Civil Procedure (NRCP) 11 and the court's order issued on March 16, 2017 by chief justice Micheal Cherry.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

With the clerk's office having misentitled the appellant's appeal as that against the state of Nevada rather than that as denominated on the heading and caption of this document, the Nevada Supreme Court ordered Eighth Judicial District Court clerk Heather Ungermann to:

"[within] 30 days from the date of this order to transmit to the clerk of this court a certified copy of the complete trial court record of this appeal."

To-date the command of this court has not been fulfilled, as on other occasions.

Accordingly, said clerk has refused the dictate of this court whereby sanctions or civil contempt can be pursued and imposed.

CONCLUSION

In as much, the movant requests the malfeasant clerk be held in contempt and sanctions be imposed until the court's order is obeyed.

Furthermore, requiring a verified copy of the record to be sent to the movant for this appeal, as well as, compensation for movant in refusing the command of this court.

Dated this 24th day of May 2017.
