from the counter in the home they shared. Specifically, Jared

1	said Andrea k	new he used her car prior to the January 2, 2011, accident:
2	TM:	Do you normally drive the vehicle or have you driven the vehicle in the past.
3 4	JA:	Yeah, I have in the past.
5	TM:	Okay, and, um, how many times would you say you've driven the vehicle?
6	JA:	I can't tell you, Ma'am.
7	***
8	TM:	Okay, and when you've driven the vehicle in the past, did your mother know about it then also?
9	JA:	Uh, once or twice she knew about it when I was going to the store, but others times
11	 See Ex. 1-F, a	at 2 (emphasis added). Jared further admitted he obtained the keys by taking them off
12		here Andrea had left them:
13	TM:	And where were the keys?
14	JA:	They were on the counter.
15	Id. When Jar	ed was asked why he was using Andrea's car on January 2, 2011, he said he needed to
16	run an errand	for his infant son:
17	TM:	And, I did forget to ask one more question. Um, why were you using the vehicle at the time?
18 19	JA:	Uh, I want to go see. I just had a child, so I was getting something for my son from her godmother.
20	Id. , at 6. Jare	d further confirmed he lived with Andrea at the time of the accident:

27	wrongfully." It	ability insurance "is not admissible upon the issue whether the person acted negligently or otherwise is, however, admissible "when it is relevant for another purpose, such as proof of agency, ownership or
28	control, or bias or prejudice of a witness." NRS 48.135. Here, it is relevant to resolving the permission issue.

D. Andrea initially admitted giving Jared permission to drive her car on January 2, 2011.

On March 25, 2011, Emilia initiated this lawsuit, suing Jared for negligence and Andrea for negligent entrustment.² See generally, Comp., on file with this Court. On January 23, 2012, Defendants answered Emilia's Complaint. Andrea admitted she "did entrust control of the vehicle to Jared Awerbach." See Comp., ¶ 23, on file with this Court (emphasis added); Defendants' Answer to Complaint, ¶ 2, on file with this Court.

E. Andrea admitted giving Jared permission to drive her car in response to Emilia's requests for admission.

On May 17, 2012, Emilia served Jared and Andrea with interrogatories, document requests, and requests for admission. See Ex. 1-H. One of Emilia's document requests to Andrea sought "[t]he entire liability insurance or risk department claims files relating to the accident at issue in Plaintiff's complaint." Id., at Request No. 7 (emphasis added).

On June 14, 2012, Defendants responded to Emilia's interrogatories and requests for production of documents, confirming Andrea is Jared's mother. Id. Andrea, however, did not produce a copy of Liberty Mutual's claims notes from the accident. Instead, Andrea objected by claiming the information was attorney work product and protected from disclosure by the attorney client privilege. Ex. 1-H, at Request No. 7.

F. Andrea changed her story and denied giving Jared permission to drive her car.

Emilia filed her Amended Complaint on January 14, 2013. Defendants answered Emilia's amended complaint on February 2, 2013. See Amend. Comp., on file with this Court; see Defendants' Answer to Amended Complaint, on file with this Court. In her Answer to Emilia's Amended Complaint, Andrea changed her original story and for the first time denied giving Jared permission to drive her car on January 2, 2011. See Amend. Comp., ¶ 23; see Answer to Amended Complaint, ¶ 17, on file with this Court.

² After discovery opened, Emilia amended her complaint to assert a cause of action for punitive damages against Jared and joint liability against Andrea. See Amend. Comp., on file with this Court.

G. Andrea feigned production of the complete claims file from her insurer.

On July 3, 2013, Emilia filed a Motion to Compel Andrea to produce the claims file from her January 2, 2011, claim with Liberty Mutual. See Plaintiff's Motion to Compel, on file with this Court. After Emilia filed her motion, Andrea agreed to produce the claims file and Emilia agreed to withdraw her motion to compel. See Notice of Withdrawal of Motion to Compel, on file with this Court. On July 22, 2013, Andrea produced what appeared to be the complete claims notes from her claim with Liberty Mutual. See Ex. 1-G.

H. Andrea, then, testified she did not remember how Jared obtained the keys to Andrea's car on January 2, 2011.

Emilia first deposed Andrea on September 12, 2013. Andrea testified that, as of January 2, 2011, she had personal knowledge Jared used illegal drugs, and had attended various counseling and treatment sessions with him.³ Ex. 1-I, at 14-15. Andrea also testified she knew Jared did not have a driver's license on January 2, 2011, and to her knowledge, had never had a driver's license. Id., at 22:17-23. At that time, Andrea claimed she had never given Jared permission to drive her car prior to the accident. Andrea further testified she knew Jared used her car prior to January 2, 2011:

- Q. Before well, as of January 2, 2011, were you aware that he had previously driven your car without your permission?
- A. Yes.

- Q. Do you know on how many occasions?
- A. No.
- Q. Prior to January 2, 2011, had he ever asked for permission to use your car?
- A. No, I don't think so.
- Id., at 17:18-18:9. When asked about how Jared obtained the keys to her car on January 2, 2011, Andrea was unable to provide an explanation:
 - Q. How did he get the keys?
 - A. I don't know.

This evidence is relevant to proving Emilia's negligent entrustment claim against Andrea, and her negligence claim against Jared. Andrea's firsthand knowledge of Jared's illegal drug use makes it more likely (i) she breached her duty of care to Emilia by entrusting Jared with her vehicle, and (ii) Jared breached his duty of care to Emilia by driving with illegal levels of marijuana in his blood system.

A.	I don't know, because I don't know when he took them.
	A WOLL & MILE OF THE PROPERTY
Q.	Do you know where you were when he took your car?
A.	No.
Q.	Would you have been home when he took your car?
A.	Yeah, I'd have to be.
Id. , at 21:4-13	. Andrea further claimed she "constantly" hid her keys, but could not identify where she hid them	on January 2, 2011, and that she "doubts" the keys were left on the counter:
Q:	At the time, on January 2, 2011, was there a regular place where you kept your car keys in your house?
A.	I think I was answering based on January 2. No. I constantly hide the keys.
Q.	You didn't hide them that day, did you?
A.	Yes.
Q.	Now, Jared said the keys were left out on the counter. Is he not telling the truth?
A.	I doubt they were left on the counter.
Q.	You're not sure correct.
A.	I'm sure. I never leave the keys out on the counter.

Q.	Do you know where you hid the keys that day?
A.	No.
Id. , at 21:1-22	2:23. Andrea further admitted she spoke with her insurer:
	ve you ever given a statement to your insurance company about the nt?
A. Ye	S.
Q. Wł	nen was that?
A. I'n	sure days following the accident. I don't remember the dates.
Q. Do	you know if they recorded that statement?
A. I de	on't know.
	A. Id., at 21:4-13 she hid them of Q: A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Yes Q. Wh A. I'm Q. Do

Q. You know, sometimes they tell you, at the beginning of the call, we're going to be recording this.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Do you recall if that happened?

A. Assuming that it happened.

MR. SMITH: Can I have you check into that, because I don't think we received a recorded statement from her.

MS. McLEOD: I'll be happy to recheck. But I'll tell you, for purposes of the record, that we've produced all recorded statements that were provided in the claims file. But I have no problem double-checking for you.

Id., at 26:12-27:6. Despite this conversation, Andrea did not provide her statement to Emilia.4

I. Andrea frivolously seeks summary judgment on the issue of permissive use.

Instead of producing the concealed evidence, on November 8, 2013, Andrea filed a Motion for Summary Judgment claiming it was undisputed she did not give Jared permission to drive her car on January 2, 2011, and seeking judgment as a matter of law on Emilia's negligent entrustment claim and her claim for joint liability pursuant to NRS 41.440. Andrea's motion was based primarily upon Andrea's September 12, 2013, deposition testimony where Andrea testified, under oath, that she could not remember how Jared obtained her car keys on January 2, 2011, and that she "always" hid her keys from Jared. See Andrea Awerbach's Motion for Summary Judgment, on file with this Court. Jared opposed Andrea's motion, conceding he had used Andrea's car with permission prior to January 2, 2011, and that he obtained the keys to Andrea's car from the counter in the home they shared. See Defendant Jared Awerbach's Opposition to Andrea Awerbach's Motion for Summary Judgment, on file with this Court.

Emilia opposed Andrea's motion explaining the issue of implied permission was an issue of fact for a jury and that there is more than sufficient evidence in the record to support a finding of permission, whether express or implied. See generally Plaintiff's Opposition to Andrea Awerbach's Motion for Summary Judgment, on file with this Court. Days after Emilia and Jared opposed

Andrea's motion, Andrea withdrew the motion from the Court's consideration. See Defendant Andrea Awerbach's Withdrawal of Motion for Summary Judgment, on file with this Court.

J. Jared admitted driving Andrea's car with her permission on January 2, 2011.

On March 27, 2014, Jared was deposed. Jared testified that prior to January 2, 2011, he had used Andrea's car with her permission. Ex. 1-A, at 178-179. Jared also testified that on January 2, 2011, Andrea "left them [the keys] on the counter the day of the accident." Id., at 180:5-7. In other words, Jared's version of events contradicts Andrea's September 12, 2013, deposition testimony.

K. Emilia subpoenaed Liberty Mutual's claims notes.

On October 9, 2014, Emilia served a subpoena duces tecum on Liberty Mutual seeking its internal documents regarding insurance claims Andrea had made, including prior claims where Jared was driving Andrea's vehicle. Liberty Mutual initially objected to the subpoena through counsel. Ultimately, Liberty Mutual agreed to produce a claims file from the accident.

L. Andrea continues to feign ignorance regarding how Jared obtained her car keys.

On October 24, 2014, Emilia took a second deposition of Andrea. Andrea conceded Jared had driven her car on several occasions prior to January 2, 2011. Ex. 1-J, at 141:10-25. When asked how Jared obtained the keys to drive her car on those prior occasions, Andrea claimed she does not know how Jared obtained the keys because she claims she hid the keys in "[a]ny place she could think of":

Q: What were the hiding places that you used for your keys around the time of the January 2011 accident?

A: Under the bed. In the -- in his section of the bathroom like way behind in the cabinet under the sink while I was in the shower. In the closet in different purses. In the closet underneath things. In a briefcase and then I would hide the briefcase under the bed. In dresser drawers. Inside things. Inside garbage cans. Inside garbage I thought he wouldn't go through. In -- while I was cooking, in various drawers in the kitchen. Sometimes underneath several cushions on the couch, like underneath the couch. Under the recliner, under the recliner, so I'd have to get up and he'd have to lift the couch to find it. Any place that I could think of.

Id., at 142:5-19; 158:23-159:14. Despite this, Andrea claimed she could not remember where she hid the keys on January 2, 2011, or if she had hidden them at all that day. Id., at 158:23-159:21.

Further, when asked about Jared's testimony that he obtained the keys from the counter on January 2, 2011, Andrea continued to spin her web of deception: 2 You know Jared says that he took the keys off the counter; correct? 3 A. I have read that. 4 Why would he lie about that? 5 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, mischaracterizes --6 (Multiple parties speaking.) 7 MR. SMITH: Well, wait a minute. Let me ask you the question first. 8 BY MR. SMITH: Q. Do you think he's lying about that? 10 A. I think he's mistaken. I think he may have seen them there earlier. 11 Id., at 161:9-20. Ultimately, Andrea conceded "there's a chance" that the "keys were on the counter 12 when [Jared] took them" on January 2, 2011. Id., at 162:10-13. 13 Andrea concealed her conversation with Liberty Mutual's adjustor. Μ. 14 On November 10, 2014, after Andrea's second deposition, Liberty Mutual disclosed a 15 version of Liberty Mutual's claims notes that are much different from the version Andrea disclosed 16 in July, 2013. In particular, the first page of the notes Liberty Mutual produced contained a note 17 detailing a January 17, 2011, conversation between Liberty Mutual adjustor, Teresa Meraz, and 18 Andrea at 4:44 p.m.: 19 I called insd and was able to reach her. She states opac and his girlfriend were 20 living w/her. Opac has used her veh in the past when he was practicing to get his permit. Insd was home the day of the ax. She had let opac use her keys earlier 21 that day to get something out of her car. She usually keeps the car keys on the mantle. Opac does not have his own set of car keys. She thought opac had 22 returned the keys but he didn't. Opac and his girlfriend were at a friend's home in the same apt complex. His girlfriend came home but insd later got the call that 23 opac was in accident and was arrested. 24 Ex. 1-K (emphasis added). Amazingly, this note appears to have been erased from the claims notes 25 Andrea produced: 26 27

Andrea also produced an earlier note to further her ruse. In particular, Andrea produced a January 3, 2011, note showing she called her insurer the day after the accident. Then, when Andrea claimed during her deposition that she spoke with her insurer "days following the accident," it would appear Andrea produced the relevant claims notes. All along, however, Andrea was concealing the January 17, 2011, note. Other notes also appear whited-out, and Defendants have not produced complete copies. In other words, while Defendants have repeatedly modified their story regarding permissive use, Defendants have been actively concealing relevant evidence regarding key issues. This, despite Emilia's requests for the information. Moreover, Emilia has deposed Andrea twice regarding this issue without complete information. Both times, Andrea's story directly contradicted the evidence she concealed.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Court is well within its discretion to strike Andrea's pleadings.

Under NRCP 37(c)(1):

A party that without substantial justification fails to disclose information required by Rule 16.1, 16.2, or 26(e)(1), or to amend a prior response to discovery as required by Rule 26(e)(2), is not, unless such failure is harmless, permitted to use as evidence at a trial, at a hearing, or on a motion any witness or information not so disclosed. In addition to or in lieu of this sanction, the court, on motion and after affording an opportunity to be heard, may impose other appropriate sanctions. In addition to requiring payment of reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, these sanctions may include any of the actions authorized under Rule 37(b)(2)(A), (B), and (C) and may include informing the jury of the failure to make the disclosure.

Under NRCP 37(b)(2)(A), (B), and (C), the Court may make:

- (A) An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;
- (B) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting that party from introducing designated matters in evidence;
- (C) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party.

In addition, the Nevada Supreme Court has made clear the district courts have "inherent equitable powers to dismiss actions or enter default judgments for . . . abusive litigation practices" and

"[l]itigants and attorneys alike should be aware that these powers may permit sanctions for discovery and other litigation abuses not specifically proscribed by statute." Young v. Johnny Ribiero Building, Inc., 106 Nev. 88, 92, 787 P.2d 777, 779 (1990) (deletion in original). Other courts agree:

[d]ismissal is an available sanction when a party has engaged deliberately in deceptive practices that undermine the integrity of judicial proceedings because courts have inherent power to dismiss an action when a party has willfully deceived the court and engaged in conduct utterly inconsistent with the orderly administration of justice.

Leon v. IDX Sys. Corp., 464 F.3d 951, 958 (9th Cir. 2006) (internal quotations omitted). In Young, the trial court found:

that appellant Bill Young (Young) willfully fabricated evidence during discovery. Based on this finding, the court sanctioned Young by dismissing his entire complaint, ordering Young to pay certain of the fees and costs of respondent Johnny Ribeiro Building, Inc. (JRBI), and adopting the accounting proposed by JRBI as the final accounting of Young's and JRBI's interests in the parties' partnership.

Young, 106 Nev. at 90, 787 P.2d at 778. The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed the sanctions. Id. Indeed, the Nevada Supreme Court has routinely upheld district court orders striking pleadings and entering terminating sanctions for discovery abuses. See, e.g., Foster, 126 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 6, 227 P.3d 1042 (Feb. 25, 2010); Bahena, 126 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 26, 235 P.3d at 594-96; Hamlett v. Reynolds, 114 Nev. 863, 865, 963 P.2d 457, 458 (1998); Temora Trading Co. Ltd. v. Perry, 98 Nev. 229, 645 P.2d 436 (1982); Kelly Broadcasting Co., Inc. v. Sovereign Broadcast, Inc., 96 Nev. 188, 606 P.2d 1089 (1980) Havas v. Bank of Nevada, 96 Nev. 567, 613 P.2d 706 (1980).

Nevada is in line with other jurisdictions. For example, in Berglund v. Boeing, the plaintiff manipulated emails in order to support her whistleblower claim. The district court dismissed the claim on that basis:

Boeing charges Berglund altered email messages and lied about doing so while under oath at deposition. During discovery, Berglund produced hundreds of pages of email messages to Boeing she claimed were the same email messages provided to the government during its false claims investigation. Among these emails are Berglund's exchanges with co-workers in late 2001 and early 2002, immediately before Berglund filed this case in February 2002, in which they discuss at length Boeing's compliance with internal manufacturing specification BAC 5008. Boeing represents that it compared Berglund's email messages to those produced by Boeing employees and found certain key emails key [sic] appeared repeatedly but differed in content. The record proves Boeing's charge.

Bergland v. Boeing Co., 835 F. Supp. 2d 1020, 1045 (D. Or. 2011). In Ashton v. Knight, the Defendants removed key pieces of evidence from an automobile crash scene in an attempt to conceal their involvement in the crash and then, as here, sought summary judgment based on the "missing evidence" in an attempt to escape liability. The court struck the defendants' pleadings and their defenses to liability, explaining:

The Defendants' attempts to conceal their involvement in the accident are highly relevant both to liability and potential damages. Indeed, the Defendants are well aware of this truth. Having failed in their attempts on summary judgment to argue that there was no evidence that Muthee struck Ashton, they attempted to stipulate to the very instruction the Court is now considering as a sanction. The stipulation was never formally agreed to by the Plaintiff because the Defendants insisted that the stipulation foreclosed the admission of evidence of their bad faith conduct at trial, obviously aware of its potential prejudicial effect. Obviously, a more severe sanction than an instruction similar to that already posed by the Defendants is appropriate.

Key to crafting the most appropriate remedy in this case is the requirement that the sanction serve as a deterent to spoliation. A deemed admission or a less severe sanction such as attorneys fees caused by their conduct might conceivably encourage Muthee, Knight, and similar defendants to conceal and destroy evidence against them in the future. Why not, if it aids them in avoiding liability and carries minimal risk by way of consequences to the enterprise? It cannot be overlooked that here, if not for the displaced fairing left at the accident scene, it is unlikely that Muthee or Knight would have been tied to the accident scene. Defendants in similar accident situations must be on notice that fleeing the scene and destroying evidence of their involvement will carry a stiff penalty, a penalty so harsh that it stops this type of conduct in its tracks. Consideration of this requirement weighs heavily in favor of a harsher sanction.

Ashton v. Knight Transp., Inc., 772 F. Supp. 2d 772, 804-05 (N.D. Tex. 2011). In other words, there is substantial precedent supporting striking a party's answer and entering a finding of liability for willful concealment of relevant evidence.

B. The Nevada Supreme Court's factors support striking Andrea's pleadings.

The Nevada Supreme Court has explained that case terminating sanctions must be supported with an analysis of several factors, including:

the degree of willfulness of the offending party, the extent to which the non-offending party would be prejudiced by a lesser sanction, the severity of the sanction of dismissal relative to the severity of the discovery abuse, whether any evidence has been irreparably lost, the feasibility and fairness of alternative, less severe sanctions, such as an order deeming facts relating to improperly withheld or destroyed evidence to be admitted by the offending party, the policy favoring adjudication on the merits, whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for the misconduct of his attorney, and need to deter both parties and future litigants from similar abuses.

Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. The Court has since clarified that dismissal of an action as a discovery sanction need not be preceded by other less severe sanctions. Bahena v. Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., 126 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 26, 235 P.3d 592, 598 (June 1, 2010), citing Young v. Johnny Ribiero Building, Inc., 106 Nev. 88, 93, 787 P.2d 777, 780 (1990). Further, the District Court's imposition of discovery sanctions, including case terminating sanctions, is reviewed for abuse of discretion, and "[e]ven if [the Nevada Supreme Court] would not have imposed such sanctions in the first instance, [it] will not substitute [its] judgment for that of the District Court." Id., 106 Nev. at 92, 787 P.2d at 779. This case is no different.

C. Andrea has willfully impeded discovery.

Under Young, the first factor to consider is the degree of willfulness of the offending party. Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. Here, the record is clear Andrea willfully withheld critical information that is highly relevant to Emilia's claims and highly unfavorable to Defendants' defenses. Most importantly, Andrea produced claims notes that appeared complete. This, while knowing she intentionally deleted the most relevant note containing her admissions of liability. Andrea secretly redacted relevant factual information regarding how Jared obtained the keys to Andrea's car and confirming that Andrea, at a minimum, gave Jared implied permission to drive Andrea's car on January 2, 2011, by giving Jared the keys to her car that day. Andrea also failed to disclose she had previously said she usually left the keys on the mantle. Instead, Andrea testified at length during her depositions about allegedly hiding the keys at all times.

In fact, not only did Andrea hide this information from Emilia, she has amended her version of events, first admitting Jared had permission, then denying he had permission and claiming under oath she does not know how he obtained the keys to her car. This, while knowing the entire time she gave Jared the keys shortly before the crash and routinely made them available to him by leaving them on the mantle. Andrea's conduct also forced Emilia to expend significant time and money to conduct discovery regarding permissive use, including two depositions of Andrea and a lengthy deposition of Jared to investigate permissive use. This, while knowing the entire time Andrea was suppressing evidence that contradicted her sworn testimony and her answer to Emilia's amended complaint. Andrea willfully impeded discovery by challenging a critical issue to the case, then withholding key information that effectively resolves the issue in Emilia's favor. This Court is well within its discretion under NRCP 37 and the court's inherent powers to punish abusive litigation practices to strike Andera's answer, enter a default on liability, and allow Emilia to prove her damages.

D. Emilia would be prejudiced by a lesser sanction.

Under Young, the court must next consider the extent to which Emilia would be prejudiced by a lesser sanction. Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. "A [party] suffers prejudice if the [offending party's] actions impair the [party's] ability to go to trial or threaten to interfere with the rightful decision of the case." In re Phenylpropanolamine (PPA) Products, 460 F.3d 1217, 1236 (9th Cir. 2006), cited by Foster, 126 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 6, 227 P.3d at 1049. "In order to satisfy the prejudice requirement, the party seeking sanctions must demonstrate that the missing or altered evidence would have been relevant to her case." Ashton, 772 F. Supp. 2d at 801. "[L]ost or destroyed evidence is 'relevant' if a reasonable trier of fact could conclude that the lost evidence would have supported the claims or defenses of the party that sought it." Id. "Prejudice to the non-culpable party can range from an utter inability to prove claims or defenses to minimal effects on the presentation of proof. Generally, the prejudice element is satisfied where a party's ability to present its case or to defend is compromised." Id. This factor is particularly applicable here.

Emilia seeks to hold Andrea liable for Jared's conduct under NRS 41.440, providing that any liability imposed upon a defendant arising out of his or her driving a vehicle with the express or implied permission of the vehicle's owner is imputed to the vehicle's owner if the owner is a family member of the defendant. "The existence of the requisite permission...is to be determined by the trier of fact based on all the circumstances and inferences reasonably to be drawn therefrom." Taylor v. Roseville Toyota, Inc., 138 Cal. App. 4th 994, 1004 (2006) (deletion in original, emphasis added). "Where the issue of implied permissive use is involved, the general relationship existing between the owner and the operator, is of paramount importance." Id., at 1002. In other words, facts pertaining to Jared's prior use of Andrea's car and Andrea's pattern of making the keys easily available to Jared by leaving them on the mantle is critical to a jury's determination of permissive

In refusing to overturn a jury's determination of permissive use in Casey v. Fortune, the appellate court explained:

[e]ven though the testimony of the owner and the driver of the automobile was uncontradicted, the trial judge was not required to accept it. [The mother's] answers were evasive as to whether she had knowledge, prior to the night of the accident, that Robert had been driving the automobile...[S]he continued to keep the keys where they were easily obtainable by him, "in plain view" on the buffet where "We always keep our keys." The court may have concluded that, under circumstances, the keeping of the keys in such an accessible place refuted her testimony that he was told not to use the automobile.

Casey v. Fortune, 179 P.2d 99, 100 (Cal. 1947) (emphasis added).

Andrea's decision to withhold the January 17, 2011, claims note detailing the conversation between Andrea and Ms. Meraz threatens to interfere with the rightful decision of the case. This, because evidence showing Andrea routinely made the keys available to Jared prior to January 2, 2011, and, in fact, gave Jared the keys on January 2, 2011, is critical to a jury's determination of permissive use. This is precisely why Defendants decision to withhold the January 17, 2011, note is so egregious. If Defendants had disclosed this note when they were required to, it would have allowed Emilia the opportunity to impeach Andrea during her deposition, and depose Liberty Mutual and its adjustor regarding the conversations with Andrea. Proper disclosure would also have saved Emilia a significant amount of time and expense deposing Andrea and Jared on the issue of permissive use. In addition, if Andrea had disclosed the complete claims note, Andrea would never have filed her motion for summary judgment, and Emilia would not have had to spend significant time and expense opposing the motion. Imposing any sanctions other than striking Andrea's answer effectively condones Defendants' abusive litigation practices and rewards their underhanded conduct. Ashton, 772 F. Supp. 2d at 804-05.

In the event the Court determines alternative sanctions are appropriate, Emilia requests that the court enter conclusive findings that Jared had permission to drive Andrea's car on January 2, 2011, relieving Emilia of the burden of having to prove that fact during trial.

E. The severity of, and the prejudice caused by, Defendants' willful discovery abuse, far outweighs the severity of striking Andrea's answer.

The Court must next consider the severity of the dismissal sanction relative to the severity of the discovery abuse. Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. Allowing Defendants to thwart

Emilia's attempts to prove the required elements of her claims wholly upends the discovery process and places Emilia at a severe disadvantage in this case. "[T]he purpose of discovery is to aid a party in the preparation of its case." Pac. Fisheries, Inc. v. U.S., 484 F.3d 1103, 1111 (9th Cir. 2007). An additional purpose of discovery "is to reveal what evidence the opposing party has, thereby helping determine which facts are undisputed...and which facts must be resolved at trial." In re Phenylpropanolamine (PPA) Products, 460 F.3d at1239.

Here, Emilia has suffered severe prejudice as a result of Defendants' discovery abuses. Not only did Defendants refuse to properly respond to Emilia's written request for the entire claims file, Defendants produced the claims file and actively withheld unprivileged, discoverable information in the claims notes that is favorable to Emilia. Defendants' active concealment of the January 17, 2011, note caused significant delay by forcing Emilia to depose Jared and Andrea on this issue to determine facts that already existed but that were hidden from Emilia. In short, the prejudice inflicted on Emilia as a result of Defendants' abusive litigation tactics far outweighs any prejudice Defendants will suffer if Andrea's Answer is stricken as a result of Defendants' intentional conduct.

F. Less severe sanctions would likewise result in a finding of Andrea's joint liability anyway.

The Court must also consider "the feasibility and fairness of alternative, less severe sanctions, such as an order deeming facts relating to improperly withheld or destroyed evidence to be admitted by the offending party." Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. Less severe sanctions would be unfair to Emilia. Emilia specifically requested Liberty Mutual's claims notes in order to obtain evidence regarding permissive use. If the Court enters less severe sanctions by making a finding that Jared did, in fact, have permission to drive Andrea's car on January 2, 2011, the outcome is the same, as Andrea will be deemed liable for Jared's conduct under the joint liability statute. In reality, less severe sanctions would be patently unfair to Emilia by forcing her to incur additional attorneys' fees in order to achieve the same end as striking Andrea's answer now. Ashton, 772 F. Supp. 2d at 804-05 ("A deemed admission or a less severe sanction such as attorneys fees caused by their conduct might conceivably encourage...similar defendants to conceal and destroy evidence against them in the future").

G. By willfully obstructing discovery, Andrea has effectively waived her right to a trial on the merits.

The court must next consider the policy of favoring adjudication a case on its merits. Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. Although the Nevada Supreme Court has recognized that public policy favors resolution of a case on its merits, it has also recognized that policy is not advanced by permitting a party to flaunt its discovery obligations to the detriment of opposing parties. Foster, 126 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 6, 227 P.3d at 1049. The policy of resolving an action on its merits presumes that both sides to an action will have equal opportunity to obtain the information necessary to advance their position. When a party fails to cooperate in the discovery process, the party itself frustrates this policy because it prevents the opposing party from being able to properly determine what facts remain disputed for trial. As the Ninth Circuit stated:

a case that is stalled or unreasonably delayed by a party's failure to comply with deadlines and discovery obligations cannot move forward toward resolution on the merits. Thus, we have also recognized that this factor 'lends little support' to a party whose responsibility it is to move a case toward disposition on the merits but whose conduct impedes progress in that direction.

See In re Phenylpropanolamine (PPA) Products, 460 F.3d at 1228.

In this action, Defendants' willful concealment of the January 17, 2011, claims note, and other information in the claims file, proves the lack of merit in Andrea's defense. That is, Andrea, at a minimum, gave Jared implied permission to drive her car by making the car keys readily available to him and giving him the keys on January 2, 2011. Otherwise, Andrea would have had no motivation to conceal the January 27, 2011, claims note. Andrea cannot complain about not having a liability trial on the merits when Andrea transparently attempted to thwart Emilia's right to a trial on the merits by concealing the proverbial smoking gun. By refusing to cooperate in the discovery process, Andrea has waived her right to trial on the merits and this factor "lends little support" to preserving that right. Id.

H. Defendants themselves have chosen to willfully impede discovery.

The court must also consider "whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for the misconduct of his attorney." Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. Although the attorney-client privilege prevents Emilia from inquiring into whether Andrea's discovery abuses are attributable to Andrea, or to her counsel, Andrea's deposition testimony indicates Andrea is responsible for her own conduct. That is, Andrea claimed during her deposition that she did not give Jared permission to drive her car and that she does not know how he obtained her car keys. This was clearly an orchestrated ruse as Andrea was fully aware she gave Jared the keys because she told her insurer that 15 days after the accident. Andrea also testified at length about routinely hiding the keys from Jared. This, even though she told her insurer she usually kept the keys on the mantle. Again, Andrea's sworn testimony contradicted the statement she gave her insurer 15 days after the accident. At a minimum, if Emilia had the January 17, 2011, claims note during either of Andrea's two depositions, the note would have allowed Emilia to impeach Andrea using her prior statements. Jared, in contrast, readily concedes he had permission and that he used Andrea's car on several occasions prior to the date of the accident. From this, it is obvious that striking Defendants' answer would not punish Andrea for the conduct of her counsel, but instead punish Andrea for abusing the discovery process and her refusal to cooperate in the litigation process.

I. Some evidence has been irreparably lost.

The court must also consider whether evidence has been irreparably lost. Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. "[A] party is required to preserve documents, tangible items, and information relevant to litigation that are reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence." Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122 Nev. 442, 450, 134 P.3d 103, 108 (2006). "The pre-litigation duty to preserve evidence is imposed once a party is on notice of a potential legal claim." Id. "A party is on notice when litigation is reasonably foreseeable." Id.

Without knowing what other information contained in the claims notes is being withheld, it is difficult for Emilia to know whether any evidence has been irreparably lost. Indeed, Emilia still does not know what other information has been redacted or omitted from the claims notes considering there are a number of blank spaces in the claims notes. Regardless, Andrea's depositions would have been significantly more effective if Emilia had known about the January 17, 2011, note as Emilia could have asked Andrea about the note during either of her depositions. Instead, withholding the information effectively bought Andrea a significant amount of time, allowing her to fabricate a different version of events and, then, claim ignorance regarding the true facts. Now, years later, memories fade, and evidence is lost. Indeed, Emilia only recently noticed Ms. Meraz's deposition because prior to receiving the complete claims notes, Emilia was unaware Ms. Meraz's testimony was critical to permissive use. Evidence has been lost as Ms. Meraz's memory has faded in the years since the accident and in the years since Andrea feigned production of the complete claims notes nearly a year and a half earlier.

J. Terminating sanctions are necessary to deter other parties from engaging in similar conduct.

Finally, the Court must consider the "need to deter both parties and future litigants from similar abuses." Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. As the United States Supreme Court has acknowledged, "[u]nfortunately, the cost of litigation in this country -- furthered by discovery procedures susceptible to gross abuse -- has reached the point where many persons and entities simply cannot afford to litigate even the most meritorious claim or defense." Delta Air Lines v. August, 450 U.S. 346, 363 n.1 (1981) (Powell, J. concurring). Striking Andrea's answer would deter Andrea and other parties from conducting themselves in the same manner in other litigation by willfully concealing critical evidence. Foster, 126 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 6, 227 P.3d at 1049 ("In light of appellants' repeated and continued abuses... the ultimate sanctions were necessary to demonstrate to future litigants that they are not free to act with wayward disregard of a court's orders"). Emilia has already expended tens of thousands of dollars litigating this case, all to have her efforts impeded and frustrated by Defendants' conduct over a nearly two year period. Imposing severe sanctions under these circumstances would likewise serve as a deterrent by showing that this Court will not tolerate willful and intentional discovery abuse, including knowingly and purposefully concealing evidence critical to a fair resolution of this case on its merits.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, Emilia's motion should be granted and Andrea's answer stricken. At a bare minimum, Emilia is entitled to a conclusive finding that Jared did, in fact, have permission to drive Andrea's car on January 2, 2011.

I, Stacy Sweeney, do hereby declare:

That I am a Forensic Scientist employed by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department;

That I am a "chemist", as defined in Nevada Revised Statute 50.320, and my duties include the analysis of the blood of a person to determine the presence or quantification of a controlled substance, chemical, or prohibited substance;

That on March 27, 2009, I first qualified in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County, Nevada, as an expert witness, to testify regarding the presence and amount of controlled substances in a biological fluid;

That I received a sealed blood sample in the above case from a secure refrigerator in the LVMPD Forensic Laboratory;

That I completed an analysis on the sample and identified:

Δ°-TETRAHYDROCANNABINOL THC CARBOXYLIC ACID (Marijuana metabolite) 3.3 ng/ml 47 ng/ml

That I sealed the sample and placed it in a secure refrigerator in the LVMPD Forensic Laboratory;

That the evidence was in my custody from the time I first obtained it until I resealed the sample, at which time it was in substantially the same condition as when I first obtained it.

Reviewer

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

TM: Okay, this is Teresa Meraz interviewing Jared Awerbach. I'm at telephone number 1-800-577-4299 at Extension 75664. It's currently 3:12 p.m. in Phoenix, Arizona, on January, uh, 6, 2011. And, this concerns an accident that occurred in Las Vegas, Nevada, on January 2, 2011. And, Jared, can you please state and spell your full name?

JA: State my name and, uh, what did you need me to do?

TM: Excuse me?

JA: I can't hear you.

TM: Okay, um.

JA: Yeah, helio?

TM: Can, you...

JA: I'm sorry.

JA: St, state and spell my full name, my full name is Jared Awerbach J-A-R-E-D A-W-E-R-B-A-C-H.

TM: And, what's your current address?

JA: 1827 West Gowan.

TM: And, how do you spell the name of that street?

JA: G-O-W-A-N.

TM: And, is that in Las Vegas?

JA: Yeah, North Las Vegas, Nevada.

TM: Okay, and how long have you lived at this address?

JA: Um, three or four years.

TM: You said three to four years?

JA: Mm hmm.

TM: Okay, and what's a, what's your date of birth?

JA: 2/11/92.

TM: And, do you know the year, make and model of the vehicle you were driving?

JA: I know it's a Suzuki Forenza, I don't know the year.

TM: Okay, and who is the owner?

JA: (Transcriber note: all proper names note spelled are typed as they sound) Andrea Awerbach.

TM: And, what is your relationship to her?

JA: That's my mother.

TM: Okay, did you have permission to drive the vehicle?

JA: No, she did not know I had it.

TM: She didn't know?

JA: No.

TM: Okay, was she home at the time?

JA: Uh, yeah, I think so.

TM: And, where were the keys?

JA: They were on the counter.

TM: Do you normally drive the vehicle or have you driven the vehicle in the past?

JA: Yeah, I have in the past.

TM: Okay, and, um, how many times would you say you've driven the vehicle?

JA: I can't tell you that, Ma'am.

TM: Okay, and did she verbally tell you, you were not allowed to use the vehicle or it's just something that you didn't ask at the time?

JA: Uh, I didn't ask at the time, but I wasn't supposed to be driving, 'cause I, uh, there was a problem with my permit. I thought I had a permit, but I didn't, so, um, I was driving around with no, uh, papers or anything like that and I wasn't aware of it.

TM: Let's see, do you have a driver's license?

JA: No, I don't.

TM: Okay, have you ever had a driver's license?

JA: Uh, no I haven't.

TM: Okay, and when you've driven the vehicle in the past, did your mother know about it then also?

JA: Uh, once or twice she knew about it when I was going to the store, but others times...

TM: Okay.

JA: I Just took it without her permission.

TM: Okay, did you have any passenger's with you at the time?

JA: No, I was by myself.

TM: Okay, and do you have your own car or your own auto insurance?

JA: No, I do not.

TM: Okay.

JA: Is there any, is there any way I could tell you about the accident now, 'cause I'm kind of, um, I'm on a time limit?

TM: Oh, yeah, yeah, definitely. Tell me, um, tell me how it occurred.

JA: Okay, so I was coming out of the apartments, they're called, uh, Villa Del Sol. And. I was making a left into oncoming traffic and I saw a bus and a bus was ahead of me and a bus was stopped and a bus, or behind the bus it looked clear, so I went to make my left into oncoming traffic, the bus was clear and then I hit the white vehicle or it was the collision. It wasn't, I hit it, you know what I mean. I'm not admitting that I hit her, I'm just saying there was a collision. And, then we spun around for a little bit in and we were in the middle of the street and I, uh, ran over to see if she was okay, she said she was sick and a little scared. And, I said okay, are you sick, are you bleeding, are you hurt, she said no and I ran back to my car and got, uh, all my information, (several words unintelligible).

JA: She was coming from my left.

TM: Do you in which lane she was in?

Recorded Statement of Jared Awerbach 17331078-02

JA: She was in the second.

TM: Is that,

JA: There was a bus in the first lane.

TM: Okay, and did you make your left turn, um, when the bus is still stopped there or after the bus, um, left?

JA: The bus was still on the left. The bus had a passenger.

TM: Okay, so it was still there?

JA: It was like 20 feet, yeah, there was probably 20 feet between me and the bus or maybe 60, I'm not sure (unintelligible), but I was, the bus had stopped, the bus was at the bus stop.

TM: And, when did you first see the other vehicle?

JA: Um, after I heard the collision.

TM: Did you have any time to react, like hit your brakes or swerve or anything like that?

JA: Yeah, I did swerve and, uh, I tried to hit the gas so I could move the car and, uh, nothing, it was like, and it was smoking.

TM: And, which way did you try to swerve?

JA: I tried to swerve left, so that I could go back and get out of traffic.

TM: And, were you under the influence of any drugs or alcohol?

JA: No, I was not.

TM: Were the police called?

JA: Yeah, the police were there. I did, um, I received a DUI for the ticket, but I was not under the influence. I had, um, marijuana on me and I received a possession charge for that.

TM: Like you had it with you, but you hadn't, um, taken it?

JA: Yeah.

TM: Okay.

JA: Correct, um, does that matter to you guys?

TM: Um, yeah, it does.

JA: Okay.

TM: So, you hadn't, uh, smoked that day?

JA: No.

TM: Okay, did the officer issue...

JA: It was just on my (unintelligible, both parties speaking).

TM: Okay, did the officer issue...

JA: Uh, It was just on my (unintelligible, both parties speaking).

TM: Did the officer...

JA: And, issued a DUL

TM: Okay, any other citations?

JA: They issued, uh, it was on my (unintelligible). Yeah, it was on my (unintelligible), and, uh, I had, uh, lied to him, I was trying to, uh, stay out of jail and not get caught with the, uh, marijuana, but, um, they had found the marijuana when I went to jail.

TM: And, do you know when the last time you had smoked was?

JA: Like weeks ago.

TM: Okay, did the officer issue any citations for the traffic accident?

JA: Yeah, he cited me with, um, it was DUI, no driver's license, no proof, proof of insurance, (unintelligible), and, uh, failure to yield, (unintelligible) before driving.

TM: Do you know if there were any witnesses that saw what happened?

JA: Um, no I don't.

TM: Okay, and do you live with your mother?

JA: No, I don't.

TM: You don't, okay.

JA: No.

TM: So, I'm showing that her address is the same apartment complex, do you have different apartments?

JA: Yeah, we, we did, we did, yeah, we did live together, we live in, uh, different apartments.

TM: Okay.

JA: Well, we still, I would say. Well, I'm in the middle of moving out.

TM: Okay, so you still currently stay with her at times?

JA: Um, yeah, I guess you could say, you could find me there.

TM: Okay.

JA: I'm not really here at her house, but my things are still there, you know.

TM: Okay, Okay, and those are all the questions I have, is there anything else that you want to add that we didn't cover?

JA: Um, I'm trying to think.

TM: And, I did forget to ask one more question. Um, why were you using the vehicle at the time?

JA: Uh, I went to go see, I just had a child, so I was getting something for my son from her godmother.

TM: Okay.

JA: Who lives in another apartment.

TM: So, it was.

JA: Her mother's sister.

TM: Okay,

JA: Um, I honestly think, to me it seemed like the white vehicle had sped up, 'cause it was flying by me, you know, and when I hit her it seemed weird, like her tail hit, like spun around too, you know.

TM: Okay, is there anything else?

JA: Yes, and to protect Andrea Awerbach, that she did not have the car or anything like that.

TM: Okay, and are the remarks you've made in his recording your true version to the best of your knowledge?

JA: Yes, Ma'am.

TM: And, have you understood all of my question?

JA: Yeah.

TM: And, was this recording been made with your full knowledge and consent?

JA: (Unintelligible), excuse me?

JA: Oh, yeah.

TM: Okay.

JA: Yes, it was

TM: Thank, thank you and this concludes the recorded interview. And, I'm just going to turn off the recorder and you're going to hear a series of numbers, but stay on the line, okay?

JA: Okay.

- 1 BY MR. SMITH:
- 2 O. You felt that let Jared think he could get
- 3 away with it?
- 4 MR. MAZZEO: Objection.
- 5 MS. COMPTON: Form.
- 6 MR. MAZZEO: Speculation.
- 7 THE WITNESS: I think based on the
- 8 questions you asked me earlier about the detective
- 9 using him as an informant, it served their purposes.
- 10 It kept him active.
- 11 BY MR. SMITH:
- 12 O. What treatment has Jared received for his
- 13 drug use?
- 14 A. In his whole life?
- 15 Q. Yes. Starting with the first time you can
- 16 remember.
- 17 A. He went to counseling. He had probation.
- 18 He had a specialized program at the school where he
- 19 had to sign in and sign out. He had -- he was in a
- 20 few residential facilities. He was in, you know,
- 21 group homes. He was in Utah in a rehab. He had
- 22 juvenile court involvement. He had Narcotics
- 23 Anonymous. He came to Gamblers Anonymous meetings
- 24 with me. He had medications. He had a
- 25 psychiatrist. He's had rehab.

1	Page 8 Q. Do you presently go to Gamblers Anonymous?	7
2	A. Yes, I do.
3	Q. That's important to continue in your
4	recovery; correct?
5	A. Yes.
6	Q. When was the first time Jared went to
7	counseling?
8	A. I believe he started right after the 2005
9	accident.
10	Q. What was the purpose of that counseling?
11	A. Because he had had a traumatic event, so I
12	was concerned about post-traumatic stress disorder,
13	acting out. Maybe he couldn't tell me things.
14	Q. Did you ever go to his counseling sessions
15	that he went to right after the 2005 fight?
16	A. Primarily, it was Jared. I don't think I
17	sat with the counselor at all, that counselor.
18	Q. How long did he go to counseling for after
19	the 2005 fight?
20	A. I would be estimating. He was with one
21	counselor, and then we switched to one that had been
22	recommended by my therapist and I think it was a
23	couple of months before Jared went into a
24	residential facility. Excuse me.

Q. When did he go into a residential facility?

25

- 1 A. I think it was freshman year of high
- 2 school.
- 3 Q. Why did he do that?
- 4 A. Because he was acting out at home. Because
- 5 he was getting in continual trouble and the facility
- 6 offered for him to go in. It was a contact through
- 7 my therapist and they offered to let him.
- 8 Q. What was he doing to act out at home?
- 9 A. He was cutting classes. He was not home
- 10 when he was supposed to be. There was marijuana in
- 11 the house. I could smell it. He would be out -- he
- 12 would go out through his bedroom window and he was
- 13 fighting.
- 14 Q. What do you mean he was fighting?
- 15 A. Physically fighting. I never caught him
- 16 fighting, but he told me about it after.
- 17 And he had much older friends.
- 18 Q. By fighting, you mean like fist-fights?
- 19 A. Yes.
- 20 Q. So he went to counseling from the time of
- 21 the 2005 accident through his freshman year of high
- 22 school when he went to the residential facility?
- 23 A. Yes.
- 24 Q. Did you take him to the counseling
- 25 sessions? In other words -- so, let me ask you a

- 1 better question.
- 2 Did you drive him back and forth?
- A. Not to all of them, not when he was in the
- 4 residential facility, but yes.
- 5 Q. How many counseling sessions did you go to
- 6 with him before he went to the residential facility?
- 7 A. To -- where I drove or where I sat in?
- 8 Q. Where you were actually in the counseling
- 9 session with him and listened to what was being
- 10 talked about.
- 11 A. I don't know. I would say maybe between
- 12 five and ten, but that's -- I could be way off
- 13 because, again, different styles. Sometimes she
- 14 would talk to me for a few minutes and then talk to
- 15 him, sometimes we would have together. But it was
- 16 primarily him. She was not my therapist.
- 17 Q. How much did he go to counseling before he
- 18 started at the residential facility?
- 19 A. Sometimes twice a week. Sometimes once a
- 20 week. He was involved in a group there, so that
- 21 would be individual and group twice a week.
- Q. Did you believe at the time that the
- 23 counseling was helpful?
- A. For a season, for a time I thought it was.
- 25 Q. But he continued acting out; right?

- 1 A. Yes.
- Q. I mean, he continued acting out so bad that
- 3 you had to send him to a residential facility;
- 4 right?
- 5 A. I don't know that his acting out increased
- 6 or that that opportunity presented itself and I felt
- 7 that he would do better.
- 8 Q. His acting out didn't decrease; right?
- 9 A. There were times it decreased, but not at
- 10 that time.
- 11 Q. What's the name of the residential facility
- 12 that he went to his freshman year?
- 13 A. Eagle Quest.
- 14 Q. Where is that at?
- 15 A. I don't know were. They have homes in the
- 16 neighborhood. I don't even know if they're still
- 17 here.
- 18 Q. Is it in Las Vegas?
- 19 A. I don't know where the corporate is, but
- 20 the homes were here in Vegas, yes.
- 21 Q. The one he was in, was it in Las Vegas?
- 22 A. Yes.
- Q. How long was he there for?
- 24 A. I believe about six months. It might have
- 25 been three months.

Page 91 1 Did you visit him there? 0. 2 Α. I didn't visit him in the home. 3 would pick him up. You'd pick him up and take him somewhere? 4 Q. 5 Take him for the day and then he got like a Α. 6 night pass. 7 Q. How often did you do that? 8 Α. I don't know the number. You know, it 9 builds up to when you're allowed to do that. So in 10 a three-month time, maybe ten times. Again, I'm 11 quessinq. 12 Q. Did the treatment at Eagle Quest help him? 13 For a time I thought so. Α. 14 How did it help him? Q. 15 Α. He was more structured. He was happy to be 16 home, so he was more willing to listen. 17 worked out some of his goals and some of his priorities. He had been attending school again. 18 And how long did that structured 19 0. 20 improvement last for? 21 We went from his being released from Eagle Α. 22 Quest on a cross-country trip for about six weeks, 23 and then he went home and went to school, I would 24 say probably about two, three months.

Was he in counseling during those two or

Q.

Page 92 1 three months? 2 Α. Part of that time. What do you mean by part of that time? 3 0. Well, part of that time we were on a 4 Α. 5 six-week cross-country trip. 6 Q. Oh. So the two or three months, you're 7 including the six-week cross-country trip? 8 Α. Yes. Okay. And then what happened that he was 9 0. 10 no longer in the improved state? 11 He was using again. He was involved with older people, people I thought were dangerous. 12 That's when he was in eighth grade then? 13 Q. 14 That was after freshman year. Α. No. 15 I mixed that up. I apologize. Q. Oh. That was his sophomore year? 16 17 Freshman and sophomore year. Α. What other counseling has Jared gone to? 18 Q. 19 Α. Other than outpatient and inpatient, group 20 home. Well, we talked about prior to his freshman 21 0. year, and then I would assume he was in counseling 22 23 at the residential facility; right? 24 Α. Yes. 25 Since that time, what other counseling has Q.

- 1 he had?
- 2 A. Same: Inpatient, rehab, outpatient, NA
- 3 meetings.
- 4 Q. How -- what are the other places that you
- 5 can think of that he's been to for counseling?
- 6 A. Odyssey House in Utah, Bridge Counseling.
- 7 This is not in the order that he attended, but he
- 8 had unofficial services from Mojave Mental Health,
- 9 Choices, juvenile drug court. He had a probation
- 10 officer through them. Let me see. And NA.
- 11 Q. And the counselor that he went to before he
- 12 was in the residential facility, you said there were
- 13 two; right?
- 14 A. Um-hmm.
- 15 Q. What were their names?
- 16 A. I don't recall.
- 17 Q. Did any of those places help?
- 18 A. For a time.
- 19 Q. They would all help for a little bit and
- 20 then he'd relapse?
- MS. COMPTON: Form.
- 22 THE WITNESS: Well, they -- relapse
- 23 isn't -- some of them helped to teach me what I
- 24 needed to know to make things clear -- clearer.
- 25 Some things helped him to deal with -- and may be

- 1 he relapsed, but he dealt with some of his anger.
- 2 So, again, they all helped.
- 3 BY MR. SMITH:
- 4 Q. What are the things that you were taught to
- 5 do?
- 6 A. Counseling helped lower my anxiety,
- 7 clarified that there was in fact a problem because I
- 8 had been getting mixed messages from authorities.
- 9 You know, I heard "boys will be boys" and I knew he
- 10 was in more trouble than that. So clarified that
- 11 there was a problem, taught me how to set even
- 12 clearer limits, talk less, handle being manipulated
- 13 by not talking as much, not to hold investigations
- 14 as parents will, take care of myself physically.
- 15 Q. What place taught you those things?
- 16 A. Somewhat Choices. Somewhat the second
- 17 counseling that he went to, and I'm blanking on her
- 18 name. I thought that she did a slightly better job
- 19 with me than with Jared. And then my own therapist.
- Q. When was Jared at Choices?
- 21 A. When he was in juvenile court, which I
- 22 think was his sophomore and junior year of high
- 23 school.
- Q. What was he in juvenile court for?
- 25 A. Drugs.

	Dago OF
1	Page 95 Q. Did he ever go to juvenile detention?
2	A. Yes.
3	Q. When was that?
4	A. Multiple times.
5	Q. How many?
6	A. I don't know. I would be guessing.
7	Q. More than three?
8	A. Yes.
9	Q. More than five?
10	A. Well, again
11	MR. MAZZEO: I'm sorry. Objection,
12	relevance.
13	Go ahead.
14	THE WITNESS: There's juvenile detention
15	where you're not actually staying where you're in
16	the back room and they call you to pick him up, and
17	that's double digit times.
18	And then there's where he was actually
19	housed in juvenile detention for a number of weeks,
20	and then some times that he had to go back for the
21	weekend.
22	BY MR. SMITH:
23	Q. So more than ten times he was arrested for
24	drugs as a juvenile?
25	A. I can't say that because once you're in
I

Page 96 juvenile drug court, they can pull you back in 1 2 without arresting you. Okay. So he was brought to juvenile 3 0. court --4 5 At least ten. Α. 6 -- drug court more than ten times? Q. Α. Yes. 8 Q. You said also he could have been housed there for weeks at a time. 9 10 How many times did that happen? I believe twice, but, again I'm not 11 remembering accurately. And, again, you go to 12 juvenile detention sometimes just to meet with your 13 14 probation officer, not necessarily because you were 15 arrested. 16 How long was he on probation? 0. 17 I'm guessing nine months --Α. MR. MAZZEO: Objection, speculation. 18 19 BY MR. SMITH: 20 Was it -- how many times was he on Q. probation? 21 22 I believe once. It was -- you know, you're 23 not off and on. It's a progression. You start out 24 informal supervision and then move up.

Move up to what?

Q.

- 1 A. Different levels of -- you know, he went
- 2 from just having to report some documents that he
- 3 took some classes to having an ankle bracelet.
- 4 Q. Because he violated his probation?
- 5 A. Because -- I don't -- sometimes violations.
- 6 Sometimes because he had gotten in trouble again and
- 7 they kind of keep a cumulative record like
- 8 progressive discipline.
- 9 Q. Every time he went to juvenile court, did
- 10 you have to go with him?
- 11 MR. MAZZEO: Objection to the whole line of
- 12 questioning regarding Jared Awerbach's -- regarding
- 13 Andrea Awerbach's knowledge about Jared Awerbach's
- 14 juvenile history, juvenile court probation.
- 15 MR. SMITH: Your objection is noted.
- MR. MAZZEO: Okay.
- 17 THE WITNESS: There were when he was in
- 18 juvenile court -- when he was in drug court, when he
- 19 was in Judge Voy's drug court, there were one or two
- 20 Thursdays that I was able to miss because I was
- 21 tutoring and I would send a letter. But, yes, when
- 22 there were charges.
- 23 BY MR. SMITH:
- 24 Q. Every time he was charged and he had to go
- 25 to drug court, you went with; correct?

- 1 A. There were one or two times that I refused
- 2 to go.
- 3 Q. Why did you refuse to go?
- 4 A. Because I felt that my presence kept him
- 5 from getting the services that he needed because
- 6 they saw an active parent, and so I took the risk of
- 7 their arresting me and didn't show because I wanted
- 8 them to detain him.
- 9 Q. You thought if you didn't go, they would
- 10 be -- well, strike that.
- 11 What did you think would happen if you
- 12 didn't go?
- 13 A. That they would detain him. Because I
- 14 would go with him to juvenile court. He would get
- 15 arrested. They would take us in the back room to
- 16 talk to an in-service worker, who would ask me, Is
- 17 he in counseling? Are you putting him on
- 18 restriction? Does he have electronic toys?
- 19 When I would answer that, the worker would
- 20 say, Well, it looks like you're doing everything you
- 21 need to do, so we're sending him home. So my
- 22 strategy then became let me not do everything I need
- 23 to so you do your job because he needs more
- 24 leverage.
- 25 Q. You felt if they -- strike that.

1	Page 99 You felt if you didn't show up, they would
2	be harder on him?
3	A. Yes.
4	Q. And you needed them to be harder on him
5	because the things that you were doing at home
6	weren't working?
7	A. Yes.
8	As a parent if I can add this: As a
9	parent, there's only so much leverage you have.
10	Q. Did you ever ask Jared to move out before
11	he turned 18?
12	A. Yes.
13	Q. How many times?
14	A. At least once.
15	Q. When was that?
16	A. When he relapsed after his stay in Utah at
17	Odyssey House.
18	Q. How old was he when that happened?
19	A. I believe 17.
20	Q. Seventeen when he went to Odyssey House or
21	when he relapsed or both?
22	A. When he relapsed.
23	Q. When did he go to Odyssey House?
24	A. I think he was 16. He turned 17 just when
25	he came home.

1	Q. What happened when he relapsed when he was
2	17?
3	A. I don't understand the question.
4	Q. How did you know he relapsed?
5	A. I saw it on his phone.
6	Q. I didn't hear you.
7	A. I checked his phone.
8	Q. And what did you find on his phone?
9	A. Conversations about getting high.
10	Q. Have there been other times that you've
11	checked his phone and found conversations about
12	drugs?
13	A. Yes.
14	Q. How many times has that happened?
15	A. I have no idea.
16	Q. More than ten?
17	A. I don't know.
18	Q. When he lived with you prior to the
19	January 2011 accident, how often did you check his
20	phone?
21	A. When he was working a program, when he was
22	meeting with his sponsor and going to meetings,
23	maybe every two weeks. When he was active, as often
24	as I could get his phone.
25	Q. How often was that?

Page 101 If I'm averaging, three or four times a 1 Α. 2 He was careful to keep his phone with him. After he turned 18, did you still check his 3 Q. 4 phone? 5 Periodically. He didn't always live with Α. 6 me after he turned 18. 7 During the times that he lived with you, 0. 8 did you ever check his phone after he turned 18? 9 Α. Yes. 10 Q. How often when he was living with you? Again, not as often because he lived with 11 12 me until -- while he was clean, and then once I knew he wasn't clean, I was better able at getting him 13 out of the house. So maybe once every two weeks. 14 15 Q. You said that you asked him to move out when he was 17? 16 17 Yes. Α. Did he? 18 Q. 19 Α. Yes. 20 Where did he go? Q. 21 Α. As far as I know, to my sister's. 22 That was the time we talked about earlier Q. 23 where he went to live at your sister's for a few 24 months? 25 Α. Yes.

Page 102 1 Why did you let him back in? 0. 2 Α. Because my hope in having him move out was 3 that he would say, Okay, I'm ready to go back into treatment, I'll go to meetings, I want to come home. 4 5 And, instead, he went to my sister's, where I felt it to be a very active criminal place, and I 6 took him home to get him back into treatment. 8 Q. Did you get him back into treatment when he came back? 9 10 Α. I got him back into NA meetings. How often did he go to NA meetings when he 11 came back from your sister's? 12 I don't remember. 13 Α. Did you go with him? 14 Q. 15 Not always. Sometimes he had a sponsor who Α. would pick him up and he would go. And then other 16 17 times I would --18 Q. How many times have you been to NA meetings with him? 19 20 Α. With him? 21 With Jared. Ο. 22 Maybe five because I typically wait in the 23 parking lot so he can go into the meeting himself. You've been in there approximately five 24 Q. 25 times to listen to what's being said?

1	Page 103 A. With him. I've gone to many more on my
2	own.
3	Q. And why have you gone on your own?
4	A. To learn, to be supportive, to stand
5	strong.
6	Q. When did you start going on your own?
7	A. To NA meetings?
8	Q. Yes.
9	A. Jared's freshman year of high school.
10	Q. How often have you gone to NA meetings on
11	your own since Jared's freshman year of high school?
12	A. Probably about 15 times.
13	Q. On the times that you've gone with Jared,
14	what has he talked about in terms of his drug use?
15	A. I don't know that I can answer that. It's
16	an anonymous program. It's
17	MR. MAZZEO: Objection, privacy.
18	MR. SMITH: Well, I'm not asking what
19	anybody else talked about. I'm asking what Jared
20	has said.
21	MS. COMPTON: I object to that question.
22	If you want to call the discovery commissioner and
23	see what she says, you can.
24	MR. MAZZEO: Confidentiality.
25	THE WITNESS: I don't know that I can

Page 104 1 answer that. 2 BY MR. SMITH: Is there more that you think you could have 3 0. done before the accident to help Jared get off of 4 5 drugs? MR. MAZZEO: Objection, speculation, 6 foundation. 8 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I'm going to 9 get --10 MR. MAZZEO: Assumes facts not in evidence. 11 THE WITNESS: I'm going to get emotional. 12 I'm his mother. That's a question I ask myself 900 times a day every day. I did everything 13 14 I knew to do at the time. There are things I know now that I didn't know before. Hopefully, there 15 will be even more things that I learn. I did 16 17 everything I knew to do. BY MR. SMITH: 18 19 Did you go to counseling sessions with him Q. 20 at Odyssey House? 21 Odyssey House is in Utah. He lived there. 2.2 So when I was there, sometimes we went to family 23 sessions, but not on a regular basis. How often did you visit him at Odyssey 24 Q. 25 House?

- 1 A. I think he was there six months. Between
- 2 eight to 12 times I think. It might have been. It
- 3 might have been less.
- 4 Q. During any of the counseling sessions that
- 5 you've been to with him, has he blamed you for any
- 6 of his problems?
- A. Sure.
- 8 Q. What has he said?
- 9 A. He has accused -- when he was much
- 10 younger -- he doesn't any more -- he accused me of
- 11 knowing. He accused me of gambling when I wasn't.
- 12 That's a recent distortion. He has talked about in
- 13 sessions the impact of the gambling.
- 14 He's talked about being angry about not
- 15 having contact with his father, how I could help
- 16 him, how I could set up boundaries for him, what he
- 17 needed.
- 18 For instance, when he was in Utah and he
- 19 needed money for a haircut and he had asked for $25,
- 20 he said to me, Give me 25, not 50. Give me exactly
- 21 what I ask for.
- We talked about ways for him to stay clean.
- 23 We talked about house rules. He apologized for
- 24 things he had done.
- Q. What other ways did he say that you could

1 have helped him?

- A. Not could have. Help him once he comes
- 3 home, how could I help. We discussed how I could
- 4 help him once he's clean.
- 5 Q. Okay. And what are the other ways that he
- 6 told you about?
- 7 A. Being consistent. He asked to have some
- 8 similar structure to Odyssey House where we did
- 9 things in the house together. Having family meals.
- 10 If I could, to work less or to be involved. Working
- 11 more to be really strict with him.
- 12 Q. At that time period did you work a lot?
- 13 A. I was a school teacher.
- 14 Q. Well, what kind of hours were you working?
- 15 A. I worked 8:00 to sometimes 4:00 or 5:00.
- 16 Sometimes I tutored. So, you know, defining "a
- 17 lot," I would bring home work. I wasn't gone, you
- 18 know, 12 to 16 hours a day. Jared was often with me
- 19 at school.
- 20 Q. You said he accused you of knowing.
- 21 What did you mean by that?
- 22 A. Oh, you knew I was using or you knew I was
- 23 taking money. Addicts say that.
- Q. Why was that important to him?
- MR. MAZZEO: Objection, speculation.

Page 107 1 THE WITNESS: It made it okay. Made it 2 okay to use. Made it okay to take money. BY MR. SMITH: 3 He told you he felt it was okay if he used 4 0. 5 drugs if you knew he was doing it? It minimized the pain that he caused 6 Α. No. me. It minimized lying to me. Oh, I didn't lie; 8 you knew. Do you think Jared has PTSD? 9 Q. 10 MS. COMPTON: Foundation. THE WITNESS: I don't know whether the 11 12 medical definition. I think that he has, if not PTSD, then anxiety. 13 14 BY MR. SMITH: 15 Q. And what does he do that leads you to believe that he has PTSD or anxiety? 16 17 He is hypervigilant. Α. What does that mean? 18 Q. 19 When you overreact to stimuli. Α. 20 something falls on the ground and you shake. You 21 have a very anxious reaction. He is constantly 22 checking a room. He is very suspicious of people. 23 He does not sleep even when he's not using. He will put himself in positions where he 24 25 will be hyperanxious, you know, whether it's a love

- 1 of scarey movies -- and I don't know that he loves
- 2 them. But just things that, you know, take things
- 3 to the edge because he's most comfortable when he's
- 4 anxious.
- 5 Q. Any other ways that he demonstrates PTSD or
- 6 anxiety?
- 7 A. He replays events.
- 8 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, foundation.
- 9 THE WITNESS: He replays events. He tells
- 10 the same stories over and over and over again.
- 11 BY MR. SMITH:
- 12 Q. Has he been on medication at any point for
- 13 PTSD, anxiety, or any other psychiatric issues?
- 14 A. Yes, he's been on medication.
- 15 Q. And when did he first start?
- 16 A. When he was -- before Utah he was on
- 17 medication. I think about 15.
- 18 Q. Has he been on medication for psychiatric
- 19 issues since?
- 20 A. He's been on medication. I don't know if
- 21 you would define them as psychiatric or emotional,
- 22 but he's been on medication, yes.
- Q. Does he take it regularly as prescribed?
- A. When he is doing well, when he's working
- 25 his program.

Page 109 1 MR. MAZZEO: Speculation. Sorry. Go ahead. 2 THE WITNESS: When he is clean and working 3 4 a program, yes. 5 BY MR. SMITH: Can you tell if Jared is taking his 6 Ο. 7 medication? 8 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, foundation, 9 speculation. 10 THE WITNESS: Not always. BY MR. SMITH: 11 12 Does the medication calm him down? Q. MR. MAZZEO: Objection, speculation, 13 14 foundation. 15 THE WITNESS: Certain medications I can tell. I thought I could tell when he was not taking 16 17 trazodone because he wasn't sleeping, but he may in fact have been taking trazodone and getting high. I 18 don't know. 19 20 BY MR. SMITH: 21 Getting high on something that would stop Ο. 22 him from sleeping? 23 Α. Yes. What are the medications that he's 24 Q. 25 taking -- or that he has taken for psychiatric

Page 110 1 issues? 2 Α. Again, I don't know if they're psychiatric, how you would define them. But the medication he's 3 4 taking is Seroquel, Abilify, trazodone, Zoloft. And 5 those are the ones I know of. There may be others. He's currently taking all of those, or he 6 7 has been prescribed those over time? 8 Α. He has been prescribed those over time. 9 don't know what he's taking now. 10 Q. Earlier this year, he was at Southern 11 Nevada Adult Mental Health Services; right? 12 Is that Rawson? Then yes. Α. Rawson Neal is what you're saying? 13 Q. 14 Yes. Α. 15 Do you know if Jared was prescribed 0. medication after he left there? 16 17 Yes. Α. Did he take it? 18 Q. 19 Α. For a time. 20 And then he stopped? Q. 21 I don't know if he stopped completely or Α. 2.2 what. 23 Why do you think he stopped? Q. 24 Α. Because of the number of the pills that 25 were left when he left the house. And also because Page 111 the control of the pills moved from me to him. 1 2 Q. What do you mean by that? 3 Α. When he first came home, he asked me to give him the medication. 4 5 And then he said he could handle it? Q. 6 Α. Yes. 7 And you think when he said he could handle Q. 8 it, he stopped taking it? 9 Objection, speculation. MR. MAZZEO: 10 BY MR. SMITH: Or didn't taking it regularly? 11 12 MR. MAZZEO: Speculation. THE WITNESS: Not initially, no. 13 14 BY MR. SMITH: 15 What do you mean not initially? Q. Initially, he was taking it. When I 16 17 thought he wasn't using it, I took them back into my room, but then he was going into my room and taking 18 19 them. I let it be. 20 When Jared was abusing drugs when he was Q. under 18, was he staying out all night? 21 22 There were times. Not always. Α. 23 There were times where he didn't come home? Q.

6	A. 2:00, 3:00, 4:00, 5:00 in the morning.
7	Q. Has Jared ever been hospitalized for drug
8	problems?
9	A. Yes. I don't know what diagnosis they gave
10	him, but he's been hospitalized.
11	Q. Where at?
12	A. Summerlin. I think Summerlin twice.
13	Q. When were those?
14	A. Most recently in September. I believe back
15	in January, whatever led to his being in Rawson.
16	Q. Earlier this year?
17	A. Yes. He was placed on a hold at I think
18	it was Spring Valley, but wasn't admitted.
19	Insurance wouldn't admit him.
20	Q. Was there a place he was hospitalized at
21	called Montevista Psychiatric Hospital?
22	A. Yes. As a juvenile. I forgot about that.
23	Q. When was that?
24	A. When he was in drug court.
25	Q. Why was he hospitalized at Montevista
I

Page 113 1 Psychiatric Hospital? 2 MR. MAZZEO: Foundation. 3 THE WITNESS: There's a question of dual diagnosis, whether he was -- it was drug addiction 4 5 and bipolar, drug addiction and PTSD, and so Judge Voy ordered him into treatment. 6 BY MR. SMITH: What did he do that led to that? 8 Q. I mean, did he get arrested for something 9 10 that led to him getting put into Montevista Psychiatric Hospital? 11 12 No. He was already in drug court. I quess Α. he had come up dirty or he wasn't doing as well, and 13 14 there was this question about the assault and its 15 impact, and so Judge Voy made a decision. Did Jared have anger management problems 16 17 before the November 2005 fight? No, not that I know of. 18 Α. If he said that, would you disagree with 19 Q. him? 20 21 He knows what he had and didn't have. Α. No. 22 I didn't see signs of it. 23 When you smelled marijuana in the house, Q. what did you do to discipline him? 24 25 Well, I would search his room. Α. It was very

Page 114 limited what I could take away because mostly 1 2 everything was gone. I would turn off his phone. 3 would make him come with me wherever I was going. What other types of discipline did you 4 Q. 5 impose when you thought he was using drugs? Other than withdrawal of any kind of 6 privileges or access to money and kind of putting 8 him on house arrest and keeping him with me and, like I said, taking away things, I don't know what 9 10 else there was. Did you provide incentives when he was off 11 12 drugs? 13 And I also --Α. Yes. 14 Like what? Q. 15 Α. I provided incentives for him to get off 16 Even when he was dirty, I would say, Listen, 17 if you can get the next drug test clean, we will go here, I will buy these sneakers, I will let this 18 friend come over. 19 20 You said before that he was in fights as a Q. iuvenile. 21 22 Was he in fights before that November 2005 23 fight? Not that I knew of. 24 Α.

Did he ever come home with any bruises or a

Q.

Page 115 1 black eye before that fight? 2 Α. Not that I know of. What happened the second time the police 3 Q. 4 came to your apartment? 5 I don't understand the question. 6 0. You said there were two times, and the 7 second time you said was March or April of 2011. 8 Α. I thought I had already answered that, but 9 I'll answer again. They called me. I was with a 10 friend for dinner. Oh, you did answer this. 11 I apologize. 0. 12 That's all right. Α. 13 Q. And he was arrested as a result of that; 14 right? 15 Α. I'm not remembering, but I believe so. If Jared says he told you after the first 16 Q. 17 time the police came to your house that he was selling marijuana, would you dispute that? 18 After when? 19 Α. 20 You said that there were two times the Q. 21 police came to your house for his drug problems; 22 right?

as he was being arrested, or he said it since, like

MAZZEO: Asked and answered. 9 10 THE WITNESS: Jared and Tikira moved out 11 right after that. We had limited contact. 12 BY MR. SMITH: They moved out right after the first time 13 Q. 14 the police came and Jared wasn't arrested? 15 Α. Within that time frame. And it's possible I'm misremembering, but they moved out. 16 17 Did they ever move back in? Q. 18 Α. Yes. How long after that did they move back in? 19 Q. 20 Α. I don't remember. 21 You don't remember how long they were gone Q. 22 for? 23 Because they had moved to someone Α. No. 24 else's apartment in the complex, so it was kind of fluid. 25

3	A. No.
4	Q. Besides drugs, what has he been arrested
5	for?
6	A. I don't know.
7	Q. How many times have you called the police
8	to come to your house for Jared?
9	A. I don't know. Numerous times.
10	Q. More than five?
11	A. Yes.
12	Q. More than ten?
13	A. Yes.
14	Q. More than 15?
15	A. Perhaps. It's possible.
16	Q. What are the reasons that you've called the
17	police to come to your house for Jared?
18	MR. MAZZEO: Objection, relevance.
19	THE WITNESS: Because he was agitated.
20	Because I was sure that he was high or and a few
21	times I wasn't sure if he was having a psychotic
22	break or he was high. Because I needed medical
23	attention for him and the police come with the

- Q. What's the time period where you called the
- 3 police to come to your house for Jared?
- In other words, what ages was he?
- 5 A. From his teenage years until he left in
- 6 September.
- 7 Q. What do you mean by teenage years?
- 8 A. Thirteen, 14. He would run away or he

- 10 things.
- 11 Q. Do you know if Jared has ever had a gun?
- 12 A. I believe there were weapons charges. I've
- 13 never seen him with a gun.
- Q. Other than the police bringing charges, did

- 17 A. After.
- 18 Q. Only after he was charged?
- 19 A. Yes.
- Q. Has Jared ever hit you?
- 21 A. No. He lifted me once. I just want to

- 23 on to lift me once to get keys, but he has never
- 24 struck me.
- 25 Q. He wasn't violently trying to attack you;

Page 120 1 he was trying to move you to get to something? He was agitated and I was saying no to 2 3 keys. He wanted me to drive him, and he lifted me up to see if they were underneath me. Have you ever feared for your safety from 5 Q. 6 Jared? Α. Yes. 8 Q. How many times? 9 I have no idea how many times. Maybe eight Α. 10 to ten. Have you ever done anything that provoked 11 0. his anger? 12 From whose point of view, his or mine? 13 Α. MR. MAZZEO: Objection, foundation, 14 speculation, relevance --15 BY MR. 6	So provoking, to me, means deliberate.

14	BY MR. SMITH:
15	Q. From Jared's point of view, have you ever

17	A. Yes.
18	Q. Do you think Jared loves you?

20	Q. Do you think Jared would subject you to

22	A. If he could avoid it? No.
23	Q. Has Jared ever been shot that you know of?
24	MR. MAZZEO: Shot or shocked?

6	A.	I don't know.
7	Q.	Other than the 2011 accident, what motor

10	A.	2008.
11	Q.	Okay. What happened in 2008?
12	Α.	We were at my school. He went out to he

17	Q.	He was driving your car; right?
18	Α.	Yes.

20	Α.	Yes.
21	Q.	Was anyone injured?
22	A.	I don't know.
23	Q.	Was Jared?

I've always given him the keys to go 23 take things out or go get things from the car. I 24 gave him the keys for that purpose or to dump some 25 garbage. I'm remembering garbage, but I'm not sure.

- 1 But to move things back and forth from my classroom
- 2 and --
- 3 Q. What kind of discipline did you impose
- 4 after that?
- 5 A. I, again, set some limits. But Jared was
- 6 involved with juvenile court at the time, so they
- 7 extended his -- whatever he was on restriction from,
- 8 and then I did the same thing that I was doing.
- 9 That's when I also was much more deliberate in
- 10 hiding the keys and hiding my wallet. That's when I
- 11 realized he's going to just take whatever he wants.
- 12 Q. Was he charged with stealing your car at
- 13 that time?
- 14 A. I don't know what he was charged with.
- 15 O. Did you tell the police that he stole it?
- 16 A. Yes. That he was driving without
- 17 permission.
- If I can backtrack for a moment, you didn't
- 19 ask me, but I also told them that in 2011 and they
- 20 wouldn't arrest him for it.
- 21 Q. In 2011 you told the officer that Jared
- 22 stole a car?
- 23 A. Yes. That Jared had the car without
- 24 owner's permission.
- Q. When did you tell them that?

Page 125 When the officer called me from the scene. 1 Α. 2 Q. What did the officer say when you told him 3 that? He said that he couldn't arrest him for it 4 Α. 5 because there was no report. You -- it's your testimony that you told 6 7 the officer Jared took your car without permission and he said he would not arrest him for it? 8 9 Um-hmm, yes. Α. 10 Q. Yes? 11 I'm sorry. Yes. Α. 12 If the officer said that you never told him Q. that, are you saying he's lying? 13 14 Objection, argumentative. MR. MAZZEO: 15 THE WITNESS: No. I'm saying it was 2011 and he may not remember. I remember the 16 conversation with the officer because it's one 17 conversation I've had. 18 How many conversations did the officer have 19 20 that day or in his whole career? BY MR. - 3 Q. What else did you and the officer talk

- 6 A. He told me he was arresting Jared for DUI.
- 7 I asked him, Is Jared high or drunk? The officer
- 8 got a little agitated with me and thought -- he was,
- 9 Look, lady, I don't need to do this. I said, Wait,
- 10 let's hold up. I didn't mean for you to take -- I'm
- 11 not trying to cover for Jared. I'm trying to

- 14 you tell me?
- 15 Q. Were you trying to get the officer to
- 16 arrest Jared for stealing your car?
- 17 A. I don't know if I was trying. I think I
- 18 asked him.
- 19 Q. You asked him to arrest Jared for stealing
- 20 your car?
- 21 A. I don't think I said, Will you arrest
- 22 Jared? I said, He does not have permission to have
- 23 that car. Can we not do something about that?
- Q. And what did he say?
- 25 A. He said, I'm doing this. I have to arrest

Page 127 him for DUI. I have to arrest him for this. 1 2 Q. Besides the 2008 accident, has Jared been in any other accidents? 3 Not that I recall. 4 Α. 5 Who was your automobile insurer at the time Q. of the 2008 accident? 6 Α. I don't remember. It was either Liberty 8 Mutual or California Casualty. 9 Did you make a claim? 0. 10 Α. Yes. And what -- it was a claim for the property 11 0. 12 damage or something else? I don't recall, but they paid for the car 13 Α. 14 so --15 Your insurance company paid for the car? Q. 16 I believe it was my insurance company. Did you tell your insurance company that

- 3 A. Yes.
- 4 Q. Do you know if your insurance company made
- 5 a decision of whether Jared's use of your car in the
- 6 2008 accident was permissive?
- 7 A. No.
- Q. Let's talk about the 2005 fight a little
- 9 bit and specifically Jared's injuries.
- 10 What did he hurt in that fight? What
- 11 was -- oh, strike that. Let me ask you a better
- 12 question.
- 13 What was injured in that fight?
- 14 A. Both eyes. He had some other lacerations,
- 15 but we mostly concentrated on the eyes.
- 16 Q. Any injuries besides his eyes?
- 17 MR. MAZZEO: I'd just object to the extent
- 18 it calls for medical expert opinion.
- 19 THE WITNESS: I believe some soft tissue.
- 20 BY MR. SMITH:
- Q. What do you mean by that?
- 22 A. Neck, back.
- Q. Anything else?
- A. Not that I recall, but, again, my focus has
- 25 always been on his eyes.

Page 129 1 And what were the injuries to his eyes? 0. 2 MR. MAZZEO: The same foundation, 3 question -- objection. THE WITNESS: He had a traumatic macular 4 5 hole in one eye, a scratch on the other that was 6 repaired by laser. BY MR. SMITH: 8 Q. Which eye is the traumatic macular hole? I believe the left. 9 Α. All of them. Was Jared limited in any activities because 16 0. 17 of his eyes after the fight? Speculation. 18 MR. MAZZEO: 19 THE WITNESS: Yes. He cannot play sports 20 because he cannot damage that other eye. He was at 21 that time looking to play basketball. Can't play 22 basketball. 23 There are certain jobs I quess that require 24 close-up work or any kind of welding or anything like that where he has to -- he has to protect the

COMPTON: 12 THE WITNESS: Yeah. I don't think he's been declared blind in both eyes. 13 14 BY MR. SMITH: 15 Q. Has he been declared blind in one eye? It has changed. There have been times that 16 he was considered blind and we had to have like 17 the -- and his vision varies, but it never gets to 18 full function. There's a line between blind and 19 20 nearly blind. 21 Do you think it would be safe for Jared to 22 drive with his eye conditions? 23 MR. MAZZEO: Foundation. 24 MS. COMPTON: Join. 25 THE WITNESS: I think he has to go to the

Other than drug use? 6 Α. 7 Well, you think the drug use would make it Q. 8 unsafe for him to drive; right? MS. COMPTON: Form, foundation. 9 10 THE WITNESS: Yes. If he's an addict in 11 recovery and he has clean time, he can certainly 12 drive. If he's an addict who's using, no, he shouldn't drive. 13 14 BY MR. - 8 A. I don't remember --
- 9 Q. When was that?

- 11 From -- the first time I heard it clearly

- 15 we couldn't get testing for him.
- 16 Q. And what leads he you to think he has a

- 18 A. His acting out and the nature of the

- 21 being a special ed teacher working with students
- 22 with TBI and from colleagues who brought it up.

He's had colds. 15 0. Well, medical treatment for any conditions related to the 2005 fight? 16 Other than, you know, the medication he was 17 Α. put on for PTSD or bipolar, yes. 18 Just counseling and treatment for his eyes; 19 Q. 20 right? 21 Counseling and medication and group homes. Α. 22 What jobs has Jared held? Q. 23 Α. For a time he worked for something called Bartech (phonetic). And it wasn't an official job, 24 25 but he helped me with tutoring. We did that

Page 136 1 together. 2 Q. Anything else? I don't know. 3 Α. 4 Q. How long did he tutor with you? 5 Off and on for a few years. Α. What does off and on mean? 6 Q. Well, we didn't always tutor. There are Α. 8 different seasons to tutoring. There were 9 different -- you know, there were times that he 10 wasn't in the home. What did -- and what did he do with the 11 tutoring? 12 What was his job? 13 He helped me manage groups. He helped 14 Α. 15 tutor math, especially some of the older students. Helped me gather materials. 16 17 Did he get paid for tutoring? Q. From me, not from the company. 18 Α. How much did you pay him? 19 Q. 20 Depends how much I was getting paid and how Α. 21 many groups, you know, he was running. 22 How old was Jared when he was tutoring with Q. 23 you? 24 The first time he helped me with a student, Α. he was in middle school himself. Q. 8 Seventeen or 18. Might have been 18. Α. 9 How he get to and from work at Bartech? Q. 10 Α. I drove him. 11 Every day? 0. 12 He didn't work every day. Α. How many days a week did he work? 13 Q. 14 Sometimes three. Sometimes seven days Α. 15 straight. It was, you know -- and then sometimes he would have a ride from a co-worker. 16 What were his hours? 17 0. They varied. Sometimes he would leave at 18 Α. 5:00 in the morning and come back -- you know, I 19 20 think they were putting something into the Cosmo. Did he have a job at the time of this 21 0. 22 accident in January 2011? 23 Α. I don't think so. Has he ever been able to support himself 24 Q. 25 with a legitimate job?

Page 138 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, form. 1 2 THE WITNESS: He seemed to be making good 3 money at Bartech. THE WITNESS: You're asking my opinion? 16 17 BY MR. SMITH: 18 Q. Yes. Because he suffers from a drug addiction. 19 Α. 20 Because there's a lifestyle that goes with that drug 21 addiction, and I think he thought that would 22 entertain him because he's made himself a little bit 23 helpless. What's he been doing for money since he 24 Q. 25 turned 18?

MAZZEO: Well, we've already gone over 6 an area where she's already talked about him driving 8 a car prior to the subject accident, so I want clarification. 9 10 MR. SMITH: Okay. If you have an 11 objection, lodge your objection. 12 MR. MAZZEO: All right. Objection clarification of the question. 13 14 BY MR. Page 141 1 THE WITNESS: I know that when I thought he 2 had a permit, I took him driving a handful of times. I know that, you know, he told me after the fact 3 that he had taken the car without permission. 4 5 So if you're counting without permission or times that I thought Tikira, who was a licensed 6 driver and the mother of my grandchildren, had the 8 car and it turned out Jared was driving, maybe ten to 20 times. I'm solely guessing. 9 10 Q. How many times do you know of he drove your 11 car without permission before January 2nd, 2011? 12 THE WITNESS: I don't know. BY MR. Besides those two, how many do you know 18 Q. 19 about? 20 Α. That he's told me outright? Four, maybe four or five. 21 22 Four before the January 2011 accident? Q. 23 Α. Um-hmm. 24 Q. 3	THE WITNESS: No.
4	BY MR. SMITH:
5	Q. How did he get the keys those other four or

7	A. He found them or he took them. There was a

9	saw my car gone. That's one of the times I knew to
10	start hiding the keys.
11	He told me he didn't drive, a neighbor had
12	driven. And then when I threatened to call the
13	police, he confessed he did it. So that was one
14	time that I knew about.
15	Then there have been times since then that
16	he said, you know, I've taken the car more, I took
17	the car more times than that.
18	Q. Where did he find the keys those times?
19	A. I don't know.
20	Q. You said he drove with you a handful of
21	times.
22	How many times was that?
23	A. Five, ten.
24	Q. How many times did you let him drive when
25	Tikira was in the car?

- Page 143
- 1 A. I don't know. I let Tikira drive about ten
- 2 or 15 times because I took her for her accident -- I
- 3 mean, for her driver's license.
- 4 Q. Did you ever let Jared and Tikira take the
- 5 car where you knew Jared would be driving?
- 6 A. I don't think so. I don't know.
- 7 Q. Did you ever let Jared drive your car with
- 8 any other adult besides you?
- 9 A. Not that I remember. It's possible because
- 10 he had his permit and had to get hours, but I'm not
- 11 remembering any specifics.
- 12 Q. Those few times that Jared told you he took
- 13 the car without permission, besides the 2008 and
- 14 2011 accident, did you ever report the car stolen?
- 15 A. Not after the fact, no.
- I believe I called once and they said, Is
- 17 the car there now? Do you know when?
- 18 They don't take reports so easily.
- 19 Q. Do you remember last time I asked you if
- 20 Jared had ever driven the car with your permission
- 21 and you said no?
- 22 A. If he had ever driven the car with my
- 23 permission? I don't remember.
- 24 Q. I'm going to read you the question and the
- 25 answer.

Page 144 1 Α. Okay. 2 Q. This is on page 17, line 18 because your counsel is looking at the transcript. 3 Question: Before January 2nd, 2011, had 4 5 you ever let Jared drive your car? 6 Answer: No. 7 That's not true; right? 8 I'm sorry. You're confusing me. Α. Well, you remember coming to my office in 9 Q. 10 September 2013; right? 11 Yes? 12 Yes, I'm sorry. Α. You remember sitting here with the court 13 Q. reporter; right? 14 15 Α. Yes. You remember the court reporter placing you 16 17 under oath; right? Α. 18 Yes. 19 You remember me asking questions and you Q. 20 answering those questions; correct? 21 Α. Yes. 22 And you answered my question: Before Q. 23 January 2nd, 2011, had you ever let Jared drive your car? And you said: 24 25 That's not the part that's confusing me. Α.

Page 145 1 Q. What's confusing you? 2 Α. I think I was confused by: Did I let him drive by himself? Did I let him drive without a 3 license? And that answer is no. 4 5 Did I let him go with Tikira? Because since that time, Jared has said that he had that and 6 he -- and I may be mistaken, but I never handed 8 Jared the car and said, Go take the car. 9 Why didn't you tell me at that time that 0. 10 you had driven with Jared driving? MR. MAZZEO: Objection, argumentative. 11 12 THE WITNESS: I don't believe you asked me. I don't know how much I remembered or what the time 13 14 frame was. Have I ever? He was learning how to drive. 15 Have I ever driven with him? Yes. I don't know 16 17 what you asked me. Also, I need to clarify that an awful lot 18 has happened in a very short period of time. I --19 20 well, let me not say that part. 21 It's exhausting, this whole thing. 22 there things sometimes that I need prompted to 23 remember? Yes. BY MR. SMITH: 24 25 Do you know Jared was pulled over in your Q.

Page 146 1 car in November 2010? 2 Α. No. You're not -- are you aware that he got a 3 0. 4 ticket for a broken headlight in your car at some 5 point? 6 Α. No. 7 0. Did you ever fix the headlight in the car 8 that he was in an accident in on January 2nd, 2011? I don't remember, but I don't think so. 9 Α. 10 Q. Do you know about any other traffic tickets 11 Jared has gotten? 12 Α. No. Do you know that he's been cited for 13 Q. driving without a license in your vehicle? 14 15 Α. No. 16 Did Jared ever drive you to work? Q. 17 Α. No. Why would he say that? 18 Q. 19 Α. I can't answer. 20 MS. COMPTON: Foundation --Objection, yeah, assumes facts 21 MR. MAZZEO: 2.2 not in evidence. 23 THE WITNESS: I would assume he's either 24 mistaken or is giving a reason why he wasn't driving 25 without permission. He's, again, a kid in trouble,

Page 147 1 who thinks that I'm going to get him out of trouble. 2 BY MR. SMITH: Do you think that he would place you in 3 0. trouble in order to get himself out of trouble? 4 5 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, speculation. MS. COMPTON: Foundation. 6 THE WITNESS: I don't think he would 8 realize he's putting me in trouble. I think he would think that I can fix that or that I can -- or 9 10 I wouldn't be in trouble if he said that because what trouble could I be in. 11 12 Do I think Jared wants to hurt me? But do I think Jared has hurt me? Sure. 13 14 BY MR. SMITH: 15 If he says that he drove you to work, he 0. would be lying? 16 17 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, mischaracterization. 18 THE WITNESS: I think he would be --19 20 MS. COMPTON: Form. 21 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. 22 I think he would be mistaken. I think he 23 also might be missing information. Did he and Tikira take me to work when 24 25 Tikira -- yes.

Page 148 BY MR. SMITH: 1 2 Q. But you're saying he wasn't driving? 3 I'm saying he wasn't driving. Α. 4 Q. What did you do to teach Jared how to 5 drive? I drove with him, and then when that didn't 6 Α. work as well, friends of mine drove with him. 8 Q. What do you mean when that didn't work as well? 9 10 Α. We're mother and son. We would argue. What friends did you have drive with Jared? 11 Q. 12 I would be guessing, but I think I remember Α. my friend Bonnie took him once or twice. And it 13 14 didn't -- we didn't do it very often. 15 0. Was that before or after the January 2011 accident? 16 It would have been before. 17 Α. Do you know if Jared ever took a driver's 18 Q. education class? 19 20 I thought that he did in school. Α. 21 Why do you think that? Q. 22 Because I thought -- he told me that and I Α. 23 thought it was a part of school. 24 Q. Did you ever send Jared to run errands in 25 your car?

1	Page 149 A. No.
2	Q. So if he said that, he's lying?
3	MR. MAZZEO: Objection.
4	THE WITNESS: Again, I'm
5	MR. MAZZEO: Foundation, form.
6	THE WITNESS: I don't know if he's lying or
7	if he's mistaken or if he's saying he and Tikira
8	went or he went and did errands. I don't know what
9	his rationale is.
10	BY MR. SMITH:
11	Q. If you said strike that.
12	If he said that you sent him to run errands
13	alone in your car, he would be lying?
14	MR. MAZZEO: Objection, form.
15	THE WITNESS: He would be wrong.
16	MR. MAZZEO: Incomplete hypothetical.
17	THE WITNESS: He would be wrong.
18	BY MR. SMITH:
19	Q. You never sent him to get Ho-Hos for you?
20	A. Was I in the car and I asked him to go
21	inside? Yes. Do I eat Ho-Hos? Yes.
22	Again, this is a kid who has distorted
23	memories now, but also has an is entitled, and so
24	this is how that conversation could go: Gee, I wish
25	I had some Ho-Hos. We don't have any in the house.
ı

Page 150 1 Jared's thinking: I'm going to take mom's 2 car. I'll bring her back some Ho-Hos. It'll be 3 fine. 4 Put those two together, Jared gets: She 5 sent me for Ho-Hos. I can't tell you how a 21-year-old -- what 6 rationalizations and distortions he has. But did I say to him: Please, go to the store and get me 8 9 Ho-Hos? No. 10 Q. Do you like Nesquik? 11 Α. No. 12 MS. COMPTON: I'm just wondering where that came from. 13 14 THE WITNESS: Because Jared probably said 15 he went to go get Nesquik. MS. COMPTON: I don't think he said that. 16 17 BY MR. SMITH: If Jared said he drove your car once or 18 Q. twice a week before the accident, would he be lying? 19 20 Α. Would he be mistaken? Yes. 21 Q. You never let Jared take your car to pay 22 bills? 23 No. Α. 24 You never let Jared take your car to go to Q. 25 the grocery store?

1	A. No.
2	Q. Do you let Jared drive his kids places in
3	your car?
4	MS. COMPTON: Can we take a break?
5	MR. SMITH: Let me finish this part.
6	MS. COMPTON: Can I talk to you?
7	MR. MAZZEO: Yeah.
8	She has a question.
9	What was the question?
10	THE WITNESS: Do I let him drive his kids
11	places.
12	BY MR. SMITH:
13	Q. Yes.
14	A. No.
15	Q. Have you ever asked him to pick things up
16	on his way home when he's out in your car?
17	A. No.
18	Q. Have you ever called him and asked him to
19	bring your car back?
20	A. Yes.
21	Q. When did that happen?
22	A. Years before, like years ago.
23	Q. Years before the 2011 accident?
24	A. No. Years ago. Years before this we
25	got to this point. Once when I started hiding

Page 152 1 the keys. 2 Q. So it was before the 2011 accident? 3 Α. Right. If you reference, I said there was a time 4 5 that I went outside and found my car missing and he said the neighbor was driving. I called him and 6 said bring the car back. What did he do? 8 Q. 9 Brought the car back. Α. 10 Q. That's only happened one time? I don't remember. I think it was only 11 Α. 12 once. You've only -- in the last 15 years, you've 13 Q. only owned one car at a time; right? 14 15 Α. One car at a time? Yes. Jared has never owned a car? 16 0. 17 I don't know. Α. When he lived with you, he never owned a 18 Q. 19 car? 20 MS. COMPTON: Form. 21 THE WITNESS: He bought a car. I don't 2.2 know if he did what you need to do to own it, but he 23 bought a car with his Bartech money. BY MR. SMITH: 24

Did he own his own -- well, strike that.

Q.

Page 153 1 Did he ever drive the car that he bought 2 with the Bartech money? 3 Α. I don't know. I think it was a damaged car. I don't know. 4 You don't know if it worked? 5 Q. I don't know if it worked. I don't know if 6 Α. he drove it. I didn't know about the deal. 8 Q. Did you ever see that car? 9 Α. Yes. Did you ever see someone driving it? 10 Q. 11 Α. No. 12 Did Tikira own a car when she lived with Q. 13 you? 14 Α. No. 15 MR. SMITH: All right. Go ahead and take a break. 16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 17 approximately 4:26 p.m. We're going off the record. 18 19 (Thereupon, a break was taken.) 20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 21 approximately 4:39 p.m. We're back on the record. 22 BY MR. SMITH: 23 In the last ten years has your mother owned Q. 24 a car? 25 Α. Yes.

1	Page 154 Q. Has Jared ever driven her car?
2	A. I don't know.
3	Q. Do you know if Jared ever took that car
4	when he was living there?
5	A. I don't know.
6	Q. Besides your car, do you know any other
7	vehicles that Jared has driven?
8	A. I don't know.
9	Q. On the day of the January 2011 accident,
10	before the accident, did he ask to use your car?
11	A. No.
12	Q. If he said he asked to use your car, would
13	he be lying?
14	A. He'd be mistaken.
15	Q. At the Gowan apartment you had a garage;
16	right?
17	A. Yes.
18	MS. COMPTON: Form.
19	MR. SMITH: What's the form problem with
20	that question?
21	MS. COMPTON: You said you had a garage.
22	MR. SMITH: What do you want to get a
23	dictionary and look up the term "garage?"
24	MS. COMPTON: No, no. I was saying you
25	were telling her that. You weren't asking a

- 1 question. You were telling her the answer.
- 2 BY MR. SMITH:
- 3 Q. There was a garage at your apartment at the
- 4 Gowan apartment; right?
- 5 A. Yes.
- 6 Q. You could lock the car in the garage;
- 7 correct?
- 8 A. Yes.
- 9 Q. How often did you park in the garage around
- 10 that time period of December 2010 and January 2011?
- 11 A. I don't remember.
- 12 Q. Why would you not park in the garage?
- 13 A. Because I always had school stuff or
- 14 groceries and where we parked was right by the
- 15 apartment.
- 16 Q. The garage was further away than the
- 17 parking spot you normally parked in?
- 18 A. Yes. And I had to deal with the garage
- 19 door. It didn't always work. Maintenance was not
- 20 always great about fixing that door. It became a
- 21 hassle to use it.
- Q. When did that start?
- 23 A. I don't remember.
- Q. You could ask maintenance to fix it if it
- 25 was broken; correct?

Page 156 1 I did ask maintenance and it took them Α. 2 forever to fix it. How did the garage lock? 3 Q. I believe there was a remote. 4 Α. 5 It was an --Q. 6 Α. Clicker. 7 Q. -- electronic clicker? 8 Α. Yes. 9 So you could have put the car in the 0. 10 garage, closed it with the electronic clicker, and without that clicker, Jared could not have gotten 11 into the garage? 12 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, incomplete 13 14 hypothetical. 15 MS. COMPTON: Form. 16 THE WITNESS: No. I believe you can open 17 the door without the -- you could just manually open the door. 18 BY MR. SMITH: 19 20 You could just lift it up? Q. 21 And if I can add, you can do Α. I believe so. 22 that in my house. The house I rent now, you can do 23 that. 24 Anybody can go open the door and get into Q. 25 your garage?

Page 157 1 I believe so. Α. 2 Q. In the apartment that you described earlier the Gowan apartment, did the master bedroom have its 3 own bathroom? 4 5 Yes. Α. Did that bathroom have a lock on it? 6 Q. Α. I don't remember. 8 Q. Where were you when Jared took the keys in 9 January 2011? 10 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, assumes facts not in evidence. 11 12 THE WITNESS: I don't know because I don't know when he took the keys. 13 14 BY MR. SMITH: 15 Did you have a safe in the Gowan apartment 0. in January 2011 at the time of the accident? 16 17 I don't know if we had it in 2011. Α. 18 one at one point. What kind of safe was it? 19 0. 20 If I recall correctly, and I may be Α.

- 21 mistaken, I've had two different: One with a key
- 22 and one with a combination.
- Q. If you had put the keys to the car in the
- 24 safe, could Jared have gotten them?
- 25 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, foundation,

- Page 158
- 1 speculation, incomplete hypothetical.
- THE WITNESS: I believe so. They were more
- 3 like lock boxes than safes.
- 4 BY MR. SMITH:
- 5 Q. You believe he could have gotten into it?
- 6 A. I do.
- 7 Q. How?
- 8 A. Again, Jared is very resourceful. So the
- 9 one with the key you can jimmy. Or if he had -- if
- 10 there are two keys, it's possible you take them --
- 11 I'm really, really guessing on that one.
- The combination one, if he had seen me do
- 13 it and I didn't realize. But also most lock boxes,
- 14 if you manipulate them enough, if you bang them, if
- 15 use a tool, you can open them. I would have bought
- 16 them at Walmart.
- 17 Q. Did you have a spare key to the car that he
- 18 was in January 2nd, 2011?
- 19 A. I don't recall.
- 20 Q. Did you ever have a spare key to one of
- 21 your cars in your apartment at the Gowan apartment?
- 22 A. I don't recall.
- Q. What were the hiding places that you used
- 24 for your keys around the time of the January 2011
- 25 accident?

- 1 A. Under the bed. In the -- in his section of
- 2 the bathroom like way behind in the cabinet under
- 3 the sink while I was in the shower. In the closet
- 4 in different purses. In the closet underneath
- 5 things. In a briefcase and then I would hide the
- 6 briefcase under the bed. In dresser drawers.
- 7 Inside things. Inside garbage cans. Inside garbage
- 8 I thought he wouldn't go through. In -- while I was
- 9 cooking, in various drawers in the kitchen.
- 10 Sometimes underneath several cushions on the couch,
- 11 like underneath the couch. Under the recliner,
- 12 under the recliner, so I'd have to get up and he'd
- 13 have to lift the couch to find it. Any place that I
- 14 could think of.
- 15 Q. You hid your car keys in all of those
- 16 places?
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 Q. Where were they hidden the day that he took
- 19 them on January 2nd, 2011?
- 20 A. I don't recall because, again, I don't know
- 21 when he took them.
- 22 Q. Were they hidden inside or outside your
- 23 bedroom?
- 24 A. I don't recall.
- Q. If you were in the bedroom, why wouldn't

- 1 you bring the keys in there and lock the door?
- 2 A. Because I may have been in the bedroom only
- 3 for a few minutes because that's where the bathroom
- 4 was. I didn't have a TV in the room.
- If he were home and I were going in the
- 6 room, he'd have to see where I took the keys from if
- 7 I took them out of the living room. I might have
- 8 thought they were safer where I had hidden them
- 9 while I went to the bedroom to go to the bathroom.
- 10 Q. Do you think you could have gotten a safe
- 11 to keep the keys in so he couldn't have taken your
- 12 car?
- 13 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, incomplete
- 14 hypothetical, speculation.
- 15 THE WITNESS: Not to -- not to the -- I
- 16 mean, it would have been a very big safe and super
- 17 expensive to keep and still he would have figured
- 18 out the combination or seen me do the combination.
- 19 BY MR. SMITH:
- 20 Q. You think that he's crafty enough that he
- 21 could have cracked any safe you could have bought?
- MR. MAZZEO: Objection, speculation,
- 23 incomplete hypothetical.
- 24 THE WITNESS: I would not use the word
- 25 "crafty." I think he was relentless. I think he is

Page 161 1 clever. I think that I'm not as relentless and 2 clever. I think that it is to his advantage to be 3 able to take what he needs to take, and when you are 4 5 an addict who is craving, whether it's gambling or 6 drugs, you do things that people who are not craving don't know you're going to do. 8 BY MR. SMITH: You know Jared says that he took the keys 9 0. 10 off the counter; correct? 11 I have read that. Α. 12 Why would he lie about that? Q. Objection, mischaracterizes --13 MR. MAZZEO: 14 (Multiple parties speaking.) 15 MR. SMITH: Well, wait a minute. Let me ask you the question first. 16 17 BY MR. SMITH: Do you think he's lying about that? 18 Q. I think he's mistaken. I think he may have 19 Α. 20 seen them there earlier. I also don't think it 21 matters. 22 Why don't you think it matters? Q. 23 Because you -- because I leave keys on the Α. 24 counter does not mean you have permission to take 25 the car.

Page 162 The ten thousand times that I said, "Don't 1 take the car. It is the only way we get to work. 2 3 It is the only way I can pay bills, "why would that not matter more than them being on the mantel? So I 4 5 think it's a ridiculous point. But could he have seen them there earlier 6 in the day or a different day or a day when I was 8 standing right by them or when I put down groceries? 9 Sure. 10 Q. Is there a chance that the keys were on the counter when he took them? 11 12 MR. MAZZEO: Speculation. THE WITNESS: There's a chance. 13 14 BY MR. SMITH: 15 You said before you told him 10,000 times, 0. and I know you're exaggerating, but -- well, you are 16 17 exaggerating; right? 18 Α. Yes, I am exaggerating. 19 Can you estimate how many times you Q. 20 actually told him not to take the car? 21 Α. No. 22 Why would you be telling him not to take Q. 23 the car? Because he had taken the car. 24 Α. Because 25 there was an accident in 2008. Because maybe he

- 1 begged, Hey, mom, can I drive? Or if I -- he was
- 2 always negotiating: If I get a license, if I do my
- 3 homework.
- 4 And the conversation wouldn't always be:
- 5 Jared, you can't take the car. Sometimes the
- 6 conversation would be: Jared, that car is our
- 7 life's blood. I go to work. I work multiple jobs.
- 8 With the baby -- we need that car.
- 9 Q. Did you ever tell Jared if he got a license
- 10 he could drive your car?
- 11 A. I don't know.
- 12 Q. You let Tikira drive the car after she got
- 13 a license; right?
- 14 A. Yes.
- 15 Q. And you let Tikira drive the car after she
- 16 got a license when you were not in the car; right?
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 Q. Do you know whether your insurance company
- 19 in this case made a determination of whether Jared's
- 20 use of the car was permissive?
- 21 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, relevance.
- 22 THE WITNESS: I do not.

3	A. I don't know.
4	Q. Do you know if he had a hoodie in the car?
5	A. I don't know.
6	Q. You know what a hoodie is; right?
7	A. Yes. A jacket with a a shirt with a

9	Q. Do you know if he had any cell phone

11	A. I don't know what he had in the car.
12	Q. Well, why would he have things in the car
13	if he wasn't allowed to drive the car?
14	A. Because he went places in the car. He's my
15	son. He got cold, so he had a hoodie, or I played
16	his CDs. He's my son. It's a family car.
17	Q. Well, what of your stuff was in the car at
18	the time of the accident?
19	A. I don't recall. I would be guessing. But
20	I'm assuming that I also had CDs, that I probably
21	had a jacket, that I had some school things. I know
22	when the car got totalled, I had to go and clean it

24	I am also sorry to sound sexist but a

I thought he did. 11 Α. 12 Has he ever actually had one? Q. 13 I don't know. Α. 14 When did you think he had one? Q. 15 Α. Just before his 18th birthday. In fact, I took his 18th birthday off from work to take him to 16 the DMV to go for his driver's license. 17 He turned me down. 18

- 19 The times that I paid for it online. The

- 24 A. I don't recall.
- Q. More than once?

1	Page 166
1	A. I believe so.
2	Q. More than five times?
3	A. I don't think so.
4	Q. What happened when you went to the DMV?
5	A. I don't recall. I thought that he got a

7	least twice it was to take Tikira for her test. I
8	don't remember each time.
9	Q. And what was it that you paid for online?
10	A. His permit.
11	Q. And how did you pay for it online?
12	A. You go online to the DMV. You use your
13	credit card or debit card and you pay whatever the
14	fee is.
15	Q. When did you do that?
16	A. I don't recall exact dates, but before his
17	18th birthday once he came home from Utah.
18	Q. In between the time he came home from
19	Odyssey House and the time that he turned 18?
20	A. Yes.
21	Q. What type of credit card did you use?
22	A. My debit card.
23	Q. What bank is that from?
24	A. I don't know where it was from at the time.
25	It would either have been Silver State Schools,

Page 167 Nevada State Bank, or Chase. I don't remember who I 1 2 had at the time. How much did you have to pay for the 3 Q. 4 permit? 5 I believe I paid between 20 and 40. Α. 6 Q. Did you ever see Jared take the driving test at the DMV? 8 Α. No. Did you ever see Jared take a written test 9 0. 10 at the DMV? 11 Yes. Α. 12 When was that? Q. I don't remember. 13 Α. 14 Was it before or after the 2011 accident? Q. 15 Α. Before. Did he pass? 16 Q. 17 I thought he had. Α. Did you pay for a permit that time? 18 Q. 19 I remember being at the DMV and paying Α. 20 his -- and waiting. And perhaps I have it confused with Tikira, but I remember waiting while someone 21 22 went and took a test, and then we went and paid. 23 That's when I thought he had a permit. 24 I remember one of them taking their 25 picture. I thought it was Jared.

- 1 Q. Well, that's a big distinction on whether
- 2 it's Jared or Tikira.
- 3 So do you remember Jared take a written
- 4 test at the DMV?
- 5 A. I do remember. I'm concerned that I'm
- 6 mis-remembering, but I do remember. I remember
- 7 being there with him.
- 8 Q. And your bank records would show that you
- 9 paid the DMV for him to get a permit?
- 10 A. I believe so.
- 11 Q. Did you ever ask to see his permit?
- 12 A. No.
- 13 Q. Why not?
- 14 A. I didn't feel there was a reason. I was
- 15 with him when he got it. There was no reason to ask
- 16 for it. I was waiting for him to get his -- to
- 17 either get the number of hours you need for the
- 18 permit or to turn 18 so he could take the test.
- 19 Q. You didn't want to see your son's picture
- 20 on the permit?
- 21 A. No. I --
- MR. MAZZEO: Objection, argumentative.
- 23 THE WITNESS: I remember being at the DMV
- 24 and his getting his picture taken and his showing me
- 25 something. So I thought I had seen it.

- 1 BY MR. SMITH:
- Q. By that point, Jared had lied to you a
- 3 number of times; correct?
- 4 A. At this point when we went, he might have
- 5 been doing well. I don't remember specific dates.
- 6 Q. But you would agree before his 18th
- 7 birthday he had lied to you many times; correct?
- 8 MR. MAZZEO: Objection. That's misstating
- 9 her testimony.
- 10 THE WITNESS: If I -- I would agree to
- 11 that, but I would also agree that during that time
- 12 before he turned 18 there were times that he was
- dedicated to doing well and telling me the truth and
- 14 that I could believe him.
- 15 BY MR. SMITH:
- 16 Q. He had stolen from you before his 18th
- 17 birthday?
- 18 A. Yes.
- 19 Q. You testified last time that you were
- 20 suspicious of Jared surrounding that January 2011
- 21 accident; right?
- 22 A. Things had changed then.
- Q. When did they change?
- 24 A. I don't recall. Around the time that Kalia
- 25 (phonetic) was born.

1	Page 170 Q. Things got worse after Kalia was born?
2	A. Things got more strained, yes.
3	Q. When was Kalia born?
4	A. December December 6, 2010.
5	Q. Why did things get more strained at that
6	point?
7	A. Again, I would be speculating. One,
8	because I felt trapped. They had a baby. Where
9	were they going to go? Where was the baby going to
10	go? Tikira began to act out as well, very entitled.
11	They were very rude and demanding during
12	the last days of the pregnancy and when she was in
13	the hospital. They were increasing having people
14	there. They were increasing in demands. They had
15	nothing for the baby.
16	I had to watch my boundaries because I'm a
17	first-time grandma and I wanted to give that baby
18	everything, but I've got two adult children acting
19	out. So it was very stressful. Work was very
20	stressful. It was just a very stressful time.
21	Q. How long before his 18th birthday did you
22	think Jared got his permit?
23	A. I don't remember.
24	Q. Do you remember when it was that you went
25	with him to the DMV?
I

- Page 171 A. No. But, again, I know that I took his
- 2 18th birthday off from work to take him to the DMV.
- 3 Q. Is that the day that you think you went and
- 4 got his permit, his 18th birthday?
- 5 A. No. That was for his license. He turned
- 6 me down. He said, I don't need to go. That
- 7 probably increased my suspicion of him.
- 8 Q. Why did he say he didn't -- strike that.
- 9 Why did say that you didn't need to go?
- 10 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, speculation.
- 11 THE WITNESS: I'm hanging with friends.
- 12 It's my birthday. I'm good. I'll get it another
- 13 time.

- 14 BY MR. SMITH:
- 15 Q. And what did that make you suspicious of?
- 16 A. That he either didn't want to get his
- 17 license or that there was something I didn't know.
- 18 Q. What was the date of his 18th birthday?
- 19 A. February 11th.
- 20 Q. 2010?
- 21 A. Yes. Wait. Let me do the math now in my
- 22 head. 1992, yes. Wait. I'm sorry.
- 23 Can I have a piece of paper? I don't know
- 24 if it was 2009 or 2010. Yeah, no, it wasn't. Yes,
- 25 2010.

Page 172 1 0. 2010? 2 Α. Um-hmm. Yes? 3 0. 4 Α. Yes. I'm sorry. Yes. 5 Do you have your bank records from the time Q. 6 period where you believe you paid for Jared's 7 permit? 8 Α. No. 9 What did you do with them? 0. 10 Α. Most of my records are electronic, so I 11 wouldn't have printed them out unless I needed them. 12 Too, we've moved. The police were there multiple There's a lot of records that I don't have 13 times. 14 or didn't keep. 15 Q. By electronic, you mean you get them in an e-mail? 16 17 You get an electronic statement. So I knew Α. if I needed them, at that time I could go onto my 18 bank's website and pull them up. 19 20 Q. You actually have to go onto the website or 21 you get them e-mailed to you? 22 Onto the website. I get an e-mail that my statement is ready. And if they were paper, it's 23 24 now 2014, I'm sure I didn't keep any of that. 25 Are you aware that Jared said he paid for Q.

Page 173 1 his ID card? 2 Α. No. Would he be lying about that? 3 Q. Objection, speculation, form. 4 MR. MAZZEO: 5 THE WITNESS: No. He's had -- he's had 6 multiple cards. He loses them. BY MR. SMITH: 8 Q. How many ID cards has he had? 9 I don't know. But I know he's lost things Α. 10 and had to -- or said that he's lost them and had to pay for them again. 11 12 If the DMV records show that he never took 0. a driving test or a written test until after the 13 14 January 2011 accident, are you going to dispute 15 that? Not if the DMV records say that. 16 17 say I was mistaken. Do you have any evidence to show that Jared 18 Q. 19 took a written test at the DMV prior to January 20 2011? 21 Α. No. 22 Do you have any records to show that you Q. 23 ever paid for Jared to obtain a permit? 24 Α. No. 25 MR. SMITH: Let's go off the record for a

Page 174 1 minute. THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 2 3 approximately 4:59 p.m. We're going off the record. 4 (Thereupon, a break was taken.) 5 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 6 approximately 5:28 p.m. We're going back on the record. 8 BY MR. SMITH: Let's talk about -- a little bit about the 9 Q. 10 January 2011 accident. Has Jared ever told you what happened? 11 12 Α. Not start to finish. What has he told you? 13 Q. 14 That he was pulling out, that he swears the Α. 15 other lady sped up, that he felt she wasn't hurt, and something about a truck or a bus that I'm not 16 17 completely clear on. Did he say she sped up or she was speeding? 18 Q. I think he said she he sped up, but I'm not 19 Α. 20 sure. 21 Ο. Did he say anything about why he believes 22 she's not hurt? 23 Because she got up and walked around and Α. there was no ambulance at the scene. 24

Anything else you remember him telling you

Q.

- 1 about the accident?
- A. I just need clarification of a time. From
- 3 when it happened or just --
- Q. At any point in time.
- 5 A. He has said that he was not under the
- 6 influence, that he had marijuana on him and didn't
- 7 want to get arrested for that.
- 8 Q. Did tell you that he told police that he
- 9 had been smoking?
- 10 A. I've heard him say that.
- 11 Q. Did tell you why he told the police he had
- 12 been smoking if he hadn't been?
- 13 A. Because he had marijuana on him and I guess
- 14 it was a certain weight that you're not supposed to
- 15 have or something.
- 16 Q. Did he tell you why he thought telling the
- 17 police that he had been smoking would avoid them
- 18 finding the marijuana that was on him?
- 19 A. No. This would be an example of Jared's
- 20 either drug logic or kid logic or where he thinks
- 21 certain things that -- that's why I say sometimes
- 22 that he wasn't lying, he was mistaken because he
- 23 puts two and two together and gets six.
- Q. Anything else he told you about the
- 25 accident?

- 1 A. He has said to me that he knows he didn't
- 2 have permission to take the car.
- 3 Q. When did he tell you that?
- 4 A. He's told me that numerous times,
- 5 especially since he came home from Rawson and we
- 6 started to do the case more.
- 7 Q. Has he told you where he got the keys from?
- 8 A. No.
- 9 Q. Have you asked him?
- 10 A. I don't recall.
- 11 Q. Other than him telling you he didn't have
- 12 permission to take the car, did you have any other
- 13 conversations with him about permission to take the
- 14 car on that day?
- 15 A. I don't understand what other conversations
- 16 we would have had, what you mean.
- 17 Q. Is there anything you talked about with him
- 18 regarding him having permission to take the car
- 19 other than him just telling you he realizes he
- 20 didn't have permission?
- 21 A. No. Other than that was why I'm being
- 22 sued. I think he asked me -- and, again, I may be
- 23 mis-remembering, but I think he asked me, Why are
- 24 they suing you? And I said, Because they're saying
- 25 I gave you permission to drive the car. And he

- 1 said, But you didn't.
- Q. Did you ever see your car after the
- 3 accident?
- 4 A. Yes.
- 5 Q. You went to go get things out of it; right?
- 6 A. Right.
- 7 Q. What was it you got out of the car?
- 8 A. I don't recall. I think some things for
- 9 school, maybe a CD, maybe a jacket. I don't recall.
- 10 Q. What did the damage to the car look like?
- 11 A. It was extensive. Had it been a newer car
- 12 worth more money, they would have fixed it. So it
- 13 wasn't totalled, but it was enough damage that it
- 14 was worth more than whatever the formula is for the
- 15 percentage of the car.
- 16 Q. Did anyone -- well, strike that.
- 17 Did anyone tell you what the cost to repair
- 18 the car would be?
- 19 A. I think they told me that it was
- 20 prohibitive. They may have told me an amount, but I
- 21 don't remember. But it was more than whatever their
- 22 formula is.
- Q. How much money did you get for the car?
- 24 A. I still owed on the car, so I didn't get
- 25 anything for the car.

	Page 178
1	Q. How much did you owe?
2	A. I mean, whatever they paid towards it, but
3	I still owed on the car.
4	Q. How much did you owe?
5	A. I don't recall.
6	Q. Did you owe in addition after they paid?
7	A. Yes.
8	Q. Did you pay that back?
9	A. Drive Time, where I got the car, rolled
10	that over. They had their own form of gap insurance
11	because I didn't. They said, If you buy your next
12	car with us and pay that off, we'll waive this. It
13	might have been upwards of three to five thousand
14	dollars but, again, I'm not exactly sure. It was a
15	lot of money.
16	Q. The gap or the amount you owed on the car?
17	A. The difference between what the insurance
18	paid and what I owed.
19	Q. Where was your loan through on the car that
20	was in the 2011 accident?
21	A. Drive Time.
22	Q. They were the actual bank?
23	A. I believe so. I don't know how it works.
24	I paid them.
25	Q. That's where your make your payments was to

Page 179 1 Drive Time? 2 Α. Yes. And that's who got paid off after the car 3 0. was totalled? 4 5 Yes. Α. Do you know whether the car had to be towed 6 Q. from the accident scene? 8 Α. I believe it was. Do you know if it was drivable after the 9 0. 10 accident? I don't know. 11 Α. 12 What did the damage look like? Q. I don't remember. 13 Α. 14 You don't remember what your car looked Q. like when you went to go see it? 15 No, I don't. It was -- we're going on 16 almost four years and an awful lot has happened. 17 Ι just know it was a lot of damage. 18 Let's talk about that day before the 19 Q. 20 accident. I know you remember the police officer 21 22 calling you; right? 23 The day before or the day --Α. No, the day of the accident but before the 24 Q. 25 accident happened.

Page 180 1 You remember the police officer -- let 2 me --3 Yes. Α. 4 Q. -- just start over. You remember the police officer calling you 5 6 on the day of the accident; right? Α. Yes. 8 Q. What do you remember about that day before 9 the police officer called you? The baby 10 Α. It was winter break from school. 11 was home. Was the baby home? Excuse me. I can't 12 remember if Kalia was home or not? I was -- I remember being agitated with 13 both Jared and Tikira. I may have talked to my 14 15 NAR-ANON sponsor. I can't remember. I was watching television. I knew I had to go back to school soon. 16 It was a tense day at home. 17 Do you remember anything you did that day? 18 Q. 19 I remember working -- and, again, it might Α. 20 not have been that day. But I know during vacation 21 I worked on schoolwork and watching television. 22 Did you leave the house that day? Q. 23 I don't remember. Α. 24 Do you know anything Jared did that day Q. before the accident? 25

- 1 A. No. I think that I worked on schoolwork
- 2 because I think I remember his grabbing something
- 3 out of the car for me. But, again, I may have the
- 4 wrong day.
- 5 Q. You think he grabbed something out of the
- 6 car for you that day --
- 7 A. Yeah, my school books.
- 8 Q. -- to help you with schoolwork?
- 9 A. Yeah.
- 10 Q. That's yes?
- 11 A. I'm sorry. Yes. I think so.
- 12 Q. Anything else you remember about that day
- 13 before the officer called you?
- 14 A. No, not offhand. If I looked at a
- 15 calendar, I could be clear. If I knew it was a
- 16 Sunday and I was going back to school, I could kind
- of piece together more, Oh, here's what I was
- 18 probably doing. But I don't remember what day it
- 19 was.
- 20 Q. Let's look. So it was -- if I told you it
- 21 was a Sunday, would that assist you in remembering?
- 22 A. Yeah. I thought I had remembered it was a
- 23 Sunday. I'm pretty sure earlier in the day I worked
- 24 on lesson plans, got together whatever books I
- 25 needed. I may have had an IEP, an Individualized

- 1 Education Plan, coming up. I'm not sure if I'm
- 2 remembering correctly.
- And when I got the call, I was watching
- 4 television and winding down because I had to go to
- 5 the work the next day.
- 6 Q. The new school year started -- or the new
- 7 school semester started the next day?
- 8 A. I don't know if it was the semester we were
- 9 coming back. I'm an elementary -- I was an
- 10 elementary school teacher, so I was coming back from
- 11 winter break.
- 12 Q. Your break ended the next day?
- 13 A. Yes, if I'm recalling correctly.
- 14 Q. Now that you know it was a Sunday, can you
- 15 recall whether you left the house that day?
- 16 A. I'm not sure if it was Saturday or Sunday.
- 17 I know that at some point after New Year I went
- 18 grocery shopping to have food for, you know, to take
- 19 to school, but I can't remember hard and fast if it
- 20 was Sunday. I think that I went out.
- 21 Q. What happened that day after you received
- 22 the phone call from the officer?
- 23 A. I spoke to the officer. I had to now call
- 24 someone to pick me up for work. And I don't
- 25 remember who it was, but I called someone to take me

- Page 183
- 1 to work and to take me home. And I may have made
- 2 some other phone calls to people I was involved with
- 3 in Nar-Anon.
- 4 Do you need me to explain Nar-Anon?
- 5 Q. Well, I'm going to ask you that, but you
- 6 can finish this answer first.
- 7 A. And I tried to get some rest. And I'm sure
- 8 Tikira and I argued. And that's all I remember.
- 9 O. Was Tikira home when the officer called
- 10 you?
- 11 A. I don't remember if she was home when the
- 12 officer called, but she was home at some point.
- 13 Q. At some point that night she was home?
- 14 A. I believe so. Again, I'm trying to
- 15 remember something that happened many years ago, but
- 16 I believe she was.
- 17 Q. Okay. What's NAR-ANON.
- 18 A. NAR-ANON is a 12-step program that is the
- 19 companion to Narcotics Anonymous. So it's for
- 20 family and friends of the addict to help you deal
- 21 with your own boundaries and issues.
- 22 Q. How long have you been going to NAR-ANON
- 23 meetings?
- A. For years. Since Jared was 15 or 16.
- 25 Q. How often do you go?

Page 184

- 1 A. It varies. I have not gone in a few years.
- 2 Right now, I'm concentrating on my GA program, but
- 3 there was a time I was going two, three times a
- 4 week.
- 5 Q. At the time of the January 2011 accident,
- 6 were you going to Nar-Anon?
- 7 A. Yes.
- 8 Q. How often?
- 9 A. Probably two or three times a week.
- 10 Q. What do you mean by GA?
- 11 A. Gamblers Anonymous.
- 12 Q. Okay. Why would there be a time when
- 13 you're going to NAR-ANON more often?
- 14 A. Depending on how I'm feeling. Whichever
- 15 program's going to give me the most strength.
- 16 Whichever one -- GA has many, many more meetings.
- 17 NAR-ANON at one time had four meetings a week.
- 18 Gamblers Anonymous has over a hundred so --
- 19 And depending on what I'm working on. Am I
- 20 working on my response to Jared? Am I working on my
- 21 own boundaries? Depends what I need. Depends which
- 22 one gives me more strength at the time.
- Q. Have you ever talked to your mother about
- 24 the 2011 accident?
- 25 A. I don't recall.

Page 185

- 1 Q. Have you ever talked to her about the 2008
- 2 accident?
- 3 A. I'm sure I did.
- 4 Q. What do you remember talking to her about
- 5 the 2008 accident?
- 6 A. Well, I believe she lent me her car until
- 7 the insurance company came and -- whether Jared was
- 8 hurt, whether he was going to be in trouble, how did
- 9 he get the keys.
- 10 Q. Has she been a good role model to Jared?
- 11 A. Difficult question.
- 12 Is she a good role model in that she lives
- 13 her life responsibly for her family? Yeah. Has she
- 14 been a terrible enabler? Yeah. So I don't know how
- 15 to answer that question.
- 16 O. What does she do to enable him?
- 17 A. She gives him money. She blames me instead
- 18 of holding him accountable. She invites family
- 19 members who are dangerous to him because she doesn't
- 20 know what to do. She will not take my counsel or I
- 21 believe my brother has also told her, Let him go.
- 22 She won't follow anything that we do.
- 23 She has some magical thinking that Dr. Phil
- 24 is going to fix this. She's told me that. So there
- 25 are many ways that she enables. She didn't -- when

Page 186 Jared was living with her, she didn't hide her pills 1 2 or the alcohol. What do you mean by let him go? 3 0. Let him suffer the consequences of what 4 Α. he -- let him -- if Jared needs to -- whatever his 5 bottom is, he needs get there so that he's ready. 6 7 And you think once he finds his bottom, he 0. 8 can start recovering and actually stay clean? 9 I think he's already started recovery. Α. 10 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry? No, go ahead. 11 MR. MAZZEO: 12 There are multiple levels and THE WITNESS: 13 there are some people that say relapse is a part of 14 recovery. 15 I don't think he gets serious about recovery or maintains any recovery until he hits 16 17 whatever his bottom is. Everybody's bottom is different. 18 19 Do you think he's hit his yet? Q. 20 THE WITNESS: I don't --21 Speculation, foundation. MR. MAZZEO: 22 THE WITNESS: I don't know. Do you think the problems that Jared has 5 had from the 2005 fight -- well, strike that. 6 If you knew Jared was driving your car, do 7 you feel that as a parent you would have 8 responsibility to ensure he's qualified to drive? 9 Objection, speculation, MR. MAZZEO: 10 foundation, form. 11 THE WITNESS: Yes. 12 BY MR. SMITH: If you knew Jared was driving your car, do 13 Ο. you feel as a parent it was your responsibility to 14 15 ensure he was legally allowed to drive? Objection, foundation, form. MR. MAZZEO: 16 17 MS. COMPTON: Join, foundation. 18 THE WITNESS: Ask me again, please. 19 MR. SMITH: Can you read it back? 20 (Thereupon, the requested portion was read back.) 21 THE WITNESS: If I knew he was driving, 22 yes. 23 BY MR. SMITH: If you knew Jared was driving, do you feel 24 Q. 25 as a parent it was your responsibility to ensure he

Page 190 1 was a safe driver? 2 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, form, foundation. THE WITNESS: If I knew he were driving, 3 4 yes. 5 BY MR. SMITH: Given your knowledge of the 2008 accident, 6 7 did you feel that it was your responsibility to make 8 sure Jared learned driving safety? 9 Objection, speculation, MR. MAZZEO: 10 foundation, form, incomplete hypothetical. 11 THE WITNESS: Yes. And I need to qualify 12 that. Based on the 2008 accident, I thought that Jared needed more intervention. I sought to get it. 13 14 There was a lot more intervention after that. His driving was not as -- getting him a --15 let me re-word that. His driving was his privilege 16 that he needed to take of. Not that I wasn't 17 teaching him, but it wasn't up the foremost of my --18 19 I wanted him clean. I wanted him graduating high 20 school. I wanted him working. I wanted him clean, 21 and to be a good father. 2.2 BY MR. SMITH: 23 So based on you knowing that he took your Ο. 24 car multiple times before the January 2011 accident, 25 did you feel that it was your responsibility to

Page 191 1 teach him how to safely drive a vehicle? 2 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, misstates prior 3 testimony, speculation, foundation. THE WITNESS: No. I felt it was my 4 5 responsibility to keep him out of the car and hide the car. I thought teaching him how to drive safely 6 was a mixed message. 8 BY MR. SMITH: 9 Your counsel lodged an objection about Q. 10 misstates testimony, so let me make sure that I 11 understood your testimony correctly. You knew prior to January 2011 that Jared 12 had driven your car; correct? 13 Α. He had been in an accident in 2008 so of 14 course I knew. 15 And you knew he had taken it other times in 16 17 addition to the 2008 accident; correct? MR. MAZZEO: Objection, misstates prior 18 19 testimony. 20 MR. SMITH: Well, that's what I'm asking. 21 THE WITNESS: After the fact. As it was 22 happening, no. 23 BY MR. SMITH: 24 Q. But prior to January 2011, you knew that it 25 had happened more than just the 2008 accident;

Page 192 1 correct? 2 Α. Yes. Do you believe Jared's vision problems 3 Q. 4 create any safety issues when he's driving a 5 vehicle? MR. MAZZEO: Objection, foundation, 6 speculation. THE WITNESS: Based on doctors' reports, 8 9 no. 10 BY MR. SMITH: Do you believe Jared's vision problems 11 could endanger the safety of over drivers if Jared's 12 driving? 13 14 MR. MAZZEO: Foundation, speculation. 15 THE WITNESS: Based on what I knew from doctors, no. 16 17 BY MR. SMITH: Do you believe Jared's driving without a 18 Q. 19 valid permit or license created safety issues in the 20 community? 21 MR. MAZZEO: Speculation, foundation. 2.2 THE WITNESS: In and of itself, no. 23 BY MR. SMITH: What are you qualifying that with? 24 Q. 25 I would be more concerned about his ability Α.

- 1 to drive -- did he know how to drive? Was he
- 2 sober? -- than whether -- whether you have -- I
- 3 don't know how to word this.
- 4 At the time of the accident, it was my
- 5 understanding he had a permit. So the belief that
- 6 he had a permit isn't the same as believing -- I'm
- 7 not wording this well. That is less of a concern to
- 8 me than someone's ability to drive.
- 9 Q. In the times that you had driven with him,
- 10 was he an able driver?
- 11 A. Yes.
- 12 Q. You thought he was a good enough driver
- 13 that he could drive on his own?
- 14 A. I don't know if I would say that.
- 15 Q. What would you say?
- 16 A. I would say that like any young driver he
- 17 needed to be watched. He needed to be counseled. I
- 18 have friends whose kids get their license and they
- 19 still -- their parents still watch them drive
- 20 because when you're young, you think you're
- 21 immortal. You think you know everything. You don't
- 22 know what not to know.
- 23 Q. Do you think Jared has difficulty managing
- 24 his anger?
- 25 A. I think Jared manages a lot of intense

Page 194

- 1 emotions. I think when Jared is using, the
- 2 particular substance that he uses, they make him
- 3 more agitated. But I think that Jared carries a
- 4 tremendous burden and tries very hard to deal with
- 5 them.
- 6 Q. What's the tremendous burden he carries?
- 7 A. He's a 21-year-old father of two who
- 8 doesn't have custody of his children. He has not
- 9 lived the life that he thought growing up as Jared
- 10 Awerbach, straight-A student, mom a teacher, close
- 11 family that he may have thought that he was going to
- 12 have.
- 13 He has a father who has let him down. He
- 14 has a strained relationship with his mother. He has
- 15 a taste for drugs and will have to fight that for
- 16 his whole life. He has an eye that he can't see out
- 17 of. He has a family that in one part is close and
- in another part has this drug and criminal history.
- 19 He knows that his grandmother is about to be 93 and
- 20 could pass while he's not straight.
- 21 He carries a lot of burden. He's done
- 22 things that's he's not proud of.
- Q. Has Jared ever spoken to his father?
- 24 A. Yes.
- Q. When was the last time?

Page 195 I don't know. 1 Α. 2 0. And when was the last time that you know 3 of? When Jared was 18. 4 Α. 5 Was that the first time they'd spoken or Q. they'd spoken before that? 6 7 Α. Not the first time they had spoken. They 8 did not speak on a regular basis. 9 Q. In his youth, how often did they speak until the time he was 18? 10 I believe that Jared was in third grade 11 12 when his father was here and they met for dinner. They may have talked once or twice on the phone. 13 14 And then his father left without any notice, and 15 they did not have contact again until Jared was about 18. 16 17 Do you believe that the way Jared deals 0. with the tremendous burden that he carries 18 creates -- well, strike that. 19 20 Do you believe the way that Jared deals with the tremendous burden that he carries endangers 21 22 the safety of others? 23 MR. MAZZEO: Speculation, foundation, calls 24 for expert opinion. 25 THE WITNESS: At times.

Page 196 BY MR. SMITH: 1 2 Q. How? Α. 3 When he takes things into his own hands and doesn't check on his facts. When he uses drugs. 4 5 When he gets involved with people who use and sell When he invites these people near or in the 6 house. When he doesn't stand up to his daughter's 8 mother for things that she's doing or not doing. When he does damage to his relationship with me. 9 10 Q. Do you believe that carrying an 11 unregistered weapon endangers the safety of others? 12 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, incomplete hypothetical, form. 13 14 THE WITNESS: Yes. 15 MR. SMITH: No. 1. (Exhibit 1 Facebook Printout marked.) 16 17 BY MR. SMITH: The court reporter has handed you what's 18 Q. been marked as Exhibit 1. 19 20 I just want you to take a look at it to let 21 me know if that is a true and correct copy of the 22 posts on your Facebook page. 23 Α. Yes. 24 Q. I just want to make sure you look through 25 the whole thing.

Page 197 1 Yes? 2 Α. Yes. And these are all public posts; right? 3 Q. I don't need to be your friend on Facebook 4 5 to get these? I don't think that's accurate. 6 Α. I think some of these were you had to be my friend until --8 some of the posts I changed because I was selling 9 items online. 10 Q. Well, as of today when these were printed, I wouldn't have to be your friend to get to these 11 posts; correct? 12 Again, I don't know that I changed the 13 Α. whole profile, just the things I was selling, but 14 I'm not a Facebook expert. 15 You can see in the middle of the first page 16 17 where it says Add Friend; right? Α. 18 Yes. 19 That, based on your experience with Q. 20 Facebook, would show you that the person who printed this was not your Facebook friend; right? 21 22 I've never printed off of Facebook, so I 23 would guess, but I don't know. 24 MR. SMITH: Let's go off the record for a 25 minute.

Page 198 1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 2 approximately 5:55 p.m. We're going off the record. 3 (Thereupon, a break was taken.) (Exhibit 2 Documents from District Court Case No. 4 5 A-551677 marked.) THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 6 approximately 5:59 p.m. We're going back on the 8 record. BY MR. SMITH: 9 10 Q. The court reporter has handed you what's been marked as Exhibit 2. 11 12 Do you recognize the first document in Exhibit 2? 13 14 Α. Yes. 15 Q. What is it? It is the paperwork from the case against 16 the school district for Jared's assault. 17 It's the lawsuit that you filed related to 18 Q. Jared's assault; right? 19 20 Α. Yes. 21 ο. Can I have you turn to page eight of that first document? 22 23 Α. Okay. 24 Q. Is that your signature? 25 Α. Yes.

Page 199 1 And reviewed that complaint before you Q. 2 signed page eight; correct? 3 I'm sure I did. I don't remember. Α. 4 0. You wouldn't have signed it unless you 5 reviewed the document you were verifying; correct? MR. MAZZEO: 6 Objection, speculation. THE WITNESS: There's a possibility I 8 trusted my attorney. 9 BY MR. SMITH: 10 Q. Well, page eight says: Andrea Awerbach, 11 being first duly sworn on oath, according to law, deposes and says: That I am the plaintiff in the 12 above-entitled action; that I have read the 13 foregoing complaint for damages and know the 14 15 contents thereof; that the same is true of my own knowledge, except for those matters therein 16 contained stated upon information and belief and, as 17 to those matters, I believe them to be true. 18 Did I read that right? 19 20 Α. Yes, you did. Would you have signed this verification 21 0. 22 that you reviewed -- or that you read the complaint, you know the contents, and that the contents are 23 true unless those statements were accurate? 24 25 The only possibility would be, you know, in Α.

- 1 a case you'd sign a lot of documents and, if my
- 2 attorney said, I only changed the line on page two
- 3 or whatever, it's the same thing. I would have
- 4 taken him at his word and signed it. But, yes, I
- 5 would have trusted my attorney with these.
- 6 Q. Well, yes, you would have reviewed the
- 7 complaint at some point before it was filed; right?
- 8 A. Yes, yes.
- 9 MR. SMITH: Exhibit 3.
- 10 (Exhibit 3 Document Bates No. GJL 255 marked.)
- 11 BY MR. SMITH:
- 12 Q. The court reporter has handed you what's
- 13 been marked as Exhibit 3.
- 14 Do you recognize that document?
- 15 A. No.
- 16 Q. This is a Las Vegas Metropolitan Police
- 17 Department Impound Report.
- Do you see the middle of the page where it
- 19 says: Inventory of Personal Property?
- 20 A. Yes.
- 21 Q. Do you see that it says certain things that
- 22 were in the vehicle on January 2nd, 2011?
- 23 A. Yes.
- Q. Whose phone chargers were in the vehicle?
- 25 A. I don't know. I don't know if they were

Page 201 mine or Jared's or Tikira's. 1 2 Q. The car seat was obviously for? 3 Α. Kalia. Kalia? Okay. 4 Q. Whose sketch book was in the vehicle? 5 I'm quessing it was mine for school, but I 6 Α. don't know. I don't remember. Whose black hoodie was in the vehicle? 8 Q. Either Jared or Tikira's. Again, I'm 9 Α. 10 quessing. I don't typically wear hoodies. Whose menorah box was in the vehicle? 11 12 Again, probably mine. But, again, I'm, you Α. know, trying to remember. 13 And whose brown Teddy bear was in the 14 Q. 15 vehicle? That could have either been Kalia's or mine 16 Α. 17 for my classroom. 18 Q. Whose gray phone charger was in the vehicle? 19 20 Again, I don't know if it was mine or Α. Tikira or Jared's. 21 22 Do you see below that it says: Additional Q. 23 Remarks/Vehicle Damage? Α. 24 Yes. 25 Can you read what it says in that box? Q.

Page 202 1 Vehicle involved in wreck. Α. Extensive -- I 2 think that's what it says -- damage by front of --3 and I'm quessing that last word is vehicle. 4 Q. Do you dispute that there was extensive 5 damage to the front of your vehicle from the January 2nd, 2011, accident? 6 Α. No. 8 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, form. 9 THE WITNESS: No. 10 BY MR. SMITH: You would agree with that; right? 11 0. 12 MR. MAZZEO: Objection, form. MR. SMITH: I don't have any further 13 14 questions. 15 Oh, you're not done yet. MR. MAZZEO: 16 THE WITNESS: Oh. 17 MR. MAZZEO: I have two questions for you. 18 EXAMINATION 19 BY MR. MAZZEO: 20 On January 2nd, 2011, did you have any Q. reason to believe that Jared would take your car 21 22 that day? 23 Α. No. 24 At any time on January 2nd, 2011, did you Q. 25 have any reason to believe that Jared would take

1	your keys to your car that day?
2	A. No.
3	MR. MAZZEO: No further questions.
4	MS. COMPTON: I just have a couple of
5	really quick ones.
6	THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Your mic.
7	MS. COMPTON: Oh.
8	EXAMINATION
9	BY MS. COMPTON:
10	Q. How many years have you been going to
11	Gamblers Anonymous?
12	MR. MAZZEO: Relevancy.
13	THE WITNESS: I believe about seven.
14	BY MS. COMPTON:
15	Q. Seven?
16	And how many years
17	A. I'm sorry. Can I qualify?
18	Q. Oh, yeah.
19	A. My last bet was 12 years ago. I spent five
20	years without gambling without Gamblers Anonymous.
21	Have been about seven years I've been attending.
22	Q. And then how many years would you say
23	you've attended some sort of treatment program for
24	addiction related to Jared's addiction issues?
25	MR. SMITH: Object to the form.

	Page 204
1	BY MS. COMPTON:
2	Q. Approximately?
3	A. About ten.
4	Q. About ten?
5	A. Eight and ten.
6	Q. Are the programs similar in their
7	methodology with respect to treatment?
8	MR. SMITH: Object to the form, vague.
10	Q. Are the is Gamblers Anonymous, Al-Anon
11	and or what are the names of the
12	A. There are multiple 12-step programs. The
13	12-step programs with which I've been involved in
14	are Gamblers Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous,
15	Al-Anon, which is the sister to Alcoholics
16	Anonymous, and Nar-Anon.
17	What is similar is that all of those
18	programs work on 12 steps. There are various kinds
19	of meetings, open meetings, book studies. Each
20	program has a sponsor I mean, offers you
21	encourages you to get a sponsor.
22	Q. What's the first step in all those
23	programs?
24	A. To admit that you're helpless over your
25	addiction.
I

Page 205 MS. COMPTON: 1 Okay. That's all. 2 FURTHER EXAMINATION BY MR. SMITH: 3 4 Q. Why were you going to Al-Anon? 5 Because there were between two and four Nar-Anon meetings a week, so you go where the help 6 is. There's not many Nar-Anon. 8 Q. And I guess what I was trying to get at is 9 were you going for something other than Jared's 10 addiction? 11 No. Α. 12 So there isn't some other alcoholic that 0. you were going -- that's in your life that made you 13 go to Al-Anon? 14 15 I come from a family of addicts and Α. alcoholics. I started because of Jared. 16 17 What do you mean you come from a family of 0. addicts and alcoholics? 18 19 Α. I don't know how to explain. My father was 20 a compulsive gambler. We weren't as knowledgeable 21 at the time. I can't tell people that they're 22 addicts, but I believe I have multiple family 23 members who have addictions. And I'm an addict. I'm an addict in 24 25 recovery, but I'm an addict. It did not start with
