1 COMES NOW, Appellant Bryan Ferguson, and hereby files the
2 following Reply to Respondent LUMPO's Answering Brief, pursuant
3 to the NRAP, the April 12, 2010 Order of the Court, and the
4 Relief requested in Ferguson's concurrently filed motion as follows:

6 A. LUMPO failed to Address what felony or felonies the
7 $28,000 in deposits from July 2006 to September 2006
8 were attributable to:

9 Starting at page 20 of the Answering Brief, and continuing
10 until page 23, line 2, LUMPO fails to Answer this Court's
11 question. The failure to respond should be considered a
12 confession of error entitling Ferguson relief as to this issue.

13 Simply stated, LUMPO recycles the very same failed
14 factual and legal points raised and rejected by this Court
15 in Ferguson v. LUMPO, 364 P.3d 592, 594 (Ariz. 2015).

16 Both the LUMPO and the lower court assumed that all
17 LUMPO had to do to prevail on a second motion for summary
18 judgment was to present to the lower court "this Court elected
19 not to review... in the first appeal." Answering Brief, page 2.

20 So, LUMPO presented those "certain documents" to the lower
21 court who then rubber stamped its ruling in LUMPO's favor.

22 However, this court astutely picked up in this flaw of 23 logic, reason, fact, evidence and lower court deficiency and asked
24 LUMPO to respond. Their response is lacking.

25 LUMPO points to NRS 179 and convictions not meeting the 26 date parameters set by this Court. Then it makes the blanket
27 statement "that all of Ferguson's felonies provide the basis for

1 "forfeiture" (Id. at pp. 20-21) which is non-responsive.

2 Next LUMP throws around the term "Bonglary Ring" and
3 launches into a analysis of conspiracy and then Federal (4th Cir.)
4 and an Alabama state case. Irrelevant, non-responsive, and not,
5 arguendo, binding on this Court. (Id. at pp. 22-23)

6 At what hearing held in the lower court was Ferguson allowed to 7 respond to the "observations" made and alluded to at pp. 22-23.

8 As Ferguson has maintained the whole time, how can a so-called 9 Bonglary Ring in which he was not charged with Bonglary but 10 possession of stolen property and for which no restriction was 11 ordered or owed in his judgment of conviction (all property
12 recovered) form the basis for forfeiture?

13 How many more years, pleadings, hearings, appeals and 14 chances with LUMPO he gives? Since there is no analysis
15 or reference to the so-called unreviewed documents from the 1st
16 appeal in the answer to the Court's question in the 2nd the 17 answer should be none and the forfeiture of the $28,000⁰⁰ overturned.

19 B. LUMPO failed to address what record evidence there is
20 to indicate that the remaining account balance accrued
21 from large-scale cash deposits that were made while the
22 bonglary ring was active

23 Ferguson incorporates argument A, supra, as though fully set forth
24 herein, and to that, adds the following.

25 LUMPO spends exactly a page and 1/2 on question 2. See,
26 pp. 23-24. Non-responsive, recycled and conclusory, it does
27 not provide the basis for forfeiture of the remaining seized monies.

¹ U.S. v. Thomas, 913 F.2d 1111 (4th Cir. 1990) was specifically rejected by this Court in Ferguson at 599, as was the conspiracy arguments. Id.

1 The jailhouse conversation cited to at p. 23, is hardly "new" and
2 does not meet the "clear and convincing evidence" standard as articulated
3 in Ferguson at pages 595-596.

4 Nor does the Answering Brief overcome the very same problems
5 outlined in Ferguson

6 1. The state presented the district court with no evidence that the 7 stolen property had been converted to money and that such money
8 "came to rest in Ferguson's seized bank accounts. Id at 596.

9 2. That Ferguson's bank account was not relevant to the crimes
10 with which he was charged. Id - at 597.

11 3. None of the trial testimony offered by the state in support
12 of summary judgment refers to Ferguson's bank account, any
13 possession of cash by Ferguson, or any conversion of stolen
14 property to proceeds by Ferguson. Id at 598

15 4. The state offered no evidence that Ferguson's bank account
16 contained proceeds of anyone's criminal activity. Id at 599

17 The conclusory statement that
18 This exchange makes it abundantly clear that Ferguson had
19 "put away" cash from the burglary ring based on the pattern
20 of selling the stolen property before the next weekend.

21 Answering Brief at p. 23
22 Does not make it so, nor qualify as "clear and convincing
23 evidence" of, well, anything, under NRS 179.1164, Schoka,
24 and U.S. v. Corrado, specifically REJECTED by this Court
25 in Ferguson at p. 599.

26 III
27 III

28 Ferguson acknowledges footnote Page 4 4 and the additional "documents" submitted but simply contends none of them "indicate that the amounts seized from Ferguson's account were attributable to felonies allegedly committed by Ferguson." Id. at 594

CONCLUSION

In Summary, this Court shall overturn the District Court's granting of Summary Judgment in favor of LUMPA as LUMPA failed in it's answering brief to adequately respond to the two questions it was asked to answer and brief, it recycled the same facts, law, and argument rejected in this Court's Ferguson decision, and failed to meet the burdens outlined in Ferguson and set forth in this Reply.

Respectfully submitted this 6 day of August, 2018.
