In The Court Of Appeals Of The State Of Nevada

Motion To Accept Late Docketing Statement

I Javier Ramirez appearing in Proper Person request that the Court enter an Order granting me the following:

Acceptance of late Docketing Statement

This motion is made for the following reasons :

I was deprived of my parental time with Carlos Adrian Ramirez Arreguin age nine(9) on November 06 2016 by the custodial parent Mayra E. Arreguin.

Several emails were sent to the Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) Mr. Chris Bayer and Mrs. Arreguin prior to the exchange and afterwards.

I asked Mr. Bayer to please write a report to the District Court to have them enforce my visitation rights, Mr. Bayer had informed that he will contact the court house and let them know.

For several weeks I waited for the report and to this date he has not provided me with one, so I can attached it along with the docketing statement to support my appeal, instead he chooses to turn this matter into something else while replying to my request (see attached emails).

DEPUTY CLERK

I beg to the Honorable Court Of Appeals to please considered my motion and accept it due to the uncooperative behavior from Mr. Bayer of CASA

I declare under penalty of perjury under the law of the State Of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.
