CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING MOTION IN PART

Appellant has filed a motion for a second extension of time (100 days) to file the opening brief and appendix. In support of the motion, counsel notes that the record in this matter is lengthy, explains that appellant was just mailed the transcripts and needs time to review them and discuss them with counsel, and cites her caseload. While we appreciate the demands of counsel's caseload and the length of the record in this matter, we are not convinced that such a lengthy extension of time is warranted for those reasons or to allow appellant time to review the transcripts. Accordingly, we grant the motion in part. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Appellant shall have until June 15, 2018, to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. No further extensions of time shall be permitted absent demonstration of extraordinary circumstances and extreme need. Id. Counsel's caseload normally will not be deemed such a circumstance. Cf. Varnum v. Grady, 90 Nev. 374, 528 P.2d 1027 (1974). Failure to timely file the opening brief and appendix may result in the imposition of sanctions.

It is so ORDERED.
