THE COURT: Page 2, State of Nevada versus Barron Hamm, Case Number C256384. Let the record reflect the presence of Mr. Hamm with his counsel, Mr. Coffee. State represented by Ms. Jimenez.

This is on for sentencing. Is there any legal cause or reason we should not go forward with sentencing today?

MR. COFFEE: No, Judge.

THE COURT: Sir, by virtue of your plea of guilty to second degree murder with use of a deadly weapon, a felony, and assault with use of a deadly weapon, a felony, I adjudicate you guilty of those offenses. State?

MS. JIMENEZ: Thank you, Judge. Judge, for the most part, the sentence in this case is negotiated. The bottom end of the sentence is a stipulated 20 years. The one thing for the Court to make a determination on is as to the second degree murder charge, whether the Court is going to sentence the Defendant to a term of years of 25 years or to the life tail on this sentence. The State is asking the Court to sentence the Defendant to the life tail. From the State's point of view, this isn't even a close call.

If you go through the Defendant's lengthy juvenile record, he has juvenile offenses dating back to 2003. These offenses include multiple instances of violence and other crimes, crimes involving weapons. There's two separate batteries that he committed, malicious destruction of property, possession of stolen vehicle, possession of dangerous weapon, burglary, grand larceny, another burglary. He's violated probation and parole. He had three terms of probation as a juvenile, and, as you know, the juvenile system is aimed 24 25 towards rehabilitation. It's not the same as the adult system. So he would've had multiple opportunities to get whatever help and treatment he required through the juvenile system.

I want to point out as well that there's a paragraph on page 4 that talks about charges which were dismissed or not pursued, and included in there is a robbery, attempt robbery, possession of a dangerous weapon, second offense, a handgun and revolver. The Defendant was actually charged with those as a juvenile. In fact, they began seeking certification on those charges as an adult, but what happened was, there was a plea hearing.

He had other charges that were pending, and based on the pleahearing, he pled to a burglary and an amended charge on the possession of dangerous weapon and was continued on parole in the juvenile system. So those weren't charges that were unsubstantiated or not gone forward on. They were simply dismissed as part of a negotiation. And so I would ask that the Court take into consideration that he does have those prior crimes of violences (phonetic).

He finished his parole and committed the crime in the instant offense approximately two and a half weeks after he was done with his juvenile parole. The night that this happened, Jared Flemming was having a birthday party. He has a very large family. It's a blended family, and he's got many brothers and sisters. And he had an older sister who was grown, out of the house and had her own apartment where she and her twin babies stayed, along with the babies' father.

And she -- Jared was going to turn 15 years old, and she said, you know, you can have your party here at my house. It was sort of his first grownup party without his parents present, and she was letting him have the apartment. There was another party actually going on at his parents' house for one of his younger siblings who was turning. I believe, two years old or somewhere around there.

So Jared's older sister Jasmine took her children, her babies over to her parents' house, left them there, picked up Jared and some of his friends and took them back to the apartment, helped them get set up for the party. As people started to arrive, she went back to her parents' house to be there with her kids and her sister or brother who was having the party. And she went back and forth and checked a few times on Jared and his friends. He hadn't had his birthday yet. He was still 14.

She checked the first time, and everything was fine. More people had showed up. Some other of Jared's older sisters and brothers were present -- I think his sisters, actually, were present at the party. And when Jasmine returned later in the night, things had gotten a little bit out of control. Some people who weren't invited had showed up. Some of the older kids had brought some alcohol to the party, and she shut things down. She said that everyone needed to leave because she was checking in and responsible for what was going on at the apartment, and she thought, okay, it's late, it's time for everybody to go.

One of the uninvited guests was the Defendant and some of his friends, who are a member of what he calls, I guess, a dance crew that goes by ATM, which stands for Addicted To Money. They had showed up at the party uninvited. It was a large apartment complex, and whether he heard the noise or what happened, he showed up uninvited and was basically causing a ruckus in the party. At one point one of the kids saw him lift up his shirt and display a gun.

And when Jasmine came home and told everybody to leave, he went outside with his friends, but they kind of stayed outside. Jasmine told Jared he had just a few friends who were going to stay the night, and she told Jared, you know, close the door, don't let anybody else in, and she and one of her sisters went -- they were going to go back to their parents' house to get trash bags to clean up from the party.

As they walked out, one of the companions of the Defendant made some comments to her. She didn't pay him any mind. You know, I think her sister maybe said something back, and they continued out to their car and started to drive off to the parents' house, which is when they heard the gunshots. She actually thought she was being shot at because of the exchange that had just happened outside the apartment. She had no idea that those were the shots that were shooting and killing her brother.

The Defendant, after Jasmine left, had gone back into the apartment. He walked into the apartment, he pulled out a gun, he pointed it at everyone and told them to get on the floor. What his ultimate intention was we may never know. I think it's very reasonable to assume that his intention was commit a robbery in that apartment and demand money from these individuals.

There were still some younger kids there. The youngest, I think, was 12 years old. They were in a side bedroom. They turned around and they saw the Defendant with the gun, and they got scared and hid underneath the cribs, Jasmine's children's cribs, because they were afraid of what the Defendant was going to do.

He had the gun pointed, and Jared, as probably most 14-year-olds did, he was scared, and he ran past the Defendant, and he ran out of the apartment. And as he was running, the Defendant took his gun, followed him outside and shot two to three times at Jared. He hit Jared in the back, and Jared was killed as he was running away.

There was absolutely no reason for the Defendant to go back into that apartment. The party was shut down. There was certainly no reason for him to shoot a scared 14-year-old boy in the back as he was fleeing.

I'm sure when Jared's parents found out what happened -- you know, parents worry about their kids. When they're little, they worry. You know, are they going to climb up on the couch and jump off and hurt themselves? We've got to keep them away from the pool or -- you know, as they get older, is he going to climb a tree and fall out and break his arm or -- you know, maybe riding his bike, get into an accident. They probably never imagined they be getting a phone call that their 14-year-old son was shot in the back and then to go to the hospital and find out that he died of those injuries.

It was an absolutely senseless crime, a crime that has affected this very large and loving family that will affect all of them for the rest of their lives. And not just them, but the other children who were in that apartment who witnessed what happened, who saw their friend, heard the friend get shot and killed, were themselves afraid and at risk. You know, he probably wouldn't appreciate me saying this, but the little 12-year-old, Tyjuan Bell, who's one of the named victims, he testified at the Grand Jury -- at one point he just broke down balling because of what had happened and the emotion of what had happened to him.

This was a horrible incident that occurred, and absolutely based on his record, based on his conduct that night, a life sentence is appropriate, and we would ask that you impose that sentence.

THE COURT: Thank you. Sir, is there anything that you'd like to say before your attorney speaks on your behalf?

THE DEFENDANT: All that -- no. All that that they say I got arrested on, that wasn't even what I got charged with. Nothing --

MR. COFFEE: I'll expound on that, Barron.

THE DEFENDANT: All right.

THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything else you'd like to say, sir?

THE DEFENDANT: I don't even want the deal because I took the deal, right -- I was forced to take this deal. Now I don't want it.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Coffee?

MR. COFFEE: Judge, this is a difficult case. The shooting is senseless. I agree with the District Attorney on that. I'm a little troubled that we feel the need to spin facts at a sentencing like this, but I suppose that's the nature of the business.

Barron Hamm showed up at a party and -- his record, by the way, as mentioned, things that he was arrested for that he hasn't been convicted for, a number of things. If the crimes were that serious, this Court is well aware how the criminal justice system works. There was an allegation of kidnapping at some point, for example. If it would've been a legitimate charge, I would've expected the State to do their job and push forward on that prosecution.

Perhaps certify him as an adult. That never happened.

He hadn't really been formally placed in juvenile detention for a significant period of time. He had been continued on probation. He comes from a tough area of town. There's question about that. He's had contact with law enforcement.

But on the night in question, one of Barron's friends got a text that there was a party, and the party was loud. There were a lot of people there. Barron showed up with ATM, which he has described continuously as a dance crew. I don't think there's any reason to doubt that. One of the officers in the police report say it sounds like a dance crew. It's not a gang. They're not jacking people. That's not what was going on.

He shows up at the party, and he buys a gun from somebody. We know that he buys a gun that night at the party because he tells his mom that in the police interview room when there's no one around. They don't think they're being heard. He's told the police, I'm not involved in things. He says, I got the gun that night from a friend. Somebody brought it at the party.

He leaves the party, and he's trying to avoid a confrontation with some other boys that he's had problems with the past. He goes back into the party. They try to stop him at the door, he walks back in, and he pulls out the gun. He says -- and I take issue with the State's claim that he says get down or -- witnesses at the scene, they are split on what he said. The witness closest to the scene say, he says calm down, calm down. The witness is very sure of that. There's no demand for money, nothing like that.

Barron has been -- he's 18, but he's not really 18. I think the Court knows that. He's been in special education classes. He is functioning at a level of a 12-year-old at best. He tries to the control the situation, tries to calm people down. Somebody runs, and he pulls off a shot. And the reason that I say it's a shot -- not shots -- is what the State said a moment go. There's one bullet that is found in the boy's body. This Court knows how homicide scenes work -- scenes work. They look for other shells, for other casings. There are no other shells or casings found at the scene. One that can be verified. He gets frightened and then he leaves.

When he's interviewed — he turns himself in, by the way, with an uncle to the police. They make calls trying to locate him. He's identified easily. It's not a planned event. That's pretty clear from everything we know about this. He is there at the party with people that know him. They identify him very easily. Calls are made, and his family brings him in. We've got family member after family member in the courtroom here with Barron today. They've all helped raise Barron to some extent, I think. They've all tried to take care of him for the better part of his life, done the best that he could.

He's placed in a police room, and he denies being involved. Not that big of a surprise. When his mother comes in -- and this is in the PSI, and I think it's very telling -- he says, "I did do that, Mom. I shot that boy. I got scared." And I think that's exactly what happened. He tried to control a situation. He's not the strongest-minded person in the world. Somebody ran, he got scared and fired a shot, and it had tragic consequences for another family that can never have their son back. It is a tragedy.

The Court's decision this morning comes down to one of two things, 20 to 52 years, 20 to life. I don't -- there's probably competing views on the different sides of the courtroom as to what the Court should do. He's never had a significant period of incarceration in his life. The Court knows that that can change, how a person acts, how a person feels. We'd ask you consider the sentence of 20 to 52 years given his youth, given the unplanned nature of this all, and it is most certainly unplanned if you look at the facts. There are tragic consequences, but we would ask the Court to give that sentence at least consideration.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anything else from the Defense?

MR. COFFEE: No, Judge.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. COFFEE: And we spoke with the family. They just want to express their condolences to the victim's family.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And do we have any speakers?

MS. JIMENEZ: We do, Judge. If I could check and confirm who exactly is going to speak.

THE COURT: Okay.

[Pause]

MS. JIMENEZ: In this court, do we have them stand up and have them speak?

THE COURT: That would be fine. In fact, if you put her --

MS. JIMENEZ: Wherever you'd like.

THE COURT: -- in that chair. I can just see better if she -- that's perfect. Ma'am, and you can go ahead and have a seat.

THE SPEAKER: Can I sit here?

THE COURT: That's fine, too. The Clerk is going to swear you in.

KAREN KENNEDY GRILL,

being first duly sworn as a speaker, testified as follows:

THE CLERK: Thank you. Would you state your name for the record.

MS. GRILL: My name is Karen Kennedy Grill. And, Your Honor, one bullet is all it takes to murder a 14-year-old boy. Jared Flemming is dead. He will never skateboard again. He will never smile and laugh and look into his father's eyes. His family will be without him. In their first thoughts every morning will be how shattered their lives are and how much they miss Jared, and their last thoughts at night will be the same, and they will live this day after day for the rest of their lives.

I believe the Defendant knows right from wrong. I believe he knows that's wrong to murder other people and shatter lives. His family will suffer every day, and they will never get Jared back, and we will think about Jared every day. I don't think it's fair that Jared's life was taken away and the Defendant has another chance at a life in a possible 20 years, to get and possibly murder somebody's child. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

[Pause]

MS. FLEMMING: Hi, Your Honor. I'm -- I'm Jared's mother.

THE COURT: Okay, ma'am. If you could come up, the clerk is just going to swear you in, and then you can say whatever you like.

MS. FLEMMING: Okay.

THE COURT: And after she's swears you, feel free to sit or stand, whatever you're more comfortable with.

THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.

KIMBERLY BROWN FLEMMING,

being first duly sworn as a speaker, testified as follows:

THE CLERK: Thank you. Please state your name for the record.

 MS. FLEMMING: My name is Kimberly Brown Flemming. I'm Jared's mother. This is my friend Jared. This is his last year of school in the 8th grade graduation. This is what I have left. He had just began 9th grade. I've written something that I'd like to read to you, please.

THE COURT: That's fine.

MS. FLEMMING: It started out this morning that Jared's father and siblings wanted to speak today. They wanted to let everyone know how much despair has entered our lives the very second we were told Jared is dead. But as they began write down their feelings of anguish, it turned down — it turned from sadness to anger, so I've decided that I will try my best to speak for our family.

For as long as I can remember, I have always tried to protect Jared from evil in this world. Jared had asthma. I was always so scared that something would happen to him during the night while I slept. So every night I would peek in on him while he slept in his room just to calm my mind that he was safe and breathing. I never dreamed I would ever receive a phone call from his sisters telling me my son has been shot.

I answered the phone at 1:00 a.m. in the morning to my daughter yelling at me, Kim, he's dead. He's dead. He's dead. Jared's dead. My mind instantly went to denial that it could be that serious of a situation. I figured maybe he'd been shot in the arm or in the leg, and my daughter was just panicking. My husband instantly drove to my oldest daughter's home to find his beloved son laying lifeless on the ground while an emergency medical response team worked relentlessly to revive him.

We later learned that Jared had been shot in the back, entering his lung on the right and exiting through his heart. His friends who attended his 15th birthday party that had ended only an hour previous to this witnessed Jared take three deep breaths and drop to the ground, never to breathe again. Later that same morning, Jared's father was so devastated, he attempted to kill himself. Luckily, a family member stopped him.

Jared's father and I have no doubt that Barron Hamm was the person that had murdered our son. We had only wished it had gone to trial so we, his parents, could've had some kind of understanding how this monster of a human could justify to himself to shoot not only once, but twice at a child whom he already knew was scared of him. Jared never tried to argue nor fight with Barron Hamm. My son was simply running for his life, and Barron Hamm cowardly shot him in the back.

Your Honor, I mean no disrespect to you, but our family has not only been let down by the loss of Jared, but we also feel we've been let down by the court in prosecuting this unremorseful animal that killed our son and my children's brother.

My son Jared will never graduate high school, let alone be able to go to college like he had planned. He will never get married, and he will never give me any grandchildren. I wish someone could help me to understand why an admitted murderer who intentionally brought a gun and brandished it to several teenagers threatening their lives and intentionally pointing that same gun at my 15-year-old son and shot once and missed, shot a second time hitting him in the back intentionally. How that can be considered second degree murder is a cop-out to our family.

How can giving him ten years in prison for a murder charge possibly make up for the death of any human? This monster who has no regard for human life will still get a chance to enjoy freedom, get married, possibly have a family in his future. This is -- this is like a spit in our face. I would have gladly made a deal that Barron Hamm can get out of prison in 10 to 20 years if you could bring my son back to me in 10 to 20 years.

Barron Hamm made a choice that day to condemn my son to death.

Jared's family did not expect to have this animal kill, but the idea of Barron

Hamm getting the possibly of walking freely on the streets again is unbelievable.

The one thing I would like to say to Barron Hamm is that Jared has nine other siblings that love, cherish and miss him dearly, not to mention an extended family and friends. Do not ever think you will be forgotten when it comes time for your parole hearing. God willing, Jared's father and myself, as well as every sibling, will be present at every hearing to try to forbid you from ever getting out.

I would like for everyone to know Jared was not a gang member as the media portrayed him at first. Jared was a loving son, brother and uncle. He was loyal to his friends and considerate to adults. He was characterized as amicable to his peers. He was recognized as a skilled drummer, dedicated skateboarder and had just begun playing high school football. He always spoke of college and dreamed about what the future could hold for him.

Our family will never again feel complete. Every holiday and celebration will hold tears and loneliness for his family and friends. I've always been there for Jared to defend him when I know he is innocent. This will be the final fight for him for at least 20 years, but I will never quit. Even after I die, you will -- Barron Hamm will see me in his nightmares knowing that I am still fighting for my son. As for Jared's father, his son meant the world to him, and that enjoyment will forever be gone. We loved Jared, and we miss him. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you. Ma'am, I'm sorry to you and your family for your loss.

MS. FLEMMING: Thank you.

THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Jimenez, anything else?

MS. JIMENEZ: No, Judge.

THE COURT: Okay. Sir, if you could please stand. Sir, in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada, on Count 1, second degree murder, I sentence you to life in the Nevada Department of Corrections with minimum parole eligibility after ten years has been served.

With regard to the weapon enhancement, I sentence you to a maximum of 20 years or 240 months in the Nevada Department of Corrections and a minimum of 96 months in the Nevada Department of Corrections. That sentence will run consecutively to the 10 to life. The reason for imposing the weapon enhancement is considering the factors under NRS 193.165.

First of all, the facts and circumstances of this crime, since it is a murder case, the maximum sentence on the weapon enhancement, I believe, is appropriate. Mr. Hamm does have a fairly significant juvenile record. Certainly, I cannot imagine a crime that would have more impact on the victim, Mr. Flemming, and his family. And based on that, I do think that the sentence and the weapon enhancement is appropriate considering all of the factors.

With respect to Count 2, assault with a deadly weapon, sir, I sentence you to a minimum of 24 months and a maximum of 72 months in the Nevada Department of Corrections, and that will run consecutively to Count 1.

I have -- you'll also be required to pay restitution to Victims of Violent Crimes in the amount of $6,000.

And Ms. Jimenez, I had some additional receipts, but I wasn't very clear on whether that was -- what the amount was in addition to the $6,000.

MS. JIMENEZ: It was sent directly to you. I don't think I got a copy of those. Could I just check with the family members and find out what it was that they sent? Thank you.

THE COURT: And, sir, while they're figuring that out, you'll also be required to pay a $25 administrative assessment fee and $150 DNA analysis fee. What's the credit for time served figure, Mr. Coffee?

MR. COFFEE: 375 days, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You'll receive 375 days credit for time served.

[Pause]

MS. JIMENEZ: Judge, I'm sorry, I'm going to need to do some math.

There is more expenses here. I'm going to have to pull this up and then just subtract the $6,000 --

THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to trail -- just trail it for a moment to get the restitution figure.

MS. JIMENEZ: Thank you.

[Matter trailed at 9:42 a.m.]

[Matter recalled at 9:48 a.m.]

THE COURT: Okay. Let's go back to Hamm for a minute. Ms. Jimenez, you have the amount minus the $6,000?

MS. JIMENEZ: Yes, I do, Judge. Just so the record has my math, there was a total of funeral expenses of $16,300.27. There was also a receipt for medical bills in the amount of $26,496. That totaled to $42,796.27. If you subtract the $6,000 that the Court has ordered be paid to Victims of Violent Crimes, the rest of the amount that is owed to the victim's family is $36,796.27.

THE COURT: Okay. So Mr. Hamm will also be ordered to pay restitution to the Flemming family in the amount of $36,796.27. Thank you.

[Proceedings concluded at 9:44 a.m.]

ATTEST: I do hereby certify that I have truly and correctly transcribed the audio-visual recording of the proceeding in the above entitled case to the best of my ability.

On July 22, 2009, an Indictment was filed charging Barron Hamm ("Defendant") as follows: COUNT 1 – Burglary while in Posession of a Firearm (Category B Felony – NRS 205.060); COUNT 2 – Assault with a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony – NRS 200.471); COUNT 3 – Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Category A Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); COUNT 4 – Carrrying Concealed Firearm or other Deadly Weapon (Category C Felony – NRS 202.350(1)(d)(3)). On March 12, 2010, an Amended Indictment was filed charging Defendant as follows: COUNT 1 – Second Degree Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Category A Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165) and COUNT 2 – Assault with a Deadly Weapon.

On March 12, 2010, Defendant pleaded guilty to the charges included in the Amended Indictment. A Guilty Plea Agreement was filed the same day. On May 14, 2010, Defendant was sentenced to a period of incarceration in the Nevada Department of Corrections as follows: COUNT 1 – Life, with a minimum parole eligibility of 10 years, plus a consecutive sentence of 240 months, minimum parole eligibility of 96 months for the use of a deadly weapon; COUNT 2 – 72 months, minimum parole eligibility of 24 months, to run consecutive to COUNT 1, with 375 days credit for time served. A Judgment of Conviction was filed May 20, 2010.

On August 5, 2010, Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal. Defendant's appeal was dismissed on September 10, 2010. Remittitur issued October 6, 2010.

On February 13, 2012, Defendant filed a Motion to Withdraw his Guilty Plea. The State filed an Opposition on February 22, 2012. Defendant's Motion was denied February 24, 2012.

On October 31, 2012, Defendant filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. The State filed a Response and Motion to Dismiss on November 14, 2012. On January 10, 2013, Defendant's Petition was denied. A Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order was filed January 29, 2013.

Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal from the dismissal of his Petition on February 22, 2013. The judgment of the District Court was affirmed by the Nevada Supreme Court on September 19, 2013. Remittitur issued October 17, 2013.

On April 10, 2014, Defendant filed another Motion to Withdraw his Guilty Plea. The State filed an Opposition on May 1, 2014. Defendant's Motion was denied May 5, 2014.

Defendant filed a Motion for Transcripts on October 3, 2014. The State filed an Opposition on October 8, 2014. On March 30, 2015, Defendant's Motion was granted.

Defendant filed the instant Motion to Vacate Sentence on June 23, 2015. The State's Opposition follows.

ARGUMENT

To the extent Defendant asks for a third time to withdraw his guilty plea, his Motion is not properly before the court and is precluded by the doctrine of res judicata. See Mason v. State, 206 S.W.3d 869, 875 (Ark. 2005) (recognizing the doctrine's applicability in the criminal context); see also York v. State, 342 S.W. 528, 553 (Tex. Crim. Appl. 2011). Defendant has on two prior occasions asked this Court to allow him to withdraw his plea. Those prior motions have been denied. Accordingly, by simply continuing to file motions with the same arguments, his motion is barred by the doctrine of res judicata. Id.; Hall v. State, 91 Nev. 314, 316, 535 P.2d 797, 799 (1975).

To the extent Defendant complains of delay in receiving certain transcripts this Court has granted his request for, the State takes no position other than that already outlined in its Opposition filed October 8, 2014. However, the State does point out that a delay in receiving transcripts is not grounds for vacating an otherwise proper sentence.

<sup>1</sup> The State also notes that Defendant's request is not raised in the proper context of a post-convoition Petititon for Writ of Habeas Corpus. See Harris v. State, 130 Nev. Adv. Rep. 47, 329 P.3d 619 (2014). This represents an independent reason to dismiss Defendant's instant Motion. See NRS 34.735.

FF	a The hearing in the instant case that is scheduled for July 15, 2015
CLERATOF SEE COLO	09C266384 LSF

In support of this Motion, I allege the following:

- 1. I am an inmate incarcerated at High Desert state prison.

  My mandatory release date is Life sed tence.
  - 2. The Department of Corrections is required to transport offenders to and from Court if an inmate is required or requests to appear before a Court in this state.

NRS 209.274 Transportation of Offender to Appear Before Court states:

- "1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, when an offender is required or requested to appear before a Court in this state, the Department shall transport the offender to and from Court on the day scheduled for his appearance.
- 2. If notice is not provided within the time set forth in NRS 50.215, the Department shall transport the offender to Court on the date scheduled for his appearance if it is possible to transport the offender in the usual manner for the transportation of offenders by the Department. If it is not possible for the Department to transport the offender in the usual manner:
- (a) The Department shall make the offender available on the date scheduled for his appearance to provide testimony by telephone or by video conference, if so requested by the Court.
- (b) The Department shall provide for special transportation of the offender to and from the Court, if the Court so orders. If the Court orders special transportation, it shall order the county in which the Court is located to reimburse the Department for any cost incurred for the special transportation.
- (c) The Court may order the county sheriff to transport the offender to and from the Court at the expense of the county."
- 3. My presence is required at the hearing because:

I AM NEEDED AS A WITNESS.

My petition raises substantial issues of fact concerning events in which I participated and about which only I can testify. See U.S. v. Hayman, 342 U.S. 205 (1952) (District Court erred when it made findings of fact concerning Hayman's knowledge and consent to his counsel's representation of a witness against Hayman without notice to Hayman or Hayman's presence at the evidentiary hearing).

THE HEARING WILL BE AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING.

My petition raises material issues of fact that can be determined only in my presence. See Walker v. Johnston, 312 U.S. 275 (1941) (government's contention that allegations are improbable and unbelievable cannot serve to deny the petitioner an opportunity to support them by evidence). The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the presence of the petitioner for habeas corpus relief is required at any evidentiary hearing conducted on the merits of the claim asserted in the petition. See Gebers v. Nevada, 118 Nev. 500 (2002).

- 4. The prohibition against ex parte communication requires that I be present at any hearing at which the state is present and at which issues concerning the claims raised in my petition are addressed. U.S. Const. amends. V, VI.
- 5. If a person incarcerated in a state prison is required or is requested to appear as a witness in any action, the Department of Corrections must be notified in writing not less than 7 business days before the date scheduled for his appearance in Court if the inmate is incarcerated in a prison located not more than 40 miles from Las Vegas. NRS 50.215(4). If a person is incarcerated in a prison located 41 miles or more from Las Vegas, the Department of Corrections must be notified in writing not less than 14 business days before the date scheduled for the person's appearance in Court.
  - 6. High Descrit State prison is located approximately miles from Las Vegas, Nevada.

CLERK OF SUFFRING COURT

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is an appeal from a district court order denying a motion to vacate sentence.<sup>1</sup> Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Elizabeth Goff Gonzalez, Judge.

In his motion to vacate sentence filed on June 23, 2015, appellant Barron Hamm challenged the denial of his request to withdraw his guilty plea and inferred that defense counsel provided ineffective assistance of counsel at sentencing. We construe a motion to vacate sentence as a motion to modify or correct an illegal sentence. Hamm's claims fell outside the narrow scope of claims permissible in a motion to modify or correct an illegal sentence. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). Therefore, without considering the merits

HDSR Respondent

INSTRUCTIONS:

(1) This petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten, signed by the petitioner and verified.

(2) Additional pages are not permitted except where noted or with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.

(3) If you want an attorney appointed, you must complete the Affidavit in Support of Request to Proceed in Forma Pauperis. You must have an authorized officer at the prison complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution.

(4) You must name as respondent the person by whom you are confined or restrained. If you are in a specific institution of the Department of Corrections, name the warden or head of the institution. If you are not in a specific institution of the Department but within its custody, name the Director of the Department of Corrections.

(5) You must include all grounds or claims for relief which you may have regarding your conviction or sentence. Failure to raise all grounds in this petition may preclude you from filing future petitions challenging your conviction and sentence.

(6) You must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition you file seeking relief from any conviction or sentence. Failure to allege specific facts rather than just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed. If your petition contains a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, that claim will operate to waive the attorneyclient privilege for the proceeding in which you claim your counsel was ineffective.

(7) When the petition is fully completed, the original and one copy must be filed with the clerk of the state district court for the county in which you were convicted. One copy must be mailed to the respondent, one copy to the Attorney General's Office, and one copy to the district attorney of the county in which you were convicted or to the original prosecutor if you are challenging your original conviction or sentence. Copies must conform in all particulars to the original submitted for filing.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On July 22, 2009, the State charged BARRON HAMM (hereinafter "Defendant") by way of indictment with: COUNT 1 – Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm (Felony – NRS 205.060); COUNT 2 – Assault with a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.471); COUNT 3 – Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); and COUNT 4 – Carrying Concealed Firearm or Other Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 202.350(1)(d)(3)).

On March 12, 2010, after negotiations, the State charged Defendant by way of Amended Indictment with: COUNT 1 – Second Degree Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Category A Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165) and COUNT 2 – Assault with a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony – NRS 200.471). That day, Defendant entered into a Guilty Plea Agreement (GPA) with the State wherein he pleaded guilty to both counts as charged in the Amended Indictment. The State retained the right to argue on the charge of Second Degree Murder. Both parties stipulated to a sentence of eight (8) to twenty (20) years for the deadly weapon enhancement, and to a sentence of twenty-four (24) to seventy-two (72) months for the charge of Assault with Use of a Deadly Weapon, and agreed to run that sentence consecutive to COUNT 1. The plea agreement was conditional on the district court agreeing to and following through with the stipulated portion of the sentence.

On May 14, 2010, Defendant appeared in court with counsel, was adjudged guilty, and was sentenced on COUNT 1 to a MAXIMUM term of LIFE with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TEN (10) YEARS in the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDC) plus a CONSECUTIVE term of a MAXIMUM of TWO HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of NINETY-SIX (96) MONTHS for use of a deadly weapon, and on COUNT 2 to a MAXIMUM term of SEVENTY-TWO (72) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS in the NDC, CONSECUTIVE to COUNT 1. THREE HUNDRED SEVENTY-FIVE (375) DAYS credit for time served. Defendant was also ordered to PAY $36,796.27 RESTITUTION to the family of the victim and $6,000.00 RESTITUTION to Victims of Violent Crimes. Judgment Of Conviction was filed on May 20, 2010.

On August 5, 2010, Defendant filed an untimely Notice Of Appeal from his Judgment Of Conviction. On September 10, 2010, the Supreme Court of Nevada dismissed Defendant's appeal for want of jurisdiction. Remittitur issued on October 6, 2010.

On February 13, 2012, Defendant filed a Motion To Withdraw Guilty Plea, which the State opposed on February 22, 2012. The district court denied Defendant's motion on February 24, 2012, and the order of denial was filed on May 7, 2012.

On October 31, 2012, Defendant filed a Petition For Writ Of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). The State filed its response and motion to dismiss Defendant's petition as time-barred with no good cause shown for the delay on November 14, 2012. On January 10, 2013, the district court denied Defendant's petition, entering its Findings Of Fact, Conclusions Of Law, And Order on January 29, 2013, and its notice of entry on February 4, 2013. Defendant filed a notice of appeal on February 22, 2013. On September 19, 2013, the Supreme Court affirmed the district court's denial of Defendant's petition, with remittitur issuing on October 17, 2013.

On June 23, 2015, Defendant filed a Motion to Vacate Sentence. The State responded on July 10, 2015. This Court denied the Motion on July 15, 2015. On August 19, 2015, Defendant appealed. The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed this Court's denial of Defendant's Motion to Vacate Sentence on February 17, 2016. Remittitur issued March 14, 2016.

On May 17, 2017, Defendant filed the instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Second Petition"). The State responds as follows:

ARGUMENT

I. THE SECOND PETITION IS TIME-BARRED

Defendant's Second Petition is time barred with no good cause shown for delay. Pursuant to NRS 34.726(1):

Unless there is good cause shown for delay, a petition that challenges the validity of a judgment or sentence must be filed within I year of the entry of the judgment of conviction or, if an appeal has been taken from the judgment, within I year after the Supreme Court issues its remittitur. For the purposes of this subsection, good cause for delay exists if the petitioner demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court:

(a) That the delay is not the fault of the petitioner; and

(b) That dismissal of the petition as untimely will unduly prejudice the petitioner.

The Supreme Court of Nevada has held that NRS 34.726 should be construed by its plain meaning. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 873-74, 34 P.3d 519, 528 (2001). As per the language of the statute, the one-year time bar proscribed by NRS 34.726 begins to run from the date the judgment of conviction is filed or a remittitur from a timely direct appeal is filed. Dickerson v. State, 114 Nev. 1084, 1087, 967 P.2d 1132, 1133-34 (1998).

The one-year time limit for preparing petitions for post-conviction relief under NRS 34.726 is strictly applied. In Gonzales v. State, 118 Nev. 590, 596, 53 P.3d 901, 904 (2002), the Nevada Supreme Court rejected a habeas petition that was filed two days late despite evidence presented by the defendant that he purchased postage through the prison and mailed the Notice within the one-year time limit.

Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that the district court has a duty to consider whether a defendant's post-conviction petition claims are procedurally barred. State v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005). The Riker Court found that "[a]pplication of the statutory procedural default rules to post-conviction habeas petitions is mandatory," noting:

Habeas corpus petitions that are filed many years after conviction are an unreasonable burden on the criminal justice system. The necessity for a workable system dictates that there must exist a time when a criminal conviction is final.

Id. Additionally, the Court noted that procedural bars "cannot be ignored [by the district court] when properly raised by the State." Id. at 233, 112 P.3d at 1075. The Nevada Supreme Court has granted no discretion to the district courts regarding whether to apply the statutory procedural bars; the rules must be applied.

A showing of good cause and prejudice may overcome procedural bars. "To establish good cause, appellants must show that an impediment external to the defense prevented their compliance with the applicable procedural rule. A qualifying impediment might be shown where the factual or legal basis for a claim was not reasonably available at the time of default." Clem v. State, 119 Nev. 615, 621, 81 P.3d 521, 525 (2003) (emphasis added). The Court continued, "appellants cannot attempt to manufacture good cause[.]" Id. at 621, 81 P.3d at 526. In order to establish prejudice, the defendant must show "not merely that the errors of [the proceedings] created possibility of prejudice, but that they worked to his actual and substantial disadvantage, in affecting the state proceedings with error of constitutional dimensions." Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 960, 860 P.2d 710, 716 (1993) (quoting United States v. Frady, 456 U.S. 152, 170, 102 S. Ct. 1584, 1596 (1982)). To find good cause there must be a "substantial reason; one that affords a legal excuse." Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (quoting Colley v. State, 105 Nev. 235, 236, 773 P.2d 1229, 1230 (1989)). Clearly, any delay in the filing of the petition must not be the fault of the petitioner. NRS 34.726(1)(a).

In the instant case, a Judgment of Conviction was entered on May 20, 2010. Remittitur from Defendant's first appeal issued on October 6, 2010. Therefore, Defendant had until October 6, 2011 to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Because Defendant's instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus is presented well outside the one year time bar, the Petition must be dismissed. Additionally, Defendant offers no argument, and can offer no argument, demonstrating why the issues raised could not have been raised previously. Additionally, Defendant cites no law, and offers no argument, as to why the time-bar should not be applied or whether he was prejudiced. Claims unsupported by legal citations will not be considered by this Court. See NRAP 28(a)(9)(A), (j); Edwards v. Emperor's Garden Rest., 122 Nev. 317, 330 n.38, 130 P.3d 1280, 1288 n.38 (2006); Dept. of Motor Vehicles and Public Safety v. Rowland, 107 Nev. 475, 479, 814 P.2d 80, 83 (1991) (unsupported arguments are summarily rejected); Randall v. Salvation Army, 100 Nev. 466, 470-71, 686 P.2d 241, 244 (1984) (court may decline consideration of issues lacking citation to relevant legal authority).

Because the Petition is untimely, and because Defendant can demonstrate neither good cause nor prejudice, Defendant's Second Petition should be denied.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER

DATE OF HEARING: JULY 24, 2017. TIME OF HEARING: 9:00 A.M.

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable KENNETH CORY, District Judge, on the 24th day of July, 2017, the Petitioner not being present, PROCEEDING IN PROPER PERSON, the Respondent being represented by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, by and through NOREEN DEMONTE, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

On July 22, 2009, the State charged BARRON HAMM (hereinafter "Defendant") by way of indictment with: COUNT 1 – Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm (Felony – NRS 205.060); COUNT 2 – Assault with a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.471); COUNT

3 - Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); and COUNT 4 - Carrying Concealed Firearm or Other Deadly Weapon (Felony - NRS 202.350(1)(d)(3)).

On March 12, 2010, after negotiations, the State charged Defendant by way of Amended Indictment with: COUNT 1 – Second Degree Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Category A Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165) and COUNT 2 – Assault with a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony – NRS 200.471). That day, Defendant entered into a Guilty Plea Agreement (GPA) with the State wherein he pleaded guilty to both counts as charged in the Amended Indictment. The State retained the right to argue on the charge of Second Degree Murder. The plea agreement was conditional on the district court agreeing to and following through with the stipulated portion of the sentence.

On May 14, 2010, Defendant appeared in court with counsel, was adjudged guilty, and was sentenced on COUNT 1 to a MAXIMUM term of LIFE with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TEN (10) YEARS in the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDC) plus a CONSECUTIVE term of a MAXIMUM of TWO HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of NINETY-SIX (96) MONTHS for use of a deadly weapon, and on COUNT 2 to a MAXIMUM term of SEVENTY-TWO (72) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS in the NDC, CONSECUTIVE to COUNT 1. THREE HUNDRED SEVENTY-FIVE (375) DAYS credit for time served. Defendant was also ordered to PAY $36,796.27 RESTITUTION to the family of the victim and $6,000.00 RESTITUTION to Victims of Violent Crimes. Judgment Of Conviction was filed on May 20, 2010.

On August 5, 2010, Defendant filed an untimely Notice Of Appeal from his Judgment Of Conviction. On September 10, 2010, the Supreme Court of Nevada dismissed Defendant's appeal for want of jurisdiction. Remittitur issued on October 6, 2010.

On February 13, 2012, Defendant filed a Motion To Withdraw Guilty Plea, which the State opposed on February 22, 2012. The district court denied Defendant's motion on February 24, 2012, and the order of denial was filed on May 7, 2012.

On October 31, 2012, Defendant filed a Petition For Writ Of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). The State filed its response and motion to dismiss Defendant's petition as timebarred with no good cause shown for the delay on November 14, 2012. On January 10, 2013, the district court denied Defendant's petition, entering its Findings Of Fact, Conclusions Of Law, And Order on January 29, 2013, and its notice of entry on February 4, 2013. Defendant filed a notice of appeal on February 22, 2013. On September 19, 2013, the Supreme Court affirmed the district court's denial of Defendant's petition, with remittitur issuing on October 17, 2013.

On June 23, 2015, Defendant filed a Motion to Vacate Sentence. The State responded on July 10, 2015. This Court denied the Motion on July 15, 2015. On August 19, 2015, Defendant appealed. The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed this Court's denial of Defendant's Motion to Vacate Sentence on February 17, 2016. Remittitur issued March 14, 2016.

On May 17, 2017, Defendant filed the instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Second Petition"). The State Responded on July 11, 2017. On July 24, 2017, this Court DENIED the petition for the following reasons:

DEFENDANT'S PETITION IS PROCEDURALLY BARRED PURSUANT TO NRS 34.726

Defendant's Second Petition is time barred with no good cause shown for delay. Pursuant to NRS 34.726(1):

> Unless there is good cause shown for delay, a petition that challenges the validity of a judgment or sentence must be filed within I year of the entry of the judgment of conviction or, if an appeal has been taken from the judgment, within I year after the Supreme Court issues its remittitur. For the purposes of this subsection, good cause for delay exists if the petitioner demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court:

(a) That the delay is not the fault of the petitioner; and

(b) That dismissal of the petition as untimely will unduly prejudice the petitioner.

The Supreme Court of Nevada has held that NRS 34.726 should be construed by its plain meaning. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 873-74, 34 P.3d 519, 528 (2001). As per the language of the statute, the one-year time bar proscribed by NRS 34.726 begins to run from the date the judgment of conviction is filed or a remittitur from a timely direct appeal is filed. Dickerson v. State, 114 Nev. 1084, 1087, 967 P.2d 1132, 1133-34 (1998).

The one-year time limit for preparing petitions for post-conviction relief under NRS 34.726 is strictly applied. In Gonzales v. State, 118 Nev. 590, 596, 53 P.3d 901, 904 (2002), the Nevada Supreme Court rejected a habeas petition that was filed two days late despite evidence presented by the defendant that he purchased postage through the prison and mailed the Notice within the one-year time limit.

Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that the district court has a duty to consider whether a defendant's post-conviction petition claims are procedurally barred. State v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005). The Riker Court found that "[a]pplication of the statutory procedural default rules to postconviction habeas petitions is mandatory," noting:

> Habeas corpus petitions that are filed many years after conviction are an unreasonable burden on the criminal justice system. The necessity for a workable system dictates that there must exist a time when a criminal conviction is final.

Id. Additionally, the Court noted that procedural bars "cannot be ignored [by the district court] when properly raised by the State." Id. at 233, 112 P.3d at 1075. The Nevada Supreme Court has granted no discretion to the district courts regarding whether to apply the statutory procedural bars; the rules must be applied.

A showing of good cause and prejudice may overcome procedural bars. "To establish good cause, appellants must show that an impediment external to the defense prevented their compliance with the applicable procedural rule. A qualifying impediment might be shown where the factual or legal basis for a claim was not reasonably available at the time of default." Clem v. State, 119 Nev. 615, 621, 81 P.3d 521, 525 (2003) (emphasis added). The Court continued, "appellants cannot attempt to manufacture good cause[.]" Id. at 621, 81 P.3d at 526.

In order to establish prejudice, the defendant must show "not merely that the errors of [the proceedings] created possibility of prejudice, but that they worked to his actual and substantial disadvantage, in affecting the state proceedings with error of constitutional dimensions." Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 960, 860 P.2d 710, 716 (1993) (quoting United States v. Frady, 456 U.S. 152, 170, 102 S. Ct. 1584, 1596 (1982)). To find good cause there must be a "substantial reason; one that affords a legal excuse." Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (quoting Colley v. State, 105 Nev. 235, 236, 773 P.2d 1229, 1230 (1989)). Clearly, any delay in the filing of the petition must not be the fault of the petitioner. NRS 34.726(1)(a). In the instant case, a Judgment of Conviction was entered on May 20, 2010. Remittitur from Defendant's first appeal issued on October 6, 2010. Therefore, Defendant had until October 6, 2011 to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Because Defendant's instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus is presented well outside the one year time bar, the Petition must be dismissed. Additionally, Defendant offers no argument, and can offer no argument, demonstrating why the issues raised could not have been raised previously. Additionally, Defendant cites no law, and offers no argument, as to why the time-bar should not be applied or whether he was prejudiced. Claims unsupported by legal citations will not be considered by this Court. See NRAP 28(a)(9)(A), (j); Edwards v. Emperor's Garden Rest., 122 Nev. 317, 330 n.38, 130 P.3d 1280, 1288 n.38 (2006); Dept. of Motor Vehicles and Public Safety v. Rowland, 107 Nev. 475, 479, 814 P.2d 80, 83 (1991) (unsupported arguments are summarily rejected); Randall v. Salvation Army, 100 Nev. 466, 470-71, 686 P.2d 241, 244 (1984) (court may decline consideration of issues lacking citation to relevant legal authority).

Because the Petition is untimely, and because Defendant can demonstrate neither good cause nor prejudice, Defendant's Second Petition is denied.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER

DATE OF HEARING: JULY 24, 2017. TIME OF HEARING: 9:00 A.M.

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable KENNETH CORY, District Judge, on the 24th day of July, 2017, the Petitioner not being present, PROCEEDING IN PROPER PERSON, the Respondent being represented by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, by and through NOREEN DEMONTE, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

On July 22, 2009, the State charged BARRON HAMM (hereinafter "Defendant") by way of indictment with: COUNT 1 – Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm (Felony – NRS 205.060); COUNT 2 – Assault with a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.471); COUNT

3 - Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); and COUNT 4 - Carrying Concealed Firearm or Other Deadly Weapon (Felony - NRS 202.350(1)(d)(3)).

On March 12, 2010, after negotiations, the State charged Defendant by way of Amended Indictment with: COUNT 1 – Second Degree Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Category A Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165) and COUNT 2 – Assault with a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony – NRS 200.471). That day, Defendant entered into a Guilty Plea Agreement (GPA) with the State wherein he pleaded guilty to both counts as charged in the Amended Indictment. The State retained the right to argue on the charge of Second Degree Murder. Both parties stipulated to a sentence of eight (8) to twenty (20) years for the deadly weapon enhancement, and to a sentence of twenty-four (24) to seventy-two (72) months for the charge of Assault with Use of a Deadly Weapon, and agreed to run that sentence consecutive to COUNT 1. The plea agreement was conditional on the district court agreeing to and following through with the stipulated portion of the sentence.

On May 14, 2010, Defendant appeared in court with counsel, was adjudged guilty, and was sentenced on COUNT 1 to a MAXIMUM term of LIFE with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TEN (10) YEARS in the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDC) plus a CONSECUTIVE term of a MAXIMUM of TWO HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of NINETY-SIX (96) MONTHS for use of a deadly weapon, and on COUNT 2 to a MAXIMUM term of SEVENTY-TWO (72) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS in the NDC, CONSECUTIVE to COUNT 1. THREE HUNDRED SEVENTY-FIVE (375) DAYS credit for time served. Defendant was also ordered to PAY $36,796.27 RESTITUTION to the family of the victim and $6,000.00 RESTITUTION to Victims of Violent Crimes. Judgment Of Conviction was filed on May 20, 2010.

On August 5, 2010, Defendant filed an untimely Notice Of Appeal from his Judgment Of Conviction. On September 10, 2010, the Supreme Court of Nevada dismissed Defendant's appeal for want of jurisdiction. Remittitur issued on October 6, 2010.

On February 13, 2012, Defendant filed a Motion To Withdraw Guilty Plea, which the State opposed on February 22, 2012. The district court denied Defendant's motion on February 24, 2012, and the order of denial was filed on May 7, 2012.

On October 31, 2012, Defendant filed a Petition For Writ Of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). The State filed its response and motion to dismiss Defendant's petition as time-barred with no good cause shown for the delay on November 14, 2012. On January 10, 2013, the district court denied Defendant's petition, entering its Findings Of Fact, Conclusions Of Law, And Order on January 29, 2013, and its notice of entry on February 4, 2013. Defendant filed a notice of appeal on February 22, 2013. On September 19, 2013, the Supreme Court affirmed the district court's denial of Defendant's petition, with remittitur issuing on October 17, 2013.

On June 23, 2015, Defendant filed a Motion to Vacate Sentence. The State responded on July 10, 2015. This Court denied the Motion on July 15, 2015. On August 19, 2015, Defendant appealed. The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed this Court's denial of Defendant's Motion to Vacate Sentence on February 17, 2016. Remittitur issued March 14, 2016.

On May 17, 2017, Defendant filed the instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Second Petition"). The State Responded on July 11, 2017. On July 24, 2017, this Court DENIED the petition for the following reasons:

DEFENDANT'S PETITION IS PROCEDURALLY BARRED PURSUANT TO NRS 34.726

Defendant's Second Petition is time barred with no good cause shown for delay. Pursuant to NRS 34.726(1):

Unless there is good cause shown for delay, a petition that challenges the validity of a judgment or sentence must be filed within I year of the entry of the judgment of conviction or, if an appeal has been taken from the judgment, within I year after the Supreme Court issues its remittitur. For the purposes of this subsection, good cause for delay exists if the petitioner demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court:

(a) That the delay is not the fault of the petitioner; and

(b) That dismissal of the petition as untimely will unduly prejudice the petitioner.

The Supreme Court of Nevada has held that NRS 34.726 should be construed by its plain meaning. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 873-74, 34 P.3d 519, 528 (2001). As per the language of the statute, the one-year time bar proscribed by NRS 34.726 begins to run from the date the judgment of conviction is filed or a remittitur from a timely direct appeal is filed. Dickerson v. State, 114 Nev. 1084, 1087, 967 P.2d 1132, 1133-34 (1998).

The one-year time limit for preparing petitions for post-conviction relief under NRS 34.726 is strictly applied. In Gonzales v. State, 118 Nev. 590, 596, 53 P.3d 901, 904 (2002), the Nevada Supreme Court rejected a habeas petition that was filed two days late despite evidence presented by the defendant that he purchased postage through the prison and mailed the Notice within the one-year time limit.

Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that the district court has a duty to consider whether a defendant's post-conviction petition claims are procedurally barred. State v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005). The Riker Court found that "[a]pplication of the statutory procedural default rules to post-conviction habeas petitions is mandatory," noting:

Habeas corpus petitions that are filed many years after conviction are an unreasonable burden on the criminal justice system. The necessity for a workable system dictates that there must exist a time when a criminal conviction is final.

Id. Additionally, the Court noted that procedural bars "cannot be ignored [by the district court] when properly raised by the State." Id. at 233, 112 P.3d at 1075. The Nevada Supreme Court has granted no discretion to the district courts regarding whether to apply the statutory procedural bars; the rules must be applied.

A showing of good cause and prejudice may overcome procedural bars. "To establish good cause, appellants must show that an impediment external to the defense prevented their compliance with the applicable procedural rule. A qualifying impediment might be shown where the factual or legal basis for a claim was not reasonably available at the time of default." Clem v. State, 119 Nev. 615, 621, 81 P.3d 521, 525 (2003) (emphasis added). The Court continued, "appellants cannot attempt to manufacture good cause[.]" Id. at 621, 81 P.3d at 526.

In order to establish prejudice, the defendant must show "not merely that the errors of [the proceedings] created possibility of prejudice, but that they worked to his actual and substantial disadvantage, in affecting the state proceedings with error of constitutional dimensions." Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 960, 860 P.2d 710, 716 (1993) (quoting United States v. Frady, 456 U.S. 152, 170, 102 S. Ct. 1584, 1596 (1982)). To find good cause there must be a "substantial reason; one that affords a legal excuse." Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (quoting Colley v. State, 105 Nev. 235, 236, 773 P.2d 1229, 1230 (1989)). Clearly, any delay in the filing of the petition must not be the fault of the petitioner. NRS 34.726(1)(a). In the instant case, a Judgment of Conviction was entered on May 20, 2010. Remittitur from Defendant's first appeal issued on October 6, 2010. Therefore, Defendant had until October 6, 2011 to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Because Defendant's instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus is presented well outside the one year time bar, the Petition must be dismissed. Additionally, Defendant offers no argument, and can offer no argument, demonstrating why the issues raised could not have been raised previously. Additionally, Defendant cites no law, and offers no argument, as to why the time-bar should not be applied or whether he was prejudiced. Claims unsupported by legal citations will not be considered by this Court. See NRAP 28(a)(9)(A), (j); Edwards v. Emperor's Garden Rest., 122 Nev. 317, 330 n.38, 130 P.3d 1280, 1288 n.38 (2006); Dept. of Motor Vehicles and Public Safety v. Rowland, 107 Nev. 475, 479, 814 P.2d 80, 83 (1991) (unsupported arguments are summarily rejected); Randall v. Salvation Army, 100 Nev. 466, 470-71, 686 P.2d 241, 244 (1984) (court may decline consideration of issues lacking citation to relevant legal authority).

Because the Petition is untimely, and because Defendant can demonstrate neither good cause nor prejudice, Defendant's Second Petition is denied.

Grand Jury Case # 09AGJ036X

Exhibit # 2

Date 7/14/09

Every person who, by day or night, enters any house, room or apartment with the intent to commit assault therein has committed the crime of Burglary.

"Assault" means intentionally placing another person in reasonable apprehension of immediate bodily harm.

INSTRUCTION NO.

It is not necessary that the State prove the defendant actually committed an assault inside the house, room or apartment, after he entered in order for you to find he has committed the crime of burglary. The gist of the crime of burglary is the unlawful entry with criminal intent. Therefore, a burglary was committed if the defendant entered the house, room or apartment with the intent to commit an assault regardless of whether or not that crime occurred.

INSTRUCTION NO.

Consent to enter is not a defense to the crime of burglary so long as it is shown that entry was made with the specific intent to commit an assault therein.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Every person who commits the crime of burglary, who has in his possession or gains possession of any firearm or deadly weapon at any time during the commission of the crime, at any time before leaving the structure, or upon leaving the structure, has committed the crime of burglary while in possession of a weapon.

TNS'	TRI	1CT	ION	NO.
41.7	1177	/ U	101	1.1

"Deadly weapon" means any instrument which, if used in the ordinary manner contemplated by its design and construction, will or is likely to cause substantial bodily harm or death, or, any weapon, device, instrument, material or substance which, under the circumstances in which it is used, attempted to be used or threatened to be used, is readily capable of causing substantial bodily harm or death.

INSTRU	JCTION NO.	,

An Assault With a Deadly Weapon is an intentional placing of another person in reasonable apprehension of immediate bodily harm, by or through the use of a deadly weapon.

To constitute an assault, it is not necessary that any actual injury be inflicted.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

Murder is the unlawful killing of a human being, with malice aforethought, either express or implied. The unlawful killing may be effected by any of the various means by which death may be occasioned.

INSTRUCTION NO. ____

Malice aforethought means the intentional doing of a wrongful act without legal cause or excuse or what the law considers adequate provocation. The condition of mind described as malice aforethought may arise, from anger, hatred, revenge, or from particular ill will, spite or grudge toward the person killed. It may also arise from any unjustifiable or unlawful motive or purpose to injure another, proceeding from a heart fatally bent on mischief or with reckless disregard of consequences and social duty. Malice aforethought does not imply deliberation or the lapse of any considerable time between the malicious intention to injure another and the actual execution of the intent but denotes an unlawful purpose and design as opposed to accident and mischance.

---------------	----

Express malice is that deliberate intention unlawfully to take away the life of a fellow creature, which is manifested by external circumstances capable of proof.

Malice may be implied when no considerable provocation appears, or when all the circumstances of the killing show an abandoned and malignant heart.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

There are certain kinds of murder which carry with them conclusive evidence of malice aforethought. One of these classes of murder is murder committed in the perpetration or attempted perpetration of burglary. Therefore, a killing which is committed in the perpetration of a burglary is deemed to be murder of the first degree, whether the killing was intentional or unintentional or accidental. This is called the Felony-Murder rule.

The specific intent to perpetrate or attempt to perpetrate burglary must be proven by slight or marginal evidence for purposes of this grand jury hearing.

INSTRU	CTION	NO.

Every person found to be carrying any pistol, revolver, firearm or other dangerous or deadly weapon concealed on his person is guilty of the crime of Carrying a Concealed Weapon.

INSTRUCTION NO.
-----------------	--

"Concealed Weapon" means any pistol, revolver, firearm or other dangerous or deadly weapon, whether loaded or unloaded, which is carried upon a person in such a manner as not to be discernible by ordinary observation.

"Carrying upon a person" means actually on the person or in a container carried by the person.
