10 including that:

24 ³ Mr. Sanson's intent to defame, denigrate, and harm the plaintiffs is so great that he completely ignores the fact that Plaintiffs had absolutely nothing to do with the Lobello decision.

XII.
EIGHTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(RICO VIOLATIONS)

72. Plaintiffs incorporate and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as if fully stated herein.

73. Defendants and/or Defendants' agents, representatives, and/or employees, either individually, or in concert with others, engaged in at least two crimes related to racketeering pursuant to NRS 207.360 that have the same or similar pattern, intents, results, accomplices, victims or methods of commission or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics and are not isolated incidents.

1 74. Here, Defendants have either committed, conspired to commit, or have 2 attempted to commit the following crime(s):

- 3 a. Criminal contempt (NRS 199.340(7), publication of a false or grossly 4 inaccurate report of court proceedings).
5 b. Challenges to fight (NRS 200.450).
6 c. Furnishing libelous information (NRS 200.550).
7 d. Harassment (NRS 200.571).
8 e. Multiple transactions involving fraud or deceit in the course of an 9 enterprise (NRS 205.377).
10 f. Taking property from another under circumstances not amounting to 11 robbery. (NRS 207.360(9)).
12 g. Extortion of "contributions" by implied threat of the mounting of 13 similar defamation campaigns against candidates and officials.

14 75. Defendants comprise a criminal syndicate: Any combination of 15 persons, so structured that the organization will continue its operation even if 16 individual members enter or leave the organization, which engages in or has the 17 purpose of engaging in racketeering activity. Here, Veterans in Politics
18 International, Inc., Nevada Veterans in Politics, and Veterans in Politics are 19 organizations that has members—headed by Defendants Steve Sanson, Heidi
20 Hanusa, Christina Ortiz, Johnny Spicer, and Don Woolbright—that do come and go
21 and the organization continues on. These organizations and their principals have 22 conspired to engage in and have engaged in racketeering activity.

23 76. This group also meets the statutory definition—NRS 207.380—as an 24 enterprise:

1 Any natural person, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, business
2 trust or other legal entity; and, Any union, association or other group of persons associated in fact although not a legal entity.

3 Here Veterans in Politics International is a registered not for profit business
4 and Nevada Veterans in Politics and Veterans in Politics are sub-units of Veterans in 5 Politics International, Inc. Each can and should be considered individual legal 6 entities.⁵

7 77. Sanson Corporation is also a separate legal entity and is a registered
8 Nevada Corporation.

9 78. Even if not all Defendants are members of Veterans in Politics
10 International, Inc., Nevada Veterans in Politics, Veterans in Politics, and Sanson
11 Corporation, they meet the "association or other group of persons associated in fact"
12 requirements under the statute as an enterprise. The statute explicitly includes both 13 licit and illicit enterprises.

14 79. Racketeering is the engaging in at least two crimes related to 15 racketeering that have the same or similar pattern, intents, results, accomplices,
16 victims or methods of commission, or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing
17 characteristics and are not isolated incidents, if at least one of the incidents occurred
18 after July 1, 1983, and the last of the incidents occurred within 5 years after a prior 19 commission of a crime related to racketeering.

20 80. Defendants published a false or grossly inaccurate report of court
21 proceedings on numerous occasions, including, but not limited to, the "Virginia
22 post," "VIP Facebook Post #1," and "VIP Facebook Post #2." (NRS 199.340(7)).

23 ///

24 ⁵ Nevada Veterans in Politics and Veterans in Politics operate numerous social media sites where the defamation continues.

1 81. Defendants Steve W. Sanson, Heidi J. Hanusa, Christina Ortiz, Johnny
2 Spicer, Don Woolbright, Veterans in Politics International, Inc. Sanson Corporation,
3 Karen Steelmon, and Does I through X inclusive, gave or sent a challenge in writing
4 to fight Richard Carreon and others. (NRS 200.450).

5 82. Defendants willfully stated, delivered or transmitted to a manager,
6 editor, publisher, reporter or other employee of a publisher of any newspaper,
7 magazine, publication, periodical or serial statements concerning Plaintiffs which, if 8 published therein, would be a libel. (NRS 200.550).

9 83. Defendants, without lawful authority, knowingly threatened to 10 substantially harm the health or safety of Plaintiff and, by words and conduct placed 11 Plaintiffs in reasonable fear that the threat would be carried out. (NRS 200.571).

12 84. Defendants, in the course of their enterprise, knowingly and with the 13 intent to defraud, engaged in an act, practice or course of business or employed a 14 device, scheme or artifice which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon 15 a person by means of a false representation or omission of a material fact that 16 Defendants know to be false or omitted, Defendants intend for others to rely on, and 17 results in a loss to those who relied on the false representation or omission in at least 18 two transactions that have the same or similar pattern, intents, results, accomplices,
19 victims or methods of commission, or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing 20 characteristics and are not isolated incidents within 4 years and in which the 21 aggregate loss or intended loss is more than $650. (NRS 205.377).

22 85. Defendants posted false and defamatory material no less than 50 times
23 in 10 separate defamatory campaigns against Plaintiffs. The total value of time 24 expended by Marshal S. Willick, and the Willick Law Group staff in responding to

1 inquiries from clients and attempting to have the defamatory material removed from 2 the internet was over $15,000 and this does not include the cost of missed
3 opportunities or time that should have been spent working on cases for paying
4 clients. (NRS 2015.377 and NRS 207.360(9)).

5 86. It was the intent of the Defendants to cause harm to Plaintiffs and the 6 aggregate costs far exceed the $650 threshold. Each act which violates subsection
7 one constitutes a separate offense and a person who violates subsection one is guilty
8 of a category B felony.

9 87. Additionally, NRS 205.0832 defines the actions which constitute theft
10 as including that which:

11 Obtains real, personal or intangible property or the services of another 12 person, by a material misrepresentation with intent to deprive that person of 13 the property or services. As used in this paragraph, "material 14 misrepresentation" means the use of any pretense, or the making of any 15 promise, representation or statement of present, past or future fact which is 16 fraudulent and which, when used or made, is instrumental in causing the 17 wrongful control or transfer of property or services. The pretense may be 18 verbal or it may be a physical act.

19 The statute goes on to define the theft as a person or entity that "Takes, destroys,
20 conceals or disposes of property in which another person has a security interest, with 21 intent to defraud that person." Here, as Abraham Lincoln famously pointed out 150
22 years ago, time is a lawyer's stock in trade. Defendants—with malice—stole valuable
23 time from Mr. Willick. Also, the theft of Mr. Willick's and Willick Law Group's "good 24 will" by the making of false and defamatory comments and placing both Mr. Willick and Willick Law Group in a false light has diminished the value of the business.
These are intangible thefts, but thefts nonetheless.

1 Plaintiffs are entitled to recover increased damages as a result of such willful
2 copying.

3 94. Plaintiffs are entitled to attorneys' fees and full costs pursuant to 17
4 U.S.C. § 505 and otherwise according to law.

5 95. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing acts and conduct,
6 Plaintiffs have sustained and will continue to sustain substantial, immediate, and
7 irreparable injury, for which there is no adequate remedy at law. Upon information
8 and belief, Plaintiffs believe that unless enjoined and restrained by this Court,
9 Defendants will continue to infringe Plaintiffs' rights in the infringed works.
10 Plaintiffs are entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief to restrain and 11 enjoin Defendants' continuing infringing conduct.

12 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Marshal S. Willick and the Willick Law Group
13 demand that:

14 a. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502(a), Defendants, their agents servants and 15 employees and all parties in privity with them be enjoined permanently
16 from infringing Plaintiff's copyrights in any manner.

17 b. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C § 504(b), Defendants be required to pay to the 18 plaintiff, such actual damages as the Plaintiffs may have sustained in 19 consequence of Defendants' infringement and all profits of Defendants
20 that are attributable to the infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrights.
21 Plaintiffs request Defendants account for all gains, profits, and 22 advantages derived by Defendants from their infringement.

23 c. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(1), Defendants be required to pay an 24 award of statutory damages in a sum not less than $30,000.

- d. The Court finds the Defendants' conduct was committed willfully.
- e. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2), Defendants be required to pay an award of increased statutory damages in a sum of not less than $150,000 for willful infringement.
- f. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505, Defendants be required to pay the Plaintiffs' full costs in this action and reasonable attorney's fees.
- g. Defendants' conduct was willful or wanton and done in reckless disregard of Plaintiffs' rights thereby entitling Plaintiffs to recover punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

XIV.

(INJUNCTION)

96. Plaintiffs incorporate and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as if fully stated herein.

97. Defendants and/or Defendants' agents, representatives, and/or employees, either individually, or in concert with others, engaged in acts that were so outrageous that injunctive relief is necessary to effectuate justice.

NRS 41.650 ET SEQ.; (ii) THE WILLICK
PARTIES' COUNTERMOTION FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS; AND
(iii) THE VIPI DEFENDANTS'
MOTION TO STRIKE (pw)

36 This matter came before the Court (the Honorable Charles Thompson presiding) for hearing
37 on the 14th day of March, 2017, at 9:00 AM, in Department 18, on (i) Defendants Steve W. Sanson
38 ("Mr. Sanson") and Veterans in Politics International, Inc.'s ("VIPI") (together, the "VIPI

1 Defendants”) Anti-SLAPP Special Motion to Dismiss Pursuant to NRS 41.650 et seq. (the “Special
2 Motion to Dismiss”); and (ii) Plaintiffs Marshal S. Willick (“Mr. Willick”) and Willick Law Group’s
3 (“Willick Law”) (together, the “Willick Parties”) Countermotion for Attorney’s Fees and Costs (the 4 “Countermotion”). Joshua P. Gilmore, Esq. of Bailey ♦ Kennedy and Jennifer V. Abrams, Esq. of
5 The Abrams & Mayo Law Firm appeared on behalf of the Willick Parties. Anat Levy, Esq. of Anat
6 Levy & Associates, P.C. appeared on behalf of the VIPI Defendants.

7 The Court, having examined the memoranda of the parties and the records and documents on 8 file, heard argument of counsel, and being fully advised of the premises, and good cause appearing,
9 hereby makes the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order with regard to the 10 Special Motion to Dismiss and Countermotion (and related Motion to Strike):

11 FINDINGS OF FACT

12 1. On January 27, 2017, the Willick Parties filed their Complaint against the VIPI
13 Defendants (among others).

14 2. On February 17, 2017, the VIPI Defendants filed their Special Motion to Dismiss,
15 arguing that the defamatory statements at issue in the Complaint fall within the ambit of NRS
16 41.637, in part because Mr. Willick is a public figure or limited purpose public figure, and that the 17 Willick Parties lack prima facie evidence supporting their claims.

18 3. On March 7, 2017, the Willick Parties filed their Opposition to the Special Motion to 19 Dismiss, arguing that the defamatory statements at issue in the Complaint do not fall within the 20 ambit of NRS 41.637; but, even if they did, they have presented prima facie evidence supporting
21 their claims. The Willick Parties also denied that Mr. Willick is a public figure or limited purpose
22 public figure. The Willick Parties separately filed their Countermotion, requesting an award of 23 attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to NRS 41.670(2).

24 4. On March 9, 2017, the VIPI Defendants filed their Reply in Support of their Special 25 Motion to Dismiss, together with Mr. Sanson’s Supplemental Declaration, and their Opposition to 26 the Countermotion.

1 (4) the focus of the speaker's conduct should be the public interest rather than a mere
2 effort to gather ammunition for another round of private controversy; and

3 (5) a person cannot turn otherwise private information into a matter of public interest
4 simply by communicating it to a large number of people.

5 Id., at ___, 389 P.3d at 268 (citation omitted).

6 4. If the Court determines that "the issue is of public interest, it must next determine 7 whether the communication was made 'in a place open to the public or in a public forum.'" Id.
8 (quoting NRS 41.673(4)). Finally, the Court must determine whether the communication was 9 "truthful or [was] made without knowledge of its falsehood." Id. (quoting NRS 41.637(4)).

10 5. Courts do not "simply rubber stamp" assertions by a defendant that a plaintiff's
11 claims fall within the ambit of the anti-SLAPP statute. Flatley v. Mauro, 139 P.3d 2, 13 (Cal. 2006).
12 Rather, the defendant must establish, by a preponderance of the evidence, that each claim is based on 13 a communication as specifically defined under NRS 41.637. NRS 41.660(3)(a); see also Century 21
14 Chamberlain & Assocs. v. Haberman, 92 Cal. Rptr. 3d 249, 256 (Cal. Ct. App. 2009) (stating that 15 the defendant bears the initial burden of establishing that each cause of action in the complaint arises
16 from "activity protected by the anti-SLAPP statute").

17 6. If the defendant is unable to meet its initial burden of proof, the burden does not shift
18 to the plaintiff to establish "with prima facie evidence a probability of prevailing on [each] claim."
19 NRS 41.660(3)(b); see also Commonwealth Energy Corp. v. Investor Data Exchange, Inc., 1 Cal.
20 Rptr. 3d 390, 393 (Cal. Ct. App. 2003) ("The point is, if the moving defendant cannot meet the 21 threshold showing, then the fact that he or she might be able to otherwise prevail on the merits under 22 the 'probability' step is irrelevant.").

23 7. If the defendant meets its initial burden of proof, the burden shifts to the plaintiff to 24 put forth "prima facie evidence" of a probability of prevailing on each claim. NRS 41.660(3)(b). In 25 other words, the plaintiff must show that each claim has "minimal merit." Soukup v. Law Offices of 26 Herbert Hafif, 139 P.3d 30, 51 (Cal. 2006).

27 8. Based on these legal principles, the Court finds that the VIPI Defendants have failed
28 to meet their initial burden of proof with regard to their Special Motion to Dismiss, for the following reasons:

1 a. First, having considered the Shapiro factors, the Court finds that the VIPI
2 Defendants have not established, by a preponderance of the evidence, that each claim in the
3 Complaint is based on a communication involving “an issue of public interest.”

4 b. Second, in light of the Nevada Supreme Court’s holding in Doe v. Brown, No.
5 62752, 2015 WL 3489404 (2015), the Court finds that Mr. Willick is not a public figure or 6 limited purpose public figure.

7 c. Third, upon review of the defamatory statements at issue in the Complaint, the 8 Court finds that the VIPI Defendants have not established, by a preponderance of the 9 evidence, that each was truthful or was made without knowledge of its falsehood.

10 9. Because the VIPI Defendants have failed to meet their initial burden of proof, the 11 Court need not address whether the Willick Parties have presented prima facie evidence supporting 12 their claims. See, e.g., Stenehjem v. Sareen, 173 Cal. Rptr. 3d 173, 191 n.19 (Cal. Ct. App. 2014)
13 (“Because we have concluded that Stenehjem did not meet his threshold showing that the activity
14 underlying the allegations of the Cross-Complaint was protected under the anti-SLAPP statute, we 15 need not consider the second prong, i.e., whether the record demonstrates that Sareen established a 16 probability of prevailing.”).

17 10. The Court does not find that the Special Motion to Dismiss was “frivolous or 18 vexatious,” and therefore, the Court declines to award fees and costs to the Willick Parties.

19 11. In light of the Court’s ruling, the Motion to Strike is deemed moot.

20 12. At the end of the March 14, 2017 hearing, the VIPI Defendants orally moved for a 21 stay of this proceeding pending an appeal, which the Court denied as premature.

22 13. Any conclusion of law set forth herein more appropriately designated as a finding of 23 fact shall be so designated.

ISSUES PRESENTED

This is a de novo appeal from the District Court's denial of Defendants' Anti-SLAPP motion under NRS 41.660 (3) (a) and (b). The issues are:

1. Whether Defendants established by a preponderance of the evidence that their online written statements were made in "good faith" under NRS 41.660(3)(a) where they were hyperlinked to the relevant source materials for readers to independently evaluate, and either constituted non-actionable opinion, or were true statements of fact as shown by the evidence presented, or if constituted false facts, were made without knowledge of their falsity.
2. Whether Defendants established by a preponderance of the evidence that their written online statements were of "public concern/interest" under NRS 41.660(3)(a) and NRS 41.637(4) where each statement dealt with the legal practices or publicly stated opinions of a licensed Nevada attorney who (a) is an officer of the Court (b) is admitted to practice law by, and regulated and disciplined by, the State Bar of Nevada which in turn is controlled by the Nevada Supreme Court, an entity comprised of publicly elected officials, and (c) represents clients in courtrooms that serve the public and are open to the public as a matter of constitutional right. (Defendants maintain that Plaintiffs are also public figures, which further heightens the public concern/interest);
3. Whether Plaintiffs/Respondents are "public figures or limited public figures" given that they purposely interject themselves into public controversy, including by testifying before the legislature on pending legislation, writing three books and dozens of articles disseminated to the public on family law issues, serving as an expert witness on dozens of cases, and routinely appearing on television, radio, newspapers, billboards and other public media to discuss legal issues and/or to promote themselves.
4. Whether Plaintiffs/Respondents have "demonstrated with prima facie evidence a probability of prevailing" on each of their claims under NRS 41.660(3)(b): Defamation, Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress, Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress, False Light, Business Disparagement, Concert of Action, Civil Conspiracy, RICO Violations, Copyright Infringement, Injunction.

Elizabeth A. Brown
Clerk of Supreme Court

GENERAL INFORMATION

Appellants must complete this docketing statement in compliance with NRAP 14(a). The purpose of the docketing statement is to assist the Supreme Court in screening jurisdiction, identifying issues on appeal, assessing presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, scheduling cases for oral argument and settlement conferences, classifying cases for expedited treatment and assignment to the Court of Appeals, and compiling statistical information.

WARNING

This statement must be completed fully, accurately and on time. NRAP 14(c). The Supreme Court may impose sanctions on counsel or appellant if it appears that the information provided is incomplete or inaccurate. Id. Failure to fill out the statement completely or to file it in a timely manner constitutes grounds for the imposition of sanctions, including a fine and/or dismissal of the appeal.

A complete list of the documents that must be attached appears as Question 27 on this docketing statement. Failure to attach all required documents will result in the delay of your appeal and may result in the imposition of sanctions.

This court has noted that when attorneys do not take seriously their obligations under NRAP 14 to complete the docketing statement properly and conscientiously, they waste the valuable judicial resources of this court, making the imposition of sanctions appropriate. See KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 344, 810 P.2d 1217, 1220 (1991). Please use tab dividers to separate any attached documents.

Defendants/Appellants Veterans in Politics International, Inc. ("VIPI") and its President, Steve Sanson were sued by Plaintiffs/Respondents family law attorney Marshal Willick and his law firm, Willick Law Group, for defamation and a plethora of "add-on" claims (including RICO, emotional distress, copyright infringement, concert of action, etc.) arising from five statements that Sanson, in his capacity as VIPI's President, posted on the internet about plaintiffs Willick and his firm's practices.

Defendants/Appellants filed a special motion to dismiss under Nevada's Anti-SLAPP statutes (NRS 41.660 et. seq.), which the District Court denied finding that Defendants did not establish by a preponderance of the evidence that (1) the statements were made in good faith, (2) the statements were of "public concern." The court also found that Plaintiffs were not public figures.

This appeal ensued pursuant to NRS 41.670(4) which states: "If the court denies the special motion to dismiss filed pursuant to NRS 41.660, an interlocutory appeal lies to the Supreme Court."

9. Issues on appeal. State concisely the principal issue(s) in this appeal (attach separate sheets as necessary):

11. Constitutional issues. If this appeal challenges the constitutionality of a statute, and the state, any state agency, or any officer or employee thereof is not a party to this appeal, have you notified the clerk of this court and the attorney general in accordance with NRAP 44 and NRS 30.130?

☒ An issue of public policy

☐ An issue where en banc consideration is necessary to maintain uniformity of this court's decisions

☐ A ballot question

If so, explain: Defendants/Appellants' federal and state constitutional rights of free speech are at issue. There are also considerable public policy issues involving the extent to which a lawyers' conduct regarding his law practice, overbilling clients, positions taken in court, and his publicly stated positions on legislation are issues of "public concern." There is also public policy involved in determining when a lawyer can be treated as a "public figure" for purposes of defamation law. Public policy is also involved in determining the extent to which adding hyperlinks to online statements which link to the statement's source materials, and the extent to which corrections/retractions affect a determination of "good faith."

13. Assignment to the Court of Appeals or retention in the Supreme Court. Briefly set forth whether the matter is presumptively retained by the Supreme Court or assigned to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, and cite the subparagraph(s) of the Rule under which the matter falls. If appellant believes that the Supreme Court should retain the case despite its presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals, identify the specific issue(s) or circumstance(s) that warrant retaining the case, and include an explanation of their importance or significance:

This case should be presumptively retained by the Supreme Court pursuant to:

1. NRS 41.670(4) which states: "If the court denies the special motion to dismiss filed pursuant to NRS 41.660, an interlocutory appeal lies to the Supreme Court."
2. NRAP 17(10) because it involves federal and state constitutional free speech issues of first impression in Nevada: (a) whether and how hyperlinks to source materials, prompt written corrections, and opinions affect a determination of defendants' "good faith" under NRS 41.660(a); and (b) whether an attorney's law-related practices are matters of "public interest/concern."
3. NRAP 17(11): the case involves issues of statewide public importance as it deals with the extent to which free speech rights are protected under Nevada's Anti-SLAPP statutes.

Was it a bench or jury trial? N/A
