ORDER

This is an original petition for a writ of prohibition or, in the alternative, mandamus challenging district court orders denying a protective order and making related rulings. Initially, it appears that the appendix does not contain a written order reflecting the district court's rulings made during a hearing on September 20, 2016.¹ See Rust v. Clark Cty. Sch. Dist., 103 Nev. 686, 689, 747 P.2d 1380, 1382 (1987) (recognizing that an oral pronouncement of a judgment is ineffective for any purpose). Accordingly, petitioner shall have 11 days from the date of this order to obtain the district court's written order and file and serve a copy of the order as a supplement to her appendix.

¹The appendix does contain a transcript of the September 20, 2016, hearing.

Further, having reviewed the petition, it appears that an answer may assist this court in resolving this matter. Therefore, real party in interest, on behalf of respondents, shall have 30 days from the date of this order within which to file and serve an answer, including authorities, again issuance of the requested writ. NRAP 21(b)(1). Thereafter, petitioner shall have 15 days to file any reply.

It is so ORDERED.
