- COURT ORDERED, as follows:

1. Statements of the Defendant and Any Potential Co-Defendant(s) - MOTION GRANTED pursuant to NRS 174.235.
2. Statements of Potential Witnesses - MOTION GRANTED pursuant to NRS 174.235.
3. Crime Scene Analysis, Evidence Collection, and Forensic Testing - MOTION GRANTED as required by nevada revised statute.
4. Preservation of, and Access to, Raw Evidence - MOTION DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Court advised defense counsel if there is something defense believes they do not have, that the State has and defense is entitled to it, this motion can be brought back to the Court for consideration.

5. Electronic Communications and Associated Warrants - MOTION DENIED as being too broad. Ms. Holiday advised defense can narrow this request. Court noted if there is a wiretap, defense would be entitled to that. Ms. Holiday advised there was no wiretap in this case. Court stated if there is something more narrowed defense can bring back, which meets the definition, Court will consider it.
6. Alternate Suspect and Other Exculpatory Evidence - MOTION GRANTED pursuant to Brady material definition.
7. Monitoring, Tracking, and Associated Warrants - MOTION OFF CALENDAR as there were no warrants issued in the case.
8. Chain of Custody - MOTION GRANTED as to chain of custody regarding evidence.
9. Documents, Notes, and Reports Used by Witnesses to Prepare for Testimony - MOTION GRANTED to extent they are photographs and medical records. Ms. Holiday advised there is a burn expert who made statements to officers and who never examined or treated the victim, and a doctor who never treated or examined the victim. Ms. Jobe advised the information is in the photographs the defense already has.
10. Witness Contact Information - MOTION GRANTED to extent it is required by NRS 174.234 Subsection 4.
11. Notes and Reports Related to Police Investigation - MOTION DENIED as being too broad. Court noted if defense wants to get more specific on this request, it can be resubmitted for Court's consideration.
12. Use of Police Informants - OFF CALENDAR as not being applicable to this case.
13. Identity of Police Informants - OFF CALENDAR as not being applicable to this case.
14. Audio, Video, and Photographs - MOTION GRANTED as to any audio, video and photographs taken.
15. Witness Compensation - OFF CALENDAR as there was nothing applicable, except for statutory fees.
16. Prior Statements - MOTION GRANTED to extent it is required by statute.
17. Impeachment Information - MOTION DENIED.
18. Criminal Histories - MOTION GRANTED to extent of prior felonies and crimes of dishonesty.

19. Any and all books, papers, documents, and tangible objects related to the case not covered by the previous requests - MOTION DENIED.

20. All 911 and 311 Calls, Including Recordings, Reports & Transcripts - MOTION GRANTED.

21. Medical Records - MOTION GRANTED as to medical records related to specific instance of this case.

Discussions as to CPS investigation having occurred in this case and a file being in existence.

22. Child Protective Services Records - State to submit an order as to records, limited to this case, being turned over sealed, to Court in-camera, for Court to determine whether information is relevant pursuant to Brady.

23. Expert Material - MOTION GRANTED as to information expert relied upon when forming opinion.

Ms. Holiday advised defense believes State and CPS are communicating with each other and passing information back and forth as to Deft's communication with the child's mother; and defense is seeking this information. Ms. Jobe argued State represents Department of Family Services, the mother has proven herself untrustworthy and not protected, by showing up and taking the Stand on behalf of Deft. at the Preliminary Hearing, while her permanency worker Nancy Doyle was sitting outside. Court stated it suggests the victim's mother does what she is being told by Family Services, to protect her children. Arguments by Ms. Holiday. Court stated it is not the department's job to tell the victim she cannot testify. Ms. Holiday argued she is just trying to get information to see if there is a possibility that Family Services is telling her not to testify. Court stated if there is evidence that someone is trying to sway her, dissuade her, or persuade her how to testify, that would be very concerning to Court, and it sounds like defense is making this allegation on the victim's behalf. Ms. Holiday argued she would just like to see the basis for that allegation.

24. E-Mail Communications - MOTION DENIED as being too broad.

CONFERENCE AT BENCH as to Request No. 24.

25. General Correspondence - MOTION DENIED as being overly broad, with exception of CAD reports.

State to prepare the order regarding CPS records. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, State's Motion for reciprocal discovery is also GRANTED.

Ms. Clark requested trial be continued for further investigation to be done. State made no objections. COURT ORDERED, trial date VACATED AND RESET.

- Mr. Hamner not present. Ms. Holiday requested to trail the case to speak with Deft. further about Calendar Call; and COURT SO ORDERED. CASE RECALLED. All parties are present. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Holiday advised the matter is not resolved, and defense is ready, however, there are problems. Ms. Holiday added parties are estimating five days or more for trial, Nevada Day is next Friday, she understands this Court may be starting a death penalty trial on October 31, 2016, she is concerned about scheduling, and it is probable this case may bleed over into week of October 31, 2016. Court advised counsel to let the Court worry about the schedule. Discussions as to this matter not being Overflow eligible. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Hamner confirmed State is ready, this will be a five day trial, and parties can start trial next week on Monday, before this Court. Following discussions as to scheduling, Ms. Holiday advised defense can proceed next week.

Mr. Hamner advised defense noticed an expert, and provided photographs to State, which includes a graph with mathematical formulas, numbers and figures, plus a snapshot of a child running, however, no report has been prepared. Additionally, State will be requesting any handwritten notes from defense expert that were relied upon, to be provided to State, before trial starts. Ms. Holiday noted there were no notes prepared, however, State has the address and phone number of defense's expert, and she will not object to State calling the expert on the phone regarding this information. Thereafter, Ms. Holiday argued State would not be entitled to any notes even if there are notes, State noticed three experts, where notes or reports were not provided; and defense will request State's expert to provide notes, if defense has to turn over their expert's notes. Arguments by Mr. Hamner as to the photographs provided by defense, and the child and location depicted not being the child in this case, nor the same location of where the event happened.

Court stated a hypothetical child might be irrelevant. Discussions as to there being no other reports, State's experts being medical doctors who examined the injuries or photos of injuries, and medical reports having been provided to defense. Court asked defense counsel if the expert is planning to do a simulation or recreation, like a reconstruction of allegations. Ms. Kierny stated the expert did do analysis and calculations of some hypothetical's, the expert could have contemplated an omnibus report, however, it would have required multiple hours of work, defense did not have a budget for it, the expert explained this to defense orally, she also has no objection to State calling their expert on the phone, and defense can be billed for additional and available hours. Court suggested both sides to turn over anything required by statute to be turned over by law, or run the risk of it being excluded. Ms. Kierny advised defense turned over everything that was provided. Court stated it does not know what it is, and parties need to make a decision on what they think they need to turn over. Mr. Hamner stated he was hoping defense would provide something substantive, and he will put in a phone call to defense's expert today.

COURT ORDERED, trial date SET.

- Court TRAILED and RECALLED matter for all parties to appear.

Deft. not present; not transported from Nevada Department of Corrections (NDC).

Ms. Holiday advised her client was not transported for this hearing. Ms. Jobe advised she thought Deft. was remanded into custody at CCDC. Ms. Holiday requested a continuance, further noting her client is not here, this is a significant proceeding, and it was important for Deft. not to have the trial continued next week. Court asked if defense was not going to have an expert; and stated the expert is trying to do a reconstruction. Court asked if the State cannot get ready. Ms. Jobe advised she spoke with defense's expert briefly, and this expert did 20 videos, the expert is trying to recreate Metro's reenactment video, and a comparison was made. Ms. Jobe argued State does not have measurements or photographs. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Jobe advised the motion had still frames from a video but not sure which one. Ms. Jobe argued State has no basis to cross examine defense expert, and defense has video which was not provided to State. Mr. Hamner argued the expert said he had notes and had destroyed notes when preparing a report, which was not provided. Further arguments as to expert having claimed to have vast information which was sent to defense counsel and State's experts seeking to get the information from defense's expert for review and analysis. Mr. Hamner requested a trial continuance, or in alternative, for the information to be stricken, further noting State may present a motion to exclude at a later date, or defense can provide the information from their expert. Ms. Holiday objected due to Deft. not being present; and argued it is not his fault he was not transported here. Court stated a defendant does not have to be present on a motion to continue trial, but go ahead. Ms. Holiday argued she did not get a hard copy of the motion, until she walked into Court this morning. Ms. Jobe stated she asked her secretary to send the motion to defense, and it was confirmed she did send it. Court stated it was hoping defense had received the motion the same time the Court did. Both sides disputed about defense's claim of not receiving the motion. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Holiday stated she skimmed through the motion while sitting in the corner earlier this morning. Court stated it needs to know by tomorrow about the trial date, and parties need to make sure Deft. is transported for this hearing. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED for Deft's presence.

LATER, State's Order For Production Of Inmate Donovine Michael Mathews, BAC #1161064 SIGNED AND FILED IN OPEN COURT.

- TRIAL BY JURY...STATE'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO STRIKE OR LIMIT TESTIMONY OF DEFT'S EXPERT DR. LINDSAY "DUTCH" JOHNSON, OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, A REQUEST FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING

PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL PRESENT: Voir Dire commenced. CONFERENCE AT BENCH. During Bench Conference, a Batson challenge was raised, and parties made further arguments to Court. Court OVERRULED objection; and ORDERED, the Jury List provided by Jury Commissioner is ADMITTED as Court's Exhibit (See Worksheets.).

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL: Ms. Holiday advised if there is an evidentiary hearing on defense expert, it can take three hours. Court stated to lay foundation, there is no way it will take three hours, further noting defense is entitled to have an evidentiary hearing, and Court knows who biomechanical experts are.

JURY PRESENT: JURY SELECTED. Court thanked and excused the remaining prospective jury panel members. JURY SWORN by Clerk. Court instructed and excused Jury for lunch recess until 2:30 p.m.

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Parties requested an evidentiary hearing on State's Motion. COURT SO ORDERED.

EVIDENTIARY HEARING

Testimony presented (See Worksheets.). During testimony, Court asked the expert witness to step down and exit the Courtroom. Expert witness not present. Court stated it did not know how far the expert was going to go during questioning, and Court did not want the expert to get mad at defense counsel. Thereafter, Court advised defense counsel they cannot just have the expert testimony on things that are not in evidence in this case. Ms. Holiday argued in support of using this expert Lindsay Dutch Johnson; and further argued as to State's theory and allegations. Court stated nobody is going to recreate something not in evidence. Discussions as to testing and geometric view patterns. Ms. Holiday provided one of the tests conducted by expert; and argued as to position of mug tipping and rolling over. Court clarified State is not bringing an expert to say how the incident happened. Ms. Holiday stated the theory defense expert is presenting could have happened. Court stated the problem here is if , there has to be factual foundation, and there is nobody to testify on those state of facts. Further arguments by counsel. Court stated it is all based on burn patterns, and it appears defense wants to bring in someone to create a factual scenario, being defense expert, and there is no evidence to support it. Further arguments by Ms. Holiday. Discussions as to medical testimony being based on experts' flawed assumption. Court NOTED it is not allowing either side's expert to make statements of what could have happened or create scenarios, based on creating a situation; and the expert cannot create a scenario, based on nothing in evidence and no foundation laid. Ms. Jobe moved to strike defense expert; and argued as to the expert's testimony not satisfying the requirements, State disputing qualifications, and there being lack of expertise. Further arguments as to video presentation provided to State, the surrogate child in the video, there being no measurements of the child, State taking issue with the video, the movements not being realistic or scientific, number of assumptions presented, the charges, and there being no support from it on any facts. Further arguments by Ms. Holiday as to direct rebuttal to State's theory. Court stated this does not prevent counsel from arguing if it was accidental or asking if it was in accidental in nature, however, defense cannot create something not supported by the evidence with no foundation. COURT ORDERED, it will leave this open for parties to revisit during trial as evidence is coming out. Ms. Holiday requested Court to consider limiting the expert s testimony to a specific area in lieu of excluding him; and argued as to defense having no knowledge of the alleged victim's arm length measurement. Court advised counsel defense could have asked the pediatrician this information. Ms. Jobe provided the measurement to defense counsel. Following further arguments, Ms. Jobe objected to lack of foundation. Discussions as to testimony about the counter, coffee cup and water pattern. Further arguments by counsel. COURT ORDERED, the defense expert will not testify based on no foundation laid. Court advised counsel the motion can be renewed by defense on allowing defense expert to testify on a specific area of testimony, as evidence is coming out during trial, and Court will consider it. Ms. Holiday requested to make a proffer; and COURT SO ORDERED. Ms. Holiday provided proffer on expert testimony. COURT ORDERED, State's Motion GRANTED.

Lunch recess.

JURY PRESENT: Court instructed Jury Clerk read Amended Information. Further instructions were provided to Jury by Court. EXCLUSIONARY RULE INVOKED. Testimony and Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.).

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Ms. Jobe advised there are people here in the Courtroom to support Deft, and earlier, those people surrounded child's mother outside the Courtroom, communicating with her, and jurors had seen this. Additionally, some information from the Courtroom was conveyed to the child victim's mother. Ms. Kierny clarified Deft's family members spoke with the child's mother and had told her about Deft's clothes she bought for him, that he is wearing in Court today, and defense counsel has told Deft's family to stop the talking to each other. Ms. Kierny further stated Deft's family and the child victim's mother are friendly with each other. SO NOTED.

JURY PRESENT: Further testimony and Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.). Court admonished and excused Jury for the evening, to return tomorrow morning at 10:30 a.m.

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Court admonished witness Jasmin Cathcart not to speak with anybody or with any witnesses in this case, or with family members regarding her trial testimony, except with the prosecutors. Ms. Jobe confirmed State will not be discussing anything with this witness.

JURY PRESENT: Testimony and Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.). CONFERENCE AT BENCH.

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Ms. Holiday requested to make a record. Court advised counsel defense does not have to make a record that was already made at the Bench. Ms. Holiday clarified defense is renewing Deft's request to allow expert to testify. Court stated this can be handled before the lunch recess, but not during cross examination. Ms. Holiday argued in support of relief requested, including testimony to be offered by expert. State opposed the request; and argued the testimony should be excluded as there is no foundation and it would not assist this Jury. Further arguments by counsel as to reasons behind the experiments. Court noted a lay person can testify about water and Court is not sure why defense would need an expert for common sense things.

PRINT DATE: 03/31/2017

Minutes Date: March 03, 2016

COURT ORDERED, the objection is NOTED and OVERRULED; the previous ruling as to defense expert not testifying STANDS. Ms. Holiday requested to stay the case to file a writ based on this Court's decision; and argued defense believes it is such importance on getting Deft. a fair trial and it would be appropriate to stay the trial, for the writ to be filed. Court DENIED the stay; and advised counsel defense can do what is appropriate. Discussions as to trial schedule, length of time for cross examination, and witness line up.

JURY PRESENT: Further testimony and Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.).

Lunch recess.

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Ms. Kierny advised defense just received notes from State regarding Dr. Peltier; and argued defense had requested these notes beforehand, and just received them. Further arguments as to NRS 174.234 (2), and written notice. Court stated these notes do not have to be turned over. Ms. Kierny argued as to case review and thoughts being in Dr. Peltier's notes, this being trial by ambush, due process violations, and defense not being prepared to cross examine the witness based on these notes. Further arguments as to Kyles vs. Whitley case law. Ms. Kierny moved for a mistrial; and argued defense cannot proceed and would be ineffective. Ms. Jobe opposed; and argued there are numerous assumptions being made by defense, these are just notes, State just received these notes and did not had these notes either, and this is not a trial by ambush, nor a failure to turn over that is owed to defense. Ms. Kierny argued the witness was contacted by detective to give an expert opinion, defense expert could have rebutted, and defense did not have these notes for the expert to rebut. Court stated these are just notes of facts everybody knew about. Further arguments by counsel as to burn pattern. Ms. Kierny moved to strike Dr. Peltier if Court is not inclined to grant a motion for mistrial, or, defense be allowed to call defense expert to rebut what defense has learned in the notes. Ms. Jobe argued State does not have any notes as to information of possible conclusions, further noting the officer who prepared the reports talks about the burn patterns. COURT ORDERED, Deft's Motion for mistrial DENIED. Court made findings that these are notes that did not have to be turned over, and not a report. Discussions as to testimony from Dr. Peltier. Further arguments by parties as to Dr. Peltier's qualification on burns. COURT ORDERED, Dr. Peltier will be permitted to testify for State.

JURY PRESENT: Testimony presented (See Worksheets.).

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Defense counsel moved to renew Deft's Motion to allow Lindsay Dutch Johnson to testify; and argued as to expert testimony from State, dyes, defense's theory, and defense seeking to call the expert to defend the theory adequately. Further arguments by parties. COURT ORDERED, Deft's Motion DENIED. Discussions as to trial scheduling. Ms. Holiday requested notes and records from the CPS case be provided, if State is seeking to call the CPS worker. Court stated it orders the records to be provided to Court for in-camera review and then the Court decides whether or not the information can be turned over; and this Court just does not have these records turned over, as counsel is not entitled to them. Court confirmed it did not receive any records for this case. Arguments by counsel. Court asked Ms. Holiday if defense wants Court to stop the case for CPS records, and if State brings the witness in for trial, is defense asking to see the CPS records as to a particular day in question. Ms. Holiday clarified defense is requesting Court to review the records in-camera first; and argued somebody has to go through them to find the note defense is seeking information about. COURT ORDERED, it will review the records in-camera when provided. Ms. Jobe advised State is doing their best on getting records, there were discussions, and defense chose to go forward with trial knowing records from Department of Family Services were not provided. Thereafter, Ms. Jobe argued defense made a strategic decision to push this trial, defense chose to open the door; therefore, defense had some information. Ms. Jobe argued she finds this offensive as to actions by defense counsel.

JURY PRESENT: Further testimony and Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.). State's Exhibit No. 1 PUBLISHED to Jury in open Court. Transcript of the recording was provided to Jury. Court admonished and excused the Jury for the evening, to return tomorrow morning at 10:30 a.m.

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Discussions as to witness line up and trial schedule for tomorrow. Deft. not present. Ms. Holiday advised defense will waive Deft's presence at this time. COURT SO ORDERED. Ms. Jobe advised State received notes from CPS and the notes will be provided to Court for in-camera review. Ms. Jobe requested Court to have the transcripts collected from the Jury box, and for the Jury not to rely on them for trial. COURT SO ORDERED. Court's Exhibit ADMITTED (See Worksheets.). Ms. Holiday requested expedited transcript of today's proceedings be provided to defense, in order for a writ to be filed. Thereafter, Ms. Holiday provided the proposed order to Court. Court advised counsel to be prepared for cross examination tomorrow. Court further stated it will sign the order for the expedited transcript; however, Court is not sure when defense needs the transcript. Discussions. Court stated it will make a request to have the transcript of these proceedings typed and made available. Ms. Holiday clarified defense just needs the expert testimony provided today transcribed. SO NOTED.

Evening recess. TRIAL CONTINUES.

- OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Ms. Holiday advised her mother has been present sitting in Court during trial, she was waiting earlier this morning outside the Courtroom, further noting two named trial witnesses were outside talking about the case, and her mother had overheard one of the witnesses, who referenced about a doctor and child s treatment for the alleged incident.

Additionally, the exclusionary rule was invoked. Ms. Holiday requested Court to ask what was said to the witness. Ms. Jobe informed Court Dr. Olson does not want to be here this morning, further noting he was the first physician, who had treated the alleged child victim, and the detectives may have challenged the witness and may have gone to Dr. Cetl for opinions. Court asked who cares. Ms. Jobe stated Dr. Olson is hostile with State and he had said Dr. Cetl had seen the child. Ms. Kierny moved to strike. Arguments by counsel. Ms. Jobe argued she spoke with Dr. Olson and she had not said anything about Dr. Cetl's role in the case, further noting Dr. Olson was upset this morning about coming in to testify. Court stated it will be happy to have Dr. Olson appear in the Courtroom.

Dr. Olson is now present in Court in front of the podium. Court canvassed Dr. Olson asking whether he spoke to the detective outside about the case. Dr. Olson stated he was aware Dr. Cetl had seen the child. Further discussions between Court and Dr. Olson regarding Dr. Cetl's statements. Court advised Dr. Olson the exclusionary rule was invoked, and Court is just informing him that he is not permitted to discuss his testimony or about the case with anyone, with exception of the trial lawyers. Ms. Holiday requested to speak to him. Dr. Olson stated he just spoke with the State. Discussions as to State seeking to call another witness who is an abuse specialist. Court reminded Dr. Olson not to discuss this case with anybody. Dr. Olson stated he is going on the stand and has to be at the ER. Court thanked Dr. Olson for being here; and advised Dr. Olson to wait outside the Courtroom, and Court will let him know when he will be called to testify. Dr. Olson not present. Ms. Jobe advised it was State's understanding that Dr. Celt was not the first doctor to see the child, and State would have called this doctor instead of Dr. Olson if State was able to. Court noted for the record State has provided notes from the CPS records. Court's Exhibit ADMITTED AND SEALED (See Worksheets.). Discussions as to no corroboration of information being available in the notes defense was seeking information on. Ms. Jobe advised State will not be calling the additional witness from CPS to testify.

JURY PRESENT: Testimony and Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.).

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Ms. Kierny advised parties are going to get into jail calls, and defense had requested the jail calls to be provided. Additionally, defense received the jail call recordings Friday of last week, and the door was opened when Jasmin had talked about the family being a happy family. Court advised counsel State can get into it; and asked if defense had objections to the jail calls. Ms. Kierny advised defense was waiting for what State was going to introduce. Ms. Jobe confirmed State is not planning to bring information in from the jail calls. Arguments by Ms. Kierny as to prejudice issue. Court stated the witness testified, the witness was told not to have contact with Deft, and this witness did anyway and admitted to it. Further arguments by Ms. Kierny as to no transcript of the calls being made, and defense not having had time to get the calls transcribed. Further arguments by parties were made, and objections were made due to collateral matter not being relevant. Ms. Kierny also argued regarding discovery violation due to defense receiving the calls late. Court NOTED the objection; and FURTHER NOTED, State is not going to present the phone calls; however, State can ask the detective about the substance. Ms. Kierny argued transcripts of the phone calls are needed, and defense cannot follow along with the conversation in the calls. Ms. Jobe reminded Court State does not have a transcript either. Ms. Kierny argued how can she review and understand the calls. Ms. Jobe suggested defense to listen to the calls during the break, and thereafter, make objections to Court. Further arguments. Court NOTED the objection.

JURY PRESENT: Further testimony and Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.).

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Court advised parties it received a note from Juror No. 6 through the Court Marshal, and the note says the juror had asked to see the coffee cup. Court's Exhibit ADMITTED (See Worksheets.). Ms. Jobe advised there are pictures of the cup in evidence. Discussions. Ms. Holiday requested the cup from the Metro vault be brought to the Courtroom by Metro. State objected. Court advised counsel defense has to establish chain of custody. Discussions as to proposed jury instructions and witness line up. Ms. Kierny advised Ms. Holiday wants to use a demonstrative. Ms. Holiday advised she has a large easel with white note paper; and requested she be allowed to use this during trial. COURT SO ORDERED.

Lunch recess.

JURY PRESENT: Further testimony and Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.).

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: State rested. Deft. was admonished of his right not to testify. Upon Court's inquiry, Deft. acknowledged; and stated he will not be testifying. SO NOTED. Ms. Holiday advised she will prepare to do closings, but she would like to incorporate the jury instructions in her closing arguments and also incorporate testimony from Dr. Cetl.

Parties exited the Courtroom to settle proposed Jury instructions with the Court informally, in Chambers. MATTER TRAILED.

CASE RECALLED. JURY INSTRUCTIONS SETTLED. VERDICT FORM APPROVED. Objections were made by defense counsel regarding proposed instructions rejected by Court. Following further arguments by parties, Court OVERRULED the objections. Court's Exhibits ADMITTED (See Worksheets.).

Deft's Second Supplement To Defense's Opposition To State's Motion In Limine To Strike Or Limit The Testimony Of Defendant's Expert And Defense Request For An Evidentiary Hearing FILED IN OPEN COURT. Ms. Holiday moved to renew Deft's request to allow Lindsay Dutch Johnson to provide expert testimony; and argued in support of relief requested. Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.). Arguments by parties. Ms. Jobe requested Court to maintain its decision on not allowing the defense expert to testify; and argued regarding the Hallmark decision, and this defense expert failing to meet requirements. COURT ORDERED, it will maintain the decision on this issue. Ms. Holiday requested Court not to have closings done today; and stated she can go forward if needed, further noting things in the case have changed quickly, things have come in, defense did not expect the jail calls to not come in, and another witness was not going to testify. Ms. Holiday requested time to prepare and for the trial to resume sometime in the afternoon. Court stated it is prepared to go forward. Ms. Jobe advised State will be ready, however, if defense wants time, State will allow 20 minutes. COURT SO ORDERED. Matter TRAILED.

CASE RECALLED at 4:07 p.m. Mr. Burton noted for the record defense did not ask for a lesser included on the Verdict Form, with the consent from Deft. on trial strategy. SO NOTED.

JURY PRESENT: State and defense rested. Court instructed Jury on the law. Closing arguments by counsel. Marshal and Matron were sworn to take charge of the Jury. At the hour of 6:15 p.m., the Jury retired to deliberate.

Jury deliberating.
