Other: The parties met and worked in good faith with the Settlement Judge on October 20, 2017. The conference was productive but did not yield a settlement. The parties and the Settlement Judge agreed to continue working to resolve the case. The parties and the Settlement Judge further agreed to reconvene on December 21, 2017, setting aside that date and December 22, 2017 for further negotiations. The selection of this date was informed by the availability of respective counsel, the holidays, and the professional and personal commitments of the parties. The Court will recall that this is a high profile case in Nevada considering the circumstances of the two parties.
