INTRODUCTION

"A writ of mandamus is available to compel the performance of an act that the law requires . . . or to control an arbitrary or capricious exercise of discretion." Int'l Game Tech., Inc. v. Second Judicial Dist. Court, 124 Nev. 193, 179 P.3d 556, 558 (2008). "An arbitrary or capricious exercise of discretion is one founded on prejudice or preference rather than on reason, or contrary to the evidence or established rules of law." State v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Armstrong), 127 Nev. 927, 931-32, 267 P.3d 777, 780 (2011) (citation omitted) (internal quotations marks omitted). "[W]here there is [no] plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law," extraordinary relief may be available. Smith v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 107 Nev. 674, 677, 818 P.2d 849, 851 (1991).

II.

PARTIES

Petitioner is currently incarcerated in the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC), Indian Springs Nevada Southern Desert Correctional Center (SDCC).

Respondents include the Supreme Court of Nevada, D. Richards (Richards) Deputy Clerk, and the State of Nevada, Real Party in Interest.

There are no known additional parties to this action.

III.

JURISDICTION

The Sup. Ct. of Nev. has original jurisdiction, pursuant to the Const. of Nev. Art. 6, § 4, and NRAP Rule 21(a), to review and issue writs of mandamus to public officials, an act required to be performed from duty resulting from office and required by law.

IV.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On MAR 20 2018, caused to be FILED a Motion To Recall Remittitur (Motion), in both above stated cases, 47856

On MAR 29 2018, Chief Justice Michael Douglas (C.J. Douglas), caused to be FILED ORDER DENYING MOTION. C.J. Douglas' Order reads in part: No good cause appearing, the motion is denied.

On April 6th, 2018, Petitioner caused to be mailed for filing pursuant to NRAP Rule 40(a), and NRAP Rule 27(c), a Petition For Panel Rehearing, to have the "MAR 29, 2018 Order Denying Motion," to be heard, reviewed by a panel pursuant to again NRAP Rule 27(c).

On April 13, 2018, Deputy Clerk Richards, caused to be mailed to Petitioner a missive, informing Petitioner in no uncertain terms that the "Petition For Panel Rehearing," would not be filed. (See attached Exhibit "1" missive of D. Richards, Deputy Clerk).

This Writ now follows, requesting relief.

V.

CONTENTIONS

The refusal to file the pleadings was error. The Clerk had a ministerial duty to accept and file proper documents, before forwarding to the court

Petitioner pursuant to NRAP Rule 40(a), timely submitted his Petition For Panel Rehearing, in both cases, again 47856 and (See Exhibit "2" Case No. 47856 Petition For Panel Rehearing, and Exhibit " " Case No. Petition For Panel Rehearing).

Again, on April 13th, 2018, Deputy Clerk, Richards Returned to Petitioner Unfiled these pleadings, being confused as to what Petitioner is seeking "Rehearing" on.

Petitioner is not seeking rehearing from the "Direct Appeal," of Case No. 47856; ; yet the Order Denying Motion of MAR 29 2018.

Petitioner as a matter of law, is entitled to have the pleadings filed. It was an abuse of discretion by Deputy Clerk Richards to not file the pleading. Petitioner was very clear in the Petition For Panel Rehearing that, Petitioner was seeking rehearing of the MAR 29 2018 Order Denying Rehearing.

VI.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

- (1) That this Honorable Court issue an Order granting Petitioner's Writ;
- (2) That Petitioner's Petition For Panel Rehearing, is sufficient for filing;
- (3) Preservation of Petitioner's Constitutional Rights under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution to access the courts;
- (4) That for the purpose of limitation of NRAP Rule 40(a), Petitioner's Petition For Panel Rehearing, are deemed timely filed

When they were first submitted to the Clerk's Office for filing.

(5) The Clerk of the Court, has a ministerial duty, as an official, to accept and file documents that are in proper form before submitting to the court for review and decision, and must not exercise any judicial discretion;

(6) That, Deputy Clerk Richards incur the cost of copying and mailing expenses, incurred by Petitioner for this Writ, and to resubmit the Petition(s) for Panel Rehearing for Case No. 47856 and , should Petitioner prevail on this Writ.

(7) And such further relief that this court deems just, fit, and proper.

VII.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

For the aforementioned contentions at paragraph V, and incorporated, and set forth herein, as though fully stated and reiterated, Petitioner seeks relief via this Writ in accordance with the Const. of New. Art. 6, § 4, and NRAP 21(a).

Petitioner submitted to the court for filing, proper document titled: "Petition For Panel Rehearing," this pleading was returned "unfiled." This action by Deputy Clerk Richards is unappealable.

Upon receipt of proper documents, by the Clerk's Office, the Clerk, one who is enjoined by duty resulting from office, had a mandated ministerial obligation to file documents submitted to the Court, absent any judicial discretion. The Deputy Clerk Richards had "no" authority to return the pleadings "unfiled." Additionally, Deputy Clerk Richards had "no" judicial discretion to not submit the pleadings for judicial review. At the very least, Deputy Clerk Richards duty was to "file" the pleadings, and make an accurate recording. See, Compare: Brownman v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 102 Nev. 474, 477, 728 P.2d 433, 435 (1986).

"A writ of mandamus is available to compel the performance of an act that the law requires . . . or to control an arbitrary or capricious exercise of discretion." Int'l Game Tech., Inc., 124 Nev. 193, 179 P.3d at 558. "An arbitrary or capricious exercise of discretion is one founded on prejudice or preference rather than on reason, or contrary to the evidence or established rules of law." State v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, (Armstrong), 127 Nev. at 931-32, 267 P.3d at 780 (2011) (citation omitted) (internal quotations marks omitted).

The failure of Deputy Clerk Richards to file the "Petition for Panel Re-hearing," was an arbitrary or capricious exercise of discretion, or to the established rules of law. State v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Armstrong), supra, see also Brownman, 102 Nev. at 477, 728 P.2d at 435.

Petitioner has no plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law, as there is no appeal, etc., against the arbitrary, etc., action of Deputy Clerk Richards. Extraordinary relief should be made available. Smith, 107 Nev. at 677, 818 P.2d at 851.

Petitioner has the right to access the courts pursuant to the First (1st), Amendment of the United States Constitution. Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977).

CONCLUSION

Wherefore, based upon the above and foregoing, Petitioner does respectfully request that the foregoing Writ be granted, as Petitioner is entitled to relief, and has no other plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law.

Dated this 16th day of April 2018.
