ORDER DISAPPROVING STIPULATION

Petitioner and real parties in interest have filed a stipulation agreeing that this court "should hear the Writ." Whether to entertain an original writ petition lies within this court's discretion and is not a proper subject of a stipulation. Accordingly, the stipulation is disapproved. Real parties in interest may inform this court of their position on the petition if and when this court orders an answer to the petition. See NRAP 21(b).

It is so ORDERED.
