THE COURT: State of Nevada v. Willis Tyrone Brown, C-319125. Okay. Is the defendant here? The Defendant's present. He's out of custody. He's represented by Mr. Modafferi. This is Pretrial Writ of Habeas Corpus filed by the defendant in this matter. Who is here on behalf of the State?

MS. CLEMONS: Jennifer Clemons for the State.

THE COURT: Mr. Modafferi, the argument that you're making, the main argument that I see is with respect to Counts 4 and 5.

MR. MODAFFERI: That's correct, Judge.

THE COURT: Your position is, is that the JP in this matter, in reviewing the case, had somewhat bled over all the facts of the other incidents and took those into consideration for purposes of 4 and 5, right?

MR. MODAFFERI: That's one -- one way of stating it.

Yes, Judge.

THE COURT: Okay. In reading the transcript myself, independent of the other, you have -- you have your client in the position that he's in, with the Boys Club -- Boys and Girls Club of America.

MR. MODAFFERI: Right, Judge. Never being in trouble before in his entire life.

THE COURT: No, I understand.

MR. MODAFFERI: Yeah.

THE COURT: But under the circumstances, with just I guess it's HH, is it -- I think that's the --

MS. CLEMONS: That's the victim --

MR. MODAFFERI: The HH --

MS. CLEMONS: -- yeah, for that --

MR. MODAFFERI: -- yeah.

THE COURT: Is that number 4 and 5 --

MS. CLEMONS: Yes.

MR. MODAFFERI: Yes, Judge.

THE COURT: -- HH? Yeah, is that he -- I understand, and the other ones with -- based on his language as a -- you know, he's saying things like, you know, are you still a virgin, when you lost your virginity did you like it, you know -- you know, did it hurt, can I touch you like -- you 16 know, things like that.

I understand that with the other -- and I understand the argument is that there's a prejudicial effect of hearing

19 those facts in conjunction with just a -- and if HH stood

20 alone, we wouldn't know about those unless obviously the State

21 said we need a prior bad act motion to allow the -- them to 22 consider that for -- is that not similar under 48.045, is that

23 -- is that the trier of fact can consider that in light of the 24 case -- in light of the factual scenario in this case of all

25 of it together, because of the -- under the -- under the -- independent of the State staying, Judge, we want you to hear this independent evidence as a prior bad act under 48.045, it was presented that way. And then Court then makes a determination independent of their motion. Isn't that what happens?

MR. MODAFFERI: Not in this case, Judge. And let me explain why.

THE COURT: Okay.

1.3

2.4

MR. MODAFFERI: These counts need to be considered separately on their own merit. And, you know, Judge Bixler, Magistrate Bixler, he understood that point when he said, counsel, I do not disagree with you about the fact that I need to consider these counts separately.

THE COURT: Um-hum.

MR. MODAFFERI: Innately, he knew that, you know, Black Letter Law through law school, through jury instructions, through telling people that you can't borrow evidence from one count in order to find someone guilty of another.

And he said to me, basically this, "Here is my take on this. And this is kind of troubling, Counsel. You are not incorrect." I guess a back-handed way of saying, you're right. "These counts have to be considered separately and independently based on evidence provided on each of the counts. I've got to tell you, the Counts involving HH are not very strong, they're not very strong at all."

THE COURT: Um-hum.

MR. MODAFFERI: "When you take the testimony of that little 12-year old girl completely isolated by itself, it wouldn't amount to squat in terms of criminal conduct."

THE COURT: Um-hum.

MR. MODAFFERI: So he tells us, you know what, I'm going to take a pass on this and bounce it up to Justice Court and let Judge Kephart deal with it.

THE COURT: You mean, District Court, um-hum.

MR. MODAFFERI: And you know what I'm going to do?

I'm going to borrow a little evidence off of Counts 3. And I'm saying, Judge, you can't borrow evidence off of Counts --

THE COURT: Well, but that --

MR. MODAFFERI: -- 3 -- Counts 3 -- Count 3 didn't even happen. We've got an independent witness who said that that woman in -- that girl in Count 3 didn't even go into his office.

THE COURT: Well, no, independent --

MR. MODAFFERI: You know what I'm saying? We're getting into a trap where we're borrowing evidence where evidence shouldn't be borrowed from. And then all of a sudden we have a total breakdown in due process, and he's not getting a reliable judgment as to Counts 4 and 5. We don't have no Petrocelli hearing to determine whether or not this stuff should come in.

 2
              THE COURT: I know. That's what I'm talking about 3 under 48.045 -- 045. It's different though when a Judge is 4 determining that versus when -- 5
              MR. MODAFFERI: I know, but that -- he --
 6
              THE COURT: -- versus -- 7
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- he made us -- a record --
 8
              THE COURT: And so --
 9
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- for us. He said, these counts 10 shouldn't go up unless I do borrow.
              THE COURT: Um-hum. Well, I know, so he's make -- 11
12
              MR. MODAFFERI: And then he sends them up.
13
              THE COURT: -- so he's making the determination that 14 it's -- that crimes, wrongs or act is not -- is not 15 inadmissible, is what he's finding, based on what he's heard.
    And the time frame of when this has occurred, it allows the 16
17
    Judge -- it allows a trier of fact to make that determination 18 based on the time frame that they could consider the other -- 19 other information.
20
              MR. MODAFFERI: It emasculates what we tell jurors 21 in every case. I mean, look at the Binion -- 22
              THE COURT: Well, I --
23
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- look at the Binion case, you 2.4
   know, I cited that -- 25
              THE COURT: -- Mr. Modafferi, I --

```
MR. MODAFFERI: -- in my -- yeah.
 1
 2
              THE COURT: -- I understand your argument
 3 completely. I want to hear from the State and see how they consider that.
 5
             MR. MODAFFERI: Okay.
 6
              THE COURT: Let's --
 7
              MS. CLEMONS: Thank you, Your Honor. You know, so my memory of kind of how things went down in Justice Court is 8 9 slightly different. When we were initially talking about 10 amending the Complaint --
              THE COURT: Um-hum.
11.
              MS. CLEMONS: -- with regards to the Counts for HH, 12
   that's when the Justice of the Peace got -- had some concern about the intent element for the conduct with HH. And then I 14
   went through and explained, even if you had her on her own --
              THE COURT: Meaning, the intent element of the 16
17 defendant with regard -- 18
              MS. CLEMONS: Yes, with HH.
19
              THE COURT: Okay. And that's --
             MS. CLEMONS: I said even if you -- 20
              THE COURT: -- 48.045 --
21
             MS. CLEMONS: Yeah.
22
23
              THE COURT: -- that's right there.
24
              MS. CLEMONS: Yeah. And -- but -- and even without 25 that, I mean, the fact that he -- this happens more than one time that his --

2.1

THE COURT: Right.

MS. CLEMONS: -- hand lingers on her thigh and brushes up against her chest, she was a very young-looking 12-year old girl. She's not the kind of girl that you're going to ask, oh, are you still a virgin and did it hurt when you had sex the first time, because she does not appear to be of an -- of a child who would be engaging in those types of activities whereas the other two girls are older and had boyfriends and things like that.

But additionally, as I laid out in my Opposition or my Return, you know, intent is an element where we can look at the facts and circumstances surrounding it --

THE COURT: Um-hum.

MS. CLEMONS: -- and because of the time frame and because of the similarity in the conduct, it all happens at the Boys and Girls Club, the State's position would be that under 48.045, section (2) and section (3) which specifically deals with sexual intent, that those other facts could be considered for the HH counts.

THE COURT: How do we deal with it, though, in front of a jury, you know what I mean? Because --

MS. CLEMONS: Right.

THE COURT: -- because obviously you understand that you would have to request of the Court to determine whether or not there was a -- you have to look at the prejudice value.

 1
 2
    But is it -- is it under (3) now, 48.045(3) that it's -- that 3
    it's just simply -- is it your position that it's simply admissible?
 4
              MS. CLEMONS: That's -- that's the State's position
 5
 6
    on how we're reading subsection (3).
 7
              THE COURT: Yeah.
              MS. CLEMONS: It's inadmissible for propensity purposes. So you can consider it for intent. But, I mean, if 10 they find that there wasn't -- say they find HH is incredible 11 and they don't think -- 12
 8 9
              THE COURT: Yeah.
13
              MS. CLEMONS: -- that what she says is true, then 14 they -- I mean, they're not going to find him guilty on those 15 counts. So she still has present -- or we still have to prove the other --
16
17
              THE COURT: Right.
              MS. CLEMONS: -- elements of that -- of that 18
19
              It's just the intent portion of it.
    offense.
20
              THE COURT: Mr. Modafferi, when you look at 21
    48.045(3), I mean, that's the amended -- they added -- 22
              MR. MODAFFERI: I know that, Judge. Yeah.
23
              THE COURT: It specifically says, "This section 24 shall not be construed to prohibit the admission of evidence 25 in a criminal prosecution for sexual offense that a person committed another crime, wrong or act that constitute a separate sexual offense as used in this subsection. Sexual offense has the meaning described," and then you know based on what's alleged here. So it sounds to me that - MR. MODAFFERI: So, I don't think we -

THE COURT: -- I mean, that's --

MR. MODAFFERI: -- I don't think, Judge, we have evolved in our criminal justice system when we allow evidence to come in for propensity where --

THE COURT: No --

1.3

MR. MODAFFERI: -- you know, in this case --

THE COURT: Well, no, no, no, no, no, that particular statute, that change specifically does that.

MR. MODAFFERI: Listen, this is my point on that, okay, Judge?

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MODAFFERI: We got -- we got this incident, what I deem, incidental conduct. He goes to hug the girl. And, you know, he hugs a lot of kids that are in stress at that place like he's been doing for 20 years since he's been a coach and a counselor without incident.

Then all of a sudden, at the end of August of 2016, these three girls come together at one point in time and say, oh, he touched me inappropriately. He touched my thigh. He touched the side of my body, my upper torso. It constitutes an A felony. He could go to jail fo 35 to life.

2.1

All right. So how do we get that? Well, we get that not because he swiped up her leg and touched the side of her rib cage, we get that from Count 3. Well, Count 3 -- and we put on evidence at the Preliminary Hearing -- is the girl said she's sitting behind a computer desk and he said -- he said, "Can I touch your leg," and he touched her leg. And she giggled.

And then they went into the back office and they had sexual talk. And the Judge says, well, I can think about that when I'm considering this incidental conduct which amounts to Class A Felonies which will put you away for 35 to life.

MS. CLEMONS: It's 10 to life, actually --

MR. MODAFFERI: Well, 10 to life --

MS. CLEMONS: -- is the --

MR. MODAFFERI: -- excuse me -- and I'm going to do it by considering the conversation that he had with this girl in the office. So Alexander Guerrero (phonetic), an independent, unbiased staff worker says, I saw the whole incident. I was ten feet away from it. They never got two feet from each other. They were ten feet apart from each other during the entire time, from 7:02 to 7:14.

THE COURT: So your argument is, independent of what -- okay, so Judge Bixler says, I'm borrowing it from this -- the intent issue --

1 MR. MODAFFERI: Right. THE COURT: -- but you're saying, that evidence was 2 3 no good, because we had another witness that said it was no 4 good. 5 MR. MODAFFERI: Well, that's what happens, this domino effect occurs --6 7 THE COURT: Yeah, but --MR. MODAFFERI: -- and then all of sudden the whole 8 9 probable cause determination is unreliable because we're 10 borrowing it from here, and borrowing from there, and we're just assuming since the statute's in effect, propensity 11 12 evidence. 13 THE COURT: Yeah, but it sounds -- it sounds like 14 the Judge --15 MR. MODAFFERI: Bad -- he was a bad dude --THE COURT: -- it sounds like the --16 17 MR. MODAFFERI: -- as President Trump would say. He's a bad dude. Do you know what I'm saying? That's not 18 19 good enough. 20 THE COURT: It sounds like --MR. MODAFFERI: We can't --21 THE COURT: It sounds like the JP, though, made a 22 23 determination as to the -- as to the credibility or the 24 strength of the case with regards to the evidence in Count 3,

Verbatim Digital Reporting, LLC ♦ 303-798-0890

and openly told you, that I'm going to consider that for 25

purposes of Count 4 and 5, because it shows the intent of your 1
    client. And that's -- I don't know how else to make -- I mean, that -- do you disagree? That's exactly what he says.
 3
              MR. MODAFFERI: Not the intent, Judge. His -- his 4
    words were, when it comes to quote/unquote, "criminal conduct, 5 6
    the State doesn't have squat."
 7
              THE COURT: Okay. But he bound it up.
 8
              MR. MODAFFERI: How do you get over that?
              THE COURT: So he binds it up and says, Judge
 9
10
    Kephart, I find there's nothing to support it, but I'm going 11.
    to bind it up on that anyhow?
              MR. MODAFFERI: Yes. Isn't that wrong?
12
    think it's right either, Judge.
13
14
              THE COURT: I don't think that -- 15
              MR. MODAFFERI: Why should you be --
              THE COURT: I don't think that's what -- 16
17
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- put in the place to put it --
              THE COURT: I don't think that's what happened, Mr.
18
    Modafferi. I don't see --
19
              MR. MODAFFERI: I do.
20
21
              THE COURT:
                         -- that.
22
              MR. MODAFFERI: I really do. I feel like he felt 23 like --
24
              THE COURT:
                          I don't -- the record --
25
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- let Judge Kephart short this out.

THE COURT: -- doesn't support that. The record doesn't support that, Mr. Modafferi. He found that there was sufficient evidence to hold him to answer to all counts. But he did comment that with regards to 4 and 5, it was slim, with the exception of the intent element that he derived from his actions and his comments in the other case -- in the other counts, that are associated with the other counts. That's how I see it. That's -- so --

MR. MODAFFERI: How does that work? I mean, I don't mean to sound -- Judge, I don't mean to sound pedantic about this, but how does that actually work in a legal analysis? You've got two counts that, according to the Judge, are worthless, unless you look at the other counts. And then you look at the other counts, and we present evidence that they're not worth --

THE COURT: Right. Let --

MR. MODAFFERI: -- looking at.

THE COURT: -- let me give you --

MR. MODAFFERI: Okay.

THE COURT: -- in a scenario like this.

MR. MODAFFERI: Yeah.

THE COURT: Let's say your client was already charged with Counts 1 through 3, and he gets convicted of them. Or even if he doesn't get convicted of them, but there's evidence to support the claims of what's being said as a prior bad act; okay?

Four and five come later, because the young -- the young girl says, you know what, he did this stuff to me, too, the young -- HH comes forward after the fact. And he's already been through the process on the other. Everyone knows about his actions on 1, 2 and 3; all right?

HH comes forward and says, you know what, I think he was doing this stuff to me, too. The State now says, you know what, Judge -- HH, we agree with you, because we can tell based on his actions in 1, 2 and 3.

So they charge just Counts 4 and 5. You come in and say, Judge, there's absolutely nothing here to support it. In their case — in that case, though, if they just presented HH by herself, they'd probably have a harder time, because there's no evidence of 1, 2 and 3.

But if they present it to the JP and said, Judge, we need you to consider 1, 2 and 3, these actions as well, as prior bad acts under 48.045. The Judge then takes into consideration 1, 2 and 3 and says, you know what, I agree with you. His intent's clear to me.

His intent is that he's messing with these young girls and that's what his plans are. And he's already -- he's already showed it in 1, 2 and 3. And so that's what -- so I'm going to use that to bind up on 4 and 5. That's the scenario. Basically, what you're saying, but they had it all together at one time.

2.4

So now the JP didn't have to determine 1, 2 and 3 independently, because he was hearing it all at one time. Okay?

 $$\operatorname{MR.}$ MODAFFERI: So then does that put you in the position of reviewing the record and looking at Count 1 $-\!-\!$

THE COURT: Well, I have to.

MR. MODAFFERI: Okay. Okay.

THE COURT: Every time I look -- every time I look at a Writ that you bring to me, or anyone brings to -- a Writ, I've got to look at the full record to determine whether or not the Judge had sufficient evidence for purposes, slight or marginal, to hold him to answer.

And that's why I -- I got into 48.045, because that's the only way I could think of. And when he made that comment, that I've got to take from the other case to show that, he was saying, I believe 4 and 5's weak, but when I know what his intent is, okay, and coupled with that, I have -- there's sufficient evidence for a bindover. That's how I look at it.

MR. MODAFFERI: So if we're going to do the sort of shell game where we're borrowing evidence from counts, let's do -- let's --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MODAFFERI: -- go through the full analysis.

1 Count 1, the girl said she originally thought it was an 2 accident. 3 THE COURT: Um-hum. MR. MODAFFERI: And she didn't think it was anything 4 5 until Count 2 happened. 6 THE COURT: Yeah. Well --7 MR. MODAFFERI: So Count 1 is potentially an 8 accident, and Count 3, according to Alexander --THE COURT: Well, but she codified it. She codified 9 10 it. 11 MS. CLEMONS: Yeah. THE COURT: She says, yeah, you know, the first time 12 he didn't, it didn't really get me. But when he did it again, 13 14 and when -- and what he did the second time, I know what he 15 was -- it wasn't -- she did it herself. She cleared it up 16 herself, okay? So --17 MR. MODAFFERI: So, I understand what the Court's saying. But then we go to Count 3, which is a separate 18 19 victim, one count --20 THE COURT: Yeah. 21 MR. MODAFFERI: -- and she says this happens behind 22 the desk of the Boys Club and Girls Club of America --23 THE COURT: Um-hum. 24 MR. MODAFFERI: -- and the woman says, now, I 25 watched them the entire 12 minutes from 7:02 to 7:14. And we put in all of these attendance logs which show he's checking 2 people in left and right. Families are coming, paying their 3 bills, he's logging them into the computer. It's during this 12 minute period, in public view, that he allegedly sexually

 4 5 assaults this girl and then takes her into the back room and 6
   has conversation, asks her straight up. It's unrebutted 7 evidence. Did he ever go in that office with her? No, it 8
   never happened.
 9
                         He actually -- it wasn't --
              THE COURT:
10
              MR. MODAFFERI: He never went into that office.
11
              THE COURT: -- a -- it wasn't a sexual assault, it 12 was a sexual assault, it was a lewdness.
              MR. MODAFFERI: A lewdness, I -- well, I -- 13
14
              THE COURT: But there's a big difference, Mr.
15
   Modafferi.
             MR. MODAFFERI: A molestation.
16
             MS. CLEMONS: Yeah.
17
18
             MR. MODAFFERI: All right. A molestation.
              THE COURT: So --
19 20
              MR. MODAFFERI: Well, where he allegedly ran his 21
    finger up her thigh when they're ten feet apart.
22
              THE COURT: And coupled --
23
             MS. CLEMONS: Well --
24
              THE COURT: -- with some -- 25
              MR. MODAFFERI: Coupled with some lascivious

language that occurred in the office -- 1
 2
              THE COURT: Well --
 3
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- that they never entered according to the independent witness. So, I mean, we're borrowing 4 evidence from --
 5
 6
              THE COURT: Yeah, but -- 7
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- really --
              THE COURT: Okay.
 8
 9
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- desperate counts.
              THE COURT: I know, but I have to -- 10
              MR. MODAFFERI:
                            Slippery slope.
11
              THE COURT: -- I have to look at -- I -- no, it -- 12 you know, and quite honestly, Mr. Modafferi, I think at this 13
   point in time, because of the standard, and what the -- the way the standard is, it's a hard road for the defense.
15 openly admit that.
16
              Once it gets to this point, when I have a JP that's 17 determining the evidence and watching the -- the testimony and 18 determining the credibility and believability of witnesses, 19
    and under the circumstances of it, it is -- it's a tough -- 2.0
21
    it's -- for me to look at just a bare record, you know, just a 22 record with just -- with no emotion, that's hard. And so -- 23
              MR. MODAFFERI: I agree, Judge. So -- and I just 24
   wanted to make one last point.
25
              THE COURT: -- and the standard is so slight.
```

MR. MODAFFERI: I want -- I wanted to make a point about that standard. And I heard another attorney argue before me about the standard and how he described it as being a scintilla. And I don't agree with that.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MODAFFERI: And I never have agreed with the fact that everyone emasculates the probable cause standard by calling it slight or marginal, even though the Supreme Court used that language in one case.

You know, the standard is still the same standard.

It's probable cause. It's the amount of evidence that they need the government to get in your house, or to arrest you, or to tap your phones; it's probable cause.

And you still have to view it in that paradigm. You can't just because the Supreme Court has said slight or marginal at one point, describe it like the other attorney did as a scintilla. It's not.

And I think that in this jurisdiction where there is no Rule 29 motion, there's nothing to take from the trial Judge, the ability to sever these counts out because a prima facie case hasn't been made during trial, it's incumbent upon you, and it's incumbent upon the Grand Jury to exercise that independent shield against unwarranted charges.

THE COURT: Um-hum.

MR. MODAFFERI: And 4 and 5 obviously are toss-ins that they're using. I understand their position. As a former 1

 2
   prosecutor, I would have put them in for negotiating purposes.
 3
              MS. CLEMONS: No, that's not -- that's absolutely not true. The reason why 4 and 5 has that penalty is because 5 of her age.
 6
              THE COURT: Yeah.
 7
              MS. CLEMONS: So, I mean, and that was amended 8 because of her age. So, if he's -- if he's alluding to the fact that I add charges to just to deal -- 10
              MR. MODAFFERI: I didn't -- no, I didn't say -- 11
              MS. CLEMONS: -- that is not true --
              MR. MODAFFERI: -- I didn't say -- not a comment on 12
13
    this prosecutor --
14
              MS. CLEMONS: -- and offensive.
15
             MR. MODAFFERI: -- at all.
16
             MS. CLEMONS: Thank you.
              MR. MODAFFERI: What I'm saying as a general 17 practice, it's common.
18
              THE COURT: I know. Anything further?
19
              MS. CLEMONS: Nothing from the State.
20
21
              MR. MODAFFERI: No, Judge.
22
              THE COURT: All right. Mr. Modafferi, I think you 23 kind of probably know where I was going with this based on -- 24
              MR. MODAFFERI: I do.
25
              THE COURT: -- my position.
```

MR. MODAFFERI: I do. 1 THE COURT: But I do find that the Court can make a 2 3 determination as to the prejudice value of it and the admissibility of it under 48.045, and that in this case, Judge 4 5 Bixler did just that. So, I am finding there's sufficient evidence to hold the defendant to trial with regards to all 6 7 four -- I mean, all five, six counts -- is that --8 MR. MODAFFERI: Five, Judge. 9 THE COURT: Five counts. Let me see, one, two -yeah, one, two, three and four. And I'm denying your motion; 10 11 okay? I'm denying the Writ. 12 MR. MODAFFERI: Thank you, Judge. 13 THE COURT: Okay. MR. MODAFFERI: Thank you. I apologize -- I 14 15 appreciate you listening to my arguments. 16 THE COURT: All right. That's -- Mr. Brown, we have 17 a trial date scheduled for May 15th. May 10th is a Calendar Call, and a Pretrial Conference is scheduled for April 12th. 18 19 So, I need you to be here on those days. Keep in contact with 20 your attorney; okay? 21 THE DEFENDANT: Sure. 22 THE COURT: All right. 23 MR. MODAFFERI: Yes, Judge. Thank you. 24 (Proceeding concluded at 10:07 A.M.)

JUSTICE COURT, LAS VEGAS TOWNSHIP

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WILLIS BROWN,

Defendant.

MOTION FOR EXPERT SERVICES PURSUANT TO WIDDIS

COMES NOW, WILLIS BROWN, Defendant herein, by and through his counsel, GARY A. MODAFFERI, ESQ., of the Law Offices of Gary A. Modafferi, LLC, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for a declaration of indigency and to authorize the retention of two expert witnesses; an investigator and expert Mark Chambers, Ph.D., to testify to psychological issues involving child testimony, parental influence on that testimony, and children's motivation regarding false allegations. The defense seeks an Order authorizing necessary and related expenses in excess of the statutory limit pursuant to NRS 7.135(1).

This Motion is based upon the records and files in this matter,² the attached Memorandum of Law, the attached Application for Court Appointed Counsel or Widdis Fees, and any evidence and/or argument adduced at a hearing on this matter.

DATED this 19th day of September, 2016.

GARY A. MODAFFERI, ESQ. Nevada Bar No. 12450

Attorney for Defendant

NOTICE OF MOTION

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the undersigned will bring the foregoing motion on for hearing before this Court on the 22 day of 5, 2016, at 7 a.m., or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard.

DATED this 19th day of September, 2016.

GARY A. MODAFFERI, ESQ.

Nevada Bar No. 12450 Attorney for Defendant

² Attached as Exhibit B.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

The Defendant has been charged with multiple felony offenses stemming from the accusation that he inappropriately touched two minor girls. The accusation has caused the Defendant to lose his employment. His extended family has paid for his legal fees but the Defendant cannot afford to hire an investigator or an expert in the area of psychological issues regarding false child accusations of sexual misconduct.

An investigator is necessary to serve subpoenas, obtain statements from witnesses, and generally investigate the circumstances of these allegations. Should the court approve this request for declaration of indigency, the Defendant will make specific requests through the county administrator. The consultation and possible testimony of Dr. Mark Chambers is necessary to fully understand and convey to both the court and/or the jury the influences upon a child's accusation in a sexual prosecution.

In Widdis, the Nevada Supreme Court held that a criminal defendant who has retained private counsel is nonetheless entitled to reasonable services at public expense based upon the defendant's showing indigency and need for the services.³ The attached Application for Court – Appointed Counsel or Widdis Fees is sufficient proof for a declaration of indigency and judicial permission for the requested services.

CONCLUSION

It is respectfully requested that the Motion be granted.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, MONDAY, APRIL 24, 2017 at 8:34 A.M.

THE COURT: State of Nevada versus Willis Brown. This is C319125.

MR. SMITH: Your Honor, Ms. Clemmons will be here from our office on that one and I don't see her yet.

THE COURT: Well I -- does she really need to be here on this issue?

MR. SMITH: I'm not sure.

THE COURT: This is Defendant's motion for expert services pursuant to Widdis. Defendant's present. He's out of custody. Mr. Modafferi, do you want to add anything to your request? I mean I've read through it, I looked at the affidavit. I think I'm pretty comfortable in issuing my decision. I mean do you want to --

MR. MODAFFERI: No. Not really Judge. I don't need to -- I have the case with me. I read it before I came to Court again. I know the Court last time had a Widdis motion. I was listening to the disposition. The case says that the State actually does save money when the lawyer's paid for by the family and the State pays for the ancillary investigative services or expert services.

THE COURT: Well, yeah. They'd save the money of the cost to the law yer.

MR. MODAFFERI: Yeah.

THE COURT: So here, I mean, that's happened. But what I -- I have to look at everything in the totality as to whether or not your client is truly indigent in order to fit the scenario under Widdis and -- or the standard. And I just don't see it here.

I don't reach that based on I mean he's employed. He it appears that he has to probably adjust his expenses. But for the State to be paying for his investigator fees under these circumstances, I don't think Widdis truly could is saying that that's a mandatory requirement. And so I'm just making a finding based on his affidavit that he's not indigent in orde to fit that.
MR. MODAFFERI: He was found indigent in Justice Court, Judge.
THE COURT: I'm looking at well, was he in custody.
MR. MODAFFERI: No. He had been released on house arrest the day
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. MODAFFERI: Yeah.
THE COURT: Well that's I that might be under their affidavit. I'm not seeing it here. I'm sorry.
MR. MODAFFERI: Okay.
THE COURT: That's my decision.
MR. MODAFFERI: All right.
THE COURT: So I'm denying your motion. Okay?
MR. MODAFFERI: Thank you, Judge.
[PROCEEDINGS CONCLUDED at 8:36 A.M.]

ATTEST: I hereby certify that I have truly and correctly transcribed the audio/visual proceedings in the above-entitled case to the best of my ability.
