Appellants' Motion to Direct District Court Clerk to Transmit Original Video Exhibits

Pursuant to N.R.A.P. 10(b)(2) and 30(d), Appellants seek an order directing the district court clerk to transmit original video exhibits that are incapable of being reproduced in the appendix. The video exhibits were attached to Appellants' Anti-Slapp Special Motion to Dismiss Under N.R.S. 41.660 that was filed with and considered by the district court. I AA 20-40. The video exhibits are ads from Respondent's campaign responding to the political advertisements at issue from Appellants' campaign. The content of the full-length videos are relevant to the issues raised on appeal and pertinent to Appellants' Anti-Slapp Special Motion, which was denied by the district court. Id. A full review of the record, including the video exhibits, is necessary for a determination by this Court of the issues on appeal.

Accordingly, in the interests of judicial fairness and efficiency, and for a complete record of the underlying action, Appellants move the Court for an order directing the district court clerk to transmit original video exhibits.
