The circumstances of the parties, one being a sitting Congressperson, and the other being a prominent politician engaged in the electoral process, have created substantial challenges in scheduling the resumption of the settlement conference in this case. With the cooperation of counsel for the parties, the settlement conference has been scheduled to take place on January 26, 2018, commencing at 8:30 a.m. and scheduled to continue until 5:45 p.m., unless resolved in the interim. Counsel understanding that this is a firm setting. The Settlement Judge will submit what is expected to be the Final Report shortly after this conference.
