ORDER DENYING MOTION

These are pro se appeals from an order denying a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus and from an order denying a motion to correct an illegal sentence. Appellant has filed a motion for bail pending appeal and for a stay of the execution of his sentences. Appellant contends that he is mentally disabled and cannot get the care he needs in prison and that he needs to be able to assist his family. Appellant has not alleged he has previously sought bail and had such relief denied by the district court, nor has he alleged that seeking such relief in the district court is impracticable. NRS 177.145. Moreover, appellant has failed to meet his heavy burden of demonstrating that bail pending resolution of this appeal is warranted. See Bergna v. State, 120 Nev. 869, 102 P.3d 549 (2004). Accordingly, the motion for bail or suspension of his sentence is denied.

It is so ORDERED.
