Defendant +
ARNOLD ANDERSON

Supreme Court NO. 72102

Supplemental Brief FOR Fast Track statement

The writ of habeas corpus That was Denied (12-22-16)

The petitioner Arnold Anderson is appealing the district court decision of denying writ ON 12-22-16.

opening statement in this brief contains points and authorities which equal a matter of law.

Argument

The alleged crime took place August 23, 2016. Arnold
Anderson was arrested ON September 5, 2016. ON October 26, 2016

A preliminary hearing was held, with out ANY medical personel or ANY police officer to confirm ANY investigation

took place of the alleged shooting, or ANY injuries really exist to the alleged victim. This preliminary hearing the state called ONE witness Terry Bolden who admitted he owed some one money for drugs he was homeless and is a convicted felon. His testimony was questionable

he initially told police he owe money for drugs then testified at preliminary hearing he owed money for a hotel room...

1
3
4 See PHT 6. The states case is inadequate to hold
5 Arnold Anderson for trial.

6 The state must prove at the preliminary
7 stage there is slight or even marginal evidence
8 to stand trial. Sheriff v. Hodes 96 Nev 184 606 P2d 178
9 there must be enough evidence to support a reasonable
10 inference that the accused committed the crime.
11 KINSEY v Sheriff 87 Nev 361 487 P2d 340
12

13 No officer testified that any crime was committed
14 or to any investigation. Despite the low standard
15 to stand trial how can Arnold Anderson stand
16 trial with 2 zero evidence? ARNOLD Anderson
17 does not have any knowledge as to any investigation
18 that took place or if any investigation commenced.
19 This falls in line of a violation of due process
20 of the fifth amendment and fourteenth amendment
21 to have some one come to court to say ~~some one~~ someone
22 shot him and could not describe him by his
23 true name or even give a accurate description
24 is not enough to proceed to any form of 25 trial. His lone testimony is insufficient ex parte
26 Oxley 38 Nev 379 149 P. 992. This uncorroborated
27 testimony is not enough. The Oxley defendant was 28 one witness who testified at a preliminary hearing

1
2
3
4 based on his testimony he could of been an
5 accomplice or a witness or maybe a suspect.
6 Orley remains good law even being over a 100
7 years old.

8 The Burden of Proof

9 The state failed to call any witnesses to
10 substantiate a case, but questioned Arnold
11 Anderson to prove his innocence by asking 12 is there some one here to support <sup>him</sup> T was 13 in California - The state must prove and 14 have the burden to prove a crime was
15 committed Barone v State 109 Nev 778 858 P2d 27
16 The state must prove all elements of the crime
17 was committed the state failed Patterson v New York
18 432 US 197 210 53 L.Ed. 2d 281 97 sct.

19 The state did not prove any
20 elements -

21 Robbery with use of deadly weapon - victim testified
22 some one tried to snatch money from his hand
23 that he was handing to without any
24 mention of a firearm - see PHT

25
26 Attempt murder with weapon NRS. 200.010 there is
27 no such thing as attempt malice malignant
28 reckless disregard to human life NRS. 200.030

1
2
3
4 Torture lying in wait poison - State provided
5 NO evidence to support this case or this
6 Statute: Jimmy Harrell Keys v state 736-766 P2d 270
7 Garcia v state 121 Nev 327 113 P3d 836.
8 The charge battery with weapon causing substantial
9 bodily harm - NO medical report provided NO
10 doctor or specialist to say if this victim
11 is a victim of ANY injury. False or perjured
12 testimony Terry bolden statements violates due process
13 the state should have known testimony was false
14 Hayes v Brown 399 F3d 972. The accused
15 have a right to due process.

16 This court has competent
17 jurisdiction to challenge the legality of this
18 custody via appealing the writ of habeas corpus.
19 The district court abused the discretion by 20 denying the writ. Hutchinson 76 Nev 478 357
21 P2d 589 Petitioner ask this court to
22 grant the writ before it, based on the level
23 at the preliminary level NO evidence to stand
24 trial shifting the burden of proof Barone supra
25 Not permitted and insufficient Oxley supra, and 26 all cases mentioned of violations in this brief.
27 The relief sought is to grant writ order district court
28 for release Arnold Anderson and if state appeals release defendant pending appeal.

The petitioner prays that this court grant the writ before it.
