Second Judicial District Court

- Fitzsimmons v. MDB Trucking LLC et al., Case No. CV15-02349
- Remmerde v. Daniel Anthony Koski; MDB Trucking, LLC et al., Case No. CV16-00976

On December 8, 2017, the Court filed an Order dismissing MDB's Cross-Claim in the Fitzsimmons matter. The Notice of Entry was filed on December 29, 2017. Based upon its December 8, 2017 Order, the Court filed an Order dismissing MDB's Cross-Claim in the Remmerde matter on January 22, 2018. The Notice of Entry was filed on February 8, 2018. Both of these matters are pending appeal before this Court.

8. Nature of the action. Briefly describe the nature of the action and the result below:

This case arises from a personal injury action. A complaint was filed by Ernest and Carol Fitzsimmons on December 4, 2015, Fitzsimmons v. MDB Trucking, LLC, et al., Second Judicial District Court Case No. CV15-02349 (the “Fitzsimmons Action”). Numerous other plaintiffs were consolidated into the Fitzsimmons Action. Two additional cases, the instant matter and the above-referenced Remmerde matter, were filed outside of the Fitzsimmons Action. The personal injury claims all related to multiple traffic accidents which occurred when a semi-trailer owned and operated by MDB inadvertently dumped a load of gravel on the freeway.

In the instant case being appealed, the Third Party Complaint at issue filed by MDB is one for Contribution from Versa Products Company, Inc. (“Versa”). On May 15, 2017, Versa filed a Motion to Strike MDB’s Third Party Complaint, pursuant to NRCP 37, wherein it sought sanctions for the alleged spoliation of evidence. Following briefing and a hearing on August 29, 2017 in the Fitzsimmons Action, the District Court issued an Order dated September 22, 2017 in which it found “there would be some sanctions levied on MDB for their discovery abuse: the actual sanction was not determined.” The District Court’s Order set the matter for evidentiary hearing and further stated “Each party will be familiar with Young, supra, Nevada Power, supra, and their progeny and present witnesses in support of their respective positions.” The District Court issued its September 22, 2017 Order without discussion of the Supreme Court’s holding in Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122 Nev. 442, 134 P.3d 103 (2006).

The District Court held the evidentiary hearing to determine what sanctions to issue against MDB on October 13, 2017. At the conclusion of the hearing the District Court informed the parties that Versa’s Motion to Strike would be granted and that case concluding sanctions would be imposed. Thereafter the District Court vacated the October 30, 2017 trial date in the Fitzsimmons Action and took the matter under submission. At the time it granted case concluding sanctions and vacated the trial date pending shortly thereafter, the District Court had nineteen (19) pre-trial motions under advisement.

The District Court subsequently entered its final written Order in the Fitzsimmons Action on December 8, 2017. Thereafter, in the instant matter, the District Court issued an Order dated January 22, 2018 which held that the aforementioned Order in the Fitzsimmons Action shall be considered dispositive herein as “[t]he issues are identical, as are the relevant parties.” Versa served MDB with Notice of Entry of the District Court’s Order on February 8, 2018, and MDB’s timely appeal followed. In imposing case concluding sanctions pursuant to NRCP 37, the District Court again failed to consider the Supreme Court’s long-standing spoliation of evidence jurisprudence, including the limitations on the degree of sanctions to be imposed for negligent spoliation of evidence under Bass-Davis v. Davis.

9. Issues on appeal. State specifically all issues in this appeal (attach separate sheets as necessary):

1) Whether the District Court abused its discretion by imposing case concluding sanctions pursuant to NRCP 37, where the District Court failed to consider the Supreme Court’s long-standing spoliation of evidence jurisprudence, including the limitations on the degree of sanctions to be imposed for negligent spoliation of evidence under Bass-Davis v. Davis.

2) Whether the District Court committed legal error when it applied the definition of “willfulness” set forth in Childers v. State, 100 Nev. 280, 283, 680 P.2d 598, 599 (1984), a child abuse prosecution, to its analysis pursuant to NRCP 37 and Young v. Ribeiro Building Inc., 106 Nev. 88, 787 P.2d 777 (1990), as to whether MDB acted willfully. In Childers, the definition of “willfully” was derived from the child abuse statute, NRS 200.508 and California Penal Code Section 7(1), and approved for use only in a criminal context involving child abuse. See also Sonia F. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 125 Nev. 495, 215 P.3d 705 (2009) (Where the legislature has explicitly applied a rule to one type of proceeding, a court construing the rule will presume it deliberately excluded the rule’s application to other types of proceedings).

10. Pending proceedings in this court raising the same or similar issues. If you are aware of any proceedings presently pending before this court which raises the same or similar issues raised in this appeal, list the case name and docket number and identify the same or similar issue raised.

Please see responses to Nos. 6 and 8, above.

11. Constitutional issues. If this appeal challenges the constitutionality of a statute, and the state, any state agency, or any officer or employee thereof is not a party to this appeal, have you notified the clerk of this court and the attorney general in accordance with NRAP 44 and NRS 30.130?

☒ N/A

☐ Yes

☐ No

If not, explain:

12. Other issues. Does this appeal involve any of the following issues?

☐ Reversal of well-settled Nevada precedent (identify the cases(s))

☐ An issue arising under the United States and/or Nevada Constitutions

☐ A substantial issue of first impression

☐ An issue of public policy

☐ An issue where en banc consideration is necessary to maintain uniformity of this court’s decisions

☐ A ballot question

If so, explain:

Not applicable.

13. Assignment to the Court of Appeals or retention in the Supreme Court.

MDB respectfully asserts that this matter is presumptively retained by the Supreme Court, pursuant to NRAP 17(a)(10) and/or (11). The Supreme Court further clarified its spoliation jurisprudence in Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122 Nev. 442, 134 P.3d 103 (2006), but it remains a question of first impression and/or inconsistency in the published decisions of the Appellate Courts what impact the Bass-Davis decision has on a district court's exercise of discretion to impose sanctions under NRCP 37. It is MDB's position in the instant case that the District Court failed to recognize the limitations on the degree of sanctions to be imposed for negligent or willful spoliation of evidence under Bass-Davis and abused its discretion in entering case concluding sanctions.

To the extent this matter could otherwise be viewed as presumptively assigned to the Court of Appeals pursuant to NRAP (17)(b)(5), MDB respectfully requests the Supreme Court retain the case despite the presumptive assignment for all of the reasons stated above.

14. Trial. If this action proceeded to trial, how many days did the trial last?

Not applicable.

Was it a bench or jury trial?

Not applicable.

15. Judicial Disqualification. Do you intend to file a motion to disqualify or have a justice recuse him/herself from participation in this appeal? If so, which Justice?

No.

16. Date of entry of written judgment or order appealed from.

Order signed and filed on January 22, 2018

Notice of Entry Order filed on February 8, 2018

If no written judgment or order was filed in the district court, explain the basis for seeking appellate review:

Not applicable.

17. Date written notice of entry of judgment or order appealed from: December 28, 2017

Was service by:

(c) Date written notice of entry of order resolving tolling motion was served _____

Was service by:

☐ Delivery

Not applicable.

20. Date notice of appeal filed: March 8, 2018

If more than one party has appealed from the judgment or order, list the date each notice of appeal was filed and identify by name the party filing the notice of appeal:

Not applicable.

21. Specify statute or rule governing the time limit for filing the notice of appeal, e.g., NRAP 4(a) or other

N.R.A.P. 4(a)(1)

SUBSTANTIVE APPEALABILITY

22. Specify the statute or other authority granting this court jurisdiction to review the judgment or order appeal from:

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NRAP 3A(b)(1)	<input type="checkbox"/>	NRS 38.205
<input type="checkbox"/>	NRAP 3A(b)(2)	<input type="checkbox"/>	NRS 233B.150
<input type="checkbox"/>	NRAP 3A(b)(3)	<input type="checkbox"/>	NRS 703.376
<input type="checkbox"/>	Other (specify)

(b) Explain how each authority provides a basis for appeal from the judgment or order:

The District Court's Order resolved all issues in dispute raised by Appellant's Cross-Claim. There is nothing remaining to be adjudicated by the parties.

N.R.A.P. 3A(b)(1) allows an appeal to be taken from the final judgment or orders of a district court.

22. List all parties involved in the action or consolidated actions in the district court:

(a) Parties:

(1) MDB Trucking, LLC

(2) Versa Products Company, Inc.

(b) If all parties in the district court are not parties to this appeal, explain in detail why those parties are not involved in this appeal, e.g., formally dismissed, not served, or other:

Not applicable.

23. Give a brief description (3 to 5 words) of each party's separate claims, counterclaims, cross-claims, or third-party claims and the date of formal disposition of each claim.

MDB's cross-claim for Contribution against Versa.

24. Did the judgment or order appeal from adjudicate ALL the claims alleged below and the rights and liabilities of ALL the parties to the action or consolidated actions below?

☒ Yes

☐ No

25. If you answered "No" to question 23, complete the following:

(a) Specify the claims remaining pending below:

(b) Specify the parties remaining below:

(c) Did the district court certify the judgment or order appealed from as a final judgment pursuant to NRCP 54(b)?

☐ Yes

☐ No

(d) Did the district court make an express determination, pursuant to NRCP 54(b), that there is no just reason for delay and an express direction for the entry of judgment?

- ☐ Yes
☐ No

26. If you answered "No" to any part of question 24, explain the basis for seeking appellate review (e.g., order is independently appealable under NRAP 3A(b)):

27. Attach file-stamped copies of the following documents:

- The latest-filed complaint, counterclaims, cross-claims, and third-party claims
- Any tolling motion(s) and order(s) resolving tolling motion(s)
- Order of NRCP 41(a) dismissals formally resolving each claim, counterclaims, cross-claims and/or third-party claims asserted in the action or consolidated action below, even if not at issue on appeal
- Any other order challenged on appeal
- Notices of entry for each attached order

AND RELATED CROSS-CLAIMS.

MDB TRUCKING, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company,

Third-Party Plaintiff,

vs.

THE MODERN GROUP GP-SUB, INC., a
Texas corporation and general partnership;
DRAGON ESP, LTD., a Texas limited partnership; and DOES 1-10 and BLACK
AND WHITE COMPANIES 1-10,

Third-Party Defendants.

COMES NOW the Defendant/Third-Party Plaintiff, MDB Trucking, LLC (hereinafter "MDB") by and through its counsel of record Thorndal Armstrong Delk Balkenbush & Eisinger, and hereby brings this Third-Party Complaint against Third-Party Defendants the Modern Group
GP-Sub, Inc. and Dragon ESP, Ltd. and hereby allege as follows.

1 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

2 (General Allegations)

3 1. Third-Party Plaintiff incorporates herein that Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint
4 solely for the purposes of establishing that a First Amended Complaint has been filed against 5 MDB Trucking, LLC, but without admitting the truth of any allegation therein except for such 6 allegations which may have been admitted in Third-Party Plaintiff's Answer. Third-Party
7 Plaintiff is informed and believes and therefore alleges that the matters referred to in Third-Party
8 Plaintiff's Complaint were proximately caused by the acts and omissions of Third-Party
9 Defendants.

10 2. Third-Party Plaintiff MDB Trucking, LLC was at all relevant times a Nevada
11 limited liability company authorized to conduct business within the State of Nevada.

12 3. Third-Party Defendants DOES 1-10 and BLACK AND WHITE COMPANIES 1-13 10 are sued herein under fictitious names and the true names and capacities of said Third-Party
14 Defendants are not known by Third-Party Plaintiff who asked leave of court to amend this Third-
15 Party Complaint to set forth same as it becomes known or ascertained.

16 4. Defendant RMC Lamar Holdings, Inc. (fka Ranch Manufacturing) was at all 17 relevant times hereto a Colorado corporation engaged in the business of designing and 18 manufacturing trailers and semi-trailers and placed same into the stream of commerce and was 19 doing business in the State of Nevada.

20 5. Third-Party Defendant the Modern Group GP-Sub, Inc. was at all relevant times
21 hereto a Texas corporation and the general partner of Dragon ESP, Ltd., a Texas limited
22 partnership.

23 6. Third-Party Defendant Dragon ESP, Ltd. was at all relevant times a Texas limited 24 partnership.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 7. A Complaint was filed on July 7, 2016 in the Tenth Judicial District Court, Case
2 No. 16-10DC-0824, Department I in which the Plaintiff James Bible prayed for damages against 3 Defendant MDB Trucking, LLC alleging negligence in regards to an accident which occurred on 4 July 7, 2014 where a trailer owned by MDB Trucking, LLC spilled a load of gravel causing an 5 accident and injury which are claims presented by Plaintiff.

6 8. Upon information and belief, the Ranco trailer was activated inadvertently causing 7 the gates of the semi-trailer to release a subject load of gravel on the highway and was defective
8 in whole or in part as designed by the Defendant RMC Lamar Holdings, Inc. (fka Ranch 9 Manufacturing Company) (also known by the trade name and trademark Ranco).

10 9. Defendant RMC Lamar Holdings, Inc. manufactured the subject Ranco trailer in 11 2002 under the vehicle brand Ranco with VIN No. 1R9BP45082L008431 Idaho Plate No.
12 TE3528.

13 10. Third-Party Defendants acquired Ranch Manufacturing on or about August 1, 14 2007 through an Asset Purchase Agreement.

15 11. Upon information and belief, Third-Party Defendant Dragon, ESP has continued
16 to sell Ranco trailers and semi-trailers with the same components within the same general market
17 and to same customers.

18 12. Third-Party Defendant Dragon ESP has maintained its manufacturing and 19 assembly locations in the same venue of Lamar, Colorado after its acquisition of Ranch
20 Manufacturing Company.

21 13. William Carder the former President and owner of Ranch Manufacturing, Inc.
22 became an officer with Dragon ESP, Ltd. and maintained his position as Vice-President for 23 Ranco through all relevant times up to and including 2013.

24 14. Upon information and belief, Dragon ESP, Ltd. is a de facto successor to Ranch
25 Manufacturing, Inc. and has engaged in substantial continuation of Ranco's business.

26 15. Dragon ESP, Ltd. is liable to Third-Party Plaintiff to the same extent as RMC
27 Lamar Holdings, Inc. (fka Ranch Manufacturing Company).

28 ///

1 16. Third-Party Plaintiff MDB Trucking, LLC in 2012 was the last purchaser and end
2 user of the subject Ranco trailer.

3 17. On or before 2002, the Ranco trailer that left Ranch Manufacturing's control as 4 designed, assembled, and manufactured by Ranco was unreasonably dangerous and defective in 5 one or more of the following respects:

6 a. The semi-trailer was designed, assembled and manufactured and/or 7 configured in such a manner that the Versa solenoid valve would activate inadvertently allowing 8 the gates to open and release the load carried by the trailer; and

9 b. The Ranco trailer was designed, assembled, manufactured and/or configured
10 in such a manner that the Versa Valve was not equipped with a safety lock to prevent inadvertent 11 activation allowing the gates to open.

12 18. Ranch Manufacturing knew that Versa Products Company, Inc. had a safer
13 design available in the stream of commerce on or about 2002 which employed a manual lock 14 safety design, and that same should have been provided to its end use customers in lieu of the 15 Versa Valve model incorporated in the subject Ranco trailer.

16 19. To the extent Plaintiff was injured as a proximate result of the unreasonably 17 dangerous conditions and defects at the time of manufacturing or negligent design, such as a
18 direct and proximate result of the negligence of Third-Party Defendants; and any negligence that 19 exists as alleged by the Plaintiffs is expressly denied. Third-Party Defendants were actively 20 negligent and Third-Party Plaintiff was passively negligent.

21 20. Third-Party Defendants' breach of duty of care owed to the Third-Party Plaintiff
22 and Third-Party Defendants are required to indemnify and hold Third-Party Plaintiff harmless
23 with respect to all allegations and liabilities as set forth in the First Amended Complaint filed in 24 this matter.

25 21. Third-Party Plaintiff has placed Third-Party Defendants on notice of claims 26 pending in this matter.

1 22. Third-Party Plaintiff is required to expend costs and attorneys' fees in defending
2 the negligence claims in the First Amended Complaint on file herein and for prosecuting the 3 instant Third-Party Complaint.

4 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

5 (Implied Indemnification as to Third-Party Defendants)

6 23. Third-Party Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 7 1-22 as more fully set forth herein.

8 24. Third-Party Plaintiff is therefore entitled to complete indemnification against 9 Third-Party Defendants with respect to all allegations or liabilities set forth in the First Amended 10 Complaint on file in this matter.

11 25. Third-Party Plaintiff is entitled to all costs and fees expended in the defense of 12 claims of negligence in this matter as well as prosecution of this Third-Party Complaint.

13 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

14 (Contribution as to Third-Party Defendants)

15 26. Third-Party Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in 16 paragraphs 1-25 above as if more fully set forth herein.

17 27. Third-Party Plaintiff is entitled to contribution from Third-Party Defendants with 18 respect to any settlement, judgment, awards or any other type of resolution or claims brought 19 forward by the Plaintiffs in their First Amended Complaint on file herein.

20 28. Third-Party Plaintiff is entitled to all costs and fees expended in defense of claims 21 of negligence in this matter as well as prosecution of the Third-Party Complaint.

22 WHEREFORE, Third-Party Plaintiff demands judgment against Third-Party Defendants 23 as follows:

- 24 1. For implied indemnification with respect to all negligence claims brought against 25 Third-Party Plaintiff in this matter;
- 26 2. For contribution with respect to all negligence claims brought against Third-Party
27 Plaintiff in this matter;
- 28 3. For attorneys' fees and costs expended in this matter; and

1 4. For such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper in the 2 premises.

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHOE

JAMES BIBLE,

Plaintiff,

Case No. CV16-01914

Dept. No. 10

vs.

MDB TRUCKING, LLC; et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER

Presently before the Court is DEFENDANT/CROSS CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC's CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO NRCP 35; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE JURY INSTRUCTION ("the Motion"). The Motion was filed by Defendant/Cross-Claimant/Cross-Defendant VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC. ("Versa") on May 15, 2017. Defendant/Cross-Claimant MDB TRUCKING, LLC ("MDB") did not file an Opposition to the Motion.¹ See WDCR 12(2). The Motion was submitted for the Court's consideration on December 12, 2017.

This case arises from a personal injury action. A COMPLAINT was filed by plaintiffs Ernest Bruce Fitzsimmons and Carol Fitzsimmons, on December 4, 2015 ("the Fitzsimmons Action"). The Fitzsimmons Action was assigned Second Judicial District Court case number CV15-02349.

¹ The issues presented in the Motion were fully briefed in FITZSIMMONS, et al. v. MDB TRUCKING, LLC, et al., CV15-02349.

1 Numerous other plaintiffs were joined into the Fitzsimmons Action. Two additional cases were filed
2 and prosecuted outside of the Fitzsimmons Action: the instant case and GENEVA M. REMMERDE
3 v. MDB TRUCKING, LLC et al., CV16-00976 ("the Remmerde Action"). The instant action was
4 filed on September 20, 2016. The Remmerde Action was filed May 2, 2016. It is alleged in all three
5 actions that on July 7, 2014, Defendant Daniel Anthony Koski ("Koski"), while driving a truck for
6 MDB, negligently spilled a load of gravel into the roadway. The spilled gravel caused the driving
7 plaintiffs to lose control of their vehicles and numerous accidents occurred resulting in the three
8 separate cases. The plaintiffs sustained physical and emotional injuries as a result of the accidents.
9 In response to the complaint filed in the instant action, MDB filed a THIRD-PARTY COMPLAINT
10 ("the MDB Cross-Claim") September 20, 2016. The MDB Cross-Claim had two causes of action
11 relative to Versa: Implied Indemnification and Contribution.² MDB alleges it was not Koski's
12 negligence that caused the gravel to spill; rather, the spill was caused by the "unreasonably
13 dangerous and defective" design and manufacture of the trailer that held the gravel. The MDB
14 Cross-Claim, 4:3-5. Therefore, MDB brought the Cross-Claim against the manufacturers of the 15 trailer and its components, including Versa. MDB avers Versa produced a solenoid valve which 16 would, "activate inadvertently allowing the gates to open and release the load [of gravel] carried by 17 the trailer." The MDB Cross-Claim, 4:6-8. MDB also claims there were safer alternatives available
18 to Versa; the solenoid valve was unreasonably dangerous and defective; and Versa failed to provide 19 appropriate safety mechanisms regarding the solenoid valve. The MDB Cross-Claim, 4:12-15.

20 The Motion is the same as the motion practice in the Fitzsimmons Action and the Remmerde
21 Action. The issues are identical, as are the relevant parties. The Court issued an ORDER ("the
22 December Order") on December 8, 2017, in the Fitzsimmons Action. The December Order
23 conducted a thorough analysis of the issue presented in the Motion. See generally Young v. Johnny
24 Ribeiro Building, Inc., 106 Nev. 88, 787 P.2d 777 (1990), and NRCP 37. The Court found in the

27 CLAIMANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR IMPLIED INDEMNITY PURSUANT TO

is for Contribution.

1 December Order case concluding sanctions were an appropriate sanction for MDB's spoliation of

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

ERNEST BRUCE FITZSIMMONS, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

Case No. CV15-02349

vs.

MDB TRUCKING, LLC; et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER

Presently before the Court is DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO NRCP 35; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE JURY INSTRUCTION ("the Motion"). The Motion was filed by Defendant/Cross-Claimant/Cross-Defendant VERSA PRODUCTS, INC. ("Versa") on May 15, 2017.¹ Defendant/Cross-Claimant, MDB Trucking, LLC ("MDB") filed MDB'S OPPOSITION TO VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE AND/OR SPOLIATION INSTRUCTIONS ("the Opposition") on June 2, 2017. Versa filed DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA

¹ Versa filed the ERRATA TO DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO NRCP 37; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE JURY INSTRUCTION ("the Errata") on May 5, 2017. The Errata clarifies Versa is bringing the Motion pursuant to NRCP 37, not NRCP 35 as noted in the caption to the Motion. The reference to NRCP 35 is made only in the caption to the pleading; therefore, the Court presumes it is merely a typographical error.

1 PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S REPLY TO MDB'S OPPOSITION TO VERSA PRODUCTS
2 COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM
3 PURSUANT TO NRCP 37; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE JURY
4 INSTRUCTION ("the Reply") on June 12, 2017, and contemporaneously submitted the matter for
5 the Court's consideration. The Court entered an ORDER on August 1, 2017, setting the Motion
6 for oral argument.² The Court heard the arguments of counsel on August 29, 2017, and took the 7 matter under submission.

8 The Court felt case concluding sanctions were a potential discovery sanction for the alleged 9 abuse following the oral argument. An evidentiary hearing affording both sides the opportunity to 10 present witnesses was required given this conclusion. See generally, Nevada Power v. Fluor Illinois,
11 108 Nev. 638, 837 P.2d 1354 (1992). The Court entered an ORDER ("the September Order") on 12 September 22, 2017, directing the parties to set the matter for an evidentiary hearing. The 13 evidentiary hearing was conducted on October 13, 2017 ("the October Hearing"). Versa called one
14 expert witness, Scott Palmer ("Palmer"), and one lay witness Garrick Mitchell ("Mitchell") at the 15 October Hearing. MDB called one expert witness, Dr. David Bosch ("Dr. Bosch"), and two lay
16 witnesses, Patrick Bigby ("Bigby") and Erik Anderson ("Anderson") at the October Hearing. The 17 Court admitted numerous exhibits during the October Hearing. The Court permitted the parties to 18 argue their respective positions. Trial was scheduled to begin on October 30, 2017. The Court was 19 aware of its obligation to make detailed findings of facts and conclusions of law. Further, the Court
20 wanted to fulfill these obligations in a thoughtful manner and in writing pursuant to the mandates of 21 the Nevada Supreme Court. The Court informed the parties the Motion would be granted and
22 vacated the trial date. The Court took the matter under submission. This written ORDER follows.

23 This case arises from a personal injury action. A COMPLAINT ("the Complaint") was filed
24 by Plaintiffs Ernest Bruce Fitzsimmons and Carol Fitzsimmons, on December 4, 2015. Numerous
25 other plaintiffs were joined into the Fitzsimmons case. It is alleged on July 7, 2014, Defendant
26 Daniel Anthony Koski ("Koski"), while driving a truck for MDB, negligently spilled a load of 27

28 ² There were numerous other pre-trial motions scheduled for oral argument on the same date.

1 gravel into the roadway. The spilled gravel caused the driving plaintiffs to lose control of their
2 vehicles and numerous accidents occurred. The plaintiffs sustained physical and emotional injuries
3 as a result of the accidents. In response to the Complaint, MDB filed a THIRD-PARTY
4 COMPLAINT ("the MDB Cross-Claim") June 15, 2016. The MDB Cross-Claim had two causes
5 of action relative to Versa: Implied Indemnification and Contribution.³ MDB alleges it was not
6 Koski's negligence that caused the gravel to spill; rather, the spill was caused by the "unreasonably
7 dangerous and defective" design and manufacture of the trailer that held the gravel. The MDB
8 Cross-Claim, 3:5-7. Therefore, MDB brought the Cross-Claim against the manufacturers of the 9 trailer and its components, including Versa. MDB avers Versa produced a solenoid valve which 10 would, "activate inadvertently allowing the gates to open and release the load [of gravel] carried by 11 the trailer." The MDB Cross-Claim, 3:10-11. MDB also claims there were safer alternatives
12 available to Versa; the solenoid valve was unreasonably dangerous and defective; and Versa failed
13 to provide appropriate safety mechanisms regarding the solenoid valve. The MDB Cross-Claim, 14 3:12-18.

15 Versa has denied its product is defective and further denies any responsibility for the spilling
16 of the gravel. Additionally, Versa filed DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT VERSA PRODUCTS
17 COMPANY, INC.'S ANSWER TO PLAINTIFFS ERNEST BRUCE FITZSIMMONS AND 18 CAROL FITZSIMMONS' FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT AND CROSS-CLAIM AGAINST 19 MDB TRUCKING, LLC; DANIEL ANTHONY KOSKI; AND DOES I-X, INCLUSIVE ("the 20 Versa Cross-Claim") on June 29, 2016. The Versa Cross-Claim alleges one cause of action against 21 MDB: Contribution. Versa alleges MDB "negligently operated, maintained, owned, serviced and/or 22 entrusted the subject trailer...." The Versa Cross-Claim, 10:17-18. Versa and MDB are the only
23 remaining parties in this litigation: all of the plaintiffs consolidated into these proceedings, and all
24 of the other defendants have been dismissed and/or settled.

27 ³ Versa filed CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY INC.'S MOTION TO DISMISS CROSS-
28 CLAIMANT, MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR IMPLIED INDEMNITY PURSUANT
TO NRCP 12(B)(5) ("the MTD") on June 27, 2016. The Court granted the MTD on October 19, 2016. The only remaining cause of action alleged by MDB against Versa is for Contribution.

1 The Motion avers MDB has destroyed or disposed of critical evidence which directly
2 impacts Versa's ability to represent itself in the instant litigation. Specifically, the Motion contends
3 after the accident MDB continued to use the truck in question; failed to keep the truck in the same
4 condition as it was on the day in question; serviced the truck routinely; repaired and replaced the
5 electrical systems that control the solenoid which operated the Versa valve; and failed to take steps
6 to preserve this critical evidence knowing litigation was highly probable. The Opposition contends
7 there has been no spoliation of evidence in this case. Further, the Opposition posits there was
8 nothing more than routine maintenance done on the trailer; therefore, Versa's ability to defend itself
9 has not been impaired.

10 The Motion avers MDB had a duty to preserve the discarded electrical systems in 11 anticipation of the underlying action. In Fire Ins. Exchange v. Zenith Radio Corp., 103 Nev. 648,
12 651, 747 P.2d 911, 914 (1987), the Nevada Supreme Court held, "even where an action has not been
13 commenced and there is only a potential for litigation, the litigant is under a duty to preserve the 14 evidence which it knows or reasonably should know is relevant to the action." The Motion
15 concludes the appropriate sanction for the failure to preserve this crucial evidence should be
16 dismissal of the entire action. See generally Young v. Johnny Ribeiro Building Inc., 106 Nev. 88,
17 787 P.2d 777 (1990), and NRCP 37.

18 Discovery sanctions are within the discretion of the trial court. See Stubli v. Big D Int'l
19 Trucks, Inc., 107 Nev. 309, 312, 810 P.2d 785, 787 (1991), and Kelly Broadcasting v. Sovereign
20 Broadcast, 96 Nev. 188, 192, 606 P.2d 1089, 1092 (1980). "Generally, sanctions may only be
21 imposed where there has been willful noncompliance with the court's order, or where the adversary
22 process has been halted by the actions of the unresponsive party." Zenith, 103 Nev. at 651, 747
23 P.2d at 913 (citing Finkelman v. Clover Jewelers Blvd. Inc., 91 Nev. 146, 147, 532 P.2d 608, 609
24 (1975) and Skeen v. Valley Bank of Nevada, 89 Nev. 301, 303, 511 P.2d 1053, 1054 (1973)).
25 Accord GNLV Corp. v. Service Control Corp., 111 Nev. 866, 869, 900 P.2d 323, 325 (1995).
26 Dismissal of an entire action with prejudice is a dramatic punishment for a discovery abuse. The 27 Nevada Supreme Court cautions district courts the use of such a Draconian sanction should be 28 approached with caution. "The dismissal of a case, based upon a discovery abuse such as the

1 destruction or loss of evidence, 'should be used only in extreme situations; if less drastic sanctions
2 are available, they should be utilized.'" GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870, 900 P.2d at 326 (citation omitted).
3 Additionally, the Nevada Power Court held it was an abuse of discretion for a district court to grant
4 case concluding sanctions without an evidentiary hearing. The Nevada Power Court held the party
5 facing a case terminating sanction needs an "opportunity to present witnesses or to cross-examine
6 [the movant] or their experts with regard to [the discovery violations]." Nevada Power, 108 Nev. at 7 646, 837 P.2d at 1360. Cf. Bahena v. Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. ("Bahena II"), 126 Nev. 606,
8 612, 245 P.3d 1182, 1186 (2010).

9 The Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure provide that a party who fails to comply with discovery
10 orders or rules can be sanctioned for that failure. NRCP 37(b). Sanctions against a party can be
11 graduated in severity and can include: designation of facts to be taken as established; refusal to allow 12 the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses; prohibition of the 13 offending party from introducing designated matters in evidence; an order striking out pleadings or
14 parts thereof or dismissing the action; or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient
15 party. NRCP 37(b)(2). Case concluding sanctions need not be preceded by other less severe
16 sanction. GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870, 900 P.2d at 325. A disobedient party can also be required to pay
17 the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees caused by the failure. NRCP 37(b)(2)(F).

18 The Young Court adopted an eight factor analysis ("the Young factors") district courts must 19 go through if they feel a discovery abuse is so severe it warrants dismissal. The Young Court held,
20 "every order of dismissal with prejudice as a discovery sanction be supported by an express, careful
21 and preferably written explanation of the court's analysis of the pertinent factors." Young, 106 Nev.
22 at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. The Young factors are as follows: (1) the degree of willfulness of the 23 offending party; (2) the extent to which the non-offending party would be prejudiced by a lesser
24 sanction; (3) the severity of the sanction of dismissal relative to the severity of the discovery abuse;
25 (4) whether any evidence has been irreparably lost; (5) the feasibility and fairness of less severe
26 sanctions; (6) the policy favoring adjudication on the merits; (7) whether sanctions unfairly operate
27 to penalize a party for the misconduct of his or her attorney; and (8) the need to deter parties and
28 future litigants from similar abuses. Id. In discovery abuse situations where possible case-

1 concluding sanctions are warranted, the trial judge has discretion in deciding which factors are to be
2 considered on a "case-by-case" basis. Bahena II, 126 Nev. at 610, 245 P.3d at 1185 (citing Higgs v.
3 State, 126 Nev. 1, 17, 222 P.3d 648, 658 (2010)). The Young factor list is not exhaustive and the
4 Court is not required to find that all factors are present prior to making a finding. "Fundamental
5 notions of fairness and due process require that discovery sanctions be just and . . . relate to the
6 specific conduct at issue." GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870, 900 P.2d at 325.

7 The Nevada Supreme Court has addressed orders of case concluding sanctions on numerous
8 occasions. The Zenith Court found a party whose agent destroyed and/or lost a television prior to 9 the commencement of the underlying action, after the party's expert had an opportunity to test the
10 television and opine on the television as a cause of a fire, had committed a discovery abuse
11 warranting case concluding sanctions.⁴ The Zenith Court held, "[t]he actions [of the appellant] had 12 the effect of reserving to itself all expert testimony based upon examination of the television set."
13 103 Nev. at 652, 747 P.2d at 914.

14 The Kelly Broadcasting Court held the striking of an answer and entry of a judgment in favor
15 of the non-offending party (Kelly) was an appropriate sanction for failing to complete discovery by 16 the offending party (Sovereign). Kelly Broadcasting, 96 Nev. at 192, 606 P.2d at 1092. Sovereign
17 argued a lesser sanction of striking only the affirmative defense to which the interrogatories applied
18 was a more appropriate sanction. The Kelly Broadcasting Court disagreed, noting "[t]he question is 19 not whether this court would as an original matter have entered a default judgment as a sanction for 20 violating a discovery rule; it is whether the trial court abused its discretion in so doing. We do not 21 find an abuse of discretion in this case." Id.

22 The Stubli Court upheld case concluding sanctions when the appellant or its agents failed to
23 preserve evidence related to the cause of a trucking accident. The respondent provided expert
24 affidavits which posited the cause of the accident could have been something other than the 25 respondent's work on the truck. "The experts further asserted that appellant's failure to preserve the 26

27 ⁴ The trial court actually struck the appellant's expert witness from the trial. The appellant indicated it had insufficient
28 evidence to proceed without its expert and the trial court granted summary judgment in favor of the respondent. Zenith,
103 Nev. at 651, 747 P.2d at 913.

1 [truck and its components] had made it impossible for respondents to establish their defense theory.”
2 Stubli, 107 Nev. at 312, 810 P.2d at 787. See also, North American Properties v. McCarran
3 International Airport, 2016 WL 699864 (Nev. Supreme Court 2016). But see, GNLV, supra (case
4 concluding sanctions not appropriate when other evidence existed which experts could use to assist
5 in their analysis including the statements of witnesses who saw the spoliated evidence).

6 The Court has considered the arguments of counsel, all of the pleadings on file in the instant
7 action, the testimony of the witnesses at the evidentiary hearing, the exhibits admitted at that
8 hearing, and the relevant case law discussed, supra. The issue presented in the case is actually very 9 narrow: MDB claims it was a defective solenoid manufactured by Versa that malfunctioned causing
10 a truck full of gravel to dump onto one of the two busiest roadways in Washoe County. MDB does 11 not dispute the electrical systems were not preserved in anticipation of the trial or potential testing.
12 MDB took no steps to warn its employees to keep any components in the electrical system should 13 they need to be replaced. There are no pictures taken of the electrical system or the components.
14 MDB’s employees cannot testify to the condition of the components when they were replaced.
15 Versa avers there were other potential causes of the malfunction, including an electrical issue. Versa
16 further contends it cannot present these issues to the jury in support of its defense because the 17 evidence no longer exists. The Court reviews the Young factors as follows:

18 I. Willfulness

19 The first Young factor is willfulness. In Childers v. State, 100 Nev. 280, 283, 680 P.2d 598,
20 599 (1984), the Nevada Supreme Court found the term willful, “implies simply a purpose or 21 willingness to commit the act or to make the omission in question. The word does not require in its
22 meaning any intent to violate law, or to injure another, or to acquire any advantage.” Willfulness
23 may be found when a party fails to provide discovery and such failure is not due to an inability on 24 the offending party’s part. Havas v Bank of Nevada, 96 Nev. 567, 570, 613 P.2d 706, 708 (1980).
25 The Nevada Supreme Court has not opined that it is necessary to establish wrongful intent to 26 establish willfulness.
27
28

1 Clearly MDB should have anticipated extensive litigation as a result of the incident that
2 occurred on July 7, 2014. This was not a mere "slip and fall" where the putative plaintiff initially
3 claims he/she is not injured only later to come back and sue. There were numerous accidents and
4 injuries as a result of collisions occurring on a highway. MDB, or its counsel, had to know there
5 would be litigation as a result of these events. The Court heard no testimony that MDB took any
6 steps to preserve the truck or trailer in any way. There was no testimony indicating memorialization
7 of the condition of the vehicle was ever contemplated by anyone at MDB. On the contrary, the truck
8 and trailer continued to be in use after the events of July 7, 2014. It was subject to "routine"
9 maintenance. The Court may have condoned the continued use of the truck, and even the trailer, had 10 there been any steps taken to preserve the appearance of these items as they existed at the time of the 11 event, or prior to the "routine" maintenance. The memorialization did not occur.

12 It would have been simple to inform the shop staff to photograph the truck and trailer on or 13 about July 7, 2014. It would have required minimal effort to inform the shop staff to preserve any 14 electrical parts taken off the truck or trailer during the maintenance. If these steps had been taken
15 the Court would be looking at this case through the prism of GNLV because both parties would have 16 had alternative ways to prove or disprove their theory of the case. Based on the inaction of MDB in 17 preserving or memorializing the condition of the truck and trailer the Court must view this case
18 through the prism of Stubli and Zenith: MDB alone has the ability to call experts to support their 19 position. Versa's expert has a theory he can neither confirm nor refute based on the loss of the 20 electrical components. The Court does not find MDB intentionally disposed of the components in 21 order to harm Versa, nor were MDB's employees acting with any malevolence; however, the Court
22 does find MDB is complicit of benign neglect and indifference to the needs of Versa regarding 23 discovery in this action.

24 II. The possibility of a lesser sanction

25 The second Young factor is possible prejudice to Versa if a lesser sanction were imposed.
26 The Court would consider lesser sanctions, including an adverse inference instruction, a rebuttable
27 presumption instruction, and the striking of the MDB's expert as alternative sanctions. The Court
28

1 does not find any of these sanctions strike the appropriate balance between MDB's actions and the
2 harm imposed on Versa's case. Should the Court strike Dr. Bosch from being a witness at the trial
3 MDB would be in the same position as the appellant in Zenith: unable to prove its case given the
4 lack of expert testimony and subject to a motion for summary judgment. This outcome would be a
5 patent waste of limited judicial resources and of the jury's time. The Court does not find an adverse
6 inference instruction pursuant to NRS 47.250(3) and Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122 Nev. 442, 134 P.3d
7 103 (2006), is appropriate under the circumstances before the Court.⁵ As noted by the Zenith Court,
8 "[t]he actions of [MDB] had the effect of reserving to itself all expert testimony based upon
9 examination of the [electronic components]. Any adverse presumption which the court might have 10 ordered as a sanction for the spoliation of evidence would have paled next to the testimony of the 11 expert witness." Zenith, 103 Nev. at 652, 747 P.2d at 914. Additionally, an adverse inference 12 instruction requires an "intent to harm another party through the destruction and not simply the 13 intent to destroy evidence." Bass-Davis, 122 Nev. at 448, 134 P.3d at 106. The Court does not find
14 MDB intended to harm Versa by destroying or disposing of the electrical components; therefore, it
15 could not give this instruction. The Court can conceive of no other sanction which would be 16 appropriate under these circumstances.

17
18 ⁵ At oral argument counsel for MDB stated:

19 Recently the Nevada Supreme Court has declared that the Bass versus Davis case is the prevailing case on the 20 spoliation of evidence, not Young versus Ribeiro. And in a case called Walmart Stores, Inc. versus the Eighth
21 Judicial District, No. 48488, January 31st of 2008, the court said, "It is an abuse of discretion for a district court
22 not to consider the case of Bass-Davis versus Davis when imposing sanctions pursuant to Nevada Rule of Civil 23 Procedure 37 for an allegation of spoliation."

24 TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, EVIDENTIARY HEARING, 208:15-24. The citation to an unpublished
25 disposition of the Nevada Supreme Court issued prior to January 1, 2016, is a violation of ADKT 0504 and SCR 123
26 (the SCR was repealed by the ADKT). The Court found it difficult to believe the Nevada Supreme Court would make
27 such a sweeping change to firmly established precedent as that represented by counsel in an unpublished disposition.
28 The Court was unfamiliar with Walmart, so the Court endeavored to familiarize itself with the case. The Court looked up the case number provided by counsel on the Nevada Supreme Court webpage. Troublingly, the Court was unable to verify the veracity of the proposition proffered by MDB because the parties agreed to dismiss their proceedings and the Nevada Supreme Court vacated the order upon which MDB makes its argument. The Nevada Supreme Court had granted a Writ of Mandamus on January 31, 2008; however, it withdrew that order on a subsequent date. The Nevada
Supreme Court webpage indicates the parties contacted the Supreme Court on February 2, 2008, and indicated they had settled their case. The Nevada Supreme Court entered an order vacating the January 31, 2008, order upon which MDB relies and "den[ied] the petition as moot" on February 13, 2008. In short, the "case" MDB relies upon does not even exist.

1 III. The severity of the sanction of dismissal relative to the severity of the discovery abuse

3 "The dismissal of a case, based upon a discovery abuse . . . should be used only in extreme
4 situations; if less drastic sanctions are available, they should be utilized." GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870,
5 900 P.2d at 325 (citing Young, 106 Nev. at 92, 787 P.2d at 779-80). The Court is keenly aware that
6 granting the Motion effectively ends the case. The Court does not take this action lightly. The only
7 issue in this case is why the door to the trailer opened causing the gravel to dump into the roadway.
8 The Court finds MDB's disposal of the electronic components without memorializing them in any
9 way effectively halted the adversarial process. It left all of the "cards" in MDB's hands and left
10 Versa with nothing other than a theory it could neither prove nor disprove. MDB could simply rely 11 on its expert during trial and argue Versa had no proof of its theory and the theory itself was 12 preposterous. This is the position taken by MDB at the evidentiary hearing. Versa is left with no
13 way of verifying its theory of the case.

14 Counsel for MDB directed the Court's attention at the evidentiary hearing to the strength of 15 their expert (Dr. Bosch) and the weakness of Versa's expert (Palmer). Counsel further emphasized
16 the lack of plausibility of the Palmer's conclusions that it could have been an abraded wire which 17 caused an electrical failure rather than some issue with the solenoid or the Versa valve. The Court is
18 not convinced this should be the deciding factor in resolving the issue of case concluding sanctions
19 for the following reasons:

- 20 1. MDB's own employee (the same employees who serviced the truck and trailer)
21 acknowledged at the evidentiary hearing that the abrasions Palmer referenced actually do
22 occur;⁶ and

23

24 ⁶ Q: Okay. You also mentioned that you want to replace those cords, the seven and the – the seven-conductor and the 25 four-conductor cords because they will get cut on the deck plate, they will get abraded, they will become cracked; is that
26 correct?

27 A: I have seen that, yes.

28 TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, EVIDENTIARY HEARING (testimony of Patrick Bigby), 154:1-6.

- 1 2. Dr. Bosch had to acknowledge, though grudgingly and with great circumspection, that it
2 was possible though highly unlikely the electrical system could have caused the valve in
3 question to open.⁷

4 The Court's decision regarding the issue presented in the Motion is not predicated on who has
5 the "stronger case" or the "better expert" at the evidentiary hearing. If this were the analysis the
6 Court would agree with MDB: Dr. Bosch is a very credible witness and it is likely MDB has the 7 more compelling argument to present to the jury. This, however, is not the issue. The issue in the
8 Court's analysis is MDB's actions deprived Versa of any ability to prove its case: the adversarial
9 process was stymied by MDB regarding the most critical pieces of evidence. Had MDB's witnesses
10 testified the abrasions never occur, or abrasions were photographed and/or documented and none
11 existed on this truck, the Court's conclusion may have been different. Here we know it could have 12 occurred as Palmer suggested.

13 IV. Whether evidence is irreparably lost

14 Clearly the relevant evidence is lost. The employees of MDB testified at the evidentiary
15 hearing the electronic components had been thrown away.

16 V. The feasibility and fairness of a less severe sanctions

17 The Court discussed the possibility of less severe sanctions in section II. The same analysis
18 applies here. There does not appear to be any sanction short of case concluding sanctions which 19 would be appropriate under the circumstances of this case. The Court also acknowledges that 20 progressive sanctions are not always necessary. The circumstances presented in the Motion are 21 unique and the most severe sanction is appropriate.

24
25 ⁷Q: Is there any scenario under which current from the seven-prong cord having contact with the four-prong cord could 26 open the versa valve?

27 A: Anything is possible, but it's highly improbable in this case.

28 TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, EVIDENTIARY HEARING (testimony of Dr. Bosch), 161:5-9. Dr. Bosch's testimony clearly established he did not believe there was a short or other electrical failure that caused the valve to open.

2 VI. The policy favoring adjudication on the merits; and

3 VII. The need to deter parties and future litigants from similar abuse

5 The Court considers the sixth and eighth Young factors together. Nevada has a strong policy,
6 and the Court firmly believes, that cases should be adjudicated on their merits. See, Scrimmer v. Dist.
7 Court, 116 Nev. 507, 516-517, 998 P.2d 1190, 1196 (2000). See also, Kahn v. Orme, 108 Nev. 510,
8 516, 835 P.2d 790, 794 (1992). Further, there is a need to deter litigants from abusing the discovery
9 process established by Nevada law. When a party repeatedly and continuously engaged in discovery
10 misconduct the policy of adjudicating cases on the merits is not furthered by a lesser sanction.
11 Foster, 126 Nev. at 65, 227 P.3d at 1048. The case sub judice is not one of systemic discovery
12 abuse. However, the Court concludes to allow the case to go forward as it is currently postured
13 would be the antithesis of allowing it to proceed "on the merits." The merits of Versa's case would 14 not be able to be evaluated by the jury because Versa could not test its theory on the actual 15 components. The jury would be left to guess about what may have occurred rather than weigh the 16 competing theories presented. MDB would have an overwhelmingly unfair advantage given its 17 action.

18 The Court balances the laudable policy of trial on the merits against the need to deter future
19 litigants from abusing the discovery process. The Court turns back to the Zenith Court's direction to 20 all potential litigants regarding their duty to preserve evidence. The Zenith Court stated, "[i]t would 21 be unreasonable to allow litigants, by destroying physical evidence prior to a request for production,
22 to sidestep the district court's power to enforce the rules of discovery." Id. 103 Nev. at 651, 747
23 P.2d at 913. Accord, Colfer v. Harmon, 108 Nev. 363, 832 P.2d 383 (1992). To allow this case to 24 go forward, when the only evidence which may have supported Versa's defense was in the sole
25 possession of MDB and MDB did nothing to preserve or document that evidence, would set a
26 dangerous precedent to similarly situated parties in the future. It would also be antithetical to a
27 potential litigant's obligation to preserve the very evidence it may have to produce during discovery.
28

1 When the Court balances the sixth and eighth Young factor it concludes dismissal of MDB's claims
2 against Versa are appropriate.

3 VIII. Whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for the misconduct of his or her
4 attorney

6 There is no evidence to show MDB's counsel directed MDB to destroy or fail to memorialize
7 the evidence in question. The Court finds this factor to be inapplicable to the Young analysis.

8 "Fundamental notions of fairness and due process require that discovery sanctions be just 9 and . . . relate to the specific conduct at issue." GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870, 900 P.2d at 325 (citing
10 Young, 106 Nev. at 92, 787 P.2d at 779-80). The Court recognizes that discovery sanctions should 11 be related to the specific conduct at issue. The discovery abuse in this case crippled one party's
12 ability to present its case. Weighing all eight factors above the Court concludes the dismissal of the 13 MDB Cross-Claim is appropriate. Due to the severity of MDB's discovery abuse there are no lesser 14 sanctions that are suitable.

15 It is hereby ORDERED DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT
16 VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-
17 CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO 18 NRCP 35; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE JURY INSTRUCTION is 19 GRANTED. MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM is DISMISSED.

Case No. CV16-01914

vs.

MDB TRUCKING, LLC; et al.,

ORDER

Presently before the Court is DEFENDANT/CROSS CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO NRCP 35; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE JURY INSTRUCTION ("the Motion"). The Motion was filed by Defendant/Cross-Claimant/Cross-Defendant VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC. ("Versa") on May 15, 2017. Defendant/Cross-Claimant MDB TRUCKING, LLC ("MDB") did not file an Opposition to the Motion.¹ See WDCR 12(2). The Motion was submitted for the Court's consideration on December 12, 2017.

This case arises from a personal injury action. A COMPLAINT was filed by plaintiffs Ernest Bruce Fitzsimmons and Carol Fitzsimmons, on December 4, 2015 ("the Fitzsimmons Action"). The Fitzsimmons Action was assigned Second Judicial District Court case number CV15-02349.

¹ The issues presented in the Motion were fully briefed in FITZSIMMONS, et al. v. MDB TRUCKING, LLC, et al., CV15-02349.

1 Numerous other plaintiffs were joined into the Fitzsimmons Action. Two additional cases were filed
2 and prosecuted outside of the Fitzsimmons Action: the instant case and GENEVA M. REMMERDE
3 v. MDB TRUCKING, LLC et al., CV16-00976 ("the Remmerde Action"). The instant action was
4 filed on September 20, 2016. The Remmerde Action was filed May 2, 2016. It is alleged in all three
5 actions that on July 7, 2014, Defendant Daniel Anthony Koski ("Koski"), while driving a truck for
6 MDB, negligently spilled a load of gravel into the roadway. The spilled gravel caused the driving
7 plaintiffs to lose control of their vehicles and numerous accidents occurred resulting in the three
8 separate cases. The plaintiffs sustained physical and emotional injuries as a result of the accidents.
9 In response to the complaint filed in the instant action, MDB filed a THIRD-PARTY COMPLAINT
10 ("the MDB Cross-Claim") September 20, 2016. The MDB Cross-Claim had two causes of action
11 relative to Versa: Implied Indemnification and Contribution.² MDB alleges it was not Koski's
12 negligence that caused the gravel to spill; rather, the spill was caused by the "unreasonably
13 dangerous and defective" design and manufacture of the trailer that held the gravel. The MDB
14 Cross-Claim, 4:3-5. Therefore, MDB brought the Cross-Claim against the manufacturers of the 15 trailer and its components, including Versa. MDB avers Versa produced a solenoid valve which 16 would, "activate inadvertently allowing the gates to open and release the load [of gravel] carried by 17 the trailer." The MDB Cross-Claim, 4:6-8. MDB also claims there were safer alternatives available
18 to Versa; the solenoid valve was unreasonably dangerous and defective; and Versa failed to provide 19 appropriate safety mechanisms regarding the solenoid valve. The MDB Cross-Claim, 4:12-15.

20 The Motion is the same as the motion practice in the Fitzsimmons Action and the Remmerde
21 Action. The issues are identical, as are the relevant parties. The Court issued an ORDER ("the
22 December Order") on December 8, 2017, in the Fitzsimmons Action. The December Order
23 conducted a thorough analysis of the issue presented in the Motion. See generally Young v. Johnny
25

26 ² Versa filed CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY INC.'S MOTION TO DISMISS CROSS-
27 CLAIMANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR IMPLIED INDEMNITY PURSUANT TO 28 NRCP 12(B)(5) ("the MTD") on September 21, 2016. A Stipulation was filed on November 23, 2016, agreeing to dismiss MDB's Cross-Claim for Implied Indemnity. The only remaining cause of action alleged by MDB against Versa is for Contribution.

1 December Order case concluding sanctions were an appropriate sanction for MDB's spoliation of
2 critical evidence. The Court finds a restatement of the December Order is unnecessary in the instant
3 action. Given the indistinguishable issues the Court attaches hereto and incorporates herein as 4 EXHIBIT A the December Order which shall be considered dispositive of the issue raised in the 5 Motion.³

EXHIBIT "A"

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHOE

ERNEST BRUCE FITZSIMMONS, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

Case No. CV15-02349

vs.

MDB TRUCKING, LLC; et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER

Presently before the Court is DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT
VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-
CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO NRCP 35; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE JURY INSTRUCTION ("the Motion"). The Motion was filed by Defendant/Cross-Claimant/Cross-Defendant VERSA
PRODUCTS, INC. ("Versa") on May 15, 2017.¹ Defendant/Cross-Claimant, MDB Trucking, LLC ("MDB") filed MDB'S OPPOSITION TO VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S
MOTION TO STRIKE AND/OR SPOILIATION INSTRUCTIONS ("the Opposition") on June 2, 2017. Versa filed DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA

¹ Versa filed the ERRATA TO DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS
COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB
TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO NRCP 37; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE
JURY INSTRUCTION ("the Errata") on May 5, 2017. The Errata clarifies Versa is bringing the Motion pursuant to NRCP 37, not NRCP 35 as noted in the caption to the Motion. The reference to NRCP 35 is made only in the caption to the pleading; therefore, the Court presumes it is merely a typographical error.

1 PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S REPLY TO MDB'S OPPOSITION TO VERSA PRODUCTS
2 COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM
3 PURSUANT TO NRCP 37; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR AN ADVERSE JURY
4 INSTRUCTION ("the Reply") on June 12, 2017, and contemporaneously submitted the matter for
5 the Court's consideration. The Court entered an ORDER on August 1, 2017, setting the Motion
6 for oral argument.² The Court heard the arguments of counsel on August 29, 2017, and took the 7 matter under submission.

8 The Court felt case concluding sanctions were a potential discovery sanction for the alleged 9 abuse following the oral argument. An evidentiary hearing affording both sides the opportunity to 10 present witnesses was required given this conclusion. See generally, Nevada Power v. Fluor Illinois,
11 108 Nev. 638, 837 P.2d 1354 (1992). The Court entered an ORDER ("the September Order") on 12 September 22, 2017, directing the parties to set the matter for an evidentiary hearing. The 13 evidentiary hearing was conducted on October 13, 2017 ("the October Hearing"). Versa called one
14 expert witness, Scott Palmer ("Palmer"), and one lay witness Garrick Mitchell ("Mitchell") at the
15 October Hearing. MDB called one expert witness, Dr. David Bosch ("Dr. Bosch"), and two lay
16 witnesses, Patrick Bigby ("Bigby") and Erik Anderson ("Anderson") at the October Hearing. The 17 Court admitted numerous exhibits during the October Hearing. The Court permitted the parties to 18 argue their respective positions. Trial was scheduled to begin on October 30, 2017. The Court was 19 aware of its obligation to make detailed findings of facts and conclusions of law. Further, the Court
20 wanted to fulfill these obligations in a thoughtful manner and in writing pursuant to the mandates of 21 the Nevada Supreme Court. The Court informed the parties the Motion would be granted and
22 vacated the trial date. The Court took the matter under submission. This written ORDER follows.

23 This case arises from a personal injury action. A COMPLAINT ("the Complaint") was filed
24 by Plaintiffs Ernest Bruce Fitzsimmons and Carol Fitzsimmons, on December 4, 2015. Numerous
25 other plaintiffs were joined into the Fitzsimmons case. It is alleged on July 7, 2014, Defendant
26 Daniel Anthony Koski ("Koski"), while driving a truck for MDB, negligently spilled a load of 27

28 ² There were numerous other pre-trial motions scheduled for oral argument on the same date.

1 gravel into the roadway. The spilled gravel caused the driving plaintiffs to lose control of their
2 vehicles and numerous accidents occurred. The plaintiffs sustained physical and emotional injuries
3 as a result of the accidents. In response to the Complaint, MDB filed a THIRD-PARTY
4 COMPLAINT ("the MDB Cross-Claim") June 15, 2016. The MDB Cross-Claim had two causes
5 of action relative to Versa: Implied Indemnification and Contribution.³ MDB alleges it was not
6 Koski's negligence that caused the gravel to spill; rather, the spill was caused by the "unreasonably
7 dangerous and defective" design and manufacture of the trailer that held the gravel. The MDB
8 Cross-Claim, 3:5-7. Therefore, MDB brought the Cross-Claim against the manufacturers of the 9 trailer and its components, including Versa. MDB avers Versa produced a solenoid valve which 10 would, "activate inadvertently allowing the gates to open and release the load [of gravel] carried by 11 the trailer." The MDB Cross-Claim, 3:10-11. MDB also claims there were safer alternatives
12 available to Versa; the solenoid valve was unreasonably dangerous and defective; and Versa failed
13 to provide appropriate safety mechanisms regarding the solenoid valve. The MDB Cross-Claim, 14 3:12-18.

15 Versa has denied its product is defective and further denies any responsibility for the spilling
16 of the gravel. Additionally, Versa filed DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT VERSA PRODUCTS
17 COMPANY, INC.'S ANSWER TO PLAINTIFFS ERNEST BRUCE FITZSIMMONS AND
18 CAROL FITZSIMMONS' FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT AND CROSS-CLAIM AGAINST
19 MDB TRUCKING, LLC; DANIEL ANTHONY KOSKI; AND DOES I-X, INCLUSIVE ("the 20 Versa Cross-Claim") on June 29, 2016. The Versa Cross-Claim alleges one cause of action against 21 MDB: Contribution. Versa alleges MDB "negligently operated, maintained, owned, serviced and/or 22 entrusted the subject trailer...." The Versa Cross-Claim, 10:17-18. Versa and MDB are the only
23 remaining parties in this litigation: all of the plaintiffs consolidated into these proceedings, and all
24 of the other defendants have been dismissed and/or settled.

27 ³ Versa filed CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY INC.'S MOTION TO DISMISS CROSS-
28 CLAIMANT, MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR IMPLIED INDEMNITY PURSUANT
TO NRCF 12(B)(5) ("the MTD") on June 27, 2016. The Court granted the MTD on October 19, 2016. The only remaining cause of action alleged by MDB against Versa is for Contribution.

1 The Motion avers MDB has destroyed or disposed of critical evidence which directly
2 impacts Versa's ability to represent itself in the instant litigation. Specifically, the Motion contends
3 after the accident MDB continued to use the truck in question; failed to keep the truck in the same
4 condition as it was on the day in question; serviced the truck routinely; repaired and replaced the
5 electrical systems that control the solenoid which operated the Versa valve; and failed to take steps
6 to preserve this critical evidence knowing litigation was highly probable. The Opposition contends
7 there has been no spoliation of evidence in this case. Further, the Opposition posits there was
8 nothing more than routine maintenance done on the trailer; therefore, Versa's ability to defend itself
9 has not been impaired.

10 The Motion avers MDB had a duty to preserve the discarded electrical systems in 11 anticipation of the underlying action. In Fire Ins. Exchange v. Zenith Radio Corp., 103 Nev. 648,
12 651, 747 P.2d 911, 914 (1987), the Nevada Supreme Court held, "even where an action has not been
13 commenced and there is only a potential for litigation, the litigant is under a duty to preserve the 14 evidence which it knows or reasonably should know is relevant to the action." The Motion
15 concludes the appropriate sanction for the failure to preserve this crucial evidence should be
16 dismissal of the entire action. See generally Young v. Johnny Ribeiro Building Inc., 106 Nev. 88,
17 787 P.2d 777 (1990), and NRCP 37.

18 Discovery sanctions are within the discretion of the trial court. See Stubli v. Big D Int'l
19 Trucks, Inc., 107 Nev. 309, 312, 810 P.2d 785, 787 (1991), and Kelly Broadcasting v. Sovereign
20 Broadcast, 96 Nev. 188, 192, 606 P.2d 1089, 1092 (1980). "Generally, sanctions may only be
21 imposed where there has been willful noncompliance with the court's order, or where the adversary
22 process has been halted by the actions of the unresponsive party." Zenith, 103 Nev. at 651, 747
23 P.2d at 913 (citing Finkelman v. Clover Jewelers Blvd. Inc., 91 Nev. 146, 147, 532 P.2d 608, 609
24 (1975) and Skeen v. Valley Bank of Nevada, 89 Nev. 301, 303, 511 P.2d 1053, 1054 (1973)).
25 Accord GNLV Corp. v. Service Control Corp., 111 Nev. 866, 869, 900 P.2d 323, 325 (1995).
26 Dismissal of an entire action with prejudice is a dramatic punishment for a discovery abuse. The
27 Nevada Supreme Court cautions district courts the use of such a Draconian sanction should be 28 approached with caution. "The dismissal of a case, based upon a discovery abuse such as the

1 destruction or loss of evidence, 'should be used only in extreme situations; if less drastic sanctions
2 are available, they should be utilized.'" GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870, 900 P.2d at 326 (citation omitted).
3 Additionally, the Nevada Power Court held it was an abuse of discretion for a district court to grant
4 case concluding sanctions without an evidentiary hearing. The Nevada Power Court held the party
5 facing a case terminating sanction needs an "opportunity to present witnesses or to cross-examine
6 [the movant] or their experts with regard to [the discovery violations]." Nevada Power, 108 Nev. at 7 646, 837 P.2d at 1360. Cf. Bahena v. Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. ("Bahena II"), 126 Nev. 606,
8 612, 245 P.3d 1182, 1186 (2010).

9 The Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure provide that a party who fails to comply with discovery
10 orders or rules can be sanctioned for that failure. NRCP 37(b). Sanctions against a party can be
11 graduated in severity and can include: designation of facts to be taken as established; refusal to allow 12 the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses; prohibition of the 13 offending party from introducing designated matters in evidence; an order striking out pleadings or
14 parts thereof or dismissing the action; or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient
15 party. NRCP 37(b)(2). Case concluding sanctions need not be preceded by other less severe
16 sanction. GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870, 900 P.2d at 325. A disobedient party can also be required to pay
17 the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees caused by the failure. NRCP 37(b)(2)(E).

18 The Young Court adopted an eight factor analysis ("the Young factors") district courts must 19 go through if they feel a discovery abuse is so severe it warrants dismissal. The Young Court held,
20 "every order of dismissal with prejudice as a discovery sanction be supported by an express, careful
21 and preferably written explanation of the court's analysis of the pertinent factors." Young, 106 Nev.
22 at 93, 787 P.2d at 780. The Young factors are as follows: (1) the degree of willfulness of the 23 offending party; (2) the extent to which the non-offending party would be prejudiced by a lesser
24 sanction; (3) the severity of the sanction of dismissal relative to the severity of the discovery abuse;
25 (4) whether any evidence has been irreparably lost; (5) the feasibility and fairness of less severe
26 sanctions; (6) the policy favoring adjudication on the merits; (7) whether sanctions unfairly operate
27 to penalize a party for the misconduct of his or her attorney; and (8) the need to deter parties and
28 future litigants from similar abuses. Id. In discovery abuse situations where possible case-

1 concluding sanctions are warranted, the trial judge has discretion in deciding which factors are to be
2 considered on a "case-by-case" basis. Bahena II, 126 Nev. at 610, 245 P.3d at 1185 (citing Higgs v.
3 State, 126 Nev. 1, 17, 222 P.3d 648, 658 (2010)). The Young factor list is not exhaustive and the
4 Court is not required to find that all factors are present prior to making a finding. "Fundamental
5 notions of fairness and due process require that discovery sanctions be just and . . . relate to the
6 specific conduct at issue." GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870, 900 P.2d at 325.

7 The Nevada Supreme Court has addressed orders of case concluding sanctions on numerous
8 occasions. The Zenith Court found a party whose agent destroyed and/or lost a television prior to 9 the commencement of the underlying action, after the party's expert had an opportunity to test the
10 television and opine on the television as a cause of a fire, had committed a discovery abuse
11 warranting case concluding sanctions.⁴ The Zenith Court held, "[t]he actions [of the appellant] had 12 the effect of reserving to itself all expert testimony based upon examination of the television set."
13 103 Nev. at 652, 747 P.2d at 914.

14 The Kelly Broadcasting Court held the striking of an answer and entry of a judgment in favor
15 of the non-offending party (Kelly) was an appropriate sanction for failing to complete discovery by 16 the offending party (Sovereign). Kelly Broadcasting, 96 Nev. at 192, 606 P.2d at 1092. Sovereign
17 argued a lesser sanction of striking only the affirmative defense to which the interrogatories applied
18 was a more appropriate sanction. The Kelly Broadcasting Court disagreed, noting "[t]he question is 19 not whether this court would as an original matter have entered a default judgment as a sanction for 20 violating a discovery rule; it is whether the trial court abused its discretion in so doing. We do not 21 find an abuse of discretion in this case." Id.

22 The Stubli Court upheld case concluding sanctions when the appellant or its agents failed to
23 preserve evidence related to the cause of a trucking accident. The respondent provided expert
24 affidavits which posited the cause of the accident could have been something other than the 25 respondent's work on the truck. "The experts further asserted that appellant's failure to preserve the 26

27
28 ⁴ The trial court actually struck the appellant's expert witness from the trial. The appellant indicated it had insufficient evidence to proceed without its expert and the trial court granted summary judgment in favor of the respondent. Zenith, 103 Nev. at 651, 747 P.2d at 913.

1 [truck and its components] had made it impossible for respondents to establish their defense theory.”
2 Stubli, 107 Nev. at 312, 810 P.2d at 787. See also, North American Properties v. McCarran
3 International Airport, 2016 WL 699864 (Nev. Supreme Court 2016). But see, GNLV, supra (case
4 concluding sanctions not appropriate when other evidence existed which experts could use to assist
5 in their analysis including the statements of witnesses who saw the spoliated evidence).

6 The Court has considered the arguments of counsel, all of the pleadings on file in the instant
7 action, the testimony of the witnesses at the evidentiary hearing, the exhibits admitted at that
8 hearing, and the relevant case law discussed, supra. The issue presented in the case is actually very
9 narrow: MDB claims it was a defective solenoid manufactured by Versa that malfunctioned causing
10 a truck full of gravel to dump onto one of the two busiest roadways in Washoe County. MDB does 11 not dispute the electrical systems were not preserved in anticipation of the trial or potential testing.
12 MDB took no steps to warn its employees to keep any components in the electrical system should 13 they need to be replaced. There are no pictures taken of the electrical system or the components.
14 MDB’s employees cannot testify to the condition of the components when they were replaced.
15 Versa avers there were other potential causes of the malfunction, including an electrical issue. Versa
16 further contends it cannot present these issues to the jury in support of its defense because the 17 evidence no longer exists. The Court reviews the Young factors as follows:

20 The first Young factor is willfulness. In Childers v. State, 100 Nev. 280, 283, 680 P.2d 598,
21 599 (1984), the Nevada Supreme Court found the term willful, “implies simply a purpose or 22 willingness to commit the act or to make the omission in question. The word does not require in its
23 meaning any intent to violate law, or to injure another, or to acquire any advantage.” Willfulness
24 may be found when a party fails to provide discovery and such failure is not due to an inability on
25 the offending party’s part. Havas v Bank of Nevada, 96 Nev. 567, 570, 613 P.2d 706, 708 (1980).
26 The Nevada Supreme Court has not opined that it is necessary to establish wrongful intent to 27 establish willfulness.
28

1 Clearly MDB should have anticipated extensive litigation as a result of the incident that
2 occurred on July 7, 2014. This was not a mere "slip and fall" where the putative plaintiff initially
3 claims he/she is not injured only later to come back and sue. There were numerous accidents and
4 injuries as a result of collisions occurring on a highway. MDB, or its counsel, had to know there
5 would be litigation as a result of these events. The Court heard no testimony that MDB took any
6 steps to preserve the truck or trailer in any way. There was no testimony indicating memorialization
7 of the condition of the vehicle was ever contemplated by anyone at MDB. On the contrary, the truck
8 and trailer continued to be in use after the events of July 7, 2014. It was subject to "routine"
9 maintenance. The Court may have condoned the continued use of the truck, and even the trailer, had
10 there been any steps taken to preserve the appearance of these items as they existed at the time of the 11 event, or prior to the "routine" maintenance. The memorialization did not occur.

12 It would have been simple to inform the shop staff to photograph the truck and trailer on or 13 about July 7, 2014. It would have required minimal effort to inform the shop staff to preserve any 14 electrical parts taken off the truck or trailer during the maintenance. If these steps had been taken
15 the Court would be looking at this case through the prism of GNLV because both parties would have 16 had alternative ways to prove or disprove their theory of the case. Based on the inaction of MDB in
17 preserving or memorializing the condition of the truck and trailer the Court must view this case
18 through the prism of Stubli and Zenith: MDB alone has the ability to call experts to support their 19 position. Versa's expert has a theory he can neither confirm nor refute based on the loss of the 20 electrical components. The Court does not find MDB intentionally disposed of the components in 21 order to harm Versa, nor were MDB's employees acting with any malevolence; however, the Court
22 does find MDB is complicit of benign neglect and indifference to the needs of Versa regarding 23 discovery in this action.

24 II. The possibility of a lesser sanction

25
26 The second Young factor is possible prejudice to Versa if a lesser sanction were imposed.
27 The Court would consider lesser sanctions, including an adverse inference instruction, a rebuttable
28 presumption instruction, and the striking of the MDB's expert as alternative sanctions. The Court

1 does not find any of these sanctions strike the appropriate balance between MDB's actions and the
2 harm imposed on Versa's case. Should the Court strike Dr. Bosch from being a witness at the trial
3 MDB would be in the same position as the appellant in Zenith: unable to prove its case given the
4 lack of expert testimony and subject to a motion for summary judgment. This outcome would be a
5 patent waste of limited judicial resources and of the jury's time. The Court does not find an adverse
6 inference instruction pursuant to NRS 47.250(3) and Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122 Nev. 442, 134 P.3d
7 103 (2006), is appropriate under the circumstances before the Court.⁵ As noted by the Zenith Court,
8 "[t]he actions of [MDB] had the effect of reserving to itself all expert testimony based upon
9 examination of the [electronic components]. Any adverse presumption which the court might have
10 ordered as a sanction for the spoliation of evidence would have paled next to the testimony of the 11 expert witness." Zenith, 103 Nev. at 652, 747 P.2d at 914. Additionally, an adverse inference 12 instruction requires an "intent to harm another party through the destruction and not simply the 13 intent to destroy evidence." Bass-Davis, 122 Nev. at 448, 134 P.3d at 106. The Court does not find
14 MDB intended to harm Versa by destroying or disposing of the electrical components; therefore, it
15 could not give this instruction. The Court can conceive of no other sanction which would be 16 appropriate under these circumstances.

17
18 ⁵ At oral argument counsel for MDB stated:

19 Recently the Nevada Supreme Court has declared that the Bass versus Davis case is the prevailing case on the 20 spoliation of evidence, not Young versus Ribeiro. And in a case called Walmart Stores, Inc. versus the Eighth
21 Judicial District, No. 48488, January 31st of 2008, the court said, "It is an abuse of discretion for a district court
22 not to consider the case of Bass-Davis versus Davis when imposing sanctions pursuant to Nevada Rule of Civil 23 Procedure 37 for an allegation of spoliation."

24 TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, EVIDENTIARY HEARING, 208:15-24. The citation to an unpublished
25 disposition of the Nevada Supreme Court issued prior to January 1, 2016, is a violation of ADKT 0504 and SCR 123
26 (the SCR was repealed by the ADKT). The Court found it difficult to believe the Nevada Supreme Court would make
27 such a sweeping change to firmly established precedent as that represented by counsel in an unpublished disposition.
28 The Court was unfamiliar with Walmart, so the Court endeavored to familiarize itself with the case. The Court looked up the case number provided by counsel on the Nevada Supreme Court webpage. Troublingly, the Court was unable to verify the veracity of the proposition proffered by MDB because the parties agreed to dismiss their proceedings and
the Nevada Supreme Court vacated the order upon which MDB makes its argument. The Nevada Supreme Court had granted a Writ of Mandamus on January 31, 2008; however, it withdrew that order on a subsequent date. The Nevada
Supreme Court webpage indicates the parties contacted the Supreme Court on February 2, 2008, and indicated they had settled their case. The Nevada Supreme Court entered an order vacating the January 31, 2008, order upon which MDB relies and "den[ie]d the petition as moot" on February 13, 2008. In short, the "case" MDB relies upon does not even exist.

1 III. The severity of the sanction of dismissal relative to the severity of the discovery abuse

3 "The dismissal of a case, based upon a discovery abuse . . . should be used only in extreme
4 situations; if less drastic sanctions are available, they should be utilized." GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870,
5 900 P.2d at 325 (citing Young, 106 Nev. at 92, 787 P.2d at 779-80). The Court is keenly aware that
6 granting the Motion effectively ends the case. The Court does not take this action lightly. The only
7 issue in this case is why the door to the trailer opened causing the gravel to dump into the roadway.
8 The Court finds MDB's disposal of the electronic components without memorializing them in any
9 way effectively halted the adversarial process. It left all of the "cards" in MDB's hands and left
10 Versa with nothing other than a theory it could neither prove nor disprove. MDB could simply rely 11 on its expert during trial and argue Versa had no proof of its theory and the theory itself was 12 preposterous. This is the position taken by MDB at the evidentiary hearing. Versa is left with no
13 way of verifying its theory of the case.

14 Counsel for MDB directed the Court's attention at the evidentiary hearing to the strength of 15 their expert (Dr. Bosch) and the weakness of Versa's expert (Palmer). Counsel further emphasized
16 the lack of plausibility of the Palmer's conclusions that it could have been an abraded wire which 17 caused an electrical failure rather than some issue with the solenoid or the Versa valve. The Court is
18 not convinced this should be the deciding factor in resolving the issue of case concluding sanctions
19 for the following reasons:

- 20 1. MDB's own employee (the same employees who serviced the truck and trailer)
21 acknowledged at the evidentiary hearing that the abrasions Palmer referenced actually do
22 occur;⁶ and

23 ⁶ Q: Okay. You also mentioned that you want to replace those cords, the seven and the – the seven-conductor and the
24 four-conductor cords because they will get cut on the deck plate, they will get abraded, they will become cracked; is that
25 correct?

26 A: I have seen that, yes.

27 TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, EVIDENTIARY HEARING (testimony of Patrick Bigby), 154:1-6.
28

1 2. Dr. Bosch had to acknowledge, though grudgingly and with great circumspection, that it
2 was possible though highly unlikely the electrical system could have caused the valve in question to open.⁷

3 The Court's decision regarding the issue presented in the Motion is not predicated on who has
4 the "stronger case" or the "better expert" at the evidentiary hearing. If this were the analysis the
5 Court would agree with MDB: Dr. Bosch is a very credible witness and it is likely MDB has the
6 more compelling argument to present to the jury. This, however, is not the issue. The issue in the
7 Court's analysis is MDB's actions deprived Versa of any ability to prove its case: the adversarial
8 process was stymied by MDB regarding the most critical pieces of evidence. Had MDB's witnesses
9 testified the abrasions never occur, or abrasions were photographed and/or documented and none
10 existed on this truck, the Court's conclusion may have been different. Here we know it could have
11 occurred as Palmer suggested.

12 IV. Whether evidence is irreparably lost

13
14 Clearly the relevant evidence is lost. The employees of MDB testified at the evidentiary
15 hearing the electronic components had been thrown away.

16 V. The feasibility and fairness of a less severe sanctions

17 The Court discussed the possibility of less severe sanctions in section II. The same analysis
18 applies here. There does not appear to be any sanction short of case concluding sanctions which 19 would be appropriate under the circumstances of this case. The Court also acknowledges that 20 progressive sanctions are not always necessary. The circumstances presented in the Motion are 21 unique and the most severe sanction is appropriate.
22
24

25 _____
26 ⁷Q: Is there any scenario under which current from the seven-prong cord having contact with the four-prong cord could open the versa valve?

27 A: Anything is possible, but it's highly improbable in this case.

28 TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, EVIDENTIARY HEARING (testimony of Dr. Bosch), 161:5-9. Dr. Bosch's testimony clearly established he did not believe there was a short or other electrical failure that caused the valve to open.

2 VI. The policy favoring adjudication on the merits; and

3 VII. The need to deter parties and future litigants from similar abuse

5 The Court considers the sixth and eighth Young factors together. Nevada has a strong policy,
6 and the Court firmly believes, that cases should be adjudicated on their merits. See, Scrimmer v. Dist.
7 Court, 116 Nev. 507, 516-517, 998 P.2d 1190, 1196 (2000). See also, Kahn v. Orme, 108 Nev. 510,
8 516, 835 P.2d 790, 794 (1992). Further, there is a need to deter litigants from abusing the discovery
9 process established by Nevada law. When a party repeatedly and continuously engaged in discovery
10 misconduct the policy of adjudicating cases on the merits is not furthered by a lesser sanction.
11 Foster, 126 Nev. at 65, 227 P.3d at 1048. The case sub judice is not one of systemic discovery
12 abuse. However, the Court concludes to allow the case to go forward as it is currently postured
13 would be the antithesis of allowing it to proceed "on the merits." The merits of Versa's case would 14 not be able to be evaluated by the jury because Versa could not test its theory on the actual 15 components. The jury would be left to guess about what may have occurred rather than weigh the 16 competing theories presented. MDB would have an overwhelmingly unfair advantage given its 17 action.

18 The Court balances the laudable policy of trial on the merits against the need to deter future
19 litigants from abusing the discovery process. The Court turns back to the Zenith Court's direction to 20 all potential litigants regarding their duty to preserve evidence. The Zenith Court stated, "[i]t would 21 be unreasonable to allow litigants, by destroying physical evidence prior to a request for production,
22 to sidestep the district court's power to enforce the rules of discovery." Id. 103 Nev. at 651, 747
23 P.2d at 913. Accord, Colfer v. Harmon, 108 Nev. 363, 832 P.2d 383 (1992). To allow this case to 24 go forward, when the only evidence which may have supported Versa's defense was in the sole
25 possession of MDB and MDB did nothing to preserve or document that evidence, would set a
26 dangerous precedent to similarly situated parties in the future. It would also be antithetical to a
27 potential litigant's obligation to preserve the very evidence it may have to produce during discovery.
28

1 When the Court balances the sixth and eighth Young factor it concludes dismissal of MDB's claims
2 against Versa are appropriate.

3 VIII. Whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for the misconduct of his or her

6 There is no evidence to show MDB's counsel directed MDB to destroy or fail to memorialize
7 the evidence in question. The Court finds this factor to be inapplicable to the Young analysis.

8 "Fundamental notions of fairness and due process require that discovery sanctions be just 9 and . . . relate to the specific conduct at issue." GNLV, 111 Nev. at 870, 900 P.2d at 325 (citing
10 Young, 106 Nev. at 92, 787 P.2d at 779-80). The Court recognizes that discovery sanctions should 11 be related to the specific conduct at issue. The discovery abuse in this case crippled one party's
12 ability to present its case. Weighing all eight factors above the Court concludes the dismissal of the 13 MDB Cross-Claim is appropriate. Due to the severity of MDB's discovery abuse there are no lesser 14 sanctions that are suitable.

15 It is hereby ORDERED DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT
16 VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-
17 CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO
19 GRANTED. MDB TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM is DISMISSED.
