ORDER REINSTATING BRIEFING

This court previously referred this matter to the Pro Bono Committee of the State Bar of Nevada's Appellate Litigation Section for the selection of pro bono counsel to represent appellant for this appeal. Appellant has not filed an objection to the referral. On March 26, 2018, attorneys Alexander G. LeVeque and Tess E. Johnson of Solomon Dwiggin & Freer, Ltd. filed a notice of appearance on behalf of appellant as her pro bono counsel. Accordingly, we set forth the following schedule for the requesting of transcripts and briefing in this appeal.

Appellant shall have 14 days from the date of this order to determine the transcripts necessary for a review of this appeal and to file either a supplemental transcript request form or a supplemental certification that no transcripts are requested under NRAP 9(a). As appellant is now a client of a program for legal aid, see NRS 12.015(1)(b), appellant's counsel is directed to follow NRS 12.015(3) for obtaining any necessary transcripts at county expense.

Appellant shall have 60 days from the date of this order to file and serve an opening brief. Thereafter, briefing shall proceed as set forth in NRAP 31(a)(1). The trial court record has already been filed in this appeal, thus the parties are permitted, but not required, to cite to that record in lieu of filing joint or separate appendices with their briefs. Although this matter will be scheduled for oral argument upon completion of briefing, counsel may notify this court in writing if counsel believes that oral argument is undesirable or unnecessary.

It is so ORDERED.
