CASE FACTS

This case is an appeal from an adverse decision on a Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post Conviction) which was denied on April 24, 2018. The Appellant filed his notice of Appeal on May 7, 2018. With the 8th Judicial District Court filed its official Judgment of denial on June 1, 2018, which made appellants Notice of Appeal and Appeal brief official and ready for opposition from the State. As Stated in Appellants Judicial Notice the judgement of denial was an exact copy of states opposition to Writ of Habeas with the word defendant changed to Appellants actual name.

ARGUMENT

The appellant comes to this Honorable Court asking it to set a date for Hearing on this appeal pursuant to NRS 177.215 as it was written at the time of the alleged crimes. The official day count for wait on a response since the official filing of Appellants Brief and Notice of appeal is days.

1 NRS 177.215 Date for argument, States in pertinent part:
2 unless good cause is shown for an earlier hearing, 3 the Supreme Court shall set the appeal for 4 argument on a date not less than 30 days 5 after the expiration of the time limited for 6 filing briefs and as soon thereafter as the state 7 of the calendar will permit. Preference shall be given to appeals in criminal cases over appeals in civil cases.

8 This is how it is written in the following Version 1967,

9 D. 1446 this what applies to the appellant the new 10 version took effect after alleged crimes. The Appellant 11 is entitled to the earliest date possible due to the 12 injustice done by the 8th judicial District Court, 13 when it decided to just do a blanket denial of the 14 appellants' Writ and not decide it on its merits.

15 Also appellant has valid claims of actual innocence, 16 Denial of discovery, Ineffective assistance of Trial 17 Counsel, Ineffective assistance of appellate counsel, 18 prosecutorial Misconduct and Cumulative error of 19 Due Process. Appellant believes he should not have 20 had to come back to this court for a just 21 decision from a court who is fully informed and not 22 partially informed as this court was the last time 23 his case was in front of this Honorable Court. Due 24 to counsels' incompetence and lack of knowledge 25 concerning the law pertaining to the appellants 26 case, which allowed the state misrepresent the 27 law to the courts. Creating a miscarriage of 28 justice in the appellants case.

29

CONCLUSION

So the appellant respectfully ask this court to grant this motion and set a date for hearing, preferably by the end of this year.

Dated this day of July, 2018.
