7 matter.

8 On May 13, 2016, the Okada Parties provided an Excel spreadsheet of all documents they 9 believe fell within the Court's directive. Upon request, on May 16, the Okada Parties provided an 10 updated spreadsheet that differentiated between the MPDPA documents and the Macau law
11 documents. On June 3, 2016, the Wynn Parties provided the Court for in camera review the 12 documents that have been withheld or redacted on the basis of Macau law only, to the extent they 13 exist in the United States. And now, on June 10, 2016, the Wynn Parties have provided the Court
14 for in camera review documents related to the Macau Personal Data Privacy Act (the "MPDPA").

15 Wynn Resorts produced in this action approximately 2,181 documents that were in the 16 possession of non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau) S.A. ("WRMSA"). Because they are WRMSA
17 documents, WRMSA is bound by the MPDPA. And because WRMSA's documents were reviewed 18 and produced out of Macau, they contained redactions based upon the MPDPA, unless a written 19 consent was provided.¹

20 Wynn Resorts searched for ESI duplicates (e.g., same MD5 hash) that appeared in both the 21 United States and Macau databases before the Macau review commenced, and de-duplicated the 22 documents. Therefore, any exact duplicate that appeared in both the United States and Macau was 23 reviewed and (if responsive) produced out of the United States only.

25 ¹ WRMSA ultimately obtained 68 consents under the MPDPA for this action, and the related 26 state and federal derivative actions, many of which are from individuals who most frequently appear
27 on the responsive documents. (Wynn Resorts, Limited's Opposition To The Aruze Parties' Motion
28 To Compel Production Of Wynn Resorts, Limited's Improperly Redacted Documents, And Motion
For Sanctions And Attorneys' Fees, filed on May 2, 2016, p. 13, n.7; Ex. 1 thereto Spinelli Decl. ¶
8.) Counsel for the Okada Parties refused to provide consent. (Id. at Ex. 15.)

1 Content duplicates are more difficult to locate because it must be manually done. Since the 2 Court's directive, Wynn Resorts searched for content-duplicates (as opposed to ESI duplicates) for 3 all or part of each WRMSA document produced in this action. The Wynn Parties completed a
4 search for content-duplicates in the United States, and identified documents that had already been 5 produced and located some near-content-duplicates that had not been produced out of the United 6 States.²

7 With this Notice, the Wynn Parties provided to the Court for in camera review a series of 8 binders containing each WRMSA document produced in this action. Where there is a full or partial 9 content-duplicate document produced out of the United States without MPDPA redactions, that 10 unredacted (for MPDPA) document appears in the binders immediately following the redacted 11 WRMSA document.³ All documents are Bates numbered.

12 Per the Court's directive, the Wynn Parties also provided a chart that cross-references
13 content-duplicates and near content-duplicates produced out of the United States. (Exhibit 1.) This 14 chart identifies individual members of a document family, and for each member of the document
15 family, whether a duplicate was produced from the United States, a near match was produced from 16 the United States, that no duplicate or near match was located in the United States, or the WRMSA
17 had no MPDPA redaction in the first instance.

24 ² To ensure a timely production of all documents to the Court today, Friday, June 10, a
25 supplemental disclosure and production will be served on the parties on Monday, June 13, 2016.

26 ³ To the extent the United States version was produced as a native document without 27 redactions, the binders will include a slip sheet identifying that the document was produced in native
28 format. The Okada Parties were provided the native version at the time of service. If necessary, the Wynn Parties can provide the Court with the native version.

1 A summary of the search results is as follows:

- 2 • 137 documents have been produced in full, unredacted form by Wynn Resorts
3 because they existed in the United States;
4 • 586 documents have a partial United States, unredacted counterpart produced by 5 Wynn Resorts because they existed in the United States;
6 • 2140 documents have no content-duplicate that could be located in the United 7 States; and
8 • 109 documents have no MPDPA redactions.⁴

25 ⁴ In compliance with the Protocol Governing Production of Electronically Stored
26 Information, entered on December 1, 2014, the Wynn Parties code all document families 27 consistently. Therefore, if one member of a document family contains personal data subject to 28 redaction pursuant to the MPDPA, the entire document family is coded as having MPDPA redactions. For the purpose of this in camera exercise, Exhibit 2 identifies individual documents in a family that do not have MPDPA redactions.

1 Finally, during the content duplicate review process, the Wynn Parties identified documents
2 currently withheld for attorney-client or accountant-client privilege that contain some duplicate
3 content to that in the WRMSA documents. The Wynn Parties intend to complete this more nuanced
4 review (and apply any necessary privilege redactions) in short order, with a target date of two weeks
5 from the date of this submission, or June 24, 2016.

2 (Court was called to order)

3 THE COURT: So, since the motion to associate is 4 sort of interrelated with the motion for protective order, I
5 put them on at the same time. So I'm going to start with the 6 motion for protective order.

7 MR. PISANELLI: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 So, Your Honor, in light of what we saw in the 9 opposition to our motion this seems to be one of those 10 circumstances where it makes sense to define where we're here
11 and why we're not. To be clear, this is a motion about the 12 preservation of an attorney-client privilege, and that is it.
13 This is not anything other than Wynn Resorts' and our related
14 entities' attempt to protect themselves from the prejudice
15 that is ongoing. Quinn Emanuel is in possession of Wynn
16 Resorts' privileged information. We know that. The only 17 issue is how much and what is the degree of prejudice and not 18 whether we have been prejudiced yes or no.

19 So this motion is not about disqualification. Your 20 Honor has already set the wheels in process for that issue.
21 So we now, as we sit here going through depositions, await the 22 disclosure, as tardy as it is, from Quinn Emanuel to see what 23 exactly they are in possession of, including everything that 24 is both privileged and potentially privileged as you
25 instructed. We're going to wait and see if we get their

1 interview notes, or you do, anyway; if we get their emails;
2 Ms. Wynn's emails to their firm; Ms. Wynn's text messages to 3 their firm. We're going to wait and see if they're in 4 possession of unredacted meeting minutes and other company
5 email from Ms. Wynn to general counsel and otherwise. So
6 we'll wait and see what it is that they present to you.
7 Rather than just this tip of the iceberg, as you identified 8 before, we're hoping that this won't be a fight over actual 9 disclosure to you and that the entire iceberg of information
10 that Ms. Wynn passed on to her new lawyers will be disclosed
11 and we can see what to do.

12 This motion also, Your Honor, is not about avoiding 13 any depositions. I'm going to address that in my closing 14 remarks, but just as a prefatory remark you should know that 15 Mr. Wynn has already sat for his deposition for Mr. Okada's
16 team over last week and this week. I think we went through 17 four days of it. So this isn't, as they're trying to suggest,
18 a delay tactic or any attempt to avoid discovery. This is 19 purely one issue, preservation of attorney-client privilege.

20 So let me talk just briefly about the law, the 21 standard. It doesn't appear that we have much of a debate
22 here. Nor should we. We have very clear law that is set
23 forth in a few cases, Merits Incentives, of course, and Sands-
24 Jacobs. Sands-Jacobs told us very two important things that 25 govern this dispute right now. First, of course, is that the

1 privilege is the company's. It is not Ms. Wynn's to waive and 2 to give away or to use to her advantage. It is the company's
3 privilege. And, secondly, we know that -- from Sands-Jacobs
4 we know that discovery should be stayed pending the resolution
5 of that issue. Sands-Jacobs court said, and I quote,
6 "Allowing a former fiduciary of a corporation to access and 7 use privileged information after he or she becomes adverse to 8 the corporation solely based on his or her fiduciary role is 9 entirely inconsistent with the purpose of the attorney-client
10 privilege." That is about as on point as we can get. And 11 Your Honor may recall, because that was, of course, your case
12 to manage and handle at the trial court level. That's exactly 13 what happened as the issue was wrestled with both at this 14 court and the Supreme Court, is discovery having to do with 15 those issues were stayed until the issue was finally resolved
16 by our high court.

17 So to the extent, Your Honor, that there is any 18 ambiguity at all or that Quinn Emanuel is going to stand up in 19 front of you in a few minutes and debate that issue let me
20 quote to you what this law firm said in relation to the Keker
21 motion. In a letter dated March 30th, 2016, this law firm
22 stated that, "KVN," that's the Keker firm, "has an ethical 23 obligation to not participate in this case or engage in 24 communications with Mr. Wynn's counsel until Ms. Wynn's motion
25 to disqualify has been decided." An "ethical obligation" was

1 the words that they offered when the tables were turned. And 2 so, of course, it raises the question does Quinn Emanuel
3 actually believe that the law it cites to protect Ms. Wynn
4 doesn't apply to that, or, alternatively I suppose we can ask
5 are they just simply conceding that the ethical obligation
6 that they quoted to Mr. Keker has been violated by their 7 actions in this case. I await Mr. Zeller's response to his 8 own standard that he used in this case.

9 So let me take just a few minutes about their 10 opposition. As I said, there is no question about the law,
11 there's no question that they're in possession of privileged
12 materials, there's no question that they did not follow Merits
13 Incentives but that they did the opposite, that they sat on 14 this material that they had from her, and we don't know how 15 much yet, for months and months and months, and they sprang it 16 at the deposition, disclosing it under 16.1 the day before the 17 deposition, and now claim no harm, no foul, or, the last 18 resort, it wasn't privileged in the first place. But that's 19 what another motion is going to resolve.

20 So you'll recall when we were debating about that
21 other motion, Your Honor, you were expressing some frustration
22 with Quinn Emanuel on the opening motion because Counsel was 23 dodging your issues about the Merits Incentives compliance.
24 Well, you remember they offered the preposterous proposition
25 that Elaine Wynn gave them one email, one email. The tip of

1 the iceberg is all that exists, they told you. And the Court
2 noted that email was clearly not all that was at issue. So
3 this tactic of dodging is at issue now in this opposition.

4 What did we see from the opposition? Did we see a
5 debate about what they're in possession of? Did they say, no,
6 don't stop the depositions, because we don't have anything?
7 No. What they did is went on the attack, dodging the issue.
8 They didn't deal with the law. What they did was starting to 9 attack counsel, me and Mr. Campbell in particular, and to 10 attack Mr. Wynn. Somehow, I suppose, you know, the age-old 11 strategy of distraction, dodging the issue by claiming that we 12 are getting a second bite at the apple when the record is 13 crystal clear that Your Honor made no comment whatsoever about 14 whether all discovery should be stayed or whether simply Quinn
15 Emanuel should not participate. That issue was never 16 resolved.

17 And then, of course, they go full frontal attack on 18 Mr. Wynn. And I have to close with a remark about that.
19 You'll notice, Your Honor, despite how much of this opposition
20 was dedicated to attacking Mr. Wynn and his credibility, 21 claiming that he's running from them and afraid of their 22 deposition tactics, you'll note that you never got a motion to 23 compel related to his deposition. What you did get, as you
24 saw as Exhibit 10 in their opposition, was their own
25 stipulation for the rescheduling of that deposition. And the

1 reason they did that is because you saw Exhibits 9, 12, and
2 14, a declaration from Mr. Campbell and letters from different
3 doctors across the nation that performed multiple surgeries on 4 Mr. Wynn's back and gave them detailed information not only
5 about the physical impairment, which took a while to recover
6 from, but the mental and emotional -- I don't know about 7 emotional, but the mental impairment from the massive amounts
8 of drugs that he had to take as a result of the infectious
9 disease that was inside of his spine. So we've shared all
10 this information with them. The parties active cooperatively
11 to reschedule it. It was rescheduled until this moment when 12 we realized that they had not been disclosing the privileged 13 information they had. And then they spend the majority of 14 this opposition attacking his credibility, trying to suggest
15 that we or he has been jerking them around and now he is so 16 terrified of their examination techniques that he's just 17 running from them and that privilege is not an issue.

18 Well, that is utter nonsense, Your Honor. I have 19 brought, if you want to see it, Mr. Wynn's testimony from Mr.
20 Okada's team where he explained everything about his 21 surgeries, everything that occurred to him from the massive 22 medications he was taking, his inability to focus, falling
23 asleep in meetings, things of that sort. So if that matters 24 to you, if this distraction you think is relevant in the 25 decision of whether or not we should get a protective order to

1 stop Quinn Emanuel's participation in this case, I have that
2 for you, if you want it. I also have the letter from Quinn
3 Emanuel where they set the ethical standard when the tables
4 were turned, but now they're running from that standard now
5 that they've been caught with their figurative hand in the 6 cookie jar.

7 THE COURT: I'd like that letter, but I'd also like
8 you to elaborate on the issue that you believe is occurring
9 between Ms. Wynn cooperating with the Okada parties and 10 potentially sharing privileged information, which is of 11 concern to me.

12 MR. PISANELLI: Yeah, it is of concern to us, too.
13 And, Your Honor, the problem that we have here is that we are 14 like the only party in the room that doesn't know what's going 15 on. I can tell you this as an officer of the court, that the 16 tenor and tone of the depositions has changed markedly from 17 the time that Munger Tolles & Olson left this case and Quinn
18 Emanuel emerged. We know specifically that Munger Tolles &
19 Olson was in possession of at least some privileged 20 information. We made demands upon them to sequester, and, as 21 far as I understand, they complied with that. We don't know
22 and don't believe that Quinn Emanuel, once receiving those 23 files, did the same thing. They now come into this case, and 24 the examinations changed even from the Okada team. Now, I
25 can't sit and point the finger at the Okada team and say that

1 they are now as tainted as Quinn Emanuel, because I just don't 2 know. I can only say as a person who doesn't have access to 3 their private communications and I don't have access to what
4 has been shared outside of the room that things have changed.
5 I've also noted that even if we assume for the sake of debate
6 and give the Okada every benefit of a doubt, they are sitting
7 in the room as Ms. Wynn is pulling out privileged documents,
8 at least one so far, to use as an exhibit in the deposition.
9 They are sitting in the room as Quinn Emanuel asks questions
10 -- this is just in response to your answer.

11 THE COURT: I know. But you've got to wrap it up, 12 because you didn't have any time left already.

13 MR. PISANELLI: Yes. Okay.

14 They are sitting in the room, listening to the 15 questions that are loaded with privileged and confidential
16 information that they otherwise would not have had. Simply 17 because I instructed my witnesses and my clients not to answer
18 because this was an open and obvious violation of privileges
19 doesn't mean that the Okada team isn't sitting there absorbing
20 it all and now being able to take advantage of these 21 violations of our rights.

22 So, Your Honor, the point of the matter is we're not 23 delaying anything. We're moving forward with the Okada team
24 and getting lots done. We sit and defend depositions
25 virtually daily. There is no prejudice to Quinn Emanuel if

1 they follow the very ethical standard that they imposed upon
2 the Keker firm to make sure that they stand down until this 3 Court or the high court decides if they are tainted and if 4 they need to be removed from this case. And that's all that 5 we ask for you today, is to help us preserve our privilege.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 MR. PISANELLI: Thanks.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Zeller.

9 MR. ZELLER: As a practical matter Mr. Wynn's
10 deposition is scheduled for the 21st and 22nd. It was done by 11 a stipulation and order that was signed by the parties and 12 entered by the Court after these issues arose, I mean, 13 according to them. We made very clear that this was in the 14 pleadings back in March.

15 THE COURT: I understand your position, Counsel.

16 MR. ZELLER: But in addition, however, even when 17 they claim they first realized this, that was in Ms. Sinatra's
18 deposition. That is the same time they signed the 19 stipulation, and then the Court entered it on the 26th,
20 setting this deposition. This would literally be third time 21 that Mr. Wynn will have avoided his deposition that we have 22 been trying to schedule since December.

23 Mr. Campbell is going to be gone from June 26th
24 until July 10th or 11th. Then Wynn Macau has its grand
25 opening August 8th. Expert reports are due September 1st.

1 This is effectively asking for a stay of the case. It's not
2 possible to simply exclude Elaine Wynn from participating in
3 the case and have it move forward. That isn't even a
4 conceivable -- Elaine Wynn is a defendant against the Okada
5 parties, as well. I will tell the Court there has not been
6 any communications about any of these matters between Quinn
7 Emanuel and the Okada parties' counsel. And there's no
8 evidence of it. They provided none. And in fact in this 9 interim period since the issues arose there have been many 10 depositions, there's been motion practice, there's been a 11 variety of things, and they have not pointed to a single 12 instance where they claim that somehow there's been use.

13 The Court ordered the process that it's already 14 ordered. We are going to comply with that. It will confirm 15 what it is that we've already told the Court. In terms of the 16 documents that Mr. Pisanelli raises, the Munger documents, the 17 company documents that Elaine Wynn had, those have continued
18 to be sequestered. That's the end of the story there.

19 So there was a process, and he finally admits now
20 that they've known about this for a very long time there was a 21 process in place, the documents were sequestered, and they 22 continue to be sequestered.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Can you tell me about --

24 MR. ZELLER: The other thing -- I'm sorry, Your 25 Honor.

1 THE COURT: Go ahead.

2 MR. ZELLER: The other thing is that it's not true
3 that we didn't file a motion to compel Mr. Wynn to set it for 4 deposition. We in fact filed it. I think it was about May 5 3rd. The whole reason -- but we took it off calendar when 6 they agreed finally to stipulate to an order, you know, for 7 the date certain, which is now again next week, 6/21 and 6/22.

8 In terms of the Keker issue he raises, the fact is 9 that, number one, he does not mention that Keker in fact
10 ignored our requests. He continued to participate in the 11 case. And, number two, of course, this is not a situation
12 where Keker is with Quinn. This would disrupt the case. This 13 would effectively be a stay of the case. Keker had not been 14 involved. This was early in the participation, and these are 15 the only kind of cases that they actually cite where there --
16 you know, where there has been a stay pending a 17 disqualification motion are just -- are not even similar to 18 the circumstances here, which will disrupt the entire case
19 schedule. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: So you believe the reason that your 21 situation is different than the Keker situation is because of 22 the amount of time you've been participating in the case?

23 MR. ZELLER: That's one reason, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Anything else you want to tell me?

25 MR. ZELLER: Yes. Yes. The other reason is because

1 the fact that they did participate, they wrote motions, they
2 continued to work on the case notwithstanding what we asked
3 them to do in the letter. They refused. That's what Mr.
4 Pisanelli leaves out.

5 THE COURT: Thanks.

6 Because of the concern related to the disclosure of 7 privileged information by Quinn Emanuel to the Okada parties,
8 I am staying any discovery participation by Quinn Emanuel.
9 That does not mean that Jolley Urga cannot participate in 10 depositions or that otherwise the depositions can be taken off
11 calendar. I will leave that to counsels' discretion.

12 You're going to give me your response by next
13 Tuesday; correct?

14 MR. ZELLER: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And anything you want to tell me before 16 we talk about a schedule for that?

17 MR. ZELLER: No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. ZELLER: I mean, I -- no, Your Honor.

20 MR. PISANELLI: Your Honor, I understand your 21 ruling. And my question to you is to ensure that this 22 prejudice that we've suffered at the hands of Quinn Emanuel
23 has not spread into Jolley Urga.

24 THE COURT: I know Mr. Urga knows the rules.

25 MR. PISANELLI: I'm sorry. I didn't hear you.

1 THE COURT: I know Mr. Urga knows the rules.

2 MR. PISANELLI: I'm only asking if Your Honor is 3 requiring Mr. Urga to make a similar disclosure to you about 4 what he is in possession of so that we can know that we don't 5 have two law firms that are tainted by what Quinn Emanuel has 6 done.

7 THE COURT: Let's wait and see what we do with Quinn
8 Emanuel before we go to that next step.

9 MR. PISANELLI: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Anything else?

11 MR. ZELLER: Just so it's clear, Your Honor, we are 12 going to take his deposition off calendar, because we are 13 entitled to participate.

14 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine.

15 MR. ZELLER: That is -- and we are going to --

16 THE COURT: Well, you're entitled to participate if 17 I decide you don't get disqualified.

18 MR. ZELLER: Well, Your Honor, we're not going to be 19 disqualified. That's just -- I can tell here that there is no
20 there there. There is only -- you know, Your Honor, a 21 disqualification motion has to be based on evidence. There is 22 no evidence that they have submitted. None. The only
23 evidence of record shows that those communications, the one
24 email, is not privileged. There is absolutely -- they did not 25 put in a single declaration disputing that.

1 THE COURT: One of the problems you have, Mr.
2 Zeller, is the position you took in the Keker motion, just so
3 you know. Anything else?

4 MR. ZELLER: Well, Your Honor, again, I don't think
5 that that has any resemblance. Because the case continued to 6 go forward. And by the way, the case has been going forward
7 in the interim.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Zeller, I'm done with your case
9 today.

10 MR. ZELLER: I understand. I understand. Thank 11 you, Your Honor.

12 MR. PISANELLI: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: 'Bye.

14 MR. URGAS: Your Honor, this is also the time for the 15 normal monthly status report. Counsel better not leave, 16 because I've got one question -- or one issue.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. URGAS: We have put on -- you've got on your 19 calendar for the 8th of July and then the 15th of July some --

20 THE COURT: Hold on. Let me go back to your 21 calendar.

22 MR. URGAS: The Wayson & Goldsmith fee designation
23 you had on your Friday calendar. Ours is on for Wayson &
24 Goldsmith I believe July 8th. The Aruze parties have it for 25 the 15th. And we would like to have that set on a hearing

1 motion -- or date.

2 THE COURT: What date would you like?

3 MR. URGAS: And then also you -- let me -- Shoemaker
4 you said was premature a week or so ago. I'm not quite sure
5 what that was based on, because they'd already passed their 6 time to object. But could we put all three of them on a 7 hearing calendar?

8 THE COURT: Yes. When would you like?

9 MS. SPINELLI: Your Honor, I met and conferred with 10 BuckleySandler and Quinn Emanuel related to the Shoemaker
11 order that you entered, and so that one's not yet ripe for a
12 hearing. But we did talk about consolidating the two dates, 13 the Okada motion and the Ms. Wynn motion. I don't care what 14 date.

15 THE COURT: Let me ask one more time. What date do
16 you want?

17 MS. SPINELLI: I don't care what date.

18 THE COURT: Pick a Tuesday or a Thursday.

19 MR. URGAS: Whatever's good for the Court.

20 MR. ZELLER: Your Honor, if I may. If --

21 MS. SPINELLI: I'm out on the 2nd to the 11th.

22 MR. ZELLER: If Quinn Emanuel's not allowed to 23 participate in the case, we're going to object to any of this 24 moving forward. It's effectively a stay of the case.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Urgas, what date do you

1 want?

2 MR. URGAL: Well, we'd better have it after the 11th,
3 then, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: So do you want it on the 12th or the 5 14th of July?

6 MR. URGAL: 12th is fine.

7 THE COURT: Are you here on the 12th? Ms. Spinelli,
8 are you here on the 12th?

9 MS. SPINELLI: Yes. I return on the 11th in the 10 evening.

11 THE COURT: Would you like it on the 14th instead?

12 MS. SPINELLI: I'd prefer the 14th, thank you.

13 THE COURT: Can we do the 14th, Mr. Urgal? All 14 right.

15 MR. URGAL: That's fine, Your Honor.

16 MR. PISANELLI: The Quinn Emanuel letter you said
17 you wanted into the record.

18 THE COURT: I would really like that letter. Thank 19 you. Can I mark this as Court's Exhibit 1?

20 MR. ZELLER: Your Honor, may I also supplement the 21 record later today by providing the responses that they gave 22 and put in a declaration as to what Keker did so the Court has 23 a complete record?

24 THE COURT: Mr. Zeller, you have a filing due next 25 Tuesday. You can file anything related to this issue with 1 that filing date you want to, okay.

2 MR. ZELLER: Okay. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Kunimoto.

4 MR. KUNIMOTO: Your Honor, if the Aruze parties may 5 give a brief status update.

6 THE COURT: In the absence of Mr. Peek you're going 7 to give me a status update?

8 MR. KUNIMOTO: I will do my best, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. PISANELLI: There were two.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Court's Exhibit 2.

12 MR. KUNIMOTO: As this Court may be aware, following
13 our motion to compel the production of Macau documents Wynn
14 Resorts filed their first notice of submission of materials
15 and their second notice of submission of materials on June 3rd
16 and June 10th, respectively. The Aruze parties would like to 17 file a response in the next 10 days to address certain issues
18 in these submissions, Your Honor, if we may.

19 THE COURT: Sure.

20 MR. KUNIMOTO: Also, during the May 31st hearing you
21 had commented that there were certain Aruze documents that had 22 been submitted to the Court in Japanese without translations.

23 THE COURT: And I mentioned it to him yesterday when 24 I was recruiting pro bono lawyers at his firm, and he reminded 25 me he doesn't read Japanese.

1 MR. KUNIMOTO: And my speaking is also nothing to be
2 proud of, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: It's okay, Mr. Kunimoto.

4 MR. KUNIMOTO: More my speaking abilities. For 5 clarification, I believe you were referring to the defendants'
6 notice of Japanese testimony pursuant to letters rogatory
7 which was filed on May 27th, 2016, Your Honor. And if that is 8 the case, I'm informed that the substantive text of Japanese 9 documents which were directed to this Court, as opposed to the 10 parties, were those documents that were translated into 11 English but not necessarily the notices to the parties.
12 Nonetheless, if that is the document that you are referencing,
13 Your Honor, that needed to be translated, we will start the 14 process to translate those notices for the Court.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 Does anybody think I need the actual notices
17 translated? Apparently no.

18 MR. KUNIMOTO: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Thank you for looking into that, Mr.
20 Kunimoto.

21 MR. KUNIMOTO: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: So I have one question before you -- Mr.
23 Kunimoto, are you done?

24 MR. KUNIMOTO: I actually have one more topic.

25 THE COURT: Go.

1 MR. KUNIMOTO: And Ms. Spinelli may correct me if I
2 have misspoken. And it deals with predictive coding. My 3 understanding is that the parties have been in touch -- well,
4 I do know that the parties have been in touch with Mr. Keeling
5 and are currently working out the details of his engagement
6 and the processes he will follow.

7 We've also supplied him with necessary background
8 information which I understand has been agreed to by both 9 sides.

10 MS. SPINELLI: Yes.

11 MR. KUNIMOTO: One of the threshold issues that 12 needs to be cited by Mr. Keeling is whether Keeling's team
13 will review the full validation set or only a sample.

14 THE COURT: That's correct.

15 MR. KUNIMOTO: Both sides have given him views on 16 that, but we are still waiting for his views.

17 THE COURT: I'm waiting for his views.

18 MR. KUNIMOTO: If it suits the Court, we would 19 request the Court schedule a conference call with both sides
20 and Mr. Keeling as soon as possible to resolve that issue,
21 though I do not know Mr. Keeling's schedule.

22 MS. SPINELLI: I think that he was provided the 23 background materials on Friday, Your Honor, and it was both
24 parties -- all parties' intent -- both parties' to have him
25 read the materials that were exchanged about the predictive

1 coding, about the validation set, the full set, and then we
2 would set the call. So I have no problem setting it, and we
3 can communicate so there will be no ex parte --

4 THE COURT: Will you work with Laura to set it up.

5 MS. SPINELLI: Well, absolutely. If we can contact
6 Mr. Keeling, we'll do that all together and suggest a date.

7 THE COURT: Will you call Laura after you work it
8 out. Because I do have some challenges.

9 MS. SPINELLI: Yes. Absolutely.

10 THE COURT: Okay. I have one question. Somebody 11 delivered 15 boxes of binders for me to do a review related to 12 the Macau Data Privacy Act documents. In reviewing them I
13 have a question. So Laura reminded me I want to ask you all 14 here in open court.

15 Under Tab 4 of Binder 1 I have a document that 16 appears to relate to Aruze. And then behind that I have a
17 blue sheet of paper with some other numbers and a document
18 that doesn't seem to exactly match, but seems to be part of a 19 related email string. Am I right in what I'm assuming?

20 MS. SPINELLI: Yes, Your Honor. What we did -- I
21 don't know about Tab 4, so I'll check that when I go back to 22 my office. But --

23 THE COURT: Okay. Give me your general answer.

24 MS. SPINELLI: What we did was if we could find all
25 -- an entire document that was in Macau in the United States,

1 we provided it. But we also provided parts of documents that
2 we found. So if you have an email string with five emails
3 from Macau produced and then there's a document in the United
4 States with only three of those five, we gave you the document
5 to show the three of the five emails unredacted, and we 6 couldn't find the top two in the United States.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Then let me ask the next
8 question. On the first of the documents I have one Bates
9 number, and on the second of the documents I have a different
10 Bates number is because that document was produced, the second 11 one?

12 MS. SPINELLI: All documents and Bates numbers were 13 produced.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So both have been produced, one
15 in a redacted format, one in an unredacted format.

16 MS. SPINELLI: Yes. Because we went through this --

17 THE COURT: Okay. Let me go to the next question.

18 MS. SPINELLI: Okay.

19 THE COURT: What do you need from Aruze for their 20 employees' emails which you have redacted under the Macau Data
21 Privacy Act that relate to Mr. Okada's actions to be released
22 to them?

23 MS. SPINELLI: I would need consents signed
24 [inaudible] same consents we provided to the people in Macau.

25 THE COURT: By their employees?

1 MS. SPINELLI: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. SPINELLI: And Mr. Okada. Because a lot of them
4 are Mr. Okada's -- well, his name -- his name in the document.

5 THE COURT: His name's there, but his name just
6 saying -- having one of his employees say, this is Mr. Okada's
7 X thing, isn't enough for Mr. Okada's name to be removed, I
8 don't think. But that's a different issue. I'm not quite 9 there.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. URGAS: Your Honor --

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. URGAS: I'm concerned about what you've ruled.
15 If we get everything in to you by tomorrow, which is a Friday
16 before your 24th, would you have the ability to be looking at 17 this sooner? Because basically --

18 THE COURT: Absolutely. Give me your stuff.

19 MR. URGAS: Pardon?

20 THE COURT: Whenever you get it to me I will review
21 it.

22 MR. URGAS: All right.

23 THE COURT: Just tell me that it's here, okay.

24 MR. URGAS: Okay.

25 THE COURT: So if you have Mr. Malley or some runner

1 drop over a stack this high and you want me to review it over
2 the weekend, I will.

3 MR. PISANELLI: And, Your Honor, I would request
4 Counsel to make sure that we get a timely submission so that 5 if we want to bring anything to your attention, deficiencies,
6 for instance, we'll do that.

7 THE COURT: Remember, part of what they're give me
8 is for an in-camera review.

9 MR. PISANELLI: I'm assuming whether we call it a 10 log, an index or whatever so we know generally what it is.
11 Because we have --

12 THE COURT: They have to provide a description of 13 what they submit to me for an in-camera review if they give me
14 something to review in camera.

15 MR. PISANELLI: I'm more interested in what's 16 missing than what's there. That's why I want to see it.

17 THE COURT: I'm not there yet.

18 MR. ZELLER: Your Honor, just to follow up on what 19 Mr. Urga was saying, we will get the materials -- the Court is 20 going to find out they are not voluminous. But, in any event, 21 we would ask for it. Perhaps as part of this process is if we 22 can make a determination, we can still go forward with the 23 deposition of Mr. Wynn as it's been scheduled on the 21st.
24 That would be Tuesday. So I think -- I have every confidence
25 the Court is going to be satisfied.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Zeller, on the Keker thing there
2 were two emails and a conversation.
3 MR. ZELLER: Well, I would also --
4 THE COURT: Remember?
5 MR. ZELLER: Well, there was more than that. But 6 one thing is, Your Honor, they've never said that they didn't
7 have those materials. All the other counsel had the same
8 materials, the same taint issue.
9 MR. PISANELLI: That misses the point.
10 THE COURT: Guys. Don't argue. I've already ruled.
11 You're taking up way more than your 10, 20 minutes.
12 So anything else?
13 MR. PISANELLI: No, Your Honor. Thank you.
14 MR. KUNIMOTO: Thank you, Your Honor.

FOR THE PROPOSED INTERVENOR: G. MARK ALBRIGHT, ESQ.

1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, THURSDAY, JULY 7, 2016, 3:35 P.M.

2 (Court was called to order)

3 THE COURT: Counsel, could I do a roll call.

4 MR. PISANELLI: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

5 Pisanelli Bice here. Todd Bice, Jim Pisanelli, and Magali
6 Calderon.

7 MR. ERWIN: Bill Erwin, Campbell & Williams, on 8 behalf of Mr. Wynn.

9 MR. PEEK: Stephen Peek, Holland & Hart.

10 MR. KUNIMOTO: Bryce Kunimoto, Holland & Hart.

11 MR. KRAKOFF: David Krakoff, BuckleySandler for the 12 Aruze parties.

13 MR. URGAS: William Urga on behalf of Elaine Wynn.

14 MR. ZELLER: Mike Zeller on behalf of Elaine Wynn.

15 MR. SHELTON: Ian Shelton on behalf of Elaine Wynn.

16 MR. MALLEY: David Malley on behalf of Elaine Wynn.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So when Mr. Malley --

18 MR. PEEK: Your Honor, wait a minute. We have the 19 proposed -- we have proposed intervenors who have joined on 20 the phone, as well.

21 MR. ALBRIGHT: Your Honor, this is Mark Albright on 22 behalf of Intervenor Sokolowski. We were --

23 THE COURT: Isn't that the same guy who was on my 24 calendar in Jacobs-Sands this morning?

25 MR. PEEK: Yes, it is, Your Honor.

1 MR. ALBRIGHT: Same petitioner, yes. But a
2 different case.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So can I tell you guys why I
4 wanted to --

5 MR. URGAL: Your Honor, this is Bill Urgal.

6 THE COURT: Can I tell you why I wanted to talk to 7 you.

8 MR. URGAL: Your Honor, this is Bill Urgal. I'm 9 concerned about other people being on this call, because we 10 kind of believed this was a little separate understanding --

11 THE COURT: No. I specifically told Mr. Malley I
12 needed everybody in the world on this call.

13 MR. URGAL: Oh. Okay.

14 THE COURT: This is not a substantive call, this is 15 a procedural call.

16 MR. URGAL: Okay.

17 THE COURT: Ready? Mr. Malley brought me an OST
18 today. I haven't seen it yet, but Laura has it, and 19 apparently there are concerns about how it is served and who 20 it is disseminated to, because it relates to the Elaine Wynn
21 counsel -- the motion to disqualify Elaine Wynn's counsel, the 22 Quinn Emanuel firm.

23 Mr. Peek, when you were on vacation I think I had 24 Mr. Kunimoto here and we got him to agree that he didn't need 25 to be involved in the initial process for the deposit of the

1 devices, the identification of the vendor, and that activity.
2 Now we're getting to the point where I have motion practice
3 related to those activities, and I just want to make sure
4 everybody is comfortable with that information's dissemination
5 being limited to the Wynn parties and Elaine Wynn parties, but 6 not to the Aruze parties and, in this case, any potential
7 proposed intervenor.

8 MR. PEEK: Your Honor, if you're asking my view on 9 that or Mr. Krakoff's view on that, is that I don't think that 10 our view has changed so long as there is not some implication,
11 as there was suggested in one of the hearings, that somehow
12 information has been imparted to the Aruze parties by Quinn
13 Emanuel. We certainly don't see a need for us to be involved
14 in that process --

15 THE COURT: Okay. And my recollection is --

16 MR. PEEK: -- of deciding what the protocol is.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And my recollection of that 18 suggestion related to the use of information at depositions.
19 Is that correct, Mr. Pisanelli?

20 MR. PISANELLI: Say that again, Your Honor, please.
21 I'm sorry.

22 THE COURT: My recollection of the Wynn parties'
23 suggestion that Quinn Emanuel may have shared information with 24 Aruze parties related to information that was shared at the 25 depositions we discussed at the time of those motions.

1 MR. PISANELLI: Yeah, that's right. I wasn't
2 suggesting that we were aware of any --

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. PISANELLI: -- specific circumstance.

5 MR. PEEK: Okay.

6 THE COURT: I just wanted to make sure we were all
7 clear on what that issue was so that Mr. Peek and Mr. Krakoff
8 and Mr. Kunimoto can make sure they are making the right
9 decision from a procedural posture before I move to the next 10 step here.

11 Okay. Mr. Albright, you appear to be new to this 12 case and probably don't know what I'm talking about.

13 MR. ALBRIGHT: Correct, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. There has been a motion to 15 disqualify the Quinn Emanuel firm by the Pisaenlli Bice firm
16 and related entities on that side of the room because of 17 alleged confidential communications that are -- have been 18 provided on certain devices and maybe in other formats by 19 their client to them. So I'm trying to resolve that issue on 20 the disqualification motion without potentially poisoning
21 anyone else with that potentially privileged information.

22 Is that a fair characterization, everybody?

23 MR. KRAKOFF: Yes, Your Honor.

24 MR. PISANELLI: I think so.

25 THE COURT: So you don't want it, either; right, Mr.

1 Albright?

2 MR. ALBRIGHT: Yeah. We can drop off -- our team
3 can drop off the call, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I don't need you to drop
5 off the call or not. What I'm going to now do is I'm going to 6 go back and I'm going to look at the OST. But the direction I
7 will give to Mr. Malley is to -- we will file it under seal,
8 but then we will serve it by traditional email methods only to 9 those folks who are involved and not serve it through the 10 Wiznet system. Okay. I haven't looked at it yet. I've got 11 to go back in the office and look.

12 Laura wants to tell me something now. Hold on,
13 guys.

14 (Off-record colloquy - Law Clerk and Court)

15 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else? All right. Thank 16 you for getting on the call on short notice. I just wanted to 17 make sure everybody was on board with the process that I
18 thought we needed to follow so we didn't have a potential 19 issue of further contamination related to this alleged 20 privileged information.

21 MR. PISANELLI: Thank you, Your Honor. This is Jim
22 Pisanelli. May I ask you a quick question?

23 THE COURT: Sure. On what case?

24 MR. PISANELLI: We have seen -- on this Okada case.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. PISANELLI: We have seen on Odyssey that there
2 are still during the month of July four discovery-related
3 motions that are pending. In order to make sure that we don't 4 waste time preparing or showing up, is it fair for us to all
5 assume that those motions are off in light of the stay?

6 THE COURT: Yes, it is fair to you to assume that is 7 off. Dulce usually asks me the week before about that, and 8 she and I have not yet coordinated for next week.

9 MR. PISANELLI: Okay. We have four of them. I'd be 10 happy to identify them, if you need. But whatever you'd like.

11 THE COURT: I'm sure she can figure them out.

12 But I have been trying to decide the motions to seal
13 so that I process those, but I've been trying not to get too
14 deep on the discovery motions because of the potential
15 disqualification issues.

16 MR. PISANELLI: That makes sense to us. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. KRAKOFF: Your Honor, this is David Krakoff.
19 Could I just ask a point of clarification.

20 THE COURT: Sure.

21 MR. KRAKOFF: We will not be served, as I understand
22 the process, and we agreed to it because this is an issue that 23 we do not want to be contaminated with in any way, as the 24 Court said. If the -- and so we will not see those motions.
25 However, if there's anything in the motions particularly from

1 Wynn Resorts that makes allegations similar to those that they
2 have made before about prior contamination by -- of the Aruze
3 parties, I think we should be allowed to respond to that.
4 I've already submitted a declaration to the Court denying any 5 such contamination. But if there are certain allegations in 6 motions coming to the Court, I think we should be so advised
7 at least in a limited way so that we can respond to that.

8 THE COURT: I don't disagree. So, Mr. Pisanelli, if 9 you guys are going to raise it any further than you already 10 have, we need to make sure it's raised in a fashion that the 11 Aruze parties can respond to.

12 MR. PISANELLI: I think that makes sense. We'll do
13 that, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. PISANELLI: We'll make sure that they're on 16 notice of anything that implicates their interests.

17 THE COURT: Anything else that anyone wants to ask 18 me about?

19 I had suggested to Mr. Kunitomo and Ms. Spinelli
20 that they consider what would happen if the 15 boxes in my -- 21 Dan's office, which currently are sitting there which are my 22 Macau Data Privacy Act redactions had the word "Okada" removed 23 from being redacted, as Mr. Okada has in my mind by this 24 litigation waived any ability to have protection under the 25 Macau Data Privacy Act. And I haven't gotten a response. And

1 since I don't currently have anything on calendar, when I look
2 at those 15 boxes I'm wondering a mechanism to figure that
3 out. So I'm going to let you guys talk outside of my presence
4 and figure out if there is a mechanism for pursuing that or if 5 you want me to just leave the boxes sitting Dan's office for 6 now.

7 MR. PEEK: Your Honor, I'm not sure I understood
8 what the -- what the ask was. Are you just asking --

9 THE COURT: I'm going to let Bryce tell you about 10 it, because you weren't here when I gave that to him. But 11 when I did my random sample --

12 MR. PEEK: I did read the -- yeah, I read the 13 transcript. Yeah. Okay.

14 THE COURT: When I did my random sample a number of 15 the redactions were Mr. Okada.

16 MR. KUNIMOTO: And, Your Honor -- this is Bryce
17 Kunimoto -- just to seek clarification, is this only in 18 relation to references to Mr. Okada, or to any other
19 individuals where there could have been a waiver of the MPDPA?

20 THE COURT: I would be willing to extend it to the 21 other Universal employees or Aruze employees, because there 22 are other individuals of those associations who have been 23 redacted as part of my random review that I did.

24 MR. KUNIMOTO: Okay.

25 THE COURT: But I want you guys to think about it.

1 I'm not trying to force you to do anything other than like in
2 Jacobs, where I said Mr. Jacobs didn't have to sign the form
3 that was offered to him, but he had waived any protection
4 under the Macau Data Privacy Act to avoid those kind of issues
5 that might otherwise get people in trouble.

6 MR. PEEK: Yeah. But you did it a little bit
7 different than that in Jacobs, Your Honor --

8 THE COURT: I know.

9 MR. PEEK: -- if you recall. But I'm not going to 10 argue that point with you, because that's past and this is now
11 a new case.

12 THE COURT: Right. And I'm just trying to figure
13 out a way to get through the 15 boxes of documents in a more
14 efficient way than me turning every page and then comparing 15 the email that was located that is similar with the one that 16 is in front of it that's still redacted.

17 MR. PEEK: Yeah. We would like you to get through 18 those, Your Honor. So we'll get back to you on that. We'd 19 like you to get through those boxes, because we'd like to get 20 this issue resolved.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So at some point in time you're 22 going to tell me whether you think that Mr. Okada's stuff can 23 be unredacted and the other Universal and Aruze parties,
24 because that will substantially limit the number of entries I
25 have to review.

2 MR. KUNIMOTO: Okay.

3 MR. KRAKOFF: And we will get back to Your Honor --

4 this is David Krakoff -- very quickly on that.

5 THE COURT: Well, just talk to Mr. Pisanelli and see

6 if you guys can come to an agreement.

7 MR. KRAKOFF: Okay.

8 THE COURT: Okay. All right. 'Bye.

Attorneys for Defendant Kazuo Okada and Defendants/Counterclaimants Aruze USA, Inc., and Universal Entertainment Corp.

DISTRICT COURT
CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, a Nevada corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

KAZUO OKADA, an individual, ARUZE USA,
INC., a Nevada corporation, and UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINMENT CORP., a Japanese corporation,

Defendants.

AND ALL RELATED CLAIMS.

CASE NO.: A-12-656710-B
DEPT NO.: XI

JOINT STATUS REPORT TO THE COURT ON ISSUE OF MPDPA WAIVER

1 Plaintiffs Wynn Resorts, Limited (“WRL”) and Defendants Kazuo Okada, Aruze USA,
2 Inc., and Universal Entertainment Corp. (the “Aruze Parties” and, together with WRL, the 3 “Parties”), by and through their undersigned counsel of record, respectfully submit this Joint
4 Status Report to the Court regarding the Court’s recent question about the waiver of the Macau
5 Personal Data Protection Act (“MPDPA”) in this case.

6 I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

7 The Aruze Parties filed a Motion to Compel Production of Wynn Resorts, Limited’s
8 Improperly Redacted Documents and Motion for Sanctions and Attorneys’ Fees (“Motion to 9 Compel”) on April 15, 2016. WRL filed its Opposition to the Motion to Compel on May 2, 2016.
10 At the hearing, held on May 3, 2016, the Court stated that it had yet to make a “wholesale ruling”
11 about whether WRL could rely on the MPDPA. Hr’g Tr. (May 3, 2016), at 13-14. The Court 12 believed it needed “to do a document-by-document or at least category-by-category analysis” and 13 ordered that WRL submit the subject documents for in camera review. Id. at 26. Wynn Resorts
14 submitted the ordered materials related to the MPDPA for the Court’s in camera review on June 15 10, 2016. Second Notice of Submission, filed on June 10, 2016.

18 Later and during a conference call on June 17, 2016, the Court asked the parties whether 19 waiver of the protection of the MPDPA could apply to the Aruze Parties and/or its employees
20 under a theory similar to that which the Court invoked in Jacobs v. Las Vegas Sands Corp., et al.
21 (A-10-627691-C). See Tel. Conf. Tr. (June 17, 2016), at 16:15-20. The Court later explained that 22 it had ceased the in camera review pending resolution of its question regarding waiver. Tel.
23 Conf. Tr. (July 7, 2016), at 9-10.

25 II. WAIVER DOES NOT APPLY IN THIS CASE

26 Counsel for the Parties have conferred multiple times about the Court’s question. The 27 Parties are in agreement that there is no waiver in this case because a corporate entity cannot 28

1 waive its employee's MPDPA rights. Consequently, the filing of counterclaims by Aruze USA
2 and Universal Entertainment Corp. did not create a waiver of any MPDPA rights held by Mr.
3 Okada or any other individual(s) employed by Aruze USA or Universal. And unlike Mr. Jacobs,
4 Mr. Okada himself did not file any counterclaims, so he did not waive his own rights under the

6 III. SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING SCHEDULE

7 The Parties further agree and request that they provide additional briefs relating to the 8 Motion to Compel to address, among other things, additional issues raised by the Court's 9 question. The Parties will present the Court with a proposed Order containing a briefing schedule

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

There is no basis for the Okada Parties to compel Wynn Resorts, Limited ("Wynn Resorts," "WRL," or the "Company") to produce the documents of its non-party, Macau subsidiary Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A. ("WRMSA"), in violation of Macau privacy laws. The Okada Parties have acknowledged the validity of the MPDPA. They acknowledge that the privacy rights of third parties protected by the MPDPA cannot be waived, and they do not want to be deemed to have waived them by seeking affirmative relief that they believe implicate documents that exist in Macau. In fact, Mr. Okada refuses to consent to waive the MPDPA for purposes of his protected data that may exist in the documents he now seeks, and he refuses to agree that the companies he controls may have waived his MPDPA privacy rights by seeking affirmative relief in this Court. Yet, Mr. Okada and his companies want this Court to order Wynn Resorts to violate the MPDPA.

Perhaps the order they seek will fuel Mr. Okada, Universal, and Aruze's lawsuit they brought against the Wynn parties in Macau for . . . violation of privacy rights under the MPDPA. But, even if that is so, the Okada Parties cannot use this Court to play such games. When forced with the Court's question about their potential waiver, the tide shifted.

If Mr. Okada will not consent – and he will not – to waive his rights under the MPDPA, and the Okada Parties acknowledge that no one can waive the MPDPA rights of third parties, the relief they seek via their motion to compel is unattainable (not to mention in less than good faith). Their motion to compel the "properly" redacted documents produced by non-party WRMSA in this litigation must be denied.

II. ADDITIONAL RELEVANT FACTS

A. The Court's Question Related to the Okada Parties' Pending Motion to Compel.

On April 15, 2016, the Okada Parties moved to compel the re-production of documents that belong to non-party WRMSA via Wynn Resorts, Limited. (See generally Okada Parties' Motion to Compel ("MTC"), filed on April 15, 2016, on file.) Wynn Resorts filed its Opposition

1 (see generally WRL Opp'n, filed on May 2, 2016, on file),¹ and the matter was heard on shortened
2 time on May 3, 2016. (See generally MTC Hr'g Tr., May 3, 2016, on file.)

3 During the hearing, the Court stated that it was going to conduct an in camera
4 "document-by-document or at least a category-by-category review analysis" of the WRMSA
5 documents that contained redactions based upon the MPDPA. (MTC Hr'g Tr., May 5, 2016, 6 26:1-3.) Pursuant to the Court's instruction, Wynn Resorts submitted the ordered documents to 7 the Court for in camera review on June 10, 2016. (WRL's Second Notice of Submission for 8 In Camera Review, June 10, 2016, on file.)

9 One week later, on June 17, 2016, the Court advised that the in camera review had 10 commenced and it had a question for the parties to consider: "whether the waiver I imposed in 11 the Jacobs [v. Las Vegas Sands Corp., et al., Case No. A-627691] case of the Macau Data Privacy
12 Act by being involved in the litigation applies to Mr. Okada similarly in this case, which would 13 remove some of the issues in the 15 boxes of documents I've been randomly sampling at the 14 moment." (Hr'g Tr., June 17, 2016, 16:16-20, on file.)

16 Very briefly, in Jacobs, Plaintiff Steven C. Jacobs filed suit against Defendants Las Vegas
17 Sands Corp. and its Macau affiliate, Sands China, Limited (collectively, "Sands"), concerning 18 various issues and events that took place in both Nevada and Macau. The case, now resolved, 19 was pending before this same Court. Jacobs requested documents from Sands China, a named 20 defendant in that action. Sands China produced documents from Macau, and redacted them based 21 upon the MPDPA. At some point, Sands China asked that Jacobs consent to the review in Macau
22 and production outside of Macau documents that contain his personal data (i.e., waive his rights
23 under the MPDPA). Jacobs refused to sign the form of consent provided by Sands (for a variety 24 of reasons that are of no moment to the instant debate), and Sands China moved the Court to 25 compel Jacobs "to sign [a] consent to transfer personal data otherwise protected by the Macau

28 ¹ The facts and arguments in Wynn Resorts' Opposition as well as the arguments offered at the hearing in this matter are incorporated by this reference as though fully restated herein.

1 Personal Data Protection Act." (Ex. 17, SCL's Motion to Compel Plaintiff to Sign Consent to
2 Transfer, filed on Jan. 19, 2016.)

3 During the resulting hearing, the Court asked counsel for Mr. Jacobs: "Assume for a 4 moment that I'm not going to order your client to sign a consent that requires him to be subject to 5 Macanese law for any purpose. Don't you believe that [Jacobs] has waived any objection he may 6 have had if any privilege [sic] did exist by bringing this litigation related to those documents
7 [discoverable documents that exist in Macau]?" (See Ex. 18, Jacobs/Sands Hr'g Tr., Feb. 18, 8 2016, 23:21-24.) The response from Jacobs was "Yes." (Id. at 23:25.) The Court thus ruled as 9 follows: "The motion is denied. However, you may submit an order asking me to find that 10 Mr. Jacobs has waived the ability to object to any release of that information by the bringing of 11 this lawsuit which puts in issue the documents which are in Macau." (Id. at 26:12-16.)

12 C. The Parties Considered the Court's Question and Agree that There Was No
13 Waiver of the MPDPA by Okada.

14 In light of the above, the question necessarily posed to the parties in the instant action by 15 this Court is as follows: "[Whether Mr. Okada] has waived the ability to object to any release of 16 that information by the bringing of this lawsuit which puts in issue the documents which are in 17 Macau." (See id. at 26:12-16.)² The parties engaged in multiple discussions related to the Court's
18 question, and ultimately agreed that the waiver applied to Plaintiff Jacobs in the Jacobs/Sands
19 case does not apply in this action. (See Joint Status Report to the Court on Issue of MPDPA
20 Waiver ("Joint Status Report"), dated Aug. 5, 2016, on file.)

21 However, the Court's question raised a number of issues that are relevant to the Court's
22 ongoing consideration of the Okada Parties' Motion to Compel documents without the MPDPA
23 redactions. Therefore, the parties agreed that further briefing to the Court on these MPDPA
24 issues was warranted. (Id.)

26
27 ² In this case, the Court asked the parties to consider if Mr. Okada waived any objections to 28 the MPDPA "by being involved" in the litigation, like the "waiver I imposed in Jacobs."
(Hr'g Tr., June 17, 2016, 16:16-20.) But, this Court in Jacobs/Sands found waiver of the MPDPA by Jacobs "by the bringing of th[at] lawsuit. . . ." (Ex. 18, Jacobs/Sands Hr'g Tr., Feb. 18, 2016, 23:21-24.)

1 III. ADDITIONAL ANALYSIS

2 A. The Facts Related to the MPDPA in the Jacobs/Sands Action Are Unlike the 3 Facts in this Action.

4 1. *Unlike in Jacobs/Sands, Mr. Okada has not asserted affirmative claims
5 for relief in this Nevada action.

6 In Jacobs/Sands, Plaintiff Jacobs asserted affirmative claims and sought affirmative relief
7 related to activities and events in both Nevada and Macau, the latter of which necessarily 8 implicated documents in Macau. In the instant action, the Okada Parties are defendants, not 9 plaintiffs. But, more importantly, Mr. Okada did not individually assert affirmative counterclaims
10 for relief in this Nevada action. Rather, Universal and Aruze are the only named counterclaimants
11 in this action.³ This means that Okada could not have waived his own privacy rights under the 12 MPDPA by seeking affirmative relief in this action in the same way that this Court ruled that 13 Jacobs did (and Jacobs agreed that he waived but he refused to sign Sands' presented form of 14 consent).⁴ (See Ex. 18, Jacobs/Sands Hr'g Tr., Feb. 18, 2016, 23:21-25.)

15 The parties also agree that a corporate entity cannot waive its employees' MPDPA rights.
16 (Joint Status Report, 2:26-3:1.) Therefore, by asserting affirmative counterclaims in this Nevada
17 court, the corporate entities – Universal and Aruze – could not have waived Mr. Okada's privacy 18 rights, or any of the privacy rights of their current employees, or the privacy rights of its former 19 employees. (Joint Status Report, 3:1-3.)

20 2. *Unlike in Jacobs/Sands, WRMSA is not a named party, and it acted 21 diligently with regard to Nevada discovery obligations and Macau laws.

22 There are many more reasons this case is not like Jacobs/Sands when it comes to the 23 MPDPA. In Jacobs/Sands, Sands China, LVSC's Macau affiliate, was a named party.

24 ³ As discussed in more detail in Section B(3) below, Mr. Okada (along with Universal and 25 Aruze) does assert claims for affirmative relief against the Wynn Parties in Macau. But, because 26 of the claims that he and his companies have asserted in Macau related to the MPDPA, he does 27 not believe that his or his companies' pursuit of affirmative relief in either forum constitutes a 28 waiver of the MPDPA.

⁴ Of course, Okada is the plaintiff in the books and records writ proceeding that he brought against Wynn Resorts on January 12, 2012 in the Eighth Judicial District Court, and presided over by this Court. That writ proceeding remains pending and was coordinated with this case for purposes of discovery. (Ex. 19, Docket in Case No. A-654522; see also Hr'g Tr. in Case Nos. A-654522 & A656710, June 28, 2013, 25:17-21, on file.)

1 Sands China had its own NRCP 16.1 obligations and obligations to respond to NRCP 34 requests
2 that it chose to disregard.

3 Here, WRMSA is not a named party in this action. Rather, Wynn Resorts worked with its 4 non-party Macau subsidiary to gather documents responsive to various discovery requests and 5 Rule 16.1 obligations that the Okada Parties propounded on Wynn Resorts. Wynn Resorts acted
6 with WRMSA, and pursuant to the laws that bind its Macau subsidiary, including the MPDPA,
7 and did so with the utmost diligence. In this regard, non-party WRMSA and Wynn Resorts'
8 conduct in this case as it relates to the production of documents from Macau is also dissimilar to 9 the conduct by Las Vegas Sands and Sands China in the Jacobs/Sands case. Here, Wynn Resorts
10 has been open and upfront about the WRMSA's invocation of the MPDPA, and Wynn Resorts is 11 not avoiding its discovery obligations and refusing to produce discoverable documents of its 12 Macau affiliate in this action. (See WRL's Opp'n to MTC, II.A.) Exactly the opposite is true
13 here. But this was not the case at the outset of the Jacobs/Sands case.

14 Here, WRMSA sought consents from current and former employees and, in the end,
15 received consents from 79 individuals. (Ex. 20, Spinelli Decl. ¶ 2.) This was not the case at the 16 outset of the Jacobs/Sands case. And here, WRMSA did not wholesale redact documents in a way 17 that made documents unreadable or the subject matter indecipherable, which was not the case at 18 the outset of the Jacobs action. Indeed, the MPDPA redaction logs WRMSA and Wynn Resorts 19 served provided information as to the type of personal data redacted and, without identifying any 20 personal data, a general description of duties or identities, when possible. (See Ex. K to 21 Okada Parties' MTC, WRMSA Disclosure and Redaction Log.) This also was not the case in the 22 Jacobs/Sands action.

23 B. The Okada Parties Agree that the MPDPA is a Valid and Enforceable Law to 24 Protect Third Parties.

25 1. Just like the Okada Parties, neither Wynn Resorts nor non-party
26 WRMSA has the right or ability to waive third parties' privacy rights
27 afforded by the MPDPA.

28 This Court's question about MPDPA waiver made the Okada Parties think about the relief they were seeking via their Motion to Compel, and the potential consequences if they agreed that

1 one could waive the privacy rights of third parties by bringing affirmative claims that implicate
2 Macau data. The Okada Parties realized that they could not agree to such a proposition. In so
3 doing, the Okada Parties undermined their own positions in their Motion to Compel.

4 In their Motion to Compel "improperly redacted documents," the Okada Parties argue that 5 Wynn Resorts and/or WRMSA should be compelled to produce WRMSA's documents without 6 MPDPA redactions and without any regard for the privacy rights of third parties that the MPDPA
7 is designed to protect. But the Court's question about waiver forced the Okada Parties to 8 acknowledge and state aloud to this Court that the MPDPA applies to documents in Macau and 9 protects third parties. (Joint Status Report, 2:26-3:5.) The Court's question also forced the 10 Okada Parties to acknowledge that, if this Court orders that Universal or Aruze waived its 11 employees and/or former employees' privacy rights afforded under the MPDPA by seeking relief 12 that implicated Macau documents, they – the Okada Parties – would be subject to liability in 13 Macau for their violations of these non-parties' privacy rights.

14 2. Thus, the Sword/Shield Privilege Doctrine the Okada Parties request 15 cannot apply here to the detriment of third parties' privacy rights.

16 The Okada Parties argued in their Motion to Compel and at the hearing that Wynn Resorts
17 should not be able to use the MPDPA as both a sword and a shield, analogizing the MPDPA to 18 the context of attorney-client privilege, and asking the Court to borrow and apply the privilege
19 doctrine to privacy laws that protect third parties' rights. (See, e.g., MTC 9:15-28; see also MTC
20 Hr'g Tr., May 3, 2016, 14:20-23, 17:2-13, 19:7-20:2 ("Call it waiver or call it sword/shield, 21 Your Honor,").) But, given the Okada Parties' acknowledgement that there can be no 22 waiver of third parties' privacy rights, the sword shield privilege/waiver analogy cannot have any 23 valid application here.

24 In the context of attorney-client privilege, the sword/shield doctrine is applied so that a 25 party cannot selectively waive its own privilege to use as a sword against its adversary when the 26 privileged information is to its own benefit, but invoke the attorney client privilege as a shield 27 against production of its own privileged information when the privileged information is to its 28 disadvantage. You either waive your privilege or you do not waive your privilege.

1 But, in the context of the MPDPA (or other privacy laws), the discussion is not about 2 Wynn Resorts' privacy rights. It is about the privacy rights of others afforded by the MPDPA.
3 The Okada Parties were forced to acknowledge this recognition aloud and in writing. And, it cuts
4 against not only the argument they make – i.e., that the MPDPA redactions in WRMSA's
5 documents were "improper" – but also the relief they seek – i.e., that Wynn Resorts and WRMSA
6 be compelled to violate the acknowledged privacy rights of third parties (e.g., current and former 7 employees of WRMSA, the current and former employees of the Okada Parties, and any other 8 third party's name who may appear in the documents they seek to compel in unredacted form).
9 The sword/shield argument fails when discussing the privacy rights of non-parties.

10 3. *The Okada Parties' lawsuit in Macau is revealing.

11 Yet another reason that the Okada Parties do not want to be deemed to have waived the 12 MPDPA for third parties (or themselves, as it relates to Okada) is that it undermines their position
13 against Wynn Resorts in separate litigation. Specifically, in or around February 12, 2015, the 14 Okada Parties filed suit in Macau against WRMSA, Mr. Wynn, Wong Chi Seng, and Linda Chen, 15 asserting a number of affirmative claims and making many, if not all, of the same allegations that 16 Universal and Aruze have in this action.⁵ (See generally Ex. 21, English Translation of 17 Okada Parties' Macau Complaint filed against the Wynn Parties ("Macau Compl."), filed on 18 Feb. 12, 2015.) One set of allegations and causes of action that appears in Macau but not in the 19 United States is that the Wynn Parties violated the MPDPA by providing information to the 20 Freeh Group without the authorization required under the MPDPA. (See id. ¶¶ 163-195.)

21 In the Okada Parties' Macau Complaint, some of the relevant allegations about the 22 applicability and enforceability of the MPDPA are as follows:

23 167. *At no time did the aforementioned citizens give any 24 authorization for the use of their personal information, their 25 personal data, by [WRMSA], its employees, WYNN RESORTS,
26 LIMITED or any other person, company or entity, much less did they solicit these citizens' authorization for the transmission of said information and personal data outside the MSAR.

27 ⁵ Yes, although Mr. Okada has not joined in his companies' affirmative claims in the 28 United States, he has assertive affirmative claims on many of the same issues and facts in Macau.

168. It must be emphasized that [the MPDPA], modeled as it is on the Council of the European Union's Directive 2005/85/CE, is much more demanding in this respect than the law in effect in the United States of America.

(Id. ¶¶ 167-68 (emphasis added).) The Okada Parties go on to allege that an intentional or reckless violation of a third parties' rights under the MPDPA is "an unlawful and wrongful infringement upon the right of another or any legal provision designed to protect the interests of others. . . ." (Id. ¶¶ 187-188 (emphasis added).)

And, the Okada Parties affirmatively allege what the MPDPA requires to protect third parties' privacy rights. Specifically, they allege that the Wynn Parties "knew that none of those citizens had authorized them to transmit their data . . . and they also knew that they needed said authorization to do so" and that the Wynn Parties "also knew that they had not requested authorization from (or even notified) the GPDP according to the terms of the Personal Data Protection Law in order to be able to perform those acts lawfully, and they also knew that they needed to have done so in order to proceed lawfully." (Id. ¶¶ 191-192.)

Of course, the Okada Parties are seeking monetary compensation⁶ for their purported injuries as a result of the Wynn Parties' violation of the MPDPA, and state that the Macau MPDPA statute "leaves no room for doubt that a violation of the provisions of the Personal Data Protection Law is sufficient grounds for claiming compensation for damages resulting from said violation, since, furthermore, there is a presupposition of vicarious liability, when, in no. 1 of the aforementioned article, it states that the 'damage resulting from the unlawful handling of data or from any other act that violates a legal or regulatory provision governing the protection of personal data' gives the injured . . . the right to seek compensation from the 'party responsible' . . ." (Id. ¶ 185 (emphasis in original).)

Because of their positions taken in Macau and the relief they seek there, the Okada Parties cannot agree that by seeking affirmative relief that implicates Macau documents they are waiving the MPDPA as it relates to themselves or to their current or former employees and/or third parties.

⁶ The Okada Parties also seek "dissolution" of WRMSA.

1 This would be intentional to perhaps reckless conduct that would subject them to vicarious
2 liability, according to their own allegations.

3 But, this double speak also reveals several other important admissions:

- 4 1. The Okada Parties acknowledge that the MPDPA is a valid and enforceable 5 statute;
- 6 2. The Okada Parties know the MPDPA applies to WRMSA's documents;
- 7 3. The Okada Parties know that the MPDPA protects third parties' rights;
- 8 4. The Okada Parties know that the MPDPA can only be waived by an individual 9 whose personal data is at issue; and
- 10 5. The Okada Parties know that there are serious consequences to violating the 11 MPDPA.

12 Yet, in spite of all of this, the Okada Parties ask this Court to compel Wynn Resorts (and 13 thereby non-party WRMSA) to violate the MPDPA and the rights of third parties. No. The 14 Okada Parties' position on the MPDPA cannot be permitted to vacillate depending upon the forum
15 and the desired outcome. The MPDPA applies to WRMSA's documents and, given the great 16 efforts to comply with both Macau and Nevada law (discussed more below), there is no valid
17 basis to compel Wynn Resorts or WRMSA to violate that law or impose any sanction.

18 4. Mr. Okada still refuses to waive the MPDPA.

19 As this Court knows, the Wynn Parties asked Mr. Okada whether he would consent to the 20 production of his personal data for purposes of this action, and he refused. (Ex. 15 to WRL's 21 Opp'n to MTC.) Given Mr. Okada's position in Macau that the MPDPA is valid and enforceable, 22 and his understanding (as he alleged in his Macau Complaint) that only he can waive his privacy
23 rights under the MPDPA, Mr. Okada still refused to consent to allow WRMSA to produce
24 documents out of Macau with just his name unredacted for the limited purpose of this action.
25 (Ex. 20, Spinelli Decl. ¶ 3.) This position is telling.

26 During the meet and confer discussions, Wynn Resorts again asked if Mr. Okada would 27 consent to the production of his personal data under the MPDPA for this action. (Id. ¶¶ 3-4.) To 28 this end, Wynn Resorts explained how personal data in WRMSA's documents was redacted, and

1 further explained that Mr. Okada's personal data was redacted with a different tool/tag than the 2 personal data of others. (Id. ¶¶ 4-5.) This was done so that if Mr. Okada ever changed his mind
3 and signed a waiver consenting to the production of his personal data from Macau for purposes of 4 this action, then the entire WRMSA production could be reproduced with Mr. Okada's name
5 unredacted without the time consuming (and expensive) process of sending teams of counsel back
6 to Macau to re-review the entire production and adjust the redactions. (Id. ¶ 5.)

7 In this context, Wynn Resorts stated that if Mr. Okada signed the waiver (and thus 8 eliminated any potential liability as to WRMSA or any Wynn party or affiliate for violation of 9 Mr. Okada's rights under the MPDPA), WRMSA would be able to re-produce the WRMSA
10 documents with Mr. Okada's name unredacted and was prepared to do so as swiftly as possible.⁷
11 (Id. ¶¶ 5-6.) Despite this – which would address the Court's stated frustration with the redaction
12 of Mr. Okada's name – Mr. Okada declined. (Id. ¶ 8.)

13 Now, Mr. Okada certainly has the right to decline to consent under the MPDPA. But, if 14 he chooses to do so, neither he nor the companies he runs should be entitled to complain that his 15 rights are being trampled in this Court to his detriment. And, neither he nor his companies should 16 be entitled to the relief he seeks via his Motion to Compel, which would thus subject
17 Wynn Resorts and non-party WRMSA to attack by the Okada Parties in a different forum.

18 C. Wynn Resorts Complied with its Discovery Obligations and Nevada Law.

19 As previously discussed in Wynn Resorts' Opposition, in oral argument at the hearing, and 20 in the Second Notice of In Camera Submission, Wynn Resorts took great efforts to gather and 21 produce discoverable documents (related to the Okada Parties' affirmative defenses and 22 counterclaims) from its non-party Macau affiliate and produce them in this Nevada action.
23 Despite these efforts, and as expected, the Okada Parties argue in their Motion to Compel that
24 Wynn Resorts' production of non-party WRMSA's documents from Macau with MPDPA
26

27 ⁷ While the production would be much easier and quicker than previous Macau reviews and 28 production, the process would still require time for counsel to travel to Macau to gather the data, and then time to address the typical production logistics once the data arrives in the United States.
(Ex. 20, Spinelli Decl. ¶ 7.)

1 redactions is not permitted under Nevada law. (MTC 8:18-9:14, citing Las Vegas Sands Corp. v.
2 Eighth Judicial District Court, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 331 P.3d 876, 877 (2014).)

3 The Okada Parties first argued that "a privacy statute does not, by itself, excuse a party
4 from complying with a discovery order" (id. at 8:25-26 (emphasis in MTC), and claimed that this
5 Court had already ordered Wynn Resorts to produce the subject documents without regard to any 6 privileges or protections, including the MPDPA (id. at 9:10-14). There was no such order, as this
7 Court stated during the May 3, 2016 hearing. (Id. at 13:20-14:8 (THE COURT. . . Why do you
8 think I issued an order already telling [Wynn] that they couldn't rely on the Macau Data Privacy
9 Act? . . . Okay. I didn't make a wholesale ruling on that issue [the MPDPA] at this point . . . So,
10 let's deal with this as a motion to compel now, rather than a motion for sanctions").)⁸

11 The Okada Parties next argued that Wynn Resorts (and non-party WRMSA purportedly)
12 had redacted documents that existed outside of Macau. (MTC 10:1-11:4.) They appeared to 13 argue (though mistakenly) that documents provided to the Freeh Group could not be redacted
14 based upon the MPDPA because they were already transferred out of Macau. (See id. at 9:15-28.)
15 Wynn Resorts explained, again, that documents from Macau provided to the Freeh Group were 16 not redacted based upon the MPDPA. (MTC Hr'g Tr., May 3, 2016, 25:5-9.) They were either 17 provided to the Okada Parties without redactions or appear on a privilege log, consistent with 18 Wynn Resorts' privilege assertions over communications both pre and post-redemption with the 19 Freeh Group. MTC Hr'g Tr., May 3, 2016, 25:5-9.)⁹

21 ⁸ Thus, this Court has denied the sanction portion of the Okada Parties' current Motion.

22 ⁹ The Court, and then the Okada Parties discussed this further at the hearing, and seemed to 23 acknowledge that Wynn Resorts did not apply MPDPA redactions to documents given to 24 Judge Freeh that were subject to the violation and fine by the Macau Government. (See MTC 25 Hr'g Tr., May 3, 2016, 17:14-22.) The Court further acknowledged this based upon its in camera 26 review of some of the documents on the Wynn Parties' Freeh-related privilege log. (See id.
27 at 26:3-7.) This Court ordered that no privilege or protection applies to the Wynn Parties' 28 communications with the Freeh Group pre-redemption. (See Order Regarding (1) Motions to Compel Freeh Documents and (2) In Camera Review of Freeh Group Documents, dated May 3, 2016, on file.) The Wynn Parties filed a Petition for Writ of Prohibition or Mandamus with the Nevada Supreme Court with respect to this Order on May 24, 2016. On July 12, 2016, the Supreme Court directed the Okada Parties to file an answer to the Petition, which they did on August 12, 2016. The Wynn Parties' reply in support of the writ is due on or before August 29, 2016.

1 Finally, the Okada Parties argued that Wynn Resorts failed to produce documents and/or
2 that WRMSA redacted documents that exist in the United States. (MTC 10:1-11:4.)
3 Wynn Resorts proceeded to explain its process to the Court and (again) to the Okada Parties.¹⁰

5 This Court ordered supplemental briefing with respect to Wynn Resorts' privilege
6 with the Freeh Group post-redemption. Wynn Resorts filed its Supplemental Brief Regarding 7 Post-Redemption Documents on the Freeh Privilege Log on May 12, 2016. The Okada Parties
8 filed their Opposition on June 9, 2016, and Wynn Resorts submitted its Reply on June 20, 2016.
9 The matter is still pending.

11 ¹⁰ The Okada Parties provided some examples as exhibits to their Motion. To be 12 clear on this point: if a discoverable document could only be located in Macau, the document was 13 produced out of Macau by WRMSA with MPDPA redactions. Some were identified during the 14 review process, and others during the manual review and comparison for each WRMSA-produced 15 document. Each of the Okada Parties' exhibits is addressed in turn:

17 Exhibit H consists of four email strings. The first email chain, WRM00008868-69, has 18 only Macau custodians throughout the chain, and is a WRMSA document that does not exist in 19 the United States. The second email chain, WRM00000821-823, does have U.S. custodians on 20 parts of the chain, and a manual search in the United States located a near match,
21 WYNN00062622-24. The third email chain, WRM00001039, consists of three emails. The top
22 email in the chain, which consists of only "FYI" has only two custodians and they are Macau
23 custodians. So, the entire chain was produced out of Macau with MPDPA redactions. However, 24 the two substantive emails in this chain were produced unredacted by Wynn Resorts, more than 25 once (WYNN00033983, 40638, 33985). The fourth and final email in Exhibit H
26 (WRM00007428-29), consists of three emails. The first email in the chain has only Macau 27 custodians, therefore personal data was redacted out of email string when it was produced out of 28 Macau. But, the two bottom emails – the ones with the substance – were located in the United States and produced by Wynn Resorts without MPDPA redactions, WYNN00060911.

Exhibit I consists of one email string with four emails in the string (WRM00001041-42).
The top two emails are between a Macau custodian and someone in Hong Kong, and a duplicate does not exist in the United States and therefore was produced by WRMSA out of Macau with MPDPA redactions. A near duplicate string, with the third and fourth emails in the chain, was located in the United States and produced by Wynn Resorts without MPDPA redactions, WYNN00062114.

Exhibit J consists of one email string, with no U.S. custodians (WRM00009133). This document may discuss US issues, but it was not located in the United States and thus produced out of Macau by WRMSA with MPDPA redactions.

Exhibit L consists of two email strings. The first string (WRM00016314) contains both MPDPA and Macau privilege redactions. The top email has no U.S. custodian, so the entire email was produced out of Macau with MPDPA and privilege redactions. The bottom email has US custodians and was produced out of the United States by Wynn Resorts without MPDPA redactions, but the privilege redactions remain (WYNN0060942). The second string has U.S.
custodians (WRM00016399), and a content duplicate was produced by Wynn Resorts without MPDPA redactions (though privilege redactions remain (WYNN00058311)).

Exhibit M consists of two email strings. The top two emails in the first string have no
U.S. custodian, and thus the entire documents was produced out of Macau by WRMSA with MPDPA redactions. However, the third, fourth and fifth emails in the strings have U.S.
custodians, were located in and produced out of the United States by Wynn Resorts without any

1 Briefly, before commencing the review of WRMSA's documents in Macau for 2 discoverability, Wynn Resorts sent its entire database to Macau so that exact duplicates of 3 documents already in the United States would be removed (i.e., de-duplicated) from the Macau
4 population. (See WRL's Second Notice of Submission for In Camera Review, June 10, 2016,
5 2:20-23.) Therefore, all exact ESI duplicates – whether responsive or not – were removed from 6 the Macau data population and responsive documents produced out of the United States without 7 redactions. (Id.)

8 Following this explanation, the Court wanted to compare each WRMSA document
9 produced out of Macau with MPDPA redactions with every duplicate, near duplicate, or partial 10 duplicate that Wynn Resorts produced from Nevada without redactions. The Court directed
11 Wynn Resorts to compile the documents, and asked that they be submitted for in camera review
12 with a chart that cross-referenced the WRMSA and WRL produced documents.

13 Different than an electronic search for duplicates (i.e., a computer searches for and 14 identifies ESI duplicates), the search for content duplicates must be manually done, document by 15 document. (WRL's Second Notice of Submission for In Camera Review, June 10, 2016, 3:1-6.)
16 This was a time-intensive process, as Wynn Resorts searched not only for exact duplicates, but 17 also for near duplicates and parts of each email string, parts of each family of documents, etc.
18 During this manual review, some additional near or partial duplicate documents were located in 19 the United States and disclosed and produced without MPDPA redactions (because they were 20 Wynn Resorts' documents). (Id.)¹¹ On June 10, 2016, Wynn Resorts provided the requested
21 documents and chart to the Court for her in camera review. (See generally id.)

22 In sum, Wynn Resorts made great efforts to locate and produce duplicates, content
23 duplicates, near duplicates, and/or partial duplicates of any WRMSA document that could be 24

25 MPDPA redactions (WYNN00029895, 62601). The second string (WRM00016477) has a U.S.
26 custodian, and a content duplicate located in the United States and produced without MPDPA redactions by Wynn Resorts (WYNN00060917).

27 ¹¹ Some WRMSA documents may have a WRL sender or recipient, but those 28 documents, despite deliberate searches, could not be located in the United States data population and therefore, the responsive document could only be produced by WRMSA out of Macau and thus with MPDPA redactions.

1 located in the United States and, if and when found, produced them without MPDPA redactions.
2 But some documents could not be located in the United States, and others were just not ever in the 3 United States. In that scenario, the only available discoverable document belonged to non-party
4 WRMSA and necessarily had to be produced out of Macau with the MPDPA redactions. Thus,
5 WRMSA and Wynn Resorts did so.

6 IV. CONCLUSION

7 In light of the foregoing, Wynn Resorts respectfully requests that the Okada Parties'
8 motion to compel the re-production of WRMSA's documents but without MPDPA redactions be 9 denied in its entirety. The Okada Parties have acknowledged the validity of the MPDPA and the 10 third party privacy rights that stem therefrom. The Okada Parties have stated that they have not,
11 and will not, agree to waive the privacy rights of third parties, including their current employees.
12 And, Mr. Okada has refused to waive his own MPDPA rights or allow his companies to waive his 13 rights. Rather, the Okada Parties ask this Court to order the production and violation of the 14 MPDPA in this Nevada action so that WRMSA and Wynn Resorts (and the other defendants in 15 his Macau lawsuit) may be held liable in the lawsuit he brought against the Wynn Parties in 16 Macau. The motion must be denied.

1 in the declaration below, the parties have conferred on the subject and could not resolve the 2 issue by mutual agreement.

3 PROCEDURAL NOTE: NRS 1.235(5) provides that a judge “against whom an 4 affidavit alleging bias or prejudice is filed shall proceed no further with the matter”
5 Consistent with that provision, this Court, through its Judicial Executive Assistant, has informed
6 SCL that it would not entertain any requests or applications for orders shortening time while 7 LVSC’s Motion for Disqualification was pending. Also consistent with NRS 1.235(5), on 8 January 15, 2016, the Court entered a minute order vacating the hearing on Defendant Sands
9 China, Ltd.’s Motion for Order to Show Cause, which was set for January 19, 2016.

10 Given the short time left for discovery in this case, the instant motion would be filed
11 with a request for an order shortening time. However, given the Court’s interpretation of NRS 12 1.235(5), the motion is now being filed in the ordinary course without any waiver of the right to 13 request an expedited hearing before the judicial officer to whom the case remains, or is,
14 assigned to once the disqualification issue is resolved. This motion is not and should not be 15 construed as a request for the Court to take action prior to the resolution of LVSC’s Motion for 16 Disqualification.

DECLARATION OF J. RANDALL JONES, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL

1. I am a partner with Kemp, Jones & Coulthard, LLP and represent Sands China, Ltd. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration, and I am competent to testify to them.

2. This motion is brought for the purpose of resolving a discovery dispute regarding SCL's request that Jacobs execute the MPDPA consent form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. On October 1, 2014, my partner, Mark Jones sent an email to Todd Bice, Esq., counsel for Jacobs, requesting that Jacobs sign a form consenting to the transfer of certain personal identifying information outside of Macau for use in this litigation. See email attached hereto as Exhibit B.

4. On October 8, 2014, Mr. Bice responded to this email denying the request for consent using the flawed reasoning that doing so would violate the Court's previous rulings. See letter attached hereto as Exhibit C.

5. On October 5, 2015, I sent an email to Mr. Bice, requesting that Jacobs sign an MPDPA consent. See email attached hereto as Exhibit D. Mr. Bice responded via telephone and indicated that he would like certain terms of the consent form rephrased.

6. In spite of multiple requests for him to do so, Mr. Bice never presented any proposed alterations, revisions, or comments to the draft MPDPA consent form.

7. Based on the foregoing, it is clear that Jacobs does not intend to voluntarily consent to have his name unredacted from documents produced in this case by signing the MPDPA consent form.

8. I certify that this motion is brought for a proper purpose.

I.

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

In spite of SCL's numerous requests that Jacobs sign an MPDPA consent, he has refused to do so and failed to justify his refusal with any credible or logical reasoning. Based on the lack of support for his conduct, it is clear that Jacobs' true motivation in refusing consent is to promote his agenda of procedural gamesmanship and posturing. Jacobs clearly intends to prosecute his case by manufacturing imagined discovery torts instead of focusing on the merits of his allegations (or lack thereof).

The Macau Personal Data Protection Act (the "MPDPA") has been at issue frequently enough in this litigation that a lengthy recitation of its requirements and applicability in this case is unnecessary. However, a few key facts regarding the MPDPA are particularly relevant to the instant motion. First, the Court's prior sanction prohibiting SCL from redacting any documents pursuant to the MPDPA expired when merits discovery commenced. See September 14, 2012 Decision and Order, on file herein, at 8:20-23. As a result, SCL is permitted to redact certain information from documents in its possession before producing the documents consistent with the June 23, 2011 Stipulation and Order Regarding ESI Discovery. See June 23, 2011 Stipulation and Order, on file herein. Second, contrary to Plaintiff's repeated claims to the contrary, the MPDPA is not a pretext that SCL uses to conveniently deprive him from discoverable information. In fact, Plaintiff's own law firm, Pisanelli Bice, has redacted information from its documents pursuant to the MPDPA in a related case, Wynn Resorts v. Okada, A-12-656710-B. And the substantive merits of SCL's MPDPA objections are legitimized by the fact that SCL has already been sanctioned by the Macau Office of Personal Data Protection ("OPDP"). The MPDPA is a stringent foreign privacy law that carries significant consequences for its violation.

In spite of these challenges, SCL has consistently attempted to minimize any impact of its MPDPA redactions to Plaintiff. For example, SCL created a 163-page redaction log, which identified the entities that employed the individuals whose personal data was redacted. SCL also coordinated with LVSC to locate duplicate or near-duplicate documents in custody of Co-

1 Defendant, Las Vegas Sands Corp. ("LVSC") (which were not subject to the MPDPA), and 2 produce those documents. Finally, SCL also obtained consents from key employees and 3 personnel, authorizing SCL to unredact information for individuals.

4 Prior to commencement of merits discovery, SCL requested that Jacobs consent to 5 unredact his name from SCL's documents. In October of 2014, SCL requested that Jacobs sign
6 an MPDPA authorization and Jacobs objected on the facially nonsensical reasoning that this
7 Court's prior rulings prohibited him from doing so. See Exs. B and C. The reality is that Jacobs'
8 self-serving discovery tactics, not this Court's rulings, prohibited him from doing so. More
9 recently, in October of 2015, SCL again reiterated its request that Jacobs sign an MPDPA
10 consent. This time, in spite of initially agreeing to sign some form of an MPDPA consent, 11 Jacobs has dragged his feet and largely ignored SCL's request.

12 As argued more fully below, Jacobs' refusal to sign an MPDPA consent prejudices
13 SCL's ability to defend against his claims. There can be no doubt that correspondence,
14 documents, and other written evidence prepared by or transmitted to or from Jacobs is relevant
15 to this matter. By failing to consent to permit SCL to unredact his name from these documents,
16 Jacobs deprives SCL of the ability to use this relevant evidence at trial. Jacobs has affirmatively
17 placed this information at issue by bringing suit against SCL. As a plaintiff with affirmative
18 claims, he cannot be permitted to continue to deprive SCL of this relevant information.

19 II.

20 ARGUMENT

21 A. Jacobs Must be Compelled to Authorize SCL to Unredact his Name From 22 Relevant Evidence in its Possession.

23 NRCP 37(a)(2)(A) authorizes a party to request an order to compel discovery that is 24 discoverable pursuant to NRCP 16.1(a). Relevant evidence includes any evidence which tends 25 to make the existence of any fact of consequence to the determination of the action more or less 26 probable than it would be without the evidence. See NRS 48.015.

27 It is hornbook law that when a party places a particular set of facts at issue in litigation, 28 the party must be compelled to produce important evidence he or she possesses on that topic in

2 Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct. In and For Clark County, 561 P.2d 1342, 1343 (Nev. 1977); Ambac Assur.
3 Corp. v. DLJ Mortg. Capital, Inc., 939 N.Y.S.2d 333, 335 (N.Y. App. Div. 1st Dept. 2012). For 4 example, Nevada courts have long held that a party that places his or her mental health or 5 physical health at issue must be compelled to make normally confidential and private medical 6 records discoverable to other parties. See Schlatter, 561 P.2d at 1343 (“Where . . . a litigant’s
7 physical condition is in issue, a court may order discovery of medical records . . . related 8 thereto); Potter v. W. Side Transp., Inc., 188 F.R.D. 362, 365 (D. Nev. 1999) (“Plaintiffs have 9 placed their emotional and mental health in issue in this case. Examination and treatment by any 10 psychotherapist for emotional or mental related conditions . . . is relevant and not protected by 11 privilege.”). Accord Eisendrath v. Super. Ct., 134 Cal. Rptr. 2d 716, 724 (Cal. App. 2d Dist.
12 2003); Mattison v. Poulen, 353 A.2d 327, 329 (Vt. 1976).

13 It states the obvious to observe that documents and evidence in SCL’s possession that 14 were sent and/or received by Jacobs are relevant to Jacobs’ claims in this action. These 15 documents are just as relevant to this action as medical records are to an action involving 16 physical or emotional injury damages. However, due to the restrictions of the MPDPA, SCL has 17 been forced to redact Jacobs’ name and other personal information from these documents to 18 avoid criminal or civil prosecution. This restriction can be avoided by Jacobs consenting to 19 unredact his name from SCL’s documents. Jacobs’ steadfast refusal to authorize SCL to 20 disclose this information outside of Macau is no different from a personal injury plaintiff
21 refusing to authorize release of medical records. Jacobs’ conduct deprives SCL of the ability to 22 present relevant relating to Jacobs’ claims.

23 SCL has attempted to obtain Jacobs’ consent to disclose his information and unredact
24 his name from relevant documents in its possession numerous times. In response, Jacobs has 25 failed to provide a logical or rational justification for his failure to do so. For example, in 26 October of 2014, prior to the second sanctions hearing against SCL, Jacobs sought to defend his 27 refusal to consent by claiming that this Court’s prior orders somehow precluded SCL from 28 seeking consents. SCL argued then and now repeats that Jacobs’ reasoning is nonsense. Nothing

1 in this Court's orders precluded SCL from attempting to comply with both this Court's order to
2 produce documents in unredacted form and Macau's data privacy laws by securing appropriate
3 consents. More recently, Jacobs has not provided any reasoning justifying his refusal to consent
4 to the disclosure. He has agreed to provide a proposed form that he would be willing to sign, but 5 has never presented a proposed form and ignored requests to sign SCL's proposed consent form
6 (the same form SCL has used for consents from other SCL employees or officers).

7 It is clear that Jacobs cannot justify his lack of cooperation on this issue. The documents
8 for which SCL seeks to unredact Jacobs' information do not contain sensitive personal 9 information.¹ Jacobs has no personal privacy or confidentiality interest in the documents. The 10 MPDPA is the only reason that SCL cannot unredact Jacobs' name from documents, emails, 11 and other evidence for which he is a sender or recipient.

12 Given that (a) Jacobs has never articulated a credible (or even half-plausible) reason for 13 withholding his consent, and (b) that Jacobs does not possess any personal or privacy interest in 14 keeping his name redacted in SCL's documents, it is clear that Jacobs' true motivation in 15 refusing consent is, again, one of procedural gamesmanship and posturing. Jacobs clearly 16 intends to prosecute his case by manufacturing imagined discovery torts instead of proving the 17 merits of his allegations.

18 III.

19 CONCLUSION

20 The true result of Jacobs' conduct is that SCL is denied use of relevant evidence in the 21 case. SCL respectfully requests that the Court enter an order compelling Jacobs to execute and

Subject: Jacobs matter: Consent for transfer of personal data

Todd,

As you know, we have previously suggested that if you would identify the redacted documents that you believe are relevant to your current jurisdictional theory, we would then seek to obtain consents under the MPDPA from the relevant U.S. parties so that we could "unredact" their names from the documents you identified.

Having received no response from you, we have now decided to proceed on our own by getting consents from the relevant U.S. parties who are willing to provide them. To that end, I attach a consent for your client, Steven Jacobs, to sign.

We plan to begin soon the process of unredacting the relevant documents in Macau. Accordingly, if we do not hear from you by October 6, 2014, we will conclude that your client has declined to execute the consent.

Regards,

Mark M. Jones, Esq.

RE: Steven C. Jacobs v. Las Vegas Sands Corp., et al.
Eighth Judicial District Court, Case No. A627691-B

Dear Mark,

I write in response to your October 1, 2014 email regarding Mr. Jacobs' "Consent for Transfer of Personal Data."

The issues raised by your email have already been litigated and decided by the Court's September 14, 2012 Decision and Order regarding sanctions and the Court's March 27, 2013 Order Regarding Plaintiff Steven C. Jacobs' Renewed Motion for NRCP 37 Sanctions on Order Shortening Time.

Counsel
October 8, 2014

The Court has repeatedly ruled that Sands China, Ltd. ("Sands China") is not permitted to rely upon the MPDPA as a basis for not responding to discovery (i.e., as an "objection"), regardless of any "consent" from the parties to the documents. Your attempt to require Mr. Jacobs, or any other person, to provide a "consent" contravenes the Court's Orders imposing sanctions and will not be condoned.

Sincerely,

Todd L. Bice

1 LAS VEGAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2016, 8:54 A.M.
2 (Court was called to order)
3 THE COURT: That takes me to Jacobs versus Sands
4 unless there is someone in the room who thinks their case is 5 relatively short.
6 MR. BICE: Good morning, Your Honor.
7 THE COURT: Good morning.
8 MR. PEEK: Good morning, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: Good morning. How is everyone today?
10 MR. PEEK: Tired.
11 THE COURT: I understand the feeling.
12 MR. MORRIS: Good morning, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: Mr. Morris, how are you?
14 MR. MORRIS: I'm okay, I hope.
15 THE COURT: Good. Okay. Can everyone please
16 identify themselves, starting with Mr. Pisanelli and moving
17 all the way across the room so Jill and Dulce can keep up.
18 MR. PISANELLI: Good morning, Your Honor. James
19 Pisanelli on behalf of the plaintiff, Steven Jacobs.
20 MR. BICE: Todd Bice on behalf of Mr. Jacobs.
21 MR. SMITH: Jordan Smith on behalf of Mr. Jacobs.
22 MR. PEEK: 'Morning, Your Honor. Stephen Peek on 23 behalf of Las Vegas Sands and Sands China Limited.
24 MR. MORRIS: Steve Morris on behalf of Sheldon
25 Adelson.

1 MR. CASSITY: Robert Cassity on behalf of Las Vegas
2 Sands and Sands China.

3 MS. ANDERSON: Dominica Anderson on behalf of Mr.
4 Dumont.

5 MR. HEIDTKE: Good morning, Your Honor. Danny
6 Heidtke on behalf of Mr. Dumont.

7 THE COURT: Good morning. Okay.

8 MR. RANDALL JONES: Your Honor, Randall Jones.

9 THE COURT: Oh. Sorry. I knew who you were.

10 MR. RANDALL JONES: Randall Jones on behalf of Sands
11 China Limited.

12 THE COURT: I moved all the motions we vacated 13 during the pendency of the most recent motion to disqualify to 14 today. There may be some that you think are better heard on a
15 different day. I went through and read them, and the only one
16 that I think may be better served being coordinated with a 17 different motion is the one for the number of days/hours for 18 Mr. Adelson and the motion for protective order that's 19 scheduled for tomorrow. So I can either hear them together,
20 or I can hear them not together.

21 MR. RANDALL JONES: Your Honor, my only comment
22 about that is, as you probably recall, Mr. Jacobs is having 23 his deposition taken, so it'll -- if we put that over till 24 tomorrow, it'll interfere, we'll have to come back here
25 before --

1 THE COURT: Well, you're already having to come to 2 back here tomorrow, because I set the OST that was sent over
3 yesterday for tomorrow.

4 MR. RANDALL JONES: If we've got to come back
5 tomorrow, then we've got to -- then it probably doesn't make a
6 difference.

7 MR. BICE: I think, Your Honor, my view on this is 8 it's going to be somewhat influenced by the question of the 9 number of days that the Court authorizes the taking of Mr.
10 Adelson's deposition and as to whether we will then be able to 11 work out the schedule thereafter. So I think if the Court
12 resolves that question today, we may not need to be here
13 tomorrow.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. BICE: Or we can even discuss -- I don't mind
16 discussing it today.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So is anyone objecting to 18 advancing the motion for protective order on schedule for 19 tomorrow to today?

20 MR. BICE: I'm not.

21 THE COURT: Is that okay with you, Mr. Morris?

22 MR. MORRIS: I'm not.

23 MR. PEEK: I'm not, either, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So we'll do that -- we'll add
25 that to today's calendar.

1 So let's deal with Mr. Dumont's motion to transfer
2 first, since that's sort of an isolated issue compared to the 3 others.

4 MS. ANDERSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning.

5 THE COURT: Good morning. Sorry we couldn't get 6 that other case settled.

7 MS. ANDERSON: I know. They're still working on it.

8 Last time we were here it was the day after Mr.
9 Dumont's deposition. During that deposition there were 10 instructions not to answer relating to questions relating to 11 the media. And at that hearing the following morning we made 12 an argument to Your Honor to transfer the issue about the 13 appropriateness of those instructions to another judge.
14 During that hearing the Court refused or declined to transfer 15 the issue and instead substantively ruled on the 16 appropriateness of those objections and striking the 17 instructions not to answer, ordering the witness back to the 18 deposition, and instructing counsel not to instruct not to 19 answer.

20 THE COURT: Except on the basis of privilege or 21 harassment.

22 MS. ANDERSON: Right. And our position was that the 23 questions were so far afield from the issues in the case that
24 they were harassing. But, rather than get into the substance
25 and the appropriateness of those objections and instructions,

1 we asked this Court to transfer that issue to another judge.

2 Immediately after that hearing we received the
3 Court's minute order via email, setting up a procedure whereby
4 certain media questions would be transferred to another judge.
5 And we attached that email --

6 THE COURT: To the Discovery Commissioner and 7 another judge for review purposes or unavailability purposes.

8 MS. ANDERSON: Right. That order set the procedure
9 up so that questions relating to statements to the media about 10 the litigation would be transferred. Questions relating to -- 11 questions to the media about or statements to the media about 12 Jacobs would remain with Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Correct.

14 MS. ANDERSON: I have a couple issues with that.
15 One is that if -- and I believe the Court looked at the 16 questions from the deposition the night before.

17 THE COURT: I did. Somebody had sent me the 18 transcript, and I had reviewed it the night before.

19 MS. ANDERSON: So the problem with that is that the 20 questions are complete interrelated. Question, "Have you
21 discussed Mr. Jacobs or this litigation with so and so?"
22 Question, "Have you discussed this litigation or Mr. Jacobs 23 with somebody else?" So one of my concerns is that the 24 procedure the Court set up was not followed that morning,
25 because those questions are intertwined, and there was no

1 discussion about, well, let's go through these question by 2 question.

3 More importantly I believe is that the fact that 4 those questions are interrelated shows that the order that the 5 Court has set up has some problems, because the litigation is 6 about Jacobs, and Jacobs is the litigation. The questions
7 about the media occur about media events that are after the 8 litigation begins. So those two are so intertwined that the 9 distinction I believe the Court has drawn is a distinction
10 without a difference.

11 Not only that, but our position is that the Court's
12 order really is evidence, if you will, of the fact that there
13 is some concern on the Court's part that questions relating to 14 this part of the media but not that part should be transferred 15 out to the discovery master and then a different judge. That 16 in itself shows that there are some concerns, and we've laid 17 out in our motion not only that day in court, but since we 18 filed our motion the reasons we believe the Court has personal
19 interest in the media questions, has an interest in the answer
20 to the media questions, has an interest to the questions about 21 who bought the Review-Journal and how did that happen and all
22 of the questions. I think our position is the Court has an 23 interest in those, a personal interest in those, answers to 24 those questions.

25 We laid out in our motion how the Court has

1 obviously been monitoring -- through some of the comments,
2 monitoring the media, interjecting itself into the media. All
3 of those are of concern. And, of course, as Your Honor knows,
4 the standard is not that we have to prove beyond a reasonable
5 doubt or anything even close to that that there is this
6 concern. We only have to show that there -- a reasonable
7 person might think that this Court cannot be impartial. And 8 when you lay all those issues together, we strongly believe
9 that the issue about instructions not to answer with respect
10 to media questions need to be transferred to another judge.

11 THE COURT: And you're suggesting a different
12 procedure than the one I've already set up?

13 MS. ANDERSON: I am, because the -- as I said a
14 minute ago, first of all, the questions that were asked -- 15 each question is both Mr. Jacobs and the litigation. And the 16 reason for that is logically because the two are the same.
17 They're so intertwined that the -- when I read the Court's 18 order I did not understand it, and I think it's because that 19 really is a distinction without a difference, because the 20 litigation is about Jacobs, and Jacobs is the litigation. The 21 questions about the media are not questions about what 22 happened with the media prior to this litigation. The 23 questions are about events that occurred after this litigation
24 was well underway. So the litigation's about Jacobs.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So is there wording in the order

1 that I -- and it's not really an order, it's direction that I
2 provided to Commissioner Bulla and Judge Togliatti to ask them
3 to do a favor for us all to handle certain issues. Is there
4 certain language in that that you think would -- should be
5 clarified? That's all I'm trying to get from you. Because I
6 understand what you're telling me, that maybe it's not clear
7 because none of counsel had an opportunity to weigh in on that
8 prior to me sending it to Commissioner Bulla and Judge
9 Togliatti. But if there's language that you think would make
10 it clearer, I'm happy to consider that issue to help clarify
11 that. But the intention from me was if it had to do with 12 Jacobs it would be handled in here, if had to do with other 13 issues that relate to the litigation, that would be handled by 14 Commissioner Bulla and Togliatti because of some of the issues
15 that have been raised and Judge Barker's ruling on 16 disqualification motions.

17 MS. ANDERSON: And I understand now -- I think I
18 understand the order. The problem I have with it is if I was 19 to submit a proposed order it would say that, questions
20 relating to the media post litigation need to be referred to 21 another judge and that there is no distinction between the 22 litigation and Jacobs. And you can see through these 23 questions and you can see that they're intertwined. And the 24 litigation is Jacobs, and Jacobs is the litigation.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MS. ANDERSON: So my proposed order would be that
2 the Court follow its procedure and transfer these issues out.
3 And I do believe that the fact that some media questions are 4 being transferred and others are not could cause a reasonable
5 person to believe that there's some difficulty on the Court's
6 part of being impartial on the media questions.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 Mr. Bice.

9 MR. BICE: Yes, Your Honor. First of all, I'm 10 unclear on what the basis of the motion is. The only order
11 that the Court originally gave was is that the instructions
12 not to answer were improper. And they were improper. Mr.
13 Dumont was told not to answer questions that were reasonably
14 calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
15 Counsel essentially confirms that when they say that, well,
16 there's no way to differentiate Mr. Jacobs and his claims from 17 the media coverage that the defendants have been trying to 18 generate about his claims. And let's make no mistake about it
19 is is we have alleged there's a defamation claim in this case,
20 and that is in no small the product of a campaign to smear Mr.
21 Jacobs that has been brought by the defendants.

22 What happened after the Court said that those 23 instructions were inappropriate just demonstrates how 24 inappropriate that they were. There was -- we went to the 25 deposition the next day, there was no instructions not to

1 answer, and, guess what, we got answers to the questions.
2 They didn't like the answers, because it showed what we had 3 always suspected and what we knew, is that this campaign to 4 smear Mr. Jacobs is continuing to this day and Mr. Dumont was 5 in communications with this individual Mr. Schroeder/Clarken
6 or whatever name he goes by and that Mr. Dumont was -- had 7 even received a draft of an article about Mr. Jacobs.

8 So our point was this. Those instructions were 9 inappropriate. If they have an issue, the Court had given the 10 procedure, call Judge Togliatti or call Judge --

11 THE COURT: Commissioner Bulla.

12 MR. BICE: -- Commissioner Bulla. My apologies.
13 They chose not to do that, the questions were asked, the 14 questions were answered, and the matter, as far as I am
15 concerned, at least with respect to Mr. Dumont, is certainly 16 moot. And I don't believe that there's any basis to simply 17 try and transfer portions of the case away because the 18 defendant would prefer that someone unfamiliar with the facts
19 and circumstances of this case be deciding these questions.
20 And that's all I can offer the Court on the point.

21 THE COURT: Has the Dumont deposition concluded,
22 with the exception of issues related to claims of privilege?

23 MR. BICE: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. BICE: That is my position, yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Ms. Anderson.

2 MS. ANDERSON: I have a couple points. Now I've 3 made it clear, but maybe not enough for Mr. Bice, that were 4 not here to argue the appropriateness of the instructions not 5 to answer. We're here purely on the transfer issue. Our 6 papers laid out that the media issues which Mr. Jacobs chose 7 to bring into this litigation have absolutely no bearing on 8 this case. Media events that occurred five years or more
9 after the beginning of this litigation can have no relevance
10 to the case. So obviously we are not making any statement
11 that it's part of the case. My point was simply that when 12 they're asking about the litigation they're asking about 13 Jacobs, when they're asking about Jacobs they're asking about 14 the litigation with respect to the media occurring five years
15 after the beginning of the litigation.

16 Finally, the fact that the following day or later
17 that same day Mr. Dumont's deposition went forward with no
18 instructions not to answer was not because the questions were 19 appropriate, it was because this Court ordered Mr. Dumont to 20 answer the questions and ordered my partner to instruct -- not 21 to instruct not to answer or he would have his pro hac
22 potentially removed. And so there was no decision, well,
23 let's go in and not instruct not to answer; it was a Court
24 order. So it wasn't because the questions were appropriate.

25 THE COURT: Thank you.

1 The motion to transfer the issue is denied. The 2 procedure that has been established to deal with issues that
3 relate solely to the litigation, which is for any dispute
4 related to questions during a deposition to go to Commissioner
5 Bulla and/or Judge Togliatti, I think is a fair procedure and 6 protects everyone's interests given the concerns that have
7 previously been expressed. However, there is no reason for me
8 to transfer issues related to Jacobs to anyone else.

9 Anything else on that issue?

10 All right. If I could go to the motion to strike
11 Exhibit 887A. Mr. Jones.

12 MR. RANDALL JONES: Good morning, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: They have a total of 10 minutes for all
14 their motions.

15 (Off-record colloquy - Law Clerk and Court)

16 THE COURT: How are you and Mr. Peek going to split
17 this up today?

18 MR. RANDALL JONES: Quickly. With that in mind,
19 Your Honor, it's not relevant under NRS 48.015, not relevant
20 because the Supreme Court told us it's not relevant under -- 21 because there's no basis for finding a general jurisdiction as 22 it relates to Sands China Limited, my client. And, of course, 23 there's -- we have a protective order, so our position is that 24 that document essentially would revert back to its status as a
25 document produced in the case subject to confidentiality

1 order. There's no reason -- I mean, I think, as I recall,
2 even the Court's statements that -- you indicated yourself
3 that it was limited -- "887A was used for the limited purpose
4 of assessing general jurisdiction." That's at page 43 of the 5 transcript on December 15th of last year. I think you also 6 said, it was only reviewed in connection with the specific
7 issue of agency and shared services, which the Supreme Court
8 said was part of the general jurisdiction. And so that's our 9 position, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: It's part of our record. I've never 11 heard of anybody telling me after the fact to remove something
12 from the record after an appellate review is done.

13 MR. RANDALL JONES: Well, I guess I would say it
14 this way. Not only is there always a first time, just because 15 you haven't heard of it before, as we all know, that doesn't 16 mean that's not an appropriate --

17 THE COURT: I'm not saying it's not appropriate.
18 I'm just saying it's the first time I've ever heard of this.

19 MR. RANDALL JONES: Your Honor, I've been doing this 20 longer than you have, and it's the first time I've done it.
21 But it's the first time I've had a circumstance where I
22 thought it was appropriate. So it just -- especially when 23 we're talking about this bulk exhibit that had, you know,
24 hundreds of pages and is full of confidential and highly 25 confidential documents that should not have been in the record

1 in the first place from our perspective. And the Supreme
2 Court has now acknowledged that, and that's what they ruled.
3 So that's why we think that that's -- it's not appropriate.

4 If it came in at a hearing, as you ruled, it's part
5 of the record in a hearing, but it --

6 THE COURT: Evidentiary hearing.

7 MR. RANDALL JONES: An evidentiary hearing. But it
8 was our position that it should not have come in. And that 9 has been justified -- our position has been justified by the 10 Supreme Court. And I don't -- I guess I would ask the Court
11 why wouldn't it be taken out. What would be the purpose of 12 leaving it in there if the Court didn't rely upon it for its 13 decision that was upheld.

14 THE COURT: Well, I did rely upon it for my 15 decision.

16 MR. RANDALL JONES: Sure. No. That was upheld by 17 the Supreme Court. In other words, the Supreme Court said,
18 no, that's -- that is not a basis for jurisdiction. Specific 19 jurisdiction, sure. But that's not what you relied on these 20 documents for, your decision on specific jurisdiction. If you
21 had, I would be arguing to maintain the confidentiality of 22 those documents.

23 So at a minimum we've asked alternatively that 24 especially under these unique circumstances that you at least 25 maintain the confidentiality of these documents.

1 THE COURT: So can I do a fallback position for you?

2 MR. RANDALL JONES: Sure.

3 THE COURT: I asked eight or nine months ago for 4 your office to tell me which particular portions of 887A you
5 wanted sealed.

6 MR. RANDALL JONES: Right.

7 THE COURT: I haven't heard.

8 MR. RANDALL JONES: I thought -- you know what, Your 9 Honor, I thought we had submit that. I certainly will check
10 into that, because I know we spent a lot of time actually
11 trying to do that. So how that got lost in the mix --

12 THE COURT: Well, I think there was a change in 13 strategy.

14 MR. RANDALL JONES: And it may be because the 15 Supreme Court decision came down. I don't recall. But I do 16 know that we started that process and we were very far into 17 that process at one point. And that -- you know, candidly,
18 with all that's been going on lately, what exactly I did
19 several months ago related to a different issue, I wouldn't 20 want to say that we didn't submit it. Because if you're 21 telling me you don't have it --

22 THE COURT: I don't remember. But, remember, a lot
23 of stuff has happened to me, too, not just in this case. I
24 have lots of other cases that I deal with. So I don't recall
25 ever in motion practice seeing the designations for purposes

1 of sealing portions of Exhibit 887A, which is where I thought
2 we were going to go, as opposed to this motion, which is to 3 strike it after I've entered a decision in which I reviewed it
4 and relied upon at least parts of it.

5 MR. RANDALL JONES: Yeah. And again, Your Honor,
6 based on the transcript, we looked at the transcript -- that's 7 why we cited the transcripts. Because if you had relied on it
8 for specific jurisdiction, I wouldn't have filed this motion.
9 And so it's a unique circumstance. I've certainly never dealt
10 with this kind of situation before, and that's why we filed
11 the motion the way we did. We also did alternatively ask that 12 it be held -- maintain its confidentiality even if you don't 13 strike it because of the unique circumstances. And, as we all 14 know, if we go to trial, that's a whole different situation.
15 And if documents come in -- but at least in my experience,
16 Your Honor, I've never seen an exhibit come into evidence the 17 way that exhibit came into evidence, either. We've put both 18 documents into evidence, but not over an objection like that 19 where there were virtually -- or most documents were 20 designated confidential. So we would certainly ask the Court
21 for some consideration of this unique circumstance and ask you
22 to maintain confidentiality. We don't think that the public's 23 interest as it relates to these documents under the 24 circumstances outweigh our clients' right to privacy and 25 confidentiality of these documents under the particular

1 circumstances.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Bice. Is this yours? Or Ms.
3 Spinelli?

4 MR. BICE: Your Honor, the request is -- I think, as 5 Mr. Jones agrees, it's extraordinary, and I think here's the 6 problem with it. Let's remember how we got to Exhibit 887A.
7 And it was essentially the product of the defendants, because 8 they insisted that -- remember when we had the jurisdictional
9 -- or the sanctions hearing, the first sanctions hearing, and 10 we offered a number of the redacted documents with the 11 witnesses. When they went up on a writ to the Supreme Court 12 they tried to play up the fact that we did not spend days and 13 days and days using redacted documents with the witnesses. So 14 when we had the jurisdictional hearing we were not going to 15 take that position or let them take that position again, which 16 is why we had to offer all of the redacted documents. And 17 that's when the Court then made us go through the exercise of 18 bringing in -- I don't remember -- it was 50 or so individual
19 documents that we just pulled out of that bulk.

20 THE COURT: I made you do a random sample.

21 MR. BICE: Right. And --

22 THE COURT: It wasn't random.

23 MR. BICE: Yeah, it wasn't random. But to pull them
24 in and just show that the documents were not essentially
25 usable in light of the redactions.

1 That brings us to this point, Your Honor. Contrary
2 to Mr. Jones's argument, the Court did rely upon that, and in 3 fact it was not, as they advertise, rejected by the Supreme
4 Court. The Supreme Court upheld this Court's sanctions order.
5 And remember the sanctions were in fact noted by the Supreme 6 Court as an additional basis for the Court's underlying 7 jurisdictional ruling on both general as well as specific
8 jurisdiction. And that fact was upheld by the Supreme Court.
9 I do not believe that there is any legal authority that would 10 allow a Court to -- documents that were admitted and relied 11 upon and form part of the record to then be withdrawn from the 12 record after the fact. If they -- the Court has given then
13 ample opportunity to demonstrate under the sealing procedures
14 set up by the Nevada Supreme Court to demonstrate why these 15 particular documents on a document-by-document basis can be 16 sealed. They have declined to do that, and I don't know how 17 many times we have been over here on this issue. But I would 18 submit that we've been here enough times now. I thank the 19 Court.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Jones, anything else on 887A?

21 MR. RANDALL JONES: Very briefly, Your Honor. First 22 of all, if this is not an extraordinary request, it's an 23 unusual request. And there's a difference. Secondly, we're 24 not asking about the 50 or so documents that were individually
25 marked and admitted. We're asking about the bulk document

1 887.

2 THE COURT: Well, no. You are, actually. You are
3 actually including those, because they're part of 887A.
4 You're asking me to strike 887A.

5 MR. RANDALL JONES: I thought they were separate 6 documents.

7 THE COURT: No, they weren't. They were all part of 8 887A.

9 MR. RANDALL JONES: In any event -- in any event,
10 Your Honor, the Court clearly has the authority to do this.
11 Court under -- under our rules of evidence Court should not 12 admit nonrelevant documents, period. The Supreme Court has 13 said those are not relevant to the Court's findings. There is 14 no general jurisdiction over my client. Those documents were 15 only admitted for the purpose of general jurisdiction. So
16 this Court has the authority and the discretion and the right
17 and the power, especially as indicated by the Nevada Supreme 18 Court, to do this. So it's inappropriate to leave them in as 19 a bulk exhibit. I believe they were improperly admitted in 20 the first instance. You disagreed with us. The Supreme Court 21 has now said those documents are not relevant to the 22 jurisdiction in this case. If they're not relevant --

23 THE COURT: They didn't say that.

24 MR. RANDALL JONES: It did -- well, I -- Your Honor,
25 I don't want to argue with the Court.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. RANDALL JONES: I believe that it certainly did
3 not find general jurisdiction.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else you want to tell
5 me?

6 MR. RANDALL JONES: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: The motion is denied with requests to 8 strike Exhibit 887A. You may have four weeks to provide me
9 with a detailed listing of any documents within 887A for which 10 you are seeking sealing. That doesn't mean blanket
11 objections.

12 Okay. We have a motion on the consent related to 13 Mr. Jacobs and the MDPA.

14 MR. RANDALL JONES: Yes, Your Honor.

15 Your Honor, I think this is pretty straightforward.
16 We asked Mr. Jacobs to sign a consent going back to October of 17 2014. We asked repeated since October of this year again, and 18 Mr. Bice at least initially started -- indicated that he was 19 going to give us his proposed consent because he didn't
20 apparently like the language in ours. And we followed up -- I
21 followed up myself and asked him several times if we were 22 going to get the consent and when we could see his proposed
23 language. I never saw it. And we think that it's relevant
24 and appropriate that he sign a consent under the circumstances
25 of the case.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So tell me why the form of 2 consent that you have submitted, which includes the following
3 language, "Notwithstanding my consent, the disclosure and 4 communication of the above-mentioned records and emails to Las 5 Vegas Sands Corp. [unintelligible] shall at all times be 6 subject to the laws of Macau" --

7 MR. RANDALL JONES: Well, Your Honor, it's because 8 it's our understanding that that is what is required for a
9 consent under Macanese law, that's why. We certainly didn't
10 do it because we were trying to harass or cause a problem
11 for --

12 THE COURT: I'm just -- I was asking. When I went 13 through that was the page that I circled and marked on and had 14 to ask about --

15 MR. RANDALL JONES: Sure.

16 THE COURT: -- because in reading it that was -- I
17 understood concerns being expressed.

18 MR. RANDALL JONES: That is the only reason, and 19 that is my understanding of what I've been told is required.
20 So I believe that is the same language -- I believe the same
21 language of the other consents.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 Mr. Bice.

24 MR. BICE: Yes, Your Honor. There's more history
25 here about the consent issue, Your Honor, than we even knew

1 when we initially opposed this motion. And we learned it in 2 Mr. Chum's deposition, the 30(b)(6) deposition, or what we
3 were able to take of it last week, and that was, as the Court
4 will recall, this issue about the consents and the alleged 5 inability to obtain consents or the requirements to obtain
6 consents and what the law requires regarding these consents
7 has been bantered about quite a bit in this case. Mr. Chum
8 revealed for the first time at his deposition on behalf of the 9 company that back in 2011, despite all of the representations,
10 including testimony offered by Sands China Limited as to their 11 not getting consents from anyone regarding this case, Mr. Chum
12 admitted that the company had obtained over 200 -- or 13 approximately 200 consents back in 2011. That fact was never 14 revealed to us, it wasn't revealed to the Court, they haven't
15 been produced in this case. We do not know what they say,
16 et cetera, et cetera, et cetera.

17 THE COURT: So can I stop you for a second.

18 MR. BICE: Yep.

19 THE COURT: Assume for a minute that I'm not going 20 to order your client to sign a consent that requires him to be 21 subject to Macanese law for any purpose. Don't you believe 22 that your client has waived any objection he may have had if 23 any privilege did exist by bringing this litigation related to 24 those documents?

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. BICE: And we have never asserted that.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 MR. BICE: Right. But he should not --

5 THE COURT: I understand what you're saying.

6 MR. BICE: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Jones?

8 MR. RANDALL JONES: Yes, Your Honor. I'll only say

9 that to the extent that the Court -- it's my understanding, as

10 I said before, it's the same consent, form of consent that all

11 the other people that have signed consents have had to sign.

12 So if the Court orders us to sign -- or orders Mr. Jacobs to 13 sign a consent that is not enforceable in Macau, where we have

14 to get the documents, then it's a meaningless gesture. And so

15 we would ask -- there's nothing untoward. All we want to do

16 is try to be able to get his documents unredacted. I don't

17 see -- and the Court can -- if --

18 THE COURT: These are documents that aren't the ones

19 that are in Advance Discovery, these are other documents?

20 MR. RANDALL JONES: These are documents that would

21 be in Macau that we can't unredact in Macau.

22 THE COURT: No. The ones at Advance Discovery. You

23 know, the ones that were brought to the U.S. so they're here?

24 You're talking about additional documents, not those?

25 MR. RANDALL JONES: We're talking about documents

1 produced by Sands China Limited from Macau that have been
2 redacted. That's what we're talking about. We can't see if
3 Mr. Jacobs's name is on those until we get a consent. And,
4 Your Honor, if there's any issue with Macanese law as it
5 relates to the consent for Mr. Jacobs, he certainly has the 6 ability to come to this Court and ask for some kind of relief.
7 But we can't get the redactions without a properly filed or 8 signed consent.

9 THE COURT: Isn't one of the ways that the Macau
10 Data Privacy Act allows your client to produce information is 11 when it is subject to an order from another jurisdiction?

12 MR. RANDALL JONES: No, actually, Your Honor. At 13 least my understanding. Because that's the whole problem
14 we've had. We've taken your orders and actually gave them
15 specifically to the OPDP, and we've got letters back that 16 said, this is not sufficient. If VML was sued --

17 THE COURT: Well, what the testimony was in that 18 hearing, and I think that was before your time and I think it
19 was Mr. Fleming, who was then retiring and going gardening,
20 said that he never followed up on the issues where they said
21 there were information that was still missing that needed to 22 be subject to that request to the ODPD to comply with my 23 order.

24 MR. RANDALL JONES: I believe what Mr. Fleming said
25 -- and I was a part of the case at that time --

1 THE COURT: Were you part of the case then?

2 MR. RANDALL JONES: Yes, Your Honor, I was.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. RANDALL JONES: -- was that they never appealed
5 the decision because we got to the point of the hearing and 6 there was insufficient time to have an appeal and have a
7 resolution. Your Honor, I mean, I think you made the point.
8 We think Mr. Jacobs has waived his right to object to give us
9 this information. And I've never been a case where the 10 plaintiff has brought a suit and isn't ordered to provide a 11 consent.

12 THE COURT: Okay. The motion is denied. However, 13 you may submit an order asking me to find that Mr. Jacobs has 14 waived the ability to object to any release of that 15 information by the bringing of this lawsuit which puts in 16 issue those documents which are in Macau.

17 I have a motion to associate counsel, Mr. Morris.

18 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, thank you.

19 I'm delighted to have the opportunity to address you
20 on something, rather than just respond to who I am when court
21 is convened.

22 THE COURT: Well, we didn't offer you coffee today.
23 I feel bad about that. It was a little late in the morning
24 for the offer of coffee, so --

25 MR. MORRIS: I'll be brief with this, though. Our

1 motion to associate counsel is in the plural. There are two,
2 Nicole Wade and L. Lin Wood. The only opposition is the 3 filing we received yesterday afternoon, which you did, too,
4 and we replied to last evening --

5 THE COURT: And I got a chance to read that.

6 MR. MORRIS: -- to L. Lin Wood. The opposition
7 essentially says this, we ordinarily don't oppose motions like 8 this and they should be granted, should result in approval by 9 the Court as the Supreme Court pointed out in Imperial Credit.
10 And it's just general proposition if the application for 11 admission pro hac vice complies with the requirements of 12 Rule 42, it does, it should -- and it does here, it should be 13 granted. We've done that.

14 The opposition says, acknowledging that, tortures a 15 little bit to what Imperial Credit has to say, and tries to 16 link the Supreme Court decision in Imperial Credit to a couple 17 of decisions that are not just not in point, they're 18 outrageously not in point. One is the Kohlmayer case. The 19 other is the Kampitch case. And each one of those cases 20 involved an attorney, a notorious attorney, not only in the 21 district in which he was seeking -- and both were hes in that 22 case -- seeking admission pro hac vice, but in other
23 jurisdictions. They involved the filing of false
24 applications, failure to disclose information that was require
25 on their pro hac vice application. One case, the Kohlmayer

1 case, involved -- and the judge went to lengths to point this
2 out -- the guy applying for admission in this case has not
3 only been sanctioned numerous times, he has failed to respond
4 to sanction orders, he has failed to respond to orders to show
5 cause, and he's been responsible over the years for mistrials
6 due to his misconduct within the case being tried, which 7 included one that interested the judge in particular and said,
8 as a result of that, I don't want this guy in my court. The 9 pro hac vice applicant in that case threatened to kill his 10 opposing counsel during the course of a proceeding in which he 11 had been admitted.

12 Your Honor, it's facile, and I know that it's 13 satisfying to the other side to tender cases like this that 14 are sensational, but they are not appropriately tendered in 15 this case for this motion.

16 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Morris. I appreciate
17 that.

18 Mr. Bice.

19 MR. BICE: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 Mr. Morris is right, that we would not ordinarily 21 oppose such a request and we would ordinarily have no issue
22 with it whatsoever.

23 THE COURT: Well, then Mr. Pisanelli did roll his 24 eyes when the one was advanced on Wynn-Okada, and that didn't 25 show up on the record.

1 MR. BICE: And when Mr. Kozlov from the firm Duane
2 Morris showed up, I instantly consented to his application in
3 front of the Court. But I do believe this is a bit different
4 here, and that is because, as the application says, we have a
5 new attorney coming into the case for a party who is already 6 represented and has been represented and has appeared in this 7 action for some five years, and he's coming in, at least 8 according to the application, solely for the purpose of 9 appearing for Mr. Adelson at his upcoming deposition, which is 10 scheduled for Monday.

11 I say that because this is exactly what happened in 12 the Florida case. This same attorney was not a participant in 13 that case. Mr. Adelson's -- the first phase of Mr. Adelson's
14 deposition went forward, and then, of course, then there was a
15 subsequent order that he had to reappear, and there was a 16 special master appointed over the strenuous objection, I might 17 add, of Mr. Adelson, and that special master being a former 18 Florida appellate court judge, to sit in on his renewed
19 deposition. It was only then that Mr. Wood was -- then sought
20 an emergency pro hac vice application to appear to defend Mr.
21 Adelson at the second phase of his deposition. And, as the 22 Court knows, Mr. Adelson, at least in the jurisdictional 23 discovery, his deposition has already been started. He was 24 represented by counsel, and he has very able counsel.

25 The issue has become -- it's as simple as this.

1 Either the conduct in the Florida deposition, which we have
2 outlined to the Court, is appropriate deposition conduct or 3 it's not. According to Mr. Wood's declaration -- he's not 4 here today, but according to his declaration, he deemed that 5 conduct to be appropriate. And it is no consolation -- he
6 says, well, you know, Jacobs never moved for a sanction
7 against me in that case. That's right, we didn't; because I
8 believe summary judgment was granted either a week or two 9 weeks after that phase of the deposition.

10 So our point here is, Your Honor, either that 11 conduct is appropriate that we have outlined, or it isn't.
12 Because Mr. Wood has made it clear, I think, he intends to 13 engage in it in this case. And he's not here denying it. He 14 simply claims that, well, you know, when you're representing 15 Sheldon Adelson under these circumstances that sort of 16 activity is deemed to be appropriate. That right there under 17 our Supreme Court rules says counsel does not qualify. Just 18 because you say, well, I've checked off all the boxes on this 19 and I've said that I'm going to follow the rules, does not 20 mean that you have satisfied the requirements. The appearance
21 in the court is a privilege especially for out-of-state
22 counsel. They have to demonstrate to the Court that they 23 qualify under the rule and that they are going to actually
24 comply with the Court's rules and the Court's rulings.

25 You see from Mr. Wood's declaration he doesn't say

1 any -- he doesn't say, you know, that conduct was unique, that
2 conduct was unprecedented and here's why and I won't do that
3 again in this case. I think he makes it crystal clear he
4 intends to repeat that performance in this case. And let me
5 tell you why that's a problem for us, Your Honor. I would
6 submit and I've submitted to this Court before the objective
7 here is to blow up this trial date. And that is the number
8 one objective, and that's why this attorney is being brought 9 in at the last possible moment just to appear for Mr.
10 Adelson's deposition, to pick a fight, we will then have all
11 sorts of -- the deposition will get delayed, then the Court
12 will have to address the conduct in the deposition, and that 13 is exactly mission accomplished. And that's why we're asking
14 that it not be allowed.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Bice.

16 MR. BICE: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: The motion is granted. However, Mr.
18 Morris needs to be communicated to Mr. Wood that in Nevada we 19 can't instruct the witness not to answer except on the basis 20 of privilege or harassment, and if there are issues relating 21 to speaking objections or coaching witnesses, that I will take 22 that unkindly and may issue sanctions. I've had other cases
23 where I've stricken pro hac vices for that kind of conduct.
24 So one would hope that he will act appropriately under the 25 Nevada rules here.

1 MR. MORRIS: And I'm hoping that he will, too. And
2 I have talked with him about that subject and the points you
3 just mentioned.

4 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Morris.

5 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: So they're both granted.

7 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, can I note that this -- I
8 think this is the first motion I've won in four years.

9 THE COURT: That's not true, Mr. Morris. You won,
10 and then the Supreme Court reversed me on another one.

11 So can we go --

12 MR. MORRIS: But that -- I said four years.

13 THE COURT: Oh. That was -- thank you, Mr. Morris, 14 for making me feel old.

15 Then I'm on the motion related to the length of time
16 for Mr. Adelson's deposition. Is there anything that anybody
17 wants to add to that, understanding I'm fairly familiar with 18 the issues, and then we can deal with the protective order
19 issue?

20 MR. BICE: It's our motion, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And technically everybody's out of time,
22 according to Laura. But you can have a couple of minutes.

23 MR. BICE: It's our motion, Your Honor. I think you
24 understand the history of the case, you understand the 25 complexity of it, the documentation, et cetera.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Peek, did you want to say
2 anything?

3 MR. PEEK: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Morris?

5 MR. PEEK: I think we've adequately covered it in 6 our opposition. I would only repeat --

7 THE COURT: Given my observations of Mr. Adelson's
8 testimony during I think it was the jurisdictional hearing and 9 the manner in which the estimates by counsel of the time
10 needed to accommodate that testimony and the time that was 11 actually needed for that testimony, I'm going to grant the 12 request for excess time for Mr. Adelson's deposition.

13 I am going to grant seven days of seven hours of 14 examination time. That doesn't include counsel arguing with 15 each other or breaks or other kinds of things.

16 Now I want to go to the motion for protective order
17 part of this, which is now implied. So what do you want to do
18 now?

19 MR. PEEK: Your Honor, I don't know. Because I've 20 been talking to Mr. Bice about that, as I pointed out in the 21 motion. Mr. Adelson's available to start on the 24th. Mr.
22 Bice wants to interrupt Jacobs and come back later, after Mr.
23 Adelson is finished.

24 THE COURT: When are you going to finish Mr. Jacobs?

25 MR. PEEK: I don't think we'll finish him within the

1 seven days and seven hours. But we will certainly go the 2 seven days and seven hours that the Court has allowed us.

3 THE COURT: So when do the seven days end?

4 MR. PEEK: Ends Tuesday, the 23rd.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So your --

6 MR. PEEK: So we'll start Mr. Adelson on the 24th.

7 THE COURT: Your proposal is to not double track Mr.
8 Adelson and Mr. Jacobs.

9 MR. PEEK: I told Mr. Bice I was going to double 10 track if he wanted to. Mr. Bice said that he did not want to 11 double track --

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. PEEK: -- that he wanted to start on the 22nd.

14 THE COURT: And you also think it would be a better
15 use of the time that has been allotted to the Jacobs
16 deposition to not have an interruption which might then 17 adversely affect the way you can use your limited number of 18 hours you've been awarded.

19 MR. PEEK: That is correct, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

21 Mr. Bice.

22 MR. PEEK: Oh. Your Honor, there was one other 23 thing I talked to Mr. Bice about, and that was Mr. Adelson is 24 available the following week, is my understanding. So there
25 was one day, the 26th, Friday the 26th -- I don't know if Mr.

1 Bice still objects to that -- when Mr. Wood is being honored
2 at his alma mater for a contribution that he has made and he
3 would like to attend on the Friday the 26th. So we'd go the 4 24th, 25th, and reconvene on the 29th for those next five days
5 now that you've ordered five -- now that you ordered seven 6 days.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Mr. Bice.

9 MR. BICE: Yes, Your Honor. When you recall when 10 we were trying to hammer out the schedule because we have some 11 deadlines coming up, including experts and things like that,
12 one of the things that was proposed -- that they had proposed
13 is that they would -- they originally asked you for 10 days
14 for Mr. Jacobs. Mr. Peek says that they're going to seek 15 additional time on Mr. Jacobs. We will be opposing that, and 16 we --

17 THE COURT: Well, I'll either see that in a motion
18 or I won't.

19 MR. BICE: And we may be actually addressing other
20 issues. But with respect to -- here was what I had proposed,
21 which is what I really thought was on the Court's original
22 schedule, is regardless of whether Mr. Jacobs's went five days 23 or ten days, as they originally proposed, we had said that we 24 would start Mr. Jacobs on that week of -- and I believe it was 25 the 15th -- I've lost track of all days, Your Honor -- and

1 then Mr. Adelson would then start on the week of the 22nd.
2 They always knew under their own proposal that Mr. Adelson
3 would interrupt Mr. Jacobs's deposition if the Court said more
4 than five days, because they knew that. They had originally
5 proposed wanting ten days. And they can't seriously suggest 6 that they thought that we were going to allow Mr. Adelson to 7 then push off his deposition. All I have said is --

8 And part of my concern, Your Honor, is that I do not 9 want to run into the situation -- and I do think this is going
10 to happen, and I may be proven wrong, but I still am obviously 11 very cautious about it, is that we're going to get -- they 12 would like to continue for seven days straight with Mr. Jacobs
13 and then we will start with Mr. Adelson, and then there will 14 be a blowup in an attempt to obstruct his deposition so that 15 it cannot be done and that we cannot get our expert
16 disclosures done and the like. So therefore, Your Honor,
17 that's why I would like to proceed with Mr. Adelson the week
18 of the 22nd. You've given me seven days for Mr. Adelson.
19 We'll see whether that's going to be sufficient or not. But 20 that will at least allow me to get the information from him
21 that week. They can then resume for the last two days with 22 Mr. Jacobs, and I can then resume for the last two days with 23 Mr. Adelson. We will have obtained I think a lot of the 24 information that we would like to get to our experts from Mr.
25 Adelson. But pushing me off yet another week and then saying,

1 well, now we've got to accommodate Mr. Wood's travel, which
2 I'm willing to do -- but pushing all that off a week before I
3 get to talk to Mr. Adelson with the full expectation that then
4 there's going to be an interruption, an attempted interruption
5 and disruption of it is really putting us at risk on these 6 deadlines, and I just don't think that it's appropriate.

7 And that's why I've asked to proceed with the week
8 of the 22nd, they can then resume with Mr. Jacobs, we'll have 9 a week of Mr. Adelson, he had indicated he was available that 10 week, we'll have a full week of Mr. Adelson, and then they can 11 resume with Mr. Jacobs, and I will then resume with Mr.
12 Adelson after those two days of Mr. Jacobs are completed.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 The motion for protective order is granted in part.
15 The deposition of Mr. Adelson may commence on the 24th of 16 February, go the 25th, because there's seems to be an 17 agreement, I will grant the request for the 26th to be dark,
18 and then go the entire following week, 29th through the 4th.
19 If for any reason you have problems during deposition, I would 20 rather hear from you sooner, rather than later to the extent
21 those are available.

22 I had two remained issues that I read about last
23 night, and I can't figure out which motion they go with. One 24 had to do with maintaining confidentially [sic] related to the 25 Advance Discovery, and others had to deal with some deposition

1 disclosures. And then Laura says there's also a motion to 2 temporarily seal that's been objected to.

3 MR. PEEK: I'm not even sure I -- Your Honor, I got 4 the minute order. I tried to look at --

5 MR. BICE: Mr. Peek, can we take those off and put 6 those on for I don't care what timing? Because I think Mr.
7 Peek and I and Mr. Jones were all together yesterday, and we 8 did briefly try to sort out what some of these things were.

9 THE COURT: You want me to continue those till when?

10 MR. PEEK: Your Honor, I don't think that they're of 11 urgent nature, unless somebody tells me otherwise on this 12 table.

13 MR. BICE: Two weeks?

14 MR. PEEK: Yeah.

15 MR. BICE: Mr. Cassity's whispering two weeks to me,
16 and I'll agree.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Two weeks it is. And I'm not 18 sure what motion that is. So if you guys could -- Mr.
19 Cassity, you are tasked with calling Laura or sending her an 20 email copying all other counsel as to what those issues
21 related to.

22 The other issue that I have for Dulce is on the 23 bottom of the page it says, "Status Check 887A." Can you put 24 that on the chambers calendar five weeks from tomorrow.

25 THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: That will be to see if Mr. Jones
2 produced his more detailed log of items on 887A that should be 3 sealed.

4 THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor. March --

5 MR. PEEK: I'm sorry. When?

6 THE CLERK: March 25.

7 MR. PEEK: That's for the status check on 887A?

8 THE COURT: Mr. Jones.

9 MR. PEEK: As to these other motions, Your Honor, I
10 think that a couple of those that are on the calendar were 11 actually addressed last December. I'll task Mr. Cassity to 12 work with Mr. Smith and perhaps between the two of them they 13 can work that out as to whether those are or are not mooted by 14 what you did in December. So that may address at least a 15 couple of those that are on the calendar that we think have 16 already been addressed by the Court.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And then there is an objection to 18 a request for temporary sealing of the information filed by 19 Mr. Jacobs related to his opposition and motion for a 20 transfer. I am going to grant the motion, but I'm going to 21 have the redaction and sealing not be temporary at this point.
22 If you wish to have those documents be sealed or unredacted, I
23 need it to occur in the normal course.

24 MR. PEEK: And I think we actually have a motion
25 with respect to the Dumont deposition that has been filed but

1 not been set -- or maybe it has been set in the ordinary
2 course.

3 THE COURT: I'm going to have Laura talk to --

4 MR. PEEK: Laura can work this out with Bob and 5 Jordan.

6 THE COURT: You guys are going to figure it out, and 7 then somebody's going to tell me.

8 MR. BICE: Could you do that? Because I've lost
9 track.

10 MR. PEEK: Yeah.

11 MR. BICE: And Mr. Jones and I think we have 12 resolved -- I'm pretty sure we have resolved the tax issue, 13 Your Honor. So I don't know if that was technically on, the 14 tax return issue. We're going to unredact that line entry
15 that --

16 THE COURT: Okay. And then I reviewed the medical 17 records. I have a question. The declaration that was 18 submitted with the records I reviewed in camera, that 19 declaration of the doctor had been provided to counsel;
20 correct?

21 MR. RANDALL JONES: I believe it had.

22 MR. PEEK: It had, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. That was my -- in the middle of 24 the night last night that was the one thing I woke up worrying
25 about before I saw you.

1 MR. BICE: What we did not apparently do, and I
2 don't know if we even gave the Court this, is we didn't give
3 them a log of the notes. And I don't -- in hindsight I --

4 THE COURT: I didn't need a log to review the notes.
5 They weren't very long.

6 MR. BICE: -- I don't think we gave one to you,
7 either. So the Court was probably annoyed with us.

8 THE COURT: I didn't need a log. I can look at 9 medical records --

10 MR. PEEK: We have since received it.

11 MR. BICE: We have since --

12 MR. PEEK: We have since received a log. As to its 13 sufficiency, that may be addressed later. But we'll --

14 MR. BICE: Okay. That's fine.

15 THE COURT: I looked at it. It was lab reports and 16 kinds of examination reports and DAP notes, and it was stuff I
17 was familiar with from my life before I was a judge, and it
18 wasn't very hard for me to go through. But the declaration
19 was very helpful.

20 MR. BICE: We intended to give you that log, and we 21 apologize for having failed to do so.

22 THE COURT: For that purpose I didn't need it.
23 There are a lot of things I need a log for. That limited
24 amount of medical records wasn't it.

25 In addition, there is a plaintiff Steven Jacobs's

1 motion for order permitting filing under seal and order
2 redacting portions of Exhibit 1 to his opposition to the 3 defendants' motion for protective order regarding the 30(b)(6)
4 motion, the Weidner deposition, and the motion to quash
5 related to Weidner. Does anybody have an objection to that?

6 MR. CASSITY: Your Honor, that was another one of 7 the temporary sealing issues.

8 THE COURT: This doesn't say temporary.

9 MR. CASSITY: It's in the body.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So it's granted, but it's not 11 temporary. And I said on my notes, "Okay to maintain 12 confidentiality." So it's not temporary.

13 MR. CASSITY: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Well, you didn't see my notes, but 15 that's what I wrote down.

16 Anything else? Thank you. Lovely seeing you all,
17 Have a lovely afternoon.

18 MR. BICE: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And I am not going to see you tomorrow,
21 because we took care of tomorrow's calendar.

22 MR. MORRIS: We're not on tomorrow?

23 THE COURT: You're not on -- I moved the protective 24 order up and ruled on it already.

25 MR. MORRIS: Good. All right.

AND RELATED CLAIMS

Case No.: A-12-656710-B

Dept. No.: XI

DECLARATION OF DEBRA L.
SPINELLI, ESQ., IN SUPPORT OF
WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED'S
SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF RELATED TO THE MACAU PERSONAL DATA PRIVACY ACT ("MPDPA")

1 I, Debra L. Spinelli, Esq., declare as follows:

2 1. I am a resident of the State of Nevada, and a partner with the law firm
3 PISANELLI BICE PLLC, counsel for Plaintiff/Counterdefendant Wynn Resorts, Limited
4 ("Wynn Resorts" and/or the "Company") and Counterdefendants Linda Chen, Russell Goldsmith,
5 Ray R. Irani, Robert J. Miller, John A. Moran, Marc D. Schorr, Alvin V. Shoemaker, Kimmarie
6 Sinatra, D. Boone Wayson, and Allan Zeman (collectively, the "Wynn Parties") in the 7 above-captioned matter pending before this Court. I respectfully submit this Declaration in 8 support of Wynn Resorts, Limited's Supplemental Brief Related to the Macau Personal Data
9 Privacy Act ("MPDPA"). I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and I am 10 competent to testify to those facts.

11 2. I previously submitted a declaration in support of Wynn Parties' Opposition to the 12 Aruze Parties' Motion to Compel Production of Wynn Resorts, Limited's Improperly Redacted
13 Documents, and Motion for Sanctions and Attorneys' Fees (the "Motion to Compel"). In 14 paragraph 8 of my declaration, I stated that "WRMSA ultimately obtained 68 consents under the 15 MPDPA for this action" At that time, I had forgotten that at the outset of this case and 16 during the first round of WRMSA document production, WRMSA had obtained consents from a 17 number of individuals. Therefore, the total number of consents obtained by WRMSA related to 18 this action is 79.

19 3. Following this Court's suggestions that the parties confer about waiver of the 20 MPDPA by Mr. Okada, I and my colleague, Jim Pisanelli, engaged in a few meet and confer
21 conferences with counsel for the Okada Parties, including David Krakoff, Lauren Randell, Adam 22 Miller, and Steve Peek. During the first call, we asked whether Mr. Okada would consent to the 23 production of his personal data under the MPDPA for this action. During a subsequent 24 discussion, his counsel confirmed that he would not.

25 4. In an effort to address one of the Court's frustrations, I explained during the first
26 conference that if Mr. Okada were to sign a consent, we could re-produce all of the documents
27 WRMSA produced in this case without Mr. Okada's name redacted, in fairly short order. I went 28

1 on to explain how and why this could be done easily with regard to Mr. Okada but not to any 2 other individual.

3 5. I explained how personal data in WRMSA's documents was redacted, and that 4 Mr. Okada's personal data was treated differently: it was redacted with a different tool/tag than 5 the personal data of others. Although this took more time while doing the MPDPA redactions in 6 Macau, we proceeded this way so that if Mr. Okada ever changed his mind and signed a waiver
7 consenting to the production of his personal data from Macau for purposes of this action, then the 8 entire WRMSA production could be reproduced with Mr. Okada's name unredacted without the 9 time consuming (and expensive) process of sending teams of counsel back to Macau to re-review
10 the entire production and adjust the redactions.

11 6. I explained that if Mr. Okada signed a waiver/consent (and thus eliminated any 12 potential liability as to WRMSA or any Wynn party or affiliate for violation of Mr. Okada's rights 13 under the MPDPA), WRMSA would be able to re-produce the WRMSA documents with 14 Mr. Okada's name unredacted and was prepared to do so as swiftly as possible.

15 7. While this production would be much easier and quicker than previous Macau
16 reviews and production, the process would still require time for travel by counsel to Macau to 17 gather the data, and then time to address the typical production logistics once the data arrives in 18 the United States.

19 8. Despite this, Mr. Okada declined to consent/waive, and would proceed to ask this 20 Court to compel Wynn Resorts to produce the documents, knowing to do so would violate his 21 and others privacy rights under the MPDPA.

22 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing
23 is true and correct and that I executed this declaration on this 19th day of August, 2016.

4. WONG CHI SENG (黃志成), married male, resident in Macau, at 1 Avenida do Colonel Mesquita, 38th floor B, Block B ("4th Defendant"); and

5. LINDA CHEN, married female, with business address in Macau, at Rua Cidade de Sintra, NAPE, Hotel Wynn ("5th Defendant"), which they do on the basis of the following terms and grounds:

I - IDENTIFICATION OF THE PARTIES

The 1st Plaintiff, ARUZE USA, INC., is a trading company established and organized in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada, in the United States of America, and is held in full by its parent company, UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINMENT CORP., the present 2nd Plaintiff (Documents 1, 2 and 3).

The 2nd Plaintiff, UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINMENT CORP. (formerly named ARUZE CORP.), is a trading company established and registered in accordance with the laws of Japan, with headquarters at Ariake Frontier Building, Tower A, 3-7-26 Ariake, Koto-ku, Tokyo, Japan, dedicated to the manufacture of gaming devices, slot machines, pachinko and arcade games and the publishing of video games, in addition to other branches of activity, being, as was stated, owner of 100% of the shares in the 1st Plaintiff (Document 4 and see Document 3).

KAZUO OKADA is a successful and very well-respected Japanese businessman, being a true pioneer in the gaming industry, above all, in Asia.

(4)

(5)

The 3rd Plaintiff is also President, Treasurer and Secretary of the 1st Plaintiff (see Document 1).

(6)

The 1st Plaintiff was (and, in the view of the Plaintiffs, "continues to be") holder of 24,549,222 (twenty-four million five hundred forty-nine thousand two hundred twenty-two) shares out of the total share capital of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED (Documents 5 and 6), equivalent to 19.66% of said capital, making it the largest individual shareholder in this company, which, in turn, as will be stated below, controls, indirectly, a majority stake in the 1st Defendant.

(7)

In the context of the corporate relationships described above, the 3rd Plaintiff was a Director on the Board of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, until the 21st of February, 2013, on which date he submitted his resignation from said post (Document 7).

(8)

The aforementioned WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED is a company established and organized in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada, in the United States of America (see Documents 5 and 6), and is listed on the NASDAQ Stock Exchange, where it is identified by the ticker symbol WYNN.

(9)

WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED owns 100% of the shares in the company WYNN LAS VEGAS, LLC (Document 8), proprietor of the casino-resorts Wynn Las Vegas and Encore, located in Las Vegas, in the United States of America, and furthermore a majority stake in the company WYNN MACAU, LIMITED (Document 9), headquartered in the Cayman Islands, which, in turn, is listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, where it is identified by the ticker symbol HKG:1128.

(10)

WYNN MACAU, LIMITED, in turn, is owner of 100% of the shares in the 1st Defendant, WYNN RESORTS (MACAU), S.A., a limited trading company with headquarters in Macau, at Rua Cidade de Sintra, NAPE, Hotel Wynn, with a share capital totaling MOP$200,000,000.00 (two hundred million patacas) divided among 200,000 registered shares, each with a nominal value of MOP$1,000.00, established on the 17th of October, 2001, and listed in the Business and Property Register under no. 14917(SO), declaring as its corporate purpose the "operation of games of fortune or chance or other casino games; operation of hotels; food and beverage trade; management and operation of tourism and transportation services"

And, despite the present 4th Defendant WONG CHI SENG's (黃志成) owning 10% of the shares in the 1st Defendant as Managing Director of said company in compliance with the terms of article 19, no. 2 of Law no. 16/2001 (Legal system for the operation of games of fortune or chance in casinos), the fact is that, as was stated, WYNN MACAU, LIMITED is the true owner of 100% of the shares in the 1st Defendant.

(12)

WYNN RESORTS (MACAU), S.A., the present 1st Defendant, is one of the gaming concessionaires operating in the Macau Special Administrative Region, under a concession contract for the operation of games of fortune or chance or other casino games in the MSAR, entered into on the 24th of June, 2002, by and between the Government of Macau and said company (Document 11).

(13)

STEVE WYNN, in turn, has been Chairman of the Board of Directors of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, Chairman of the Board of Directors of WYNN MACAU, LIMITED and, furthermore, Chairman of the Board of Directors of WYNN RESORTS (MACAU), S.A., the present 1st Defendant, from the dates of establishment of said companies to the present time.

(14)

MARC DENNIS SCHORR was on the Board of Directors of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED from June of 2002 to June of 2013, on the Board of Directors of WYNN MACAU, LIMITED from the 16th of September, 2009 to the 28th of March, 2013, and on the Board of Directors of WYNN RESORTS (MACAU), S.A., the present 1st Defendant, from October of 2001 to May of 2013.

(15)

WONG CHI SENG (黃志成) has been on the Board of Directors of WYNN RESORTS (MACAU), S.A., the present 1st Defendant, from the date of establishment of said company (i.e. since October of 2001) to the present time.

(16)

Finally, LINDA CHEN was on the Board of Directors of WYNN RESORTS LIMITED from October of 2007 to December of 2012 and has been on the Board of Directors of WYNN MACAU, LIMITED, from the date of establishment of said company (16th of September, 2009) to the present time, furthermore occupying a prominent position in the management structure of the 1st Defendant, as Chief Operating Officer and Executive Director, above all in the area of operations of said company.

II - CONTEXTUALIZATION OF THE UNLAWFUL ACTS PERPETRATED BY THE DEFENDANTS

(17)

To properly evaluate the severity of the acts perpetrated by the Defendants, it is necessary, before all else, to understand the context in which they took place.

(18)

In demonstration that those unlawful acts were not committed simply by chance, in error or through mere lack of diligence or effort on the part of the Defendants in fulfilling the legal obligations to which they are bound,

(19)

But rather through the Defendants' premeditated, organized and bad-faith behavior, the sole intent of which was to damage the Plaintiff companies, striking furthermore at the good name and reputation of their principal representative, Mr Kazuo Okada, the present 3rd Plaintiff, while simultaneously preventing the 1st

Plaintiff from becoming the largest individual shareholder and therefore the reference shareholder in WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED and, by extension, in WYNN MACAU, LIMITED and in the 1st Defendant.

The origins of the present-day WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED hark back to the final months of 2000 and a Nevada company called VALVINO LAMORE, LLC, which was used by STEVE WYNN as a holding company for his new casino project in Las Vegas and in Macau.

(21)

In March of 2000, MGM GRAND Inc. acquired MIRAGE RESORTS Inc., ending STEVE WYNN's reign as founder and chairman of that company (Document 12).

(22)

Thus, STEVE WYNN had just lost the company he had run and developed for 27 years, MIRAGE RESORTS Inc., which, at the time, controlled three casinos in Las Vegas (The Mirage, Treasure Island and Bellagio), to his rival, MGM GRAND Inc., after a series of failed investments and overspends (considered over the top) on his projects led to a sharp devaluation of the company's stock (Document 13).

(23)

During that final period at the helm of MIRAGE RESORTS Inc., STEVE WYNN earned a bad reputation in financial circles for the loose corporate governance and lavish spending his administration had displayed, facts that were widely reported (see Document 13).

(24)

STEVE WYNN's strategy in Las Vegas at the time included demolishing the DESERT INN and building a new casino-resort aimed at younger consumers, in search of a new casino concept.

(25)

And with the news that the Macau Government was preparing to bring an end to the regime of exclusivity that had kept STDM in the role of sole gaming concessionaire, STEVE WYNN was also planning for international expansion by obtaining one of the gaming concessions that would be awarded in Macau.

(26)

Without capital of his own to develop his new project, the fact is the aforementioned reputation STEVE WYNN was enjoying also prevented him from gathering other investors.

(27)

It was at this stage that STEVE WYNN contacted the 3rd Plaintiff, KAZUO OKADA, a Japanese businessman and pioneer in the gaming industry, who believed in the project and decided to finance it, using his company ARUZE USA, INC. (the present 1st Plaintiff) to effect an immediate capital injection in the amount of USD260,000,000.00 (two hundred sixty million US dollars) in exchange for a 50% stake in the aforementioned VALVINO LAMORE, LLC.

It was this capital that allowed for the development of what today is WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED and, consequently, WYNN MACAU, LIMITED and its subsidiary WYNN RESORTS (MACAU), S.A., the present 1st Defendant.

Meanwhile, on the 16th of April, 2001, a new partner would join the fledgeling project, and investment fund named BARON ASSET MANAGEMENT FUND.

Later, in April of 2002, ARUZE USA, INC. provided VALVINO LAMORE, LLC with two more capital injections, totaling USD120,000,000.00 (one hundred twenty million US dollars), likewise to be channeled to the new project.

Twenty-five per cent of the total of those two contributions made in April of 2002 (that is, thirty million US dollars) were applied to the project in Macau, according to what STEVE WYNN told the 3rd Plaintiff, KAZUO OKADA, though there are many doubts as to the real fate of those USD120,000,000.00 (hundred twenty million US dollars).

At that time, the shareholders in VALVINO LAMORE, LLC (STEVE WYNN, ARUZE USA, INC. and BARON ASSET MANAGEMENT FUND) had already agreed to list the new company on the stock exchange under the name "WYNN RESORTS" through an initial public offering.

To that end, it was necessary to draft a series of legal instruments, among them a stockholders agreement by means of which the three partners in VALVINO LAMORE, LLC established the conditions for the transferral of their shares in said company to the new company, "WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED".

The transferral took place, governed by an agreement entered into by the three parties on the 11th of April, 2002, designated "Stockholders Agreement", which laid out certain restrictions on the sale of shares in the new company, as well as on the establishment of various rights concerning the ownership and management of "WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED" (Document 14).

Thus, in the context of this agreement, guidelines were established regarding restrictions on the transmission of shares and regarding all the rights and duties of the shareholders with respect to WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, such that said agreement was the indispensable instrument (conditio sine qua non) governing the transferral of the interests and capital of the shareholders in VALVINO LAMORE, LLC to the new company.

(36)

In this agreement it was explicitly stipulated that the shares and interests controlled by ARUZE USA, INC. in WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED could only be transferred to the 3rd Plaintiff, KAZUO OKADA, to a direct relative, to a family trust or to a company related to ARUZE USA, INC., such that WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED could under no condition redeem, buy back or take possession of any stake in WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED controlled by ARUZE USA, INC.

(37)

Later, STEVE WYNN established WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, on the 3rd of June, 2002.

(38)

On the 10th of June, 2002, WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, STEVE WYNN, ARUZE USA, INC., BARON ASSET MANAGEMENT FUND and a new partner, KENNETH R. WYNN FAMILY TRUST, entered into a new agreement, designated "Contribution Agreement", by means of which all the partners agreed to contribute all their rights, capital and interests in VALVINO LAMORE, LLC to WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, in exchange for shares in this company (Document 15).

(39)

That agreement furthermore granted STEVE WYNN powers of representation to sign all the documentation necessary for the contribution of all rights, capital and interests held by ARUZE USA, INC. in VALVINO LAMORE, LLC to WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED.

(40)

Meanwhile, the competition for the conferral of the three concessions for the operation of games of fortune or chance in casinos in Macau was now open, in accordance with the terms of Chief Executive Order no. 26/2001.

(41)

Considering the fact that, on the 8th of February, 2002, Chief Executive Order no. 26/2002 was published, provisionally awarding one of the aforementioned concessions to the present 1st Defendant.

(42)

The provisional award being made definite by Order no. 142/2002, published in the Official Gazette no. 26/2002, Series II, of June 26th, 2002.

(43)

An outcome that relied fundamentally on the Plaintiff companies' financial support and know-how and, what is more, the reputation, knowledge, experience and involvement of the 3rd Plaintiff, above all in the area of gaming, particularly in this region of Asia.

(44)

On the 16th of September, 2002, and before effecting the contributions of all rights, capital and interests in VALVINO LAMORE, LLC to the new company - which explains why the other contributors had not yet acquired the quality of shareholder in the new company - STEVE WYNN altered the bylaws of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, without ever informing the other contributors of those alterations (Document 16).

An alteration which included the possibility of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED being able undertake the redemption of the shares held by the shareholders of said company.

On the 28th of September, 2002, STEVE WYNN finally effected the contributions from VALVINO LAMORE, LLC to WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, including the contribution made by ARUZE USA, INC. in the total amount of USD380,000,000.00 (three hundred eighty million US dollars), and the 3rd Plaintiff, KAZUO OKADA, was named to the Board of Directors of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED on the 21st of October, 2002, a position in which he served, as was stated, until the 21st of February, 2013.

(47)

Finally, on the 25th of October, 2002, WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED made its initial public offering of shares on the NASDAQ Stock Exchange, at a price of 13 US dollars per share, and, at that time, STEVE WYNN and the 1st Plaintiff each controlled around 30% of the share capital.

On the 28th of April, 2005, the company WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, through WYNN LAS VEGAS, LLC, opened its hotel-casino Wynn Las Vegas in the United States of America (Document 17).

After which the 1st Defendant, a subsidiary of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, opened its hotel-casino (called "Wynn") in Macau on the 6th of September, 2006 (Document 18).

(50)

Followed by the opening, years later, of the hotel-casino Encore, in Las Vegas, on the 22nd of December, 2008, and the hotel-casino Encore, in Macau, on the 21st of April, 2010 (Documents 19 and 20).

(51)

(52)

The foregoing clearly supports the conclusion that the success of WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED and of its subsidiaries (among them the 1st Defendant) would not have been possible without the present Plaintiff companies' financing, support and know-how, as well as the involvement and personal participation of the 3rd Plaintiff, KAZUO OKADA.

III - ON THE UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINMENT CORP. PROJECT IN THE PHILIPPINES

Later, following contact initiated by the Republic of the Philippines Government in 2005, UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINMENT CORP. began in 2007 to consider the possibility of acquiring land and building a casino-resort in the Philippines.
