13 1) APPLICATION FOR BAIL PURSUANT N.R.S.
14 178.488
15

16 The Appellant comes to this Honorable
17 Court to set a reasonable bail, pending his 18 case outcome to return to custody. The 19 Appellant brings to this courts' attention
20 the Judicial Notice he recently filed with it 21 regarding the court order showing denial of 22 writ of Habeas Corpus. Trial Court Judge
23 Susan H. Johnson signed this court order the 24 state prepared for her as the reason she 25 denied the writ of Habeas, but all it is a
26 copy, cut and paste of the States
27 Argument against the writ of Habeas.
28 There was no real decision made.
29 //

Judge Johnson signed the court order denying writ of Habeas as her reason for it, for the Judge to sign that order as it is shows she did not read the writ of Habeas or read the order drawn up by the State. This is a direct disregard for the law and the Appellants rights. This is a filing of false documents and perjury on the judges part. This creates a Misscarriage of Justice to appellant.

2) APPLICATION For Stay Of Sentence Pursuant to NRS 34.726

NRS 34.726(2) states in pertinent part:

2. The execution of a sentence must not be Stayed for the period in subsection 1 solely because a petition may be filed within that period. A stay of sentence must not be granted unless:

(a) A Petition is actually filed; and

(b) The Petitioner establishes a compelling basis for the stay.

As you can see this is an appeal from an adverse decision on a writ of Habeas and a motion to correct an illegal sentence. So as to NRS 34.726(2)(A) that requirement is met and has been met since Dec. 29, 2017.

As to NRS 34.726(2)(B) this appellant's ex-girl friend has run off and left my daughter K.L. with

1 are family members. But both sides are having 2 issues getting medical care for her and enrolling
3 her into school and other educational programs
4 because none of them have legal custody of 5 her and no one will take my signature cause
6 I'm in custody. I've tried doing power of atty
7 for certain family members to do things in my 8 place but no one will except it without an 9 official notary notarizing it. No one takes 10 it even if signed under NRS 208.165 which is 11 the perjury statute. This appellant can get 12 everything set and taken care of for his 13 family to have temporary custody while 14 he deals with his legal issues in this court.
15 If granted stay with release the appellant
16 will have access to funds that he don't 17 access to because he is in custody
18 which would allow him to take care of 19 this issue.

20 The appellant has also filed a petition
21 with multiple counts with numerous facts
22 to support each issue. The Appellants'
23 petition was never read or decided on 24 the merits by the trial Judge, there are 25 three major Constitutional violations in the 26 Appellants' case. Appellant had 27 ineffective assistance of trial Counsel,
28 ineffective assistance of Appeal Counsel,
29 and denial of discovery by the State.

1 With all of the above issues with all the 2 other issues on appeal brief and petition.
3 The appellant argued every issue raised
4 Very ~~thoroughly~~ thoroughly in his memorandum along
5 with his traverse. The appellant believes
6 had the Judge actually read the petition
7 she would have granted the petition. But 8 because the Judge didn't do her job,
9 the appellant believes that had the trial
10 judge actually read the Writ of Habeas 11 corpus filed by him he would be waiting for 12 a new trial at this time.

13 14 CONCLUSION

16 The appellant respectfully ask this
17 court to grant at least one of his request
18 for relief. The appellant ask that if this 19 court is incline to grant release him on 20 bail that they set a reasonable bail or 21 stay his sentence with release on O.R. due 22 to all the misscarriages of justice he has 23 suffered through out his case.
