- Mr. Turner advised the argument was originally scheduled for March 6, 2016 and Mr. Di Giacomo was aware of that date and prepared to go forward; however, Mr. Turner further advised the matter was rescheduled and the new date was not forward to Mr. Di Giacomo. Colloquy regarding the Petition and the matter being reset. Court noted the Petition was a legal issue and provided Mr. Turner with the Burnside vs. State case for review. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Turner advised he reviewed the case. Court summarized the Petition and noted that a video was played for the Grand Jury and the Detective testified that on a different electronic system he was able to zoom in and freeze frame certain things and from his observation it was Defendant that had a gun. Court stated the video played in front of the Grand Jury did not have the capability of zooming in and freeze framing. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Wooldridge concurred with the Court's summarization. Mr. Wooldridge argued that what was testified to in front of the Grand Jury was inadmissible hearsay and the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus should be granted. Mr. Turner argued that the video itself was admitted and the Officer testified to what he did and observed thereafter the jurors were able to review the video and weigh the Officer's testimony and make a decision. Mr. Turner further argued it goes to weight of the evidence and not to whether the Officer's testimony was admissible. Court stated it did not see it was a hearsay situation and the Officer testified to what he observed. Court further stated under Burnside the Officer was entitled to give duration of the video that was being shown to the Grand Jurors. COURT ORDERED, Petition DENIED. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Trial date STANDS. Colloquy regarding Defendant's Motion regarding medical treatment scheduled for February 21, 2016. Court noted, as Judge Villani is out this afternoon the Law Clerk after consulting with Judge Villani brought Defendant's Emergency Motion to Continue Trial filed by Mr. Woolridge today for this Court to handle. However, the Court further notes that this matter cannot be addressed if counsel for the other 3 Defendants are not on the call; the motion also appears to have only been served on the State, which would make it improper. Upon his request, Court permitted Mr. Woolridge to contact counsel for the other Defendants to see if they can be placed on the call.

Mr. Woolridge advised he was unable to reach the other attorneys. Law Clerk advised that per the Court, trial will PROCEED as scheduled on Monday, March 13. Mr. Woolridge stated he will re-file the motion.

PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL: Voir Dire of panel continued. Peremptory Challenges exercised by counsel. CONFERENCE AT BENCH.

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY: Court noted the Peremptory Challenges have been exercised by both sides. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Wooldridge requested to make a challenge to the State striking Juror #467. Mr. Wooldridge argued Juror #467 was in a protected group as he was Black. Mr. Wooldridge further argued there were only two Black potential jurors on the panel as one of them were struck. Mr. Wooldridge argued Juror #467 gave good answers and believe he was struck because he was Black. Mr. Giordani argued the Defense needed to make a Prima facie showing a pattern of discrimination against a protected class. Mr. Giordani further argued a single strike was not a pattern and a Prima facie case regarding Batson had not been made. Mr. Giordani noted the State disagreed with Mr. Wooldridge assessment of the jury panel. Mr. Giordani further noted the concern for the State was Juror #467 provided several self-defense scenarios thereafter the Court cured the issue and the State did not follow up with Juror #467 as the reason the juror #467 was struck. Further arguments by counsel, COURT STATED its findings and ORDERED, Batson Challenge DENIED.

PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL: Twelve jurors and three alternates selected and sworn. Jury list FILED IN OPEN COURT. Clerk read the Second Amended Indictment to the jury and stated the Defendants plea thereto. Court provided preliminary instructions to the jury. Opening statements by Mr. Rose and Mr. Wooldridge. CONFERENCE AT BENCH.

OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY PANEL: Mr. Giordani argued there had been pre-trial litigation regarding the victim's history and the Defense attempted to illicit specific acts committed by the victim in order to show he was violent. Mr. Giordani argued this was precluded by law unless the State's opens the door to that evidence. Mr. Giordani noted the matter was litigated on Friday in front of Judge Villani and a specific ruling was made that anything regarding the victims prior robberies was not admissible. Mr. Giordani argued Mr. Wooldridge violated the Court's order and this was grounds for a mistrial. Mr. Wooldridge argued that he didn't refer to prior bad acts, he referred to the victim's reputation. Further argument by Mr. Rose. Court stated its findings and ORDERED, request DENIED for a Mistrial.

PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL: Opening statements continued. Testimony and exhibits presented (see worksheet). COURT admonished Jury for evening recess and ORDERED, Trial CONTINUED.

Counsel submitted on the pleadings. Upon Court s inquiry, Mr. Wooldridge stated Defendant was not making any claims against him. Court reviewed the Stipulation signed by the parties on May 26. According to pleadings, the charges were filed eight months prior to trial, and Defendant was present when the jury was qualified to render the sentencing decision.
