Attorneys for Kazuo Okada, Universal Entertainment Corp. and Aruze USA, Inc.

Aruze USA, Inc., Universal Entertainment Corp., and Kazuo Okada (the "Aruze Parties") respectfully seek leave to submit their Answer to the pending writ Petition one day late due to the unavailability of the Court's EFLEX filing system.

Presently before the Court is the Aruze Parties' Motion to Designate the Aruze Parties as Real Parties In Interest and Motion For Extension Of Time To File Answer to Petition, filed on November 23, 2016. The deadline for Wynn Resorts Limited ("Wynn Resorts"), the real party of interest then of record, was November 28, 2016. The motion sought to extend that deadline for the Aruze Parties until December 5, 2016. Wynn Resorts opposed the Aruze Parties motion in part, but did not oppose the request for extension. Wynn Resorts' deadline to file its Answer has since been extended until December 12, 2016.

Nonetheless, in accordance with their Motion, the Aruze Parties made numerous efforts to submit their Answer on December 5, 2016 as they agreed to do in their November 23, 2016 Motion. Their efforts failed due to the unavailability of the EFLEX system. They promptly notified the Nevada Supreme Court's Clerk's office of the problem at 8:00 a.m. on December 6, 2016 and were advised to resubmit the filing with this Motion for Leave once the system was restored.

For the foregoing reasons, the Aruze Parties ask that the concurrently-filed Answer be received pending disposition of its Motion to Designate the Aruze Parties as Real Parties In Interest.
