TAKEN ON JUNE 9, 2016
VOLUME 3

Job No.: 315759
REPORTED BY:
PATRICIA L. HUBBARD, CSR #3400

1 A one-page document that purports to be
2 a June 11 email from Mr. Kane to Jim Cotter, Jr. It
3 bears production number EK1613.

4 (Whereupon the document referred
5 to was marked Plaintiffs'
6 Exhibit 306 by the Certified
7 Shorthand Reporter and is attached
8 hereto.)

9 THE WITNESS: Yes.

10 BY MR. KRUM:

11 Q. Do you recognize Exhibit 0306?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. Is this an email you sent to Jim Cotter,
14 Jr. on June 11, 2015?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You recall that on June 12, 2015,
17 Mr. Cotter was terminated as president and C.E.O.?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. So was this an effort by you to implore
20 him or, as the case may be, persuade him to strike a
21 deal to avoid that vote?

22 A. Sitting here I'm not sure that I knew 23 that that vote was coming on that date, but it was 24 my last effort to get him to -- in this -- in the 25 interim from the last one I had understood or found

1 out that Margaret -- part of their deal or proposal
2 was that Margaret would vote the B stock.

3 But this was my last effort to get him
4 to retain his position as C.E.O. of the company and 5 move forward with his sisters.

6 Q. So, in the first paragraph you talk
7 about having Guy Adams in meetings with Jim Cotter,
8 Jr., and his sisters.

9 Do you see that?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Does that refer to the proposal that 12 there be an executive committee to which Mr. Adams
13 and the three Cotters were -- of which they were the 14 members?

15 A. I think so, yes.

16 Q. And then in point one, the first
17 sentence reads, quote,

18 "For now I think you have to 19 concede that Margaret will vote the 20 B stock," close quote.

21 Do you see that?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. And so by this time, as I believe you
24 just said, you had learned that one of the terms of 25 the resolution required by Ellen and Margaret was

1 that Margaret be the sole trustee of the voting
2 trust that held --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- the class B voting stock?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Do you recall how you learned that?

7 A. I don't.

8 Q. And the next sentence reads, quote,

9 "As I said, your dad told me that 10 giving Margaret the vote was his 11 way of, sub quote, forcing, close
12 sub quote, the three of you to work
13 together," close quote.

14 Does that refer to discussions about
15 which I believe you've already testified, Mr. Kane,
16 you had with Jim Cotter, Sr.?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And the next sentence in paragraph
19 numbered one in Exhibit 306 reads as follows, quote,

20 "Asking to change that is a 21 nonstarter," close quote, with 22 "nonstarter" being italicized.

23 Do you see that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Why did you say that?

1 A. I don't know why I said it that way. I
2 don't recall what I was thinking.

3 Q. Had you heard or learned or had you been 4 told that that was a term that Ellen and Margaret
5 were unwilling to change?

6 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague and lacks
7 foundation.

8 THE WITNESS: I don't know. I don't
9 recall.

10 BY MR. KRUM:

11 Q. Well, were you telling -- by the use of 12 that language in this email to Jim Cotter, Jr., were 13 you communicating to him that that was a term that 14 he should not attempt to renegotiate?

15 A. Yes, I think so.

16 Q. I direct your attention, Mr. Kane, to 17 paragraph numbered five, it begins with the words,
18 "bottom line."

19 A. Uh-huh.

20 Q. It begins immediately thereafter with 21 the words, quote,

22 "Recognize you are not dealing from 23 strength right now," and then it
24 continues.

25 Do you see those words?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Were you referring to the fact that he
3 was basically in a position of striking a deal or 4 facing a vote on termination?

5 A. I think that was my thinking, yes.

6 Q. And then at the bottom of -- at the end
7 of the paragraph numbered five there's a sentence
8 that reads as follows, quote,

9 "Otherwise you will be sorry for 10 the rest of your life. They and 11 your mother will be hurt and your 12 children will lose a golden
13 opportunity," close quote.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. See that?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. And what was your point in saying that 18 to Jim Cotter, Jr., in this email, Exhibit 306?

19 A. It was a reiteration of what he told me 20 in his email that if he was out, the family and the 21 company would be destroyed.

22 Q. Did you share that view?

23 A. That was his view. I didn't -- one way
24 or another. But look where we are now.

25 Q. So you were saying this to him in your

1 That the foregoing pages contain a full,

To: Cotter Jr. James

This morning, without the wine I was drinking last night during and after talking with your mother, I'm thinking more about your call to me last night and our conversation. I can see that from your point of view having Guy in on the meetings with your sisters could be a problem and doesn't solve the need to be able to work with them cohesively going forward. If you explain that to them they may be willing to accommodate you.

But, the main question is what are you going to do to accommodate them?

1. For now, I think you have to concede that Margaret will vote the B stock. As I said, your dad told me that giving Margaret the vote was his way of "forcing" the three of you to work together. Asking to change that is a nonstarter. Again, you need to compromise your "wants" as they have been willing to do. If you can work together than it becomes a non-issue and eventually your and her kids will have the vote. What's wrong with that?

2. For now you need ASAP to agree on the nominees for the Board going forward. As I told you months ago, changes are necessary and you need some quality people with expertise in fields where it is needed and lacking. You also need to get rid of divisive persons.

3. I do believe that if you give up what you consider "control" for now to work cooperatively with your sisters, you will find that you will have a lot more commonality than you think. You all want the same things: a vibrant growing business. After trust is established you can all go back to where you want to be.

4. I think if you make the proper and needed concessions, they might well relent on having Guy in the meetings as they can easily see there is great animosity between the two of you.

5. Bottom line: recognize you are not dealing from strength right now and be willing to compromise as they are rational and reasonable people who have been hurt and demeaned and you need to help heal the family. Otherwise you will be sorry for the rest of your life, they and your mother will be hurt and your children will lose a golden opportunity.

6. I am willing to help but I'd much prefer that you bend a bit and work it out between you to build the trust that is necessary so that you don't lose control of the company, as you presently have.

Mr. Matyczynski served as our Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer from November 1999 until May 11, 2015 and Corporate Secretary from May 10, 2011 to October 20, 2014. Prior to joining our Company, he spent 20 years in various senior roles throughout the world at Beckman Coulter Inc., a U.S. based multi-national. Mr. Matyczynski earned a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Southern California.

See Item 5.02(e) below with respect to the compensation arrangements for Mr. Matyczynski.

Margaret Cotter

On March 10, 2016, the Board appointed Margaret Cotter, 48, as Executive Vice President-Real Estate Management and Development-NYC.

Margaret Cotter has been a Director of the Company since September 27, 2002, and on August 7, 2014 was appointed Vice Chairperson of our Board. Ms. Cotter is the owner and President of OBI, LLC ("OBI"), which has, since 2002, managed our live-theater operations. Pursuant to the OBI management arrangement, Ms. Cotter also served as the President of Liberty Theaters, LLC, the subsidiary through which we own our live theaters. Operating and overseeing these properties for over 16 years, Ms. Cotter contributes to the strategic direction for our developments. Until her appointment on March 10, 2016, while she received management fees through OBI, Ms. Cotter received no compensation for her duties as President of Liberty Theaters, LLC, other than the right to participate in our Company's medical insurance program. Ms. Cotter, through OBI and Liberty Theaters, LLC, managed the real estate which houses each of our four live theaters in Manhattan and Chicago. Based in New York, Ms. Cotter secures leases, manages tenancies, oversees maintenance and regulatory compliance of these properties and heads up the re-development process with respect to these properties and our Cinemas 1, 2 & 3 property. Ms. Cotter is also a theatrical producer who has produced shows in Chicago and New York and a board member of the League of Off-Broadway Theaters and Producers. Ms. Cotter, a former Assistant District Attorney for King's County in Brooklyn, New York, graduated from Georgetown University and Georgetown University Law Center. She is the sister of Ellen M. Cotter, a director and our President and Chief Executive Officer, and James J. Cotter, Jr., a director. Ms. Margaret Cotter is a Co-Executor of her father's estate, which is the record owner of 427,808 shares of our Class B Voting Stock (representing 25.5% of such Class B voting Stock). Ms. Margaret Cotter is also a Co-Trustee of the James J. Cotter, Sr. Trust, which is the record owner of 696,080 shares of Class B Voting Common Stock (representing an additional 44.0% of such Class B Stock). In addition, with her direct ownership of 804,173 shares of Class A Stock and 35,100 shares of Class B Stock and her positions as Co-Executor of her father's estate and Co-Trustee of the James J. Cotter, Sr. Trust, Ms. Cotter is a significant stockholder in our Company.

In connection with her appointment and employment as Executive Vice President of the Company, the Company's Audit and Conflicts Committee authorized the mutual termination of the Theater Management Agreement dated January 1, 2002, between the Company's subsidiary, Liberty Theaters, Inc. (predecessor to Liberty Theaters, LLC) and OBI, LLC, an entity wholly-owned by Ms. Cotter, (the "Theater Management Agreement"). The termination agreement is currently being negotiated by OBI, LLC and Liberty Theaters, LLC and finalized, will be filed on Form 8-K. While Ms. Cotter is the President of Liberty Theaters, LLC, Liberty Theaters, LLC is being separately represented in these negotiations and the final termination agreement will be subject to the review and approval of our Audit and Conflicts Committee.

The Compensation Committee and the Audit and Conflicts Committee each approved additional consulting fee compensation to Margaret Cotter totaling $200,000 for services rendered by her to the Company in recent years outside of the scope of the Theater Management Agreement, including, but not limited to: (i) predevelopment work on the Company's Union Square and Cinemas 1, 2 & 3 properties, (ii) management of the New York properties, and (iii) management of Union Square tenant matters. The Compensation Committee also noted, when considering this additional consulting fee, that OBI, LLC had agreed to include as a part of its termination agreement with the Company certain waivers and releases including the termination of any rights it might have to receive compensation with respect to any show continuing at any of our theaters after the date of such termination.

The Theater Management Agreement generally provided for the payment of a combination of fixed and incentive fees for the management of our four live theaters. Historically, these fees have equated to approximately 21% of the net cash flow generated by these properties. We currently estimate that fees to be paid to OBI for 2015 will be approximately $390,000. We paid $397,000 and $401,000 in fees with respect to 2014, and 2013, respectively. We also reimbursed OBI for certain travel expenses.

As Executive Vice-President Real Estate Management and Development - NYC, Ms. Cotter will continue to be responsible for the management of our live theater assets and business, will continue her role heading up the pre-redevelopment of our New York Properties and will become our senior executive responsible for the actual redevelopment of our New York properties.

Ms. Cotter's compensation as Executive Vice-President was set as part of the extensive executive compensation process described in Item 5.02(e) below. For 2016, Ms. Cotter's base salary will be $350,000, she will have a short term incentive target bonus opportunity of $105,000 (30% of her base salary), and she was granted a long term incentive of a stock option for 19,921 shares of Class A common stock and 4,184 restricted stock units under the Company's 2010 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, which long term incentives vest over a four year period.

Item 5.02(e)

Compensation Arrangements

Background

The Executive Committee ("Executive Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board"), upon the recommendation of our Chief Executive Officer, requested the Compensation Committee to evaluate the Company's compensation policy for executive officers and outside directors and to establish a plan that encompasses sound corporate practices consistent with the best interests of the Company. The Compensation Committee undertook to review, evaluate, revise and recommend the adoption of new compensation arrangements for executive and management officers and outside directors of the Company. In January 2016, the Compensation Committee retained the international compensation consulting firm of Willis Towers Watson as its advisor in this process and also relied on the Company's legal counsel, Greenberg Traurig, LLP.

Going forward, the Board of Directors has adopted a formal charter for our Compensation Committee a copy of which has been posted on our website, www.ReadingRDI.com.

Executive Compensation

From late January to late February 2016, the Compensation Committee met five separate times with Willis Towers Watson, the Chief Executive Officer, and legal counsel. Except for the first meeting, each meeting exceeded three hours and was fully focused on the assessments

VIDEOTAPED DEPOSITION OF MARGARET COTTER
VOLUME I

REPORTED BY:
PATRICIA L. HUBBARD, CSR #3400

1 Q. Do you see that on the second page of 2 the job description there is a bullet point followed
3 by the underscored words "Construction Oversight
4 Responsibilities"?

5 A. Underneath "Construction Oversight
6 Responsibilities."

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Uh-huh.

9 Q. And you see those include,
10 "Selection and supervision of 11 general contractors, architects,
12 engineers and other construction
13 professionals"?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And other than what you've done with 16 respect to the Union Square property and working 17 with Edifice, have you ever done any of those 18 activities?

19 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

20 BY MR. KRUM:

21 Q. Well, I'll ask the question. Other than 22 anything you've done with Edifice with respect to 23 Union Square, have you ever overseen the selection
24 and supervision of general contractors?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What --

2 A. I'm sorry. Of general contractors, no.

3 Q. Other than what you've done with Union
4 Square --

5 A. Other than what I've done.

6 Q. Right. Right. I want -- just listen to 7 my question, please.

8 Other than what -- other than anything
9 you've done with respect to Union Square and working
10 with Edifice, have you ever overseen the selection
11 and supervision of architects --

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. -- in a real estate development context?

14 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

15 Wait for him to finish his question.

16 Okay? And let me get my objection in.

17 MR. KRUM: I'll ask it again and we'll 18 each try to let each of us do our things, so to 19 speak?

20 MR. SEARCY: Right.

21 BY MR. KRUM:

22 Q. All right. Ms. Cotter, excluding
23 anything you've done with respect to the Union
24 Square property and working with Edifice, have you
25 ever overseen the selection and supervision of any

1 of general contractors, architects, engineers or 2 other construction professionals with respect to any
3 real estate development?

4 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

5 THE WITNESS: With a development, no.

6 BY MR. KRUM:

7 Q. I direct your attention, Ms. Cotter,
8 further down that page, the third page of 9 Exhibit 149.

10 Do you see there are boldface words on 11 the left-hand side called "Skill Set"?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Do you see the second bullet point
14 includes the words "Project design and land use
15 planning" -- well, in the entirety, "including 16 experience dealing with government authorities."

17 Do you see that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Excluding anything you've done with 20 Edifice with respect to the Union Square project,
21 have you ever done any of those kind of activities
22 with respect to any real estate development?

23 A. I worked on the Union Square project
24 without Edifice.

25 Q. Okay. Otherwise have you ever done any

1 of those activities --

3 BY MR. KRUM:

4 Q. -- with respect to real estate
5 development?

6 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

7 THE WITNESS: What do you mean by "real
8 estate development"? Do you mean a property that we 9 have?

10 BY MR. KRUM:

11 Q. With respect to any piece of real 12 property, meaning commercial real property and 13 excluding residential real property and excluding
14 anything you've done on the Union Square project,
15 have you ever supervised or performed anything you
16 understood to be either project design or land use
17 planning?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What?

20 A. The Minetta Lane, that property, the 21 district was going to be landmarked, so I worked on 22 that. The Orpheum Theatre. The Marquis was going
23 to be landmarked and I work on that, and I succeeded
24 in having Landmarks refuse to landmark the Marquis.

25 Also, I just want to go back and clarify

1 something.

2 If you regard talking about development
3 as just a property, I have overseen general
4 contractors and architects and engineers on 5 renovations and work -- and structural work that
6 we've done in our theaters in the past.

7 Q. Take a look, please, Ms. Cotter, at the 8 last page of Exhibit 149.

9 And the last paragraph begins as 10 follows, quote,

11 "The executive should also have an
12 appreciation for the financing
13 elements of the real estate
14 development project," and so forth.

15 And let me know when you've read the 16 balance of that paragraph.

17 A. Yes. I'm finished.

18 Q. Do you have any experience in those
19 activities?

20 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

21 THE WITNESS: I'm working with a broker
22 right now.

23 BY MR. KRUM:

24 Q. Okay. Anything else?

25 A. No.

1 Q. So, with respect -- with respect to
2 Minetta Lane, you worked on opposing the designation
3 of that property as a landmark; is that correct?

4 A. Not quite. The landmark committee, they
5 decided to designate the neighborhood as a
6 historical district. And the property was located
7 within that district.

8 We succeeded in having the actual
9 property as a -- classified as a no-style building.
10 So that means that most likely we'll be able to tear
11 it down when we decide to develop it.

12 Q. With whom did you work on that?

13 A. Bob Davis, a landmark attorney.

14 MR. SEARCY: Ferrario's on the run.

15 (Whereupon Mr. Ferrario left the 16 deposition proceedings at this 17 time.)

18 MR. KRUM: I'll ask the court reporter
19 to mark as Exhibit 150 a document bearing production
20 numbers MC7647 through 50.

21 (Whereupon the document referred
22 to was marked Plaintiffs'
23 Exhibit 150 by the Certified
24 Shorthand Reporter and is attached
25 hereto.)

24 REPORTED BY: LORI RAYE, CSR NO. 7052
25 JOB NUMBER: 305144

1 process to recruit a director of real estate? And 2 by "at the time," I mean in 2015 into May.

3 A. I did. I felt that was the CEO's job.
4 That's how he drew the org chart. That's how he
5 was filling it. He would interview people, much
6 like he did Bill Ellis, and say here is my pick,
7 here is my candidate, and we would look at it and 8 approve. I wasn't involved in a screening, if you
9 will, of it.

10 Q. You were a party to communications from 11 the fall of 2014 through at least May of 2015 about 12 finding a role for Margaret in the company's real
13 estate development; right?

14 MR. SWANIS: Objection; form.

15 THE WITNESS: We were finding a role for 16 Margaret, right. Was it going to be exclusive in 17 real estate? I wasn't sure of that. Would it be 18 tangential to real estate and somebody else have a 19 major part in real estate? I didn't know the 20 answer to that, either. The CEO would have to work
21 out how they'd prepare the organizational chart.

22 BY MR. KRUM:

23 Q. What sort of experience does Margaret
24 Cotter have in real estate development?

25 A. In real estate development, I don't think

1 she's developed real estate before in her career.

2 Q. Right. Her job has been to manage the
3 live theatre operations; correct?

4 A. In part. The other part of what she's 5 been in charge with is for the last at least two 6 years, maybe more, is with her father's help,
7 picking architects, going to the historical 8 planning session and getting approval for the 9 buildings, talking to people that were thinking
10 about joint venturing with us, interviewing
11 contractors that she would line up.

12 So she was doing a lot with the Greeks,
13 our potential partners on a piece of real estate in 14 New York. She was actually -- after her father
15 passed away, she got them to agree to a joint 16 venture for a feasibility study. So she was 17 involved in real estate, doing real estate things
18 in New York prior to her father passing away and 19 after her father passed away.

20 Q. Those were all pre-development
21 activities; correct?

22 A. I was going to say, but I don't -- to my 23 knowledge, I don't think she's done any [corrected]
24 development activities.

25 MR. TAYBACK: Tell me when a good time to take

1 a couple-minutes' break is.

2 MR. KRUM: Now is fine.

3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're off the record. The
4 time is 2:42.

5 (Recess.)

6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're on the record. The
7 time is 2:54.

8 BY MR. KRUM:

9 Q. Mr. Adams, I think that there might have 10 been a mistranscription of the last question and 11 answer, so I'm going to ask the court reporter to 12 read my question and your answer to afford you the 13 opportunity to correct it if you believe that's 14 appropriate.

15 A. Okay. Thank you.

16 (Record read as follows:

17 "A. I was going to say, but I don't --
18 to my knowledge, I don't think she's 19 done any pre-development activities.")

20 THE WITNESS: She hasn't -- thank you. She 21 hasn't done any development activities.

22 MR. KRUM: Guys my age don't typically catch
23 those, so...

24 I'll ask the court reporter to mark as
25 Exhibit 57, a two-page document bearing production

17 OBJECTION OF READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.
18 SHAREHOLDER MARK CUBAN TO SETTLEMENT

19 COMES NOW interested party Mark Cuban and, pursuant to the Court's August 4, 2016
20 Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Action (the "Notice"), submits this Objection to the 21 proposed settlement in this matter and respectfully requests that he be allowed to be heard at the 22 upcoming hearing and that the Court reject the proposed Settlement Agreement and Release of 23 Claims (the "Proposed Settlement").

24 I. INTRODUCTION

25 The Proposed Settlement is manifestly unfair, inadequate, and unreasonable. The 26 Proposed Settlement strips Reading and its shareholders, including Mr. Cuban, of valuable 27 rights and the ability to bring claims against the company's officers, directors, and employees 28

1 for any breach of fiduciary duty, securities fraud, mismanagement, or practically any other
2 conceivable claim that they may have against the Individual Defendants, including statutorily
3 provided protection against releasing unknown claims. In exchange for forfeiting these rights
4 and protections, the company and its shareholders get nothing. The only consideration given
5 from these broad, sweeping releases is a joint press release and a mutual non-disparagement
6 provision. Indeed, neither the Proposed Settlement nor the Notice drafted by counsel for the 7 parties identify as single, specific benefit afforded to the Company or its shareholders.
8 Accordingly, the Court should, respectfully, reject the Proposed Settlement.

C. Detailed Statement of Objections, Grounds for Objections, and Reasons for Mr. Cuban's Desire to Appear and be Heard

As a significant shareholder of Reading, Mr. Cuban objects to the Proposed Settlement as unfair and unreasonable to Reading and its shareholders. Any settlement of a derivative action that impacts the company or its shareholders must be "fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable." E.g., In re Pac. Enterprises Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 377 (9th Cir. 1995). One of the Court's considerations in analyzing a settlement in a derivative case is to protect the interests of absent shareholders. E.g. Norman v. McKee, 431 F.2d 769, 774 (9th Cir. 1970).

The Proposed Settlement is a one-sided agreement that confers no benefit whatsoever on Reading or Reading shareholders, yet strips the company absent shareholders of valuable rights. The only consideration provided in the entire Proposed Settlement is (a) a mutually agreed upon press release regarding the settlement, and (b) a nondisparagement agreement. The draft agreement merely states that the "T2 Plaintiffs believe that the Settlement provides substantial and immediate benefits for Reading and its current stockholders..." yet, the Proposed Settlement never identifies a single specific benefit the T2 Plaintiffs subjectively believe is conferred on the company or its shareholders as a result of the Proposed Settlement. PROPOSED

1 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE OF CLAIMS ¶3.a. That is because there are no such 2 benefits.

3 In exchange for this non-existent consideration, the Proposed Settlement purports to
4 release the Individual Defendants—officers and directors of Reading—from any and all
5 potential claims, known or unknown, which any Reading shareholder could have brought.
6 Additionally, the proposed release precludes Reading from brining any claim whatsoever
7 against the Individual Defendants. More specifically, the Proposed Settlement purports to
8 release the following claims on behalf of all Reading shareholders:

10 In exchange for this non-existent consideration, the Proposed Settlement purports to
11 release the Individual Defendants—officers and directors of Reading—from any and all
12 potential claims, known or unknown, which any Reading shareholder could have brought.
13 Additionally, the proposed release precludes Reading from brining any claim whatsoever
14 against the Individual Defendants. More specifically, the Proposed Settlement purports to 15 release the following claims on behalf of all Reading shareholders:

17 “Released T2 Plaintiffs’ Claims” means all any and all manner of 18 claims, demands, rights, liabilities, losses, obligations, duties, damages,
19 costs, debts, expenses, interest, penalties, sanctions, fees, attorneys’ fees,
20 actions, potential actions, causes of action, suits, agreements, judgments, 21 decrees, matters, issues and controversies of any kind, nature, or 22 description whatsoever, whether known or unknown, disclosed or 23 undisclosed, accrued or unaccrued, apparent or not apparent, foreseen or 24 unforeseen, matured or not matured, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated 25 or not liquidated, fixed or contingent, including Unknown Claims (as 26 defined below), whether based on state, local, foreign, federal, statutory, 27 regulatory, common, or other law or rule (including claims within the 28 exclusive jurisdiction of the federal courts, such as, but not limited to, federal securities claims or other claims based upon the purchase or sale of shares), that are, have been, could have been, could now be, or in the future could, can, or might be asserted, in the T2 Action or in any other court, tribunal, or proceeding by: T2 Plaintiffs derivatively on behalf of Reading, or on their own behalf; by Reading’s stockholders on behalf of Reading; or by Reading directly against any of the Individual

Defendants' Releasees, which claims, now or hereafter, are based upon, arise out of, relate in any way to, or involve, directly or indirectly, any of the actions, transactions, occurrences, statements, representations, misrepresentations, omissions, allegations, facts, practices, events, claims or any other matters, things or causes whatsoever, or any series thereof, that relate in any way to, or could arise in connection with, the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty, abuse of control, mismanagement, negligence, aiding and abetting, the making or not making of required securities law disclosures, and/or corporate waste,

Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims ¶4.a.i. (emphasis added).

Furthermore, the Proposed Settlement releases any unknown claims that Reading may bring against the Individual Defendants, i.e., Reading's officers and directors, and expressly waives the express statutory rights and benefits conferred by California Civil Code §1542 regarding releasing unknown claims. Id. ¶4.c. In exchange for waiving this valuable protection to seek redress for any unknown claims against the company's officers and directors in the future, Reading and its shareholders get nothing. As set forth in the Notice and the release language above, this would include claims for breach of fiduciary duty, securities fraud, self-dealing, and any other conceivable cause of action that Reading or one of its shareholders could bring against an officer, director or other Reading employee. See Notice ¶ 7. Such a release is unconscionable, even if there were significant consideration given to the Company or its shareholders—of course here there is no consideration at all given for this “get-out-of-jail free” card.

If the T2 Plaintiffs wish to dismiss their claims or give up their own rights to bring future claims against the Individual Defendants, then that is their prerogative. Reading and its other shareholders, however, should not be bound by any release whatsoever.

III. CONCLUSION

Mr. Cuban respectfully requests that the Court reject the Proposed Settlement as it is not fair, reasonable, or adequate and strips Reading and its other shareholders of valuable common-

1 law and statutory rights. If the Court does approve the Proposed Settlement in part, Mr. Cuban
2 respectfully requests that the Court limit the release to the actual parties in the case, not Reading
3 or any other Reading shareholder.

16 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

17 This Court should approve the T2 Settlement as none of the Objectors have demonstrated 18 that the settlement is not fair to Reading International, Inc. ("RDI") and its stockholders. Indeed, 19 two of the Objectors focus almost solely on the purported breadth of releases, even though such 20 settlement agreements have for decades involved releases of all existing claims known or 21 unknown. While such focus on the release of claims not brought indicates implicit 22 acknowledgment that those that were actually brought are without merit, no Objector has 23 presented a compelling reason to forego the custom and practice.

24 Cotter, Jr., of course, goes beyond issues of the release, and instead, claims that the T2
25 principals do not actually support the Settlement. He supports this theory by citing deposition 26 testimony by these principals, none of which actually indicates any belief that any defendant
27 violated a fiduciary duty.

1 The Objectors also contend that neither RDI, nor its stockholders receive any benefit
2 from the T2 Settlement. This claim, however, merely reveals that despite claims that the 3 Objectors are acting in the best interest of RDI, none of the Objectors are cognizant of the 4 considerable drain on RDI's resources, or the loss of value to the stockholders that inevitably
5 flows from that drain. This Settlement offers a substantial benefit to RDI, whose indemnification
6 obligations to the Individual Defendants for the T2 claims will come to an end. This is a
7 significant benefit because RDI will likely exhaust its D & O insurance in defending against 8 Cotter, Jr.'s claims. Moreover, the extensive release the Objectors so abhor protects RDI from 9 further obligations of defending its indemnitees against more unfounded claims.

10 Significantly, even though notice was provided to each of RDI's 580 record
11 stockholders,¹ only three objections were submitted to this Court. In other words, only 12 approximately 0.5%-- i.e., roughly one half of one percent -- of RDI's stockholders object to this 13 Settlement.² This Court should honor the apparent wishes of the other 99.5% of stockholders, 14 and approve the settlement.

15 Finally, it is to be noted that the two Non-Cotter Objectors have had plenty of time to 16 intervene, if they truly believed that their interests or those of other stockholders required greater 17 protection than that offered by the T2 Plaintiffs. The Non-Cotter Objectors were in 18 communication with the T2 Plaintiffs well before the original T2 Complaint was filed. The one
19 claim focused on by the Diamond A Objectors -- the so called "Golden Coffin Claim" -- while 20 originally included in the T2 Complaint was dropped by the T2 Plaintiffs and not included in the 21 T2 Amended Complaint filed in February 2016. No objection was made by the Diamond A 22 Objectors to the determination by the T2 Plaintiffs not to pursue this claim, which would, at any 23 rate, be beyond applicable statute of limitations). As to the Cotter, Jr. objection, he has 24 ///

25 _____
26 ¹ Moreover, in addition to the direct mailing to the record stockholders, notice was also provided via RDI's website, and the press release.

27 ² Based on the stock holdings, the Objectors appear to hold approximately 7-8% of the nonvoting stock and about 16-17% of the voting stock.

1 already (with knowledge of this pending settlement), amended his own complaint. Notably, he
2 did not choose to add any of the claims for which dismissal and release is now sought.

3 The record shows that the T2 Plaintiffs have done a thorough examination of the 4 activities of the Board over the past several years, and have made an informed decision not to 5 further pursue the litigation. As the T2 Plaintiffs are not receiving any reimbursement of 6 attorneys' fees or other compensation, there can be no claim that they have any motivation other 7 than a desire, after thorough examination, not to waste their money or the money of the 8 Company pursuing meritless claims. Furthermore, according to deposition testimony, neither
9 Cuban nor Diamond A were interested in joining or providing financial support for the T2
10 litigation. As such, their decision now to second-guess the T2 Plaintiffs' settlement is fallacious.

11 FACTS RELEVANT TO THIS MOTION

12 RDI is a publicly traded company with approximately 21,654,305 shares of Class A 13 Nonvoting Common Stock, and 1,680,590 Class B Voting Common Stock outstanding.
14 Pursuant to this Court's preliminary approval of the T2 Settlement entered on August 4, 2016,
15 RDI timely mailed notices to the 580 "stockholders of Reading as listed on the stock registry."³
16 See Joint Motion for Approval of Settlement, Exhibits A and B. Among details of the 17 settlement itself, the Notice included the following statement made by the principals of the T2
18 Plaintiffs:

19 We are pleased with the conclusions reached by our investigations as Plaintiff
20 Stockholders and now firmly believe that the Reading Board of Directors has and 21 will continue to protect stockholder interests and will continue to work to 22 maximize shareholder value over the long term. We appreciate the Company's 23 willingness to engage in open dialogue and are excited about the Company's 24 prospects. Our questions about the termination of James Cotter, Jr., and various 25 transactions between Reading and members of the Cotter family-or entities they 26 control-have been definitively addressed and put to rest. We are impressed by 27 measures the Reading Board has made over the past year to further strengthen 28 corporate governance. We fully support the Reading Board and management team and their efforts to create stock value.

25 ///

26 _____
27 ³ Additionally, upon request of brokerages acting as record owners holding for beneficial owners, RDI sent to such 28 brokerages packets containing the Notices for each such beneficial owner.

1 See Ex. B to Joint Motion. Thus, the stockholders were informed that the T2 plaintiffs had 2 investigated the claims they had made, and that their concerns of misconduct had been laid to 3 rest.

4 The Notice also required those wishing to object to submit such objections no later than 5 September 22, 2016. A total of three objections were received. One was submitted jointly by 6 Diamond A Investors, LP and Diamond A Partners, LP (collectively, "Diamond A"), who 7 together claim to own 7% of RDI's outstanding Class A shares and "some" Class B shares. The 8 second objection was submitted by Mark Cuban, who owns 72,164 Class A shares, and 207,913
9 Class B shares. The final objection was submitted James J. Cotter, Jr. (collectively, Diamond A, 10 Cuban and Cotter, Jr. will be referenced as the "Objectors").

11 The Objectors each contend that the Settlement does not convey a benefit on RDI or its 12 stockholders and that the releases are too broad. Diamond A added the purported broad releases
13 would preclude stockholders from bringing to approval of compensation to Cotter, Sr. "in the 14 years prior to his death."⁴ claims related to what he described as a "golden coffin" arrangement
15 involving Cotter, Sr.'s compensation. Cotter, Jr. also contends that the principals of the T2
16 Plaintiffs testified in a manner contradicting the Settlement terms.

17 LEGAL ARGUMENT

18 This Court should approve the settlement as it is fair and reasonable to the corporation,
19 and thus, to the stockholders. Because derivative litigation is "notoriously unpredictable,"
20 settlements of shareholder derivative actions are "particularly favored." See Maher v. Zapata
21 Corp., 714 F.2d 436, 455 (5th Cir. 1983); see also In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d at 378
22 ("Even if it had gone to trial, derivative lawsuits are rarely successful."); Granada Inv., Inc. v.
23 DWG Corp., 962 F.2d 1203, 1205 (6th Cir. 1992) ("Absent evidence of fraud or collusion, such 24 settlements are not to be trifled with."). Nevada courts recognize that the law and public policy
25 favor settlements and compromises entered into fairly and in good faith between competent

26 _____
27 ⁴ Allegations related to such compensation had been raised in the T2 Plaintiffs' original complaint, but were not 28 realleged in the T2 Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint.

persons. Malfabon v. Garcia, 111 Nev. 793, 797, 898 P.2d 107, 109 (1995) (recognizing “the benefits provided by the settlement of cases and the laudable policy to effectuate them”); see also In re Pacific Enterprises Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 377-78 (9th Cir. 1995) (“we have a ‘strong judicial policy that favors settlements’”) (citations omitted); Class Plaintiff v. Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992) (recognizing the strong public policy in favor of the settlement of complex litigation). Here, the T2 Plaintiffs have acknowledged that, having had the opportunity, through the extensive discovery process, to examine the issues raised in their complaint, they find no further cause for concern. Under these circumstances, the settlement reached after weeks of negotiation between experienced counsel is a fair and just result.

A. Objective Assessment of this Litigation Favors Approval of the Settlement.

“The principal factor to be considered in determining the fairness of a settlement concluding a stockholders' derivative action is the extent of the benefit to be derived from the proposed settlement by the corporation, the real party in interest.” Shlensky v. Dorsey, 574 F.2d 131, 147 (3d Cir. 1978). Shlensky held that courts considering the validity of a proposed settlement of a derivative action should review “the adequacy of the recovery provided the corporation by the settlement must be considered in the light of the best possible recovery, of the risks of establishing liability and proving damages in the event the case is not settled, and of the cost of prolonging the litigation. Id. Here, where there is little likelihood of any recovery, damages are illusory, and there is considerable cost to continuing the litigation, the settlement should be approved.

Cotter, Jr. urges the court to employ a test that essentially subsumes the Shlensky factors, and adds more, citing Polk v. Good, 507 A.2d 531, 536 (Del. 1986). Under Polk, a court should consider (1) the probable validity of claims, (2) difficulties in enforcing the claims through the courts, (3) the collectability of any judgment recovered (4) the delay, expense and trouble of litigation (5) the amount of compromise as compared with the amount of collectability of a judgment and (6) the view of the parties involved. Polk v. Good, 507 A.2d 531, 536 (Del.

1 1986). Should the Court choose to adopt that test, review of each of these factors shows that the
2 settlement here should be approved.

3 B. The Claims Have No Probable Validity.

4 Here, the “probable validity” of the claims has been assessed by the T2 Plaintiffs, who
5 had the benefit of the vast amount of discovery conducted in this case, including many thousands
6 of pages of documents produced, interrogatories answered, and fifteen witnesses deposed. After 7 such extensive investigation, the T2 Plaintiffs acknowledged that their concerns had “been put to 8 rest.” Accordingly, they have no reason to pursue their claims.

9 Significantly, their damages claims related to purported decreases in stock value could 10 not be tied to specific actions, and therefore, were doomed to failure. Damages purportedly based 11 on waste were obviously based on hindsight. Claims regarding compensation to the Directors 12 were subject to a stiff presumption of fairness, regardless of self-interest, and moreover, were 13 revealed to be well within compensation offered by peer companies. Finally, their claims
14 regarding the voting of stock by the estate of Cotter, Sr. were deflated by this Court’s denial of 15 the requested preliminary injunctions.

16 No Objector has come forward with evidence that suggests that there is any previously
17 overlooked validity to the T2 plaintiffs’ claims. Indeed, rather than focusing on the claims made
18 in this case, the Objectors instead focused their concern on the releases of unknown claims.
19 However, not only are such releases commonplace, but given the past year of extensive 20 discovery in which both the T2 plaintiffs and Cotter, Jr. were searching for anything damning of 21 the Individual Defendants, there cannot be any reasonable likelihood of unknown claims.

22 1. Cotter Jr.’s citations to T2 Plaintiff testimony provides no support for 23 Disapproval of the Settlement.

24 Cotter, Jr. urges this Court to deny approval, claiming that testimony by the principals of 25 the T2 Plaintiffs somehow contradicts the Notice and press release wherein the T2 Plaintiff
26 principals expressed their satisfaction with their investigation and the outcome of the litigation.
27 Cotter, Jr. Objection, pp. 7-9. However, he fails to provide any examples of testimony that

1 actually reveals any contradictions. The cited testimony reveals that Mr. Tilson believes that the 2 Cotter's sisters engineered Cotter, Jr.'s termination; that Mr. Tilson would rather have persons he
3 chose on the board of directors; and that Mr. Tilson believes the stock price was depressed
4 because of a perception by investors that the Cotters control the company. However, nothing in 5 this testimony suggests that Mr. Tilson believes that any Individual Defendant violated any 6 fiduciary duties. Moreover, Mr. Tilson need not believe that RDI's officers are negligent or 7 corrupt in order to have a personal preference for directors of his own choosing as referenced in 8 his testimony.

9 Similarly, Mr. Glaser's cited testimony shows that he had hoped he could use the lawsuit
10 to force his own choices onto RDI's Board of Directors; his speculation as to what would be 11 wrong if certain facts were proven or what damages might have been suffered (which damages, 12 would, of course, be recoverable only if there were proof of intentional misconduct). But none
13 of this testimony shows any belief by Mr. Glaser that any Individual Defendant did, in fact,
14 violate any fiduciary duties or that he otherwise believes he does not now have full information
15 regarding RDI's governance.

16 Cotter, Jr. presumably cited to what he considers the most relevant testimony offered by 17 Whitney Tilson and Jonathan Glaser. But none of that testimony supports his position. In short,
18 Cotter, Jr.'s apparent belief that somehow this settlement was proposed over the objections of 19 Tilson and Glaser is simply not supported by any evidence. Moreover, both Tilson and Glaser 20 are parties to the settlement agreement.

21 2. *Diamond A's hopes for the litigation are realized.

22 Despite Diamond A's objection, the press release issued by the T2 Plaintiffs makes clear
23 that the objectives for the litigation of Diamond A's principal have been met. Mr. Shapiro
24 testified to considering discussing joining in the intervention with Mr. Tilson. While Mr.
25 Shapiro did not believe that Mr. Tilson articulated his goals, Mr. Shapiro explained his:

26
27 Q. When he decided -- when he told you that he had decided he wanted to file the lawsuit, what did he say his goals were?

1 MR. RAISSI: If he did.

2 THE WITNESS: I don't think he delineated his goals as specific.
3 There was certainly an issue here that if Junior was to settle the suit, or that suit
4 got thrown out, and intervenors weren't involved, that this case -- the company
5 was trying to pursue and send this case into some kind of private arbitration
6 forum. And the true dirt of what went down here and how much and if the shareholders were being abused by the family historically or currently would have never come to light. *That was one of the main motivations and thoughts that I had in wanting to file this intervention suit, was to find out, what's going on?
What happened here?*

7 Ex. A, Shapiro Depo., 170:2-20 (emphasis added).

8 Furthermore, Mr. Shapiro's testimony illustrates his knowledge of the lawsuit early on.
9 Despite of having knowledge and an apparent "motivation" to file a suit in intervention, he did 10 not do so. His decision not to intervene does not provide a basis to deny the settlement that has 11 been put forth.

12 C. The Claims Would be Difficult to Enforce and the Prospect of Collection Low.

13 The claims asserted by the T2 Plaintiffs would be difficult to enforce with minimal 14 chance of collection. This factor supports approval of the settlement. The claims alleged by the 15 T2 Plaintiffs largely address differences of opinion as to the proper direction in which to take the 16 Company rather than any actual conduct constituting breaches of the duty of loyalty or care.
17 Any plaintiff bringing such claims would have considerable difficulty in enforcing the claims in 18 any jurisdiction. However, Nevada sets a particularly high bar for plaintiffs, imposing statutory 19 presumptions in favor of corporation management with respect to decision regarding the 20 operation of the company. NRS 78.138. A similar presumption exists as to decisions regarding 21 director compensation, regardless of the directors' own self-interest in such compensation. NRS
22 78.140(5). Furthermore, even if a breach of fiduciary duty could be found despite these 23 presumptions of good faith and fairness, Nevada permits direct recovery against directors only 24 when it is shown they engaged in intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law.
25 NRS 78.138(7). Significantly, neither fraud nor legal violations were even alleged by the T2
26 Plaintiffs.

27 ///

Furthermore, it has already been made clear that a significant part of the T2 Plaintiffs' case was headed for failure, given the denial of the T2 Plaintiffs' request for a preliminary injunction. That request was made based on theories that the Estate of Cotter, Sr. should not vote shares in its possession, a theory this Court rejected.

Finally, success at the conclusion of a trial is quite rare for derivative actions. See Thomas M. Jones, An Empirical Examination of the Resolution of Shareholder Derivative and Class Action Lawsuits, 60 B.U.L. Rev. 542, 544-45 (1980) (finding class and derivative lawsuits resulted in judgment for plaintiffs in less than one percent of cases). Thus, an objective assessment of the chances of receiving a monetary judgment reveal a low likelihood of success.

D. The Litigation Has Been Protracted and Costly.

This litigation has thus far proven quite costly, with extensive written discovery, more than a dozen depositions, many of which have been extended over multiple days, and frequent court hearings. Given the low prospect for recovery, it is little wonder that the T2 Plaintiffs wish to stop the bleeding. More to the point, however, RDI also wishes to put an end to the extensive waste of resources caused by this litigation. RDI has an obligation to indemnify its officers and directors, and thus bears the cost of defending each of the Individual Defendants, as well as representing its own interests. In addition to monetary resources, for which insurance caps draw ever closer, RDI's directors and management must devote considerable time and attention to the litigation. While approval of this Settlement will not end the entire litigation, it will allow RDI's remaining insurance reserves to be focused on the Cotter, Jr. claims, and will decrease the drain on RDI's management resources.

E. The Advantages of Settling Compares Favorably to Chasing a Phantom Recovery.

As noted above, the T2 Plaintiffs had little prospect for success of any kind, and still less for any significant monetary award. In these circumstances, settling is obviously advantageous. The "compromise," yields to RDI an end to a significant portion of this costly litigation. Indeed, the extensive cost of this litigation to RDI, in terms of its own monetary resources, the time to

1 which both RDI's Board of Directors and its management have had to devote to the litigation,
2 and in terms of reputation, is something that has generally been ignored by all of the Plaintiffs,
3 even though, as stockholders, they suffer with the Company. The T2 Settlement calls a halt to 4 much of this drain on resources, and that is a highly significant benefit that inures to RDI and its
5 stockholders.

6 Furthermore, it is significant that, unlike many derivative actions, the settlement here
7 does not include an award of attorneys' fees to the plaintiff's counsel. Such awards are most 8 frequently paid by the corporation, and thus, ultimately by the stockholders. Here, however, the 9 named T2 plaintiffs are bearing their own fees. Such a lack of a fee award fees to Plaintiffs'
10 counsel demonstrates that the Settlement is not an example of a corporation buying off nuisance 11 claims.

12 F. Objections Based on the Breadth of the Release are Unwarranted.

13 The Objectors contend that the releases are too broad. However, the release proposed 14 here is far from atypical. In fact, the release is similar to that discussed in In re Amerco
15 Derivative Litig., 127 Nev. 196, 212, 252 P.3d 681, 693 (2011). In that case, a 1994 settlement 16 between stockholders and the corporate defendants provided that each "shall be deemed to have 17 ... fully, finally and forever settled and released any and all Released Claims, known or 18 unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, whether or not concealed or 19 hidden, which now exist or heretofore have existed." *Id.*⁵ The use of such a broad release in 20 1994 demonstrates that the scope of the release here is customary, and not at all remarkable.

21 Moreover, it is a release that was proposed after the parties had been engaged in 22 discovery relating to virtually every corporate decision made by the Individual Defendants over 23 an extensive period of time. It is absurd to believe that there are, in fact, unknown claims that 24 would not have been uncovered in the midst of such scrutiny.

25 ///

27 ⁵ The claims in Amerco were based on transaction that occurred subsequent to the settlement, and therefore, the 28 release did not apply to them.

1 Diamond A's singling out of a claim regarding compensation to Cotter, Sr., i.e., the 2 "golden coffin" claim, raised by the T2 Plaintiffs in its original Complaint in Intervention, and
3 omitted in the First Amended Complaint, is unavailing. The abandonment of this claim six
4 months after it was original posed by the T2 Plaintiffs simply reveals that the T2 plaintiffs
5 realized it was unfounded, and therefore, properly excluded it from their amended complaint.
6 Such a conclusion is warranted in light of the fact that Mr. Shapiro, who speaks and acts for 7 Diamond A, has acknowledged that counsel for the T2 Plaintiffs is also his own counsel. See 8 Ex. A, Shapiro Depo., 304:8-10.

9 G. The Views of the Parties Support Settlement.

10 Finally, the view of the parties to the settlement is, obviously, that settlement is in the 11 best interests of all. It is significant that, despite notice having been sent to all of RDI record
12 stockholders, only three objections to the settlement were filed. Moreover, one of those was 13 brought by Cotter, Jr., who is obviously motivated by his own personal reasons, rather than a
14 genuine concern over the Company or its stockholders. The other two objections were submitted
15 by individuals who were fully aware of the litigation; indeed, Shapiro freely admits to have 16 considered joining the intervention. But neither of these stockholders did join, and thus, they
17 have not personally incurred the costs to prosecute the litigation that the T2 Plaintiffs and RDI
18 have borne. The Non-Cotter Objectors insistence that they are entitled to some unspecified 19 benefit, even while they ignore the brutal cost to the stockholders, through RDI, reveals their 20 lack of objective analysis of the settlement. This is especially true given the minuscule hope of 21 recovery.

22 ///

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

CONCLUSION

The T2 settlement is fair and reasonable to RDI and its stockholders. The Objectors have failed to present any evidence showing that the settlement is unfair on any basis. Accordingly, this Court should grant final approval of the Settlement.

1 Objections to the T2 Settlement filed by James J. Cotter, Jr., Mark Cuban ("Cuban") and Diamond
2 A. Partners, L.P. and Diamond A Investors, L.P. (collectively hereinafter "Shapiro") as follows:

3 I.

4 INTRODUCTION

5 Having been perfectly content to sit on the sidelines for the past year and let the T2
6 Plaintiffs' shoulder the financial burden of investigating James Cotter, Jr.'s claims of 7 mismanagement and self-dealing by RDI's board of directors, Shapiro and Cuban both now object
8 to scope of the release in the settlement based upon potential claims they themselves have failed to 9 bring as intervenors. Having now reviewed approximately 22,000 documents produced by the 10 Defendants, having reviewed nearly every significant board decision and corporate transaction
11 over the past several years, and taken the depositions of each of the Defendants, the T2 Plaintiffs 12 concluded that continued prosecution of their Complaint-In-Intervention would not be in the best
13 interest of RDI's shareholders.

14 II.

15 SHAPIRO'S OBJECTION SIMPLY MIRRORS HIS PREVIOUS OPPOSITION TO 16 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT

17 The objection filed by Diamond A Partners, L.P. and Diamond A. Investors, L.P. is simply 18 a rehash of the very same arguments raised in their Opposition to Joint Motion for Preliminary 19 Approval of Settlement. Specifically, these shareholders object to the settlement because the 20 terms would release what Mr. Shapiro refers to in his declaration as the "Golden Coffin". The 21 "Golden Coffin" refers to a Supplemental Retirement Plan established for James Cotter, Sr., which 22 RDI disclosed in a 10-K filing on March 31, 2015. Although this "Golden Coffin" claim was 23 included in the T2 Plaintiff's original complaint, it was intentionally omitted from their First 24 Amended Complaint filed on February 12, 2016. Shapiro and any other shareholder who believed
25 that this claim had merit could have intervened in this lawsuit to prosecute this claim. The fact
26 that Shapiro has not intervened to pursue this claim should be considered by this Court when 27 evaluating his objection to the settlement.

III.

THE OBJECTIONS MISCHARACTERIZES THE BENEFITS CONFERRED ON THE SHAREHOLDERS FROM THIS SETTLEMENT

All of the Objectors incorrectly claim that the only consideration given for this settlement "is a joint press release and a mutual non-disparagement provision." However, this argument overlooks both the actual language of the settlement agreement. Specifically, section 3(a) of the Settlement Agreement provides, in pertinent part:

"T2 Plaintiffs believe that Defendants will continue to act in good faith to use best practices with regard to board governance, protection of stockholder rights, and maximizing value for all its stockholders, which actions shall include (i) providing to the Compensation Committee's independent compensation consultant the names of certain companies previously suggested by the T2 Plaintiffs as possible market comparables for consideration in 2017 and (ii) the Company anticipates continuing to hold regular corporate earnings conference calls and to continue to engage with investors around earnings. Further, Management has informed T2 that incident to the financing of pre-development activities at the site, it anticipates refinancing the existing loan between Reading and Sutton Hill Properties, LLC."

First, at their own expense, the T2 Plaintiffs commissioned a compensation consultant to prepare a list of comparable companies in the same industry as RDI to be used as a peer group for RDI's Compensation Committee to consider when setting the 2017 compensation for RDI's officers and executives. This alleviates one of the T2 Plaintiffs' claims that excessive compensation of RDI executives constituted corporate waste. Further, shortly after signing the settlement agreement, RDI presented to investors at the B. Riley & Co. investors conference on September 13, 2016 as part of its effort to "engage with investors" as promised in the settlement agreement. See, RDI Press Release, dated August 31, 2016 attached hereto as Exhibit "A". Finally, RDI has promised to repay the $2,910,000 loan made by RDI to Sutton Hill Properties, LLC. ("SHP"), which owns Cinemas 1,2,3. SHP is owned 75% by Citadel Cinemas, Inc. (an RDI affiliate) and Sutton Hill Capital. Sutton Hill Capital is owned by Sutton Hill Associates, which is a 50/50 general partnership between James Cotter, Sr. and Michael Forman. No interest on the $2,910,000 has ever been paid to RDI and the loan was not repaid when the Cinemas 1, 2, 3 property was refinanced several years ago. Thus, part of the consideration for the settlement is the Defendants' promise that this $2,910,000 loan would be repaid to RDI as part of the financing of

1 the pre-development activities for Cinemas 1,2,3. This is a significant benefit to all RDI
2 shareholders to have this loan repaid to RDI by entities which were owned and controlled by 3 James Cotter, Sr.

4 All of these actions by RDI are tangible benefits to RDI's shareholders which were 5 negotiated by the T2 Plaintiffs. Thus, the consideration for the settlement is not just a "press
6 release and a mutual non-disparagement agreement" as the objectors claim.

7 IV.

8 THE CONTROL OF THE RDI VOTING STOCK WILL BE DETERMINED IN THE
9 PENDING TRUST LITIGATION IN CALIFORNIA

10 As RDI correctly points out in its Reply, the T2 Plaintiffs unsuccessfully moved this Court
11 for a preliminary injunction seeking to enjoin the Cotter siblings from voting 696,080 Class B
12 voting shares owned by the Cotter Family Trust, because the only trustee identified on RDI's
13 books and records was the deceased James Cotter, Sr. However, unbeknownst to the T2 Plaintiffs 14 at the time they filed their motion, this Court had previously ruled prior to T2's intervention that 15 Margaret Cotter could, for the purpose of the 2015 annual shareholder meeting, vote those shares
16 as the sole trustee of the trust based upon the 2013 Amendment to the trust and ignore the 2014
17 "Hospital Amendment" which changed the trustees to both Margaret Cotter and James Cotter, Jr.
18 Thus, when their motion for preliminary injunction was denied, the T2 Plaintiffs realized that it
19 was futile to continue to litigate the propriety of Margaret Cotter voting the disputed shares at the 20 2015 or 2016 annual shareholder meetings, and that the decision concerning who the proper
21 trustee(s) were was going to have to be made in the California trust litigation.

22 V.

24 Having spent considerable money to look under the hood and kick the proverbial tires of 25 RDI, the T2 Plaintiffs concluded that despite the acrimony between the Cotter siblings, there was 26 no evidence of intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law by the board of 27 directors. While the board's decisions on certain matters may not have followed "best practices", 28 the law in Nevada requires a much higher standard to prove breach of fiduciary duty. For all of

1 the foregoing reasons, and those outlined in RDI's omnibus reply, the T2 Plaintiffs respectfully
2 urge this Court to grant final approval of the settlement.

DECLARATION OF MARK G. KRUM IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO REOPEN DISCOVERY AND VACATE ALL PENDING DATES ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME

I, Mark G. Krum, Esq., being duly sworn, deposes and says that:

1. I am a partner with the law firm of Lewis Roca Rothgerber Christie LLP, attorneys for James J. Cotter, Jr. as plaintiff in the captioned action ("Plaintiff").

2. I make this declaration based upon personal knowledge, except where stated to be upon information and belief, and as to that information, I believe it to be true. If called upon to testify as to the contents of this Declaration, I am legally competent to testify to the contents of this Declaration in a court of law.

Reason for Order Shortening Time

3. Pursuant to EDCR 2.26, there is good cause to hear this motion on shortened time. Notwithstanding the good faith and diligent efforts of counsel for Plaintiff to complete fact discovery, it is not yet complete, for the reasons referenced and described herein. It therefore will be impossible for the parties to satisfy their obligations in connection with the pre-trial conference, scheduled for two weeks hence. Separately, expert discovery has not commenced. Independent of the foregoing, certain of the parties and possibly counsel have and/or are likely to have irreconcilable conflicts in terms of being available in November on the dates on which this case may be sent out for trial.

4. For all of these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully submits that there is good cause for this Motion to be heard on shortened time, no later than August 13, 2016.

Fact Discovery is Incomplete

5. Plaintiff previously described Defendants' delayed document productions, including approximately 20,000 pages of documents at the agreed deadline in mid-April and then approximately 15,000 pages after that deadline. Defendants then delivered a supplemental privilege log approximately with approximately 4,000 entries on or about May 25, 2016, right before the initial discovery cut-off. This delayed production schedule caused depositions to be delayed so that they could not be completed, even in the extended time made available.

6. The foregoing delays caused other delays, including regarding disposition of

1 privilege issues raised by the individual director defendants' invocation of the business judgment
2 rule and reliance on advice of counsel accompanied by the simultaneous withholding of
3 documents reflecting that advice and the instruction of deponents not to answer questions calling
4 for disclosure of it. Those delays continue, as described herein.

5 7. On August 30, 2016, the Court granted Plaintiff's "advice of counsel" motion.
6 Thereafter, the parties submitted competing orders, notwithstanding what Plaintiff believed to be a
7 perfectly clear ruling and direction of the Court at the August 30, 2016 hearing. On October 3,
8 2016, the Court signed an Order granting Plaintiff's "advice of counsel" motion which the Court
9 itself prepared.

10 8. Neither the Company nor for the Individual Defendants have provided any 11 indication as to when (what may be hundreds of) "advice of counsel" documents required to be 12 produced pursuant to the Order referenced immediately above will be produced. In fairness, they 13 may not yet know the full scope of what they have to produce, much less when it will be 14 produced. (See Ex. A hereto, which is an excerpt of certain of their privilege logs referencing 15 advice of counsel regarding the supposed 100,000 share option.)

16 9. On August 30, 2016, the Court also granted in part Plaintiff's motion seeking 17 discovery with respect to the so-called Offer received by the Company on or about May 31, 2016.
18 The court ordered documents produced in fourteen (14) days. Counsel for the Interested Director
19 Defendants thereafter indicated that documents would be produced shortly, but failed to provide a
20 date certain for doing so and, ultimately, did not produce a single document. (See Ex. B hereto,
21 which is an email exchange between counsel.) Counsel for the Company produced documents
22 belatedly, late on Friday, September 16, 2016. For reasons counsel for Plaintiff has discussed
23 with counsel for the Company, which cannot be described in a publicly available document, it is 24 Plaintiff's position that that Defendants, or at least EC and nominal defendant RDI, have not yet
25 completed their production of documents the Court ordered to be produced regarding the Offer.

26 10. Also with respect to the Motion to compel discovery regarding the Offer, the Court
27 ordered that RDI produce a Rule 30(b)(6) witness. During a scheduling call among counsel on or 28 about Monday, October 3, 2016, counsel for the Company indicated that that witness would be

1 Ellen Cotter. No proposed dates for that deposition have been provided.

2 11. In short, document discovery—meaning document discovery as part of fact
3 discovery—remains incomplete. More particularly, the production of documents ordered by the 4 Court remains incomplete.

5 12. Likewise, percipient witness depositions remain incomplete. In fact, due largely if 6 not entirely to the fact that document discovery has not been completed, as described above,
7 depositions of the remaining fact witnesses have not been scheduled, much less taken.

8 13. Craig Tompkins, whose deposition now obviously will entail more substantive 9 testimony and fewer instructions to not answer based on assertions of attorney-client privilege, has 10 not been scheduled, much less taken. This includes depositions the court ordered, namely, the 11 resumption of the deposition of defendant McEachern and the deposition of a Rule 30(b)(6)
12 witness from the Company (who will be Ellen Cotter) regarding the Offer.

13 14. The deposition of director defendant Judy Coddington has not been scheduled, much
14 less taken. The deposition of director defendant Guy Adams, which was commenced but not 15 concluded previously, has not been scheduled, much less taken. Likewise, the deposition of Doug 16 McEachern, which the Court ordered to resume with respect to the subject of the Offer, also has 17 not been scheduled, much less taken. Nor has the final half day (3.5 hours) of Plaintiff's 18 deposition has been scheduled.

19 Defendants Again Have Invoked Advice of Counsel But Failed to Produce It.

20 15. During the course of the call among counsel on Monday, October 3, 2016 regarding 21 scheduling, and in particular with respect to production of documents by defendants in response to 22 the Court's orders described above, counsel for Plaintiff explained that he understood the Court to 23 have ordered Defendants to produce any and all attorney advice on which they claim to have relied 24 in taking actions or making decisions regarding matters raised in this case. The stated point was 25 that such attorney-client communications need to be produced before the depositions are resumed,
26 so that the depositions can be concluded, instead of adjourned to litigate again the non-production
27 of attorney-client communications on which the individual director defendants claim to have relied 28 in deciding his or her conduct complained of in this action and/or instructions of counsel at deposition that a director defendant not answer a question because it called for attorney-client communications on which the director relied. The response of counsel for the Interested Director Defendants was to the effect that they do intend to claim that they relied on counsel when they did so, but that they are not producing documents reflecting the attorney advice. Whether that refers to advice of counsel referenced in their summary judgment motions, or to advice of counsel mentioned in their deposition testimony, or to something else, is unclear. (See Ex. C hereto, which are excerpts of deposition testimony in which they reference advice of counsel.)

16. Any doubt that Defendants intend to rely on advice of counsel is put to rest by the fact that many of the so-called motions for summary judgment filed by the Individual Director Defendants include assertions that, in making the decisions and/or taking the actions they made or took which are challenged by Plaintiff in this action, they relied on the advice of counsel. Examples are discussed below, in the accompanying brief.

Expert Discovery Has Not Commenced, Much Less Concluded.

17. Expert discovery has not commenced. The parties collectively have designated ten (10) experts. To date, only reports have been produced, not documents. Seven of ten of the expert depositions have been scheduled (in Los Angeles, New York, Boston and Philadelphia), but none have been taken.

Additional Conflicts Exist

18. Three of the parties, namely, Plaintiff, Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, will be in trial in the so-called California Trust Action on November 14 and 15 and November 28 through December 1. Of course, they cannot be two places at one time. It would be prejudicial to Plaintiff to be absent for even one day of trial in this case. Separately, lead trial counsel for Plaintiff is faced with an independent conflict, one possible and imminent resolution of which would make him unavailable to proceed with the trial of this matter.

19. Pursuant to EDCR 7.30, 2.35 and 2.34, for those same reasons and other independent reasons there is good cause for this Court to allow unfinished fact discovery including discovery ordered by the Court, to be completed, to vacate all dates, including the October 21, 2016 pretrial conference, and to continue the trial date in this matter.

20. Prior to filing this Motion, counsel for Plaintiff on October 6, 2016 spoke with Defendants' counsel in good faith concerning the nature of this motion and seeking consent to the requested relief. Counsel for Defendants indicated that they would oppose this motion.

21. This Declaration and Motion is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 7th day of October, 2016.

Mark G. Krum, Esq.

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Plaintiff") hereby moves on shortened time for an order that (i) vacates and/or resets all pending dates and deadlines, (ii) reopens discovery, (iii) vacates the trial date and all related dates, and (iv) otherwise provides for such relief as is appropriate under the circumstances (the "Motion"). This Motion is precipitated by several independent factors, each of which individually warrants the relief sought.

The parties have been unable to complete fact discovery. Document production by defendants is not complete, including the production of documents ordered by the Court. Nor are depositions of percipient witnesses, including two ordered by the Court. Separately, the individual defendants' motions for summary judgment repeatedly invoke reliance on the advice of counsel as part of invoking the business judgment rule -- but they have withheld the attorney advice as privileged. Entirely separately, expert discovery has not commenced. Finally, Plaintiff, EC and MC face scheduling conflicts due to the trial schedule in the prior pending California Trust Action and, separately, lead trial counsel may well soon be unavailable for trial.

By way of context and reminder, document production by defendants was back-loaded. That delayed depositions, which occurred on an almost weekly basis for a solid three months, but were not completed. These delays, in turn, delayed the resolution of other discovery issues such

1 that, on August 30, 2016, the Court (again) ordered Defendants to produce documents and
2 deponents. Now, in October, the document productions the Court ordered on August 30, 2016 are 3 not complete.

4 Percipient witness depositions remain unscheduled, much less finished. Depositions of two
5 defendants (Coddington and Tompkins) have not been commenced. The deposition of another
6 defendant (Adams) has not been completed. The Court ordered deposition of McEachern has not
7 been scheduled and the Court ordered deposition of the Company's Rule 36(b)(6) witness
8 regarding the offer has not been scheduled. Coddington, Adams, McEachern and the Company's 9 Rule 30(b)(6) designee will be the first depositions Plaintiffs will take regarding the Offer,
10 discovery the Court ruled Plaintiff was entitled to take. These depositions cannot be concluded, 11 and ought not be commenced to be concluded, until the required production of documents has 12 been completed.

13 Other document production and privilege related issues also remain—as evidenced by the 14 motions for summary judgment filed by the individual defendants that invoked advice of counsel
15 as part of their invocation of the business judgment rule in defense of certain of their challenged
16 conduct. In several of their purported summary judgment motions, the Individual Director
17 Defendants defend their challenged actions by claiming that they relied on counsel. But, and 18 contrary to what the Court on August 30, 2016 directed, they have not produced the advice of 19 counsel documents on which they claim to rely. Thus, they are doing exactly what the Court told 20 them they cannot do – using attorney/client privilege as a sword and shield.

21 Of course, Plaintiff is entitled to present his entire case, meaning all matters that evidence
22 and give rise to same claims for breach of fiduciary duty, and to have had an opportunity to have 23 conducted full and fair discovery with respect to all such matters. Conversely, Plaintiff should not 24 be prejudiced because the Defendants delayed their document productions, caused depositions to 25 be delayed so that they could not be completed even in the extended time made available and,
26 now, have not yet complied with the Court's orders of August 30, 2016, such that neither 27 document discovery nor percipient witness depositions have been completed – nor can either be 28 completed such that the parties can satisfy their obligations in connection with the pretrial

1 conference set for approximately two weeks hence.

2 Counsel for nominal Defendant RDI will complain that the trial date is set and should be
3 maintained. But, the trial date has been in jeopardy for months due largely, if not entirely, to 4 Defendants' own conduct, and is not more important than the substantive rights and considerations
5 identified herein, which clearly warrant granting this Motion.

6 II. PROCEDURAL AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7 A. Defendants Have Not Produced Documents the Court Ordered Produced and 8 Percipient Witness Depositions, Including As Ordered By the Court, Remain to be Taken.

9 On August 30, 2016, the Court granted in part Plaintiff's motion seeking discovery with 10 respect to the so-called Offer received by the Company on or about May 31, 2016. The court
11 ordered documents produced in fourteen (14) days. Counsel for the Interested Director
12 Defendants thereafter indicated that documents would be produced shortly, but failed to provide a
13 date certain for doing so and, ultimately, did not produce a single document. (See Ex. B hereto.)
14 Counsel for the Company produced documents belatedly, late on Friday, September 16, 2016.
15 For reasons counsel for Plaintiff has discussed with counsel for the Company, which cannot be 16 described in a publicly available document, it is Plaintiff's position that that Defendants, or at least
17 EC and nominal defendant RDI, have not yet completed their production of documents the Court
18 ordered to be produced regarding the Offer.

19 Plaintiff has had no opportunity to take discovery with respect to the Offer, what RDI
20 management did at the direction of EC in purporting to value the Company and what if anything
21 any of the Individual Director Defendants did to place themselves in a position to make an 22 informed, good faith decision in the best interests of the Company and all of its shareholders, as
23 distinct from a decision intended to accede to the wishes of EC and MC, who obviously are intent
24 on perpetuating their control of RDI indefinitely, in derogation of the interests of the Company
25 and its other shareholders. Plaintiff has not deposed a single person regarding the Offer.

26 Separately, as the Court will recall, Adams and Kane, the two members of the RDI Board
27 of Directors Compensation Committee who authorized the exercise by EC and MC as executors of 28 the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. of a supposed option to acquire 100,000 shares of RDI Class B

1 voting stock, testified in deposition that they did so based on the advice of counsel, including
2 advice from Tompkins. The Court granted Plaintiff's motion to compel the production of such
3 documents. On October 3, 2016, the Court signed an order specifying the documents Defendants
4 are required to produce. When (and perhaps whether) defendants will comply is unknown.

5 Neither Court ordered nor agreed depositions have been completed. The deposition of 6 Craig Tompkins, which counsel for Plaintiff has sought since mid-May, cannot be scheduled until 7 Defendants have complied with the Court's order signed on October 3, 2016, regarding certain
8 "advice of counsel" documents. The deposition of defendant Adams has been commenced and not
9 concluded, and is not now rescheduled for conclusion because Adams testified at a prior session
10 that, in making a decision to authorize the exercise of a supposed option to acquire 100,000 shares
11 of RDI class B stock, he relied on the advice of counsel. On August 30, the Court ordered the 12 documents produced. On October 3, the Court signed an Order specifying what documents have 13 been produced. None of these documents have been produced. Nor are the depositions of 14 defendant Coddington (agreed) or defendant McEachern (ordered by Court) been scheduled. Nor can 15 they be taken until the documents required to be produced have been produced.

16 As the foregoing reflects, the depositions will not be completed until a time yet to be 17 determined, through no fault of counsel for Plaintiff, who has proceeded more than diligently to 18 attempt to conduct and complete depositions.

19 B. Privilege Issues – Including New Advice of Counsel Invocations by the 20 Individual Director Defendants - Remain Unresolved

21 As noted above, the individual director defendants in their motions for summary judgment
22 repeatedly have cited to their reliance on advice of counsel in invoking the business judgment rule
23 to defend certain of their challenged conduct. Dutifully ignoring the Court's August 30 ruling and 24 its October 3 Order, the Individual Director Defendants repeatedly include in their MSJs
25 assertions that, in making the decisions and/or taking the actions they made or took which are 26 challenged by Plaintiff in this action, they relied on the advice of counsel, but do so without 27 having produced that advice.

28 For example, the "Individual Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment (No. 1) re:
Plaintiff's Termination and Reinstatement Claims" ("MSJ No. 1") recites that "outside counsel"

1 attended RDI Board of Directors meetings at which the termination of Plaintiff was discussed, but
2 MSJ No. 1 does not provide an unredacted version of the meeting minutes (or allow the director
3 defendants at deposition declined to disclose the attorney-client communications on which they no
4 claim to have relied.) MSJ No. 1 states, for example, as follows:

5 Outside counsel retained by the Company also attended a May 21, 2015
6 board meeting to provide corporate law advice where appropriate. (Citation omitted).

7 (MSJ No. 1 at 9:21-24.)

8 Likewise MSJ No. 1 (at p. 19, fn. 4) states unequivocally as follows:

9 The fact that the RDI Board utilized the Company's outside counsel and 10 its own counsel, separately retained, when evaluating Plaintiff's
11 performance and its duties is further evidence of the exercise of protected business judgment. [Citation omitted.]

12 (MSJ No. 1 at 20:21-22.)

13 In "Individual Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment (No. 2) the Issue of 14 Director Independence" (MSJ No.2), in discussing the issue of whether defendant Adams was 15 independent in view of his financial dependency on income from companies controlled by EC and 16 MC, MSJ No. 2 states that:

17 ...Bill Ellis, then General Counsel of RDI looked into the issue of Adams' 18 independence and concluded that Adams met the standard required for director 'independence' [.]"

19 (MSJ No. 2 at 10:19-20.)

20 Additionally, the separate motion for summary judgment brought by defendant Gould
21 invokes reliance on counsel. For example, with respect to the subject of Adams' financial 22 independence on income from companies controlled by EC and MC, Gould argues that he was 23 entitled to rely on counsel for RDI to handle such issues by "vetting [D&O] questionnaires for 24 issues such as financial independence." (Gould MSJ at 13:2-6.) However, neither Adams' not 25 Goulds' communications with RDI counsel about such matters have been produced.

26 Likewise, Gould's MSJ invokes reliance on counsel with respect to RDI's SEC filings, 27 some of which contained information Gould personally had asserted was incorrect, including, for 28 example, the Company's June 18, 2015 Form 8-K that announced the termination of President and

1 CEO of RDI also asserted that Plaintiff was required to resign as a Director upon termination of
2 his employment as an executive, a position Gould explicitly testified was erroneous. Gould's MSJ
3 states that "Gould relied on Reading's lawyers to decide if and when a disclosure in an SEC filing
4 was required." (Gould MSJ at 13:22-25). However, neither RDI nor Gould produced drafts of 5 RDI's SEC filings or attorney-client communications about them.

6 See also Gould MSJ 28:16-18:

7 And Gould reasonably relied on counsel to vet the questionnaires for 8 issues such as financial independence—something he was entitled under Nevada law to do. (Citing NRS 78.138(2)(a).)

9 Thus, the individual director defendants must, in view of the Court's prior order, produce evidence
10 of the advice of counsel on which they claim to rely. (Obviously, Plaintiff is entitled to discovery 11 to test those claims.)

12 This Court had not have been clearer in its ruling: if the Individual Defendants are going to 13 assert the business judgment rule and say that they sought and received advice of counsel in 14 connection with any challenged conduct or decision, then they must produce that 15 advice. [Transcript of Proceedings, August 30, 2016, attached as Appendix D, at 12:8-16:21] The

- Imposition of blackout periods preventing Plaintiff from selling stock. [Deposition of Edward Kane, June 9, 2016, at 16:16-19, attached as Appendix C]

It has been more a month since this Court granted Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Advice of Counsel, and none of the communications the Individual Director Defendants apparently relied upon—including the ones cited in their MSJs-- have been produced.

Finally, yet another privilege issue is the extent to which the Defendants possess, and are using, documents as to which Plaintiff would claim attorney-client privilege, attorney work product or both, discussed below. In this case, that issue arose when counsel for the Interested Director Defendants at Plaintiff's deposition showed him a document he had prepared at the direction of counsel for use in litigation, which document had been produced by the Company. Although that particular document was clawed back pursuant to provisions of the Confidentiality Stipulation and Protective Order in place in this case, it appears that the Company has accessed documents of Plaintiff that he had accessed by his work computer. Given the substantial volume of documents produced, particularly by the Company, and the rolling manner in which they were produced, Plaintiff has been unable to assure himself that other such documents are not included

1 in the Company's production and/or in the possession of counsel for the Interested Director
2 Defendants.

3 C. Expert Discovery Has not Commenced

4 Collectively, the parties have designated ten (10) experts. Expert discovery has not
5 commenced. Only expert reports have been produced, but none of the documents to be produced
6 in connection with expert depositions of been produced. Seven of the ten expert depositions have
7 been scheduled, to occur across the country in Los Angeles, New York, Boston and Philadelphia,
8 with additional depositions in Los Angeles and Palo Alto remaining to be scheduled. If these 9 expert depositions proceed as scheduled, there will be literally no time in which to attempt to 10 complete fact discovery.

11 D. The Parties and Counsel Have Scheduling Conflicts [TBP]

12 Three of the parties, namely, Plaintiff, Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, will be in trial in 13 the so-called California Trust Action on November 14 and 15 and November 28 through 14 December 1. Of course, they cannot be two places at one time. It would be prejudicial to Plaintiff
15 to be absent for even one day of trial in this case. Separately, lead trial counsel for Plaintiff is 16 faced with an independent conflict, one possible and imminent resolution of which would make 17 him unavailable to proceed with the trial of this matter.

18 II. ARGUMENT

19 A. Plaintiff Is Entitled to Raise and Pursue All Matters Supporting His Claim, 20 and Complete Discovery Regarding Them.

21 The Court may modify the pretrial schedule if it cannot be met, despite the diligence of the 22 party seeking the extension. As explained above, Plaintiff maintained that a reasonable extension
23 of all deadlines is equitable. Plaintiff diligently has pursued discovery, as previously demonstrated 24 to the Court. It is fundamentally fair to reopen discovery¹ on critical issues that may affect the 25 outcome of this case. Plaintiff deserves the opportunity to have her case heard on the merits. That

26 ¹ The decision to reopen discovery is within the trial court's discretion. Southern Pacific Trans. Co. v. Fitzgerald, 94
27 Nev. 241, 243, 577 P.2d 1234, 1235 (1978); Bleek v. Supervalu, Inc., 95 F.Supp.2d 1118, 1120 (D.Mont. 2000)
28 ("[w]hether to reopen discovery rests in the court's sound discretion"); Schrader v. Palos Anesthesia Associates, S.C., 2002 WL 31207327, *1 (N.D.Ill. 2002) ("court has discretion when deciding whether to re-open discovery"); MGM
Grand, Inc. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court of State In & For Cty. of Clark, 107 Nev. 65, 70, 807 P.2d 201, 204 (1991)
("there is wide discretion in the trial court to control the conduct of pretrial discovery...")

1 requires the relief sought by this motion.

2 The whole purpose of pretrial discovery is to “make trial less a game of blindman’s bluff
3 and more a fair contest with the basic issues and facts disclosed to the fullest practicable extent.”
4 See United States v. Procter & Gamble Co., 356 U.S. 677, 682, 78 S. Ct. 983 (1958). Specifically,
5 the parties have thousands of recently produced documents to sift through, several party
6 depositions left to conduct and/or complete (i.e. Thompkins, Adams etc.), several privilege issues
7 to resolve (i.e. including allegedly improper claims of privilege), and new information concerning
8 the Offer and the Settlement. To deny this Motion for a reasonable extension would deny Plaintiff
9 the opportunity to conduct meaningful and thorough discovery in this case prior to trial. It would 10 be contrary to the “efficient and fair administration of justice.” Mays v. Eighth Judicial Dist.
11 Court, 105 Nev. 60, 62, 768 P.2d 877, 878 (1989).

12 In short, pursuant to EDCR 2.35 and 7.30, Plaintiff’s Motion makes the required showing 13 of good cause or excusable neglect.

14 1. There is Good Cause to Re-Open Discovery, Extend Discovery Deadlines,
15 and Continue Trial

16 There is good cause to grant Plaintiff’s requested relief. Decisions about whether to extend 17 discovery “must be made in an atmosphere of substantial justice.” Hernandez v. Superior Court, 9
18 Cal.Rptr.3d 821, 825 (Cal. Ct. App. 2004). Courts must never favor the expeditious disposition
19 and economically effective operation of courts above due process or fairness, which includes 20 opportunity for adequate pretrial preparation by parties. Id. at 825 (issuing writ requiring an 21 extension of discovery); see also Waters v. Island Transp. Corp., 552 A.2d 205, 208 (N.J. Super.
22 Ct. App. Div. 1989). “Efficiency cannot be favored over justice.” Estate of Meeker, 16 Cal.Rptr.2d
23 825, 830 (Cal. Ct. App. 1993) (reversing denial of petition for continuance). Good cause takes into 24 account the diligence of the party seeking the extension.

25 Furthermore, a postponement of the trial setting is critical in this case. The Court may 26 grant the continuance of trial upon a showing of good cause. See EDCR 7.30 (“any party may, for 27 good cause, move the Court for an Order continuing the day set for trial of any cause.”) It is well
28 settled that “[t]he granting of a continuance is within the sound discretion of the [trial] court.”

1 Dixon v. State, 94 Nev. 662, 664, 548 P.2d 693, 694 (1978). The trial court has discretion to grant
2 a continuance upon the showing that the application for continuance is made in good faith and not
3 merely for delay. Giorgetti v. Peccole, 69 Nev. 76, 80, 241 P.2d 199, 201 (1952). Pursuant to 4 EDCR 7.30(h), “motions or stipulations to continue a civil trial that also seek extension of 5 discovery dates must comply with Rule 2.35.”

6 Due to the sheer number of unknown variables, such as unscheduled, remaining fact
7 depositions, privilege issues and new discovery concerning the Offer – as well as expert discovery,
8 which has not commenced – good cause exists for a reasonable global deadline extension. See
9 Hormel v. Helvering, 312 U.S. 552, 557 (1941) (“[o]rderly rules of procedure do not require 10 sacrifice of the rules of fundamental justice.”)

11 Furthermore, the interests of fairness and justice weigh in favor of the relief sought. As 12 explained above, Plaintiff has not been dilatory in prosecuting its case. Plaintiff has participated in 13 weeks of deposition over a period of at least three months, all taken out-of-state, in Los Angeles,
14 San Diego and New York. Adhering to the current scheduling order would rob Plaintiff of critical 15 discovery on key issues, including discovery the Court ordered be provided to Plaintiff. For the 16 reasons articulated above, there is good cause to provide a reasonable continuance of dates to 17 facilitate critical discovery.

18 2. *In the Alternative, If Required to Re-Open Discovery, These 19 Circumstances Meet the Definition of Excusable Neglect

20 In the alternative, if and to the extent applicable, Plaintiff’s request to re-open percipient
21 witness discovery is justified by excusable neglect. See e.g., EDCR 2.35. “[T]he determination [of 22 excusable neglect] is at bottom an equitable one, taking account of all relevant circumstances
23 surrounding the party’s omission.”

24 Pioneer Inv. Servs. Co. v. Brunswick Associates Ltd. P’ship, 507 U.S. 380, 395, 113 S. Ct. 1489, 25 1498, 123 L. Ed. 2d 74 (1993). Here, equity and fairness weigh in favor of reopening discovery.

26 There is no intentional effort to hinder or delay, here. This court is well aware of the long
27 procedural history in this matter. Plaintiff acted in good faith and was not dilatory in taking 28 discovery, but he could not control the timing of Defendants’ document production or production of witnesses. Plaintiff sought documents early on, knowing that he needed those documents before

1 he could set depositions. Yet, after months of wrangling, Defendants finally produced
2 approximately 35,000 documents from mid-April to mid-July. This document-dump at the end of 3 the discovery period precluded even starting depositions until too late to complete them, and 4 delayed the resolution of discovery disputes and the completion of discovery.

5 Furthermore, the Offer and response occurred at the end of discovery. Where important
6 new information recently came to light, Plaintiff's request to re-open discovery falls well within 7 the ambit of "excusable neglect." Plaintiff learned about the Offer and Settlement before the close
8 of discovery, and has had no opportunity to take discovery as to either. Discovery must be re-
9 opened to allow Plaintiff to take discovery on these critical issues.

10 In short, if and to the extent applicable, Plaintiff's request to re-open percipient witness
11 discovery is justified by "excusable neglect" and should be well-taken.

12 3. *Defendants Will Not Be Prejudiced by the Extension, but, Plaintiff Will 13 Be Irreparably Prejudiced if No Extension is Granted

14 There is no true prejudice to Defendants if these deadlines are moved. Here, the parties
15 agreed to taking discovery after the percipient witness discovery deadline. Prejudice only exists
16 where "actual legal rights are threatened or where monetary or other burdens appear to be extreme 17 or unreasonable." Alutiiq Int'l Solutions, LLC v. OIC Marianas Ins. Corp., 2012 WL 3205862, at 18 *3 (D. Nev. Aug. 2, 2012). If the Court grants this Motion, Defendants will simply have additional 19 time to prepare their case. This delay is similar to prejudice when setting aside a default judgment, 20 where "to be prejudicial...[it] must result in a greater harm than simply delaying resolution of the 21 case."²

22 If the Motion is not granted, however, manifest injustice will result. Plaintiff will be 23 irreparably prejudiced because he will not be allowed to prepare or present his full case at trial.
24 To deny Plaintiff the chance to conduct critical discovery, after Defendants delayed productions
25 and depositions for months, and important new information comes to light, would be the gravest
26 type of injustice. Here, there is no real prejudice to Defendants, and there would be significant 27 prejudice to Plaintiff if the requested relief is not granted.

28 ² TCI Group Life Ins. Plan v. Knoebber, 244 F.3d 691, 701 (9th Cir. 2001) overruled on other grounds by Egelhoff v. Egelhoff ex rel. Breiner, 532 U.S. 141, 147, 121 S.Ct. 1322, 149 L.Ed.2d 264 (2001).

Statement specifying the discovery completed: As explained above, the parties have taken the depositions of Guy Adams (needs to be completed), Edward Kane, Brett Harriss, Jim Virant, Margaret Cotter, James Cotter, Jr. (although additional questioning has been requested), Ellen Cotter, Whitney Tilson, Jonathan Glaser, Andrew Shapiro, William Gould, William Ellis, Douglas McEachern. Furthermore, the parties have exchanged written discovery. Plaintiff has sent three sets to the “Individual Director Defendants,” four sets to RDI, and two sets to Gould and Storey. Finally, the issue of the “advice of counsel” defense is one with respect to which the Court has ruled, but not as to the which defendants have complied.

A specific description of the discovery that remains to be completed: With respect to percipient witnesses, the parties still need to complete the document discovery ordered by the Court and depositions of two Defendants (Coddington and Tompkins), which have not been commenced, two other defendants (Adams and McEachern) has not been completed and the Company's Rule 30(b)(6) witness. More fundamentally, Defendants have not complied with the court's August 30, 2016 orders, meaning that they have not completed production of "Offer" related documents and have not commenced production of "advice of counsel" documents. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek additional discovery following completion of the document discovery.

The reasons why the discovery remaining was not completed within the time limits set by the discovery order: Discovery was not completed for the reasons set out above and in Plaintiff's Motion heard on August 11, 2016.

A proposed schedule for completing all remaining discovery:

Percipient Witness Discovery Cut Off: January 31, 2017

Expert Discovery Cut-Off: February 28, 2017

Dispositive Motion Cut-Off: January 31, 2017

Hearing Date: February 28, 2017

Jury Trial: Five Week Stack in May 2017

Pre-Trial Conference, Calendar Call and Pre-Trial Memorandum will all key off of the new trial date.

The current trial date: This case is set on a five week stack to begin on November 14, 2016 at 1:30 p.m.

IV. CONCLUSION

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE OF CLAIMS

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE OF CLAIMS ("Settlement Agreement") is made this ____ day of October 2016 (the "Execution Date") by and between T2 PARTNERS MANAGEMENT, LP, T2 ACCREDITED FUND, LP, T2 QUALIFIED FUND, LP, TILSON OFFSHORE FUND, LTD., T2 PARTNERS MANAGEMENT I, LLC, T2 PARTNERS MANAGEMENT GROUP, LLC, JMG CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, PACIFIC CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, WHITNEY TILSON AND JONATHAN GLASER ("T2 Plaintiffs") and MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, WILLIAM GOULD, JUDY CODDING, MICHAEL WROTONIAK, CRAIG TOMPKINS and READING INTERNATIONAL, INC. ("Reading" or the "Company") (collectively "Defendants"). T2 Plaintiffs and Defendants are collectively referred to as the "Parties" and each as a "Party."

This Settlement Agreement is subject to Court approval as set forth in the Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Action which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, on June 12, 2015, Reading's Board of Directors terminated James J. Cotter, Jr. as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Reading.

WHEREAS, that same day, Mr. Cotter, Jr. filed a lawsuit, styled as both an individual and a derivative action, and titled "James J. Cotter, Jr., individually and derivatively on behalf of Reading International, Inc. vs. Margaret Cotter, et al." against the Company, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, Guy Adams, William Gould, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, and Timothy Storey in the Eighth Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada (the "James Cotter, Jr. Action").

WHEREAS, on August 6, 2015, the Company received notice that a Motion to Intervene in the James Cotter, Jr. Action and a proposed derivative complaint had been filed by the T2 Plaintiffs in the Eighth Judicial District Court. On August 11, 2015, the Court granted the motion of the T2 Plaintiffs, allowing these plaintiffs to file their complaint (the "T2 Complaint").

WHEREAS, on September 9, 2015, certain of the Individual Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss the T2 Complaint. The Company joined this Motion to Dismiss on September 14, 2015. The hearing on this Motion to Dismiss was vacated as the T2 Plaintiffs voluntarily withdrew the T2 Complaint, with the parties agreeing that T2 Plaintiffs would have leave to amend the T2 Complaint.

WHEREAS, on February 12, 2016, the T2 Plaintiffs filed an amended complaint (the "Amended T2 Complaint"). The T2 Plaintiffs purported to bring a derivative action on behalf of Reading and its stockholders, and alleged in their Amended T2 Complaint various violations of fiduciary duty, abuse of control, gross mismanagement and corporate waste by the defendants (the "T2 Action"). More specifically the Amended T2 Complaint sought the reinstatement of James J. Cotter, Jr. as President and Chief Executive Officer and certain monetary damages, as well as equitable injunctive relief, attorney fees, and costs of suit. The defendants in the T2 Action are the same as named in the James Cotter, Jr. Action as well as Director Judy Coddington,

Director Michael Wrotniak, and Company legal counsel, Craig Tompkins (collectively and without differentiation, the “Individual Defendants” and each an “Individual Defendant”). The Amended T2 Complaint deleted its request for an order disbanding Reading’s Executive Committee and for an order “collapsing the Class A and B stock structure into a single class of voting stock.” The Amended T2 Complaint added a request for an order setting aside the election results from the 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, based on an allegation that Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter were not entitled to vote the shares of Class B Common Stock held of record by the Estate of James Cotter, Sr. and the Living Trust established by James Cotter, Sr.

WHEREAS, in connection with the litigation, James Cotter, Jr. and the T2 Plaintiffs conducted extensive discovery on these matters, which included depositions of Guy Adams, Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, William Gould, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Timothy Storey, and James Cotter, Jr. In response to discovery requests, Reading produced over 13,900 documents, and the Individual Defendants produced over 7,900 documents.

WHEREAS, in connection with efforts to settle this matter, the Parties engaged in extensive discussions.

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to settle all claims asserted in the T2 Action.

WHEREAS, all Parties recognize the time and expense that would be incurred by further litigation and the uncertainties and risks inherent in such litigation and have concluded that the interests of the Parties, including the stockholders or Reading, would be best served by a settlement of the T2 Action on the terms reflected herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual releases, covenants and undertakings hereinafter set forth, and for other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

TERMS

1. Incorporation of Recitals

The foregoing recitals are incorporated into this Settlement Agreement as if fully set forth herein.

2. Consideration

As consideration for the Settlement and dismissal with prejudice of the T2 Action, the Parties have mutually agreed upon the terms of a press release discussing the reasons for the Settlement and further agree, as set forth hereinbelow, not to disparage each other in connection with the T2 Action.

3. Reasons for Settlement

a. The T2 Plaintiffs brought derivative claims with the intention of ensuring that the interests of all Reading stockholders were being appropriately protected. In connection with the litigation, the T2 Plaintiffs conducted extensive discovery on the matters alleged in the T2 and Jim Cotter, Jr. Complaints, discovery that included depositions of Guy Adams, Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, William Gould, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Timothy Storey, and James Cotter, Jr. Following their efforts on behalf of the stockholders, the T2 Plaintiffs have concluded that continuing with their derivative stockholder litigation would provide no further benefit to Reading's stockholders, including the T2 Plaintiffs.

The T2 Plaintiffs believe that the Settlement provides substantial and immediate benefits for Reading and its current stockholders. In addition to these substantial benefits, T2 Plaintiffs and their counsel have considered: (i) the attendant risks of continued litigation and the uncertainty of the outcome of the T2 Action; (ii) the probability of success on the merits; (iii) the inherent problems of proof associated with, and possible defenses to, the claims asserted in the T2 Action; (iv) the desirability of permitting the settlement to be consummated according to its terms; (v) the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to prosecute the T2 Action against the Defendants through trial and appeals; (vi) the T2 Plaintiffs' confidence in the Reading Board of Directors and its management after conducting extensive discovery and (vii) the conclusion of the T2 Plaintiffs and their counsel that the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate, and that it is in the best interests of Reading and its current stockholders to settle the T2 Action on the terms set forth herein. Based on T2 Plaintiffs' Counsel's thorough review and analysis of the relevant facts, allegations, defenses, and controlling legal principles, T2 Plaintiffs' Counsel believes that the settlement set forth in this Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and confers substantial benefits upon Reading and its current stockholders. Based upon T2 Plaintiffs' Counsel's evaluation as well as T2 Plaintiffs' own evaluation, T2 Plaintiffs have determined that the settlement is in the best interests of Reading and its current stockholders and has agreed to settle the T2 Action upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement and summarized herein. T2 Plaintiffs believe that Defendants will continue to act in good faith to use best practices with regard to board governance, protection of stockholder rights, and maximizing value for all its stockholders, which actions shall include (i) providing to the Compensation Committee's independent compensation consultant the names of certain companies previously suggested by the T2 Plaintiffs as possible market comparables for consideration in 2017 and (ii) the Company anticipates continuing to hold regular corporate earnings conference calls and to continue to engage with investors around earnings. Further Management has informed T2 that incident to the financing of pre-development activities at the site, it anticipates refinancing the existing loan between Reading and Sutton Hill Properties, LLC.

b. The Defendants deny any and all allegations of wrongdoing, liability, violations of law or damages arising out of or related to any of the conduct, statements, acts, or omissions alleged in the T2 Action, and maintain that their conduct was at all times proper, in the best interests of Reading and its stockholders, and in compliance with applicable law. The Defendants further deny any breach of fiduciary duties or aiding and abetting any breach of such a fiduciary duty. The Defendants also deny that Reading or its stockholders were harmed by any conduct of the Defendants alleged in the T2 Action or that could have been alleged therein. Each of the Defendants asserts that, at all relevant times, they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in the best interests of Reading and all of its stockholders.

c. Defendants, however, recognize the uncertainty and the risk inherent in any litigation, and the difficulties and substantial burdens, expense, and length of time that may be necessary to defend this proceeding through the conclusion of trial, post-trial motions, and appeals. In particular, Defendants are cognizant of the burdens this litigation is imposing on Reading and its management, and the impact that continued litigation will have on management's ability to continue focusing on the creation of stockholder value. Defendants wish to eliminate the uncertainty, risk, burden and expense of further litigation, and to permit the operation of Reading without further distraction and diversion of its directors and executive personnel with respect to the T2 Action. Defendants have therefore determined to settle the T2 Action on the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement solely to put the Released Claims (as defined herein) to rest finally and forever, without in any way acknowledging any wrongdoing, fault, liability, or damages.

4. Release

Subject to Court approval, a judgment will be entered (the "Judgment"). Upon entry of the Judgment, the T2 Action will be dismissed in its entirety and with prejudice and the following releases will occur:

a. Release of Claims by Reading, T2 Plaintiffs and Individual Defendants: The T2 Plaintiffs, who have purported to bring derivative claims on behalf of Reading and all its stockholders, shall fully, finally, and forever release, settle, and discharge, and shall forever be enjoined from prosecuting, the Released T2 Plaintiffs' Claims.

i. "Released T2 Plaintiffs' Claims" means all any and all claims, that have been asserted in the T2 Action by T2 Plaintiffs derivatively on behalf of Reading against any of the Individual Defendants. The Parties acknowledge that this Release does not serve to require dismissal of the claims raised by James Cotter Jr. in his Second Amended Complaint.

The Parties acknowledge that this Release does not prevent Reading or the Individual Defendants from raising any counterclaims or defenses in the James Cotter Jr. Action.

b. Release of Claims by Defendants: Reading on behalf of itself and the Individual Defendants on behalf of themselves and any other person or entity who could assert any of the Released Defendants' Claims on their behalf, in such capacity only, shall fully, finally, and forever release, settle, and discharge, and shall forever be enjoined from prosecuting, the Released Defendants' Claims against T2 Plaintiffs' Releasees.

i. "Released Defendants' Claims" means any and all manner of claims, demands, rights, liabilities, losses, obligations, duties, damages, costs, debts, expenses, interest, penalties, sanctions, fees, attorneys' fees, actions, potential actions, causes of action, suits, agreements, judgments, decrees, matters, issues, and controversies of any kind, nature, or description whatsoever, whether known or unknown, disclosed or undisclosed, accrued or unaccrued, apparent or not apparent, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or not matured, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or not liquidated, fixed or contingent, including Unknown Claims, whether based on state, local, foreign, federal, statutory, regulatory, common, or other law or rule (including claims within the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal courts), that arise out of or relate in any way to the institution, prosecution, or settlement of the claims against Defendants in the T2 Action, except for claims relating to the enforcement of the Settlement. For the avoidance of doubt, the Released Defendants' Claims do not include claims based on the conduct of the T2 Plaintiffs' Releasees after the Effective Date.

ii. "T2 Plaintiffs' Releasees" means T2 Plaintiffs and their respective current or former agents, employees, fiduciaries, partners, partnerships, general or limited partners or partnerships, joint ventures, member firms, limited liability companies, corporations, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, associated entities, stockholders, principals, officers, directors, managing directors, members, managing members, managing agents, predecessors, predecessors-in-interest, successors, successors-in-interest, assigns, financial or investment advisors, advisors, consultants, investment bankers, entities providing any fairness opinion, underwriters, brokers, dealers, financing sources, lenders, commercial bankers, attorneys, personal or legal representatives, accountants, and associates. T2 Plaintiffs' Releasees do not include, and specifically exclude James Cotter, Jr.

c. Nothing contained in this Settlement Agreement is intended to, or does release any claims that Defendants may have against any of their insurers or that any insurers may have against any Defendant.

5. Submission of Documents to Court

As soon as practicable after this Settlement Agreement has been executed, the Parties shall apply jointly to the Court for entry of an Order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Preliminary Approval Order"): i) providing among other things, a request for preliminary approval of the Settlement as fair, reasonable, adequate and in the best interest of stockholders; ii) seeking approval of the Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Action; and iii) requesting a Settlement Hearing.

If the Court approves this Settlement, the Parties shall jointly request entry of the proposed Order and Final Judgment substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C. The Order and Final Judgment shall, among other things: i) determine the requirements of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure and due process have been satisfied in connection with the Notice detailed below; ii) approve the Settlement as fair, reasonable, adequate and in the best interest of stockholders; and iii) dismiss the T2 Action with prejudice on the merits as against any and all Defendants.

6. Notice Of Pendency and Settlement of Action

The Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Action, in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A, shall be mailed by Reading at least 45 calendar days prior to the Settlement Hearing to all stockholders of Reading as listed on the stock registry, to their respective last known address. Furthermore, Reading shall use reasonable efforts to give notice to beneficial owners of Reading common stock by providing, at the expense of Reading additional copies of the Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Action to any record holder requesting the Notice who are entitled to notice.

7. Non Disparagement

The purpose of this Agreement is to resolve the T2 Action for the benefit of the Parties and Reading stockholders. Accordingly the T2 Plaintiffs covenant and agree that they will not engage in any conduct, make or disclose any statement, either orally or in writing, that would cast any Defendant or their affiliates in a false or negative light, and agree not to aid, assist or encourage others to do so, in any fashion or forum. Similarly, Defendants covenant and agree that they will not engage in any conduct, make or disclose any statement, either orally or in writing that would cast the T2 Plaintiffs or their affiliates in a false or negative light, and agree not to aid, assist or encourage others to do so, in any fashion or forum. If any third party makes any inquiry with respect to any of the claims or causes of action alleged against any Party, then the Party to whom such inquiry is made shall only respond that such matters were resolved in a satisfactory manner pursuant to a confidential settlement agreement. Notwithstanding the above, T2 Plaintiffs acknowledge that no Defendant will have responsibility for the actions of any other Defendant or for the actions of James J. Cotter, Jr.

Notwithstanding the above, T2 Plaintiffs acknowledge that this Agreement does not prohibit the Individual Defendants from any disclosures required in their capacity as fiduciaries of Reading. Further, nothing herein shall prevent any Party from testifying truthfully in a court of law and/or complying with a court order.

8. Joint Press Release

The Parties to this Settlement Agreement mutually agree to issue a press release in a form satisfactory to all Parties hereto indicating that the Parties have amicably resolved their disputes to the mutual satisfaction of all Parties. The press release shall not identify any substantive terms or conditions of this Agreement and shall be in a form substantial similar to Exhibit D.

9. General Provisions

This Settlement Agreement and compliance with this Settlement Agreement shall not be construed as an admission by any Party of any liability whatsoever, or as admission by any Party of any violation of the rights of the others, violation of any order, law, statute, duty or contract whatsoever.

The Parties hereto represent and acknowledge that in executing this Settlement Agreement they do not rely and have not relied upon any representation or statement made by any of the Parties or by any of the Parties' agents, attorneys or representatives with regard to the subject matter or effect of this Settlement Agreement or otherwise, other than those specifically stated in this written Settlement Agreement. This Settlement Agreement expresses the entire agreement of the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. No recitals, covenants, agreements, representations, or warranties of any kind whatsoever have been made or have been relied upon by any Party hereto, except as specifically set forth in this Agreement. All prior discussions and negotiations between the Parties have been or are merged and integrated into, and are superseded by, this Agreement.

10. Mutual Cooperation

The Parties hereby agree to use their best efforts and good faith in carrying out all of the terms of this Settlement Agreement. Each Party hereto shall perform such further acts and execute and deliver such further documents as may be reasonably necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this Settlement Agreement.

11. Interpretation of Agreement

None of the Parties shall be deemed to be the drafter of this Settlement Agreement. In the event a court construes this Settlement Agreement, such court shall not construe this Settlement Agreement or any provision hereof against either Party as the drafter of the Settlement Agreement. The headings used in this Agreement are for reference only and shall not affect the construction of the Agreement.

12. Choice of Law

This Settlement Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Nevada, without regard to conflict of law principles. The Parties agree that the Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any action to enforce this Settlement Agreement.

13. Counterparts

This Settlement Agreement may be executed in any number of separate counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument and fax copies shall be deemed originals.

14. Attorneys' Fees

Each Party shall bear its own costs and attorney fees incurred in connection with this Settlement Agreement. However, if any Party to this Settlement Agreement brings suit against the another Party, the purpose of which is to enforce, challenge, or clarify the terms of this Settlement Agreement, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to reimbursement for its actual attorney fees and costs in so enforcing, challenging or clarifying this Settlement Agreement.

15. Notice in Connect with Settlement Agreement

All notices or demands of any kind that any Party is required to or desires to give in connection with this Settlement Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered by e-mail and by depositing the notice or demand in the United States mail, postage prepaid, and addressed to the Parties as follows:

1 Reading, T2 Plaintiffs, and each and every other Reading stockholder, excluding James Cotter,
2 Jr., on behalf of themselves and any other person or entity who could assert any of the Released
3 T2 Plaintiffs' Claims on their behalf, in such capacity only, shall fully, finally, and forever
4 release, settle, and discharge, and shall forever be enjoined from prosecuting, the Released T2
5 Plaintiffs' Claims against Defendants and any other Defendants' Releasees.

6 "Released T2 Plaintiffs' Claims" means all any and all manner of claims, demands,
7 rights, liabilities, losses, obligations, duties, damages, costs, debts, expenses, interest, penalties,
8 sanctions, fees, attorneys' fees, actions, potential actions, causes of action, suits, agreements,
9 judgments, decrees, matters, issues and controversies of any kind, nature, or description
10 whatsoever, whether known or unknown, disclosed or undisclosed, accrued or unaccrued,
11 apparent or not apparent, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or not matured, suspected or
12 unsuspected, liquidated or not liquidated, fixed or contingent, including Unknown Claims,
13 whether based on state, local, foreign, federal, statutory, regulatory, common, or other law or 14 rule (including claims within the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal courts, such as, but not 15 limited to, federal securities claims or other claims based upon the purchase or sale of shares),
16 that are, have been, could have been, could now be, or in the future could, can, or might be 17 asserted, in the T2 Action or in any other court, tribunal, or proceeding by T2 Plaintiffs or any 18 other Reading stockholder, excluding James Cotter, Jr., derivatively on behalf of Reading, or by 19 Reading directly against any of the Defendants' Releasees, which, now or hereafter, are based 20 upon, arise out of, relate in any way to, or involve, directly or indirectly, any of the actions,
21 transactions, occurrences, statements, representations, misrepresentations, omissions, allegations,
22 facts, practices, events, claims or any other matters, things or causes whatsoever, or any series
23 thereof, that relate in any way to, or could arise in connection with, the alleged breaches of 24 fiduciary duty, abuse of control, gross mismanagement, and corporate waste, including but not 25 limited to those alleged, asserted, set forth, claimed, embraced, involved, or referred to in, or 26 related to the Amended T2 Complaint or the T2 Action, except for claims relating to the 27 enforcement of the Settlement and for any claims that Defendants may have against any of their

1 insurers, co-insurers or reinsurers that are not otherwise released pursuant to other
2 documentation. For the avoidance of doubt, the Released T2 Plaintiffs' Claims include all of the 3 claims asserted in the T2 Action, but do not include claims based on conduct of Defendants'
4 Releasees after the Effective Date.

5 "Defendants' Releasees" means Reading, Defendants, and any other current or former
6 officer, director or employee of Reading, excluding James Cotter, Jr., and their respective past,
7 present, or future family members, spouses, heirs, trusts, trustees, executors, estates,
8 administrators, beneficiaries, distributees, foundations, agents, employees, fiduciaries, partners,
9 partnerships, general or limited partners or partnerships, joint ventures, member firms, limited
10 liability companies, corporations, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, associated entities,
11 stockholders, principals, officers, directors, managing directors, members, managing members,
12 managing agents, predecessors, predecessors-in-interest, successors, successors-in-interest,
13 assigns, financial or investment advisors, advisors, consultants, investment bankers, entities
14 providing any fairness opinion, underwriters, brokers, dealers, financing sources lenders, 15 commercial bankers, attorneys, personal or legal representatives, accountants, associates and 16 insurers, co-insurers and reinsurers, except with respect to claims by any Individual Defendant or 17 Nominal Defendant against such insurer, co-insurer, or re-insurer that have not otherwise been 18 released pursuant to other documentation.

19 Release of Claims by Defendants: Defendants and the other Defendants' Releasees, on 20 behalf of themselves and any other person or entity who could assert any of the Released
21 Defendants' Claims on their behalf, in such capacity only, shall fully, finally, and forever
22 release, settle, and discharge, and shall forever be enjoined from prosecuting, the Released
23 Defendants' Claims against T2 Plaintiffs' Releasees.

24 "Released Defendants' Claims" means any and all manner of claims, demands, rights,
25 liabilities, losses, obligations, duties, damages, costs, debts, expenses, interest, penalties,
26 sanctions, fees, attorneys' fees, actions, potential actions, causes of action, suits, agreements,
27 judgments, decrees, matters, issues, and controversies of any kind, nature, or description

1 whatsoever, whether known or unknown, disclosed or undisclosed, accrued or unaccrued,
2 apparent or not apparent, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or not matured, suspected or
3 unsuspected, liquidated or not liquidated, fixed or contingent, including Unknown Claims,
4 whether based on state, local, foreign, federal, statutory, regulatory, common, or other law or
5 rule (including claims within the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal courts), that arise out of or
6 relate in any way to the institution, prosecution, or settlement of the claims against Defendants in
7 the T2 Action, except for claims relating to the enforcement of the Settlement. For the avoidance
8 of doubt, the Released Defendants' Claims do not include claims based on the conduct of the T2
9 Plaintiffs' Releasees after the Effective Date and do not include any claims that Defendants may 10 have against any of their insurers, co-insurers or reinsurers that are not otherwise released 11 pursuant to other documentation.

12 "T2 Plaintiffs' Releasees" means T2 Plaintiffs, all other Reading stockholders, excluding 13 James Cotter, Jr., and any current or former officer or director of any Reading stockholder, and 14 their respective past, present, or future family members, spouses, heirs, trusts, trustees, executors,
15 estates, administrators, beneficiaries, distributees, foundations, agents, employees, fiduciaries,
16 partners, partnerships, general or limited partners or partnerships, joint ventures, member firms,
17 limited liability companies, corporations, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, associated 18 entities, stockholders, principals, officers, directors, managing directors, members, managing 19 members, managing agents, predecessors, predecessors-in-interest, successors, successors-in-
20 interest, assigns, financial or investment advisors, advisors, consultants, investment bankers,
21 entities providing any fairness opinion, underwriters, brokers, dealers, financing sources, lenders,
22 commercial bankers, attorneys, personal or legal representatives, accountants, and associates.

23 "Unknown Claims" means any Released T2 Plaintiffs' Claims that Reading, T2
24 Plaintiffs, or any other Reading stockholder, excluding James Cotter, Jr., does not know or 25 suspect to exist in his, her, or its favor at the time of the release of the Defendants' Releasees,
26 and any Released Defendants' Claims that any of the Defendants or any of the other Defendants'
27 Releasees does not know or suspect to exist in his, her, or its favor at the time of the release of

1 the T2 Plaintiffs' Releasees, which, if known by him, her or it, might have affected his, her, or its
2 decision(s) with respect to the Settlement. With respect to any and all Released T2 Plaintiffs'
3 Claims and Released Defendants' Claims, the Parties stipulate and agree that Reading, T2
4 Plaintiffs and each of the Defendants shall expressly waive, and each of the other Reading
5 stockholders, excluding James Cotter, Jr., and each of the other Defendants' Releasees shall be 6 deemed to have waived, and by operation of the Judgment shall have expressly waived, any and 7 all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by California Civil Code §1542, which provides:

8 A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE 9 CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR
10 AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR 11 HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH 12 THE DEBTOR.

13 and any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law or foreign
14 law, which is similar, comparable, or equivalent to California Civil Code §1542. Reading, T2
15 Plaintiffs and each of the Defendants acknowledge, and each of the other Reading stockholders, 16 excluding James Cotter, Jr., and each of the other Defendants' Releasees shall be deemed by 17 operation of law to have acknowledged, that the foregoing waiver was separately bargained for 18 and is a key element of the Settlement.

19 22. If the Settlement is approved, since Reading will have released the Released T2
20 Plaintiffs' Claims described above against any of the other Defendants' Releasees, no Reading
21 stockholder, excluding James Cotter, Jr., will be able to bring another action asserting those 22 claims against those persons on behalf of Reading excluding any claims any Individual
23 Defendant or Nominal Defendant has against insurers, re-insurers or co-insurers that are not
24 released pursuant to other documentation.

25 23. Pending final determination by the Court of whether the Settlement should be 26 approved, T2 Plaintiffs, all Reading stockholders, excluding James Cotter, Jr., Defendants, and 27

1 Reading are enjoined from filing, commencing, or prosecuting any Released Claims against the
2 Releasees in the T2 Action or in any other lawsuit in any jurisdiction excluding any claims any
3 Individual Defendant or Nominal Defendant has against insurers, re-insurers or co-insurers that 4 are not released pursuant to other documentation.

through 100, inclusive,

Case No. A-15-719860-B
Dept. No. XI

Coordinated with:

Case No. P-14-0852942-E
Dept. XI

Case No. A-16-735305-B
Dept. XI

OBJECTION OF DIAMOND A
PARTNERS, L.P. AND DIAMOND A
INVESTORS, L.P. TO SETTLEMENT

Date of Hearing: October 6, 2016

Time of Hearing: 8:30 a.m.

Pursuant to the Court's Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Action dated August 4, 2016 ("Notice"), Diamond A Partners, L.P. and Diamond A Investors, L.P. (together, "Diamond

1 A'') respectfully object to the proposed Settlement as set forth below.

3 I. INTRODUCTION

4 The Settlement Agreement the Defendants and the T2 Plaintiffs are asking the Court to 5 approve provides shareholders with essentially nothing. On the other hand, the Settlement
6 Agreement gives the Defendants, as well as other officers, directors, and employees of Reading,
7 a complete release from not only the claims asserted in this case, but a general release of any and
8 all claims that any shareholder could bring on behalf of Reading and also any claims Reading
9 could assert for any and all past conduct. In other words, any harm that Defendants, or others
10 who are not even parties to this litigation, may have caused Reading - whether anyone is aware 11 of it presently or not - would be forever precluded from being remedied by Reading and its 12 shareholders. While the T2 Plaintiffs are certainly free to abandon their claims in this case and 13 release any claims they may have, the benefits of the proposed Settlement Agreement flow in 14 only one direction and this Court should not approve the Settlement in its current form.

15 II. DISCUSSION

16 A. Diamond A are current shareholders, have been for years, and are familiar 17 with the underlying litigation.

18 Diamond A collectively own at present approximately 7% of the Class A shares of 19 Reading International, Inc. ("Reading") and they also presently own shares of Reading's Class B
20 stock. Affidavit of Andrew E. Shapiro, ¶3.¹ They have been shareholders since before this 21 litigation was filed and since before the events at issue in the lawsuit occurred. Id., ¶4. Through 22 their general partner, Diamond A have closely followed this litigation and contemplated joining 23 the intervening T2 Plaintiffs when the original complaint in intervention was filed. Id., ¶5.

24 B. Diamond A intends to appear at the Settlement Hearing.

25 This document constitutes Diamond A's notice of intention to appear, objection to the 26 Settlement, and statement of grounds thereon as required by the Notice. Notice, ¶26 (b), (c), and

28 ¹ Mr. Shapiro's affidavit was filed with the Court previously in connection with Diamond
A's opposition to the Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Settlement. Diamond A remain shareholders of both Class A and B shares.

20 C. Simply dismissing the T2 Plaintiffs' Complaint is better for shareholders and 21 Reading than the proposed Settlement Agreement.

22 1. The Settlement Agreement provides no tangible benefit to
23 shareholders.

24 The proposed settlement must be found by the Court to be "fair and reasonable" to be 25 approved. Polk v. Good, 507 A.2d 531, 536 (Del. Supreme Court 1986). One of the 26 considerations in making that determination is the sufficiency of the consideration from the 27 defendants. Id. The Court's role is, of course, a critical one in protecting the interests of the 28 absent shareholders. See e.g., Norman v. McKee, 431 F.2d 769, 774 (9th Cir. 1970) (" . . . a settlement negotiated between the named parties may not give due regard to the interests of [absent shareholders]"; and in denying the proposed derivative settlement the Court "properly understood that his responsibility was to act as guardian of the absent parties . . .").

While the language of the Settlement Agreement speaks in vague terms of shareholder benefit and corporate governance, there is no actual agreement to do anything that confers any benefit on the shareholders of Reading. See Shapiro Affidavit, ¶9. The consideration for the Settlement Agreement consists of the parties agreeing to a joint press release, agreeing not to disparage each other, and providing mutual general releases. Settlement Agreement, ¶¶2 and 4.
The T2 Plaintiffs also state that they "believe" certain steps may be taken by Reading:

. . . T2 Plaintiffs believe that Defendants will continue to act in good faith to use best practices with regard to board governance, protection of shareholder rights,

1 and maximizing value for all its stockholders, which actions shall include (i)
2 providing the Compensation Committee's independent compensation consultant
3 the names of certain companies previously suggested by the T2 Plaintiffs as 4 possible market comparables for consideration in 2017 and (ii) the Company anticipates continuing to hold regular corporate earnings conference calls and to continue to engage with investors around earnings. . . . (Settlement Agreement, ¶3.a.).

5 This is not an agreement on Reading's part, but simply the T2 Plaintiffs' "belief" as to 6 what Reading may do. Even if Reading agreed to this language, it is not binding by its own
7 terms. Even if it were binding, these "concessions" have at best minimal value to shareholders.
8 For example, the T2 Plaintiffs believe that Reading will provide its compensation consultant the 9 names of "certain" companies that the consultant might use as "possible" comparable companies
10 in creating a compensation report (presumably like a real estate agent uses "comparable" home 11 sales to estimate the value of real estate). Settlement Agreement, ¶3.a. But isn't finding 12 comparable companies exactly what compensation consultants are supposed to do anyway? Not 13 only is the consultant just doing what it was hired to do, but there is no requirement that the 14 consultant even use the companies that it is provided with. Id.

15 Likewise, Reading's "anticipation" that it will hold "conference calls" and "continue to 16 engage with investors around earnings" is again not an agreement to actually do anything in 17 particular. Settlement Agreement, ¶3.a. As a vague pronouncement it is also of marginal value
18 to investors since Reading is already required by federal law to publicly disclose information
19 about its earnings on a quarterly basis. In fact, Reading's "anticipation" that it will "continue to 20 engage with investors around earning" is so vague as to be meaningless. Defendants are 21 agreeing to nothing concrete or that provides any value to shareholders.

22 2. The General Release of all possible claims against Defendants and others is quite valuable and overbroad.

23 The general release provided to the Defendants, on the other hand, is quite valuable to 24 them and potentially quite damaging to shareholders and Reading. The release provided to 25 Defendants is a general release of all claims of any kind whatsoever that any shareholder could 26 bring against Defendants on behalf of Reading, whether related to the present lawsuit or not and 27 whether anyone is aware of the possible claim or not. Settlement Agreement, ¶4.a. Not only are 28 Defendants provided a general release from all claims by shareholders, but so are all current and

1 former Reading officers, directors, employees, bankers, lenders, attorneys - and the list goes on.
2 Id., ¶4.a.ii (definition of "Defendants' Releasees"). In other words, it could be discovered a
3 week after the Settlement Agreement is approved that former Directors looted the Company last
4 year, but any claim against them would have been released by the Settlement Agreement. As 5 such, the release in the Settlement Agreement is essentially a judicial ratification of all actions
6 taken by Reading's officers, directors, and employees in the past since all causes of action
7 related to those actions are being released. There is no conceivable reason why Reading or its 8 public shareholders should grant a general release of all claims to Defendants, never mind to this
9 list of third-persons and entities set forth in the release.

10 Further, the release also precludes Reading itself from bringing any claim whatsoever
11 against any of the Individual Defendants for anything they may have done prior to the Settlement
12 Agreement. Settlement Agreement, ¶4.a.i. While a release by Reading itself of any possible
13 cause of action is certainly in the self-serving interest of the Individual Defendants, it confers no
14 benefit on Reading or the shareholders.² To the contrary, it is damaging to Reading and the 15 shareholders by stripping them of their potentially valuable rights.

16 The possible harm from the Settlement Agreement's sweeping release is not merely 17 theoretical. For example, there are unasserted possible claims related to the "golden coffin"
18 arrangement the Board approved for James J. Cotter, Sr., the Company's former CEO, which 19 provides for millions of dollars of excess payments to his estate for the next 15 years to the 20 material detriment of Reading.³ Shapiro Affidavit, ¶7. This is a possible claim that shareholders
21 (or Reading) may elect to bring but which would be barred by the contemplated release.
22 Likewise, in June and before the Settlement Agreement was signed, Reading's Board secretly
23 refused an all-cash offer to acquire the Company from a third party. This action is now part of

26 ² It is difficult to understand how any individual who owes a fiduciary duty to Reading and its shareholders could have agreed to such a sweeping release.

27 ³ What is specifically potentially objectionable is the Board's decision to increase James Cotter
28 Sr.'s salary during the last three years of his life, knowing that the excessive compensation was the driver of the formula to determine the amount to be paid out under the golden coffin for the next 15 years.

1 Mr. Cotter's lawsuit. See Second Amended Verified Complaint, ¶16. It is entirely possible that 2 the same claims of entrenchment raised in the current litigation improperly influenced the 3 Board's decision not to pursue a transaction that would have provided shareholders with a
4 material premium, in cash, to the current market price of Reading's shares. Why should any 5 other shareholder be precluded from intervening in this claim or asserting their own claim based 6 on this possible misconduct?⁴ These are potential claims that are now known, but which the 7 proposed Settlement Agreement would preclude from being brought.

8 The T2 Plaintiffs conducted no discovery to ascertain what other claims may exist and if 9 bringing those claims was in the interest of Reading and its shareholders. There is no basis to 10 conclude that the sweeping general release is warranted, appropriate, or in the interests of 11 Reading's public shareholders. If the Court is inclined to approve any release as part of the 12 Settlement, it should in all fairness be limited only to claims held by the T2 Plaintiffs.

13 III. CONCLUSION

14 The proposed Settlement Agreement is not "fair, reasonable, and adequate" and it does
15 not confer "substantial benefits upon Reading and its current stockholders." It is a one-sided
16 agreement that leaves shareholders worse off than before, and it should not be approved. For 17 these and the reasons set forth above, the Court should not approve the Settlement Agreement.
18 To the extent the Court believes that any release is appropriate, in fairness to the public

24

1 shareholders and in light of the absence of value to the them in the Settlement Agreement, any
2 such release should be limited to claims that are held only by the T2 Plaintiffs.

13 I. INTRODUCTION

14 By the their “Joint Motion” and the “Notice of Pendency and Settlement of Action” (the 15 “Notice”) (collectively, the “Motion”), the so-called “T2 Plaintiffs,” nominal defendant Reading 16 International, Inc. (“RDI” or the “Company”) and the individual defendants (collectively, the 17 “Settling Parties”) request that the Court determine that the “proposed Settlement, on the terms
18 and conditions provided for the Settlement Agreement, is fair, reasonable and adequate and in the 19 best interests of Reading and its current stockholders” and that the Court “finally approve the Joint 20 Motion and the Judgment as provided in the Joint Motion, dismissing the T2 Action with 21 prejudice and extinguishing the Released Claims.” (Notice at 3: 21-27.)

22 Thus, the Settling Parties ask the Court to enter an order and judgment that, together with 23 Court approval of the Settlement Agreement and its release terms, would release and extinguish all
24 claims—of RDI and of RDI shareholders both derivatively and individually—against each and all 25 of the individual defendants and a host of others.

26 The Settling Parties bear the burden of proving that the Settlement is fair, reasonable,
27 adequate and in the best interests of RDI and its shareholders. The role of the Court in ruling on 28 such a motion is to ensure that the interests of absent shareholders whose rights may be affected

1 by any order or judgment entered by the Court are fairly represented. The Court cannot grant the 2 Motion unless it has evidence sufficient to responsibly conclude that the consideration proposed
3 to be paid in exchange for the claims settled and releases provided is fair and adequate.

4 The Settling Parties cannot bear their burden and the Court should not grant the Motion for 5 reasons described herein, including the following:

- 6 • The Settlement provides effectively no consideration to RDI and its shareholders.
7 A derivative action cannot be settled without some benefit flowing to the 8 corporation.
- 9 • The releases provided by the Settlement Agreement are broad releases of 10 substantial value to the individual defendants, each of whom has contributed 11 absolutely nothing to the Settlement. The Settling Parties cannot prove that those 12 releases, which would amount judicially created immunity for all prior actionable
13 conduct, are fair and reasonable, much less in the best interests of RDI and its 14 shareholders.
- 15 • The “consideration” to be provided to RDI and its shareholders--a press release 16 already issued and a non-disparagement agreement--is manifestly unfair and 17 inadequate in view of the claims proposed to be settled and released.
- 18 • Recent, sworn testimony of the T2 Plaintiffs themselves confirms the inadequacy 19 of the “consideration” to be provided to RDI and its shareholders.
- 20 • The scope of releases exceed the scope of matters that could be litigated in this 21 action and the authority of the Court to approve and, in effect, award them.
- 22 • The Notice is deficient and misleading. It suggests that derivative claims will 23 survive to be prosecuted by Plaintiff, but on the Motion seeks an order and 24 judgment that apparently would extinguish all such claims.

25 For each of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff and objector James J Cotter, Jr. (“Plaintiff”)
26 respectfully submits that the Motion must be denied.

1 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY.

2 A. Plaintiff and Objector

16		stock during the pendency of this action. RDI joins.

27	June 21, 2016	The Court denies motions by the Interested Director

RDI publicly discloses the Offer and the rejection of it.

3 C. The Settlement Agreement

4 According to the Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims (the "Settlement
5 Agreement"), the supposed consideration provided was a contemporaneously issued press release
6 and a non-disparagement agreement:

8 As consideration for the Settlement and dismissal with prejudice of the T2 Action, 9 the Parties have mutually agreed upon the terms of a press release discussing the 10 reasons for the Settlement and further agree, as set forth herein below, not to 11 disparage each other in connection with the T2 Action.

(Settlement Agreement, ¶2.)

12 The press release, issued by RDI on July 13, 2016 and attached as an exhibit to a Form 8-K
13 filed by RDI with the SEC, purported to quote Messrs. Tilson and Glaser, including as follows:

14 Messrs. Glaser and Tilson stated, "We are pleased with the conclusions reached 15 by our investigations as Plaintiff Stockholders and now firmly believe that the 16 Reading Board of Directors has and will continue to protect stockholder interests
17 and will continue to work to maximize shareholder value over the long term. We 18 appreciate the Company's willingness to engage in open dialogue and are excited
19 about the Company's prospects. Our questions about the termination of James
20 Cotter, Jr., and various transactions between Reading and members of the Cotter
21 family-or entities they control-have been definitively addressed and put to rest.
22 We are impressed by measures the Reading Board has made over the past year to 23 further strengthen corporate governance. We fully support the Reading Board and 24 management team and their strategy to create stockholder value."

25 (See Ex. "B" hereto, excerpts of RDI's July 13, 2016 Form 8-K, including the press release which 26 is an exhibit hereto.)

27 The Settlement provides as follows regarding releases to be provided by RDI and by RDI
28 shareholders to the defendants:

Subject to Court approval, a judgment will be entered (the "Judgment").
Upon entry of the Judgment, the T2 Action will be dismissed in its entirety and with prejudice and the following releases will occur:

- a. Release of Claims by Reading, T2 Plaintiffs, and Other Reading
Stockholders: Reading, and the T2 Plaintiffs, who have purported to bring

1 derivative claims on behalf of Reading and all its stockholders, shall fully, finally,
2 and forever release, settle, and discharge, and shall forever be enjoined from 3 prosecuting, the Released T2 Plaintiffs' Claims against Defendants and any other 4 Defendants' Releasees.

5 i. "Released T2 Plaintiffs' Claims" means all any and all manner of 6 claims...actions, potential actions, causes of action, suits, agreements, judgments,
7 decrees, matters, issues and controversies of any kind, nature, or description
8 whatsoever, whether known or unknown...including Unknown Claims (as 9 defined below), whether based on state, local, foreign, federal, statutory,
10 regulatory, common, or other law or rule (including claims within the exclusive
11 jurisdiction of the federal courts, such as, but not limited to, federal securities 12 claims or other claims based upon the purchase or sale of shares), that are, have 13 been, could have been, could now be, or in the future could, can, or might be 14 asserted, in the T2 Action or in any other court, tribunal, or proceeding by: T2
15 Plaintiffs derivatively on behalf of Reading, or on their own behalf; by Reading's
16 stockholders on behalf of Reading; or by Reading directly against any of the 17 Individual Defendants' Releasees, which claims, now or hereafter, are based 18 upon, arise out of, relate in any way to, or involve, directly or indirectly, any of 19 the actions...events, claims or any other matters, things or causes whatsoever, or 20 any series thereof, that relate in any way to, or could arise in connection with, the 21 alleged breaches of fiduciary duty, abuse of control, mismanagement, negligence,
22 aiding and abetting, the making or not making of required securities law
23 disclosures, and/or corporate waste, including but not limited to those alleged,
24 asserted, set forth, claimed, embraced, involved, or referred to in, or related to the 25 Amended T2 Complaint or the T2 Action, except for claims relating to the 26 enforcement of the Settlement.... The Parties acknowledge that this Release does 27 not serve to require dismissal of the claims raised by James Cotter Jr. in his First 28 Amended Complaint.

ii. "Defendants' Releasees" means Reading, each of the Individual Defendants, any other current or former officer, director or employee of Reading or any of Reading's affiliates... The Parties acknowledge that this Release does not prevent Reading or the Individual Defendants from raising any counterclaims or defenses in the James Cotter Jr. Action.

(Settlement Agreement, ¶4.)

Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement provides in part as follows:

If the Court approves this Settlement, the Partners shall jointly request entry of the proposed Order and final Judgment...[which] shall dismiss the T2 Action with prejudice an against any and all Defendants.

(Settlement Agreement, ¶5.)

D. The Order and Final Judgment Sought by the Motion.

The “Order and Final Judgment” (submitted as Exhibit C to the Joint Motion), which is what the Settling Parties ask the Court to enter after approving the Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate and in the best interests of RDI and its shareholders, reads in relevant part as follows:

All claims contained in the First Amended Complaint filed by the [T2 Plaintiffs] are dismissed in their entirety with prejudice.
(Order and Final Judgment at 2:19-23).

Thus, Settling Parties seek a “final judgment” dismissing with prejudice all claims brought by the T2 Plaintiffs derivatively on behalf of RDI, which presumably is intended to include some claims that have been brought by Plaintiff, as well.

E. Supposed Settlement Negotiations

Paragraph 13 of the Notice states as follows:

“In connection with efforts to settle this matter, the Parties engaged in extensive discussions.”
(Notice, ¶13.)

However, neither in the Notice nor elsewhere have the Settling Parties provided the Court or RDI shareholders with any information whatsoever regarding the supposed settlement negotiations. The only information Plaintiff and Objector otherwise possesses is that Mr. Tilson approached EC at the lunch break of her deposition in New York City on June 16, 2016 and had settlement discussions. Neither the T2 Plaintiffs nor defendants ever apprised counsel for Plaintiff of any settlement discussions, much less sought to include Plaintiff a participant.

F. The T2 Plaintiffs’ Sworn Testimony Contradicts The Notice and The Press Release

The deposition of T2 Plaintiff and decision maker Whitney Tilson was taken in this case by defendants on May 25, 2016. Among other things, Mr. Tilson testified that:

- 1 • He believes that EC and MC orchestrated a “coup” to remove Plaintiff as President
2 and CEO of RDI. (Id. at 106:18-109:23; Exhibit “C” hereto.)(Emphasis supplied.)
- 3 • He believes that the timing of SEC filings last year related to sisters’ machinations
4 regarding ownership of voting stock. (Tilson May 25, 2016 Deposition transcript at 5 133:9-25.0)
- 6 • If the T2 Plaintiffs’ preliminary injunction motion [the next day] were successful,
7 he would replace a majority of RDI’s Board of Directors, naming EC, MC, Kane
8 and Adams as the “first four” to be removed. (Id. at 160:6-14.)(Emphasis supplied.)
- 9 • If the T2 Plaintiffs were successful on their preliminary injunction motion, they 10 would have replaced EC as CEO.” [m]ost importantly, [we would] get well-
11 qualified and independent directors onto the Board. And the single most important 12 thing any Board does is, is hires the CEO, and so we’d engage in that process. Those 13 are the two by far most important things that would need to be done immediately.”
14 (Id. at 163:23-164:8.)(Emphasis supplied.)
- 15 • He would give Coddington and Wrotniak a “fair hearing” but does not know much about 16 them other than he is suspicious of them because of their connections to the Cotter
17 family. (Id. at 160-163, 174.)
 - 18 ○ Jon Glaser has considered Board replacements, as well as having Tilson, Glaser
19 and Glenn Tongue as Board members (Id. at 164-65.)
- 20 • Regarding the present situation with the RDI Board of Directors, he said that “until 21 something happens to change the status quo the current board and management
22 don’t give a crap what I think and certainly aren’t doing what I think they should 23 be doing.” (Id. at 180)
- 24 • He thinks that the stock price is depressed because “investors see a board and 25 management that view this as a private company and run it as a private fiefdom.... I
26 think there’s the widespread perception, one that I share, that there’s really not that much
27 concern for class A shareholders out there.”) Id. at 181:16-25.)

28 On June 1, 2016, T2 Plaintiff and decision-maker Jonathan Glaser testified at deposition, among other things, that:

- He earlier in the year had indicated to the Company’s then CFO, with whom he previously spoken from time to time, that the principal term on which he would insist to resolve his lawsuit was that he had the right to put two members on the Reading
Board of Directors. He added that the then CFO called him back and said that the Company was not interested. He further testified that he identified three particular people with real estate investment experience, had spoken to them have and been told they were interested in serving on the Company’s Board. (Jonathan Glaser June 1, 2016 deposition transcript; Exhibit “D” hereto at 44:11 – 51:24.) (Emphasis supplied.)

- 1 • His objective in seeking to place persons on the Company's Board of Directors was to
2 "get some adults in the room, so to speak, and have some independent directors,
3 provide the Company with... some needed expertise in areas of its business and
4 accomplish the goal of assuring shareholders that there was some independent Board
5 members in the room." He added that the two new appointees, Coddington and Wrotniak, 6 "don't appear to have any special expertise that's helpful, especially helpful to the 7 Company." In terms of the function of the Company's Board of Directors, he said "it's 8 somewhat of a circus and has been for a long time. And it's in need of some—I believe 9 some outside independent members." (Id. at 52:14 – 53:19.) (Emphasis supplied.)
- 10 • Regarding the termination of Plaintiff as President and CEO of the Company, Glaser 11 testified as follows: "if the allegation that he was -- that his termination was used as 12 leverage to get him to settle the ongoing probate litigation, then, yes, it was wrong."
13 (Id. at 60:14-61:18.) (Emphasis supplied.)
- 14 • When asked if he had in effect, quantified damages, he identified $250,000 paid to the 15 outside search Company for the CEO search, $250,000 paid to Tim Storey to act as a go-
16 between between the sisters, interest forgiven on loans, and depression of the stock price
17 due to the conduct of defendant [1nd Plaintiff]. (Id. at 73:15 – 74:24.)
- 18 • When asked if he thought he had gotten the attention of the Company, he responded 19 that the defendants had been "stonewalling" and "[t]hey're acting like they have 20 something to hide." He concluded: "so I don't know if they have gotten the message
21 or not. I really don't think they do." (Id. at 120:5 – 121:11.) (Emphasis supplied.)

22 III. ARGUMENT

23 A. Legal Standards Applicable to the Motion

24 The burden of proving the adequacy of a settlement rests upon the settlement proponents.
25 In Re Maxxam, Inc., 659 A.2d 760, 776 (Del. Ch. 1995), citing Barkan v. Amsted Indus., Inc., 567
26 A.2d 1279, 1285-86 (Del. 1989); Lewis v. Hirsch. No. Civ. A. 12532, 1994 WL 26355, at *7 (Del.
27 Ch. June 1, 1994). In determining whether a proposed settlement is fair and reasonable, the Court 28 must balance policy preferences in favor of voluntary settlement against the need to ensure that the interests of absent shareholders whose rights may be affected by any order or judgment entered by the Court are fairly represented. See Strategic Asset Mgmt., Inc. v. Nicholson, No. Civ. A. 20360-
NC, 2004 WL 1192088, at *2 (Del. Ch. May 20, 2004).

In determining whether a proposed settlement is fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the nominal corporate defendant and its shareholders, factors to be considered have

1 been identified as: (1) the probable validity of claims, (2) difficulties in enforcing the claims
2 through the courts, (3) the collectability of any judgment recovered (4) the delay, expense and
3 trouble of litigation (5) the amount of compromise as compared with the amount of collectability
4 of a judgment and (6) the view of the parties involved. Polk v. Good, Del. Supra, 507 A.2d 531,
5 536 (Del. 1986). “The core consideration...involves a weighing of the nature of the claims
6 asserted and the probability of ultimate success against the benefits to be offered by [the] proposed 7 settlement.” Lacos Land Co. v. Arden Group, Inc. No. Civ. A. 8519, 1986 WL 14525, at *3 (Del.
8 Ch. Dec. 24, 1986). See also In re Trulia, Inc. Stockholders Litig., 129 A.3d 884, 907 (Del. Ch.
9 2016) (settlement of class action not approved because the “get” i.e., the consideration to be 10 received, was not adequate compared to the “give,” i.e., the releases to be provided.)

11 A court should not approve a proposed settlement unless the court has sufficient 12 information to responsibly “conclude that the consideration proposed to be paid and in 13 consideration of the claims to be settled and release[d] is fair and adequate.” In Re Republic Am.
14 Corp. Litg., Civ. A. No. 10112, 1989 WL 31551, at *1 (Del. Ch. Apr. 4, 1989) (court declined to 15 approve settlement because of its “relatively uninformed state.”

16 A derivative action cannot be settled without some benefit flowing to the corporation.
17 Kovacs v. NVF CO., No. Civ. A. 8466, 1987 WL 758585 (Del. Ch. Sept. 10, 1987), revised Sept.
18 16, 1987; Strategic Asset Mgmt., Inc. v. Nicholson, No. Civ. A. 203 60-NC, 2004 WL 1192088, at 19 *2 (Del. Ch. May 20, 2004).

20 Another important factor to be considered by a court determining whether to approve a 21 settlement as fair and reasonable is the scope of the release and the proposed final order and/or 22 judgment. In Re Louisiana- Pacific Derivative Litig., 705 A.2d 238 (Del. Ch. 1997) (court refused
23 to approval final order and judgment submitted by Settling Parties that purported to release all 24 claims belonging to the corporation or any of its shareholders); Carlton Invs. v. TLC Beatrice, Int’l
25 Holdings, Inc., C.A. No. 13950, 1997 WL 208962 (Del. Ch. Apr. 21, 1997) (same).

26 Another factor considered by courts in reviewing proposed settlements and is whether the 27 settlement was approved by stockholders who were fully informed. Hoffman v. Dann, 205 A.2d 28 343, 353 (Del. 1964), cert. denied, 380 U.S. 973 (1965).

1 Additionally, with respect to the settlement negotiation process, where it appears that the 2 settling defendants have settled with one of two or more adversaries and excluded the other
3 adversary or adversaries from the settlement process, the settlement must be carefully scrutinized.
4 In Re MAXXAM, Inc., 659 A.2d at 776. In this regard, the Court In Re MAXXAM, Inc. stated as 5 follows:

7 ...this case has the unmistakable footprint of an effort by the defendants to 8 negotiate a settlement with an adversary that they preferred, in order to 9 extinguish claims being pressed by the adversary whom they disfavored,
10 and to relegate that disfavored adversary to the status of an objector to the 11 settlement. This transmutation of the settlement process into an offensive 12 weapon has been criticized by our Supreme Court and has resulted in 13 significant changes in the procedures for approving settlements of class 14 actions. Prezant v. DeAngelis, Del. Supr., 636 A.2d 915 (1994). Although 15 the exclusion of a significant party litigant from the settlement
16 negotiations will not, in and of itself, invalidate a proposed settlement, 17 that approach, because of its inherent potential for abuse, will cause the 18 settlement to be carefully scrutinized. See e.g., Stepak v. Tracinda Corp.,
19 Del.Ch., C.A. No. 8547, Allen, C., 1989 WL 100884 (Aug. 15, 1989).

20 In Re Maxxam, Inc. 689 A.2d at 776. (Emphasis supplied.)

21 The critical role of a court in scrutinizing a settlement which is the subject of a motion that 22 the court determine it to be fair and reasonable has been summarized as follows:
23

24 ‘It is well established that a court should not merely rubber stamp
25 whatever settlement is proposed by the parties to a shareholder derivative
26 action. A court must, instead, exercise judgment sufficiently independent 27 and objective to safeguard the interests of shareholders not directly
28 involved in the action [citations omitted] ... At the very least, the district court must possess sufficient evidentiary facts to show the fairness of the proposed settlement; the burden is placed squarely on the proponents of the settlement to show that it is in the best interests of all those who will be affected by it.’

Fricke v. Daylin, Inc. 66 F.R.D. 90, 97 (E.D.N.Y. 1975), quoting Greenspun v. Bogan, 492 F.2d 375, 378 (1 Cir. 1974) (Emphasis added.). See also In re MAXXAM Group, Inc., No. Civ. A.
8636, 1987 WL 10016, at *1 (Del. Ch. Apr. 16 1987) (“The essential function of the court on an application of this kind is to protect the interests of the absent class members who, although they

1 have not actively participated in litigating the claims asserted, will nevertheless be barred from
2 future litigation of any such claims is the proposed settlement is approved and effectuated.”)¹

3 B. The Motion Should be Denied.

4 1. The Settling Parties Have Not Satisfied and Cannot Satisfy Their Burden
5 of Proving the Adequacy of the Settlement, Particularly Given the 6 Enhanced Scrutiny Required

7 The Settling Parties have provided no basis upon which the Court can conclude that good
8 faith, arms’ length negotiations occurred. They also provide no explanation for why the T2
9 Plaintiffs did not even invite Plaintiff to participate in any settlement negotiations. The failure to 10 even offer to include Plaintiff creates the specter if not the reasonable inference that the 11 ‘negotiations’ were little if anything more than the T2 Plaintiffs indicating to the defendants that 12 they were through litigating as representative plaintiffs and asking what it would take to procure 13 defendants’ agreement to settle.
14

15 As to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, no explanation is apparent as to why it is in 16 the best interests of RDI and its shareholders to give broad releases, much less in exchange for 17 nothing. The Settlement Agreement and the Notice both describe the consideration for the

19 ¹ Plaintiff previously has pointed out that the purpose for which the settling defendants seek Court
20 approval is to seek to bar the claims released by the Settlement Agreement, including claims
21 brought by Plaintiff. Counsel for the Company—but perhaps not as clearly as to counsel for the 22 individual defendants—has responded, pointing to a supposed carve out excluding claims sought
23 by Plaintiff. The Court in that context appeared to rely on those statements and the supposed carve 24 out.

25 However, the supposed carve out will be illusory if the Court enters the Final Order and Judgment
26 sought by the Settling Parties. The Settlement Agreement by its terms purports to release all 27 claims the Company has, and all claims RDI shareholders have derivatively and directly, against 28 the individual defendants. The proposed judgment would dismiss the T2 lawsuit on the merits.
The Notice therefore is inadequate and misleading in this respect.

While acknowledging that lower courts were split on whether there is privity between derivative stockholders as a matter of Delaware law, the Delaware Supreme Court in Pyott v. Louisiana
Municipal Police Employees’ Retirement System, 74 A.3d 612, 614, 618 (Del. 2013), in applying California law held that “derivative stockholders are in privity with each other because they act on behalf of the defendant corporation.” Were a Nevada court to so hold, it is a short step from that legal precept to Nevada law regarding issue preclusion for the judgment sought here to bar the claims of all RDI shareholders, including Plaintiff.

1 Settlement as a press release and non-disparagement agreement. That press release, already
2 disseminated, is on its face of no value to RDI or any of its shareholders. Likewise, no
3 explanation is possible for why the broad releases provided to the defendants pursuant to the 4 Settlement Agreement--by both RDI and by RDI shareholders--are in the interests of RDI and or 5 its shareholders, independent of the lack of consideration flowing to RDI or its shareholders.

7 Simply put, the Settling Parties cannot proffer anything even approximating evidence
8 sufficient to enable the Court to responsibly "conclude that the consideration proposed to be paid
9 and in consideration of the claims to be settled and released is fair and adequate." That is because 10 the Settlement does not provide "substantial and immediate benefits for Reading its current 11 stockholders".

12 The T2 Plaintiffs understand that. The fact that the T2 Plaintiffs understand that the 13 Settlement does not provide "substantial and immediate benefits to RDI and its current 14 shareholders" is evidenced by their own sworn deposition testimony, including as quoted above,
15 given only weeks before they apparently decided to quit litigating and settle. That testimony
16 makes clear that the T2 Plaintiffs are of the view that, at a minimum to any settlement members of 17 the RDI Board of Directors need to be replaced by qualified, independent directors.
18

19 Because the Settlement Agreement provides RDI and its shareholders no consideration of 20 any kind, much less what the T2 Plaintiffs swore they thought was minimally necessary, they 21 cannot honestly or in good faith represent to the Court that the Settlement provides benefits to 22 Reading or its current shareholders sufficient to make it fair, reasonable and in the best interests of 23 Reading and its shareholders.
24

25 The Settling Parties' cannot meet their burden of proving the adequacy of the Settlement.
26 That is particularly true given the fact that the Settlement was reached by secret discussions from 27 which Plaintiff was excluded. Only if the role of the Court is to rubber stamp the Motion and 28

1 approve the settlement, which it is not, should the Settlement be approved as fair, reasonable and
2 adequate, and in the best interests of RDI and its shareholders.

3 2. All of the Considerations that the Notice Acknowledges Weigh Against the 4 Relief Sought

5 Paragraph 17 of the Notice posits that “the Settlement provides substantial and immediate 6 benefits for Reading and its current stockholders.” As demonstrated above, that conclusion is 7 erroneous. In fact, the Settlement provides that RDI and RDI stockholders give defendants broad 8 releases—and virtual immunity—in exchange for no consideration. That is not a “substantial and 9 immediate benefit to [RDI] and its current stockholders.” On the contrary, it would constitute 10 substantial and immediate harm to RDI and its shareholders.
11

12 In fact, the Settlement Agreement does not identify or provide any benefits for Reading or 13 its stockholders. As described above, literally the only “consideration” supposedly flowing to RDI
14 or its shareholders from the Settlement Agreement was a press release (and non-disparagement 15 agreement). The press release already was disseminated and is of no benefit to Reading or its 16 shareholders. Nor is the non-disparagement agreement.
17

18 As observed above, a derivative action cannot be settled without some benefit flowing to 19 the corporation. There is none here and that factor alone requires that the Motion be denied.

20 As to the six considerations typically considered (which the Settling Parties acknowledge 21 in paragraph 17 of the Notice), the Settling Parties cannot satisfy the burden of showing that those 22 considerations weigh clearly in favor of the Court awarding the relief sought by the Motion.
23

24 The first consideration typically addressed by a court in determining the fairness and 25 reasonableness of a proposed settlement is the probable validity of the claims that are 26 compromised by the settlement. The Notice lists that item as the second item and describes it as 27 the probability of success on the merits.
28

1 As the Court knows, motions to dismiss Plaintiff's complaint and the T2 Plaintiffs'
2 complaint were denied. Substantial discovery has been taken and, as the Court has seen from 3 discovery motions, the discovery substantiates many if not most of the substantive allegations
4 made in the pending complaints.

5 By way of example only, both then contemporaneous documents and handwritten notes, as 6 well as sworn deposition testimony by individual defendants, show that Plaintiff was threatened
7 with termination if he did not resolve certain trust and estate disputes with EC and MC, that a
8 vote to terminate him was not taken when EC announced that Plaintiff had agreed to their terms
9 and, finally, when no agreement came to fruition, the vote was had and Plaintiff was terminated.
10 (See Exhibits "E" and "F" hereto, which are excerpts of the deposition testimony of then RDI
11 director Tim Storey and director defendant Kane, respectively, including deposition exhibits.)

12 For example, on the evening of May 28, 2015, before a supposed May 29 board meeting to 13 vote on the termination of Plaintiff, Kane told Plaintiff that: "Ellen is going to present you with a 14 global plan to end the litigation and move the Company forward." "If you agree to it, you, Ellen
15 and Margaret will work in a collaborative manner and you will retain your title." "If it is a take-it-
16 or-leave-it, then I STRONGLY ADVISE YOU TO TAKE IT, even though I have not seen or 17 heard the particulars." (Kane 5/31/16 Dep. Tr. At 362-368, included in Exhibit F hereto.)

18 Storey testified that the supposed May 29 board meeting adjourned with a majority of the 19 non-Cotter directors, meaning Kane, Adams and McEachern, telling Plaintiff that he had until the 20 meeting reconvened telephonically at 6 p.m. that night to strike a deal with his sisters, EC and 21 MC, failing which the vote to terminate would proceed and he would be terminated. Storey 22 testified that his contemporaneous handwritten notes accurately summarize what transpired, which 23 was:
24
26
27
28

1 “long board discussion”

2 “ended with basically a command from” majority” – Jim go settle
3 something with sisters in next hour or you will be terminated.”

4 (See Storey 2/12/16 Dep. Tr. At 110:6-12, included in Ex. 17 included Ex. “E” hereto.)

5 Kane in deposition agreed that, on May 29, 2015, the vote to terminate Plaintiff was not
6 had because a Plaintiff appeared to have reached an agreement satisfactory to MC and EC. (See 7 Kane 5/2/16 Dep. Tr. at 191:6–24, included in Ex. “F” hereto.). When that tentative agreement
8 did not come to fruition, Kane resumed pressuring Plaintiff to accede to his sisters’ demands,
9 under threat of termination: “I do believe that if you give up what you consider ‘control’ for now
10 to work cooperatively with your sisters,” Kane admonished, “you will find that you will have a lot 11 more commonality than you think.” (See Kane Dep. Ex. 306 at p. EK 00001613 included in Ex.
12 “F” hereto.) “Otherwise,” Kane threatened, “you will be sorry for the rest of your life, they and 13 your mother will be hurt and your children will lose a golden opportunity.” (Id.) Tellingly, Kane
14 also wrote:

15 “[F]or now I think you have to concede that Margaret will vote the B
16 stock. As I said, you dad told me that giving Margaret the vote was his 17 way of ‘forcing’ the three of you to work together. Asking to change that 18 is a nonstarter.”

19 (Id.)

20 It is a rhetorical question to ask what interest of the Company was served by threatening
21 Plaintiff with termination to pressure him to resolve trust and estate disputes Plaintiff had with EC
22 and MC on terms effectively dictated by them. This is simply an example of a merits issue as to 23 which the claims made are not merely colorable, they are well-taken.

24 Also by way of example, Plaintiff’s Second Amended Complaint pleads a clear case of 25 waste. In March 2016, MC was appointed Executive Vice President—Real Estate
26 Development—New York City, (“EVP--RED – NYC”) on EC’s recommendation as President and 27 CEO. (See RDI Form 8-K excerpts dated March 15, 2016, attached hereto as Exhibit G.) As 28 EVP--RED – NYC, MC was awarded a compensation package that includes a base salary of $350,000 and a short-term incentive target bonus of $105,000 (30% of her base salary), and was

1 granted a long-term incentive of a stock option for 19,921 shares of Class A common stock and
2 4,184 restricted stock units under the Company's 2010 Stock Incentive Plan. (Id.) As EVP--RED
3 -- NYC, MC became the senior executive at RDI responsible for development of its valuable New 4 York City real estate however, MC has no real estate development experience. (See MC's Dep.
5 Tr. at 226:1-231:13, Ex. H hereto; Adams 4/28/16 Dep. Tr. at 152:23-154:21, Ex. I hereto; Storey
6 8/3/16 deposition at 17:10-17, included in Ex. E hereto.) For that reason, among others, Plaintiff's
7 Second Amended Complaint asserts that the payment of those monies (and others) to MC
8 constitutes waste.

9 The Settling Parties cannot provide evidence sufficient to enable the Court to responsibly
10 conclude that the consideration proposed to be paid --nothing-- in consideration of the claims of 11 RDI and RDI shareholders to be settled and released--everything--is fair and reasonable. As the 12 examples above illustrate, Plaintiff has made claims that are meritorious, not merely colorable.

13 Three other considerations typically are described as difficulties in enforcing the claims
14 through the courts, the collectability of any judgment recovered and the delay, expense and trouble
15 of litigation. The Notice acknowledges these considerations when it references "the attendant risks
16 of continued litigation and the uncertainty of the outcome of the T2 Action" and "the inherent 17 problems of proof associated with, and possible defenses to, the claims asserted in the T2 Action."
18 At this stage of the case, each of these considerations also weigh against granting relief sought.
19 Any additional incremental costs of litigating at this point cannot weigh in favor of the settlement
20 at issue here.

21 The consideration of the amount of compromise as compared with the amount of 22 collectability of a judgment also cannot weigh in favor of approval of the Settlement as fair and 23 reasonable. The Settling Parties cannot prove to the Court that Plaintiffs can procure neither
24 monetary nor nonmonetary relief by way of this action. Both Plaintiff's Second Amended 25 Complaint and the T2 Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint identify several instances of 26 transparent corporate waste, including but not limited to payments to MC described above, and 27 both identify instance after instance of self-dealing conduct. The T2 Plaintiffs themselves set the 28 bar for settlement at removal and replacement of at least two directors—which they did not obtain.

1 As to the view the parties involved, the recent sworn deposition testimony of Messrs.
2 Tilson and Glaser make it clear that their actual views are the antithesis of the statements, ascribed
3 to them in the press release. More to the point, their shared view is that remedial corporate
4 governance concessions, starting with replacing at least two directors, is the absolute minimum
5 consideration sufficient to warrant settling their case. Any views to the contrary expressed by 6 them must be recognized by the Court as mere posturing in support of the Motion. Finally,
7 counsel for Plaintiff has shown throughout this case that Plaintiff's allegations are well-taken and 8 his claims are meritorious, and that the fiduciary breaches claimed will be proved.

Stockholders Withdraw Derivative Lawsuit Against Reading International

Los Angeles, California, - (BUSINESS WIRE) – July 13, 2016 – Reading International, Inc. (NASDAQ: RDI) ("Reading" or the "Company") and Messrs. Whitney Tilson and Jonathan M. Glaser, acting on behalf of various funds that they manage (the "Plaintiff Stockholders"), have announced that the Plaintiff Stockholders have withdrawn all of their alleged claims (the "Derivative Claims") in the previously filed derivative lawsuit in the District Court of the State of Nevada for Clark County. Collectively, the Plaintiff Stockholders own approximately 845,000 shares, representing approximately 3.6% of the outstanding equity of our Company. Through their various funds, Mr. Glaser has been a significant stockholder of Reading since 2008, and Mr. Tilson has been a significant stockholder since October 2014.

Commenting on the withdrawal of the lawsuit, the Company stated, "We are pleased that Mr. Glaser and Mr. Tilson have agreed to dismiss their claims. We remain focused on building long term value for all stockholders."

Mr. Tilson stated that the Plaintiff Stockholders brought the Derivative Claims as a result of the allegations contained in a derivative action filed by Mr. James J. Cotter, Jr. on June 12, 2015, in the District Court of the State of Nevada for Clark County. As stockholders in the Company, Messrs. Tilson and Glaser wanted to ensure that the interests of all stockholders were being appropriately protected. In connection with the litigation, the Plaintiff Stockholders conducted extensive discovery on these matters, which included depositions of Guy Adams, Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, William Gould, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Tim Storey and James Cotter, Jr. Following their efforts on behalf of all stockholders, Messrs. Tilson and Glaser have concluded that the Reading Board of Directors has acted in good faith and has been and remains committed to acting in the interests of all stockholders. Continuing with their derivative litigation would provide no further benefit.

Messrs. Glaser and Tilson stated, "We are pleased with the conclusions reached by our investigations as Plaintiff Stockholders and now firmly believe that the Reading Board of Directors has and will continue to protect stockholder interests and will continue to work to maximize shareholder value over the long term. We appreciate the Company's willingness to engage in open dialogue and are excited about the Company's prospects. Our questions about the termination of James Cotter, Jr., and various transactions between Reading and members of the Cotter family-or entities they control-have been definitively addressed and put to rest. We are impressed by measures the Reading Board has made over the past year to further strengthen corporate governance. We fully support the Reading Board and management team and their strategy to create stockholder value."

In connection with the dismissal of the Derivative Claims, the parties have agreed to mutual general releases with each party bearing his, her or its own legal fees and expenses. Further, the parties will petition the court for approval of the settlement.

1 Q. And who you described as an activist
2 shareholder; is that right?
3 A. Yes, activist investor.
4 Q. And if you take a look, starting on the 5 first page of the document which is at -- 12:14PM
6 A. Uh-huh.
7 Q. -- 1151.
8 A. Uh-huh.
9 THE REPORTER: Is that "yes"?
10 THE WITNESS: Yes.
11 BY MR. SEARCY:
12 Q. That's an email from you, dated July 4th;
13 correct?
14 A. The one at the bottom to Weinreb or Glenn
15 Tongue -- 12:15PM
16 Q. That carries over to the next page?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And you write:
19 "Yes, she and her sister
20 engineered a board coup that ousted 12:15PM
21 their brother as CEO, which he is now
22 suing to undo."
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Do you see that?
25 A. Yes, I do. 12:15PM

Page 106

1 Q. And you write:
2 "My thesis is that, assuming a
3 purchase price modestly above today, you
4 could sell the theaters and
5 miscellaneous real estate and end up 12:15PM
6 getting two valuable NYC properties for 7 free."
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. And is that what your understanding is that 10 you're relaying to Mr. Weinreb about the benefits of 12:15PM
11 a possible purchase of RDI?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Okay. And when you use the word "coup" --
14 A. Uh-huh.
15 Q. -- in your email, what did you mean by the 12:15PM
16 word "coup"?
17 A. Meaning he was ousted in a hostile way and 18 may have been blindsided by it.
19 Q. Were you trying to suggest there was an
20 improper use of board powers with the word "coup"? 12:16PM
21 A. I think I was more conveying that what I
22 then say explicitly in the very next sentence,
23 which, is, "It is ugly." This was not a normal
24 transition -- CEO transition.
25 Q. When you say it's not normal, were you 12:16PM

Page 107

1 trying to suggest that there was anything improper
2 about that CEO transition?

3 A. At that time, I didn't have the information
4 that I do now.

5 Q. So at that time you used the word "coup," 12:16PM
6 but you didn't know whether or not it had been 7 improper in any way; is that right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And do you think your use of the term
10 "coup" suggested that it was somehow improper, the 12:16PM
11 removal of Jim, Jr., from CEO?

12 MR. ROBERTSON: Objection, calls for 13 speculation.

14 THE WITNESS: Does that mean I should
15 answer it? 12:17PM

16 MR. ROBERTSON: Yeah, you can answer if 17 you --

18 THE WITNESS: Oh.

19 MR. ROBERTSON: -- understand it.

20 THE WITNESS: I suspected that there had 12:17PM
21 been -- I think I suspected, given the tone of the 22 earlier lawsuit that I had seen, et cetera, that 23 there had been an ugly board fight about this. I
24 suspected that and turns out I was right.

25 BY MR. SEARCY: 12:17PM

Page 108

1 Q. Well, we're focusing on the word "coup"
2 right here.
3 When you say "ugly" --
4 A. Uh-huh.
5 Q. -- are you using that to refer to -- in 12:17PM
6 connection with your use of the word "coup" in your 7 email?
8 A. I was -- I think when I said "it's very 9 ugly," I meant just the general situation of 10 controlling shareholders, filing lawsuits against 12:18PM
11 one another in general, and then the sudden and 12 unexpected ouster of the hand-picked successor to 13 the guy who built the company, his own son being 14 ousted in a -- suddenly.
15 Q. So as you were using the word "coup" here, 12:18PM
16 you're referring more to the sudden nature of it?
17 Is that your testimony?
18 A. I think it was -- I was simply speculating 19 here that he did not go willingly and that there was 20 likely a board fight behind this. I've seen this 12:18PM
21 kind of thing -- this kind of thing has happened
22 before in the investing world, and so I was just 23 using a word that conveyed a contentious situation.
24 Q. Then it appears that you've forwarded this 25 exchange along with others to your attorney; is that 12:19PM

1 it's your understanding that there is a dispute over
2 who controls the trust; is that right?

3 A. I believe so.

4 Q. That's the same dispute that we were
5 talking about earlier today where you forwarded a 01:27PM
6 copy of the complaint to various people on your RDI
7 distribution list; is that right?

8 A. I believe that is the same trust.

9 Q. Other than that trust litigation, is there
10 any other new fact that you can identify for me? 01:28PM

11 A. I'd have to reference the filing to have a 12 better understanding of the details. I was 13 reviewing this at -- very, very early this morning.

14 But there seemed to be some machinations
15 regarding timing of SEC filings last year by the two 01:28PM
16 sisters regarding voting some of the shares. That 17 was new information.

18 They appeared of the commissioner of 19 elections or whoever it is who decides whether 20 shares can be voted, the sisters made 01:28PM
21 representations to that person that they controlled
22 the trust and asserted something which was not, in 23 fact, correct. That was new information.

24 I'm -- there was one other thing. Let me
25 see if I can recall. 01:29PM

Page 133

1 BY MR. SEARCY:

2 Q. All right. Okay. We were talking before

3 the break about the motion for preliminary

4 injunction. I want to come back to a couple of

5 items on that. 02:11PM

6 Again, assuming that the motion for

7 preliminary injunction was successful, I think you

8 indicated that you'd want to get rid of a couple

9 members of the board of directors?

10 A. A majority, I said. 02:11PM

11 Q. Okay. Which members of the board of 12 directors would you seek to take off the board?

13 A. Probably the two sisters, Kane, and Adams

14 would be the first four.

15 Q. Anyone else? 02:11PM

16 A. I don't know. I'd have to consult with 17 other shareholders, but they would be the top of my 18 list.

19 Q. What about Doug McEachern?

20 A. I have less strong feelings about him. 02:12PM

21 Q. How about Bill Gould?

22 A. Same. More positive feelings towards him.

23 Q. Judy Coddington?

24 A. I'd like to meet her and talk to her.

25 I've -- I actually know someone who knows her just 02:12PM

Page 160

1 personally and heard she's a smart and respected
2 person. Not sure what she brings to the table as it
3 relates to RDI's business, but I'd want to give her
4 a fair hearing.

5 Q. Other than the conversation that you had 02:12PM
6 with someone who knows her, have you done anything
7 else to investigate or look into Judy Coddington?

8 A. I read her bio.

9 Q. Anything else?

10 A. No. 02:12PM

11 Q. And when you say that you weren't sure what
12 she brings to the table as it relates to RDI's
13 business, is that because she doesn't have a 14 background in --

15 A. In either real estate or cinema.

16 THE REPORTER: I'm sorry. In?

17 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. He said "cinema,"
18 question mark.

19 THE REPORTER: Did you say "cinema"?

20 MR. SEARCY: I did.

21 BY MR. SEARCY:

22 Q. And you went ahead and answered my next
23 question to boot.

24 THE WITNESS: Did you get my answer?

25 THE REPORTER: I did not.

Page 161

1 THE WITNESS: Okay. My answer was, is
2 because she does not have any experience, to my
3 knowledge, in either cinema or real estate.
4 BY MR. SEARCY:
5 Q. But of course, at the time that you were at 02:13PM
6 Cutter and Buck, you didn't have any experience in 7 golf apparel; correct?
8 A. Correct.
9 Q. And you were able to contribute to the 10 board? 02:13PM
11 A. Correct.
12 Q. Have any reason to believe that Ms. Coddling
13 can't make a similar contribution to the board?
14 A. I wouldn't equate the two. I own 2 percent
15 of the company. I'm -- and I certainly brought a 02:13PM
16 capital allocation perspective, et cetera, to the 17 board of Cutter and Buck, and also helped insulate
18 Cutter and Buck from an activist hedge fund
19 shareholder rattling the bars of our cage on the 20 outside. 02:14PM
21 So I -- like I said, I'd be open to hearing
22 what Judy Coddling brings to the board.
23 Q. You haven't looked into what she brings to 24 the board one way or the other at this point;
25 correct?

Page 162

1 A. No --

2 Q. Other than --

3 | A. -- not in any depth.

4 Q. -- in conversation with your friend?

5 A. It wasn't even really a conversation. 02:14PM

6 Just -- we agreed not to talk about it because I'm
7 involved in litigation, but just -- she said Judy
8 Coddling was someone she's known for a long time and 9 is a good person, basically, was the extent of the 10 conversation.

02:14PM

11 Q. Michael Wrotniak, would you keep him on the 12 board?

13 A. Same answer as with Coddling. Not clear
14 what a carbon trader brings to the table. But other
15 than reading his bio, I don't know anything about 02:14PM
16 him.

17 Q. So you'd have to have a conversation with 18 him and see what he brings?

19 | A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. It would be something akin to what a 02:15PM
21 nominating committee might do?

22	A. Sure.
----	----------

23 Q. Okay. Other than replacing Ellen and 24 Margaret Cotter, Ed Kane, and Guy Adams from the 25 board of directors, what else would you do with the 02:15PM

Page 163

1 company if you were successful in your motion for
2 preliminary injunction?

3 A. Most importantly, get well-qualified and 4 independent directors onto the board. And the 5 single most important thing any board does is, is 02:15PM
6 hires the CEO, and so we'd engage in that process.

7 Those are the two by far most important
8 things that would need to be done immediately.

9 Q. Have you identified who the members of the 10 board of directors would be? 02:15PM

11 A. We have some candidates in mind.

12 Q. Okay. Who are those candidates?

13 THE WITNESS: Have we filed this publicly
14 in any way?

15 MR. ROBERTSON: Huh-uh. 02:16PM

16 THE WITNESS: John Glaser's identified at 17 least two people. And off the top of my head, I
18 can't remember the exact details or even names, but 19 both appeared very well qualified and had experience
20 in either cinema or real estate. 02:16PM

21 If we -- my former partner, Glenn Tongue,
22 has agreed to be part of a slate, and I can, if you
23 wish, walk you through some of his background in 24 public company board experience.

25 And then John and I would each be part of a 02:16PM

1 slate as well. So that would be one, two, three,
2 four -- I believe that's five people.

3 BY MR. SEARCY:

4 Q. That's John Glaser?

5 A. Yes. 02:17PM

6 Q. And in addition to yourself, Glenn Tongue,
7 John Glaser, who are the other candidates?

8 A. Two people John has identified.

9 Q. Do you recall their names?

10 A. No. 02:17PM

11 Q. Do you recall their backgrounds?

12 A. One was, you know, a 30-year veteran in the 13 real estate industry, I believe. And I can't 14 remember. The other one, I believe, was more in the 15 cinema side of the movie business somehow, but I 02:17PM
16 can't remember the details.

17 Q. You don't remember their names at all?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Do you remember if they're from the 20 California area, any other identifying 02:17PM

21 characteristics?

22 A. I'm not sure.

23 Q. What changes would you make to the 24 management of RDI?

25 A. The only change that I'm quite certain we 02:18PM

Page 165

1 MR. ROBERTSON: Objection, vague and
2 ambiguous.

3 THE WITNESS: Not really, is the answer.

4 I've -- Glenn Tongue I'm very close with
5 and have probably had a couple -- a handful of 02:36PM
6 conversations with him. A couple other people on 7 the list, I don't even know them. I've had no
8 conversations with my business plans with them.

9 So I invested in this stock a year and a
10 half ago with a certain investment thesis on how 02:36PM
11 value could be unlocked, but until something happens
12 to change the status quo, the current board and 13 management don't give a crap what I think and 14 certainly aren't doing what I think they should be 15 doing. 02:36PM

16 So I don't spend a lot of time thinking
17 about what my plans are because it isn't going to 18 happen unless something changes. So I'll cross that 19 bridge when I come to it.

20 BY MR. SEARCY: 02:36PM

21 Q. So in the time since October of 2014 when 22 you first came up with your business plan for RDI --

23 A. Uh-huh.

24 Q. -- and purchased RDI stock, you haven't
25 been able to implement your plan; correct? 02:36PM

Page 180

1 A. That is correct.

2 Q. And the status quo has remained the same at 3 RDI since October of 2014 to the present; is that
4 right?

5 A. In terms of the business actions that -- I 02:37PM
6 certainly did not anticipate, when I bought the 7 stock, that thermonuclear war was going to break out
8 among the siblings. I -- for all -- I thought that 9 they had a harmonious relationship. So all of that 10 I got surprised by. 02:37PM

11 But in terms of just the ongoing progress
12 of the business, it's going along pretty much the 13 way I expected. But there hasn't been anything that 14 would close the gap to the obvious value I see there
15 north of $20 a share. 02:37PM

16 You know, the stock's gone up a few bucks,
17 and that's nice, but it's still trading at a big 18 discount. And I think part of the reason is, is 19 investors see a board and management that view this 20 as a private company and run it as a private 02:37PM
21 fiefdom. And while they are not looting the 22 company, I don't think they really -- I think
23 there's the widespread perception, one that I share,
24 that there's really not that much concern for just 25 the class A shareholders out there. 02:37PM

Page 2

1 Q. Do you do that for all companies in which
2 you hold shares?

3 A. I can't say for all, but a good portion of 4 them in some varying degree.

5 Q. Do you look at any other sort of public 10:01AM
6 sources and, if so, what are they?

7 A. Newswires.

8 Q. The Wall Street Journal?

9 A. The Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg News,
10 Dow Jones. 10:01AM

11 Q. Do you ever communicate with -- you
12 personally communicate with Reading board members or 13 management?

14 A. I have -- with regard to board members,
15 I've probably lobbed in a sporadic email now and 10:01AM
16 again, but nothing regular.

17 I've had communications from time to time
18 with Andrzej, the CFO, over the years.

19 And I believe that's about it.

20 Q. Your communication with board members, can 10:02AM
21 you remember specifically, was that to all board
22 members or to a specific one?

23 A. I can recall one that I believe I sent to 24 the entire board after the -- I'm not sure. It
25 probably was after Jim, Jr. was terminated, sort of 10:02AM

1 conveying that I was upset by what appeared to me to 2 be boardroom and family in-fighting and -- to the 3 detriment of shareholders.

4 Prior to that -- well, no, I don't recall
5 one prior to that. There could be.

10:03AM

6 And then I know I reached out to Ellen
7 Cotter early this year, trying to communicate my 8 desire that we avoid litigation and come to some 9 settlement.

10 Q. The communication to the board that you
11 mentioned, is that the only email you remember
12 having sent to the board regarding Jim, Jr.'s
13 termination?

10:03AM

14 A. I think so.

15 Q. You mentioned communication with Ellen 16 Cotter.

10:03AM

17 Was that also an email?

18 A. That was an email, yes.

19 Q. And you said it was a desire to avoid 20 litigation.

10:03AM

21 Was it before or after you filed the 22 lawsuit?

23 A. After.

24 Q. And was it what you would call a settlement
25 offer, that is to say, the lawsuit can go away if

1 these things occur?

2 A. The email that I sent, I don't believe it
3 had a specific offer, but I had communicated orally
4 with Andrzej prior to that email with a specific
5 offer. 10:04AM

6 Q. And what was that communication with 7 Andrzej?

8 A. I believe I told him that if we could put 9 two board members on the Reading board that were 10 candidates that were mutually agreeable to both of 10:04AM
11 us, even for a time-limited duration -- I can't 12 remember whether I said two or three years, and I
13 may have mentioned some other miscellaneous requests
14 also, but that was the primary request, that we'd
15 probably be happy. 10:05AM

16 Q. Had you spoken to the CFO before that 17 conversation where you orally communicated that 18 offer?

19 Did you know him? Had you spoken to him
20 before? 10:05AM

21 A. Yes. Like I said, over a period of years
22 I've spoken to him.

23 Q. And when you -- when -- was that a
24 telephone call or a meeting?

25 You communicated to him -- 10:05AM

Page 46

1 A. This --

2 Q. -- orally this offer?

3 A. That was a telephone call.

4 Q. Was anybody else on that call except you
5 and the CFO? 10:05AM

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did you at any point memorialize that
8 offer?

9 I know you say you may not have put that in 10 the email to Ms. Cotter -- 10:05AM

11 A. Right.

12 Q. -- but did you otherwise memorialize it in 13 writing?

14 A. I don't think so.

15 Q. Did you get a response back? 10:05AM

16 A. I got a -- I believe he called me back
17 after a few days with a very brief response saying 18 that the company was not interested. And he was 19 very curt, which was unlike him, and I got the sense
20 that he was being told not to talk to me anymore. 10:06AM

21 Q. He, this is the CEO -- the CFO, rather?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Have you done anything to identify 24 potential board members that you believed would be 25 acceptable to you? 10:06AM

1 A. Have -- yes.

2 Q. Okay. Did you identify any of those people
3 to anybody at Reading?

4 A. I don't think I gave him any individual
5 names. 10:06AM

6 Q. Who are the people that you had identified,
7 at least preliminarily?

8 A. I -- at the time, I'm not sure that I had 9 identified anybody. Since -- certainly since then,
10 the candidates I have identified, one would be a 10:07AM
11 gentleman named Robert Chip Harris.

12 Q. Chip's a nickname?

13 A. Chip, yeah, is his nickname.

14 Q. Anyone else?

15 A. David Brain. 10:07AM

16 Q. B-R-A-I-N?

17 A. I-N, yeah.

18 And another one named Mark Lammass.

19 Q. M-A-R-K?

20 A. M -- I think it's M-A-R-K. And I think 10:07AM
21 it's two Ms.

22 Q. L-A-M-M-A.

23 A. L-A-M-M-A-S.

24 Q. And briefly, who is Robert Chip Harris?

25 A. Chip is a gentleman I've become acquainted 10:07AM

1 with serving on another public board on a -- that is
2 a real estate investment trust. But more
3 importantly, he was a principal in a company called
4 Entertainment Realty Trust, which was a real estate
5 investment trust that owned movie theaters and real 10:08AM
6 estate -- entertainment-related real estate. Yeah.
7 Sorry. Go ahead.
8 Q. Have you talked to him about serving on the 9 Reading board?
10 A. I asked him if he'd be willing to do it, 10:08AM
11 yes.
12 Q. You say you know him from having served on 13 a board together.
14 What board was that?
15 A. Hudson Pacific Properties. 10:08AM
16 Q. Do you still serve on that board?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. What other boards do you serve on 19 currently?
20 A. Public boards? 10:08AM
21 Q. Yes.
22 A. That's it. I'm sorry. One other one. It
23 is CalWest Bank in Irvine.
24 Q. And what is the business of Hudson?
25 A. It owns primarily office buildings in 10:09AM

Page 49

1 Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Seattle, as well as 2 television and movie production studios in 3 Hollywood.

4 Q. Did Mr. Harris indicate whether he would be
5 willing to be on the Reading board? 10:09AM

6 A. He said he'd be very interested.

7 Q. Who is Mr. Brain?

8 A. Mr. Brain was a colleague or is a colleague
9 of Chip's from the same company from Entertainment
10 Realty Trust. 10:09AM

11 Q. And did you talk to Mr. Brain about serving 12 on the Reading board?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And what did he say?

15 A. He said he would be interested. 10:09AM

16 Q. And do you know what Mr. Brain's position
17 is with Entertainment Realty Trust?

18 A. I don't think either of them are with that 19 company any longer.

20 Q. Okay. Were they with that company when you 10:09AM
21 spoke to them about being on Reading?

22 A. No.

23 Q. So they'd already left --

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. -- that company. 10:10AM

Page 50

1 Do you know what Mr. Brain does now?
2 A. I don't.
3 Q. Do you recall what his position was with 4 Entertainment Realty Trust?
5 A. No. 10:10AM
6 Q. Did you know Mr. Brain independently or 7 only through Mr. Harris?
8 A. Only through Mr. Harris.
9 Q. And did Mr. Harris suggest Mr. Brain as 10 somebody else that might be interested in being on 10:10AM
11 the board?
12 A. I don't recall whether it was Chip's
13 recommendation or somebody else recommended.
14 Q. Who is Mark Lammas?
15 A. Mr. Lammas is the CFO of Hudson Pacific 10:10AM
16 Properties.
17 Q. And did you know him also from your time on 18 the board there?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Did you talk to Mr. Lammas about serving on 10:10AM
21 the Reading board?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. What did he say?
24 A. He said he'd be interested.
25 Q. In terms of how you described to these 10:10AM

1 people the -- what you were asking of them, what did
2 you say to them? How did you describe it?

3 A. I described that -- I gave them a
4 description of Reading.

5 I think in the case of Mr. Harris, at least 10:11AM
6 he already was very familiar with the company, I
7 think, because of his experience in the movie
8 theater business.

9 I told him about the ongoing litigation and
10 said that if and when there was an opportunity, 10:11AM
11 there -- I said there might be an opportunity for us
12 to be able to put a couple people on the board and 13 asked if they'd be interested.

14 Q. And what was your objective in seeking to 15 have a couple people put on the board? What is it 10:11AM
16 you were hoping to accomplish?

17 A. Well, to get some adults in the room, so to 18 speak, and have some independent directors, provide 19 the company with -- I think with some needed
20 expertise in areas of its business and accomplish 10:12AM
21 the goal of assuring shareholders that there was 22 some independent board members in the room.

23 Q. Okay. Let me ask you about those.

24 When you say "some adults in the room,"
25 what do you mean? What is it that you believe 10:12AM

Page 52

1 reflects that there have not been adults in the 2 room?

3 A. We got three kids who are fighting, who are 4 a third of the board. That's not exactly normal.

5 You have some long-standing board members. 10:12AM

6 You have -- which in and of itself is --
7 isn't necessarily a negative, but --

8 Q. Is not?

9 A. Is not necessarily a negative, but it can
10 be. 10:13AM

11 You have two new appointees who don't
12 appear to have any special expertise that's helpful,
13 especially helpful to the company.

14 And you have the termination of one of the 15 siblings. 10:13AM

16 To say -- it appears to me that it's
17 somewhat of a circus and has been for a long time.
18 And it's in need of some -- I believe some outside
19 independent members.

20 Q. And I want to drill down on some of these. 10:13AM

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. You say it seems like it's been a circus
23 for a long time.

24 Describe for me what it is that you think
25 has -- that you believe has occurred that leads you 10:13AM

Page 53

1 A. My father.

2 Q. What does your father do?

3 A. Industrial real estate.

4 Q. Through a company?

5 A. His own.

10:21AM

6 Q. What's it called?

7 A. Glaser Development.

8 And I invest in real estate personally as 9 well.

10 Q. Are there -- like you said, that you had a 10:22AM
11 concern about independence and oversight, that 12 long-standing board members may lack independence
13 and oversight.

14 Are there specific things that occurred or 15 that you're -- believe have occurred at Reading that 10:22AM
16 cause you to believe that any of the board members
17 lack independence and oversight?

18 A. Well, I think there are issues -- I think 19 there's an issue with regard to why Junior was 20 terminated. 10:22AM

21 I think there's an issue with regard to 22 approval of related company -- related party loans.
23 Just to name a couple.

24 Q. Okay. Let me ask you about those.

25 You say there's an issue with why Junior 10:23AM

Page 60

1 was terminated.

2 What's your -- what do you mean there's an
3 issue?

4 A. Well --

5 Q. Do you believe it was wrong? 10:23AM

6 A. I -- do I believe it was wrong?

7 If the allegation that he was -- that his 8 termination was used as leverage to get him to 9 settle the ongoing probate litigation, then, yes, it
10 was wrong. 10:23AM

11 If he was terminated for other reasons,
12 then it may or may not be wrong. I don't know.

13 Q. So when you say "the allegation," you're 14 referring to an allegation made by Jim Cot- -- James
15 Cotter, Jr. in one of his lawsuits? 10:23AM

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And you don't know one way or the other?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You say the "related party loans."

20 What are you referring to? 10:24AM

21 A. It called Sutton -- yeah, Sutton Hill
22 Properties.

23 Q. And what's your understanding of that loan
24 transaction?

25 A. You know, I'm not -- it -- I'm not familiar 10:24AM

Page 61

1 difference in the nature of our claims.

2 Plus there were -- I think there was a
3 government-established settlement fund, and we --
4 for -- again, this is a long time ago, but there
5 were reasons why we felt we needed to pursue our own 10:55AM
6 claims, rather than be part of the large -- a larger
7 government settlement fund.

8 Q. And can you give me a ballpark sense of how 9 much money was involved, that is to say, how much
10 was at stake for you? 10:55AM

11 A. I think our claim was -- it was north of 12 $25 million, maybe substantially north of that.

13 Q. You described a number of issues or 14 concerns that you had with respect to Reading.

15 Have you done anything to quantify what 10:55AM
16 impact you believe those issues or concerns have had 17 or may have had on your investment?

18 A. A dollar number?

19 Q. Yeah.

20 A. Well, I think you can add up -- you know, 10:56AM
21 there's -- you know, you could -- there's -- you
22 know, the $250,000 paid to Korn Ferry; 250,000, I
23 think, paid to Tim Storey to act as go-between 24 between the sisters. There's the interest --
25 forgiven interest on the loans. There's -- you 10:56AM

1 know, I'm not sure to what extent comp is in line.

2 I know the company, obviously, believes
3 there have been some governance issues because I've
4 seen public disclosures about sort of a revamped
5 comp -- revamped comp procedures and audit
6 procedures.

10:56AM

7 And, you know, I think in my review of the 8 proxy, the comp -- the peer group that the 9 compensation company uses -- used -- uses now and to 10 some extent before, to determine comp, most of the 11 companies in there are substantially larger than 12 Reading. So I don't know to what extent
13 compensation is overstated. So there's all that 14 stuff.

10:57AM

15 But I think the bigger picture is that the 16 stock, I believe, is substantially undervalued, and 17 it's undervalued because the perception -- the 18 investor -- what I believe are investor perceptions
19 of lack of proper governance and all of this -- like 20 I said, the circus going on.

10:57AM

21 And so that I can't -- I think the stock is 22 undervalued by at least 25, 30, maybe even 23 40 percent. So that's, obviously, a bigger concern
24 than all these other issues.

25 Q. When you say the stock is overvalued --

1 responses to our concerns and felt that the -- that
2 investing -- quote, investing in litigation, which I
3 really don't like to do and didn't want to do, was 4 necessary.

5 Q. Do you feel like you've gotten the 11:58AM
6 company's attention in the manner you described?

7 A. I don't know. I mean, there is 8 surprisingly -- I feel like they've been 9 stonewalling. They're acting like they have
10 something to hide. I think they're behaving -- 11:58AM
11 they're wasting all kinds of money on this lawsuit.

12 I don't know whether I've gotten their 13 attention. It's -- particularly given where we -- 14 what I said it would take to avoid an escalation in 15 litigation. To me, it's shocking. To me, they're 11:58AM
16 stonewalling. They've built a moat around
17 themselves.

18 And we're not asking for control of the 19 company. We're not trying to sell the company.
20 We're not trying to break it up. We're asking for a 11:58AM
21 seat at the table, which would -- I think would add
22 expertise to what they have in the boardroom. We 23 think it would be value enhancing. I think the 24 share price will go up if we give them a Good
25 Housekeeping stamp of approval for their governance. 11:59AM

Page 120

1 And yet this company keeps fighting and --
2 like they have something to hide. So as long as 3 they act like they have something to hide, it makes
4 me think that they have something to hide.

5 So I don't know if they've gotten the 11:59AM
6 message or not. I really don't think they do. I
7 don't know who's calling the shots, but to me, it
8 is -- it's incredibly disappointing. And I think 9 they're wasting shareholder money and they're 10 wasting their own money. They own most of the 11:59AM
11 stock. So what the hell are they doing?

12 Q. You used the phrase "stonewalling" and 13 "acting like they got something to hide," and I want 14 to figure out what specifically you're referring to.

15 Are you referring to their litigation of 11:59AM
16 the case, that is to say, not selling --

17 A. Well --

18 Q. -- it, but fighting it?

19 A. Well, I can tell you and -- you know, we 20 had a meeting in October where they said they were 12:00PM
21 going to give us information, and they didn't. They 22 didn't deliver on what they said they were going to 23 do until they were forced to.

24 They obviously don't want any outsider in 25 the boardroom. That tells me that they have 12:00PM

1 Q. Okay.

2 And that's true for the entirety of Exhibit 17;
3 correct?

4 A. Yes, I would say so.

5 Q. Okay.

6 So if you would, beneath the handwritten date on 7 the first page of Exhibit 17, be so kind as to read for 8 us the handwritten notes, just on the first page of 9 Plaintiff's 17.

10 A. "Long board discussion ended with basically a 11 comment from majority, 'Jim, go settle something with 12 sisters in next day or you will be terminated.' It has 13 to go to doc by 2:00 p.m. Had to fly to San Diego, so
14 put off to 6:00 p.m., conference call. Had conference
15 call at 6:00 p.m. EC," being Ellen Cotter, "reported
16 attempted agreement between the three of them to be 17 documented over the weekend. Jim reserves right to talk
18 to lawyers. EC read over the terms that affected
19 company, as she stated it. Terms are under management,
20 but all conditional on board approval after the Cotters
21 had a deal."

22 On this, I said, "Wait and see. Ed said, 'Great,
23 hope now Jim would be CEO for 30 years and do a great 24 job.'" And I say, "Complete change to earlier saying he 25 would never be a good CEO," exclamation mark.

1 Q. And so you wrote those notes at or shortly
2 after the board meeting on May 29, 2015?

3 A. I did.

4 Q. And when Ellen Cotter reported a tentative
5 agreement, did you understand that that agreement
6 included matters that were in dispute in the trust and 7 estate litigation?

8 A. It did.

9 Q. And did she say that or had that previously
10 been discussed? How did you have that understanding?

11 A. My recollection is that Ellen Cotter came back
12 and said, as I've noted, that a tentative arrangement
13 had been made, and she said a number of things had been 14 resolved -- or had been resolved in draft, and then 15 mentioned a few things I think around the company
16 management.

17 Q. Okay.

18 And did you or any of the other non-Cotter
19 directors ask for clarification as to whether the 20 settlement was, in effect, a global settlement that 21 would end all litigation?

22 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Lacks foundation.

23 THE WITNESS: That was my understanding.

24 MR. KRUM:

25 Q. And so the first of the two parts of this board

1 meeting on May 29, 2015, was the one that concluded with
2 the majority telling Jim Cotter, Jr. to go settle
3 something with his sisters in the next hour, or whatever
4 the period of time was, or you'll be terminated; is that
5 right?

6 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Misstates prior testimony.

7 THE WITNESS: That's what my -- That's what my note
8 says.

9 MR. KRUM:

10 Q. And is that your recollection of what happened?

11 A. That's what my note says --

12 Q. Okay.

13 But is that --

14 A. -- in general terms.

15 Q. Does that comport with your recollection of 16 what happened?

17 A. In general terms, yes.

18 Q. Okay.

19 Is there any respect in which your recollection
20 differs from what your notes say?

21 A. No.

22 Q. All right.

23 Well, it's time for Mark's conference call. It's 24 as good a time as any to take a break.

25 MR. FERRARIO: Thank you.

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Going off the video record at
2 12:44 p.m.

3 (A lunch recess is taken.)

4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're going back on the video 5 record at 1:57 p.m.

6 MR. KRUM:

7 Q. Mr. Storey, you understand that you are still 8 under oath?

9 A. I do.

10 Q. Okay.

11 Let's take a look back at Exhibit 17. With respect
12 to the second entry on the first page, it ended with 13 basically a comment from majority, "Jim, go settle 14 something with sisters in next hour or you will be 15 terminated." Do you see that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Who said that, in words or substance?

18 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

19 THE WITNESS: The majority, reading the notes.

20 MR. KRUM:

21 Q. The majority being Messrs. --

22 A. Oh, I would -- Yes.

23 Q. Who is that?

24 A. I would intend that Doug McEachern, Guy Adams
25 and Ed Kane.

1 Q. As well as Ellen and Margaret?

2 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Lacks foundation.

3 THE WITNESS: I don't think I would have intended 4 that.

5 MR. KRUM: Okay.

6 Q. At any time after -- At any time after the two 7 telephone calls about which you testified earlier, the 8 first with Mr. McEachern and the second with Mr. Adams,
9 did either of them ever say or communicate or indicate
10 anything to suggest that either or both of them were 11 reassessing their decisions -- their respective 12 decisions to vote to terminate Mr. Cotter, Jr.?

13 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague, compound.

14 THE WITNESS: I don't recollect anything.

15 MR. KRUM:

16 Q. And at any time at -- Strike that.

17 At any time after the conclusion of the resumed
18 board meeting on May 29, 2015, did Mr. Kane ever
19 communicate anything that you understood to suggest that 20 in the absence of a settlement between Jim Cotter, Jr.
21 on one hand and Ellen and Margaret Cotter on the other,
22 he was prepared to revisit his decision to vote to 23 terminate Mr. Cotter as president and CEO?

24 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Foundation.

25 THE WITNESS: Not to my recollection.

1 MR. KRUM:

2 Q. Take a look at the second page of Exhibit 17,
3 please. What does the last handwritten entry on that 4 page say?

5 A. It says, "Using corporate to settle matters."

6 Q. And to what were you referring when you wrote
7 that note?

8 A. I don't recollect.

9 Q. Is that a reference to the -- the board of 10 directors using the threat of termination of Jim 11 Cotter, Jr. as president and CEO to attempt to force a 12 settlement of the trust and estate disputes between Jim 13 Cotter, Jr. on one hand and Ellen and Margaret Cotter on 14 the other hand?

15 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague. Lacks foundation.

16 THE WITNESS: I don't recollect. It's the issue of 17 brief handwritten notes, isn't it?

18 MR. KRUM: Okay.

19 Q. Two lines above that, in terms of two 20 handwritten lines --

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. -- it says something -- "get court" something.
23 Can you read that?

24 A. "Get court decision on who can vote."

25 Q. And to what does that refer?

8 course, she was interested in remaining involved, one

TAKEN ON MAY 3, 2016
VOLUME 2

Job no. 305191
PATRICIA L. HUBBARD, CSR #3400

1 BY MR. KRUM:

2 Q. Mr. Kane, do you recognize Exhibit 118?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. And Exhibit 118 is an email exchange
5 between Jim Cotter, Jr., and you on May 27 and 28,
6 2015, correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. The first email on the second page of 9 Exhibit 118 is an email from Jim Cotter, Jr., to you
10 on May 27 in which he recites points of a proposal
11 he had made to Margaret Cotter the evening before,
12 right?

13 A. That's what it says.

14 Q. Okay. Did you ever discuss with him or 15 Margaret or anybody else the proposal he recited in 16 this email?

17 A. No. Not to my knowledge.

18 Q. And then at the bottom of page one and 19 the top of the second page of Exhibit 118 is your 20 email response, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. The first sentence reads, quote,
23 "Ellen is going to present you with 24 a global plan to end the litigation
25 and move the company forward,"

1 close quote.

2 Do you see that? At the top --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- of the second page?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. How did you know that?

7 A. I probably had a telephone call with 8 her.

9 Q. What did she say; what did you say?

10 A. I don't recall what I said, but she must 11 have told me that she's going to give him a 12 proposal.

13 I didn't care to hear it.

14 Q. The next sentence -- in the next
15 sentence you wrote, quote,

16 "If you agree to it, you, Ellen,
17 Margaret" --

18 Strike that. Let me try it again.

19 Quote,

20 "If you agree to it, you, Ellen and 21 Margaret will work in a
22 collaborative manner and you will
23 retain your title," close quote.

24 You see that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. How did you know that?

2 A. Ellen must have told me. But prior to 3 that at a board meeting around this time when they
4 were -- Margaret had made -- well, let me back off.

5 My recollection is Bill Gould had made a
6 motion that -- and don't -- I don't know which day
7 in May it was -- that he remain as C.E.O. -- not as 8 C.E.O., but as president, in effect taking away his 9 title of C.E.O.

10 And Margaret stepped in and said no, he 11 should keep his title as C.E.O. And so I knew that 12 aspect of it.

13 Q. Let me inter- -- pose a question,
14 Mr. Kane.

15 A. Sure.

16 Q. How did you know that the proposal --
17 strike that.

18 How did you know that the global plan to 19 end litigation that you told Jim Cotter on May 27
20 Ellen Cotter was going to present him included a 21 term that provided that Mr. Cotter would retain his 22 title?

23 A. She must have told me that, but it was a
24 follow-up, as I said, to the proposal of Margaret
25 Cotter that he retain his title as C.E.O.

1 Q. Did you ever see any of the written --
2 any written proposal provided by or for Ellen and/or 3 Margaret to Jim Cotter, Jr.?

4 A. I don't think so.

5 Q. The next sentence of your May 27
6 email --

7 A. Uh-huh.

8 Q. -- at the bottom of the first and top of 9 the second page of Exhibit 118 says, quote,

10 "There are some aspects that will
11 not please you. No compromises
12 pleases anyone 100 percent. But I
13 truly believe that if you accept it
14 as given, it will enhance the 15 company, benefit you and your
16 sisters, and allow you to work
17 together going forward until the 18 next generation takes over,"
19 period, close-quote.

20 Do you see that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now, when you said in this email on 23 May 27th --

24 A. Uh-huh.

25 Q. -- to Jim Cotter, Jr., quote, "if you

1 accept it as given," close quote, were you
2 communicating to him that you had been told or you
3 expected that the global plan Ellen was going to 4 provide him was a take-it-or-leave-it proposal?

5 MR. SEARCY: Objection. Argumentative
6 and lacks foundation.

7 THE WITNESS: I think that -- my
8 recollection is that I was told by Ellen that they 9 had made compromises, and this is as far as they
10 were going to go. And -- but I did not see -- ever
11 see the total proposal.

12 BY MR. KRUM:

13 Q. So you understood from your conversation
14 with Ellen that the proposal of Ellen -- the global 15 plan to handle litigation that Ellen was going to 16 provide to Jim Cotter, Jr., was what it was to which 17 Ellen and Margaret would agree and that they would 18 make no further compromises?

19 A. That's my understanding at that time.

20 Q. When you said in the sentence I read a 21 moment ago, quote, "there are some aspects that will 22 not please you," close quote, to what were you
23 referring?

24 A. Nothing more than what Ellen told me.
25 He didn't get everything, so -- that he wanted, but

1 I did not want to go into the details.

2 It's the reason that I didn't want to
3 sit in with them.

4 Q. So when you said, quote, "there are some 5 aspects that will not please you," close quote, what 6 you were actually communicating is that "Ellen told
7 me you didn't get everything you wanted"?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. I direct your attention to the 10 first page of Exhibit 118.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You see that in his May 28 email to you,
13 Jim Cotter relates that the proposal he received,
14 quote,

15 "Was communicated as a 16 take-it-or-leave-it proposal,"
17 close quote.

18 Do you see that?

19 A. Where are those words again?

20 Q. It's Mr. Cotter's email to you, sir.

21 It's in the second --

22 A. Oh.

23 Q. It's at the end of the first and 24 beginning of the second line.

25 A. Oh, okay. I'm looking at the wrong one.

1 Yes, I see that.

2 Q. Okay. Directing your attention,
3 Mr. Kane, to your May 28th email reply --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- above, you see you say in effect if 6 the proposal, quote, "leaves you with the 7 position" -- when you say that at the end of the 8 second line, you're referring to the position of 9 C.E.O., correct?

10 A. Correct.
