IMPORTANT NOTICE

WARNING! IF YOU FAIL TO PAY THE AMOUNT SPECIFIED IN THIS NOTICE, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME, EVEN IF THE AMOUNT IS IN DISPUTE!

IF YOUR PROPERTY IS IN FORECLOSURE BECAUSE YOU ARE BEHIND IN YOUR PAYMENTS IT MAY BE SOLD WITHOUT ANY COURT ACTION and you may have the legal right to bring your account in good standing by paying all your past due payments plus permitted costs and expenses within the time permitted by law for reinstatement of your account. No sale date may be set until ninety (90) days from the date this notice of default was mailed to you. The date this document was mailed to you appears on this notice.

This amount is $3,626.90 as of February 24, 2012 and will increase until your account becomes current.

While your property is in foreclosure, you still must pay other obligations (such as insurance and taxes) required by your note and deed of trust or mortgage, or as required under your Covenants Conditions and Restrictions. If you fail to make future payments on the loan, pay taxes on the property, provide insurance on the property or pay other obligations as required by your note and deed of trust or mortgage, or as required under your Covenants Conditions and Restrictions, Paradise Court (the Association) may insist that you do so in order to reinstate your account in good standing. In addition, the Association may require as a condition to reinstatement that you provide reliable written evidence that you paid all senior liens, property taxes and hazard insurance premiums.

Upon your request, this office will mail you a written itemization of the entire amount you must pay. You may not have to pay the entire unpaid portion of your account, even though full payment was demanded, but you must pay all amounts in default at the time payment is made. However, you and your Association may mutually agree in writing prior to the foreclosure sale to, among other things, 1) provide additional time in which to cure the default by transfer of the property or otherwise; 2) establish a schedule of payments in order to cure your default; or both (1) and (2).

Following the expiration of the time period referred to in the first paragraph of this notice, unless the obligation being foreclosed upon or a separate written agreement between you and your Association permits a longer period, you have only the legal right to stop the sale of your property by paying the entire amount demanded by your Association.

To find out about the amount you must pay, or arrange for payment to stop the foreclosure, or if your property is in foreclosure for any other reason, contact: Nevada Association Services, Inc. on behalf of Paradise Court, 6224 W. Desert Inn Road, Suite A, Las Vegas, NV 89146. The phone number is (702) 804-8885 or toll free at (888) 627-5544.

If you have any questions, you should contact a lawyer or the Association which maintains the right of assessment on your property.

Notwithstanding the fact that your property is in foreclosure, you may offer your property for sale, provided the sale is concluded prior to the conclusion of the foreclosure.

WARNING! IF YOU FAIL TO PAY THE AMOUNT SPECIFIED IN THIS NOTICE, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME, EVEN IF THE AMOUNT IS IN DISPUTE!

IF YOUR PROPERTY IS IN FORECLOSURE BECAUSE YOU ARE BEHIND IN YOUR PAYMENTS IT MAY BE SOLD WITHOUT ANY COURT ACTION and you may have the legal right to bring your account in good standing by paying all your past due payments plus permitted costs and expenses within the time permitted

by law for reinstatement of your account. No sale date may be set until ninety (90) days from the date this notice of default was mailed to you. The date this document was mailed to you appears on this notice.

This amount is $3,626.90 as of February 24, 2012 and will increase until your account becomes current.

While your property is in foreclosure, you still must pay other obligations (such as insurance and taxes) required by your note and deed of trust or mortgage, or as required under your Covenants Conditions and Restrictions. If you fail to make future payments on the loan, pay taxes on the property, provide insurance on the property or pay other obligations as required by your note and deed of trust or mortgage, or as required under your Covenants Conditions and Restrictions, Paradise Court (the Association) may insist that you do so in order to reinstate your account in good standing. In addition, the Association may require as a condition to reinstatement that you provide reliable written evidence that you paid all senior liens, property taxes and hazard insurance premiums.

Upon your request, this office will mail you a written itemization of the entire amount you must pay. You may not have to pay the entire unpaid portion of your account, even though full payment was demanded, but you must pay all amounts in default at the time payment is made. However, you and your Association may mutually agree in writing prior to the foreclosure sale to, among other things, 1) provide additional time in which to cure the default by transfer of the property or otherwise; 2) establish a schedule of payments in order to cure your default; or both (1) and (2).

Following the expiration of the time period referred to in the first paragraph of this notice, unless the obligation being foreclosed upon or a separate written agreement between you and your Association permits a longer period, you have only the legal right to stop the sale of your property by paying the entire amount demanded by your Association.

To find out about the amount you must pay, or arrange for payment to stop the foreclosure, or if your property is in foreclosure for any other reason, contact: Nevada Association Services, Inc. on behalf of Paradise Court, 6224 W. Desert Inn Road, Suite A, Las Vegas, NV 89146. The phone number is (702) 804-8885 or toll free at (888) 627-5544.

RE: 1076 Slate Crossing Lanc Unit 102 CHF LOAN # Redacted Delinquent Association Fees

Dear Valued Customer:

Paradise Court alleges your scheduled association fees and/or other assessments are delinquent and now due in the amount of $3,626.90 through March 2012. You are responsible for paying these fees. If the Association proceeds with foreclosure, your unit may be sold and you may lose your home. Additionally, failure to pay these fees violates the terms of your mortgage with Chase. YOU MUST TAKE IMMEDIATE ACTION TO CORRECT THIS SITUATION.

If you do not take action to correct this situation, Chase may initiate the appropriate action(s) needed to bring your account current with your association pursuant to the terms of your mortgage. If Chase advances any funds or incurs any expenses associated with this claim, you will be responsible for reimbursing Chase the amount of the advances and the expenses.

Chase could also foreclose on your mortgage. Failure to pay the association fees and/or other assessments constitutes a violation of the terms of your mortgage. Please contact their office today.

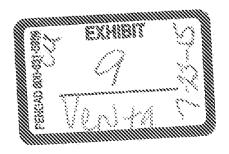

Nevada Association Services 6224 W Desert Inn Rd. Las Vegas, NV 89146 702-804-8885

In order to ensure that the Association does not foreclose on your property; please contact them immediately to verify whether you are delinquent in your payments and to satisfy the debt. If this matter has already been resolved, you may disregard this notice.

RECOMMENDATIONS

IT IS THEREFORE RECOMMENDED that the Court grant in part Chase's Motion and to grant in part SFR's Countermotion. The Rule 30(b)(6) deposition topics disputed by the Parties shall be addressed as follows:

Topic No. 14: SFR shall provide a Rule 30(b)(6) designee prepared to testify 6 regarding SFR's disposition of the property at issue in this case, including: what SFR 7 intended to do with the property, SFR's possible plans for the property, and what in 8 fact has happened to the property, if SFR knows, as these issues related to the 9 equitable inquiry on fairness. This topic shall permit questions about SFR's 10 procedure for renting out the property; however, information regarding lease terms, 11 SFR's profits, and lessees' assets is protected for purposes of SFR's Rule 30(b)(6)1213deposition. Chase may instead serve an interrogatory to SFR regarding the amount of rent that SFR charged for the subject property. 14

Topic No. 15: This topic is protected.

Topic No. 16: This topic is protected.

Topic No. 17: This topic is protected.

Topic No. 18: This topic is protected, unless the funds used to purchase the subject property were obtained illegally. SFR shall provide a Rule 30(b)(6) designee prepared to confirm that the funds were not obtained illegally or to testify about the illegal funds.

Topic Nos. 19 & 20: While topic 20 was not disputed, both topics are protected.
Topic No. 25: Although not disputed by the Parties, the topic shall be limited

II.

Topic No. 25: Although not disputed by the Parties, the topic shall be limited to the sale and use at issue in the case.
Topic No. 28: SFR shall provide a Rule 30(b)(6) designee prepared to provide testimony regarding Topic No. 28 as it relates to the property at issue in this case.
Topic No. 29: SFR shall provide a Rule 30(b)(6) designee prepared to provide testimony regarding SFR's communications with tenants about Chase's deed of trust, including the specific language pertaining to a lender's deed of trust contained in the 1 first lease agreement that SFR used following the association sale in this case. The  $\mathbf{2}$ rest of the lease's terms and conditions are protected. SFR's communications with 3 tenants about this litigation are irrelevant and protected. 4

IT IS FURTHER RECOMMENDED that the Parties shall conduct a 2.34 5conference prior to the continued deposition of SFR's Rule 30(b)(6) designee to 6 discuss Topic Nos. 13, 15, and 26. 7

IT IS FURTHER RECOMMENDED that each party shall bear its own fees 8 and costs. 9

The Discovery Commissioner, met with counsel for the Parties, having 10 discussed the issues noted above and having reviewed any materials proposed in 11 support thereof, hereby submits the above recommendations. 12

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as successor by merger to Chase Home Finance LLC ("Chase") submits the following reply in support of its motion in limine to exclude the testimony of Michael Brunson, the rebuttal expert disclosed by SFR Investments Pool 1, LLC ("SFR").

5 SFR argues that Brunson's testimony should not be excluded because: (1) his 6 opinions regarding disposition value are relevant; (2) his testimony qualifies as 7 proper rebuttal testimony and was thus timely disclosed; and, (3) Brunson's 8 testimony is the product of a reliable methodology. These arguments are meritless.

First, Brunson's proffered testimony is irrelevant. As set forth in Chase's 9 motion, Nevada law requires this Court to compare the foreclosure sale price to the 10Property's market value. SFR fails to provide the Court with any authorities that 11 hold "disposition value"—the valuation method used by Brunson—may be used. As 1213SFR concedes in its Opposition, Brunson opines that disposition value should be used instead of market value and, based on this belief, criticizes the market value opinion 14offered by Chase's initial expert. The decision to use market value as a point of 15comparison is a legal determination dictated by controlling Nevada law. 16The applicable legal standard is not an appropriate topic for expert testimony. Brunson 17simply cannot unseat a judge and re-write controlling Nevada law so that his 18"disposition value" becomes the new legal measure. The legal measure here—market 19value—was adopted by the Nevada Supreme Court, rendering any other opinion of 20value not relevant. 21

Second, Brunson's independent opinions are improper for rebuttal.

Rule 16.1(a)(2)(C))(ii) expressly prohibits parties from disclosing expert opinions in a rebuttal disclosure if the proffered opinions: (a) contradict a portion of its adversary's case in chief; or, (b) present opinions outside of the scope of the adversary's expert disclosure. Since SFR disclosed Brunson as a mere rebuttal expert, he can only testify about what he believes Chase's expert analyzed incorrectly in that expert's market value appraisal. Brunson cannot testify about what he believes Chase's expert analyzed incorrectly and offer independent opinions about a different methodology and valuation amount. See N.R.C.P. 16.1(a)(2)(C)(ii). SFR was required to disclose such affirmative opinions by Brunson as part of an initial expert disclosure. It failed to do so. Thus, Brunson's affirmative opinions (including, without limitation, his independent appraisal of the Property's "disposition value" at the time of the sale) must be excluded as improper rebuttal testimony.

Finally, Brunson's testimony is unreliable. SFR does not and cannot refute 7 that Brunson's "methodology" suspiciously results in a property value that always is 8 whatever sale price his clients, the HOA sale purchasers, happened to pay. Nor has 9 SFR directed the Court to any other non-litigation appraisal that uses this 10"methodology." Instead, SFR invites this Court to disregard its gatekeeping role and 11 12allow Brunson's testimony because the court allowed a toxicologist to testify in Higgs 13v. State, 125 Nev. 1043, 20, 222 P.3d 648, 660 (2010). This Court must not do so. SFR's explanation of Higgs neglects to inform the Court that the opposing expert in 14that case did not take issue with the reliability of the toxicologist's methodology. 15Here, in contrast, Chase is challenging the reliability of Brunson's analysis. 16This Court, as a gatekeeper, should scrutinize and exclude Brunson's dubious opinions. 17For any of these three reasons, Brunson's expert testimony should be excluded in this 1819case.

I. NEVADA LAW REQUIRES THE COURT TO CONSIDER MARKET VALUE—NOT BRUNSON'S PROFFERED "DISPOSITION VALUE"

As explained in Chase's Motion in Limine (the "Motion"), Nevada law requires the Court to use market value in evaluating the price obtained at a foreclosure sale.

24	Motion at 10-12; e.g., Shadow Wood Homeowners Ass'n v. N.Y. Comty. Bancorp, Inc.,
$\frac{24}{25}$	132 Nev,, 366 P.3d 1105, 112 & 113 n.3 (quoting Restatement of Prop.:
$\frac{25}{26}$	132 Nev,, 366 P.3d 1105, 112 & 113 n.3 (quoting Restatement of Prop.: Mortgages § 8.3 cmt b. and holding that HOA foreclosure price was not grossly
$\frac{20}{27}$	inadequate as a matter of law where the price was more than 20% of an appraisal);
27 28	Golden v. Tomiyasu, 79 Nev. 503, 505, 387 P.2d 989, 990 (1963) (assessing price obtained at trustee's sale by comparing it to property's "market value" of \$200,000); 1 see also Branch Banking & Tr. Co. v. Pahrump 194, No. 2:12-cv-1462-JCM-VCF,  $\mathbf{2}$ 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 176239, at \*7 (D. Nev. Dec. 15, 2015) ("[T]he sale price is not 3 necessarily an indication of a property's fair market value.") (citing Halfon v. Title 4 Ins. & Trust Co., 97 Nev. 421, 634 P.2d 660, 661 (1981)). While SFR tries to argue 56 otherwise, its argument cannot succeed. SFR fails to cite any legal authority 7 whatsoever where a court has compared the adequacy of a foreclosure sale price to "disposition value" for purposes of determining whether to set aside the sale.<sup>1</sup> Since 8 Nevada law requires the Court to consider market value, Brunson's opinions about 9 disposition value are improper and irrelevant. 10
	13041067_2

Brunson's Opinion on the Applicable Law Is Improper Α.

12First, as a threshold matter, the valuation method that should apply in this 13case is a legal question for this Court, not a fact question for an expert. NRS 50.265 permits expert testimony only if it "will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue." (Emphasis added); see also Nationwide Transp. Fin. v. Cass Info. Sys., Inc., 523 F.3d 1051, 1058 (9th Cir. 2008) ("[A]n expert 16witness cannot give an opinion as to her legal conclusion, i.e., an opinion on an ultimate issue of law. Similarly, instructing the jury as to the applicable law is the distinct and exclusive province of the court." (internal citations and quotation marks 19omitted; emphasis added)). 20 in addition to an inadequate price before a court can set aside a sale. See Opposition 24at 7:27–8:17. SFR fails to identify where in Shadow Wood the Nevada Supreme Court held that a valuation other than a property's market value should apply. 25Instead, it leaps to the conclusion that, since Shadow Wood requires a showing of fraud, unfairness, or oppression, Chase's "challenge to Brunson's rebuttal analysis 26goes to the weight of the evidence, not to its admissibility." Id. at 8:19-20. This argument is a non sequitur and provides no basis for allowing Brunson's irrelevant 27testimony in this case.

Brunson opines that the Court should use the Property's "disposition value." 1 Contrary to SFR's arguments, this assertion is not a mere "difference of opinion  $\mathbf{2}$ regarding the correct definition of value." Opposition at 5:2–3.<sup>2</sup> Brunson provides 3 improper—and incorrect—testimony as to the applicable law in this case. See 4 Nationwide Transp. Fin., 523 F.3d at 1059 (affirming exclusion of expert where 5expert's "legal conclusions not only invaded the province of the trial judge, but 6 constituted erroneous statements of law"). The proper standard of comparison for 7 the foreclosure sale price is a legal question, answered by looking to Nevada law, not 8 to the ruminations of experts. As set forth above (and unchallenged by SFR), Nevada 9 courts must look to a property's market value, not its "disposition value." Brunson's 1011 testimony regarding disposition value must be excluded. See NRS 50.265.

BALLARD SPAHR LLP 00 NORTH CITY PARKWAY, SUITE 1750 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89106 (702) 471-7000 FAX (702) 471-7070 12 12 12 12

B. Disposition Value is Not Relevant to Market Value

SFR's invitation to allow Brunson's "disposition value" simply because it is a valuation is improper—disposition value is not a fair market valuation, the standard required under Nevada law.

16Disposition value is distinct from market value. "Fair market value is generally defined as the price which a purchaser, willing but not obliged to buy, 17would pay an owner willing but not obliged to sell, taking into consideration all the 18uses to which the property is adapted and might in reason be applied." Unruh v. 19Streight, 96 Nev. 684, 686, 615 P.2d 247, 249 (1980) (emphasis added). Disposition 20value, in contrast, assumes that "[t]he seller is under a compulsion to sell," thereby 21leading to a depressed sale price. See Exhibit C to Motion, at 052. It fails to value 22property based on the price a seller "willing but not obliged to sell" might accept. 23

25	$\frac{1}{2}$ SFR also attempts to analogize this difference of opinion to a personal injury case
26	where two experts disagree about "a patient's long-term life care plan." SFR's analogy is inapposite to this case. The treatment required after an injury is a fact
27	question appropriate for expert debate. This motion, however, concerns the correct legal standard—an issue determined by Nevada law and this Court.
28
I	5

Thus, expert testimony about "disposition value" or this valuation method has 1 no bearing on market value-the correct standard under Nevada law. Shadow Wood,  $\mathbf{2}$ 132 Nev. Adv. Op. 5, 366 P.3d at 1112 ("[G]enerally ... a court is warranted in 3 invalidating a sale where the price is less than 20 percent of fair market value" 4 (emphasis added) (quoting Restatement § 8.3 cmt. b); Golden, 79 Nev. at 505, 387 5P.2d at 990 (relying on district court's "finding that the land has a market value of 6 \$2,500 an acre" (emphasis added)). Such testimony is irrelevant and will only serve 7 to confuse the issues. See NRS 48.015 ("As used in this chapter, "relevant evidence" 8 means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of 9 consequence to the determination of the action more or less probable than it would be 10without the evidence."); NRS 48.035(1) ("Although relevant, evidence is not 11 admissible if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair 12prejudice, of confusion of the issues or of misleading the jury."). As such, the Court 1314 14 15 15 should exclude Brunson's report. See NRS 48.025(2) ("Evidence which is not relevant is not admissible.").

BRUNSON'S "REBUTTAL" IS IMPROPER UNDER RULE 16.1 II.

The Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure required SFR to disclose expert 17testimony that contradicts a portion of Chase's anticipated case in chief or that 18presents opinions beyond the scope of Dugan's testimony as an initial expert 19disclosure. Rule 16.1 explicitly states: 20

If the evidence is intended solely to contradict or rebut evidence on the same subject matter identified by another party under paragraph (2)(B), the disclosures shall be made within 30 days after the disclosure made by the other party. This later disclosure deadline does not apply to any party's witness whose purpose is to contradict a portion of another 24	another party's disclosure.

	N.R.C.P. 16.1(a)(2)(C)(ii) (emphasis added); see also N.R.C.P. 16.1(a)(2)(C)(i) [] (explaining that, except for rebuttal experts, any other experts must be disclose
7 8	time set by Court for initial expert disclosures). Here, Bruson's testimony was 13041067_2

1 intended to contradict a part of Chase's case in chief and presents opinions outside
2 the scope of Dugan's initial expert disclosure. Brunson's proffered "rebuttal"
3 testimony is thus improper under Rule 16.1.

A. Brunson's "Rebuttal" Testimony Improperly Seeks to Contradict a Portion of Chase's Case in Chief

SFR seeks to use Brunson's testimony to contradict Chase's argument, as part<sup>3</sup> of its case in chief, that the Court should set aside the subject sale as to Chase's deed of trust because the sale price of the property was so low when compared to the Property's value. Brunson's entire report is intended to show that—contrary to Chase's argument—SFR's sale price of only $6,100 was not too low because, in Brunson's opinion, the Property should be valued at "$6,000 Seven Thousand Dollars (rounded) [sic]." Exhibit C to Motion, at 080. SFR was required to disclose such expert testimony in an initial expert disclosure.

Moreover, SFR anticipated Chase's case in chief arguments about the low sale price. SFR argues that it could not anticipate that Chase's challenge its inadequate purchase price because: (a) Chase did not allege commercial unreasonableness as an affirmative defense; and (b) "during the time period between the filing of this Complaint and expert disclosure deadline, commercial reasonableness allegations by lenders were not consistent or commonplace like they are today." Opposition at 5. SFR's argument is meritless.

First, Chase's amended answer asserts SFR's inadequate purchase price as an affirmative defense: See Amended Answer and Counterclaim (filed Oct. 19, 2015) at 9 (Twelfth Affirmative Defense). SFR's counsel was provided with Chase's amended answer for review before the expert disclosure cutoff and, on October 13, 20

24	signed the stipulation to allow Chase to file this amended answer. See Stipulation
25	and Order (filed Oct. 15, 2015), at 2. While SFR requested other discovery extensions
26
27	<sup>3</sup> Another portion of Chase's argument is that, in addition to price, other circumstances surrounding the subject sale also were unfair.
28
	13041067_2

1 in this case, at no time did it request an extension of the initial expert deadline
2 despite its notice of Chase's affirmative defense.

Second, SFR knew commercial reasonableness was an issue as early as April 3 2015—six months before initial expert reports were due. On April 13, 2015, SFR 4 served a Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice to Chase that included the following topic: 5"To the extent JPMorgan is alleging that the price paid at the Association foreclosure 6 7 sale was not commercially reasonable, any valuation, appraisals and/or broker's price opinions of the Property obtained by JPMorgan or its agents. . . . " Depo Notice to 8 Chase, attached hereto as Exhibit G, at p. 6. The record demonstrates that SFR 9 anticipated the need to obtain an initial expert to opine about the Property's value 10because SFR sought discovery on this very issue months before the deadline. 11

SFR was well aware that the Property's value was at issue in this case, but it chose not to retain an initial expert. As such, the Court should exclude Brunson's improper "rebuttal" testimony.

B. Brunson's Testimony Also Exceeds the Scope of Dugan's Opinions

Brunson's "rebuttal" testimony is improper and should be excluded as untimely for another reason: it presents opinions that far exceed the scope of Chase's initial expert disclosure. Dugan, Chase's initial expert, provides an opinion of the Property's market value. See generally Exhibit B to Motion. The scope of rebuttal testimony is therefore limited to this issue—the market value of the Property.<sup>4</sup>

Brunson's testimony, however, goes well beyond this topic. Nowhere in Chase's expert disclosure does Dugan opine about which valuation method to use (a legal issue already determined by Nevada law). He provides an opinion on the 24 25 26 27	<sup>4</sup> SFR also characterizes Dugan's report broadly as a "valuation," in an attempt to argue that Brunson's "valuation" falls within the scope of rebuttal. SFR is incorrect. Dugan provides an opinion of market value. Exhibit B to Motion at 033 (defining "market value" to include a "typically motivated" seller); see also Unruh v. Streight , 96 Nev. 684, 686, 615 P.2d 247, 249 (1980). As explained in Section I.B., Brunson's proffered "disposition value" opinions do not fall within the scope of Dugan's market value opinions.

AA 245

Property's market value, as requested. Brunson, in contrast, does not merely rebut the opinions set forth in Chase's disclosure. He provides a separate report of completely new opinions. Compare Exhibit C at 046-072 (Brunson's "Appraisal Review" (emphasis added)) (reviewing Dugan's appraisal) with id. at 073-080, 092 (Brunson's "Appraisal Report," which he labels, in the upper right corner, as an "Independent Opinion of Value" (emphasis added)).

Brunson's report is an untimely initial expert report couched as one that offers rebuttal testimony. It offers a newly made up legal opinion/standard about the propriety of using "disposition value," and then provides an "independent opinion of value." Id. at 073 (acknowledging that his "Appraisal Report" provides his "independent opinion of value"); id. at 078 ("Based on the above analysis, the most logical definition of value would be Disposition Value."); id. at 080 ("the impaired, fee simple, disposition value as of September 21, 2012 was: $6,000 Seven Thousand Dollars (rounded) [sic]." (bold in original)).

SFR erroneously argues that Brunson's independent appraisal is "just the nomenclature for headings in the appraisal world" and offered for "demonstrative purposes" as part of the "natural flow of rebuttal." Opposition at 4. SFR's characterizations of the report fail. Rule 16.1 explicitly limits expert rebuttal testimony to "the scope of another party's disclosure." N.R.C.P. 16.1(a)(2)(C)(ii). Nowhere does SFR explain how Brunson's new opinions about the Property's disposition value falls within the scope of Dugan's market value appraisal.

Not only is Brunson's opinion irrelevant and improper for any expert as discussed above in Section I—it also seeks to contradict a portion of Chase's case in

12 BALLARD SPAHR LLP 00 NORTH CITY PARKWAY, SUITE 1750 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89106 128 VEGAS, NEVADA 89106 702) 471-7000 FAX (702) 471-7070 12 12 12

24 chief and exceeds the scope of Chase's initial expert disclosure. Brunson's expert 25 testimony is thus improper for rebuttal. Since Brunson's independent opinions were 26 not timely disclosed in the period set for initial expert disclosures, they must be 27 excluded in this case.
28 ...

Ш. 1

BRUNSON'S EXPERT REPORT IS UNRELIABLE

 $\mathbf{2}$ This Court should also exclude Brunson's expert disclosure for a third reason: his opinions are not reliable. SFR asserts that Brunson did not invent his 3 methodology "for the purposes of appeasing his clients." Opposition at 6. SFR fails, 4 however, to provide the Court with any examples where an appraiser employed 56 Brunson's method—i.e., valuing the property for the same amount paid by the HOA sale purchaser that retained him as an expert—for a non-litigation purpose. 7 Hallmark v. Eldridge, 124 Nev. 492, 502, 189 P.3d 646, 652 (2008) (considering) 8 whether method "was developed by the proffered expert for purposes of the present 9 dispute"); see also Exhibit E to Motion (providing numerous examples of other 10reports where Brunson employed this "methodology"—all for HOA litigation cases). 11

As a fallback, SFR contends that this Court should nevertheless allow Brunson's testimony since a toxicologist expert in Higgs was allowed to testify despite a lack of evidence on the testing, peer review, and general acceptance of his methodology. Opposition at 6-7. SFR ignores the fact that the opposing expert in Higgs testified "he did not take issue with [the toxicologist's] methodology or results." Higgs, 222 P.3d at 660. Unlike Higgs, Chase takes issue with Brunson's methodology and results.

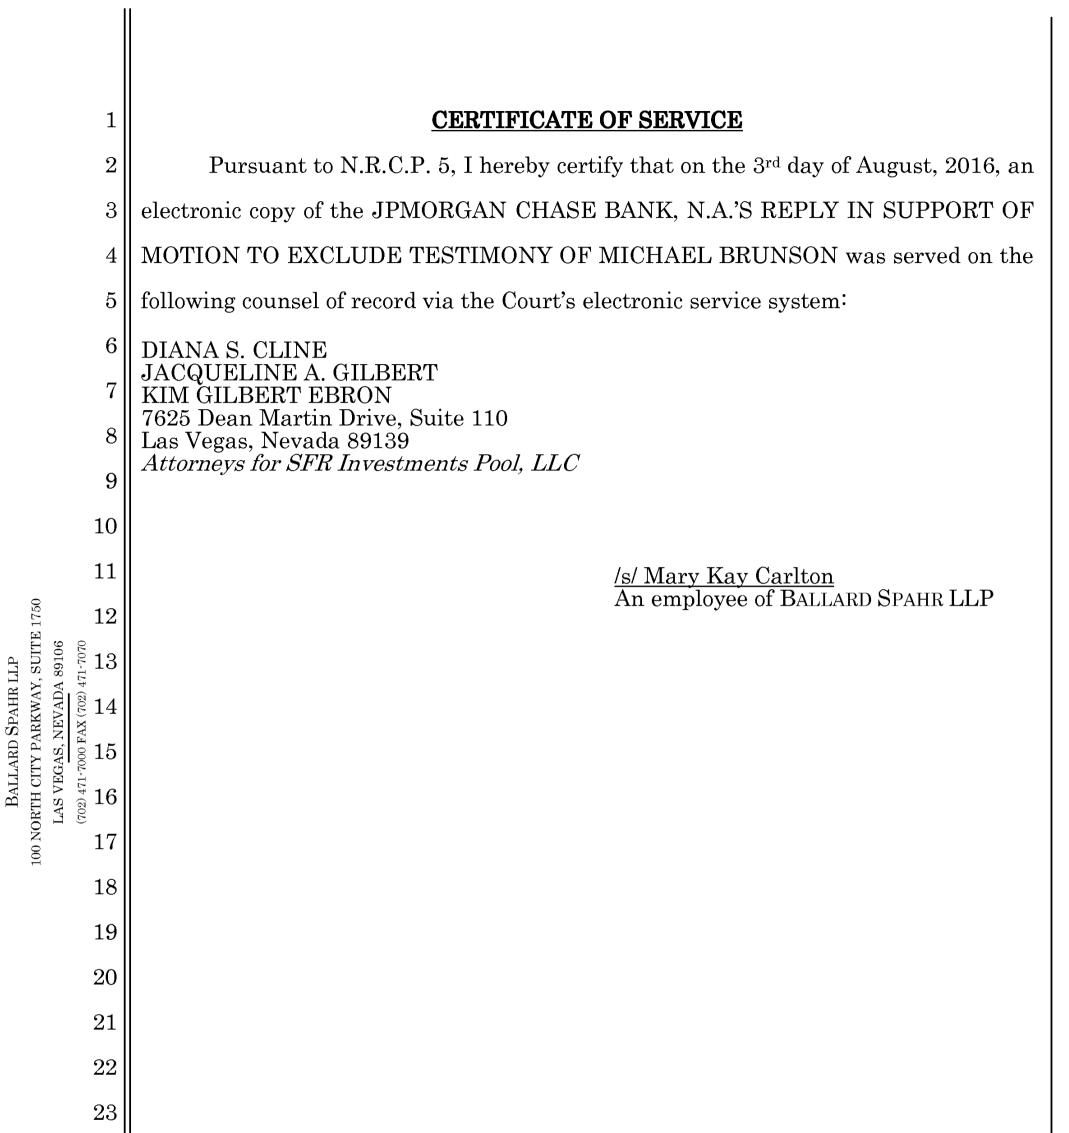

The Court cannot ignore its gate keeping function and allow Brunson's 19irrelevant and unreliable opinions of value. Expert testimony "will assist the trier of 20fact only when it is relevant and the product of reliable methodology." Higgs, 222 21P.3d at 660 (quoting Hallmark, 189 P.3d at 651); see also Section I (discussing 22relevance). Since Brunson's testimony is neither relevant nor reliable, it must be 23

Proceedings recorded by audio-visual recording, transcript produced by transcription service.

1	las vegas, nevada, wednesday, august 10, 2016, 9:12 A.M.
2	THE COURT: SFR Investments vs. Venta Realty.
3	MS. HANKS: Good morning, Karen Hanks on behalf of
4	SFR.
5	THE COURT: Thank you.
6	MR. VIGIL: Good morning, Your Honor. Abe Vigil on
7	behalf of JP Morgan Chase.
8	THE COURT: Thank you. And let's see, this is
9	let me make sure I have it's the JP Morgan's Motion to
10	Compel and then we have a Motion to Exclude with an Opposition
11	and Countermotion. Mr. Vigil?
12	MR. VIGIL: Thank you, Your Honor. My understanding
13	was that the Motion to Compel was going to be argued before
14	the Discovery Commissioner. And but if that's
15	THE COURT: You know, I wasn't sure. I prepared for
16	it either way, so.
17	MR. VIGIL: Okay. Well, for logistically I have
18	an associate who prepared to argue that who's in the Discovery
19	Commissioner's office right now.
20	THE COURT: That's fine.
21	MR. VIGIL: So it may make sense to for us to
22	coordinate or to allow me to coordinate with her on that issue
23	and
24	THE COURT: So
25	MR. VIGIL: and move on to the
	Verbatim Digital Reporting 11 C    303-798-0890

	С Соб
1	THE COURT: both of you intend for the Motion to
2	Compel to be heard by the Discovery Commissioner?
3	MS. HANKS: Yes, we have an associate or a partner
4	down there right now ready to argue that, so I'm not prepared
5	to argue that, but.
6	THE COURT: That's fine. So let's just take up then
7	the Motion to Exclude with the Opposition and Countermotion.
8	MS. HANKS: Great.
9	MR. VIGIL: Thank you so much, Your Honor.
10	On the Motion to Exclude, this has been briefed, I
11	think, pretty well by both of the parties. And I know I don't
12	appear in front of you all the time, but I understand that you
13	you're very well prepared, and so I don't want to simply
14	just recite everything that we already have presented to you
15	and be in the papers.
16	THE COURT: No, not to cut you off either. You need
17	to you need to be able to tell your clients that you've
18	been heard.
19	MR. VIGIL: Understood. I recognize
20	THE COURT: Right.
21	MR. VIGIL: that, Your Honor.
22	So for purposes of argument today, what I would like

22	So for purposes of argument today, what I would like
23	to do rather than rehash what you've already read, is simply
24	hit on some of the high points
25	THE COURT: Sure.

MR. VIGIL: -- that I believe are very important for purposes of our motion. So notwithstanding everything that we've provided to you in writing as a basis by which to exclude the rebuttal expert, I think there are two points that I'd like to hit on for purposes of oral argument. And those two points are going to be, Your Honor, of a procedural basis and then a substantive/legal basis.

8 The procedural basis which I'm going to talk about, 9 Your Honor, is that a rebuttal expert simply cannot provide 10 opinions that should have been made as an initial expert or 11 within an initial expert disclosure.

12 The second basis, Your Honor, that I am going to talk about, which is I think legally substantive, is that the 13 rebuttal expert opinion here is simply not relevant given the 14 governing legal standard that has been established by the 15 16 Nevada Supreme Court for purposes of measuring what an 17 adequate value was to be garnered at the HOA foreclosure sale. 18 So first, Your Honor, and I think this is a pretty succinct point, here what SFR did was it supplied what should 19 have been an initial expert report, but it did so in the form 20 of a rebuttal report which was, you just can't do that. 21 SFR

22	knew in advance of the initial expert disclosure deadline that
23	the adequacy of price was, in fact, at issue in this case, so
24	it knew that that was something that Chase was providing in
25	its defense in its case-in-chief.

1	And so an opinion of value is something that should
2	have been provided as an initial report instead of waiting to
3	try to supply that as a rebuttal report. That's simply barred
4	both by the expert disclosure rules, and then it also, when
5	you read the report, I'm sure you've seen, it simply goes far,
6	far beyond rebutting and providing critique of what Chase
7	provided in its initial expert disclosure. And so on that
8	procedural basis it has to be excluded.
9	Secondarily, Your Honor, the rebuttal expert
10	opinion, it's not relevant, and it's not relevant for I think
11	two primary reasons. Number one is what the rebuttal expert
12	does is he tries to invade on the province of the Court itself
13	and tell the Court what the legal yardstick is by which to
14	measure value for purposes of determining whether the amount
15	garnered at the HOA foreclosure sale was adequate.
16	And when you look at the Shadow Wood case, which I
17	know you're really familiar with, the Shadow Wood case, it
18	speaks in terms of when we're talking about adequacy of
19	price or commercial reasonableness it speaks in terms of the
20	measure being fair market value, nothing else.
21	It doesn't talk about and it doesn't allow for an

22	expert to come up with a different measure for the Court to
23	use. Instead, the Nevada Supreme Court supplied, by rule of
24	law, an objective measure, fair market value, which I
25	recognize that there can be different types of fair market

1	value opinions, but here we have an opinion which isn't fair
2	market value, it's something completely different. And
3	because of that, it is not relevant, it is simply, you know, I
4	think, an improper legal opinion trying to impede upon the
5	Court's province of establishing what the yardstick is for
6	purposes of measuring value.
7	And I think for that those reasons which are
8	further articulated in our briefs, Your Honor, in substance,
9	the rebuttal expert report needs to be excluded.
10	THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Vigil.
11	MR. VIGIL: Thank you.
12	THE COURT: Ms. Hanks?
13	MS. HANKS: With respect to the first point, Your
14	Honor, the Bank filed their Answer on January 25th, 2013, and
15	not once did they allege price inadequacy or even commercial
16	reasonableness as a defense or an allegation. So to suggest
17	that SFR knew this was an issue in the case, this specific
18	case, is actually not accurate.
19	Then the Bank also filed an Amended Answer on
20	October 19, 2015 and still never alleged price inadequacy or
21	commercial reasonableness as an issue or an affirmative

22	defense in the case. But four days prior to doing the Amended
23	Answer they did do a disclosure of an expert on October 13,
24	2015. So it's just completely inaccurate to suggest that SFR
25	knew that the Bank in this case was suggesting there was anything wrong with the price or commercial reasonableness. 1 2 Setting that aside, however, Mr. Brunson's opinion 3 is a true rebuttal opinion. He is attacking Mr. Dugan's choice of value with respect to the facts and circumstances of 4 5 this case. And he goes through a pretty copious analysis and 6 says, as an appraiser, they have an independent duty to identify what the appraisal problem is, and then looking at 7 all the totality of the circumstances that are basically 8 governing the market for this particular property, you have to 9 take that into consideration and decide the appropriate value 10 that you would apply. And he doesn't do that. 11 And Mr. Brunson goes and explains why he doesn't do it, and why that's 12 a faulty exercise on his part. 13

And then he also explains what the more appropriate definition would be, because there's multiple definitions of value. It's not a fact value, it is a concept. And so he explains there's multiple definitions and then he explains there's a more appropriate definition given the facts and circumstances of this case, particularly the fact that we're dealing with a distressed sale situation.

21 So it is a true rebuttal. Even though he's talking

22	about a different value, it's no different than I try to
23	liken it to a personal injury case where you might have a
24	defense expert opining to a life care plan and they might say,
25	well, I disagree with the rhyzotomies and the surgery that's being recommended, but I will agree that maybe this more conservative treatment, physical therapy, some medication, lifetime medication would be appropriate. It's not different. He's attacking the substance of the opinions, but then he's also recognizing what he might recommend in lieu of what the plaintiff's expert might be recommending. It's no different than what Mr. Brunson's doing.

8 With respect to the relevance, Your Honor, frankly, 9 there is no case law in Nevada that tells you how to measure 10 any type of adequacy of price. In fact, that's not even the 11 standard. Nevada has very clearly laid out that they've 12 adopted the Golden vs. Tomiyasu case and they say price alone 13 is not sufficient. You have to have fraud, oppression or 14 unfairness.

So frankly, I'm in a position, my client's in a position where we don't even think experts should be involved at all, because the Bank should have to be coming forward with evidence of fraud, oppression or unfairness that accounts for and brings about the actual price paid at the auction which they never do. And the Bank hasn't done it in this case. The problem is, they name an expert. I'm not going

22	to have my client jeopardize itself and go to trial without a
23	competing expert, so I have to name an expert in rebuttal and
24	that's what we're doing. But the bottom line is the
25	Restatement is not adopted by Nevada, and even if it were

1 adopted by Nevada it's not as black and white as the Bank
2 would like it to be.

Even the Restatement has examples of where fair market value is not the proper measurement and that it needs to be adjusted when you have liens that might stay on the property or other circumstances. And that's exactly what Mr. Brunson's testimony is going to be and that's exactly what his opinion is in this case.

9 That you cannot look at a property that was sold in 10 a distressed sale situation and compare it to the best case 11 scenario, a market transaction, as if a homeowner was selling 12 it on the open market to every potential buyer out there.

13 You have to take into consideration what was -approaching this particular property, what was recorded 14 against this particular property and take into consideration 15 you have a smaller pool of buyers, typically cash buyers, not 16 17 buyers who can get lending from an institution, who are attending these sales, and it's an auction type of an 18 environment. It's going to be the best price, the highest 19 20 price bid. You don't bid any -- a dollar more than you need So explains all of that and explains why you can't just 21 to.

22	look at it as a black and white market value versus the price
23	paid at the auction.
24	So, Your Honor, based on that we believe that Mr.
25	Brunson should be able to testify, and if anything if he's not

1 relevant than Mr. Dugan is not relevant.

4

2 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Hanks. Your reply, 3 please, Mr. Vigil?

MR. VIGIL: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 First, I disagree with the personal injury analogy. 6 In this instance the -- when the Court is weighing an adequacy 7 of price there's a measure which has been established by the 8 Nevada Supreme Court. Like it or not, the Nevada Supreme 9 Court did, in fact, affirmatively cite to the Restatement 10 Third of Property to discuss what is or is not a grossly 11 inadequate price.

And we've cited for you -- we've quote in a block 12 quote directly from the Restatement Third of Property which 13 states that standard by which gross inadequacy is measured is 14 the fair market value of real estate. For this purpose, the 15 16 latter means not to the fair forced sale value of the real 17 estate, but the price which would result from negotiation and mutual agreement and so on, going into the definition of what 18 19 fair market value is.

That is a Restatement principal which is the law which is incorporated by the Shadow Wood case. For a rebuttal

22	expert to try to redefine what that value is, again, that
23	steps into the shoes of the Court and it tries to usurp your
24	power, your ability as the arbiter of what is or is not
25	admissible and what is a legal question to be applied here as

1 the standard of -- or the -- the measure for determining 2 value.

3 Second, Your Honor, with regard to whether SFR had notice about whether inadequacy of price, and as some people 4 5 are calling it, commercial reasonableness as to value was part of this case, we did supply for you in our Reply, together 6 7 with an exhibit which is Exhibit G in the record, that it's about six full months in advance of the initial expert 8 disclosure deadline that SFR, in fact, did include in a Rule 9 30(b)(6) deponotice a question of whether Chase was going to 10 11 contend that inadequacy of price was an issue.

And so that's -- that's tantamount to an admission that they know, and we certainly didn't say, no, that's not what we're doing. That's six months advance notice of this issue being part of this case.

And I, you know, I think with that, Your Honor, I think I'll rest. I do think that the rebuttal expert report does need to be excluded from this case. It's simply not germane to anything given that what it's trying to do is impede on basically your job of establishing what the legal standard is by trying to redefine it by way of an expert

22	opinion.
23	THE COURT: Thank you. This is the Defendant's
24	Motion to Exclude the Testimony of Michael Brunson as a
25	Rebuttal Expert. The motion will be denied for the following

1 reasons. First, given the fact that the Answer did not 2 originally bring up the adequacy of price, the rebuttal -- it 3 was appropriate for the plaintiff to treat Mr. Brunson as a 4 rebuttal witness.

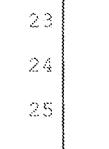

5 The objection to his standard, I will listen to the testimony and apply the law correctly, but I think that the 6 7 objection here goes to the weight and not admissibility of his 8 testimony, and I do find that his testimony will be relevant at the time of trial. So -- and you guys are set for the 9 10 22nd. Is that a stack or a firm date? I think you gave us a firm date, Your 11 MS. HANKS: 12 Honor, in October. 13 THE CLERK: It's the 24th. I wanted to make sure that THE COURT: 17 I picked that up today since it looks like it may be one of the last motions before we have our trial, October 24th. 18 19 MS. HANKS: Yep. 20 Good enough. LLC v. U.S. Bank, N.A., 130 Nev. ___, ___, 334 P.3d 408, 419 (2014). The recitals in the 1 Foreclosure Deed provide conclusive proof that the Bank was given notice of the sale, which is 2 supported by evidence of receipt by the Bank, and the Bank failed to protect its interest. SFR is 3 entitled to summary judgment on its claims for quiet title and permanent injunction, against the 4 above-named parties. Specifically, (1) title should be quieted in the name of SFR, (2) the deed 5 of trust purportedly held by the Bank should be permanently removed from title; and (3) the 6 Bank, and any agents acting on its behalf, are permanently enjoined from any sale or transfer 7 that would affect SFR's title to the Property. 8

Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 729, 121 P.3d 2 1026, 1029 (2005). Additionally, "[t]he purpose of summary judgment 'is to avoid a needless 3 trial when an appropriate showing is made in advance that there is no genuine issue of fact to be 4 tried, and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law."" McDonald v. D.P. Alexander 5 & Las Vegas Boulevard, LLC, 121 Nev. 812, 815, 123 P.3d 748, 750 (2005) quoting Coray v. 6 Home, 80 Nev. 39, 40-41, 389 P.2d 76, 77 (1964). 7

Moreover, the non-moving party "must, by affidavit or otherwise, set forth specific facts demonstrating the existence of a genuine issue for trial or have summary judgment entered against [it]." Wood, 121 Nev. at 32, 121 P.3d at 1031. The non-moving party "is not entitled to build a case on the gossamer threads of whimsy, speculation, and conjecture." Id. Rather, the non-moving party must demonstrate specific facts as opposed to general allegations and conclusions. LaMantia v. Redisi, 118 Nev. 27, 29, 38 P.3d 877, 879 (2002); Wayment v. Holmes, 112 Nev. 232,237,912 P.2d 816, 819 (1996). Though inferences are to be drawn in favor of the non-moving party, an opponent to summary judgment, must show that it can produce evidence at trial to support its claim or defense. Van Cleave v. Kietz-Mill Minit Mart, 97 Nev. 414, 417, 633 P.2d 1220, 222 (1981)

SFR is Entitled to Summary Judgment because the First Deed of Trust Was B. Extinguished by the Association's Non-Judicial Foreclosure Sale.

In Nevada, a homeowners' association has a lien for delinquent assessments, a portion of 20 which has priority over a first deed of trust. NRS 47.250(16)-(18) (stating that there are disputable presumptions "that the law has been obeyed"; "that a 4 trustee or other person, whose duty it was to convey real property to a particular person, has 5 actually conveyed to that person, when such presumption is necessary to perfect the title of such 6 person or a successor in interest"; "that private transactions have been fair and regular"; and 7 "that the ordinary course of business has been followed.");

3. A foreclosure deed issued pursuant to NRS 116.31164 that "recit[es] compliance with notice provisions of NRS 116.31162 through NRS 116.31168 "is conclusive" as to the recitals "against the unit's former owner, his or her heirs and assigns and all other persons." SFR, 334 P.3d at 411-12 (citing NRS 116.31166(2)).

These presumptions "not only fix[] the burden of going forward with evidence, but it also shifts the burden of proof." Yeager v. Harrah's Club, Inc., 111 Nev. 830, 835, 897 P.2d 1093, 1095 (1995) (citing Vancheri v. GNLV Corp., 105 Nev. 417, 421, 777 P.2d 366, 368 (1989)). "These presumptions impose on the party against whom it is directed the burden of proving that the nonexistence of the presumed fact is more probable than its existence." Id. (citing NRS 47.180.). Here, for the Bank to prevail, it has the burden to prove that it is more probable than not that the Association foreclosure sale and the resulting foreclosure deed are invalid. Yet the Bank has not produced any admissible evidence to prove such an allegation that would allow the sale to be set aside.<sup>53</sup> To overcome the presumption of validity, the Bank must plead and prove a claim for fraud with particularity or allege some unfairness or oppression that is not overshadowed by its own bad acts.

24	Further, "[i]f the trustee's deed recites that all statutory notice requirements and
25	procedures required by law for the conduct of the foreclosure have been satisfied, a rebuttable
26	presumption arises that the sale has been conducted regularly and properly; this presumption is conclusive as to a bona fide purchaser." Moeller v. Lien, 25 Cal.App.4th 822, 831-832, 30 1 Cal.Rptr.2d 777, 783 (1994) (emphasis added); see also, 4 Miller & Starr, Cal. This conclusive proof is 4 key because "[t]he conclusive presumption precludes an attack by the trustor on the trustee's 5 sale to a bona fide purchaser even where the trustee wrongfully rejected a proper tender of 6 reinstatement by the trustor[,]" and even where "the sale price was only 25 percent of the value 7 of the property. . . ." Moeller, 25 Cal.App.4th at 831-833, 30 Cal.Rptr.2d at 783 (emphasis 8 added). Put simply, where there were no irregularities in the proceedings of the sale, the sale 9 cannot be set aside. Id. at 833. Further, in Nevada, unlike California, the conclusive proof does 10 not require that the purchaser be a BFP to rely on the recitals. See Pro-Max Corp. v. Feenstra, 11 117 Nev. 90, 95, 16 P.3d 1074, 1077-78 (2001), opinion reinstated on reh'g (Jan. 31, 2001) 12 (holding that no limitation of bonafide purchaser can be read into a statute providing a 13 conclusive presumption).<sup>54</sup> There needs to be finality to a foreclosure sale, so that buyers will 14 attend and bid, without the continued threat of lawsuits challenging their title. There is a 15 sanctity and finality to foreclosure sales where the deed contains the conclusive recitals. Cf. 16 Moeller, 25 Cal.App.4th at 833, 30 Cal.Rptr.2d at 784. 17

Here, the Bank has the burden to overcome the conclusive presumption of the a purchaser at an association sale in a similar case. See Bourne Valley, 80 F.Supp.3d 1131

Here, like the lender in Bourne Valley, the Bank cannot dispute notice because the then-4 record holders of the First Deed of Trust actually received the Notice of Default and Notice of 5 Sale. 24	Undoubtedly, the Bank will argue that the Nevada Supreme Court recently found that Association foreclosed. Id. at 1107. In other words, it was the homeowner who challenged the 1 validity of the sale, not a lienholder. A homeowner has a whole bundle of rights that accompany 2 property ownership and, therefore, its property is unique and a homeowner can be entitled to 3 equity. Unlike a homeowner, the Bank simply had a collateral interest in the Property, which 4 gave it the right to foreclose. As such, the Bank's remedy at law, if one exists, is money 5 damages from the persons who harmed it, such as the foreclosing association or trustee. Munger 6 v. Moore, 11 Cal.App.3d 1, 89 Cal.Rptr. 323 (1970). 7

It is well-settled that, in Nevada, district courts lack authority to grant equitable relief when an adequate remedy at law exists. Las Vegas Valley Water Dist. v. Curtis Park Manor Water Users Ass'n, 98 Nev. 275, 277, 646 P.2d 549, 551 (1982). Because the Bank has an adequate remedy at law, should they be able to prove some irregularity with the sale, equitable relief is not available to the Bank. To the extent the Bank suggests that taking title subject to the first deed of trust is an option, the statute does not provide such an option. Unless the Bank can demonstrate actual fraud, unfairness, or oppression by the purchaser at the publicly advertised and held auction, the purchaser should not be subject to any acts that would set aside its unencumbered deed.

"<sup>55</sup> 27 <sup>55</sup> According to the Nevada Supreme Court, sales without equity or right of redemption vest the 28 purchaser with absolute title:

- 12 -

This is consistent with long-standing Nevada non-judicial foreclosure law that "[i]f the 1 sale is properly, lawfully and fairly carried out, [the bank] cannot unilaterally create a right of 2 redemption in [itself]." Golden v. Tomiyasu, 79 Nev. 503, 518, 387 P.2d 989, 997 (1963). 3 Nevada law does not allow the Bank or the Court to create a redemption period to save the 4 holder of the first deed of trust from its own failure to protect its interest. 5

As such, SFR is entitled to a declaration from this Court that the first deed of trust was extinguished by the Association foreclosure sale, and SFR should have title quieted solely in its name.

The Sale Was Commercially Reasonable. Е.

SFR is entitled to quiet title because there is no requirement of commercial reasonableness in association non-judicial foreclosure sales conducted pursuant to NRS 116, but even if there was, the price paid by SFR was commercially reasonable. As preliminary matter, NRS §116.31164, §116.31166 nor its surrounding provisions contain a requirement that the sale be "commercially reasonable."<sup>56</sup> However, to the extent this Court engages in any analysis of the commercial reasonableness of the foreclosure sale, the following must be considered.

When evaluating the commercial reasonableness of a sale, an allegation of inadequate sales price alone is insufficient to set aside a foreclosure sale: "there must also be a showing of fraud, unfairness, or oppression." Shadow Wood, 366 P.3d at 1105, (citing Long v. Towne, 98 Nev. 11, 13, 639 P.2d 528, 530 (1982)); see Golden, 79 Nev. at 504, 514, 387 P.2d at 995 (adopting the California rule that " inadequacy of price, however gross, is not in itself a sufficient ground for setting aside a trustee's sale legally made; there must be in addition proof of some element of fraud, unfairness or oppression as accounts for and brings about the 1 inadequacy of price" (internal citations omitted) (emphasis added); see Bourne Valley, 80 2 F.Supp.3d at 1136. This has been recently reaffirmed again by a panel of the Nevada Supreme 3 Court, post Shadow Wood, stating in an unpublished order that "this court's reaffirmation in 4 [Shadow Wood], that a low sales price in not a basis for voiding a foreclosure sale absent 'fraud, 5 unfairness, or oppression. . . ." Centeno v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Case No. 67365 (Nev. 6 Mar. 18, 2016) (unpublished Order Vacating and Remanding a denial of preliminary injunction 7 based in part on the district court's determination that, based on price alone, the sale was 8 commercially unreasonable).<sup>57</sup> 9

As will be shown below, not only can SFR show that the sale price itself was commercially reasonable, but there is no evidence of fraud, unfairness or oppression that accounted for or brought about an "inadequate" sales price. Golden, 79 Nev. at 504, 514, 387 P.2d at 995.

a. The Foreclosure Price was Sufficient.

Any evaluation that does not consider the entirety of a property's circumstances, including the fact that it was sold at an association non-judicial foreclosure sale, cannot shed light on the proper disposition value of a property. As the Bourne Valley Court recognized, when assessing commercial reasonableness of an association sale, the material facts affecting the specific market at that time must be considered, including the split in the courts as to the interpretation of NRS 116.3116(2), and whether there was evidence of fraud, oppression or unfairness:

The commercial reasonableness here must be assessed as of the time the sale occurred. Wells Fargo's argument that the HOA foreclosure sale was

- In that case, the price paid at the homeowners association's auction was $5,950.00. While the district court did not establish a value for the property, on appeal the Bank argued that that the deed of trust secured a loan for $160,001.00 and the property later reverted to the Bank at its own auction for $145,550.00. (See Case No. 67365, Response to Appellant's Pro se Appeal Statement, filed Feb. 17, 2016, available at http://caseinfo.nvsupremecourt.us/public/caseView.do?csIID=35567, as Doc. 16-04982. ...
  - Thus, the price paid at the association's foreclosure sale in Centeno was approximately 4% of the credit bid by the Bank at its subsequent auction.

commercially unreasonable due to the discrepancy between the sale price and the assessed value of the property ignores the practical reality that confronted the purchaser at the sale. Before the Nevada Supreme Court issued SFR Investments, purchasing property at an HOA foreclosure sale was a risky investment, akin to purchasing a lawsuit. Nevada state trial courts and decisions from the United States District Court for the District of Nevada were divided on the issue of whether HOA liens are true priority liens such that their foreclosure extinguishes the first deed of trust on the property. SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 412. Thus, a purchaser at an HOA foreclosure sale risked purchasing merely a possessory interest in the property subject to the first deed of trust. This risk is illustrated by the fact that title insurance companies refused to issue title insurance policies on titles received from foreclosures of HOA super priority liens absent a court order quieting title. (Mot. to Remand to State Court (Doc. #6, Decl. of Ron Bloecker.) Given these risks, a large discrepancy between the purchase price a buyer would be willing to pay and the assessed value of the property is to be expected.

Bourne Valley, 80 F.Supp.3d at 1136.

Likewise, in BFP, the United States Supreme Court was analyzing whether the price received at a mortgage foreclosure sale was less than "reasonably equivalent value" under the bankruptcy code. Similar to the arguments made by the Bank in this case, the Chapter 11 debtor in BFP argued that because the property sold for a fraction of its fair market value, the price paid was not reasonable. The Court held that "a 'reasonably equivalent value" for foreclosed real property is the price in fact received at the foreclosure sale, so long as all the requirements of the State's foreclosure law have been complied with." BFP v. Resolution Trust Corporation, 511 U.S. 531, 545, 114 S.Ct. 1757 (1994). The Court explained that in a forced sale situation, "fair market value cannot—or at least cannot always—be the benchmark[]' used to determine reasonably equivalent value. Id. at 537. This is so because the market conditions that generally lead to "fair market value" do not exists in the forced sale context, where sales take place with significant restrictions:

[M]arket value, as it is commonly understood, has no applicability in the forcedsale context; indeed, it is the very antithesis of forced-sale value. 'The market value of ... a piece of property is the price which it might be expected to bring if offered for sale in a fair market; not the price which might be obtained on a sale at

In short, 'fair market value' presumes market conditions that, by definition, simply do not obtain in the context of a forced sale.
27	Id. at 537-538, quoting Black's Law Dictionary 971 (6th ed. 1990).

4	Unlike most other legal restrictions, however, foreclosure has the effect of
5	completely redefining the market in which the property is offered for sale; normal free-market rules of exchange are replaced by the far more restrictive rules governing forged sales. Given this altered reality, and the concerning tiputility of
6 the normal tool for determining what pro only legitimate evidence of the property	governing forced sales. Given this altered reality, and the concomitant inutility of the normal tool for determining what property is worth (fair market value), the only legitimate evidence of the property's value at the time it is sold is the foreclosure-sale price itself.
	Id. at 548-549 (emphasis in original). <sup>58</sup>
	Any analysis that does not take into account that this was forced sale cannot accurately depict the value of the property.
	The evidence shows that SFR was the highest bidder at a publicly held auction with multiple bidders. See Ex. 2. In other words, SFR paid more than any other bidder was willing to pay. As discussed in BFP , a publicly held auction is a method use to sell property at its current value as any person or entity, including the Bank, could have bid more to receive the foreclosure deed to the Property. Although the Bank may be disappointed in the resulting sale price, no other buyer present was willing to pay more based, in part, on the Bank's reluctance to accept Nevada law. b. The Bank Has Not Presented Evidence of Fraud, Unfairness or Oppression that Brought About an "Inadequate" Sale Price.
	Even if this Court finds the sale price to be "inadequate," in order for the Court to 20	overturn the sale based on price, the Bank must show that some fraud, oppression or unfairness
21	brought about such "inadequate" price at the sale. As stated above, an allegation of inadequate
22	sales price alone is insufficient to set aside a foreclosure sale; "there must also be a showing of however gross, is not in itself a sufficient ground for setting aside a trustee's sale legally made; 1 there must be in addition proof of some element of fraud, unfairness or oppression as accounts 2 for and brings about the inadequacy of price" (internal citations omitted) (emphasis added).) 3 Important to note is that the amount of the inadequacy in price cannot, by itself, allow this Court 4 to set aside a trustee sale. Id. Put simply, commercial reasonableness deals with looking at 5 whether there was conduct in the sale process that led to the low price, not simply comparing 6 price to value. See Iama Corp. v. Wham, 99 Nev. 730, 735-738, 669 P.2d 1076, 1079 (1983) 7 (must look to the sale process, i.e., "whether proper notice was given, whether the bidding was 8 competitive, and whether the sale was conducted pursuant to . . . normal procedures") (emphasis 9 added); see also Weeping Hollow Ave. Trust v. Spencer, ____ F.3d ____, 2016 WL 4088749 at * 5 10 (9th Cir. Aug. 2, 2016) ("[W]e are unaware of any 'fraud, unfairness or oppression' that might 11 have infected the sale."). 12

Here, there are no allegations or evidence of fraud, oppression or unfairness that brought about any inadequacy in price. The Association's sale was publicly noticed, as required by statute; multiple bidders attended the auction; and it is undisputed that neither the homeowner nor the Bank paid an amount necessary to cure the lien before the sale. Furthermore, the Association's compliance with notice is not in question. Moreover, by failing to present any relevant evidence of the property's value at the time of the Association's foreclosure, the Bank has not even demonstrated an inadequacy in price relating to the sale.

In sum, there is no fraud, oppression or unfairness which accounted for and brought about 20 the price paid by SFR. Viewing the transaction as a whole, the sale was commercially reasonable, and summary judgment should therefore be granted in favor of SFR. 22

While Not Required, Even if there were Irregularities with the Sale, these F.

24	Cannot be Imputed to SFR Because SFR is a Bona Fide Purchaser.
25	While SFR is a bona fide purchaser ("BFP") as to this Property, nothing under Nevada

27	by SFR in the event the Bank claims a pre-sale dispute or irregularity occurred. In other words, purchaser purchased the property for a "low price" did not in itself put the purchaser on notice 1 that anything was amiss with the sale).) Further, notice by a potential purchaser that an 2 association is conducting a sale pursuant to NRS 116, and that the potential exists for challenges 3 to the sale "post hoc[,]" do not preclude that purchaser from BFP status. Shadow Wood, 366 4 P.3d at 1116. As has been established, finality in foreclosure sales to bona fide purchasers is a 5 must to avoid chilled bidding. Moeller, 25 Cal.App.4th at 833, 30 Cal.Rptr.2d at 784. These 6 continued attacks by the lenders on the association sales causes the very issues with price that 7 the lenders then complain of in their attacks on commercial reasonableness. See Sec. E, supra. 8

In analyzing this issue, Nevada law includes another relevant presumption: "[t]hat a 9 person intends the ordinary consequences of that person's voluntary act." NRS 47.250(2). In the 10 present case, SFR paid valuable consideration for the Property at the foreclosure sale. At the 11 time of the sale, SFR had no notice of a competing or superior interest in the Property where the 12 public records showed only that (1) a deed of trust was recorded after the Association perfected 13 its lien by recording its declaration of CC&Rs, (2) there was a delinquency by the homeowner, 14 which resulted in the Association instituting foreclosure proceedings and after complying with 15 NRS Chapter 116, sold the Property at a public auction. Between the date the Notice of Default 16 was recorded and the date of the foreclosure sale, the Bank never recorded a lis pendens or other 17 document alleging any problems with the foreclosure process or the foreclosure sale. Ex. 2,  $\P$  16. 18 Additionally, SFR has no relationship with the Association or the Association's Agent, except 19 as a purchaser of Property. Ex. 2, ¶¶ 18, 19. Therefore, nothing known to the Association or its 20 Agent about any purported irregularities in the foreclosure process could have been known by 21 SFR. To that extent, the Bank has not alleged any facts or introduced admissible evidence that 22 SFR had any knowledge precluding it from BFP status, other than an impotent deed of trust. 23

Thus, this Court should not consider unwinding the sale or otherwise encumbering SFR's deed to the Property. It should require the Bank—if it proves any irregularity with the sale process for which the Association was responsible—to seek its remedies elsewhere.
Even if this Court were to continue and weigh equities, which it should not, it "must consider the entirety of the circumstances that bear upon the equities." Shadow Wood, 366 P.3d at 1114. These would include not only any irregularities in the sale process by the Association 1 or Association's agents, but the actions or (in)actions by the Bank and SFR's BFP status. Id. As 2 the Shadow Wood court noted, "[c]onsideration of harm to potentially innocent third parties is 3 especially pertinent here where [the Bank] did not use the legal remedies available to it to 4 prevent the property from being sold to a third party. . . ." Id. at 1115, n.7. Here, the Bank failed 5 to bring any evidence that the Association foreclosure notices were not sent to it as required by 6 statute. Further, the Bank testified that it is not disputing receipt of the notice of sale. See Ex. 1-7 O. The Bank did not (1) pay the lien, (2) contact the Association or the Association's agent 8 disputing the lien or the sale prior to the sale, (3) contact the Ombudsman, (4) record a lis 9 pendens, (5) attend the sale, or (6) seek judicial intervention to enjoin the sale. See Ex. 1-O, see 10 specifically 25:5-20. The Bank knew that without taking action to stop the sale, the 11 Association's foreclosure would extinguish all junior interests in the Property. By allowing the 12 sale to go forward, the Bank must have intended this consequence. NRS 47.250(2). On the 13 other hand, SFR merely attended a publicly noticed, publicly held foreclosure sale, and placed 14 the winning bid at the auction. The Bank is seeking yet another bail out for its poor business 15 decisions. 16

While the Court should not get this far because of the absence of evidence of fraud, oppression or unfairness, or irregularity with the sales process, if it were to weigh equities, the equities lie in favor of SFR. Title should be quieted in SFR's name and the Bank enjoined from taking any further action to enforce its extinguished lien against the Property or further clouding SFR's title.

SFR is Entitled to Summary Judgment Because the Bank's Unjust G. Enrichment Claim is Without Merit.

Here, the Bank asserts that SFR has benefitted from the Bank's payment of taxes, 24 insurance or homeowner's association assessments since the time of the HOA sale. See Bank's 25 Amended Answer and Counterclaim, on file herein, at 11:5-20. However, the Bank is barred 26 from the making an unjust enrichment claim as it is barred by the voluntary payment doctrine. 27 "The voluntary payment doctrine law, which clearly provides that one who makes a payment 28 - 20 - voluntarily, cannot recover it on the ground that he was under no legal obligation to make the 1 payment." Best Buy Stores v. Benderson-Wainberg Assocs., 668 F.3d 1019, 1030 (8th Cir. 2 2012). Recently, the Nevada Supreme Court weighed in on this issue on whether the voluntary 3 payment doctrine applies in Nevada to bar a property owner from recovering fees that it paid to a 4 community association and, if so, whether the property owners demonstrated an exception to this 5 doctrine by showing that the payments were made under business compulsion or in defense of 6 property. Nevada Association Services, Inc. v. The Eighth Judicial District, 130 Nev. ____, ___, 7 338 P.3d 1250 (2014). In NAS the Nevada Supreme Court ruled that the voluntary payment 8 doctrine is a valid affirmative defense in Nevada. Id. at 1254. Because the voluntary payment 9 doctrine is an affirmative defense, the defendant bears the burden of proving its applicability. 10 Schwartz v. Schwartz, 95 Nev. 202, 206, 591 P.2d 1137, 1140 n. 2 (1979). Once a defendant 11 shows that a voluntary payment was made, the burden shifts to the plaintiff to demonstrate that 12 an exception to the voluntary payment doctrine applies. Randazo v. Harris Palatine, N.A., 262 13 F.3d 663, 666 (7th Cir. 2001). There are two exceptions to the voluntary payment doctrine. 14 These exceptions are (1) coercion or duress caused by a business necessity and (2) payment in 15 the defense of property. 16

As such, the burden shifts to the Bank to prove that one of the exceptions applies. Here, the Bank was under no compulsion or obligation to pay any expenses on the Property. Just like any other homeowner, it was SFR's duty and obligation to pay obligations such as the taxes, insurance and assessments, not the Bank's. Had the Bank simply paid the assessments prior to the sale, we would not be here today. Why it would pay post-sale is inexplicable.

Additionally, the Bank's payments were not in defense of the property. That is because the Bank cannot show that SFR failed or refused to pay and assessment, taxes or other expense of the property, to the extent the Bank voluntarily made payments for insurance, SFR has not benefitted from this unless the Bank made SFR an additional insured. Additionally, it is presumed that the Bank voluntarily paid the property taxes, which was unnecessary.

Furthermore, the Bank has provided no evidence that SFR would not have paid the tax bill if given the opportunity.

1	Lastly, under Nevada law, in order to prevail on an unjust enrichment claim, the Bank
2	must show that SFR retained the money or property of the Bank against fundamental principles
3	of justice or equity and good conscience. Asphalt Products v. All Star Ready Mix, 111 Nev. 799,
4	802, 898 P.2d 699, 701 (1995). Here, the subject Property was never property belonging to the
5	Bank. Instead, the Property merely represented collateral that secured the first deed of trust until
6	that security interest was extinguished by the Association foreclosure sale. As such, SFR has not
7	retained property belonging to the Bank. Even if this Court were to consider a collateral interest
8	as ownership interest in the Property, for all the reasons stated above, the Association foreclosure
9	sale extinguished the deed of trust, and therefore there is no inequity or injustice as SFR has
10	maintained possession of property it rightfully purchased at the Association sale.
11	Therefore, SFR is entitled to summary judgment on the Bank's claim for unjust
12	enrichment.

H. FHA Insurance, Even if it Exists, Does not Change SFR's Entitlement to Summary Judgment.

It is anticipated that the Bank will argue that the subject loan was insured by FHA, and therefore its security interest could not be extinguished because federal law preempts NRS 116 and the federal government had a property interest in the loan. These arguments, however, are without merit.

First, the mere fact that the loan was anticipated to be FHA-insured, based on an FHA Case No. stamp on the deed of trust, (Ex. 1-C, at [Chase_CRC0002], is insufficient to show the loan was actually insured by the FHA. In fact, Paragraph 9(e) of the deed of trust expressly contemplates the possibility the loan may be rejected as ineligible. Id. at [Chase_CRC0006].

Second, the United States Supreme Court determined that private litigants cannot use the Supremacy Clause to displace state law. Armstrong v. Exceptional Child Care Ctr., Inc., 575 U.S. _____, 135 S.Ct. 1378, 1383-85 (2015). In Armstrong, providers of habilitation services claimed that the Supremacy Clause authorized them to sue Idaho officials for violating the Medicaid Act. The United States Supreme Court rejected the providers' invocation of the Supremacy Clause, determining that the "Supremacy Clause is not the 'source of any federal - 22 - rights' [and] certainly does not create a cause of action." Id. at 1383. Here, like the health care providers in Armstrong, the Bank is a private litigant and therefore cannot assert a cause of action under the Supremacy Clause.

Third, even assuming the Bank could assert the Supremacy Clause (which it cannot), 4 NRS 116 is not preempted by federal law because there is no actual conflict between NRS 116 5 and HUD/FHA's policies. As noted in Freedom Mortg. Corp. v. Las Vegas Dev. Grp., LLC, 106 6 F.Supp.3d 1174, 1182 (D.Nev. 2015), the purpose of HUD is not frustrated by NRS 116 because 7 Nevada homeowners' association laws "are entirely consistent with [HUD's] goals of improving 8 residential community development, eliminating blight, and preserving property values." Id. at 9 1188. In fact, HUD's policy is not only consistent with Nevada homeowners' association laws, it 10 is harmonious because "[i]n superpriority lien states, the HUD-insured lenders' obligation to 11 prevent foreclosure by satisfying HOA liens in not an aspirational goal; it's a requirement." Id. 12 at 1184; see JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. v. SFR Investments Pool 1, LLC, No. 2:14-cv-02080-13 RFB-GWF, 2016 WL 4084036 at *12 (D.Nev. July 28, 2016) (adopting Freedom Mortgage 14 reasoning). 15

In Freedom Mortgage, the loan was insured through the FHA by HUD. The borrower defaulted on the HOA assessments and the HOA conducted a proper non-judicial foreclosure sale. Id. at 1177. The property was then sold to an investor. Id. Following the SFR decision, the lender filed a complaint and claimed that the property could not have been extinguished by the foreclosure sale because the loan was insured by HUD. Id. The court concluded that there was no conflict preemption because a lender has the ability to comply with Nevada law and HUD's policies and procedures. Id. at 1183-1186. In fact, "[n]othing prevents a lender from simultaneously complying with HUD's program and Nevada's HOA-foreclosure laws." Id. at 1184. HUD provides that lenders must make sure that all assessments (including HOA assessments) are paid so that liens do not attach to the property. Id. HUD specifically directs lenders to pay outstanding liens, which includes HOA fees and assessments, in order to prevent foreclosure in superpriority lien states – a directive that is in line with Nevada's HOA lien law.

Id. at 1185-1186.

1	As such, the court found that the bank's loss was a result of its own failure to follow
2	HUD's policies and procedures. Id. at 1186. Thus, the court ultimately concluded that the
3	association foreclosure sale was not barred by the Supremacy Clause, and that the foreclosure
4	sale extinguished the lender's security interest in the property. Id. at 1189. Here, the Bank - like
5	the bank in Freedom Mortgage - ignored HUD's directive when it failed to pay the past due
6	assessments owed on the subject property. Now the Bank can only blame itself for the loss. In
7	short, NRS Chapter 116 does not conflict with FHA/HUD policies; instead, it comports with
8	FHA/HUD policies, and therefore summary judgment in favor of SFR is warranted.
9	Finally, even if the loan was insured by FHA, the Bank's defenses would suffer from two
10	problems. First, HUD's "interest" is "too attenuated" to be "Property" under the Property Clause.
11	Freedom Mortg. Corp., 106 F.Supp.3d at 1182 ("HUD's status with respect to this property will
12	likely never be anything more than a former insurer of the Castro loan, which collected premium
13	payments but never incurred a claim-payment obligation. That interest is far too attenuated to
14	reasonably consider the HOA's foreclosure as disposing of '[p]roperty belong[ing] to the United
15	States' in contravention of the Property Clause."); U.S. Bank, N.A. v. SFR Investments Pool 1,
16	LLC, No. 2:15-cv-00287-APG-GWF, 2016 WL 1248704, at *2 (D.Nev. Mar. 28, 2016)

19	federal rights under the Property Clause. Rather, HUD long ago decided that any interest it
20	would have in the property through its loan insurance program would be conditioned on the
21	insured lender delivering good, marketable title.").
22	Second, even if the insurance was "property" protected by the Property Clause, <sup>59</sup> this is irrelevant to any of the Bank's defenses because the Bank lacks standing to assert a right that

We 'must hesitate before resolving a controversy on the basis of the rights of third persons not parties to the litigation' for two reasons. 'First, the courts should not adjudicate such rights unnecessarily, and it may be that in fact the holders of those rights do not wish to assert them.' ... 'Second, third parties themselves usually will be the best proponents of their own rights. The courts depend on effective advocacy, and therefore should prefer to construe legal rights only when the most effective advocates of those rights are before them.

8 If FHA insurance does exist, which the Bank has not proved, the Bank lacks standing to assert a 9 claim that belongs to the federal government. Thus, any such insurance does not impede SFR's 10 entitlement to summary judgment.

I. All of the Bank's Arguments Are Precluded by the Equitable Doctrine of Laches

Here the Bank's claims and any applicable defenses are barred by the doctrine of laches. Laches is an equitable doctrine which may be invoked when delay by one party works to the disadvantage of the other, causing a change of circumstances which would make the grant of relief to the delaying party inequitable. Building & Constr. Trades Council of N. Nev. v. State ex rel. Public Works Bd., 108 Nev. 605, 836 P.2d 633, 636-37 (Nev.1992). To determine whether a challenge is barred by the doctrine of laches, this court must consider (1) whether the party inexcusably delayed bringing the challenge, (2) whether the party's inexcusable delay constitutes acquiescence to the condition the party is challenging, and (3) whether the inexcusable delay was prejudicial to others. Id.

If strong circumstances exist, then the defense of laches can be sustained despite the fact the statute of limitations has not run. Lanigir v. Arden, 82 Nev. 28, 36, 409 P.2d 891, 896 (1966). The current case is the poster child for the application of the doctrine of laches in granting

25	assert its rights prior to the foreclosure sale. The Bank inexcusably delayed in asserting its rights
26	as to the Property and its claims against SFR.
27	In Building & Constr. Trades Council of N. Nev. v. State ex rel. Public Works Bd., the contractors to bid on a construction contract. After receiving numerous bids, the Public Works Board notified all the bidders that the construction project had to be redesigned and rebid in order to fit within the scope of the budget. However, in spite of this letter, Public Works entered into negotiations with one of the contactors, accepted a revised bid, and did not re-bid the project as required. In interpreting the statute, the Supreme Court held that Public Works had a legal duty under the statute to re-bid the contract. The Court held as follows:

Applying the test set forth in Buckholt, we hold that the district court properly found that the relief sought by Council's petition was precluded by the doctrine of laches. First, we believe the Council inexcusably delayed seeking the petition. The evidence reveals that the Council knew by January 8, 1991, that the project contract was going to be awarded to Weyher without being re-bid. The evidence also demonstrates that on or about January, 15, 1991, the Council knew that Weyher had begun work on the project. Nevertheless, the Council failed to take immediate legal action to stop the work being done on the project pending resolution of this dispute. As the district court observed, the Council could have secured a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, but instead waited until February 11, 1991 (approximately one month later), to file a petition for writ of mandamus. The Council offers no convincing reason for this delay.

Bldg. & Const. Trades Council of N. Nevada v. State ex rel. Pub. Works Bd., 108 Nev. 605, 611, 836 P.2d 633, 637 (1992) (emphasis added)

Here, just as in Bldg. & Const. Trades Council of N. Nevada, the Bank inexcusably 18 delayed in asserting its rights. There, the Court held that a one-month delay was inexcusable. In 19 the present case, the Bank was placed on notice of the pending Association foreclosure sale as 20 early as August 2012. See Ex. 1-P [Chase_CRC0029-0030]. However, the Bank never made 21 any attempt to contact NAS or the Association, even after it contacted its delinquent borrower 22 and advised them that it would. In fact, SFR instituted the litigation in the instant action to 23 protect its property rights because the Bank attempted to foreclose on its extinguished deed of 24 trust without seeking to set aside the sale first. In fact, the Bank waited more than three years 25 after the sale to bring its challenge. 26 Further, the Bank understood its responsibilities to protect its interest in from an 27 Association foreclosure sale and cannot now claim that it did not. The Bank sent a letter to the 28 - 26 - homeowner advising that if they were forced to pay the Association's lien, they would add the 1 amount to the principal balance under the loan.<sup>60</sup> The Bank also threatened to foreclose on the 2 homeowner for her failure to pay the Association dues as the homeowner was in violation of her 3 mortgage contract. 4 There is no excuse for the delay in stopping the foreclosure action. As stated by the 5 Court in Bldg. & Const. Trades Council of N. Nevada v. State ex rel. Pub. Works Bd: 6 7 Second, we conclude that an implied waiver arose from the Council's knowing acquiescence in existing conditions. As previously noted, the Council knew by 8 January 15, 1991, that Weyher had received the project contract and had commenced working. Though the Council protested to respondents on January 8, 9 1991, the Council failed to take any additional action until February 11, 1991. 10 And this failure to take action cannot be ascribed to a lack of knowledge, for at the March 1, 1991, hearing before the district court, the Council's attorney stated: 11 But the latches [sic] argument I don't think is a very valid argument because we acted with celerity I believe. We had our option of running to the [c]ourt for an 12 injunction but prudence mandated we not do that at that point in time. We instead tried to put the various entities on notice, specifically the [Board] that we thought 13 there was a reason for not letting this contract.... 14 Thus, the Council knew of its legal rights but chose not to exercise them until February 11, 1991. 15 Id. 16 Here, just as there, the Bank knew of its legal rights, but chose not to exercise them. 17 Contrary to the information the Bank placed in its letter, it did not exercise its legal right to 18 foreclose on the property. Additionally, the Bank did not exercise its legal right to pay the lien, 19 in spite of being aware of: (1) the amount of the lien; (2) the Association's intent to sell the 20 property; and (3) its right to issue payment to protect its interest.<sup>61</sup> Perhaps most disturbing is the 21 Bank's failure to assert that NRS 116 was unconstitutional until more than 8 years after issuing 22 its Deed of Trust, while being aware of the statute's language since it was enacted in 1991. The 23 parties involved. Laches is more than mere delay in seeking to enforce one's rights, it is delay that works a disadvantage to another. Cooney v. Pedroli, 49 Nev. 55, 62, 235 P. 637, 640 (1925) (quoting Chase v. Chase, 37 A. 804, 805 (R.I.1897)). The condition of the party asserting laches must become so changed that he cannot be restored to his former state. Id.

Allowing the Bank to either unwind the sale or force SFR to accept the property subject to the Bank's deed of trust works to the disadvantage of SFR and other bona fide purchasers. If the Bank is allowed to assert its claims after failing to seasonably do so, it would not only have zero incentive to seasonably foreclose, it would actually benefit by not foreclosing for several reasons. First, there is no question that the mortgage crisis significantly reduced property value. The Bank chose to delay in instituting its own foreclosure to avoid either selling the property at a loss or becoming a homeowner with all the liabilities involved with ownership.

It is because of these delays, and banks failing to use the remedies afforded to them in their own deeds of trusts—pay the association dues and add them to the loans—that associations were forced to start foreclosing and selling to new owners who were willing to pay delinquent assessments. These third party owners often pay ongoing assessments as well as maintain the property. The Bank would saddle an innocent party with all the costs of foreclosure and then swoop in with its Deed of Trust at a profit.

Permitting the Bank's claims would steal SFR's right to hold its deed of trust free and clear, an expectation SFR had upon purchasing the property as evidenced by its decision to spearhead the litigation ensuring banks were forced to comply with the statute. Had the Bank proclaimed any of its rights previously, or taken appropriate measures to inform third party purchasers of any dispute regarding the foreclosure sale, it is undoubtable that SFR, the Association, and even the Attorney General could have asserted proper defenses prior to any sale or purchase. Based on litigation costs alone SFR, the Association, and the Association's agent can never be restored to their prior positions. More importantly, "[1]osing rights to real property may cause irreparable harm because the attributes of real property are unique." Indep. Asphalt Consultants, Inc. v. Studebaker, 126 Nev. 722, 367 P.3d 781 (2010). Forgiving the Bank's inexcusable delay in asserting is right to the property prior to the foreclosure sale results in direct

	1	and uncorrectable prejudice against SFR. Therefore, SFR is entitled to summary judgment
	2	against the Bank based on the doctrine of laches.
	3	IV. CONCLUSION
	4	Based on the above, the Court should enter summary judgment against the Bank and in
	5	favor of SFR, stating that (1) SFR is the title holder of the Property; (2) the first deed of trust
	6	was extinguished when the Association foreclosed its lien containing super priority amounts,
	7	thus making the Bank's purported interest in the first deed of trust invalid; and (3) the Bank, and
	8	any agents acting on its behalf, are permanently enjoined from any sale or transfer that would

Property, and (c) premiums for insurance required under paragraph 4. In any year in which the Lender must pay a mortgage insurance premium to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development ("Secretary"), or in any year in which such premium would have been required if Lender still held the Security Instrument, each monthly payment shall also include either: (i) a sum for the annual mortgage insurance premium to be paid by Lender to the Secretary, or (ii) a monthly charge instead of a mortgage insurance premium if this Security Instrument is held by the Secretary, in a reasonable amount to be determined by the Secretary. Except for the monthly charge by the Secretary, these items are called "Escrow Items" and the sums paid to Lender are called "Escrow Funds."

Lender may, at any time, collect and hold amounts for Escrow Items in an aggregate amount not to exceed the maximum amount that may be required for Borrower's escrow account under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974, 12 U.S.C. § 2601 et seq. and implementing regulations, 24 CFR Part 3500, as they may be amended from time to time ("RESPA"), except that the cushion or reserve permitted by RESPA for unanticipated disbursements or disbursements before the Borrower's payments are available in the account may not be based on amounts due for the mortgage insurance premium.

If the amounts held by Lender for Escrow Items exceed the amounts permitted to be held by RESPA, Lender shall account to Borrower for the excess funds as required by RESPA. If the amounts of funds held by Lender at any time are not sufficient to pay the Escrow Items when due, Lender may notify the Borrower and require Borrower to make up the shortage as permitted by RESPA.

The Escrow Funds are pledged as additional security for all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower tenders to Lender the full payment of all such sums, Borrower's account shall be credited with the balance remaining for all Installment items (a), (b), and (c) and any mortgage insurance premium installment that Lender has not become obligated to pay to the Secretary, and Lender shall promptly refund any excess funds to Borrower. Immediately prior to a foreclosure sale of the Property or its acquisition by Lender, Borrower's account shall be credited with any balance remaining for all installments for items (a), (b), and (c).

3. Application of Payments. All payments under paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be applied by Lender as follows: FIRST, to the mortgage insurance premium to be paid by Lender to the Secretary or to the monthly charge by the Secretary instead of the monthly mortgage insurance premium;

SECOND, to any taxes, special assessments, leasehold payments or ground rents, and fire, flood and other hazard insurance premiums, as required;

THIRD, to interest due under the Note;

FOURTH, to amortization of the principal of the Note; and FIFTH, to late charges due under the Note.

4. Fire, Flood and Other Hazard Insurance. Borrower shall insure all improvements on the Property, whether now in existence or subsequently erected, against any hazards, casualties, and contingencies, including fire, for which Lender requires insurance. This insurance shall be maintained in the amounts and for the periods that Lender requires. Borrower shall also insure all improvements on the Property, whether now in existence or subsequently erected, against to the extent required by the Secretary. All insurance shall be carried with companies approved by Lender. The insurance policies and any renewals shall be held by Lender and shall include loss payable clauses in favor of, and in a form acceptable to, Lender.

In the event of loss, Borrower shall give Lender immediate notice by mail. Lender may make proof of loss if not made promptly by Borrower. Each insurance company concerned is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for such loss directly to Lender, instead of to Borrower and to Lender jointly. All or any part of the insurance proceeds may be applied by Lender, at its option, either (a) to the reduction of the indebtedness under the Note and this Security Instrument, first to any delinquent amounts applied in the order in paragraph 3, and then to prepayment of principal, or (b) to the restoration or repair of the damaged Property. Any application of the proceeds to the principal shall not extend or postpone the due date of the monthly payments which are referred to in paragraph 2, or change the amount of such payments. Any excess insurance proceeds over an amount required to pay all outstanding indebtedness under the Note and this Security Instrument of such payments.

In the event of foreclosure of this Security Instrument or other transfer of title to the Property that extinguishes the indebtedness, all right, title and interest of Borrower in and to insurance policies in force shall pass to the purchaser.

5. Occupancy, Preservation, Maintenance and Protection of the Property; Borrower's Loan Application; Leaseholds. Borrower shall occupy, establish, and use the Property as Borrower's principal residence within sixty days after the execution of this Security Instrument (or within sixty days of a later sale or transfer of the Property) and shall continue to occupy the Property as Borrower's principal residence for at least one year after the date of occupancy, unless Lender determines that requirement will cause undue hardship for Borrower, or unless extenuating circumstances exist which are beyond Borrower's control. Borrower shall notify Lender of any extenuating circumstances. Borrower shall not commit waste or destroy, damage or substantially change the Property or allow the Property to deteriorate, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Lender may inspect the Property if the Property is vacant or abandoned or the loan is in default. Lender may take reasonable action to protect and preserve such vacant or abandoned Property. Borrower shall also be in default if Borrower, during the loan application process, gave materially false or inaccurate information or statements to Lender (or failed to provide Lender with any material information) in connection with the loan evidenced by the Note, including, but not limited to, representations concerning Borrower's occupancy of the Property as a principal residence. If this Security Instrument is on a leasehold, Borrower shall comply with the provisions of the lease. If Borrower acquires fee title to the Property, the leasehold and fee title shall not be merged unless Lender agrees to the merger in writing.

6. Condemnation. The proceeds of any award or claim for damages, direct or consequential, in connection with any condemnation or other taking of any part of the Property, or for conveyance in place of condemnation, are hereby assigned and shall be paid to Lender to the extent of the full amount of the indebtedness that remains unpaid under the Note and this Security Instrument. Lender shall apply such proceeds to the reduction of the indebtedness under the Note and this Security Instrument, first to any delinquent amounts applied in the order provided in paragraph 3, and then to prepayment of principal. Any application of the proceeds to the principal shall not extend or postpone the due date of the monthly payments, which are referred to in paragraph 2, or change the amount of such payments. Any excess proceeds over an amount required to pay all outstanding indebtedness under the Note and this Security Instrument shall be paid to the entity legally entitled thereto.

7. Charges to Borrower and Protection of Lender's Rights in the Property. Borrower shall pay all governmental or municipal charges, fines and impositions that are not included in paragraph 2. Borrower shall pay these obligations on time directly to the entity which is owed the payment. If failure to pay would adversely affect Lender's interest in the Property, upon Lender's request Borrower shall promptly furnish to Lender receipts evidencing these payments.

If Borrower fails to make these payments or the payments required by paragraph 2, or fails to perform any other covenants and agreements contained in this Security Instrument, or there is a legal proceeding that may significantly affect Lender's rights in the Property (such as a proceeding in bankruptcy, for condemnation or to enforce laws or regulations), then Lender may do and pay whatever is necessary to protect the value of the Property and Lender's rights in the Property, including payment of taxes, hazard insurance and other items mentioned in paragraph 2.

Any amounts disbursed by Lender under this paragraph shall become an additional debt of Borrower and be secured by this Security Instrument. These amounts shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the Note rate, and at the option of Lender shall be immediately due and payable.

Borrower shall promptly discharge any lien which has priority over this Security Instrument unless Borrower: (a) agrees in writing to the payment of the obligation secured by the lien in a manner acceptable to Lender; (b) contests in good faith the lien by, or defends against enforcement of the lien in, legal proceedings which in the Lender's opinion operate to prevent the enforcement of the lien; or (c) secures from the holder of the lien an agreement satisfactory to Lender subordinating the lien to this Security Instrument. If Lender determines that any part of the Property is subject to a lien which may attain priority over this Security Instrument, Lender may give

Nydotz.tha.xml

Borrower a notice identifying the lien. Borrower shall satisfy the lien or take one or more of the actions set forth above within 10 days of the giving of notice.

8. Fees. Lender may collect fees and charges authorized by the Secretary.

9. Grounds for Acceleration of Debt.

(a) Default. Lender may, except as limited by regulations issued by the Secretary in the case of payment defaults, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument if:

(i) Borrower defaults by failing to pay in full any monthly payment required by this Security Instrument prior to or on the due date of the next monthly payment, or

(ii) Borrower defaults by failing, for a period of thirty days, to perform any other obligations contained in this Security Instrument.

(b) Sale Without Credit Approval. Lender shall, if permitted by applicable law (including section 341(d) of the Garn-St. Germain Depository Institutions Act of 1982, 12 U.S.C. 1701j - 3(d)) and with the prior approval of the Secretary, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument if:

(i) All or part of the Property, or a beneficial interest in a trust owning all or part of the Property, is sold or otherwise transferred (other than by devise or descent), and

(ii) The Property is not occupied by the purchaser or grantee as his or her principal residence, or the purchaser or grantee does so occupy the Property, but his or her credit has not been approved in accordance with the requirements of the Secretary.

(c) No Waiver. If circumstances occur that would permit Lender to require immediate payment in full, but Lender does not require such payments, Lender does not waive its rights with respect to subsequent events. (d) Regulations of HUD Secretary. In many circumstances regulations issued by the Secretary will limit Lender's rights, in the case of payment defaults, to require immediate payment in full and foreclose if not paid. This Security Instrument does not authorize acceleration or foreclosure if not permitted by regulations of the Secretary.

(e) Mortgage Not Insured. Borrower agrees that if this Security Instrument and the Note are not determined to be eligible for insurance under the National Housing Act within 60 DAYS from the date hereof, Lender may, at its option require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. A written statement of any authorized agent of the Secretary dated subsequent to 60 DAYS from the date hereof, declining to insure this Security Instrument and the Note, shall be deemed conclusive proof of such ineligibility. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this option may not be exercised by Lender when the unavailability of insurance is solely due to Lender's failure to remit a mortgage insurance premium to the Secretary.

10. Reinstatement. Borrower has a right to be reinstated if Lender has required immediate payment in full because of Borrower's failure to pay an amount due under the Note or this Security Instrument. This right applies even after foreclosure proceedings are instituted. To reinstate the Security Instrument, Borrower shall tender in a lump sum all amounts required to bring Borrower's account current including, to the extent they are obligations of Borrower under this Security Instrument, foreclosure costs and reasonable and customary attorneys' fees and expenses properly associated with the foreclosure proceeding. Upon reinstatement by Borrower, this Security Instrument and the obligations that it secures shall remain in effect as if Lender had not required immediate payment in full. However, Lender is not required to permit reinstatement if: (i) Lender has accepted reinstatement after the commencement of foreclosure proceedings within two years immediately preceding the commencement of a current foreclosure proceeding, (ii) reinstatement will preclude foreclosure on different grounds in the future, or (iii) reinstatement will adversely affect the priority of the lien created by this Security Instrument.

11. Borrower Not Released; Forbearance by Lender Not a Waiver. Extension of the time of payment or modification of amortization of the sums secured by this Security Instrument granted by Lender to any successor in interest of Borrower shall not operate to release the liability of the original Borrower or Borrower's successors in interest. Lender shall not be required to commence proceedings against any successor in interest or refuse to extend time for payment or otherwise modify amortization of the sums secured by this Security Instrument by reason of any demand made by the original Borrower or Borrower's successors in interest. Any forbearance by Lender in exercising any right or remedy shall not be a waiver of or preclude the exercise of any right or remedy.

12. Successors and Assigns Bound; Joint and Several Liability; Co-Signers. The covenants and agreements of this Security Instrument shall bind and benefit the successors and assigns of Lender and Borrower, subject to the provisions of paragraph 9(b). Borrower's covenants and agreements shall be joint and several. Any Borrower who co-signs this Security Instrument but does not execute the Note: (a) is co-signing this Security Instrument only to mortgage, grant and convey that Borrower's interest in the Property under the terms of this Security Instrument; (b) is not personally obligated to pay the sums secured by this Security Instrument; and (c) agrees that Lender and any other Borrower may agree to extend, modify, forbear or make any accommodations with regard to the terms of this Security Instrument or the Note without that Borrower's consent.

13. Notices. Any notice to Borrower provided for in this Security Instrument shall be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail unless applicable law requires use of another method. The notice shall be directed to the Property Address or any other address Borrower designates by notice to Lender. Any notice to Lender shall be given by first class mail to Lender's address stated herein or any address Lender designates by notice to Borrower. Any notice provided for in this Security Instrument shall be deemed to have been given to Borrower or Lender when given as provided in this paragraph.

14. Governing Law; Severability. This Security Instrument shall be governed by federal law and the law of the jurisdiction in which the Property is located. In the event that any provision or clause of this Security Instrument or the Note conflicts with applicable law, such conflict shall not affect other provisions of this Security Instrument or the Note which can be given effect without the conflicting provision. To this end the provisions of this Security Instrument and the Note are declared to be severable.

15. Borrower's Copy. Borrower shall be given one conformed copy of the Note and of this Security Instrument.

16. Hazardous Substances. Borrower shall not cause or permit the presence, use, disposal, storage, or release of any Hazardous Substances on or in the Property. Borrower shall not do, nor allow anyone else to do, anything affecting the Property that is in violation of any Environmental Law. The preceding two sentences shall not apply to the presence, use, or storage on the Property of small quantities of Hazardous Substances that are generally recognized to be appropriate to normal residential uses and to maintenance of the Property.

Borrower shall promptly give Lender written notice of any investigation, claim, demand, lawsuit or other action by any governmental or regulatory agency or private party involving the Property and any Hazardous Substance or Environmental Law of which Borrower has actual knowledge. If Borrower learns, or is notified by any governmental or regulatory authority, that any removal or other remediation of any Hazardous Substances affecting the Property is necessary, Borrower shall promptly take all necessary remedial actions in accordance with Environmental Law.

As used in this paragraph 16, "Hazardous Substances" are those substances defined as toxic or hazardous substances by Environmental Law and the following substances: gasoline, kerosene, other flammable or toxic petroleum products, toxic pesticides and herbicides, volatile solvents, materials containing asbestos or formaldehyde, and radioactive materials. As used in this paragraph 16, "Environmental Law" means federal laws and laws of the jurisdiction where the Property is located that relate to health, safety or environmental protection.

NON-UNIFORM COVENANTS. Borrower and Lender further covenant and agree as follows:

17. Assignment of Rents. Borrower unconditionally assigns and transfers to Lender all the rents and revenues of the Property. Borrower authorizes Lender or Lender's agents to collect the rents and revenues and hereby directs each tenant of the Property to pay the rents to Lender or Lender's agents. However, prior to Lender's notice to Borrower of Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in the Security Instrument, Borrower shall collect and receive all rents and revenues of the Property as trustee for the benefit of Lender and Borrower. This assignment of rents constitutes an absolute assignment and not an assignment for additional security only.

6/96 Pag	www.docmagic.com

Nvdotz.(ha.xml

If Lender gives notice of breach to Borrower: (a) all rents received by Borrower shall be held by Borrower as trustee for benefit of Lender only, to be applied to the sums secured by the Security Instrument; (b) Lender shall be entitled to collect and receive all of the rents of the Property; and (c) each tenant of the Property shall pay all rents due and unpaid to Lender or Lender's agent on Lender's written demand to the tenant.

Borrower has not executed any prior assignment of the rents and has not and will not perform any act that would prevent Lender from exercising its rights under this paragraph 17.

Lender shall not be required to enter upon, take control of or maintain the Property before or after giving notice of breach to Borrower. However, Lender or a judicially appointed receiver may do so at any time there is a breach. Any application of rents shall not cure or waive any default or invalidate any other right or remedy of Lender. This assignment of rents of the Property shall terminate when the debt secured by the Security Instrument is paid in full.

18. Foreclosure Procedure. If Lender requires immediate payment in full under paragraph 9, Lender may invoke the power of sale and any other remedies permitted by applicable law. Lender shall be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this paragraph 18, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of title evidence.

If Lender invokes the power of sale, Lender shall execute or cause Trustee to execute written notice of the occurrence of an event of default and of Lender's election to cause the Property to be sold, and shall cause such notice to be recorded in each county in which any part of the Property is located. Lender shall mail copies of the notice as prescribed by applicable law to Borrower and to the persons prescribed by applicable law. Trustee shall give public notice of sale to the persons and in the manner prescribed by applicable law. After the time required by applicable law, Trustee, without demand on Borrower, shall sell the Property at public auction to the highest bidder at the time and place and under the terms designated in the notice of sale in one or more parcels and in any order Trustee determines. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any parcel of the Property by public announcement at the time and place of any previously scheduled sale. Lender or its designee may purchase the Property at any sale.

Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser Trustee's deed conveying the Property without any covenant or warranty, expressed or implied. The recitals in the Trustee's deed shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the statements made therein. Trustee shall apply the proceeds of the sale in the following order: (a) to all expenses of the sale, including, but not limited to, reasonable Trustee's and attorneys' fees; (b) to all sums secured by this Security Instrument; and (c) any excess to the person or persons legally entitled to it.

If the Lender's interest in this Security Instrument is held by the Secretary and the Secretary requires immediate payment in full under paragraph 9, the Secretary may invoke the nonjudicial power of sale provided in the Single Family Mortgage Foreclosure Act of 1994 ("Act") (12 U.S.C. 3751 et seq.) by requesting a foreclosure commissioner designated under the Act to commence foreclosure and to sell the Property as provided in the Act. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall deprive the Secretary of any rights otherwise available to a Lender under this paragraph 18 or applicable law.

19. Reconveyance. Upon payment of all sums secured by this Security Instrument, Lender shall request Trustee to reconvey the Property and shall surrender this Security Instrument and all notes evidencing debt secured by this Security Instrument to Trustee. Trustee shall reconvey the Property without warranty to the person or persons legally entitled to it. Such person or persons shall pay any recordation costs. Lender may charge such person or persons a fee for reconveying the Property, but only if the fee is paid to a third party (such as the Trustee) for services rendered and the charging of the fee is permitted under applicable law.

20. Substitute Trustee. Lender, at its option, may from time to time remove Trustee and appoint a successor trustee to any Trustee appointed hereunder. Without conveyance of the Property, the successor trustee shall succeed to all the title, power and duties conferred upon the Trustee herein and by applicable law.

21. Assumption Fee. If there is an assumption of this loan, Lender may charge an assumption fee of U.S.$ 500, as a maximum amount, depending on whether the assumption includes a release of liability.

PUD COVENANTS. In addition to the covenants and agreements made in the Security Instrument, Borrower and Lender further covenant and agree as follows:

- A. So long as the Owners Association (or equivalent entity holding title to common areas and facilities), acting as trustee for the homeowners, maintains, with a generally accepted insurance carrier, a "master" or "blanket" policy insuring the property located in the PUD, including all improvements now existing or hereafter erected on the mortgaged premises, and such policy is satisfactory to Lender and provides insurance coverage in the amounts, for the periods, and against the hazards Lender requires, including fire and other hazards included within the term "extended coverage," and loss by flood, to the extent required by the Secretary, then: (i) Lender waives the provision in Paragraph 2 of this Security Instrument for the monthly payment to Lender of one-twelfth of the yearly premium installments for hazard insurance on the Property, and (ii) Borrower's obligation under Paragraph 4 of the Security Instrument to maintain hazard insurance coverage on the Property is deemed satisfied to the extent that the required coverage is provided by the Owners' Association policy. Borrower shall give Lender prompt notice of any lapse in required hazard insurance coverage and of any loss occurring from a hazard. In the event of a distribution of hazard insurance proceeds in lieu of restoration or repair following a loss to the Property or to common areas and facilities of the PUD, any proceeds payable to Borrower are hereby assigned and shall be paid to Lender for application to the sums secured by this Security Instrument, with any excess paid to the entity legally entitled thereto.
- B. Borrower promises to pay all dues and assessments imposed pursuant to the legal instruments creating and governing the PUD.
