No. 73117

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING MOTION

This is an appeal from a district court order denying a motion for injunctive relief. Appellant has filed a motion to file in this court an emergency motion for injunctive relief that exceeds the applicable 10-page limit. NRAP 27(d)(2). Appellant argues that “a lengthy motion is unavoidable” in order to “fully flesh . . . out” the issues and to give this court “the proper context for this case.” Appellant’s proposed motion is more than 50 pages long. While appellant has demonstrated good cause for exceeding the normal page limit for motions, he fails to demonstrate that a motion more than five-and-a-half times the page limited is warranted. Accordingly, the motion is denied. The clerk shall return, unfiled, the “Emergency Motion for Injunctive Relief Pursuant to NRAP 8” received on May 25, 2017. Appellant shall have until June 1, 2017, to file and serve an emergency motion for injunctive relief of no more than 20 pages. Failure to comply with this time limitation may result in the automatic denial of any such emergency motion for injunctive relief.

It is so ORDERED.
